Marriage and Family of Edith Sterniske 1931 to 1932 City of Breslau

Edith Sterniske from Breslau married the Amts-und Landgerichtsrat (district council and district judge) Franz Cramer. They were both Protestant. Their marriage was recorded on the 20th of May in 1931 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau (church record number 59 in 1931) and at the Breslau Standesamt II (civil record number 410 in 1931). They resided at Tauentzienstraße 62.

Birth of daughter Almut Brigitte Edith Cramer, 1932

Almut Brigitte Edith Cramer, the daughter of Edith Cramer and Edith (née Sterniske) Cramer was born on the 16th of February in 1932 (recorded at the Breslau Standesamt II, civil record number 168 in 1932). Both parents were Protestant. Note that the name Edith can be a male or female name. Its' origin is Old English.

The child was baptized on the 26th of June in 1932 (baptism number 93 in 1932) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. The baptism sponsors were: Frau Frieda Beer from Charlottenburg; Frau Regierungsbaumeister (government master builder) Martha Cramer from Breslau; the Cand. Med. (candidatus medicinae), a university medical student) Irmgard Cramer from Breslau; Frau Dr. Eva Geissler from Obernigk; Frau Dr. Ilse Cramer from Breslau; Eva Cramer from Breslau; Elinor Hubert from Greifswald and Charlotte Klein from Casel by Trier.

Family of Karl Sternitzke and Frieda (née Funke) Sternitzke 1931 to 1943 City of Breslau

This Karl Sternitzke, the husband of Frieda (née Funke) Sternitzke may have been Karl Johann Scholz-Sternitzke. He was born at Rosenthal on the 12th of November in 1903. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 6th of December in 1903. The baptism record shows he was the son of Pauline Scholz, the daughter of Ernst Scholz who lived at Mehlgasse 44 in Breslau (in 1903). The Arbeiterin Pauline Scholz from Rosenthal (probably the child's mother) was listed as the baptismal sponsor. A note on the baptism record states that the child was made legitimate by the Arbeiter Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke on the 16th of March in 1910. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke, 1906 to 1944 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Ingrid Gisela Sternitzke, 1931

Ingrid Gisela Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 2nd of January in 1931. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of January in 1931. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter Karl Sternitzke and his wife Frieda (née Funke) Sternitzke, who lived at Matthiasstraße 144 II (second floor). Karl and Frieda were listed as Protestants on the baptismal record. The church record referenced the child's birth record as number 2 in 1931 at the Breslau Standesamt III. Matthiasstraße 144 was about 8 blocks north of Sand Island. That street is now named Jedności Narodowej Street.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Catholic Arbeiter Max Sternitzke who lived at Kletschkaustraße 21, the Protestant Stütze (domestic help) Hildegard Pohl from Trebnitz, the Protestant Ehefrau Pauline Sternitzke who lived at Kletschkaustraße 21, the Catholic Werkhelfer Johann Sternitzke who lived at Kletschkaustraße 21, and the Protestant widow Martha Biste who lived at Ottostraße 48. The sponsors Johann and Pauline Sternitzke may have been the grandparents of the child: Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke (a Catholic) and his wife Christiane Pauline (née Scholz) Sternitzke (a Protestant).

Kletschkaustraße 21 and Hermannstraße 2 were addresses in the building on the corner of Kletschkaustraße and Hermannstraße. The building was two blocks north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 3rd block west of the main road to Trebnitz. Kletschkaustraße is now Kleczkowska Street. Hermannstraße is now Emila Zegadłowicza Street. The Breslau address books show there were several members of the Sternitzke family who lived in that building. They were probably related to Karl Sternitzke.

- The Kaufmann Carl Sternitzky had a shop on the ground floor, and lived on the first floor at Kletschkaustraße 21 in 1884. His address changed to Hermannstraße 2 with the same shop and apartment arrangement in 1886 and 1887.
- The Werkhelfer (factory helper) Johann Sternitzke lived at Kletschkaustraße 21 II in 1931 and 1934. He may have been Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke. His wife's name was Christiane Pauline (née Scholz) Sternitzke. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke, 1906 to 1944 City of Breslau.

Baptismal Sponsor Karl Sternitzke, 1934

The Kutscher (coachman) Karl Sternitzke (who lived at Matthiasstraße 144) was one of the baptismal sponsors for Marianne Jähnel on the 4th of November in 1934. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau.

Marianne Jähnel was born on the 25th of October in 1934 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Schmied (smith) Friedrich Jähnel, and his wife Martha (née Funke) Jähnel. The father and mother were both Protestant and they lived at Enderstraße 1 III (third floor). The other baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Fleischer (butcher) Paul Hanuschek who lived at Rebenstraße 7, the Protestant Maschinen Arbeiter Herbert Funke who lived at An den Kasernen 6, and the Reichswehr-Soldat (military soldier) Rudolf Funke who lived at Oels.

Baptismal Sponsors Karl and Frieda Sternitzke, 1938

The Arbeiter Karl Sternitzke and the Ehefrau Frieda Sternitzke were baptismal sponsors for Günter Karl Hermann Bachetzki. The baptismal record listed the residence of the Karl and Frieda Sternitzke as Schießwerderstraße 69.

Günter Karl Hermann Bachetzki was born on the 30th of November in 1938. He was the son of the Catholic Feilenschleifer (file grinder) Karl Bachetzki and his Protestant wife Anna (née Ullrich) Bachetzki. They lived in Breslau at Adlerstraße 10. Günter was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 26th of December in 1938. The other baptismal sponsors were: the Ehefrau Selma Ullrich who lived at Altwasser, Ernst Ullrich who lived at Altwasser Gotterstraße 70, the Ehefrau Elfriede (née Pohl) Ullrich who lived at Altwasser Gotterstraße 70, the Bergmann (miner) Fritz Pohl, who lived at Altwasser Gotterstraße 70, and the Ehefrau Marie Bachetzki who lived at Weidebrückerstraße. The baptismal sponsors were all Protestant.

Baptismal Sponsor Frieda Sternitzke, 1941

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Frieda Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Erhard Paul Joachim Hanuschek on the 16th of November in 1941. The baptismal record shows Frieda Sternitzke was a Protestant and lived in Breslau at Schießwerderstraße 69 in 1941.

Erhard Paul Joachim Hanuschek was born on the 3rd of September in 1941. He was the son of the Fleischer Gefreiter (butcher and lance corporal) Paul Hanuschek and his wife Gertrud (née Funke) Hanuschek. They were both Protestants and they lived at Adlerstraße 9 IV. Their son was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The other baptismal sponsors were: the widow Marie Lachetzki from Weidebrückerstraße, the widow Anni Lachetzki from Adlerstraße 10, the Hausangestellte (domestic worker) Margarete Nixdorf from Markischestraße 108, the widow Martha Hanuschek from Markischestraße 108, and the Ehefrau Frieda Spallek from Michaelisstraße 4. All of the sponsors were Protestant.

Breslau Address Books

The Arbeiter Karl Sternitzke was listed as a resident at Matthiasstraße 144 in the 1934 and 1935 Breslau address books. Matthiasstraße 144 was 8 blocks north of Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street.

The 1941 and 1943 Breslau address books listed the Kutscher (coachman) Karl Sternitzke as a resident of Breslau who lived at Schießwerderstraße 69 (now Kurkowa Street, about 8 blocks north of the University Bridge).

Baptismal Sponsor Helene Stanitzki
1933 City of Breslau

The Büroangestellte (office worker) Helene Stanitzki lived at Zietenstraße 9 in 1933. She was a Protestant. Zietenstraße is now Żytnia Street, west of the main train station and outside the old city walls.

Helene Stanitzki may have been related to the Schaffer (laborer), Paul Stanitzki (also known as Stanetzki) who lived at Klosterstraße 129 (southeast of the old city walls, now Romualda Traugutta Street, about eight blocks east of the main train station). See Paul Stanetzki in the 1918, 1923, 1931, 1934, 1935, 1941 and 1943 Breslau address books. Also see the discussion regarding the Family of Franz Paul Stanetzki, January 1906 to 1945 City of Breslau.

Helene Stanitzki was one of the baptismal sponsors for Hans Willi Rudolph. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 6th of August in 1933. He was born at Breslau on the 11th of July in 1933. He was the son of the Bürodiäter Hermann Rudolph and his wife Elfriede (née Menzel) Rudolph. They lived in Breslau at Schleiermacherstraße 14 III. The baptismal sponsors were: the widow Selma Menzel from Weißstein in Waldenburg County, the Hausgehilfin (housemaid) Johanne Menzel who lived at Gutenbergstraße 13, and the Telegraf Anwärtter (telegraph trainee) Erich Heinselmann who lived at Wärtherstraße 16.

Marriage of Wally Sternitzke and Wilhelm Strauss
September 1933 Groß Ujeschütz, Groß-Hammer and City of Breslau

One of the marriage record books for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau has an odd record dated the 28th of September in 1933. It shows that Wally Sternitzke (from Groß Ujeschütz) married the Kaufmann (merchant) Wilhelm Strauss. The church record (number 160 dated the 28th of September in 1933) is in chronological order with the other marriage records on that page. The bride and the groom were both Protestant. Their marriage was recorded at the Standesamt in Kainowe on the 28th of September in 1933 (civil record number 13). The newlyweds were residents of Groß Ujeschütz in Trebnitz County. The Breslau church record shows that the source of the data was the Protestant church at Groß-Hammer in Kreis Trebnitz.

There were several men named Wilhelm Strauß listed in the 1931, 1934 and 1935, but none of them were identified as being a Kaufmann. Perhaps the groom Wilhelm Strauß was related to one of them and was a member of the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church.

The 1937/38 address book for Trebnitz County listed a Bauer (farmer) named Otto Strauß who lived at Groß Ujeschütz. That book also listed the Kaufmann Heinz Strauß and the Kaufmannwitwe (widow of a merchant) Minna Strauß as residents in the city of Trebnitz.

1935 City of Breslau Residents: Stanetzki, Stanitzke, Starnitzke, Starnitzky, Sternitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzky

Notes: The first Roman number listed is the postal code for a section of Breslau, followed by the street name in 1935, and then followed by the building number on that street, followed by another Roman number for the floor the person lived on at that address. Note that three variations of Sternitzke were listed for the same person in this book: Auguste Stanitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzke.

Agnes Sternitzke, Witwe (widow), Zietenstraße 13. (now Żytnia Street, southwest of the old city). See the 19 December 1904 birth (at Breslau) of Helene Emilie Sternitzke, daughter of Paul Gustav Sternitzke and Agnes Berta (née Faulde) Sternitzke.

Alfred Sternitzke, Artist, X Neue Adalbertstraße 105, now kardynala Stefana Wyszyńskiego Street, north of the old city walls, near the Botanical Gardens. The artist Artur Sternitzke lived at this address in 1931 and 1934. An artist named Alfred Sternitzke lived at this address in 1935 and 1937. An artist named Fritz Sternitzke lived at this address in 1943. See the Artists Alfred and Artur Sternitzke, 1920 to 1945 City of Breslau.

Alfred Sternitzke, Rentner (retired), Gustav-Müller-Straße 59 (was also known as Mehlgasse now Ludwika Rydygiera Street north of the University, near the train station to Trebnitz). See the Birth and Death of Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke, 1877 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Anna Sternitzke, Witwe (widow), X Peuckerstraße 4 III (now Henryka Probusa Street, one block north of Sand Island). She was still living at this address in 1937. See the widow Anna Sternitzke who lived at Salzstraße 35 in 1934, 1941 and 1943. She was the widow of Ernst Sternitzke who lived at this address when Peuckerstraße was known as Neue Matthiasstraße. See the Family of Ernst Sternitzke (1859-1930), 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau.

August Sternitzke, Elektroinstallateur (electrician), I Schweitzerstraße 9 III, telephone 59177 (now Lubińska Street, west of the old city). See August Sternitzke the Elektroinstallateur (electrician) who lived at Schweitzerstraße 9 in 1923.

Auguste Stanitzke, Witwe (widow), X Kospothstraße 45 E. Note the address is the same as the listing for the Hausbesitzerin (house owner) Auguste Sternitzke. The sort by street addresses listed the owner of this building as the Fleischermeister Wittwe (master butcher's widow) A. Sternitzki. No Stanitzke or Sternitzke residents were listed as living at that address in that sort (page 1002 of 1405; the original page number was 16 in that section of the book). See the Marriage and Family of Eduard Hermann Sternitzke and Auguste Karoline Gawlitta, 1900 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Auguste Sternitzke, Hausbesitzerin (house owner), X Kospothstraße 45 I E (first floor and owner of this property), now on Ignacego Daszyńskiego Street, far north outside the old city walls. See Auguste Stanitzke.

Auguste Sternitzke, Witwe (widow), XXI Herderstraße 43 II (now Grochowa Street, south of the old city walls). See the 1931 address book.

Bertha Sternitzke (maiden name Bertha Hartmann), Bäckermeisterwitwe (widow of a master baker), Reuschestraße 10 (now Ruska Street). The section of this book sorted by addresses (shown below) read: “Eigentümer Sternitzke’sche Erben, T (telephone). V (Verwalter administrator) Sternitzke, B., Witwe (widow).” Note the Bäckermeister Alois Geschwinde lived on the rear of the building (Hinterhaus) on the first floor. See the section titled: Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Martha Sternitzke
11 December 1937 City of Breslau

The Packerin (packer) Martha Sternitzke married the Reisender (travelling salesman) Paul Kotsch at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 11th of December in 1937.

Martha Sternitzke was a Catholic. She lived at Fürstenstraße 3/5 II (second floor) before the wedding. That was the address of the Arbeiter Paul Sternitzke in the Breslau address books from 1914 to 1943. He was probably Martha's father. Fürstenstraße 3/5 was half a block east of the Botanical Gardens. It is now Benedyktyńska Street.

Paul Kotsch was a Protestant. He lived at Monhauptstraße 1c III (third floor) before the wedding, and that was the address of the couple after the wedding. That address was two buildings north from the Botanical Gardens. Monhauptstraße is now aleja Jana Matejski.

Bäckermeister Bruno Sternitzke
1938 to 1943 City of Breslau

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Bruno Sternitzke married the Verkäuferin (sales clerk) Dora Eitner at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 9th of July in 1938. The church marriage record referenced the civil marriage record as Breslau Standesamt III, record number 498 dated 9 July 1938.

Before the wedding, the groom lived at Elbingstraße 5. The bride lived at Wörtherstraße 18. They lived at Vinzenzstraße 12 after the wedding. The Breslau address books show the Bäckermeister Bruno Sternitzke was still living at Vinzenzstraße 12 in 1941 and 1943.

Bruno Sternitzke may have been Bruno Paul Sternitzke (who was baptized at Obernigk on the 19th of August in 1901), the son of Friedrich Sternitzke and Pauline (née Bartsch) Sternitzke. See Book III, Chapter 2, City of Obernigk in Trebnitz County: Baptism Records at the Protestant Church in Obernigk.

Marriage and Family of Egon Karl Franz Sternitzke
1939 to 1942 City of Breslau

Egon Karl Franz Sternitzke married Irmgard Maria Martha Wanczeck at Breslau on the 5th of July in 1939 (record number 548 in 1939 at Breslau Standesamt III). The family lived in Breslau at Enderstraße 6 in 1942 (now Henryka Pobożnego Street, 3 blocks north of the Oder and near the main road to Trebnitz). This information was listed on the death record of their son, Dieter Egon Sternitzke.

Birth and Death of son Dieter Egon Sternitzke (1942-1942)

Dieter Egon Sternitzke died on the 5th of June in 1942, at the age of 5 months old. The causes of death were identified as Lungenentzündung und Herzschwäche (pulmonary infections and heart failure). The death record referenced his birth record (number 47 in 1942, at Breslau Standesamt III). Dieter Egon Sternitzke was born on the 8th of January in 1942 according to his death record. He was a Catholic.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Pauline Luise (née Sternitzke) Bartsch
1865 Deutsch Hammer, 1887 Katholisch Hammer, 1939 Breslau

Pauline Luise Sternitzke (1865-1939) was born at Deutsch Hammer (in Trebnitz County) on the 30th of July in 1865. She married August Bartsch at Katholisch Hammer on the 7th of August in 1887. Their marriage was recorded at the Katholisch Hammer Standesamt (record number 5 in 1887).

The Landarbeiter (farmhand) August Bartsch died before his wife's death. Pauline Luise (née Sternitzke) Bartsch died at Breslau on the 30th of December in 1939. Her death record identified her as a Protestant and a Sozialrentnerin (pensioner). She died at home at Klosterstraße 62 (southeast of the old city walls, now Romualda Traugutta Street). Her death record listed the causes of her death as Arteriosklerose, Herzmuskelentzündung, Gehirnschlag und Lungenentzündung (arteriosclerosis, cardiac inflammation, brain stroke and pneumonia).

Pauline's death record was signed by the Aufwärterin Berta Bartsch, who also lived at Klosterstraße 62. Berta may have been Pauline's daughter. An Aufwärterin the modern sense of the word is a waitress. The word used to mean a woman who looked after the tenants and the building as an intermediary between the tenants and the owner of the building, in exchange for reduced rent.

Death of Karl Sternitzke 5 May 1940 City of Breslau

The death register book for the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church listed the death of Karl Sternitzke. Karl was apparently a member of the St. Trinitatis Protestant Church (about 6 blocks north of the University Bridge). The registry books typically provide little information on the death. The actual death record book was unavailable for online viewing. His death and burial information were recorded on record number 89b in the St. Elisabeth Totenbuch.

Death of Wilhelm Sternitzke (1868-1943)

Wilhelm's civil death record shows that before his death, Wilhelm Sternitzke was a retired Postassistent (postal assistant). He lived at Bohrauer Straße 105 in Breslau. Wilhelm Sternitzke died at the Landes-Krankenhaus Nord at Einbaumstraße 25 in Breslau on the 11th of April in 1943. He was a Protestant. His death record listed the cause of death as Hirnarterienverkalkung und Lungenoedem (pulmonary arteries and pulmonary edema).

The 1942 to 1944 burial record book from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau included the burial record for the retired Postassistent (postal assistant) Wilhelm Sternitzke. The information for that record was provided by his widow, Christiane Sternitzke who signed the church record (see below). The church record shows Wilhelm was born on the 13th of December in 1868. It incorrectly listed his place of birth as Groß Lase in Kreis Nimptsch. He died on the 11th of April in 1943 at the age of 75 years old. The cause of his death was listed as Gehirnverkalkung (stroke due to brain calcification). His death record was number 730 in 1943 at the Breslau Standesamt III. He was buried on the 15th of April in 1903 at Friedhof I.

Family of Elfriede (née Stanetzky) Studt August 1943 City of Breslau and Wasserborn

The Technischer Angestellter (technical employee) Willi Studt and his wife Elfriede (née Stanetzky) Studt lived at Lehmdamm 19II in August of 1943. Lehmdamm 19 was one block north of the Botanical Gardens. It is now called now Bolesława Prusa Street. Willi was a member of the Gottgläubig religious movement. Elfriede was a Protestant. The Gottgläubig religious movement was an unorganized religion recognized by the Nazi party, for people who did not want to belong to the traditional Christian denominations.

Birth of daughter Marianne Brigitte Studt, 1943

Their daughter Marianne Brigitte Studt was born at Breslau on the 14th of August in 1943. Her birth record was number 1090 in 1943 at the Breslau Standesamt I. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 12th of September in 1943. The baptismal sponsors were: the Ehefrau Martha Günsch, who lived at Fritz Geislerstraße 6, the Hausangestellte Berta Tretschler, who lived at the village Wasserborn, the Ehefrau Emma Stanetzky who lived at Wasserborn, the widow Gertrud Pfeiffer who lived at Lehmdamm 19, and the Ehefrau Agnes Volkal who lived at Fritz Geislerstraße 6. All of the sponsors were Protestant.

A 1941 map of Breslau shows Fritz Geislerstraße was about 5 blocks east of the St. John Catholic Cathedral. A Breslau map from 1850 shows that street was named Selenkestraße. Modern maps show it is now named Ładna Street.

Wasserborn was a town located 5 miles southeast from the old city walls of Breslau. Prior to 1937, Wasserborn was known as Radwanitz in Breslau County. The population of Wasserborn was 1377 in 1939. It is now named Radwanice, Poland.

Death of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke 15 December 1943, City of Breslau

David Hermann Sternitzke married Elisabeth Ziebe at Sulau on the 20th of November in 1888. Their marriage was recorded on the 1943 death record of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke, which referenced the marriage record number 19 in 1888 at the Sulau Standesamt (civil registry office) at Sulau in Militsch County. See the Marriage of David Hermann Sternitzke and Elisabeth Ziebe, 1888 Sulau.

Elisabeth Ziebe was born on the 19th of January in 1863 at Peterkaschütz in Militsch County. She was the daughter of Gottfried Ziebe and Anna Rosina (née Döring) Ziebe, who last resided at Peterkaschütz. Peterkaschütz was named Lachmannshofen in 1937. It is now named Piotrkosice, Poland.

David Hermann Sternitzke died at Donkawe in Militsch County on the 14th of August in 1922, at the age of 72 years. See the Death of David Hermann Sternitzke, 1922 Donkawe.

The widow Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke died at home in Breslau on the 15th of December 1943. She had lived at Gräschener Straße 16 (about 4 blocks from the southwest corner of the old moat, now Grabiszyńska Street). Elisabeth was a Protestant. The causes of Elisabeth's death were listed as Aderverkalkung und Gehirnschlag (venous calcification and cerebral apoplexy).

Elisabeth's death was reported by Martha (née Sternitzke) Friebe, who lived at the same address and was probably her daughter. The 1943 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiterin (laborer) Frau Martha Friebe, but not Elisabeth Sternitzke as a resident at Gräschener Straße 16.

Burial of Theresia (née Hannes) Sternitzke (c.1912-1944) January 1944 City of Breslau

The 1941-1944 alphabetical register for burials at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen shows Theresia (née Hannes) Sternitzke was buried on the 13th of January in 1944. She was buried at field 87, plot 530. She died at the age of 32 years old, so she was born around 1912. She was the wife of the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Sternitzke. He may have been the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Sternitzke who was listed in the 1941 and the 1943 Breslau address books as a resident at I Löschstraße 37 IV (5 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Ignacego Prądyńskiego Street).

Death of Walter Sternitzke January 1944 City of Breslau

The death of Walter Sternitzke was recorded at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. According to the register book (an index of the records), Walter Sternitzke was a kaufmännischer Angestellter (merchant's employee). He was 42 years old when he died, so he was born around 1902. Walter was Urnenbeisetzung (cremated) and he was buried on the 21st of January in 1944.

There are two records of his burial, with slightly different information. The register of burials at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen from 1941 to 1944 listed his age as 42 when he died. The alphabetical directory of urn burials at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen from 1940 to 1944 listed his age as 43 when he died. Both records show his urn was buried in field number 4 in that cemetery at plot number 351. Both records show he was buried by the congregation of the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church.

Marriage of Christine Wilhelmine Sternitzky 1944 Breslau

Christine Wilhelmine Sternitzky was born on the 18th of August in 1920 at Düsseldorf in the German State of North Rhine-Westphalia. She was baptized in a Protestant church at Düsseldorf. In 1944, she was a resident of Reinort Straße 6 at Düsseldorf. Her mother was identified in Christine's marriage record as Katharina (née Fischer) Altfelder who lived at Düsseldorf and at Theresenstraße 3 in Breslau. The name of Christine's father's name was unknown.

Christine Wilhelmine Sternitzky married Walter Stengritt on the 16th of November in 1944 at the Breslau registry office. They were married at the St. Trinitatis Church in Breslau on the 22nd of November in 1944.

Walter Stengritt was born at Breslau on the 29th of May in 1921. He was baptized at the St. Trinitatis Protestant church at Breslau. He was the son of the Dreher (lathe worker) Max Stengritt and Gertrud (née Knetsch) Stengritt. They lived in Breslau at Theresenstraße 3.

They were both Protestant. In 1944, Walter Stengritt was serving in the German Army as a Unteroffizier (lance sergeant) in a reserve artillery unit.

Death of Hedwig Stanitzke 1946 City of Breslau

The 1908 to 1946 death register book from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church shows that Hedwig Stanitzke died at Breslau in 1946. The 1945 to September 1948 burial record book from that church was downloaded from the National Archive in Wrocław. Only the covers of the book were scanned and available for review. Perhaps the contents of that book were destroyed or withheld due to privacy laws.

The woman listed as Hedwig Stanitzke may have been Hedwig Mathilda (née Böhm) Sternitzke. See the Family of Johann Karl August Sternitzke and Hedwig Mathilda (née Böhm) Sternitzke, 20 June 1889 to 1934 City of Breslau.

Village of Alt Scheitnig in Breslau County

The village of Alt Scheitnig (sometimes written as Altscheitnig) was within the old northeastern fortifications of Breslau, at the eastern edge of the Hinterdom District. The Hinterdom District was the area to the east of the Breslauer Dom (the Cathedral of St. John the Baptist). A 1900 map of the Breslau suburbs also shows Szczyrniki was the Polish name of the village Alt Scheitnig. The Szczytniki name of the village dates back to 1318. In 1204, the village was known as Stitnik.

Erich Bertold Sternitzke 1896 to 1935 City of Breslau, 1926 to 1939 Carlowitz

According to his marriage record, Erich Bertold Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 5th of April in 1896. He was 23 years old when he was married at Breslau on the 13th of November in 1919, to Johanna Heinrich. Erich was a Protestant, employed as a Kaufmann (merchant) and lived in Breslau at Sonnenstraße 7 (2 blocks southwest of the city moat, now Pawłowa Iwana Street). Erich was not listed at Sonnenstraße 7 in the 1918 Breslau address book. At the time of the wedding in 1919, Erich's parents, the Fleischer (butcher) Karl Sternitzke and Johanna (née Eisler) Sternitzke were both deceased. See the Marriage and Family of the Fleischermeister Carl Sternitzky, 1880 to 1939 City of Breslau.

Johanna Heinrich was born on the 9th of November in 1902 at Friedland in Falkenberg County. She was 17 years old when she married Erich Sternitzke in 1919. She was the daughter of the Handelsmann (merchant) Ismar Heinrich and his wife Paula (née Mendel) Heinrich. The 1918 Breslau address book listed the Handelsmann Ismar Heinrich as living at Sonnenstraße 7 II (second floor). According to her marriage record, Johanna Heinrich was Jewish, employed as a Verkäuferin and lived at the same address as the groom in 1919, which was also her parents' address.

The wedding witnesses were the Kaufmann (merchant) Hugo Heinrich and the 38 years old Druckereibesitzer (printing press owner) Maximilian Fordan. Hugo Heinrich lived at Schulbrücke 14. Maximilian Fordan lived at Gottschallstraße 15 (he was also listed at that address in the 1918 address book).

The 1926, 1927, 1928, 1931 and 1934 Breslau address books listed a Kaufmann Erich Sternitzke who lived at the village Carlowitz. Carlowitz became a northeastern suburb of the city of Breslau in 1939. Erich Sternitzke lived at Konstantine-Schnier-Straße 4 II (second floor) in 1926, 1927 and 1928. He lived at Konstantin-Schnier-Straße 112 II in 1931 and 1934.

The 1930 Breslau Synagogue membership address list included Hanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke, the wife of Mr. Sternitzke. They lived at Carlowitz. The membership list shows Hanna was born on the 9th of November in 1902. She was a member of the Breslau Synagogue community.

Birth of daughter Ruth Luise Rosalie Sternitzke, 1921

Ruth Luise Rosalie Sternitzke was born on 9th of March in 1921. She was baptised at the home of her parents on the 24th of August in 1921, and the baptism was recorded at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. A note in the margin of the baptism record listed her baptism as a Nottaufe - an emergency baptism for individuals near death. Her parents were the Kaufmann (merchant) Erich Sternitzke and Johanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke. They lived at Weinstraße 42 (about 4 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens, now Stanisława Żeromskiego Street). The father was a Protestant. The mother, Johanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke was listed as Jewish on the baptismal record. The baptismal sponsors were Fräulein Gertrud Gnerich and Fräulein Emma Gnerich. Both sponsors were Protestant and were from the village Carlowitz.

Attachments to the 1919 Wedding Record, 1935 & 1939

Two important documents were attached to the wedding record of Erich Bertold Sternitzke and Johanna Heinrich. The first document shows that they were divorced on the 31st of July in 1935 at Breslau.

The second document (shown below) dated the 18th of January in 1939 shows that the first name Sara was being added to the name of Johanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke. That addition was required under by the Namensänderungsverordnung (Regulation of Name Changes) of 17 August 1938. All Jews with first names of non-Jewish origin had to add the middle names Sara for women and Israel for men. Any violation of the regulation resulted in imprisonment.

Postwar Records

The Holocaust Survivors and Victims Database lists Hanna Sternitzke as a resident of Breslau before the Second World War. She survived the war and lived at Erfurt in the German state of Thuringia.

Family of Paul Franz Julius Sternitzke and Gertrud Johanna Angelika (née Blaik) Sternitzke

Birth and Death of daughter Johanna Luise Sternitzke, 1912 Cosel

Johanna Luise Sternitzke was born at Cosel on the 29th of September in 1912. That date was calculated from her age (15 days old) when she died at Cosel on the 14th of October in 1912. She was a Catholic. Her parents were the königliche Zollaufseher (royal customs guard) Paul Sternitzke and Gertrud (née Blaik) Sternitzke, who lived at Cosel.

Stillborn daughter Sternitzke, 1913 Cosel

The königliche Zollaufseher (royal customs guard) Paul Sternitzke and Gertrud (née Blaik) Sternitzke were both Catholics who lived at Cosel. Paul Sternitzke reported the stillborn death of a daughter in their home at Cosel. The baby died on the 20th of July in 1913.

Birth and Death of son Bruno Sternitzke (1915-1943)

Paul Franz Julius Sternitzke and Gertrud Johanna Angelika (née Blaik) Sternitzke moved to Dietzdorf in Neumarkt County between 1913 and 1915. Their son Bruno Sternitzke was born on the 16th of December in 1915 at Dietzdorf.

During the Second World War Bruno Sternitzke served as an Obergefreiter (Corporal) and was killed in action on the 13th of February in 1943, at Orechowo in the Ukraine. Bruno Sternitzki was buried at Charkow Sammelfreidhof, Ukraine, Block 12, Row 28, Grave 5024.

See Chapter 7: Village of Dietzdorf in Neumarkt County, the Birth, Marriage and Death of Bruno Sternitzke, 1915 Dietzdorf, 1941-1943 Gleiwitz, 1943 Orechowo (Ukraine).

The Zollsekretär (customs secretary) Paul Franz Julius Sternitzke was apparently dead before the death of his son. The death record of Bruno (dated the 27th of July in 1943) listed the last residence of his father Paul Sternitzke as at Dietzdorf. Paul's wife, Gertrud Johanna Angelika (née Blaik) Sternitzke was listed as living at Breslau at the time of her son's death.

Circa 1888 Klein Ujeschütz, WWI Soldier, Deutsch Lissa 1923 to after 1943

Fritz Sternitzki was born at Klein Ujeschütz in Trebnitz County around 1888. He was the son of Daniel Sternitzki (c.1853-1920) who was a Landwirth (farmer) at Klein Ujeschütz. Daniel Sternitzki was one of the five sons of Johann Sternitzki (1817-1904) and Helene (née Fischer) Sternitzki (1813-1885) who were Freistellenbesitzers (free property owners) at Klein

Ujeschütz. See Book III, Chapter 6, Village of Donkawe in Militsch County: Family Tree of David Hermann Sternitzke.

Fritz Sternitzki from Klein Ujeschütz served as a Kürassier (cavalryman) in the Leib-Kürassier Regiment Nr. 1 (Breslau), 5th Squadron. He was reported to have been severely wounded in battle at France (reported 8 October 1914).

After the war, Fritz Sternitzki became a Postschaffner (post office worker), and lived at Marienstraße 4 Erdgeschoß (ground floor) in Deutsch Lissa (in Breslau County). The 1923 Breslau address book listed him as Fritz Sternitzky. Fritz died sometime after 1943. See the discussion below regarding the Breslau address books.

Breslau Address Books Sternitzke Family Members at Deutsch Lissa (Breslau-Lissa)

The 1923 Breslau address book listed the Postschaffner (post office worker) Fritz Sternitzky as a resident at Marienstraße 4 Erdgeschoß (ground floor) in Deutsch Lissa.

The 1926 and 1927 Breslau address books listed the Postschaffner Fritz Sternitzke at Marienstraße 4 in Deutsch Lissa.

The 1928 Breslau address book list him as the Postschaffner Fritz Stanitzke, who lived in Deutsch Lissa at Siedlungs-Dreieck 4a. His name was spelled Stanitzke in the sort by names and in the sort by addresses in Deutsch Lissa.

The 1931 Breslau address book listed him as the Postschaffner F. Sternitzke as a resident at and the owner of Siedlungs-Dreieck 3a.

The 1934 address book listed the Postschaffner Fritz Sternitzke in Deutsch Lissa at Maltcher Straße 5 Erdgeschoß (ground floor).

The 1935 Breslau address book listed Fritz Sternitzki, in the sort by last name. He was listed as Fritz Sternitzke in the sort by addresses. In both sorts, he was listed as a Postschaffner (post office worker), who lived at Maltcher Straße 5 in the village Deutsch Lissa. He lived on the Erdgeschoß (ground floor) and was the owner of the property. Maltcher Straße is now known as now Małoszyńska Street in the city Wrocław-Leśnica.

The 1937 Breslau address book (sorted by last name) listed him twice with the same address, but with two spellings of his name Fritz Sternitzke and Fritz Sternitzki. The sort by address listed him once as Fritz Sternitzke. In both sorts, he was listed as a Postschaffner (post office worker), who lived at Maltcher Straße 5 in the village Deutsch Lissa.

The 1941 Breslau address book listed him as Fritz Sternitzke the Postschaffner (post office worker), who lived at Maltcher Straße 5 in the Breslau suburb Breslau-Lissa. Maltcher Straße is now Małoszyńska Street in the suburb Wrocław- Leśnika of the city Leśnika, northwest of Wrocław). Also in 1941, Marta Sternitzke was listed as an Ober Wachtmeisterin (senior patrolwoman) at the village Breslau-Lissa. She also lived at Maltcher Straße 5.

The 1943 Breslau address book listed Fritz Sternitzke as the PostBetrWart. (possibly a Post-Beamter Wärter, post office guard), who lived at Maltcher Straße 5 Erdgeschoß (ground floor). Marta Sternitzke was listed as a Hauptwachtmeisterin (sergeant major) at the village Lissa. She also lived at Maltcher Straße 5.

Gottlieb Kretschmer Family 1864 to 1904 Gräbschen

There were several records regarding the family of Gottlieb Kretschmer (c.1834-1901) from Gräbschen. There are conflicts in those records regarding the first name of Gottlieb's wife. The records are summarized here with directions to where the detailed descriptions can be found. The detailed descriptions have been kept separate in case evidence is found that shows there were two men named Gottlieb Kretschmer who lived at Gräbschen at the same time, and who were both married to Sternitzke women.

- Anna Johanna Kretschmer was born at Gräbschen on the 29th of April in 1864. Her baptism record listed her as the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Kretschmer and Johanna (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. See the Birth of Anna Johanna Kretschmer, 1864 Gräbschen.
- Pauline Anna Rosina Kretschmer was born at Gräbschen on the 8th of September in 1866. Her baptism record listed her as the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Kretschmer and Johanna (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. The name of the mother of Pauline Anna Rosina Kretschmer was written on the baptism record as Johanna née Sternitzke. Johanna was crossed out and corrected to read Anna Elisabeth née Sternitzke. See the Birth of Pauline Anna Rosina Kretschmer, 1866 Gräbschen.
- Johann Carl Paul Kretschmer was born at Gräbschen on the 6th of March in 1869. His baptism record listed him as the son of Johann Carl Gottlieb Kretschmer and Anna Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. See the Birth of Johann Carl Paul Kretschmer, 1869 Gräbschen.
- Ernst Paul Hermann Kretschmer was born on the 26th of February in 1871 at Gräbschen. His 1871 baptism record and his 1897 marriage record listed his mother's name as Johanna (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. She was the wife of the railroad switchman Gottlieb Kretschmer. See the Birth and Marriage of Ernst Paul Hermann Kretschmer, 1871 and 1897 Gräbschen.
- Anna Rosina Maria Kretschmer was born at Gräbschen on the 21st of December in 1872. Her baptism record shows she was the daughter of the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Gottlieb Kretschmer and Johanna (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. See the Birth of Anna Rosina Maria Kretschmer, 1872 Gräbschen.
- Johann Ernst Kretschmer was born on the 25th of August in 1876 at Gräbschen. His 1903 marriage record listed his mother's name as Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. She was the wife of the deceased railroad switchman Gottlieb Kretschmer. See the Birth and Marriage of Johann Ernst Kretschmer, 1876 and 1903 Gräbschen.

- Bertha Martha Kretschmer was born at Gräbschen on the 23rd of August in 1880. She was the daughter of the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Gottlieb Kreschmer and Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. The child died in her parent's home at Gräbschen on the 2nd of November in 1880. See the Birth and Death of Bertha Martha Kretschmer, 1880 Gräbschen.
- Johann Adolf Kretschmer was born on the 20th of October in 1881 at Gräbschen. His 1904 marriage record listed his mother's name as Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. She was the wife of the deceased railroad switchman Gottlieb Kretschmer. Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer was still living at Gräbschen at the time of her son's wedding in 1904. See the Birth and Marriage of Johann Adolf Kretschmer, 1881 and 1904 Gräbschen.
- The 1901 civil death record of Gottlieb Kretschmer listed his wife's name as Johanna (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer. See the Death of Gottlieb Kretschmer, 1901 Gräbschen.

Anna Johanna Kretschmer was born at Gräbschen on the 29th of April in 1864. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Kretschmer and Johanna (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer.

Anna Johanna Kretschmer was baptized on the 18th of May in 1864 at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. Her baptism sponsors were: Eleonore Kasper the second daughter of the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) David Kasper from Gross Mochbern; the Knecht (servant) Carl Reuschenau from Gräbschen; and Caroline (née Walter) Babuke the wife of the Arbeiter Carl Babuke from Romberg. The village Romberg in Breslau County is now named Samotwór (located four miles west of Wrocław).

Eleonore Kasper the second daughter of the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) David Kasper from Gross Mochbern was also a baptismal sponsor for Johanna Rosina Sternitzke, the illegitimate daughter of Johanna Sternitzke. Johanna Rosina Sternitzke was born on the 8th of February in 1863 at Opperau. She was baptized at the St. Salvatore Church on 15th of February in 1863. Her mother Johanna Sternitzke was the daughter of the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Friedrich Sternitzke from Opperau. He died at a Breslau hospital before 1863. See the Family of Friedrich Sternitzke, 1863 Opperau.

Family of Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Reim
1858 to 1861 Pinkotschine, 1858 to 1892 Gräbschen

Susanna Helene Sternitzke was born on the 23rd of March in 1823. She was a daughter of Johann Sternitzke (SN316) and Marie Elisabet (née Drechsler) Sternitzke. See Chapter 15 Briesche, Sternitzke Family Personal Data for Briesche: the Family of Johann Sternitzke (c.1785-after 1858, SN316).

Susanna Helene Sternitzke married Friedrich Wilhelm Bartsch around 1850. Their daughter, Anna Rosina Auguste Bartsch was born at Polnisch Hammer around 1851. Anna Rosina Auguste Bartsch married Heinrich Schmidt at Gräbschen on the 12th of December in 1875 (see below).

Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Bartsch married Gustav Carl Reim around 1857. Gustav was born at Klein Oldern in Breslau County on the 6th of April in 1826. He was a Bahnarbeiter und Hausbesitzer (railroad worker and home owner) at Gräbschen. He died on the 13th of November in 1889 at Gräbschen.

Birth of daughter Karoline Louise Reim, 1858 Pinkotschine

In 1858, Gustav Reim and his wife Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Reim lived at Pinkotschine in Militsch County. Their daughter Karoline Louise Reim was born there on the 12th of September in 1858.

Birth and Death of Gustav Carl Reim (junior, 1860-1930)

Gustav Carl Reim (junior) was born on the 9th of January in 1860. He was the son of Gustav Reim and Susanna (née Sternitzke) Reim. Gustav, the son emigrated to the United States in June in 1883. He died on the 4th of November in 1930 at Detroit, Michigan. His death record listed his birthplace as Breslau, which is probably an error because his younger sister was born at Pinkotschine in Militsch County. He applied for a passport for a trip to Germany on the 13th of March in 1922.

Birth and Death of daughter Christiane Ernestine Reim (1861-1884)

Christiane Ernestine Reim was born at Pinkotschine in Militsch County on the 15th of August in 1861. She died at the her parents' home at Gräbschen on the 13th of January in 1884.

Birth of son Friedrich Hermann Reim, 1868

The Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gustav Reim and his wife Anna (née Stanetzki) Reim lived at Gräbschen in 1868. Their son, Friedrich Hermann Reim was born on the 4th of January in 1868 at Gräbschen. He was the son of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gustav Reim and his wife Anna (née Stanetzki) Reim. The child was baptized on the 19th of January in 1868 at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: the Tagearbeiter Ernst Kluge from Breslau; Johanna (née Hoffmann) Liebsch the wife of the Gräbschen Tagearbeiter Gottlieb Liebsch; and Maria (née Tödter) Lenschner the wife of the Maurer Robert Lenschner from Gräbschen.

Baptism sponsor Karoline Reim, 1874 Breslau

Karoline Reim, the first daughter of the Tagearbeiter Gustav Reim at Gräbschen was one of the baptismal sponsors at the baptism of Ida Bertha Martha Bartsch. The child was born on the 18th of March in 1874. She was the daughter of Ernst Bartsch and Anna (née Maier) Bartsch who were residents of Gräbschen.

The child was baptized at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau on the 3rd of April in 1874. The other baptismal sponsors were: Auguste Bartsch the third daughter of deceased Müllermeister (master miller) Wilhelm Bartsch from Gräbschen; and Richard Henkel from Breslau.

Marriage of daughter Anna Rosina Auguste Bartsch, 1875 Gräbschen

Anna Rosina Auguste Bartsch married the Maurer (mason) Heinrich Schmidt at Gräbschen on the 12th of December in 1875. Her marriage record shows that she was 24 years old at the time of the wedding, so she was born around 1851. She was born at Polnisch Hammer in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Friedrich Wilhelm Bartsch who died at Polnisch Hammer, and his wife Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Bartsch, who later became Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Reim.

The bride and the groom were both Protestant and residents of Gräbschen. Heinrich Schmidt was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Gottlieb Schmidt and his wife Emilie (née Menzel) Schmidt, who were residents of Gräbschen. The wedding witnesses were: the 27 years old Eisenbahn (railroad) Station Assistant Ernst Bartsch who lived at Königszelt, and the 53 years old Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Gottlieb Schmidt from Gräbschen. Ernst Bartsch may have been a son of Friedrich Wilhelm Bartsch and Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Bartsch.

There is a long legal note on the 1875 marriage record. Apparently, Heinrich Schmidt adopted the illegitimate daughter of Anna Rosina Auguste Bartsch. Her daughter, Anna Auguste Bertha Bartsch was born on the 14th of September in 1872.

Marriage of daughter Karoline Louise Reim, 1886 Breslau

Karoline Louise Reim married Johann Gottlob Gäse at Breslau on the 24th of March in 1886. Johann Gottlob Gäse was born on the 27th of 1839 at Karowahne in Breslau County. He was the son of David Gäse and Rosine (née Ratsch) Gäse. He was a Protestant. The wedding witnesses were: the 49 years old Schmiedemeister (master blacksmith) August Gäse from Polnisch Neudorf in Breslau County, and the 33 years old Hausbesitzer (house owner) Heinrich Schmidt from Gräbschen.

Death of Auguste Sternitzke, 1892 Gräbschen

Auguste Sternitzke was born at Briesche on the 8th of February in 1873. She was the daughter of the Briesche resident Johann Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Wegner) Sternitzke.

In 1892, Auguste Sternitzke was employed as a Dienstmagd (servant girl or maid) and lived with her aunt, the widow and Hausbesitzerin (homeowner) Susanna (née Sternitzke) Reim at Gräbschen. Susanna was a sister of Auguste's father Johann Sternitzke.

Auguste Sternitzke died at the home of her aunt Susanna (née Sternitzke) Reim, at Gräbschen on the 15th of September in 1892. Auguste died at the age of 18 years old. Both of Auguste's parents had died before Auguste's death.

Villages of Groß Mochbern and Klein Mochbern in Breslau County

Groß Mochbern was known as Mochbor in 1360. The village named Klein Mochbor dates to 1388. A map from 1855 shows the villages as Gross and Klein Mochbern. A St. Elisabeth church book from 1864 named these villages and Groß and Klein Mochber. A map from 1900 (see below) showed them as Gross Mochbern and Klein Machbern. Groß Mochbern was renamed as Lohbrück (in 1937) and it is now known as Muchobor Wielki. Klein Mochbern is now the Wrocław suburb Muchobór Mały. The population of Lohbrück was 2,975 in 1939. Groß Mochbern in Breslau County was about 4 miles west of the city center of Breslau. Klein Mochbern was about 2 miles from the Breslau city center.

The Protestants at both villages were typically members of the St. Barbara Church in Breslau. The Catholics at Gross Mochbern were typically members of the St. Nicolai Church in Breslau. The Catholics at Klein Mochbern were typically members of the St. Nicolai Church and the Corpus Christi Church in Breslau.

Death of Pauline Auguste Kühne 1864 Groß and Klein Mochber, 1873 Breslau

A curious record can be found in the 1864 St. Elisabeth Church death record book. It first listed the death of Auguste Sternitzke and it was changed to the death of Pauline Auguste

Kühne. A note dated the 17th of March in 1873 on the record translates as: „the corrections in this entry are done by order of the court after an interview with the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke. His daughter was not the girl who died.”

Original Record

Auguste Sternitzke, the daughter of the Lohngärtner Gottlieb Sternitzke at Klein Mochber, died on the 19th of September in 1864 at the age of 6 years, 1 month and 8 days. She was buried at Klein Mochber on the 22nd of September in 1864.

A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden.

Revised Record

Pauline Auguste Kühn, the daughter of the widow Johanne Eleonore (née Wolf) Kühn, died on the 19th of September in 1864 at the age of 8 years and 6 months. She was buried at Gross Mochber on the 22nd of September.

Family of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941) 1891 to 1897 Klein Tschansch

Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941) was born at Briesche (in Trebnitz County) on the 6th of February in 1862. Hermann's 1941 death record shows he married Auguste Rosina Deutschmann on the 10th of January in 1891 at Breslau (recorded at Breslau Standesamt I, record number 9 in 1891). Hermann's parents were the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke and Anna Christiane (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, who last lived at Breslau. See Book I, Chapter 15: Briesche, the Birth and Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke 1832 to 1877 Briesche. See Book III: Chapter 1, City of Breslau, the Deaths of Gottlieb and Anna Christiane Sternitzke, 1910 & 1911 City of Breslau.

Stillborn son Sternitzke, 1891

On the 11th of November in 1891 the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Sternitzke reported that his unnamed son died during child birth on that date. Hermann and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke were living at Klein Tschansch at that time. He listed his religion as Protestant and his wife's religion as Catholic.

The burial book for the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau listed the burial of a stillborn son of an Arbeiter Sternitzke and his wife. The baby was buried on the 14th of November in 1841. According to the burial book the death of the baby was recorded at the local Standesamt on record number 1057 (which matches the number of the death record reported by Herrmann Sternitzke). The burial book listed the Sternitzke family as residents of the village Althof-Nass (see the 1855 map above and the 1900 map below). They may have been residents of Klein Tschansch and reported the death at the Standesamt at Althof-Nass.

Birth and Death of daughter Frieda Auguste Bertha Sternitzke (1893-1894)

Frieda Auguste Bertha Sternitzke was born at Klein Tschansch on the 14th of March in 1893. She was baptized on the 26th of March in 1893 at the St. Christophori Protestant Church at Breslau. The baptism record identified Frieda's parents as the Hilfsweichensteller (assistant railroad switchman) Herrmann Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke (a Catholic). The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiter Tochter (daughter of a laborer) Otilie Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Mehlgasse 57 in Breslau, the baby's uncle the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Breslau and the baby's uncle the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura (a Catholic) from Breslau. Otilie Sternitzke was probably the sister of Herrmann Sternitzke.

Frieda Auguste Bertha Sternitzke died at her parents' home at Klein Tschansch, on the 9th of January in 1894. Frieda was identified as a Protestant on her death record. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke.

The burial record book of the St. Christophori Protestant Church listed the burial of Frieda Sternitzke on the 12th of January in 1894. It listed her parents as the Arbeiter Sternitzke'schen Eheleute (married people) Klein-Tschansch. The cause of death was listed as Keuchhusten (whooping cough). Frieda was 9 months and 25 days old when she died. The burial record references the Breslau Standesamt death record number 26.

Wedding Witness Hermann Sternitzke, 1893

Birth and Death of son Heinrich Hermann Reinhold Sternitzke (1894-1918)

Heinrich Hermann Reinhold Sternitzke was born on the 12th of December in 1894. He was baptized at the St. Christophori Protestant Church at Breslau on the 26th of December in 1894. The baptism record identified the parents as the Hilfswweichensteller (assistant railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke (a Catholic). The baptismal sponsors were: the baby's aunt the Arbeiterfrau (wife of a laborer) Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura (a Protestant) from Breslau, the Köchin (cook) Emilie Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Berlin, the baby's uncle the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura (a Catholic) from Breslau and the baby's uncle Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Löwen (in Brieg County).

Heinrich Sternitzke served in the German military during the First World War. Military casualty reports listed him as killed in action on the 25th of May in 1918.

Birth and Death of son Fritz Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzke (1896-1918)

Fritz Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzke was born in the family home at Klein Tschansch in Breslau County, on the 22nd of December in 1896. His parents, the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Sternitzke and Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke were both Protestants and lived at Klein Tschansch. The baby was baptized at the St. Christophori Protestant Church at Breslau on the 1st of January in 1897. The baptism record identified the parents as the Lohnarbeiter Hermann Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke (a Protestant).

The baptismal sponsors were: the Weichenstellerfrau (railroad switchman's wife) Bertha (née Quarder) Deutschmann (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch, the baby's uncle the Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Reuschestraße 3 in Breslau and the baby's uncle the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura (a Catholic) from Marienstraße 7 in Breslau. See the City of Breslau: the Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Fritz Sternitzke served in the German military during the First World War. Military casualty reports listed him as lightly wounded on the 25th of September in 1917. A report from the 25th of October in 1918 shows Fritz Sternitzke died from illness.

Births of Twin Sternitzke Children at Breslau, 1902

The twins Alfred Franz Hermann Sternitzke and Elfriede Martha Auguste Sternitzke were born at Breslau on the 16th of May in 1902. The Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke were Protestants who lived at Bärenstraße 11 (now Niedźwiedzia Street, about 1.5 miles northwest of the old city walls in the Pöpelwitz suburb).

Death of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941)

In 1941, Hermann was a Protestant and a Stellwerksmeister außer Dienst (retired (railroad switchyard master)). His address prior to his death was Promnitzstraße 42 (now Białowieska Street, in a far northwest section of Breslau near the Pöpelwitz train station). See the Marriage, Family and Death of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1891 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Rosina Helene Starnitzke, 1834

Rosina Helene Starnitzke was born on the 10th of May in 1834. She was the daughter of the Einwohner und Tagarbeiter (resident and day laborer) Gottlieb Starnitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Pawelt) Starnitzke from Neudorf.

Rosina Helene Starnitzke was baptized on the 18th of May in 1834 at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: Frau Rosina (née Beyer) Metzner the wife of Carl Metzner from the Ohlauer Vorstadt (a suburb of Breslau), the Jungfrau (maiden) Eleonora Metzner the youngest daughter of the Gärtner Gottfried Metzner from Bankau, and the Hebamme (midwife) Frau Rosina (née Michael) John.

There were several villages in Silesia named Bankau. The village named Bankau in Öls County was closest to Breslau. It is now named Bąków in Wrocław County, Poland. It is about 8 miles northeast of Wrocław.

Baptism Sponsor Rosine Starnitzke, 1835

The Tagarbeitsfrau (wife of a day laborer) Rosine Starnitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Johann Karl Julius Mexner, the son of Johann Karl Mexner and Rosine (née Beier) Mexner. The father's surname was originally written as Meyer and then written as Mexner. The parents were certainly the Carl Metzner and Rosina (née Beyer) Metzner who were identified in the baptism record for Rosina Helene Starnitzke in 1834 (see above). The Mexner child was born on the 24th of August and baptized on the 31st of August in 1835 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The other baptism sponsors were: Maria Ulbrich in Diensten (servant) and the Hebamme (midwife) Maria Schmidt.

Birth of son Johann Wilhelm Starnitzke, 1842

Johann Wilhelm Starnitzke was born on the 2nd of February in 1842. He was the son of the Neudorf Tagearbeiter Gottlieb Starnitzke and Rosina (née Pavelt) Starnitzke.

Johann Wilhelm Starnitzke was baptized on the 6th of February at the St. Salvator Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were: Wilhelm Walter who was a Bauer (farmer) from Zedlitz (near Steinau am Oder), Pauline Nantke from Breslau, and Juliane Grun the daughter of the Friseur (barber) Georg Grun from Breslau.

Marriage of Ursula Dora Berta Sternitzke 13 March 1937 Opperau and Breslau

Ursula Sternitzke and the Kaufmann Martin Konrad Vogel were Protestants and residents of Opperau. They were married at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 13th of March in 1937. The civil record for their marriage was recorded at the Standesamt office in Gross Machbern (record Nr 5 in 1937).

Ursula Dora Berta Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 9th of March in 1912. At that time, her parents the Bautechniker (construction engineer) Friedrich Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Anna Martha (née Jesse) Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Alexisstraße 5 (about 8 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Spizowa Street). They were both Protestant. The birth record was signed by the midwife Hedwig Thomanek. A note on the birth record shows that Ursula Dora Berta Sternitzke was married in 1937, as was recorded on record number 5 in 1937 at the Gross Mochbern Standesamt in Breslau County. See the Kulturingenieur Friedrich Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke (c.1887-1943), 1912 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Martin and Ursula Vogel had three children who were born at Opperau and baptized at the St. Elisabeth Church in Breslau. See the table above for details regarding:

- Karl Hartmut Vogel was born on the 30th of November in 1938,
- Wolfgang Friedrich Wilhelm Vogel was born on the 25th of September in 1940, and
- Martin Melchior Vogel was born on the 7th January in 1942.

Family of Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke 1923 to 1945 Pilsnitz

Birth of daughter Irmgard Hedwig Sternitzke, 1923

Irmgard Hedwig Sternitzke was born on the 9th of April in 1923. She was baptized on the 20th of May in 1923 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church (record number 111 in 1923). She was the daughter of the Fleischer (butcher) Paul Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Schweitzer) Sternitzke. Both parents were Protestant. The baptism record did not identify the residence of the Sternitzke family at that time, but it showed that the birth of the child was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I (record number 670 in 1923).

The baptism sponsors were: the Schneiderin (tailor) Hedwig Sternitzke from Breslau, the Fleischer (butcher) Joseph Schneider from Breslau, and the Fleischer (butcher) Paul Wurscht from Breslau.

Birth and Death of possible daughter Erika Sternitzke
October 1926 to 1945 City of Breslau

The unmarried woman Erika Sternitzke died at the age of 19 years old on the 23rd of October in 1945 from typhus. Her last place of residence was Burgfeld 12/13. Her burial record listed her birth date as the 6th of October in 1926. She was born at Breslau. She was buried on the 5th of November in 1945. Her death was reported by her grandmother Martha Schweitzer who lived at Burgfeld 9. Burgfeld 12/13 and 9 were near the Allerheiligen Hospital, about 4 blocks west from the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church.

Martha Schweitzer may have been the mother of Hedwig (née Schweitzer) Sternitzke, the wife of Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke. If that is true, then Erika would have been a daughter of Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Schweitzer) Sternitzke.

Stillborn daughter Sternitzke, 1934

The Fleischer (butcher) Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke reported the stillborn death of an unnamed daughter, who died in the family home at Richthofenstraße 32, at Pilsnitz. The baby died on the 29th of November in 1934. His wife's name was Hedwig Martha (née Schweitzer) Sternitzke.

The 1935 and the 1937 Breslau address books listed the Fleischer (butcher) Paul Sternitzke as a resident of Pilsnitz at Richthofenstraße 32 II (second floor, now known as Górnicza Street). That was certainly Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke. Breslau address books from other years listed a Fleischer (butcher) named Paul Sternitzke at other addresses before and after his known location. They may all be entries for the same person. The Wildestraße 38 address (in the village Pöpelwitz) in the 1934 address book was probably his address in 1933 when the data was collected for the 1934 book.

| Locations of the Fleischer Paul Sternitzke at Breslau Identified in Breslau Address Books | | |
| Years | Addresses | Current Names of the Streets |
| 1926 & 1928 | Bärenstraße 8 (about 1.5 miles northwest of the old city walls in the Pöpelwitz suburb). | Niedźwiedzia Street |
| 1931 | Leuthenstraße 72 (about ¾ mile northwest from the old city walls). | Litomska Street |
| 1934 | Wildestraße 38 (in the village Pöpelwitz, 3 blocks from the Pöpelwitz train station, about 2 miles northwest from the old city walls). | Wildestraße is now one of the driveways for an apartment complex near Białowieska Street. |
| 1935 & 1937 | Richthofenstraße 32 (in the village Pilsnitz, 4 miles northwest from the old city walls). | Górnicza Street |
| 1941 | Anderssenstraße 25 (½ mile northwest from the old city walls and only 3 blocks south east from the Leuthenstraße Nr. 72 location in 1931). | Młodych Techników Street |
| 1943 | Graupenstraße 7 II (about 4 blocks southwest from the Ring). | Krupnicza Street |

Family of Karl Gottfried Starnitzke 1861 Pleischwitz

Johanna Maria Theresia Starnitzke was born at Pleischwitz on the 4th of July in 1861 at Pleischwitz in Breslau County. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Karl Gottlieb Starnitzke and Anna Maria (née Hähnel) Starnitzke, who had both died at Breslau. The family later moved to Breslau, where Theresia's parents died.

Johanna Maria Theresia Starnitzke married Eduard Spottke at Breslau on the 4th of November in 1886. They had three sons when they lived at Breslau. See the *Family of Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke, 1886 to 1894 City of Breslau. The family then moved to the city of Oppeln. See the *Marriage of Paul Adolf Otto Spottke, City of Oppeln.

Johanna Maria Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke died at Hindenburgstraße 203 in Waldenburg (in Waldenburg County) on the 29th of April in 1945. She died at the age of 83 years old. The cause of her death was listed as Altersschwäche (decrepitude due to old age). See the Death of Johanna Maria Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke, 1945 Waldenburg. Theresia's death record shows that Eduard Spottke died at Oppeln.

Village of Pöpelwitz in Breslau County

The village Pöpelwitz was known in Polish as Popowice during the time the Sternitzke family lived there. Historic names of the village include: Popowici and Popowicz in 1260, Popowice in 1263, Popilwiz in 1350, Popowicz in 1360 and Pöppelwitz in 1651. It was about two miles northwest of the old city walls of Breslau. It was incorporated into the city of Breslau in 1896. The name was changed to Dreihöfen in 1939. It is now named the Wrocław-Popowice suburb.

Breslau address books and civil records show that many members of the Sternitzke family lived in the Pöpelwitz suburb. The Protestant residents of Pöpelwitz were members of the St. Elisabeth Parish Church in Breslau. The Catholic residents of Pöpelwitz belonged to the St. Nicolai Church or the Corpus Christi Church in Breslau.

Family of Joseph Sternitzke and Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke 1875 Pohlenowitz

The Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke lived at Pohlenowitz in 1875. Joseph was a Catholic. Rosina was Protestant. Joseph's full name was Johann Joseph Sternitzke (also known as Sternitzki). Anna Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke was his second wife. Joseph was the son of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (1818-1874). See the Marriages and Family of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1872 to 1918 Rosenthal.

Birth of son Gustav Heinrich Herrmann Sternitzke, 1875

Gustav Heinrich Herrmann Sternitzke (1875-1946) was born on the 19th of December in 1875. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 9th of January in 1876. The baptismal record listed his parents as the Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke who lived at Pohlenowitz.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Schäfer (shepherd) Gottlieb Krella from Petershof near Pühlau in Öls County, and Christiane (née Sander) Sternitzke the wife of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Sternitzke from Rosenthal.

Gottlieb Krella may have been the brother of Johanna (née Krella) Sternitzke, who was the first wife of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior). Johanna (née Krella) Sternitzke died at Rosenthal on the 8th of June in 1874. See the Marriages and Family of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1872 to 1918 Rosenthal.

Louise Christiane Sander married Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke on the 30th of November in 1873. Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke was the older brother of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzke (also known as Sternitzki). See the Family of Gustav Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke, 1902 to 1946 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of Carl Eduard Sternitzky 1850 and 1852 Ransern

Carl Eduard Sternitzky, the son of the Lehensknecht (a hired servant) David Sternitzky, was born around the 7th of December in 1850. That date was calculated from his age when he died: 1 year, 9 months and 23 days. He died on the 30th of September in 1852 from Fluß (influenza). He was buried at Ransern on the 3rd of October in 1852. See below for the birth and death of his younger brother at about the same time.

Sternitzke Family Groups in Rosenthal

There were two Sternitzke family groups who lived at Rosenthal at the same time. The earliest family group were mainly Evangelical Protestants. The second family group were mainly Catholic. The family trees for the two groups were complicated to sort out because of many variations in the spelling of the family name, and intermarriages between the Catholics and Protestants. The intermarriages were beneficial to me for data collection because the Protestant records for Rosenthal were available for online review from the Polish Archives in Breslau.

The generation numbers (shown as roman numerals in the below trees) were estimated from the known chronology shown in a table in Book I, Chapter 6: The Ancestors and Descendants of Wilhelm Starnitzki. I estimated that Daniel Starnitzki (c.1785-after 1818) was in the ninth generation, with his ancestor George Tschirnitzke (c.1510-c.1574) being the designated Generation Number 1. The span of years from the ancestors of Wilhelm Starnitzki match up quite well with the Rosenthal family groups. Generation IX started in the Starnitzki table with a birth in 1807. The Rosenthal generation IX births ranged from around 1785 to 1818. The Wilhelm Starnitzki table ends with a generation XII birth in 1901. The generation XII births in the Rosenthal trees range from 1900 to 1917.

Marriage of Daniel Sternitzki 1818 Rosenthal and Breslau

The Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Daniel Sternitzki (c.1785-after 1818) married the Jungfrau (maiden) Anne Susanne Döhring at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of January in 1818. The groom was 33 years old, so he was born around 1785. The bride was 27 years old, so she was born around 1791. Daniel died before his wife's death in 1861.

Anne Susanne Döhring was a resident of Rosenthal and the daughter of the Rosenthal resident Gottlieb Döhring. The Arbeiter's Wittwe (widow of a laborer) Johanna (née Döhring) Sternitzki died on the 28th of October in 1861. Her death record at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church shows she was 79 years old and lived at Klosterstrasse 21/22 (southeast of the old city walls, now Romualda Traugutta Street). Based on her age (listed on her death record), she was born around 1782. She died from Herzfehler (a heart problem) and Lungenentzündung (pneumonia).

Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Sternitzke (December 1818-1849) was probably the daughter of Daniel Sternitzki and Anne Susanne (née Döhring) Sternitzki. See the Family of Dorothea I, Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Stanitzke / Starnitzke / Sternitzki / Sternitzky / Sternitzke / Sternitzki / Sternitzky, 1818 to 1849 City of Breslau.

Family of George Friedrich Starnitzke 1822 to 1857 Rosenthal

Georg Friedrich Starnitzke (also known as Stanetzky, Starnitzky and Sternitzky) was born around 1790. He died in 1835. His wife, Elisabet (née Ludwig) Sternitzky died in 1857.

The 1860 Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church marriage record for Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky) referenced three church records:

- Taufbuch 1835, Nr. 39 – probably the baptism record for Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky,
- Todtenbuch 1835, Nr. 151 – probably the death record of his father Georg Stanetzky/Starnitzky, and
- Todtenbuch 1857, Nr. 305 – the death record of his mother Elisabet (née Ludwig) Sternitzky.

The Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church records for 1835 were not available online from the Polish Archives at Wrocław. The 1857 death record was available online and confirmed that the third note referenced Elisabet (née Ludwig) Sternitzky.

Elisabet (née Ludwig) Sternitzky died at Rosenthal on 28th of November in 1857, at the age of 66 years, 3 months and 13 days old. Her calculated birth date was the 15th of August in 1791. She died from Altersschwäche (the decrepitude from old age). She was buried at Rosenthal on the 1st of December in 1857. The burial record book at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed her husband as the deceased Tagarbeiter Georg Sternitzky.

Birth of probable daughter Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Starnitzke, circa 1822

Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Stanitzke was born around 1822. She was the daughter of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Johann Georg Stanitzke who died before the birth of Dorothea's daughters in 1840 and 1844. This Johann Georg Stanitzke was probably Georg Friedrich Starnitzke (c.1790-1835). The year of Dorothea's birth was estimated from the birthdate of her first known child in 1840. Dorothea died sometime between 1866 and 1897. See the Family of Dorothea III, Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Sternitzke / Stanitzke / Starnitzke / Sternitzki / Sternitzky, 1840 to 1910 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Johann Carl Gottlieb Starnitzke, 1822 Rosenthal

The Tagearbeiter (day laborer) George Friedrich Starnitzke and his wife Elisabet (née Ludwig) Starnitzke were residents of Rosenthal when their son was born in 1822. Johann Carl Gottlieb Starnitzke was born on the 20th of February in 1822. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 21st of February in 1822.

The Rosenthal Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzkÿ (also known as Starnitzke) married Marie Elisabet Maÿ on the 28th of November in 1852 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Carl Gottlieb Starnitzke/ Sternitzkÿ, 1852 to 1866 Rosenthal.

Birth and Confirmation of son Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzke,
1835 & 1849 Rosenthal

The marriage record for Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1835-1902) shows he was born on the 13th of March in 1835. He was the son of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) George Stanetzky also known as Starnitzky in Rosenthal. Both versions of the Sternitzke surname were listed for Wilhelm (and his father George) on Wilhelm's 1860 marriage record. Wilhelm's parents were George Friedrich Starnitzke and his wife Elisabet (née Ludwig) Starnitzke. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/ Starnitzky (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubilion, 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal.

The confirmation record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, the son of Georg Sternitzkÿ. The father was a resident of Rosenthal. The son was confirmed on the 27th of April in 1849.

The 1860 Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church marriage record for Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky) referenced three church record books:

- Taufbuch 1835, Nr. 39 – probably the baptism record for Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky,
- Todtenbuch 1835, Nr. 151 – probably the death record of his father Georg Stanetzky/Starnitzky, and
- Todtenbuch 1857, Nr. 305 – the death record of his mother the widow Elisabet (née Ludwig) Sternitzky.

Six Years Old Boy Sternitzky (c.1825-1831)
1831 Rosenthal

A 6 years old Sternitzky boy was teasing a foal in a field at Rosenthal in 1831. The foal kicked the boy in the eye, killing the boy. He was born around 1825. He could have been a son of George Friedrich Starnitzke (also known as Stanetzky, Starnitzky and Sternitzky). See the Family of George Friedrich Starnitzke, 1822 to 1857 Rosenthal.

Carl Stanitzke/Sternitzke/Sternitzki (1833-1891) and wife
Johanna (née Borsitzke) Stanitzke (1850-1896)
1833 Rosenthal, 1884 to 1896 City of Breslau

According to his death record, Carl Stanitzke was born at Rosenthal around the 14th of March in 1833. He was a Catholic. His birth date was estimated from his age (58 years and 8 months) at the time of his death on the 14th of November in 1891. His death record stated that his father was an Arbeiter (laborer) named Mr. Stanitzke who died at Rosenthal before 1891. The name of Carl's mother was not known by Carl's wife, who signed the death record as Johanna Stanitzke geboren Borsitzki. Carl Stanitzke may have been related to Johann Joseph Sternitzke (1818-1874) who also was a Catholic. See the Family of the Schirrvogt Johann Joseph Sternitzke/Sternitzki (1818-1874) c.1839 to 1891 Rosenthal.

Prior to his death in 1891, Carl Stanitzke was employed in Breslau as a Gasarbeiter (gas worker) and lived with his wife Johanna (née Borsitzki) Stanitzke at Kletschkaustraße 9 (one block north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 2nd block west of the main road to Trebnitz, now Kleczkowska Street). The Breslau address books show that Carl Sternitzki, the Arbeiter (laborer), lived in Breslau at Kletschkaustraße 9d Seitenhaus I (side house, first floor) in 1884, 1886, 1887 and 1891. The sort by addresses in the 1891 Breslau address book also listed him as the Arbeiter Sternitzke who lived at Oder Thor, Hausser-Haus II (second floor).

Johanna (née Borsitzke) Stanitzke died on the 26th of May in 1896 at the age of 46 years and 11 months, so she was born around the 26th of June in 1850. Her death record shows that she was a Catholic, and prior to her death in 1896 she lived in Breslau at Große Scheitnigerstraße 50 (about 5 blocks east of the St. John the Baptist's Catholic Cathedral, now Szczytnicka Street). Her death record identified her as Johanna (née Borsitzke) instead of Borsitzki. The death record shows that she was born in Militsch, the daughter of the Packmeister (master luggage handler) Josef Borsitzke who died in Breslau, and his wife Johanna (née Gabler) Borsitzke who had died in Militsch. Her late husband was identified as the Gasanstaltsarbeiter (gasworks laborer) Karl Stanitzke.

Family of Johann Friedrich Stanetzky/Stanetzki 1839 Rosenthal

Johann Friedrich Stanetzky (Stanetzki) was a Tagarbeiter (day laborer) at Rosenthal. He died before the baptism of his son in April 1839. His death was not listed in the 1839 record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, so he probably died in the second half of 1838 (after his son was conceived in July of 1838). The 1838 record book was not available for online review from the Polisch archives in Wrocław.

His full name may have been Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Stanetzky. He may have been the son of Georg Friedrich Starnitzke (c.1790-before 1857), also known as Stanetzky, Starnitzky, Sternitzky and Sternitzky. See the Family of George Friedrich Starnitzke, 1822 to 1857 Rosenthal.

His wife's name was listed as Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneck) Stanetzky in the 1839 baptism record for their son. This may have been the same couple listed as the late Dienstknecht (servant) Gottlieb Sternitzke and Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneg) Sternitzke from Rosenthal. The full name of Gottlieb Sternitzke may have been the same as his son Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Stanetzky. See the Second Marriage of the Widow Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneg) Sternitzke, 1839 Rosenthal.

Birth and death of son Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Stanetzky (1839-1839)

Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Stanetzky was born on the 10th of April in 1839. He was the son of the weiland (late) and the gewesen (former) Rosenthal Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Johann Friedrich Stanetzky and Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneck) Stanetzky. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 14th of April in 1839.

Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Stanetzki died on the 20th of June in 1839 at the age of 10 weeks old. He was buried on the 23rd of June in 1839. The cause of death was listed as Krämpfe (convulsions). The child's father was listed as the weiland (late) and the gewesen (former) Rosenthal Tagarbeiter Johann Friedrich Stanetzki.

Family of the Schirrvogt Johann Joseph Sternitzke/Sternitzky (1818-1874) c.1839 to 1891 Rosenthal

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (1818-1874) was born on the 21st of March in 1818 at Pristelwitz in Trebnitz County. His birth date was recorded on the church record for his marriage in 1865. Records regarding the family at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed Joseph's occupation as the Schirrvogt and Zimmermann at the Dominium (landowner's estate) at Rosenthal. A Schirrvogt was a head Stellmacher (wheelwright) for an estate. Johann Krünitz defined a Schirrmeister as the head agricultural laborer who supervised the Tagelöhner (day laborers) employed by the landowner. He was typically skilled as a Stellmacher (wheelwright) or as a Zimmermann (a carpenter), which were useful trades for maintaining the farm wagons and equipment.

First marriage of Johann Joseph Sternitzke, circa 1838

The name of his first wife is not known. They were probably married around 1838, because their son Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke was born around 1839 (based on his age of 34 years old when he was married in 1873).

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (senior) was listed as a Catholic on the record of his second marriage in 1865. His children were all listed as Catholics on their marriage records in 1866, 1872, 1873 and 1874. It is likely that the first wife of Johann Joseph Sternitzke was also Catholic.

Birth and Marriages of son Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke, circa 1839, 1873 & circa 1879

The Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke was first married on the 30th of November in 1873 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. He was born at Rosenthal around 1839, based on his age (34 years old) when he was married in 1873. The marriage record listed him as a Catholic, a resident of Rosenthal, and the son of the Schirrvogt Joseph Sternitzke in Rosenthal. The first wife of the Schuhmachermeister Wilhelm Sternitzke, Louise Christiane (née Sender) Sternitzke and their daughter both died in April of 1876 at their home in Rosenthal. The second wife of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Sternitzke was Caroline Skiebe (also written as Skibe on some records). See the Marriages and Family of the Schuhmacher Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke, 1861 Rosenthal to 1944 City of Breslau.

The bride was Louise Christiane Sander, the 32-years-old daughter of Susanne Sander. Louise Christiane Sander was born at Nieder Luzine around 1841. At the time of her daughter's wedding, Susanne née Sander was married to the Tagarbeiter Johann Krause from Lohe in Breslau County.

Birth and Marriage of daughter
Anna Rosine Theresia Sternitzke, 1842 & 1866

Anna Rosina Theresia Sternitzke (1842-1892) was born on the 20th of January in 1842. Her marriage record listed her as the only daughter of the Schirrvogt Joseph Sternitzke in Rosenthal.

Anna Sternitzke, the daughter of Tagarbeiter Joseph Sternitzke in Rosenthal, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Pauline August Rosalie Schoepe (in 1862) and Anna Johanna Maria Schoepe (in 1864). The children were daughters of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Franz Schoepe and Caroline (née Reinsch) Schoepe in Rosenthal.

Anna Rosina Theresia Sternitzke married the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Carl Gottlieb Hippe at the St. Michael Catholic Church in Breslau. The marriage was attested at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 11th of February in 1866. The marriage record shows that Anna Rosina Theresia Sternitzke was 23 years old and a Catholic. The groom was a 23 years old Protestant from Rosenthal. He was born on the 10th of November in 1842, the second son of the deceased Freigärtner Ernst Benjamin Hippe from Kloch-Ellguth in Trebnitz County. See below, the Family of Anna (née Sternitzke/Stanitzke) Hippe, 1863 Rosenthal, 1892 and 1906 Breslau.

Birth and Marriages of son
Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1846, 1872 & 1874

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior, 1846-c.1883) was born on the 9th of June in 1846 at Rosenthal. He was the son of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (senior, 1818-1874) and his first wife.

On the 17th of November in 1872, the Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzki (also known as Sternitzke) married the Jungfrau Johanna Krella at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau.

The Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzki (also known as Sternitzke) was a widower when he married Anna Rosina Hippe on the 20th of September in 1874 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church at Breslau. See the Marriages and Family of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1872 to 1918 Rosenthal.

Second marriage of the Johann Joseph Sternitzke (senior),
1865 City of Breslau

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (senior) married the widow Johanna Susanne (née Vogt) Weinert on the 5th of June in 1865 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The church record listed the groom as the widower Johann Joseph Sternitzke. He was listed as a Catholic, aged 47 and employed as a Schirrvogt at Rosenthal. The marriage record listed his birth date as the 21st of March in 1818, and his place of birth was listed as Pristelwitz in Trebnitz County.

Johanna Susanne (née Vogt) Weinert was a Protestant, and was born on the 2nd of December in 1820. She was listed as 44 years on the 1865 marriage record. The 1865 marriage record shows she was the daughter of the deceased Freigärtner Heinrich Vogt from Mahlen. The first marriage record for Johanna Susanna Vogt was also recorded at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. She married the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Weinert on the 18th of March in 1855. The 1855 marriage record shows Susanna and her first husband were both Protestants. In 1855, her father was listed as the deceased Freigärtner und Gerichtsscholz Heinrich Vogt from Mahlen in Trebnitz County.

Death of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (senior), 1874

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (senior) died at the age of 57 years old, on the 13th of October in 1874 at Rosenthal. His name was written as Josef Sternitzkÿ on his death record. He was a Catholic. The Neben (duplicate) Register of his death record shows his wife signed her name with 3 crosses, and a registrar then signed her name as Susanne Sternitzkÿ.

Death of Susanne (née Vogt) Sternitzke, 1891

The Arbeiterwittwe (widow of a laborer) Susanne (née Vogt) Sternitzke (1820-1891) died at Rosenthal on the 27th of September in 1891, at the age of 70 years, 9 months and 25 days. She was born on the 2nd of December in 1820 at Mahlen in Trebnitz County. Susanne was the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer Gottlieb Vogt at Mahlen. The name of her mother was unknown to the person who reported the death of Susanne. That person was the Arbeiter Ernst Thiel who identified Susanne as his aunt. Ernst Thiel was a resident of Rosenthal. Susanne (née Vogt) Sternitzke was a Protestant.

The civil death record of Susanne (née Vogt) Sternitzke shows that the Schirrvogt Joseph Sternitzke was her second husband. The 1891-1894 burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed her as Susanna (née Vogt) Sternitzke, the surviving widow of the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Sternitzke in Rosenthal. She was buried on the 30th of September in 1891. The church record referenced her civil death record as number 902 dated the 28th of September in 1891 at the Breslau Landbezirk (county district) Standesamt.

Second Marriage of the Widow
Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneg) Sternitzke
1839 Rosenthal

On the 29th of December in 1839, the widow Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneg) Sternitzke married the Dienstknecht (servant) Samuel Scholz at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau.

Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneg) Sternitzke 28 years old at the time of the wedding. She was the widow of the late Gottlieb Sternitzke, who was a former Dienstknecht (servant) at Rosenthal. This couple may have been the couple listed as Johann Friedrich Stanetzky (Stanetzki) and Barbara Elisabet (née Bartneck) Stanetzky in the 1839 records at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The full name of Gottlieb Sternitzke may have been the same as his son Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Stanetzky. See the Family of Johann Friedrich Stanetzky/Stanetzki, 1839 Rosenthal.

Samuel Scholz was 33 years old at the time of the wedding. He was from Grüneiche. His father was also named Samuel Scholz. Samuel Scholz (the father) was an Auszügler (retired farmer) who lived at Thiergarten in Wohrlau County.

Baptismal Sponsors 1843 to 1850 Rosenthal

The baptism record books from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church include several records that list members of the Sternitzke family from Rosenthal who were baptismal sponsors. There is not enough information to fit these people into known family groups. The information is recorded here in case more records for these family members are found.

The two Jungfrauen (unmarried women) named Anna Rosina Sternitzke could not have been Anna Rosina Theresia Sternitzke because she was born on the 20th of January in 1842. The baptismal sponsor was usually a person who was confirmed. So, she was too young to be the sponsor on these baptisms. It is important to note that the marriage record for Anna Rosina Theresia Sternitzke listed her as the only daughter of the Schirrvogt Johann Joseph Sternitzke (1818-1874) in Rosenthal. The Anna Rosine Sternitzke listed in the table below may have been the sister of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (1818-1874) and they were both children of the Schirrvogt Joseph Sternitzke. Frau Theresie (née Reithe) Sternitzke, the wife of Joseph Sternitzke, who was a sponsor in 1848 could have been the first wife of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (1818-1874), and the mother of Anna Rosina Theresia Sternitzke.

Marriage and Family of Johann Carl Gottlieb Starnitzke/Sternitzkÿ
1852 to 1866 Rosenthal

Johann Carl Gottlieb Starnitzke (1822-1857) was born on the 20th of February in 1822 at Rosenthal. He was the son of George Friedrich Starnitzke (c.1790- 1835) and his wife Elisabet (née Ludwig) Starnitzke (1791-1857). See the Family of George Friedrich Starnitzke, 1822 to 1857 Rosenthal.

Marriage of Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzkÿ/Starnitzke, 1852 Rosenthal and Breslau

The Rosenthal Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzkÿ (also known as Starnitzke) married Marie Elisabet Maÿ on the 28th of November in 1852 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The church record shows they were both Protestants. The groom was 30 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old. The bride was 28 years old. The groom was listed on the church marriage record as the oldest son of the late Tagarbeiter George Friedrich Starnitzke from Rosenthal. See the Family of George Friedrich Starnitzke, 1822 to 1857 Rosenthal.

Marie Elisabet Maÿ was the oldest daughter of the deceased Victualienhändler (trader in agricultural goods) David Maÿ from Rosenthal. The bride's brother, the Kretschmergeselle (journeyman innkeeper) Gottfried Maÿ, was a witness at the wedding. He lived in Breslau at Schmiedebrück Nr. 43.

Birth and Death of daughter
Anna Bertha Louise Sternitzkÿ (1853-1855)

Anna Bertha Louise Sternitzkÿ was born on the 19th of May in 1853. Her father was the Arbeitsmann Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzkÿ (also known as Starnitzke). Her mother was Marie Elisabet (née May) Sternitzkÿ. They were Protestant residents of Rosenthal. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of May in 1853. The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeitsmann Wilhelm Starnitzke from Rosenthal, the Jungfrau Rosine Maÿ, the daughter of the deceased David Maÿ in Rosenthal, and Frau Rosine (née Handke) Maÿ, the wife of the Maurer (mason) David Maÿ in Oswitz.

Anna Bertha Sternitzke, the daughter of the Rosenthal Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke, died on the 27th of March in 1855. The death and burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows she died from häutigen Braune (croup, cyanche trachealis) at the age of 1 year and 10 months. She was buried at Rosenthal on the 30th of March in 1855.

Birth and Death of son
Wilhelm Carl Gottlieb Starnitzke (1854-1854)

Wilhelm Carl Gottlieb Starnitzke was born on the 25th of October in 1854. The parents, the Fabrikarbeiter (factory laborer) Gottlieb Starnitzke and Elisabet (née Maÿ) Starnitzke were residents of Rosenthal. They were both Protestants. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of November in 1854. The baptismal sponsors were: the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Gottfried May from Oswitz and the Breslau Maurergeselle Wilhelm Sternitzke (the brother of Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke).

Carl Wilhelm Sternitzke, the two-months-old son of the Rosenthal Tagarbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzke, died on the 22nd of December in 1854. The burial book from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the cause of death as Krämpfen (infantile convulsions). The baby was buried at Rosenthal on the 25th of December in 1854.

Death of Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzky (1822-1857)

The Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church record for the second marriage of Maria Elisabet (née May) Sternitzky (see below) included references to the church records for her first marriage (Traubuch 1852 Nr. 71) and to the death of her first husband Gottlieb Sternitzky (Todtbuch 1857 Nr.148). The reference to the first marriage matches the record of her marriage to Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzky (also known as Sternitzke) on the 28th of November in 1852. The reference to the death of her first husband leads to the death/burial record for the Tagarbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzky who died at Rosenthal on the 25th of May in 1857. He was buried on the 28th of May in 1857 at Rosenthal. The burial record listed his age as 34, but Johann Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke would have turned 35 on the 20th of February in 1857. The church record listed the cause of his death as Brustwaßersucht (hydrothorax, dropsy of the chest).

Illegitimate children of Maria Elisabet (née May) Sternitzke and Johann Gottlieb Tschansch

The illegitimate child, Johann Carl Friedrich Sternitzke (1859-1859) was born on the 4th of September in 1859. He was the son of the Rosenthal residents: the widow Elisabet (née May) Sternitzke and the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Johann Gottlieb Tschansch. They were both Protestants. The mother was the widow of Gottfried Sternitzke. The baby was baptized on the 18th of September in 1859 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were the Tagarbeiter Gottfried May from Rosenthal, and Rosine (née May) Langner the widow of the Victualienhändler David May from Rosenthal. A note in the margin indicates the baby died in 1859, as was recorded in the Todtbuch of 1859 record number 256. That record shows Johann Carl Gottlieb Tschansch died on the 1st of October in 1859 at the age of 1 month old. He was listed as the son of the Tagarbeiter Gottlieb Tschansch in Rosenthal. The baby was buried on the 4th of October in 1859.

The illegitimate child Johann Friedrich Carl Sternitzky was born on the 10th of December in 1860. He was the son of the Rosenthal residents: the widow Elisabet (née May) Sternitzky and the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Johann Gottlieb Tshansch. They were both Protestants. The mother was the widow of the Fabrikarbeiter (factory laborer) Carl Sternitzky. The baby was baptized on the 26th of December in 1860 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were the Rosenthal Tagarbeiter Gottfried May, the Breslau Kretschmergeselle August Leinweber, and the Rosenthal Tagarbeiter Gottlieb Tschansch. Notes in the margin indicate the baby's parents were married on the 25th of May in 1862, and the baby died in 1866 as was recorded in the Todtbuch 1866 record number 254. That record shows Johann Friedrich Carl Tschansch died on the 29th of June in 1866, at the age of 5 years, 6 months and 19 days. He was listed as the son of the Rosenthal resident Johann Gottlieb Tschansch. The child was buried on the 2nd of July in 1866.

Second Marriage of Maria Elisabet (née May) Sternitzky, 1862

Frau Maria Elisabet (née May) Sternitzky married Johann Gottlieb Tschansch at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 25th of May in 1862. The marriage record listed the bride as the widow of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzky from Rosenthal. The bride was 37 years old. She was born on the 6th of August in 1824.

The groom, Johann Gottlieb Tschansch was a Tagarbeiter at Rosenthal. This was his first marriage. He was a Protestant, 41 years old, and was born on the 1st of August in 1820. He was the son of the deceased Lohnknecht (agricultural day servant) Johann Daniel Tschansch from Bothendorf in Trebnitz County.

Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubilion
 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal

Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1835-1902) was born on the 13th of March in 1835. He was the son of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) George Stanetzky also known as Starnitzky in Rosenthal. Both versions of the Sternitzke surname were listed for Wilhelm (and his father George) on the 1860 marriage record. Wilhelm's parents were probably George Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Elisabet (née Ludwig) Starnitzke. See the Family of George Friedrich Starnitzke, 1822 to 1857 Rosenthal.

The 1860 Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church marriage record for Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky) referenced three church records:

- Taufbuch 1835, Nr. 39 – probably the baptism record for Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky,
- Todtenbuch 1835, Nr. 151 – probably the death record of his father Georg Stanetzky/Starnitzky, and
- Todtenbuch 1857, Nr. 305 – the death record of his mother Elisabet (née Ludwig) Sternitzky.

The Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church records for 1835 were not available online from the Polish Archives at Wrocław. The 1857 death record was available online and confirmed that the third note referenced Elisabet (née Ludwig) Sternitzky.

The surname of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky was written as Sternitzky in a baptism record for Antonie Anna Maria Kasowsky in 1864.

The records associated with the children of Wilhelm and Auguste show they were all Protestants except for their son-in-law Josef Auras who was a Catholic. There were many conflicting variations of the Sternitzke name found in those documents:

- The 1860 marriage record of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky auch (also known as) Starnitzky, the son of George Stanetzky also known as Starnitzky.

- The 1886 marriage record of Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzky auch (also known as) Starnitzky. His signature was copied as Wilhelm Starnitzky. His father was listed as the Maurer (mason) Wilhelm Stanetzky.
- The 1886 marriage record of Theodor August Robert Stanetzky auch Starnitzky copied his signature as Robert Stanetzky Starnitzky. His father's name was listed as the Maurer Wilhelm Stanetzky (without umlauts). The signature of his brother the wedding witness Wilhelm Starnetzky was copied as Wilhelm Starnetzky (without umlauts).
- The 1890 marriage record of Auguste Johanne Emilie Stanetzky auch Starnitzky copied her signature as Auguste Kiefer geboren Starnitzky. Her father was listed as the Maurer Wilhelm Stanetzky auch Starnitzky. The signature of her brother the wedding witness Wilhelm Stanetzky auch Starnitzky was copied as Wilhelm Starnitzky.
- The 1902 marriage record of Georg Julius Gustav Sternitzki listed his father's name as Wilhelm Sternitzki. Georg's signature was recorded as Georg Starnitzki, but his bride's signature was recorded as Pauline Sternitzki geboren Rettig. Georg's older brother Wilhelm was a witness at the wedding. He was listed on the record as Wilhelm Starnitzky, but his signature was shown on the marriage record as Wilhelm Starnitzky.
- The 1906 marriage record of Berta Anna Stanetzky copied her signature as Anna Krauspe geboren Stanetzky. Her father was listed as Robert Stanetzky. Her father was Theodor August Robert Stanetzky whose 1886 marriage record did not include umlauts in the family name.

There are two interesting items in the examples above: the family members were legally known by two surnames, and they frequently used the y-umlaut which indicated the last two letters were pronounced like the English word „key”.

Marriage of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky, 1860

The Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky) married Johanna Sophie Auguste Goubillon at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of February in 1860. Wilhelm was a Protestant and 24 ³/₄ years old at the time of wedding.

Johanna Sophie Auguste Goubillon was a Protestant. She was 22 years old when she was married. She was born on the 1st of December in 1837 at Hundsfeld, the daughter of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Franz Goubillon and Susanna (née Hiller) Goubillon. Her father died at Rosenthal before the 1860 wedding. Auguste's maiden name was also listed as Goubillon and Gubillon in records.

Susanna (née Hiller) Goubillon, the widow of the deceased Schuhmacher Franz Goubillon in Rosenthal, was one of the baptismal sponsors of Carl Herrmann August Stanetzky/Starnitzky at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 8th of August in 1874. The baby was Susanna's grandson, the son of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Wilhelm Stanetzkÿ/Starnitzkÿ and Auguste née Goubillon.

In 1876, the Maurerfrau (wife of a mason) Auguste (née Goubilion) Sternitzke reported the death of her mother, the widowed Schuhmacherfrau (wife of a shoemaker) Susanna (née Hiller) Gubilion. Her mother was a Protestant, and died at Rosenthal at the age of 65 and $\frac{1}{4}$ years, on the 30th of October in 1876. Her mother was born at Paschkerwitz in Trebnitz County, the daughter of the Freigärtner Carl Hiller and his wife Dorothea Hiller. Auguste did not know the maiden name of her grandmother.

Wilhelm and his wife Auguste were still living at Rosenthal when their daughter Auguste Johanne Emilie married Gottlieb Karl Kiefer on the 7th of March in 1890. Wilhelm died before the marriage of his son Georg Julius Gustav to Pauline Auguste Rättig on the 13th of December in 1902. Wilhelm's wife Auguste was still living at Rosenthal at that time.

Birth of daughter

Anna Auguste Marie Stanetzkÿ/Starnitzkÿ/Sternitzkÿ, 1860

Anna Auguste Marie Stanetzkÿ/Starnitzkÿ/Sternitzkÿ (1860-after 1899) was born on the 10th of April in 1860 and baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of April in 1860. Her parents were both Protestants and lived in the village Rosenthal at house number 55. Her father was the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzkÿ (also known as Starnitzkÿ).

The baptismal sponsors were: Ernestine Münch the daughter of the Freigärtner Gottfried Münch from Klein Tschansch, Elisabet (née Marsch) Klesch the wife of the Tagarbeiter Gottlieb Klesch from Rosenthal, Marie Starnitzkÿ the illegitimate daughter of Dorothee Starnitzkÿ from Breslau, and Johann Gottfried Kasowski a Zimmermann from Rosenthal.

Anna Auguste Marie Starnitzki gave birth to a daughter out of wedlock. Anna Auguste Emilie Starnitzki was born on the 11th of November in 1882. The mother married the Arbeiter Joseph Auras around 1884. See the Family of Josef Auras and Anna (née Stanetzkÿ) Auras, 1884 Rosenthal to 1900 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of son

Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzkÿ/Starnitzkÿ (1861-1911)

Carl Wilhelm August Stanetzkÿ / Starnitzkÿ was born on the 14th of August in 1861. His father, the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) was known as Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzkÿ and Starnitzkÿ. The baby's mother and father were both Protestant. They lived in the village Rosenthal at house number 38. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 25th of August in 1861. The baptismal sponsors were: Maria Starnitzkÿ, the daughter of the deceased Breslau Tagarbeiter Gottfried Starnitzkÿ, Ernestine Seiffert the daughter of the Scheffner Gottfried Seiffert from Gross Nädltitz, Elisabet

The 1886 marriage record of Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky, 1861-1911) shows that he was born on the 14th of August in 1861 at Rosenthal in Breslau County. He was the son of the Maurer (mason) Wilhelm Stanetzky and his wife Auguste Goubillon. Wilhelm (the son) and his parents were still living at Rosenthal in 1886. Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzky/Starnitzky married Anna Auguste Selma Lachmann in 1886. The Arbeiter Wilhelm Starnitzky died on the 25th of October in 1911, at the age of 50 years and 2 months. He was buried on the 28th of October in 1911 at the cemetery in Rosenthal for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The widow Selma Starnitzky/Starnitzky was listed at Rosenthal in Breslau address books from 1927 to 1943. See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzky/ Stanetzki/ Stanetzky/ Stanetzky/ Starnitzki/ Starnitzky/ Starnitzky, 1861 to 1945 Rosenthal.

Baptism Sponsor Auguste (née Goubilian) Starnitzky, 1862

Auguste (née Goubilian) Starnitzky, the wife of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Wilhelm Starnitzky from Rosenthal, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Paul Wilhelm Friedrich Kasowsky. He was the son of the Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Gottfried Kasowsky and Ernestine (née Stanke) Kasowsky from Neudorf. The child was born on the 26th of October in 1862. He was baptized on the 9th of November in 1862 at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. Birth, Marriage, Family and Death of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzky
Stanetzki/ Stanetzky/ Stanetzky/
Starnitzki/ Starnitzky/ Sternitzky
1861 to 1945 Rosenthal

The 1886 marriage record and the 1911 death record of Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzky (1861-1911) also known as Starnitzky) show that he was born on the 14th of August in 1861 at Rosenthal in Breslau County. He was the son of the Maurer (mason) Wilhelm Stanetzky and his wife Auguste Goubillon. Wilhelm (the son) and his parents were still living at Rosenthal in 1886. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/ Starnitzky (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubillon, 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal.

Godparents Wilhelm Starnitzki and Selma Lachmann, 1885

The Rosenthal Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Wilhelm Starnitzki and Selma Lachmann were godparents for the baptism of Pauline Emma Selma Müller. She was born on the 1st of May in 1885, the daughter of the Rosenthal Tagarbeiter Wilhelm Müller and his wife Pauline (née Trippmacher) Müller. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 25th of May in 1885. The baptism record shows Selma Lachmann was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Lachmann.

Marriage of Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzky/Starnitzky
and Anna Auguste Selma Lachmann, 1886

On the 8th of December in 1886, the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky) married the Arbeiterin (laborer) Anna Auguste Selma Lachmann. They were both Protestants. Selma was born on the 19th of November in 1866 at Rosenthal. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Lachmann and his wife Dorothea (née Trippmacher) Lachmann. In 1886, Selma and her father were residents of Rosenthal. Her mother died at Rosenthal before Selma's wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Wilhelm Müller and the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) August Klose. They were both 26 years old and both lived at Rosenthal.

The registrar who copied this marriage record for the Neben (duplicate) record book copied the groom's signature as Wilhelm Starnitzky.

A note on the baptism record shows both children were made legitimate by their father, the Rosenthal Lehnarbeiter Richard Böhm as was recorded at Breslau Standesamt III on the 13th of June in 1932. A second note shows the correct maiden name of the children's mother was Sternitzkÿ. See the Marriage and Family of Gertrud Sternitzky/Sternitzkÿ, 1923 to 1930 Rosenthal and Breslau.

Death of the Widow Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzkÿ (1866-1945)

The widow Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzkÿ died on the 10th of October in 1945 from Alterschwäche (old age). She was born on the 19th of November in 1866 at Rosenthal, and she died at the age of 78 years old. Selma was buried at the Pohlenowitz Community Cemetery on the 13th of October in 1945.

Her death was reported by, and the funeral expenses were paid by her daughter Auguste (née Sternitzkÿ) Seidel, who lived at Gustav-Müller-Straße 23 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge). Gustav-Müller-Straße was previously named Mehlgasse. It is now named Ludwika Rydygiera Street.

Breslau (Rosenthal Suburb) Address Books and Other Sources

The 1914, 1915 and 1916 Breslau address books show that the brothers, the Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Karl August Sternitzky (1890-1915) and the Arbeiter Karl Richard Wilhelm Sternitzke (1894-after 1937) lived at Gartenstraße 39 at Rosenthal. Their father Karl Wilhelm August Sternitzke (1861-1911) died in 1911. Karl's brother Wilhelm was killed in action on the 25th of October in 1915, but was probably not removed from the Breslau address books until they were updated in 1916 for the 1917 edition.

The Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Starnitzkÿ (who was Selma's son Carl Richard Wilhelm Starnitzky) was living at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal on the 16th of December in 1922, when he married Wallÿ Schieweg at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The Arbeiter Karl Starnitzky and his wife Wally (née Schuweg) Starnitzky lived in Rosenthal at Oberrnigkerstraße 15 (now named ulica Oberrnicka) in 1926, 1927 and 1928. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Starnitzkÿ, 1922 to 1943 Rosenthal and Breslau.

The 1926 and 1927 Breslau address book listed three family members at Hauptstraße 3:

- the widow Anna Auguste Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzky who was the widow of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzkÿ (who died in 1911),
- the widow Pauline Auguste (née Rättig) Starnitzky the widow of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzky and
- the Bauarbeiter Georg Sternitzky who was a son of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzky and Pauline Auguste (née Rättig) Starnitzky.

Also in 1926 and 1927, the Arbeiter Karl Sternitzky (who was Selma's son Carl Richard Wilhelm Starnitzky) was living at Oberrnigker Straße 15. The Arbeiter Karl Sternitzky and the Bauarbeiter Georg Sternitzky were first cousins.

Hauptstraße in the village Rosenthal was renamed as Trachenberger Straße on the 29th of July in 1929. That street is now named Żmigrodzka Street.

The 1928 Breslau address book shows there were still two family members living at Hauptstraße 3: the widow Anna Auguste Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzky and the widow Pauline Auguste (née Rettig) Starnitzky. The Arbeiter Karl Sternitzky (who was Selma's son Carl Richard Wilhelm Starnitzky) was still living at Oberrnigker Straße 15. The Arbeiter Georg Sternitzke (who was Pauline's son Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzky) was living at Mühlstraße 7.

In 1931, the cousins Georg Sternitzky and Karl Starnitzke lived at Mühlstraße 7. The widows Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzky and Pauline Sternitzky lived at Trachenberger Straße 75. The Arbeiterin (laborer) Selma Sternitzke lived at Gartenstraße 1. This was Selma Emma Stanetzki (Starnitzki) the daughter of the widow Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzky.

In 1934, the Arbeiter Karl Sternitzky (who was Selma's son Carl Richard Wilhelm Starnitzky) was living at Mühlstraße 1. There was no listing for his cousin Georg Sternitzky. The two widows Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzky and Pauline (née Rettig) Sternitzky still lived at Trachenberger Straße 75. The Arbeiterin (laborer) Selma Sternitzke still lived at Gartenstraße 1.

In 1935 and 1937, the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzky (who was Selma's son Carl Richard Wilhelm Starnitzky) was living at Mühlstraße 6. He was not listed in the 1941 or 1943 address books.

The resident of Gartenstraße 1 was listed as the Renterin (retired woman) Selma Sternitzke in 1935 and 1937, and as the widow Selma Starnitzky in 1941 and 1943. The widow Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzke was probably living with her daughter Selma Emma (the laborer listed at that address in 1934).

Marriages and Family of the Schuhmacher Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke 1861 Rosenthal to 1944 City of Breslau

The Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke (c.1839-after 1914) was born at Rosenthal around 1839, based on his age (34 years old) when he was married in 1873. The marriage record listed him as a Catholic, a resident of Rosenthal, and the son of the Schirrvogt Joseph Sternitzke in Rosenthal. See the Family of the Schirrvogt Johann Joseph Sternitzke/Sternitzky (1818-1874), c.1839 to 1891 Rosenthal.

Baptismal Sponsor Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1861

The Schuhmachergeselle (journeyman shoemaker) Wilhelm Sternitzke from Rosenthal was one of the baptismal sponsors for Anna Rosine August Helene Preuss at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant church. She was born on the 13th of December in 1861 and baptized on the 15th of December in 1861. She was the daughter of the Dienstknecht Gottfried Preuss and his wife Helene (née Ritter) Preuss, who were residents of Rosenthal.

First Marriage of Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke, 1873

The Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke was married on the 30th of November in 1873 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. He was born at Rosenthal around 1839, based on his age (34-years-old) when he was married in 1873. The marriage record listed him as a Catholic, a resident of Rosenthal. The bride was Louise Christiane Sander, the 32 years old daughter of Susanne Sander. Louise Christiane Sander was born at Nieder Luzine around 1841. At the time of her daughter's wedding, Susanne née Sander was married to the Tagarbeiter Johann Krause from Lohe in Breslau County.

Baptism Sponsor Christiane (née Sander) Sternitzke, January 1876

Gustav Heinrich Herrmann Sternitzke was born on the 19th of December in 1875. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 9th of January in 1876. The baptismal record listed his parents as the Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke who lived at Pohlanowitz. The baptismal sponsors were: the Schäfer (shepherd) Gottlieb Krella from Petershof near Pühlau in Öls County, and Christiane (née Sander) Sternitzke the wife of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Sternitzke from Rosenthal.

The baby's father was Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior, 1846-c.1883). He was the younger brother of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke. See the Family of the Schirrvogt Johann Joseph Sternitzke/Sternitzkj (1818-1874), c.1839 to 1891 Rosenthal.

Death of First Wife Christiane (née Sender) Sternitzke (1841-1876)

The first wife of the Schuhmachermeister Wilhelm Sternitzke, Louise Christiane (née Sender) Sternitzke and their daughter both died in April of 1876 at their home in Rosenthal. Their unnamed daughter died during birth on the 9th of April in 1876, and the mother died on the 12th of April in 1876. Christiane died at the age of 34 years, 7 months and 23 days, so she was born on the 20th of September in 1841. The burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the cause of death for Christiane (née Sender) Sternitzke as Kindbettfieber (pueperal fever). Pueperal fever is an inflammation of the peritoneum (membrane lining the abdominal cavity) characterized by violent pain in the abdomen. It frequently occurs on the second or third day after delivery of a child. Christiane (née Sender) Sternitzke was buried on the 15th of April in 1886.

Christiane Sender was born the 20th of September in 1841 at Luzine in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Arbeitsfrau (wife of a laborer) Krause who was still living at Luzine in 1876. The maiden name of Christiane's mother was Sender, so Christiane was born out of wedlock before her mother married Mr. Krause. Christiane was a Protestant.

Second Marriage of Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1879 or 1882

The second wife of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Sternitzke was Caroline Skibe (also written as Skiebe on some records). The record of that marriage was not available for review. The brief transcription of that record (available at Familysearch.org) cannot be verified and is not consistent with other records. According to that record they were married at Breslau on the 30th of April in 1882. But there are other records that suggest they were married before March in 1879. See the discussion below regarding the baptismal sponsor Frau Schuhmachermeister Starnitzke in March of 1879. Also see the discussion regarding the birth and baptism records for their son Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke in September of 1879. Caroline (née Skibe) Sternitzke was listed as his mother.

According to the transcription of her marriage, Caroline Skibe was 39 years old at the time. That would make her calculated year of birth 1843. Karoline (née Skibe) Sternitzke, the widow of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzke (a Catholic), died on the 28th of November in 1927 at the age of 80 years old. Based on her age on her death record, she was born around 1847.

The transcribed marriage record shows the groom Wilhelm Sternitzke was 43 years old in 1882, so he was born around 1839. That matches the calculated year of birth based on his age listed on his first marriage record.

Caroline Skibe was the daughter of Thomas Skibe. Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife were still living at Rosenthal when their son Ferdinand was married in 1914. Caroline's burial record was signed in 1927 by her daughter-in-law, Anna Skiebe. Anna Skiebe was the widow of the Arbeiter Rudolf Skiebe. Anna Skiebe lived in Rosenthal at Mühlstraße 14.

Baptismal Sponsor Frau Schuhmachermeister Starnitzke, March 1879

Frau Schuhmachermeister Starnitzke in Rosenthal was the baptismal sponsor for Anna Maria Weinert at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The baby was born the 13th of December in 1878 and died in 1879. The baby was the daughter of the Rosenthal Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Carl Weinert and his wife Johanna (née Speer) Weinert.

Family of Wilhelm Sternitzke and Caroline (née Skiebe) Sternitzke

- Son Karl Josef Franz Sternitzke (1879- after 1913), married Klara Helene Kopka in 1902, divorced in 1913. They were both Catholic.
 - Martha Maria Sternitzke (1900-unknown).
 - Karl Josef Franz Sternitzke (1903-unknown).
 - Selma Sternitzke (1906-1906).
- Son Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke (1882-1941), married Christiane Pauline Scholz in 1906. Johann was a Catholic, Christiane was a Protestant.
 - Karl Johann Scholz-Sternitzke (1903-unknown).
 - Paul Franz Sternitzke (1906-unknown).
 - Richard Wilhelm Alfred Sternitzke (1907-unknown).

- Artur Sternitzke (1917-unknown).
- Son Ferdinand Franz Joseph Sternitzke (1888-1917), married Martha Berta Klara Pritschok in 1914. They were both Catholic.

Birth of son Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke, 1879

Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke (1879-after 1913) was born on the 12th of September in 1879 at Rosenthal. He was the son the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Sternitzke (c.1854-after 1906) and his wife Caroline (née Skiebe) Sternitzke. The birth record of Karl shows that Wilhelm Sternitzke was a Catholic, and his wife Caroline was a Protestant. Karl was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 21st of September in 1879. The baptism record matches the civil birth record. The baptismal sponsors were: the widow Ilguth from Rosenthal and Marie Skiebe the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Skiebe from Festenberg. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke, 1902 to 1913 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke, 1882

Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke (1882- 1941) was born on the 23rd of January in 1882 at Rosenthal in Breslau County. He was the son of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzke (c.1859-after 1906) and his wife Karoline (née Skibe) Sternitzke who were living in Rosenthal in 1906. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke, 1906 to 1944.

Baptismal Sponsor Caroline (née Sciebe) Sternitzke, May 1882

Caroline (née Sciebe) Sternitzke, the wife of the Schuhmacher Wilhelm Sternitzke at Rosenthal, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Anna Pauline Rosine Sternitzke. The child was born on the 14th of May in 1880 and baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 14th of May in 1882. She was the daughter of Wilhelm's younger brother the Zimmermann Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior) and his wife Rosine (née Hippe) Sternitzke. See the Family of the Schirrvogt Johann Joseph Sternitzke/Sternitzkÿ (1818-1874), c.1839 to 1891 Rosenthal.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son
Ferdinand Franz Joseph Sternitzke, 1888, 1914 & 1917

Ferdinand Franz Joseph Sternitzke (1888-1917) was born at Rosenthal on the 22nd of February in 1888. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Caroline (née Skibe) Sternitzke. In 1914, Ferdinand was employed as an Arbeiter and lived at Rosenthal.

On the 17th of January in 1914, Ferdinand Franz Joseph Sternitzke married the Arbeiterin (laborer) Martha Berta Clara Pritschok at Rosenthal. The bride and the groom were both Catholic. Martha was born on the 15th of November in 1894 at Breslau. She was the daughter of Arbeiter Paul Pritschok and his wife Martha (née Fritsch) Pritschok, who both died at Breslau before the 1914 wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the 29 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Rolle and 21 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Kurt Hutta. Karl Rolle was a resident of Rosenthal. Kurt Hutta lived at Merkelstraße 9 in Breslau.

An extensive note was later handwritten on the marriage record: the marriage between the Arbeiter (laborer) Ferdinand Franz Josef Sternitzke and the Martha Berta Klara (née Pritschok) Sternitzke was dissolved after the husband was declared dead by the Royal Court of Wroclaw, on the 20th of October in 1917. The widow was remarried on the 22nd of May in 1918 as recorded at the Breslau Standesamt III (on marriage certificate number 336 in 1918).

Military records show Ferdinand Sternitzke (born on the 22nd of February at Rosenthal) served in the 4th Company Ersatz Battalion of the Reserve Infantry Regiment Number 10. The casualty reports from October in 1914 listed the wounded Wehrmann (sergeant) Ferdinand Tzernitzke from Rosenthal in Breslau County. Ferdinand Sternitzke was listed as missing in action on the 22nd of November in 1914, but wasn't officially presumed dead until 1917.

Death of Karoline (née Skibe) Sternitzke, 1927

Karoline (née Skibe) Sternitzke, the widow of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzke (a Catholic), died on the 28th of November in 1927 at the age of 80 years old. She was a Protestant and a resident of Hundsfeld near Breslau when she died. Based on her age, she was born around 1847. The causes of her death were listed as Alters und Herzschwäche (old age and weak heart). The burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church referenced the civil death record: number 31 dated the 28th of November in 1927 at the Hundsfeld Standesamt. Karoline (née Skibe) Sternitzke was buried on the 2nd of December in 1927 at the Dorffriedhof (village cemetery) in Rosenthal. Karoline's funeral was paid by her Schwiegertochter (daughter-in-law) Anna Skiebe, a Protestant and the widow of the Arbeiter Rudolf Skiebe. Anna was a resident of Rosenthal at Mühlstraße 14. The person who completed the church record spelled Karoline's, Anna's and Rudolf's family name as Skibe. Anna signed the record as Anna Skiebe.

Marriages and Family of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior) 1872 to 1918 Rosenthal

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior) was born on the 9th of June in 1846 at Rosenthal. He was the son of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (senior, 1818-1874) and his first wife. See the Family of the Schirrvogt Johann Joseph Sternitzke/Sternitzky (1818-1874), c.1839 to 1891 Rosenthal.

First Marriage of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1872

On the 17th of November in 1872, the Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzki (also known as Sternitzke) married the Jungfrau Johanna Krella at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The church record listed the groom as a Catholic and 26 years old. The bride was a Protestant and she was 29 years old at the time of the wedding. This was the first marriage for both of them. The groom's father was listed as the Schirrvogt Joseph Sternitzki (also known as Sternitzke) from Rosenthal.

Johanna Krella (1843-1874) was born on the 23rd of September in 1843 at Ossen in Polnisch Wartenberg County. The marriage record shows she was the daughter of the deceased Dreschgärtner Johann Krella from Ossen. A Dreschgärtner (threshing farmer) was a farmer who owed annual threshing and flax processing services for the fields owned by the village landlord. Johanna (née Krella) Sternitzke died at Rosenthal on the 8th of June in 1874, at the age of 30 years, 8 months and 15 days. She was buried at Rosenthal on the 11th of June in 1874. Her death record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed her cause of death as Lungenschwindsucht (bronchial phthisis).

Second Marriage of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1874

The Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzki (also known as Sternitzke) was a widower when he married Anna Rosina Hippe on the 20th of September in 1874 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church at Breslau. The church record for the 1874 marriage shows the groom was 28 years old, a Catholic and he lived at Rosenthal. He was born at Rosenthal in 1846.

The bride Anna Rosina Hippe was also 28 years old in 1874 and she also lived at Rosenthal. Based on her age in 1874, she was born around 1846. She was a Protestant. She was born at Groß Biadauschke in Trebnitz County – the oldest daughter of the Freigärtner Ernst Hippe in Gross Biadauschke.

The Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke and his second wife Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke lived at Pohlenowitz in 1876. The baptism records of their children show that the family lived at Rosenthal in 1878 and 1880.

Birth and Death of son Joseph Julius Carl Sternitzki/Sternitzke (1874-1875)

The civil birth record for this child listed him as Carl Julius Josef Sternitzke. Carl Julius Josef Sternitzke was born at Rosenthal on the 18th of November in 1874. He was the son of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke and Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke. The father's religion was listed as Protestant.

The available birth record was a Neben (duplicate) record. The registrar wrote the father's name as Josef Sternitzke, then copied the father's signature with a correction. It may have been written Joseph Sternitzki and corrected to Sternitzke.

The church baptism record shows Joseph Julius Carl Sternitzki (also known as Sternitzke) was born on the 18th of November in 1874. He was baptized on the 6th of December on 1874 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. A note in the margin of the baptism record shows he died in 1875 (record number 258 in the church record book). His parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Joseph Sternitzki (also known as Sternitzke) and his wife Rosina née Hippe. The father was a Catholic. The mother was Protestant. They lived in Rosenthal. The baptismal sponsors were: the Haushälter Julius Zinke from Breslau, Pauline Hippe the daughter of the Ernst Hippe from Ellguth bei Trebnitz, and Pauline (née Krensel) Kaiser the wife of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Kaiser from Rosenthal.

Burial record number 258 on the 10th of June in 1875, from the 1874 to 1876 burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, shows that Carl Julius

Joseph Sternitzke died from Krämpfen (infantile convulsions) on the 6th of June in 1875. He was 6 months and 18 days old. His father was listed as the Zimmermann Joseph Sternitzke from Rosenthal.

Birth of son Gustav Heinrich Herrmann Sternitzke, 1875

Gustav Heinrich Herrmann Sternitzke (1875-1946) was born on the 19th of December in 1875. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 9th of January in 1876. The baptismal record listed his parents as the Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke who lived at Pohlenowitz. The baptismal sponsors were: the Schäfer (shepherd) Gottlieb Krella from Petershof near Pühlau in Öls County, and Christiane (née Sander) Sternitzke the wife of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Sternitzke from Rosenthal.

Gottlieb Krella may have been the brother Johanna (née Krella) Sternitzke, who was the first wife of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzke (also known as Sternitzki). Johanna (née Krella) Sternitzke died at Rosenthal on the 8th of June in 1874.

Louise Christiane Sander married Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke on the 30th of November in 1873. Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke was the older brother of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzke.

See the Family of Gustav Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke, 1902 to 1946 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of son
Carl Friedrich Joseph Sternitzke (1879-1879)

Carl Friedrich Joseph Sternitzke was born on the 8th of March in 1879. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 24th of May in 1879. A note on the baptism record shows the baby died in 1879 (church record number 421). The baby's parents were the Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke from Rosenthal and Anna Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke. The father was a Catholic. The mother was a Protestant. They lived at Haus Nr. 16 in the village of Rosenthal. The baptismal sponsor was Auguste (née Kassner) Adam, the wife of the Tagarbeiter Adam from Rosenthal.

The 1877 to 1880 burial record book for Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows Carl Friedrich Joseph Sternitzke died on the 9th of June in 1879 at the age of 3 months old. He was buried on the 12th of June in 1879. His father was listed as the Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke who was a resident in Rosenthal. The cause of death was listed as Darmkatarrh (now called enteritis) which is an inflammation of the intestinal tract, especially of the small intestine.

Baptism Sponsor Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke, 1879

Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke was the baptismal sponsor for Robert Friedrich Wilhelm Adam on the 11th of December in 1879. She was described in the church record as the wife of the Zimmermann Sternitzke in Rosenthal. The child was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. He was the son of the Rosenthal Tagearbeiter Carl Adam and Auguste (née Kassner) Adam. The father was a Catholic. The mother was a Protestant.

Anna Pauline Rosine Sternitzke, 1880

Anna Pauline Rosine Sternitzke was born on the 14th of May in 1880. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 14th of May in 1882 (two years after her birth). Her parents were the Zimmermann Joseph Sternitzke (a Catholic) and Rosine (née Hippe) Sternitzke (a Protestant). They lived at the village Rosenthal.

The baptismal sponsors were: Caroline (née Sciebe) Sternitzke, the wife of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Sternitzke, and the Arbeiterin (laborer) Caroline Heinhold from Rosenthal. The Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Sternitzke was Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke. He was the older brother of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Joseph Sternitzke.

Anna Pauline Rosina Sternitzke married Adolf Ernst Louis Leuchtenberger sometime before September of 1902. See the Family of Anna Pauline Rosina (née Sternitzke) Leuchtenberger, September 1902 to 1937 City of Breslau.

Death of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1880 to 1883

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior) must have died between 1880 and 1883. On the 4th of November in 1883, Rosine Sternitzke, the widow of the Zimmermann Joseph Sternitzke in Rosenthal, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Emma Louise Hein.

Baptismal Sponsor Rosine (née Hippe) Sternitzke, 1883

Rosine Sternitzke, who was the widow of the deceased Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke in Rosenthal, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Emma Louise Hein. The child was baptized on the 4th of November in 1883 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church.

Emma Louise Hein was born on the 18th of October in 1883. She was the daughter of the Fabrikarbeiter (factory laborer) Carl Hein and his wife Louise (née Pachale) Hein from Rosenthal. The other sponsor was Dorothea Gammert, the wife of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gammert in Rosenthal.

Death of Frau Sternitzke (geboren Hippe), 1918

The 1912 to 1847 burial registry book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed the name and burial years for burials during those years. It was intended as an index for the separate burial record books from those years.

Frau Sternitzke, whose maiden name was Hippe, was buried in 1918. The record number for her burial was number 742 in 1918. Unfortunately, the record book for that year was not available for download and review from the website for the National Archive in Wrocław (Archiwum Państwowe we Wrocławiu). Perhaps it was lost or damaged.

Birth, Marriage and Family of Georg Julius Gustav Sternitzki/Sternitzke/Sternitzky/Sternitzki/Sternitzky
 1877 to 1934 Rosenthal

Georg Julius Gustav Sternitzkÿ (1877-1922) was born on the 30th of October in 1877. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of November in 1877. His parents were listed on the baptism record as the Rosenthal Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ and Auguste (née Goubillon) Sternitzkÿ. The baptismal sponsor was Rosine (née Marsch) Beier, the wife of the Arbeiter Beier in Rosenthal. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/ Sternitzkÿ (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubilion, 1860- 1943 Rosenthal.

Baptismal Sponsors, 1899

Georg Hermann Fritz Auras was born at Breslau on the 30th of October in 1899. The father, the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Auras was Catholic. His wife Anna (née Sternitzky) Auras was Protestant. They lived at Garvestrasse 22. The baby was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 19th of November in 1899. The baptismal sponsors were the Schlosser (mechanic) Georg Sternitzky from Rosenthal in Breslau County, and the Arbeiterin (laborer) Pauline Rettig who was also from the village Rosenthal. Georg Sternitzky was the younger brother of Anna (née Sternitzky) Auras. See the Family of Josef Auras and Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras, 1884 Rosenthal to 1900 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Georg Julius Gustav Sternitzki, 1902

The 1902 marriage record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed Georg Sternitzki as a Schlosser from Rosenthal. His bride was listed as the Arbeiterin (laborer) Pauline Rettig from Rosenthal. They were both Protestants.

This duplicate civil marriage record had conflicting spellings of the Sternitzke and Rättig (or Rettig) names. The Sternitzke variations found on the two-page document included: Sternitzki, Sternitzky, Sternitzkÿ and Sternitzki. The civil registrar apparently was very careful in copying this record for the Breslau Neben (duplicate) record book. The signatures were copied by the registrar and are shown below.

The Schlosser (mechanic) Georg Julius Gustav Sternitzki married the Wirthin (innkeeper) Pauline Auguste Rättig at Rosenthal on the 13th of December in 1902. They were both Protestant and this was the first marriage for both of them. His civil marriage record showed Georg was the son of the Maurer (mason) Wilhelm Sternitzki and his wife Auguste (née Goubilion) Sternitzki. The groom's father died before Georg's 1902 wedding. The groom's mother was still living at Rosenthal in 1902.

These were the spellings of their names on the first page of the civil marriage record. The surname of Georg was written as Sternitzki three times on his marriage record (see the discussion below regarding the illegitimate child notes written by the registrar) but the registrar who copied the record for the Neben (duplicate record book) copied the groom's signature as Georg Starnitzki.

Pauline Auguste Rättig (whose signature was copied as Pauline Sternitzki geboren Rettig) was born at Bogschütz in Breslau County. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Ernst Rättig and Dorothea (née Schlaaf) Rättig who both died at Breslau before the 1902 wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the 41 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Starnitzky (whose signature was copied as Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ) and the 38 years old Kutscher (coachman) August Rettig. Both men resided at Rosenthal in Breslau County. Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ was an older brother of the groom.

Birth of son Georg Wilhelm Sternitzki, 1901

There are two notes by the registrar on the second page of the 1902 marriage record of Georg Sternitzki and Pauline Rättig. The first note shows that Georg Sternitzki recognized the child born by Pauline Rättig at Rosenthal on the 13th of November in 1901 as his child. The child's first names were Georg Wilhelm. The second note on that record shows that Georg Sternitzki stated that the correct birth date of the child Georg Wilhelm Sternitzki was the 13th of December in 1901.

Georg Wilhelm Rettig was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 25th of December in 1901. He was born at Rosenthal on the 13th of December in 1901. His mother was listed as Pauline Rettig, the daughter of Ernst Rettig from Rosenthal. A note on the baptism record states the Schlosser Georg Sternitzki made Georg Wilhelm Rettig legitimate on the 19th of December in 1902. The baptismal sponsors were the Arbeiterin Pauline Rettig from Rosenthal and the Arbeiterin Pauline Sternitzke from Rosenthal.

George Wilhelm Sternitzki married Hedwig Beier around 1923. Their son Georg Richard Sternitzki was born on the 4th of March in 1924. See the Family of Georg Sternitzki and Hedwig (née Beier) Sternitzki, 1924 to 1926 Rosenthal.

Birth of daughters Anna Auguste Sternitzki, 1903 and 1904

The baptismal records for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church included the records for two daughters of Georg Sternitzki and his wife Pauline (née Rettig) Sternitzki. Both girls were baptized as Anna Auguste Sternitzki. The first one was born and died in 1903. The second daughter was born in 1904.

Birth and Death of daughter Anna Auguste Sternitzki (1903-1903)

Anna Auguste Sternitzki was born at Rosenthal on the 20th of June 1903. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 28th of June in 1903. Her parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Schlosser (mechanic) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Pauline (née Rettig) Sternitzki. They were Protestants and lived at Rosenthal. The baptismal sponsor was the Arbeiterin Pauline Sternitzki from Rosenthal.

The Schlosser's daughter Anna Sternitzke from Rosenthal died on the 18th of September in 1903, at the age of 3 months old. She was buried on the 21st of September in the Rosenthal cemetery for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The church death/burial record book referenced her civil death record: number 79 at the Rosenthal Standesamt.

Birth of daughter Anna Auguste Sternitzki, 1904

Anna Auguste Sternitzki was born at Rosenthal on the 16th of September in 1904. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 25th of September in 1904. Her parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Schlosser (mechanic) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Pauline (née Rettig) Sternitzki. They were Protestants and lived at Rosenthal. The baptismal sponsor was the Arbeiterin Pauline Sternitzki from Rosenthal.

Anna Auguste Sternitzki married Georg Paul Emanuel Schiefer in 1930. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Auguste Sternitzki, 1928 to 1930 Village of Rosenthal.

First World War Service, 1918

George Sternitzke served in the German Army during the First World War. He was wounded on the 7th of September in 1918. According to the military casualty report, he was born on the 30th of October at Rosenthal in Breslau County.

Death of Georg Julius Gustav Sternitzke (1877-1922)

The Schlosser Georg Sternitzke died on the 26th of December in 1922 from Lungenentzündung (pneumonia). He was buried on the 30th of December in 1922 at the community cemetery in Rosenthal. His burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed his last residence as Hauptstraße 3. The burial record referenced his civil death record as number 48 in 1922 at the Rosenthal Standesamt. His funeral expenses were paid by his son Georg Wilhelm, who was listed as Georg Sternitzke on the burial record, but signed his name on that record as Georg Sternitzkÿ. The signature of Georg Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ is shown here.

Breslau (Rosenthal) Address Books, 1914 to 1934

The Schlosser (mechanic) Georg Sternitzky was listed as a resident at Hauptstraße 36 in Rosenthal, in the Breslau address books for 1914, 1915, 1916, 1918 and 1923. The data collection for the 1923 address book was collected in 1922. The Schlosser Georg Sternitzky died in December of 1922 and his burial record listed Hauptstraße 3 as his last residence. He probably moved to Hauptstraße 3 in 1922.

The Bauarbeiter (construction laborer) Georg Wilhelm Sternitzky (the son of the Schlosser Georg Sternitzky) and his mother Pauline Auguste (née Rättig) Sternitzky (the widow of the Schlosser Georg Sternitzky) lived at Hauptstraße 3 in 1924, 1926, 1927 and 1928.

Hauptstraße in Rosenthal was renamed as Trachenberger Straße on the 29th of July in 1929. That street is now named Ulica Żmigrodzka. In 1931 and 1934, Pauline (née Rettig) Sternitzky lived at Trachenberger Straße 75. She lived with Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzky, the wife of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzky.

Family of Josef Auras and Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras 1884 Rosenthal to 1900 City of Breslau

Anna Auguste Marie Stanetzky / Starnitzky / Stanitzkÿ / Stanetzkÿ was born on the 10th of April in 1860 and baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of April in 1860. Her parents were both Protestants and lived in the village Rosenthal at house number 55. Her father was the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky). See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubillon, 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal.

Joseph Auras was 31 years old when he was a witness at the wedding of his wife's sister Auguste Johanne Emilie Stanetzky/Starnitzky on the 7th of March in 1890. So, Joseph Auras was born around 1859.

Birth of daughter Anna Auguste Emilie Starnitzki, 1882

Anna Auguste Emilie Starnitzki was born on the 11th of November in 1882. She was the daughter of the unmarried Anna Starnitzki, the daughter of the Maurer Wilhelm Starnitzki from Rosenthal. The mother was a Protestant and lived at Rosenthal. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 26th of November in 1882. The baptismal sponsors were: the Rosenthal Arbeiter Wilhelm Starnitzki and Auguste Starnitzki the daughter of the Maurer Wilhelm Starnitzki in Rosenthal.

The Rosenthal Arbeiter Wilhelm Starnitzki was the mother's brother: Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky, 1861-c.1920). See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzky/ Stanetzki/ Stanetzky/ Stanetzky/ Starnitzki/ Starnitzky/ Sternitzky, 1861 to 1945 Rosenthal.

Auguste Starnitzki was the mother's sister: Auguste Johanne Emilie Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky, 1866-1927). See the Birth, Marriage, Family and Death of Auguste Johanne Emilie Stanetzky/ Stanetzky/ Stanetzky/ Starnitzky/ Starnitzky/ Sternitzke, 1866 to 1927 Rosenthal.

The mother Anna Auguste Marie Starnitzki married the Arbeiter Joseph Auras around 1884.

Birth and Death of son Carl Friedrich Wilhelm Auras (1884-1890)

Carl Friedrich Wilhelm Auras was born on the 29th of September in 1884. He was the son of Joseph Auras and Anna (née Stanitzky / Stanetzky) Auras. Joseph Auras was a Catholic and was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) for the Ober Schlesische Eisenbahn. Anna Stanitzky (also known as Stanetzky) was a Protestant. They were residents of the village Rosenthal. Their son was baptized on the 9th of November in 1884 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Starnitzky, the Arbeiter Robert Starnitzky and the Arbeiterin Auguste Starnitzky. The three godparents were also residents of Rosenthal. The sponsors were siblings of the child's mother.

Carl Auras was 5 years and 10 months old when he died at home on the 18th of August in 1890. According to their son's civil death record, the Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Josef Auras and his wife Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras lived at Breslau in 1890 at Schulgasse 3 (near the east side of the Freiheitsbrücke bridge, now Hoene-Wrońskiego Józefa Marii Street).

Birth of daughter Augusta Emma Marie Auras, 1889

Augusta Emma Marie Auras was born at Breslau on the 22nd of August in 1889. Her birth record listed her parents as the Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Joseph Auras (a Catholic) and his wife Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras (who was a Protestant). According to the birth record they lived at Schulstraße 3 in Breslau. The 20 October 1889 baptismal record for Auguste Emma Marie Auras identified her parents as the Bahnarbeiter Joseph Auras and Anna (née Starnitzky) Auras. It listed their address as Schulgasse 3.

The baptismal sponsors were the unmarried woman Auguste Starnitzky, the Arbeiter Carl Auras and the Mauer (mason) Gottlieb Kiefer. Auguste Starnitzky (also known as Auguste Stanetzky) was Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras' sister. Auguste married Gottlieb Kiefer in 1890. Joseph Auras was one of the wedding witnesses at the 1890 wedding of Auguste Starnitzky. See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Auguste Johanne Emilie Stanetzky/Stanetzky/Starnitzky/Starnitzky, 1866 to 1927 Rosenthal.

Birth of daughter Marie Auguste Emma Auras, 1891

Marie Auguste Emma Auras was born at Breslau on the 3rd of August in 1891. The Arbeiter Josef Auras and his wife Anna née Stanetzky were living at Schulstraße 3 in 1891. The baby was baptized on the 20th of August in 1891. No baptismal sponsors were listed. The St. Bernhardin baptism record listed the baby's name as Marie Emma Anna Auras and the mother's name as Anna (née Sternitzkÿ) Auras. All other details were the same between the birth and baptism records.

Birth of daughter Emma Auguste Emilie Auras, 1893

Emma Auguste Emilie Auras was born at Breslau on the 30th of March in 1893. The Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Josef Auras and his wife Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras lived at Garvestrasse 22 (4 blocks southeast from St. Bernhardin Church, now Kujawska Street). Josef was a Catholic. Anna was a Protestant. The baptism record listed the baby's name as Emma Anna Emilie Auras, and her parents were listed as the Arbeiter Joseph Auras and his wife Anna (née Starnitzky) Auras. The baptismal sponsor was the Maurersfrau (wife of a mason) Auguste Kiefer, the younger sister of Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras. See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Auguste Johanne Emilie Stanetzky/Stanetzkÿ/Starnitzky/Starnitzkÿ, 1866 to 1927 Rosenthal.

Birth and Death of son Georg Hermann Fritz Auras (1899-1900)

Georg Hermann Fritz Auras was born at Breslau on the 30th of October in 1899. The father, the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Auras was Catholic. His wife Anna (née Starnitzky) Auras was Protestant. They lived at Garvestrasse 22. The baby was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 19th of November in 1899. The baptismal sponsors were the Schlosser (mechanic) Georg Starnitzky from Rosenthal in Breslau County, and the Arbeiterin Pauline Rettig who was also from the village Rosenthal. George Starnitzky was the younger brother of Anna (née Starnitzky) Auras. He married Pauline Auguste Rättig in 1902. See the Village of Rosenthal in Breslau County: Birth, Marriage and Family of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzki / Sternitzke / Starnitzky / Sternitzki / Sternitzky, 1877 to 1934 Rosenthal.

Georg Auras, the son of the Promenadenarbeiter (promenade laborer) Joseph Auras and Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras died at the age of 6 months old, in the family home at Garvestrasse 22, on the 1st of May in 1900.

Birth, Marriage and Family of Berta Anna Stanetzky/Stanetzky 1886 Rosenthal, 1906 to 1938 City of Breslau

Berta Anna Stanetzky (1886-after 1910) was born in the village Rosenthal in Breslau County on the 20th of June in 1886. According to her 1906 marriage record, she was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Robert Stanetzky and his wife Pauline (née Stein) Stanetzky. Her father died at Rosenthal before Anna's wedding in 1906, but her mother was still living at Rosenthal at that time. See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Theodor August Robert Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1863-1904), 1863 to 1916 Rosenthal.

In 1906, Berta Anna Stanetzky was employed as a Köchin (cook) and lived in Breslau at Neue Tauentzienstrasse 36 (one block north of the main trainstation, now General Kościuszki Tadeusza Street). On the 26th of November in 1906, Berta married the Arbeiter (laborer) Johann Eduard Krauspe who lived at the same address in Breslau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. The groom signed the marriage record as Eduard Krauspe. The bride signed as Anna Krauspe geboren Stanetzky.

According to the marriage record, Johann Eduard Krauspe was born between the 16th and the 28th of June in 1879 at Iwanowice in Kalisch County of Russian-Poland. He was the son of the deceased Eisenbahnschlosser (railroad mechanic) Adolf Krauspe who died at Radom in Russian-Poland, and Adolf's wife Franziska (née Kozlowitsch) Krauspe. Franziska was alive at the time of her son's wedding, and was married to the Modelltischler (pattern maker) Gembarowski at Lodz (Łódź) in Russian-Poland. A note on the 1906 marriage record states that Johann Eduard Krauspe died on the 14th of May in 1942 at Schmiedeberg (now known as Kowary, 58 miles southwest of Breslau). His death record was number 103 in 1942.

Witnesses to the 1906 wedding included the 43 years old Haushälter (janitor) Hermann Krauspe and the 26 years old Maler (painter) Alfred Siegel. Hermann Krauspe lived in Breslau at Tannengasse 1 (an alley at the northwest corner of the Neumark market square, now known as Jodłwa Street).

Birth of son Siegfried Krauspe, 1909

Johann Eduard Krauspe and his wife Berta Anna (née Stanetzky) Krauspe had a son, Siegfried Krauspe, who was born at Breslau on the 13th of January in 1909. At that time, the family was living at Hubenstraße 49 (3 blocks southeast from the main trainstation, now Hubska Street). A midwife named Brunhilde Richter signed the 1909 birth record.

Siegfried Krauspe, the son the Arbeiter (laborer) Eduard Krauspe and Anna (née Starnetzky) Krauspe, was baptized on the 31st of January in 1909 (baptism record number 63) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism sponsors were: the Catholic Arbeiter August Prause from Breslau, the Arbeiter Robert Hentschel from Breslau, the Arbeiter Anna Auras from Breslau and the Stubenmädchen (chambermaid) Auguste Starnetzky from Schön Elguth (Schön-Ellguth).

The sponsor Anna Auras was probably the daughter of Anna Auguste Marie (née Stanetzky) Auras and Josef Auras. See the Family of Josef Auras and Anna (née Stanetzky) Auras, 1884 Rosenthal to 1900 City of Breslau.

The sponsor Auguste Starnetzky was probably the baby's aunt, Auguste Anna Pauline Starnetzki (1888-?). See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Theodor August Robert Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1863-1904), 1863 to 1916 Rosenthal.

Birth of son Erich Krauspe, 1910

Johann Eduard Krauspe and his wife Berta Anna (née Stanetzky) Krauspe had a second son, Erich Krauspe. Erich was born at the family home in Breslau on the 22nd of January 1910. At that time the family lived at Agnestraße 8 (one block south of the old city moat, now Michała Bałuckiego Street). Johann Eduard Krauspe signed the birth record (see below). A note on the birth record states that Erich Krauspe was married at Breslau in 1938, as recorded on marriage record number 1259 in 1938 at Breslau Standesamt II.

Erich Krauspe was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of January in 1910. The baptism sponsors were: the Dienstmädchen (maid servant) Anna Auras from Breslau and the Haushälter (janitor) Hermann Krauspe from Breslau.

Marriage and Family of Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke 1902 to 1913 City of Breslau

Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke (1879-after 1913) was born on the 12th of September in 1879 at Rosenthal. He was the son the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Sternitzke (c.1854-after 1906) and his wife Caroline (née Skiebe) Sternitzke. The birth record of Karl shows that Wilhelm Sternitzke was a Catholic, and his wife Caroline was a Protestant. Karl was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 21st of September in 1879. The baptism record matches the civil birth record. The baptismal sponsors were: the widow Ilguth from Rosenthal and Marie Skiebe the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Skiebe from Festenberg. See the Marriages and Family of the Schuhmacher Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke, 1861 Rosenthal to 1944 City of Breslau.

Marriage and Divorce of Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke, 1902 & 1913

The Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Josef Franz Sternitzke married the Arbeiterin (laborer) Klara Helene Kopka at Breslau on the 29th of October in 1902. The groom and the bride were both Catholics, and they both lived at Rosenthal. A note in the margin of the first page of their marriage record stated the couple divorced at Breslau on the 17th of April in 1913.

The groom's parents, the Schuhmacher Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Caroline (née Skiebe) Sternitzke were still living at Rosenthal at the time of the wedding.

Klara Helene Kopka was born on the 5th of August in 1881 in Namslau County. The marriage document was faded where the village name was written. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Andreas Kopka and his wife Helena (née Sessa) Kupka. At the time of the wedding, Helena Kupka was deceased and Andreas Kupka lived at Karlowitz.

The witnesses at the 1902 wedding were the 27 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Andreas Kopka and 24 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Skiebe. Andreas Kopka lived at Karlowitz in Breslau County. Wilhelm Skiebe lived at Rosenthal in Breslau County.

Children of Karl Joseph Franz Sternitzke

The second page of their 1902 marriage record included a note: Karl Sternitzke declared the two children born by Klara Kopka as his own. Those two children were:

- Martha Maria Sternitzke (1900-unknown) was born on the 16th of July in 1900.
- Karl Josef Franz Sternitzke (1901-unknown) was born the 4th of December in 1901.

The Arbeiter (laborer) Carl Sternitzke and Clara (née Kopka) Sternitzke had a daughter Selma Sternitzke, who was born on the 8th of June in 1906. Selma died at her parents' home in Rosenthal at the age of 1 month and 9 days on the 17th of July in 1906. The baby was a Catholic.

Marriage and Family of Margarete Starnitzkÿ 1908 to 1932 Rosenthal, Carlowitz and City of Breslau

The Arbeiter (laborer) Robert Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky) reported the birth of his daughter Margaretha Anna Stanetzky. She was born on the 22nd of June in 1890 at the family home in Rosenthal. The family was Protestant. The mother's name was listed as Pauline (née Stein) Stanetzky (also known as Starnitzky). See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Theodor August Robert Stanetzky/Starnitzkÿ (1863-1904), 1863 to 1917 Rosenthal.

The Rosenthal Arbeiterin (laborer) Margarete Starnitzkÿ married the Rosenthal Kutscher (coachman) Hermann Robert Alois Geide at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 22nd of August in 1908. They were both Protestant.

The church record referenced their civil marriage record: Standesamt Rosenthal, 22 August 1908, record number 41.

Birth of daughter Margarete Gertrud Geide, 1909

Margarete Gertrud Geide was born at Rosenthal on the 12th of March in 1909. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 21st of March in 1909. The baptismal record listed her parents as the Kutscher (coachman) Hermann Geide from Rosenthal and his wife Margarete (née Starnitzkÿ) Geide. The baptismal sponsor was the Arbeiterin Pauline Starnitzkÿ from Rosenthal.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Margarete Geide, 1910 Carlowitz

Gertrud Margarete Geide was born at Carlowitz on the 28th of January in 1910. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of February in 1910. The baptismal record listed her parents as the Kutscher (coachman) Hermann Geide from Carlowitz and his wife Margarete (née Starnitzkÿ) Geide.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiterin Pauline Starnitzkÿ from Rosenthal, and the Arbeiterin Anna Dreier from Jänschdorf. The villages Jänschdorf, Gut Jänschdorf and Nieder-Jänschdorf were in Öls County. They were west of the city of Öls, and near the border with Trebnitz County. Jänschdorf is now named Januszkowice, Poland.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Frieda Gertrud Geide, 1912 & 1932

The Arbeiter Hermann Robert Alois Geide and his wife Margareta Anna (née Starnitzkÿ) Geide were both Protestant and lived in Breslau at Schießwerderplatz 14 in 1912. Their daughter, Frieda Gertrud Geide was born at Breslau on the 28th of April in 1912. Her birth was reported by the Hebamme (midwife) Pauline Hippauf who lived in Breslau at Trebnitzerstraße 11. A note on the birth record shows that Frieda Gertrud Geide was married at Breslau in 1932 (marriage record number 201).

Marriage and Family of Karl Starnitzkÿ 1922 to 1943 Rosenthal and Breslau

Karl Starnitzkÿ was the son of Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzkÿ (also known as Starnitzkÿ) and Anna Auguste Selma (née Lachmann) Starnitzkÿ. The birth record of Karl Starnitzkÿ listed him as Carl Richard Wilhelm Stanetzky. He was born in the home of his parents at Rosenthal on the 6th of May in 1894. His birth record was completed by a midwife. He was baptized with a different order of his middle names, as Carl Wilhelm Richard Starnitzkÿ at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of May in 1894.

See the discussion of this branch of the family in the Breslau address books in the Birth, Marriage, Family and Death of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzkÿ / Stanetzki/ Stanetzky/ Stanetzkÿ/ Starnitzki/ Starnitzky/ Sternitzky, 1861 to 1945 Rosenthal. In 1935 and 1937, the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzky (who was Selma's son Carl Richard Wilhelm Starnitzky) was living at Mühlstraße 6. He was not listed in the 1941 or 1943 address books.

The Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Starnitzky lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal in 1922. On the 16th of December in 1922, he married Wally Schieweg at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestant. Prior to the wedding, the bride lived at Oberrigkerstraße 23 in Rosenthal. They lived at Rosenthal after the marriage.

The church marriage record referenced their civil marriage record at Standesamt Rosenthal as record number 31, dated the 16th of December in 1922.

Baptismal Sponsor Wally Sternitzke, 1923

Frau Wally Sternitzky from Rosenthal was one of the baptismal sponsors for Käte Gertrude Wally Starnitzky at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 23rd of September in 1923. The baby was born on the 10th of September in 1923 and her birth was recorded at the Rosenthal Standesamt on birth record number 49 in 1923. She was the daughter of the unmarried Arbeiterin (laborer) Gertrud Starnitzky. Gertrud lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal.

The other sponsors for Käte Gertrude Wally Starnitzky were: the Arbeiter Richard Seidel who lived at Heinrichstraße 14, and the Arbeiterin Gertrud Böhm who lived in Pohlenowitz.

The Arbeiter Richard Seidel married Karl Starnitzky's sister Auguste Anna Selma Starnitzky on the 22nd of September in 1912. See the Marriage and Family of Auguste (née Starnitzky) Seidel, 1912 City of Breslau.

The Arbeiterin Gertrud Böhm from Pohlenowitz was probably a sister of Richard Böhm from Pohlenowitz. Gertrud Starnitzky married Richard Böhm from Pohlenowitz on the 20th of December in 1924. See the Marriage and Family of Gertrud Starnitzky/Sternitzky, 1923 to 1930 Rosenthal and Breslau.

Käthe Starnitzky died on the 9th of November in 1923, at the age of one month old (actually just one day short of two months old). The cause of death was identified on the church record as Herzfehler (cardiac defect). She was buried at the Rosenthal village cemetery on the 12th of November in 1923. She was the daughter of the ledigen Arbeiterin (unmarried laborer) Gertrud Starnitzky, who lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal. The death and burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows that the death was reported by, and the funeral expenses were paid by Käthe's aunt Frau Wally Sternitzky who lived in Rosenthal at Oberrigkerstraße 23. The church record referenced the civil death record as number 33 dated the 10th of November in 1923 at the Rosenthal Standesamt.

The identification of Frau Wally Sternitzky as the aunt of Käthe Starnitzky is very significant because it means that Gertrud Starnitzky was one of the sisters of Wally's husband Karl Richard Wilhelm Sternitzke/ Sternitzky/ Starnitzky. He married Wally Schieweg in 1922. Karl Sternitzke had three sisters whose names included Gertrud, but only Gertrud Selma Starnitzkÿ was known to survive childhood:

- Selma Elfriede Gertrud Starnitzkÿ was born at Rosenthal on the 1st of March in 1897. Selma Stanetzki, the daughter of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Stanetzki, died at Rosenthal on the 24th of July in 1897.
- Gertrud Charlotte Magdalena Starnitzkÿ was born at Rosenthal on the 16th of June in 1900. The Arbeiter's daughter Gertrud Sternitzkÿ died at Rosenthal on the 12th of March in 1903 at the age of 2 years and 9 months old.
- Gertrud Selma Starnitzkÿ was born at Rosenthal on the 18th of January in 1904.

Birth of son Reinhard Karl Hermann Starnitzky, 1926

Reinhard Karl Hermann Starnitzky was born at Rosenthal on the 25th of June in 1926. His parents, the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzky and his wife Wally (née Schuweg) Starnitzky lived in Rosenthal at Obernigkerstraße 15 (now named ulica Obernicka).

The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 18th of July in 1926. The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiter Hermann Schuweg who lived at Obernigkerstraße 23 in Rosenthal. The widow Selma Starnitzky who lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal, the Ehefrau Else Schuweg who lived at Lehmgruben Straße 1 (now ulica Gliniana), the Stütze (domestic help) Emilie Adler from Bettlern in Breslau County (now Bielany Wroclawskie, Poland) the Schneiderin (tailor) Else Mezner and Kurt Rudiger.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Regina Wallÿ Starnitzkÿ, 1927

Gertrud Regina Wallÿ Starnitzkÿ was born at Rosenthal on 31st of October in 1927. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 25th of December in 1927. Her parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzkÿ and his wife Wallÿ (née Schieweg) Starnitzkÿ. The baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Ehefrau Auguste Schieweg from Rosenthal, the Protestant Arbeiter Richard Seidel from Heinrichstraße 16 in Breslau, and the Protestant Zimmermann Hermann Starnitzkÿ from Rosenthal.

The Zimmermann Hermann Starnitzkÿ from Rosenthal was Karl's brother Hermann Paul Ernst Starnitzkÿ. See the Marriage of Hermann Starnitzkÿ, April 1934 Village of Rosenthal.

Baptismal Sponsor Walli Starnitzkÿ, 1937

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Walli Starnitzkÿ was a baptismal sponsor for Dorothea Elsa Stock on the 29th of January in 1937, at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Walli Starnitzkÿ was a Protestant, and she lived at Hochkircherstraße 2 in Rosenthal. A 1943 map of Breslau showed Hochkircherstraße was short street that ran south from Mühlstraße. It was one block west of Hauptstraße. Hochkircherstraße is now named Zaulek Rogoziński Street in Wrocław. The other sponsor was the Protestant Ehefrau Paula Schieweg who lived at Bergmannstraße in Breslau.

Dorothea Elsa Stock was born at Breslau on the 26th of January in 1937. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Max Stock and his wife Elsa (née Metzner) Stock. They lived in Breslau at Schleiermacherstraße 10.

Breslau Address Books

The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Sternitzke and the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzky as residents at Gartenstraße 39. They were the brothers Carl Richard Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ and Wilhelm Karl August Starnitzkÿ (1890-1915).

The 1915 Breslau address book listed the brothers at Gartenstraße 39 as the Arbeiter Karl Sternitzke and the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzke.

The 1916 Breslau address book listed the brothers at Gartenstraße 39 as the Arbeiter Karl Sternitzke and the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzky. Wilhelm must have died after the data collection in 1915 for the 1916 book. The military casualty report that listed his death was dated the 25th of October in 1915. It listed him as killed in action.

The Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Starnitzkÿ lived at Hauptstraße 3 when he married Wally Schieweg the 16th of December in 1922. The address books from 1926, 1927 and 1928 listed the Arbeiter Karl Sternitzky at Obernigker Straße 15. The address book from 1931 listed the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzke at Mühlstraße 7. He was listed as the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzke at Mühstraße 1 in 1934. He was listed as the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzky at Mühlstraße 6 in 1935 and 1937 address books. He was listed as the Arbeiter Karl Starnitzky at Hochkircher Straße 2 in 1941 and 1943.

Marriage and Family of Gertrud Starnitzky/Sternitzkÿ 1923 to 1930 Rosenthal and Breslau

Gertrud Selma Starnitzkÿ was born at Rosenthal on the 18th of January in 1904. She was the daughter of Karl Wilhelm August Stanetzkÿ (also known as Starnitzkÿ) and Anna Auguste Selma (née Lachmann) Starnitzkÿ. See Marriage, Family and Death of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzkÿ / Stanetzki / Stanetzky / Stanetzkÿ / Starnitzki / Starnitzky / Sternitzky, 1861 to 1945 Rosenthal.

Birth and Death of daughter Käte Gertrude Wally Starnitzkÿ (1923-1923)

The unmarried Arbeiterin (laborer) Gertrud Starnitzkÿ lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal in 1923. Her daughter Käte Gertrude Wally Starnitzkÿ was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 23rd of September in 1923. The baby was born on the 10th of September in 1923 and her birth was recorded at the Rosenthal Standesamt on birth record number 49 in 1923. The baptismal sponsors were the child's aunt Frau Wally Sternitzky from Rosenthal, the Arbeiter Richard Seidel who lived at Heinrichstraße 14, and the Arbeiterin Gertrud Böhm who lived in Pohlenowitz.

The child Käthe Starnitzkÿ died on the 9th of November in 1923, at the age of one month old (actually just one day short of two months old). The cause of death was identified on the church record as Herzfehler (cardiac defect). She was buried at the Rosenthal village cemetery on the 12th of November in 1923. She was the daughter of the ledigen Arbeiterin (unmarried laborer) Gertrud Starnitzkÿ, who lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal. The death and burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church show that the death was reported by and the funeral expenses were paid by Käthe's aunt Frau Wally Sternitzkÿ who lived in Rosenthal at Oberrigkerstraße 23. The church record referenced the civil death record as number 33 dated the 10th of November in 1923 at the Rosenthal Standesamt.

Frau Wally Sternitzkÿ was the wife of Karl Starnitzkÿ, also known as Carl Richard Wilhelm Stanetzky and Carl Wilhelm Richard Starnitzkÿ. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Starnitzkÿ, 1922 to 1943 Rosenthal and Breslau.

The Arbeiter Richard Seidel married Karl Starnitzkÿ's sister Auguste Anna Selma Starnitzkÿ on the 22nd of September in 1912. See the Marriage and Family of Auguste (née Starnitzkÿ) Seidel, 1912 City of Breslau.

The Arbeiterin Gertrud Böhm from Pohlenowitz was probably a sister of Richard Böhm from Pohlenowitz. Gertrud Starnitzky married Richard Böhm from Pohlenowitz on the 20th of December in 1924. Gertrud Böhm was also a sponsor for the twin sons of Gertrud Starnitzky (see below).

Birth of twin sons

Erich Ernst Starnitzky and Richard Paul Starnitzky, 8 October 1924
Death of Richard Paul Böhm, 11 August 1930

Erich Ernst Starnitzky and Richard Paul Starnitzky were twin sons of the unmarried Arbeiterin (laborer) Gertrud Starnitzky. The sons were born on the 8th of October in 1924 (as was recorded at the Rosenthal Standesamt in records number 39 and 40). They were baptized on the 2nd of November in 1924 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Arbeiterin Gertrud Böhm from Pohlenowitz, the Catholic Arbeiter Alois Wirbs from Pohlenowitz, the Protestant widow Selma Starnitzky from Rosenthal, and the Protestant Ehefrau Auguste Seidel from Heinrichstraße 14 in Breslau.

A note on the baptism record shows both children were made legitimate by their father, the Rosenthal Lehnarbeiter Richard Böhm as was recorded at Breslau Standesamt III on the 13th of June in 1932. A second note shows the correct maiden name of the children's mother was Sternitzky. So, the legal names of the twins were Erich Ernst Sternitzky and Richard Paul Sternitzky. The 1932 record may have been a result of legal questions following the death of one of the twin sons (probably Richard Paul Sternitzky) who died two years earlier on the 11th of August in 1930. He was listed in the burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church under the name Richard Böhm, the son of the Arbeiter Richard Böhm and his wife Gertrud (née Starnitzky) Böhm. Their son died on the 11th of August in 1930, at the age of 5 years and 10 months as the result of an accident: Unglücksfall Auto übersehen (failed to see a car). He died at the St. Georgs Krankenhaus in Breslau. At that time, the family lived at Trachenbergerstraße 143 I, in Rosenthal. Richard Böhm (the son) was buried at the community cemetery in Rosenthal on the 14th of August in 1930. The church burial record referenced his civil death record: number 917 dated 13 August in 1930 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

Marriage of Gertrud Starnitzky, December 1924

The Arbeiterin (laborer) Gertrud Starnitzky from Rosenthal married the Bauarbeiter (construction laborer) Richard Böhm from Pohlenowitz on the 20th of December in 1924. The civil marriage record was recorded at the Rosenthal Standesamt (record number 14 in 1924). They were married at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on that same day.

The church marriage record shows that before the wedding, Gertrud Starnitzky lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal.

Birth of daughter Gerda Erika Böhm, 1926

Gerda Erika Böhm was born at Rosenthal on the 8th of February in 1926. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 14th of February in 1926. Her parents, the Arbeiter Richard Böhm and his wife Gertrud (née Starnitzky) Böhm were both Protestant. They lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Ehefrau Ida Böhm from Korso Allee 13 in Karlowitz, and the Protestant Ehefrau Martha Barth from Elbingstraße 16 in Breslau.

Family of Georg Starnitzki and Hedwig (née Beier) Starnitzki 1924 to 1926 Rosenthal

Georg Wilhelm Starnitzki was born at Rosenthal on the 13th of December in 1901. He was baptized as Georg Wilhelm Rettig at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 25th of December in 1901. His mother was listed as Pauline Rettig, the daughter of Ernst Rettig from Rosenthal. A note on the baptism record states the Schlosser Georg Starnitzki made Georg Wilhelm Rettig legitimate on the 19th of December in 1902. See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzki/ Sternitzke/ Sternitzki/ Sternitzky, 1877 to 1934 Rosenthal.

Birth and Death of son Georg Richard Starnitzki (1924-1924)

Georg Richard Starnitzki was born on the 4th of March in 1924. His parents, the Arbeiter Georg Starnitzki and his wife Hedwig (née Beier) Starnitzki lived at Hauptstraße 3 in the village Rosenthal. Their son Georg Richard Starnitzki was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of April in 1924.

Georg Starnitzki (senior) was a Protestant. Hedwig (née Beier) Starnitzki was a Catholic. The baptismal sponsors were both Catholic: Elisabeth Beier and Hedwig Starnitzki. Elisabeth Beier lived in Breslau at Kaiser-Wilhelmstraße 165. The sponsor Hedwig Starnitzki lived in Rosenthal at Hauptstraße 3, and may have been the baby's mother.

The 3-months-old child Georg Sternitzki died at Breslau on the 9th of June in 1924. His parents were not identified on the death record, but they were residents of Rosenthal. The child died at the University Clinic on Tiergartenstraße 51/52.

Birth of daughter Ingeborg Rita Sternitzke, 1926

Ingeborg Rita Sternitzke was born at Rosenthal on the 29th of June in 1926. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 1st of August in 1926. Her parents, the Arbeiter Georg Sternitzke and his wife Hedwig (née Beier) Sternitzke lived at Rosenthal at Hauptstraße 3. Georg Sternitzke was listed as a Protestant on the baptism record. His wife was listed as a Catholic. The baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Arbeiterin Anna Sternitzke who also lived at Hauptstraße 3 in Rosenthal, and the Protestant Ehefrau Ida Beier who lived at Neue Weltgasse 37 in Breslau.

The sponsor Anna Sternitzke was the child's aunt. Anna was the sister of Georg Sternitzke. Anna Auguste Sternitzki was born at Rosenthal on the 20th of June 1903. She married Georg Paul Emanuel Schiefer on the 21st of June in 1930. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Auguste Sternitzki, 1928 to 1930 Village of Rosenthal.

Breslau Address Books

The birth records for their children show Georg Wilhelm Rättig-Sternitzki and his wife were living at Hauptstraße 3 in 1924, 1926 and 1927. The 1928 and 1931 address books listed the Arbeiter Georg Sternitzke as a resident at Mühlstraße 7 in Rosenthal

The 1926 and 1927 Breslau address books listed three family members at Hauptstraße 3:

- the widow Anna Auguste Selma (née Lachmann) Sternitzky who was the widow of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzky (who died in 1911),
- the widow Pauline Auguste (née Rättig) the widow of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzky and
- the Bauarbeiter (construction laborer) George Sternitzky who was a son of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzky and Pauline Auguste (née Rättig) Starnitzky

Georg Wilhelm Rättig-Sternitzki and his wife were living at Hauptstraße 3 with Georg's mother and grandmother. Hauptstraße in the village Rosenthal was renamed as Trachenberger Straße on the 29th of July in 1929.

The 1928 and 1931 Breslau address books listed the Arbeiter Georg Sternitzke as a resident at Mühlstraße 7.

Marriage and Family of Anna Auguste Sternitzki 1928 to 1930 Village of Rosenthal

Anna Auguste Sternitzki was born at Rosenthal on the 16th of September in 1904. She was the daughter of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzkÿ (1877-1922) and Pauline Auguste (née Rättig) Starnitzkÿ. See the Birth, Marriage and Family of Georg Julius Gustav Starnitzki/ Sternitzke/ Sternitzki/ Sternitzky, 1877 to 1934 Rosenthal.

Birth of son Georg Paul Sternitzki, 1928

Georg Paul Sternitzki was born on the 17th of August in 1928. He was the son of the unmarried Arbeiterin (laborer) Anna Auguste Sternitzki, who was the daughter of the widow Pauline Auguste (née Rättig) Starnitzkÿ from Rosenthal. They lived at Hauptstraße 3. The child's baptism record listed his civil birth record as number 904 in 1928 at Breslau Standesamt III.

The child was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 16th of September in 1928. The baptismal sponsors were the mother of the child and Hedwig Sternitzki from Rosenthal. Hedwig (née Beier) Sternitzki did not have an occupation. She was probably the wife of Anna's brother Georg Wilhelm Sternitzki.

Notes on the baptismal record show that the Packer Georg Paul Emanuel Schiefer married Anna Auguste Sternitzki on the 21st of June in 1930. Their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt III. Georg Schiefer was a Protestant and lived in Breslau at Kreuzburgerstraße 15.

Marriage of Anna Auguste Sternitzki, 1930

The Arbeiterin (laborer) Anna Sternitzki married Georg Schiefer at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 21st of June in 1930. The bride lived in Rosenthal at Trachenbergerstraße (previously known as Hauptstraße in Rosenthal) before the wedding. She moved to her husband's address Kreuzbergerstraße 15II after the wedding. They were both Protestant.

The church record shows the marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt III on the 21st of June in 1930, record number 476.

Her daughter was born out of wedlock. Anna married the child's father, the Schuhmacher August Hannert on the 14th of June in 1880. August Hannert and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Hannert also had a son. Gustav Adolph Ernst Hannert was born at Breslau on the 24th of September in 1880.

Anna (née Sternitzke) Hannert divorced Mr. Hannert before the baptism of Anna's son Max Franz Walter Sternitzke on the 4th of March in 1888. The 1897 marriage of Anna's daughter Auguste Minna Ottilie Hannert to the Tapezierer (wallpaper hanger) Paul Walter Vincenz Karsch, shows Auguste's father (the shoemaker August Hannert) was missing and had been legally declared dead. Her mother had divorced August Hannert and was married to a Mr. Kleisch. Her mother, Anna (née Sternitzke) Kleisch was living at Breslau at the time of the wedding. See the Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Hannert-Kleisch, 1876 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Chapter 2

Trebnitz County in the Breslau District

City of Trebnitz and the Polnischdorf Suburb

There were several communities named Trebnitz. The community named Trebnitz associated with our family history was in Trebnitz County north of Breslau in Silesia. It is now named Trzebnica, Poland.

A second town named Trebnitz was located in Silesia. It was located in Lubusz Land, a region between Frankfurt am Oder and Berlin. The Cistercian religious order at Trebnitz in Trebnitz County owned the village Trebnitz in Lubusz Land. Heinrich Grüger's book shows that the Cistercian monastery received payments from the Trebnitz (Lubusz) villagers in 1410, but no payments were made in 1523/1524. The monastery was the feudal lord of the village and the Schloss Trebnitz (Lubusz) until 1498.

A third community named Trebnitz was a village in the Burgenlandkreis in Saxony-Anhalt, Germany. It has been part of the town Teuchern, Germany, since 2011.

A fourth community named Trebnitz (in German) is the town Třebenice in the Litoměřice District in the Ústí nad Labem region in the northern part of the Czech Republic. It is near the border with Saxony.

A fifth community named Trebnitz (in German) is also in the Czech Republic. John Joseph Wenceslaus Count Radetzky (1766 -1858) of Radetz was born at Schloss Trebnitz in the central Bohemian region of the Czech Republic. That village of Trebnitz (known in Czech as Třebenice) is near the city named Sedlčany. A website for Sedlčany includes the history of the local villages – including Třebenice. The original name of that village was Třebnici, which was based on the Old Slavic word trěbiti which meant burning, cleaning and clearing forests in order to obtain arable land. That was probably the origin of the names of the other villages named Trebnitz.

Trebnitz in Trebnitz County (Silesia)

Historical variations of the name of Trebnitz in Trebnitz County (Silesia) include: Trebniacum, Trebnicia, Trebnicium and Trebnicense. It was originally a Polish village named Trzebić. It is now named Trzebnica, Poland.

The city of Trebnitz has been destroyed several times by fire due to wars. The convent and most of the city was looted and burned in 1432, during the Hussite War. Trebnitz was also burned down in 1456. The Polish invasion of Silesia and the siege of Breslau resulted in a counterattack by the army of the Bohemian King Matthias Corvinus in 1475, which brought a new destruction to the rebuilt city. More city fires were recorded for the years 1505, 1511 and 1534. The city and county of Trebnitz was again in a battlefield during the Silesian Wars (1740-1763). It was most recently invaded and partially destroyed by the Soviet Army in 1945.

Considering all the destruction suffered by the city, it is not surprising that there are no records for the Sternitzke family at Trebnitz prior to the 18th century.

Sternitzke Family 1703 Polnischdorf, a Suburb of Trebnitz

A southern suburb of the city Trebnitz was called Polnischdorf (see the maps below). Polnischdorf may have been an original Polish settlement before the Trebnitz convent was founded. It was listed as Polnische dorff in a 1523 document. In 1703, a Sternitzke family home was in Polnischdorf, at property number 5 on Garten Strasse (Garden Street, now named Ogrodowa Street). See the photograph of number 5 Garten Strasse below and its location #1 on the 1918 Trebnitz city map below).

Courtesy of Mr. Zbigniew Lubicz-Miszewski, Curator of the Muzeum Regionaine w Trzebnicy.

The Sternitzke home at number 5 on Garten Strasse was the location of a historic event. Below is a translated biographical note regarding the birth of Maria Leszcynska on the 23rd of June in 1703:

“Maria Leszcynska (the correct spelling is Leszcynska), volume III, page 177, born at the free manor of the family Sternitzke in the suburb Polnischdorf, belonging to Trebnitz (Silesia). The mother, the wife of King Stanislaus I Leszcynski, probably made frequent pilgrimages (starting in Polnisch-Lissa where the king owned the property named Sulkowski) to Trebnitz and there once she was surprised by the birth of a child.”

This information was from Frau von Campan in her Memoirs of the Queen Marie Antoniette, published by Dr. Schramm-Macdonald in 1882. Note the Sternitzke spelling of the family name.

Maria (or Marie) was the daughter of King Stanislaw Leszynski of Poland and Catherine (née Opalinska) Leszynski. Marie married King Louis XV of France and was the grandmother of Louis XVI, Louis XVIII and Charles X. The Sternitzke house is no longer standing. The Staromiejska (Old Town) Restaurant now stands at number 5 on Ogradowa Street. A special celebration is held each year in Trzebnica (Trebnitz) to mark the anniversary of Marie's birth.

Aloysius Bach wrote the following regarding Polnisch-Dorf in 1859:

„Daselbst ist ein Freigut, das ehemad adlige Besitzer hatte. Man findet einen Kauf über dieses Gut, welcher 1701 vom kaiserlichen Hofe confirmirt worden ist. Dieses Gut wird in den Trebnitzer Annalen ein stetes Andenken behalten, weil daselbst (Maria) die Gemahlin des Königs Ludwigs XV von Frankreich, eine Tochter des Königs Stanislaus Leczinsky von Polen, geboren worden ist. Sie starb 1767. (s. Frau von Campan, Memoiren über die Königin M. Antonia von Frankreich).“

Translation: “There is a free estate, which formerly had aristocratic owners. One finds a purchase of this property, which has been confirmed in 1701 by the imperial court. This property is retained in the annals of Trebnitz as a constant memorial because there was born Maria, the wife of King Louis XV of France, and daughter of King Stanislaus Leczinsky of Poland. Maria died in 1767 (see Madame de Campan's Memoirs of Queen Marie Antoniette of France).”

Note that Bach's reference to the prior aristocratic owners of the estate did not refer to the Sternitzke family, but to a previous family that owned that house. Bach recorded George Friedrich von Stosch as an owner of an estate at Polnisch Dorf.

A translation from another source (Friedensburg and Seger in 1901) regarding the location of Maria's birth reads:

“Tradition states that her mother was on a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Saint Hedwig, which is indeed credible considering the mother's great piety and its proximity to her residence at Lissa. The place of the birth of Maria is the so-called Sternitzky farm in Polnischdorf (now belonging to the municipality). Another story exists placing the birth of Maria at the house of Count Proskau in Breslau, but that theory was based on a handwritten manuscript, a list of coins and medals in the Breslau City Library.”

Note the Sternitzky spelling of the family name in that book.

Marriage of Matthäus Sternitzke 1746 Trebnitz

Matthäus Sternitzke (c.1716-after 1758, SN365), the son of the Briesche Freigärtner Adam Tschernißke (1671-1749, SN1) and Anna (née Meißner) Tschernißke, married Susanna Jaretzke at the Catholic Church in Trebnitz in 1746. Matthäus was a famer at Briesche. Susanna was from the village Klein Graben. In 1755, Matthäus purchased land from the Stift of Trebnitz for a Hausbau (house construction) at Briesche.

A Summary of the Life of the Forstmeister Sternitzke/Sternitzky/Sternitzki 1808 Haltauf in Trebnitz County to 1866 Neisse in Neisse County

There are many references to two members of the Sternitzke family who were employed in the Silesian forestry service during the 19th century. They were probably father and son, who were employed as a: Förster, Forstconductor, Oberförster, Stiftsforstmeister, Forstmeister, Forst-Inspector and Feldmesser (forester, forest conductor, senior forester, forest master, forest inspector and field surveyor). A Stiftsforstmeister, was a master forester who worked for a Catholic Church foundation.

Moritz Sternitzki was born around 1783 (based on his age when he died). His birthplace is unknown. He died at Neisse in Neisse County at the age of 83 years old on the 5th of October in 1866. He was buried at Neisse on the 5th of October in 1866.

In 1806, the Bauconducteur (building contractor) Moritz Sternitzke was a baptism sponsor in Breslau for Anton Friedrich Moritz Geissler, the son of the Wachs Polier (wax polisher) Johann Friedrich Geissler and Caroline (née Ultsch) Geissler. The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 19th of June in 1806.

In 1808, A member of the Sternitzke family from Haltauf was hired as a Forstconductor in the Breslau office of the Prussian Royal Forest Service. Haltauf was a village in Trebnitz County about 5 miles east of the city of Trebnitz. A Forstconductor, which was a rank in the forestry service, below the rank of Oberförster (senior forester).

Birth of son Karl Heinrich Josef Ludwig Moritz Sternitzky, 1809 Ratiborhammer

In 1809, the Forstconductor Mauritius (Latin for Moritz) Sternitzky and his wife Theresia (née Wall) Sternitzky lived at Ratiborhammer in Ratibor County. Their son Carolus Henricus Josephus Ludovicus Mauritius Sternitzky was born on the 5th of June in 1809 at Ratiborhammer. He was baptized at the Catholic church in the nearby village Slawikau on the 18th of June in 1809.

Moritz Sternitzky, was born in 1809 at Ratiborhammer (a village now named Kuźnia Raciborska) about 100 miles southeast of Breslau. He studied medicine at the University of Breslau in 1832 and 1833. See Book III, Chapter 1: Student Moritz Sternitzky, 1832 & 1833 City of Breslau.

Stiftforstmeister Mauritius Sternitzky, before November in 1810

The author Aloysius Bach included this acknowledgement as a contributor to his book: „Mauritius Sternitzky, Forstmeister a. D. In Neisse, letzter Forstmeister des Stiftes Trebnitz. “ The Forstmeister Mauritius Sternitzky had retired to the Silesian city Neisse. He was the last forest master of the Trebnitz Stift (the Catholic Church foundation at Trebnitz). The abbey at Trebnitz was secularized by the Prussian King Frederick Wilhelm II on the 11th of November in 1810.

The Katholisch Hammer Königliche Forst-Reviere (royal forest preserve) was formed by the Prussian government as part of the secularization of the Cistercian properties in 1810. The forest preserve was located between the cities Trebnitz, Sulau and Militsch. The Stift-Forstmeister Sternitzky probably became the Königliche Forstmeister (royal forest master) for the Katholisch Hammer Königliche Forst-Reviere at that time.

Birth of daughter Marie Theresie Bertha Sternitzke, 1811 Trebnitz

Marie Theresie Bertha Sternitzke was born at Trebnitz on the 6th of March in 1811. She was the daughter of the Forstmeister Sternitzke at Trebnitz.

Birth and Death of son Ludwig Heinrich Sternitzke, 1812 Trebnitz

Ludwig Heinrich Sternitzke, the son of the Forstmeister Sternitzke at Trebnitz died on the 25th of December in 1812. Ludwig died at the age of 20 weeks old, making his birthdate around the 7th of August in 1812. Ludwig died from Abzehrung, which translates to consumption, a general term for diseases resulting in weight loss and loss of strength, included diseases such as tuberculosis, diabetes, cancer, nutritional disorders.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son Heinrich Sternitzke (1814-before 1881)

Volume 59 of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter shows the wife of the Forstmeister Sternitzke at Trebnitz gave birth to a son on the 12th of March in 1814.

Heinrich Sternitzki married Ernestine Segm at Friedland on the 21st of January in 1851. The groom was the 36 years old (born c.1815) son of Moritz Sternitzki. The bride was the 29 years old (born c.1822) daughter of Joseph Prescher. The source of this information was a partial transcription of a church marriage record. The original was not available for review. Heinrich was the correct age to have been the son of Moritz Sternitzki who was born at Trebnitz on the 12th of March in 1814. Heinrich would be 37 years old in March of 1851. See Chapter 14 The Oppeln District, Falkenberg County in the Oppeln District, Town of Friedland in Falkenberg County: the Marriage and Family of Heinrich Sternitzki, 1851 to 1868 Friedland.

The Gärtner Heinrich Sternitzki and his wife Ernestine (née Stein) Sternitzki were living at Groß Neuendorf in 1855. Their son, Bernhard Franz Heinrich Sternitzki was born at Groß Neuendorf on the 25th of February in 1855. He was baptized at Groß Neuendorf on the 2nd of March in 1855.

The Fruchthändler (fruit merchant) Bernhard Franz Heinrich Sternitzki married Friederike Caroline Regine Capell at Hamburg, on the 14th of November in 1881. His father and mother died before their son's marriage. His father, Heinrich Sternitzki had previously died at Pilchowitz in Rybnik County. His mother, Ernestine (née Stein) Sternitzki had previously died at Friedland.

Birth of daughter Adelheide Auguste Ernestine Sternitzken, 1815 Trebnitz

Adelheide Auguste Ernestine Sternitzke was born at Trebnitz on the 25th of June in 1815. She was the daughter of the Forstmeister Sternitzke at Trebnitz.

Oberförster Sternitzky, 1817 Trebnitz County

Volume 24 of the Amts-Blatt der Königlichen Regierung zu Breslau announced the new forestry organization for the Breslau district. The following organizational changes were affective on the 1st of July in 1817 for the Oberförsterei Hammer (the Hammer main forestry office):

- the Oberförster (senior forester) Sternitzky in Katholisch Hammer supervised three forest preserves (Forstrevier) at Briesche, Kuhbrücke and Schubersee;
- the personnel for the Forstrevier Briesche included: the Revierförster Malisius in Briesche, who supervised the Förster Zehe in Klein Ujeschütz, the Förster Nitschke in Briesche, the Unterförster Ilgner in Buchwald and the Förster Hanisch in Katholisch Hammer.

Birth of unnamed daughter Sternitzke, 1818 Trebnitz

The wife of the Forstmeister Sternitzke at Trebnitz gave birth to a daughter in February of 1818. The location of the Royal Forest Master's house is marked with the number 1 on the 1918 map of the City of Trebnitz (below).

Forstinspektor Sternitzky and the birth of unnamed son Sternitzke,
1819 Trebnitz

The following notices were published in Volume 70 of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter in 1819:

- The Royal Government Department at Breslau reported on the 6th of July, that changes would be made in the organization of the Forestry Administration. The changes were affected on the 10th of August in 1819. The personnel of the Hammer Forest Inspection District were then comprised of the Forest Inspector Sternitzky at Katholisch Hammer, the Oberförster Malicius at Polnisch Hammer for the Briesche forest preserve, the Oberförster Perschke for the Kuhbück forest preserve, and the Oberförster Heinrich for the Bobiele forest preserve.
- The wife of the Forest Master Sternitzke at Trebnitz gave birth to a son on the 16th of August in 1819. The birth notice was repeated (probably because a second source provided slightly different information) in the same issue of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter as: the wife of the Royal Forest Master Sternitzky at Trebnitz, gave birth to a son on the 19th of August in 1819.

Birth and Death of son
Rudolph Adolph Wenceslaus Sternitzky/ Sternitzki (1820-1823)

The following notices were published in Volume 72 of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter in 1820:

- The August issue of the periodical listed the wife of the Forstmeister (Forest Master) Sternitzky at Trebnitz, as having given birth to a son on the 18th of August in 1820.
- The supplement to the September issue repeated the information slightly different, as the wife of the Forstmeister Sternitzki at Trebnitz, gave birth to a son on the 16th of August in 1820. The son was named was Rudolph Adolph Wenceslaus Sternitzki.

Volume 77 of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter in 1823 included the following notice:

- Rudolph Sternitzky, the youngest son of the Königliche Forstmeister (royal forest master) Sternitzky died at Trebnitz on the 7th of March in 1823, at the age of 2 years and 6 months. He died from a Halsentzündung (throat infection).

Forstmeister Sternitzky, 1821 Trebnitz

The Registrator (registrar) Hübner and the Forstmeister (forest master) Sternitzky from Trebnitz were referenced as contributors to Karl Menzel's 1821 book – The History of the Germans.

Volume 80 of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter shows the Stifts-Gerichts-Registrator Huebner retired with a pension in 1824. His title means he retired from his position as the court registrar for the Catholic Church Stift (foundation) at Trebnitz.

Volume 84 of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter shows that the Stifts-Gerichts-Registrator Hübner at Trebnitz became the Registrator beim Land- und Stadtgericht (registrar for the state and city court).

Forst-Inspektor Sternitzky, 1821 Trebnitz

Several public notices were published in the Neue Breslauer Zeitung newspaper by Mr. Sternitzky at Trebnitz, who was the Königliche Forst-Inspektor (Royal Forest Inspector) for the Hammer Forest Inspection District. Below is one of those public notices.

Bekanntmachung: Er werden auf den 8. Februar c., einem Donnerstag, in dem zur Forst-Inspektion Hammer gehörigen Wald-Distrikt Kotzerke, 1 ½ Meile hinter Trebnitz, 150 Stück auf Wiesen einzeln stehende, auch Nutzholz, besonders für Stellmacher, enthaltende Eichen, meistbietend zu Vernutzung sehr guter Rinde, verkauft werden. Zahlungsfähige Käufer werden eingeladen, gedachten Tages früh um 9 Uhr in der dortigen Unterförsterei zu erscheinen. Die Vorzeigung der Hölzer geschieht an jedem Tage von dem Königl. Unterförster Bauke, bei dem sich daselbst beliebig zu melden. Trebnitz, den 24. Januar 1821, Königl. = Forst = Inspektion Hammer, Sternitzky.

Notice: the Forest Inspector at Hammer serving the Forest District of Kotzerke (1 and ½ mile past Trebnitz) will sell to the highest bidder on Thursday, February 8: 150 items and timber on a meadow, particularly for wheelwrights, and containing oaks with very good bark. Payment will be accepted by eligible buyers who are invited to appear before the local assistant forester early on the designated day at 9 AM. Daily inspections of the woods can be arranged by contacting the Royal Assistant Forester Bauke.
Trebnitz, the 24th of January in 1821, Royal Forestry Inspector at Hammer, Sternitzky.

Knie's geography book listed Katholisch Hammer as having a Royal Oberförsterei office that was later located at Briesche. A Royal Unterförsterei office was located in the forest by Deutsch Hammer. Another Royal Unterförsterei office was located in the forest just north of Klein Ujeschütz. Knie's book also listed a Royal Forst-Inspektion office at Trebnitz that was formerly in the service of the Trebnitz Cloister. A Förster-Wohnung (a home for foresters) was located at the nearby Buchenwald Forest. Buchenwald and the Royal Forest Inspector's house are shown on the 1918 Trebnitz map below.

Forstmeister Sternitzky, 1822 Trebnitz County

The Forstmeister Sternitzky was appointed to the position of Königliche Polizei Districts Commissarius (royal police district inspector) of the 9th District. The Oberförster Perschke was appointed to the position of Unter Commissarius (deputy inspector). These royal titles and authorities were apparently in addition to their positions in the royal forestry service.

Birth and Death of unnamed son Sternitzky, 1823 Trebnitz

The wife of the Königliche Forstmeister (royal forest master) Sternitzky at Trebnitz gave birth to a son on the 19th of September in 1823. The child died two hours after birth.

Birth of unnamed son Sternitzky, 1824 Trebnitz

Forst-Inspector Sternitzky, 1824 Trebnitz

Forst-Inspector Sternitzky, 1825 Trebnitz

Mr. Sternitzky, the Königliche Forst-Inspector (royal forest inspector) for the Hammer Forest Inspection District placed two notices in a Breslau newspaper. The notices were from Trebnitz and were dated the 7th of January in 1825. The notices announced timber sales (to the highest bidder) for timber from the Kotzerke Forest District, the Briesche Royal Forest Preserve and the Buchenwald Hunting District. The types of trees and the sources of the timber included: oak from Briesche, birch from Birkau, pine from Raschen and birch from Buchwald.

Förster Sternitzki, Before 1826 Trebnitz

The music composer Joseph Ignaz Schnabel (1767-1831) composed church music for the cathedral and churches in Breslau. He was born at Naumburg am Queis in Silesia, and he died at Breslau. Hans Erdmann Guckell reported that one of Schnabel's works (number 118 Offertory) was composed and dedicated to the Forester Sternitzki, who was employed in Trebnitz at that time. The z.Z. abbreviation means "zur Zeit" (at this time). Guckell did not record the date of that composition, but it was probably composed before 1826. Moritz Sternitzky moved to Schwammelwitz in Neisse County in 1826.

According to the author, Hans Erdmann Guckell, a copy of the music was found at the Sandkirche (St. Mary's Church on Sand Island in Breslau) and at the Archdiocese Archive in Breslau.

Forstinspector Sternitzky, 1826 Trebnitz to Schwammelwitz

Volume 83 (Part 5, May 1826) of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter reported the retirement of the Oberförster von Sommerfeld at the Oberförsterei (head forestry office) in the Oppeln District. He was replaced by the Forstinspector Sternitzky. That Oberförsterei was located at Schwammelwitz in Neisse County. The Forst-Inspektion office at Proskau administered the regional forestry offices including those at Chrzelitz and Schwammelwitz.

The Forstinspector (forest inspector) Sternitzky worked at the Oberförsterei (head forestry office) at Schwammelwitz until 1828. See Book III, Chapter 14, The Oppeln District, Neisse County, the Village of Schwammelwitz in Neisse County: the Forstinspector Sternitzky, 1826 to 1828 Schwammelwitz.

Forstinspector Sternitzky, 1828 to 1849 Chrzelitz

The Königliche Forstmeister und Forst-Inspector (royal forest master and forest inspector) Sternitzky / Sternitzki was the administrator of the Oberförsterei (head forestry office) at Chrzelitz from 1828 to 1849. Several important events in his life occurred during those years. See the details of those events in Book III, Chapter 14, The Oppeln District, Neustadt County, the City of Chrzelitz in Neustadt County.

In 1833, wood thieves inflicted three dangerous wounds with an ax to the head of the Chrzelitz Forst-Inspektor Sternitzky.

In 1841, the Forst-Inspektor Sternitzky at Chrzelitz was awarded the rothen Adler-Orden 4ster Kl. (the Red Eagle Order Fourth Class) for his service to Prussia. The Order of the Red Eagle was a Prussian order of chivalry awarded to military personnel and civilians. It was awarded to recognize valor in combat, excellence in military leadership, long and faithful service to the kingdom, or other achievements.

Theresia (née Wahl) Sternitzki, the wife of des Forstmeister und Forst-Inspector Sternitzki, died at Chrzelitz on the 23rd of April in 1843.

Publications of the Schlesischen Forst-Vereins (Silesian Association of Foresters) from 1843 to 1847 listed a Königliche Forst-Inspector Sternitzky and a Feldmesser (field surveyor) Sternitzky in Chrzelitz (Neustadt County). They were probably father and son. Their surnames were spelled Sternitzki in 1847. The first name of the son was not listed in those records.

1848 was a year of political strife in Europe which resulted in increased violence against the local officials (mayors, magistrates and even the royal forest masters). The forest masters had police powers to enforce the laws to protect the royal forests. The November 1848 issue of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter included reports of violence against those officials, including the Forstinspector Sternitzki at Chrzelitz. He was attacked in his Amtswohnung (official residence) by vengeful Forstdefraudanten, and he had to flee from his home. The rioters then laid siege to the home of another local official (the Amts-Executor) who fought off the rioters with a pistol.

The March 1849 issue of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter reported that Forst-Inspector Sternitzky, the administrator of the Oberförsterei (head forestry office) at Chrzelitz, had requested and was granted retirement from service with a pension. The retired Forst-Inspector Sternitzky and the Feldmesser Sternitzky moved to Neisse in Neisse County in 1849.

Königliche Forstinspector Sternitzky and Feldmesser Sternitzky, 1849 to 1866

The retired Königliche Forstinspector Sternitzky and the Feldmesser Sternitzky lived at Neisse in Neisse County in 1849. The Königliche Forstinspector Sternitzky lived there until his death in 1866. See Chapter 14, The Oppeln District, Neisse County, City of Neisse.

The Feldmesser (field surveyor) Sternitzky moved to Gleiwitz in 1850. His occupation was listed as a Königliche Baumeister (royal master building contractor) Sternitzky at Gleiwitz in 1851 and 1853. See Chapter 14, The Oppeln District, Tost-Gleiwitz County, City of Gleiwitz. In 1853 he moved to Siemianowitz near Gleiwitz in 1853. He worked there as a Gräfliche Forst-Inspector until 1857. He was the forest inspector for the forests owned by Hugo Graf Henckel von Donnersmarck. See Chapter 14, The Oppeln District, Beuthen County, the Village of Siemianowitz in Beuthen County.

Death of the Forstmeister Mauritius Sternitzky, 1866 Neisse

The Schlesische Provinzialblätter reported the death of the retired Forstinspektor und Stiftsforstmeister Sternitzki, at Neisse in September/October of 1866. Moritz Sternitzki died on the 5th of October in 1866, and was buried at Neisse on the same day of his death. He was 83 years old when he died, so he was born around 1783. The index of a series of 19th century books that documented Silesian tombstone inscriptions identified Mauritius Sternitzki as an Oberförst (meister) who died in 1866. The alphabetical index shows Volume 16 of the series of books included information regarding Mauritius Sternitzki. Volume 16 has not been located.

Duties of the Forest Masters

The March 12, 1887 report by Henry Dithmar, of the U.S. Consulate at Breslau, presented a general description of forestry in Silesia and the responsibilities of the foresters. Here is a portion of his report:

“Forest Administration

The three administrative districts into which Silesia is divided have each a head forest master, who is a member of the district government, and to whom are subordinate the various head foresters having supervision of the state, city and communal forests. Under the control of the head foresters are the foresters, gamekeepers and guards, and the wood laborers. The planting and felling of trees are regulated by the head foresters under general or special instructions. Among the duties of the foresters are the protection and preservation of the trees and game; the selection of sites for wood cutting, making reports on drainage and irrigation, the disposal of cord and dead wood, and the prevention of violation of the game laws, whether by the gaming lessees or by poachers. All grades of foresters are entitled to a pension when too old or otherwise incapacitated for service. Wood can be cut in the state forests and in the communal and other forests under control of the state only in conformity with a plan drawn up or sanctioned by the forest authorities.”

Family of Rosina (née Sternitzke) Fisch 1809 Trebnitz to 1904 Breslau

Members of the Sternitzke family were married at the Protestant Evangelical Church at Trebnitz. The source of this information was the Geneteka online database of microfilmed records at FamilySearch.org. The database included hyperlinks to the scanned marriage records, but those scans were not available for viewing outside the LDS Family History Centers.

Marriage of Rosina Sternitzke, 1809

Rosina Sternitzke, the daughter of Friedrich Sternitzke, married David Fisch, on the 8th of January in 1809 at the Protestant Evangelical Church at Trebnitz. David Fisch was the son of George Fisch. Their marriage record was number 2 in 1809.

Birth and Death of daughter Johanna Fisch (1820-1904)

The 1904 civil death record for Johanna (née Fisch) Nitsche shows that she was born at Trebnitz. She was the daughter of the Getreidehändler (grain trader) David Fisch and Rosina (née Sternitzke) Fisch who had both died at Trebnitz before their daughter's death. Based on her age when she died (84 years and 4 months), Johanna was born around February in 1820.

The death of Johanna (née Fisch) Nitsche was reported by Johanna's daughter from her first marriage, Ida Haertel. Johanna's first husband died and she then married the Diener (servant) Franz Nitsche at Breslau. Johanna's second husband died before Johanna's death. Prior to her death, Johanna was living with her daughter, the unmarried Putzmacherin (milliner) Ida Haertel who lived at Alexanderstraße 27 in Breslau. Johanna died at their home. Alexanderstraße is no longer a street. It is a grassy area next to the intersection of major roads about two blocks east the Galeria Dominikańska shopping mall in Breslau. The death record listed Johanna as a Protestant.

Family of Johanne (née Sterniske) Zuchandke
c.1814 Trebnitz, 1824 to 1889 Posen

The death record of Johanne (née Sterniske) Zuchandke shows she was born around 1765. That year was based on her age (88 years old) when she died on the 23rd of November in 1853. Her death was recorded in the burial record book for the Protestant Church at Zduny. She was listed as a Protestant, a resident of the village Rochy and the widow of the Schneidermeister Gottlieb Zuchandke who died at Jutroschin in Posen. She was buried at the cemetery in the village Ruda on the 26th of November in 1853.

Zduny, Rochy and Ruda were all in Krotoschin County of Posen. The civil and church records for those locations were recorded at Zduny which was on the border between Silesia and Posen. They were all located about 10 miles north of the city of Militsch in Militsch County, Silesia. The history of Johanne (née Sterniske) Zuchandke is known through the records of her family from the Zduny Standesamt (registry office). The advanced ages of the people who reported the data and their inability to write (even their own signatures) resulted in variations in the details of their histories. Variations of her name were listed as Susanna (née Sternitzki) Zochandki and Johanna (née Sternitzke) Zuchanke.

Birth and Death of son Carl Zochandki, c.1814 Trebnitz, 1876 Bestwin (Posen)

The death record for the Tagearbeiter Carl Zochandki shows he was born at Trebnitz around 1814. He died at his home in Bestwin (Krotoschin County, Posen) on the 1st of September in 1876 at the age of 62 years old. Carl's brother, the Tagearbeiter August Zochandki from Bestwin reported the death at the registry office at Zduny. Their parents were listed by the registrar as the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gottlieb Zochandki and his wife Susanna (née Sternitzki) Zochandki. August Zochandki signed the record by writing three crosses.

Birth and Death of son August Zuchanke, c.1824 Jutroschin (Posen), 1889 Bestwin (Posen)

The Tagearbeiter (day laborer) August Zuchanke died at his home in Bestwin at the age of 65 years old on the 28th of September in 1889. His calculated year of birth was around 1824. According to his death record at the Zduny registry office, he was born at Jutroschin in Rawitsch County of Posen. The information for the death record was provided by August's wife Susanna (née Becker) Zuchanke. Susanna signed the record by writing 3 crosses. August's parents were listed as the deceased Tagearbeiter Gottlieb Zuchanke and his deceased wife Johanna (née Sternitzke) Zuchanke who both last resided at Jutroschin.

Marriage of Johann Gottlieb Ferdinand Sternitzkÿ 1815 Cities of Breslau and Trebnitz

Rudolf Robert Theodor Krebaum was born on the 15th of June in 1815. He was the son of the Bürger und Schneider Meister (citizen and master tailor) Johann Friedrich Krebaum and Christiana Juliana (née Barisch) Krebaum. The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism record listed the baptism sponsors as: the Kaufmann (merchant) Carl Ferdinand Jäschke, the Schneider Meister Hans Hoffmann, the Fabrikant (factory owner) Georg Burwein, the Handelsmann (merchant) Johann Gottlieb Ferdinand Sternitzkÿ and the Jungfrau (unmarried woman) Henriette Wilhelmine Bernothe.

The Schlesische Provinzialblätter from 1815 reported a Kaufmann (merchant) named Sternitzky from the city of Trebnitz married the Jungfrau (maiden) Henrietta Wilhelmina Bernothe on the 15th of June in 1815 at Breslau. It is not known if they were married at the St. Maria Magdalena Church in Breslau. The 1815 to 1818 marriage record books for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church were apparently lost. They are not available at the website for the National Archive in Wrocław.

After their marriage in Breslau, the Kaufmann Sternitzky and his wife apparently returned to Trebnitz. Either the husband died or they were divorced before 1819.

Second Marriage of Henriette Wilhelmine (née Bernothe) Sternitzke, 1819

Henriette Wilhelmine (née Bernothe) Sternitzke married Franz Ferdinand Heisler, the son of Joseph Heisler on the 16th of February in 1819 at the Protestant Evangelical Church at Trebnitz.

Birth and Death of Elisabeth (née Zimmer) Schlensog 1823 Trebnitz and 1903 Breslau

Elisabeth (née Zimmer) Schlensog was born at Trebnitz around the 28th of December in 1823. That date was calculated from her age (79 years and 11 months old) when she died at Breslau on the 28th of November in 1903. Elisabeth Zimmer was the daughter of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Mr. Zimmer and his wife Mrs. (née Sternitzke) Zimmer. The first names of Mr. and Mrs. Zimmer was not known by Martha Schlensog, the daughter of Elisabeth (née Zimmer) Schlensog and the Kellner (waiter) Heinrich Schlensog.

Elisabeth's parents were probably Dorothea Sternitzke, the daughter of Christian Sternitzke, and Johann Zimmer, the son of George Zimmer. They were married on the 20th of November in 1820. See the Protestant Church Marriages, 1796 to 1827 City of Trebnitz.

Heinrich Schlensog died before his wife Elisabeth. Elisabeth then lived with her daughter, the ledige Näherin (unmarried seamstress) Martha Schlensog, in Breslau at Bartschstraße 4 (now Barycka Street, one block north of the Botanical Gardens).

Birth, Marriage and Death of Johanna Karoline Sternitzke
Circa 1825 City of Trebnitz, 1851 to 1866 City of Breslau

The Jungfrau (unmarried woman) Johanna Karoline Sternitzke (c.1825-1866) married the Tischlergesell (journeyman carpenter) Gottfried Rudolph Benjamine Herrmann at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 14th of July in 1851 (marriage record 158). The groom was the second son of the late Bürger und Tischlermeister (citizen and journeyman carpenter) Johann Jakob Herrmann from Ohlau. The groom was 27 years old (born around 1824).

The bride was 26 years old (born around 1825). She was the eldest daughter of the late Maurerpolier (team leader of masons) Karl Sternitzke from Trebnitz. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Johanna Karoline Sternitzke, 1851 to 1909 City of Breslau.

Death of Johanna (née Sternitzky) Herrmann, 1866

Johanna (née Sternitzky) Herrmann died on the 18th of October in 1866 and was buried on the 21st of October. She died at the age of 41 years old (so she was born around 1825). She died from cholera and typhus. She was survived by her husband the Victualienhändler (trader in agricultural goods) Rudolf Herrmann, who lived at Brüderstraße 18.

Family of Christiane (née Starnitzke) Richel 1852 Trebnitz and 1878 Giersdorf

Karl Julius Richel was born at Trebnitz on the 13th of May in 1852. He was the son of the Fabrikarbeiter (factory laborer) Gottlieb Richel and Christiane (née Starnitzke) Richel.

In 1878, the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Karl Julius Richel was living at Giersdorf in Hirschberg County. His father had previously died at Trebnitz. His mother, Christiane (née Starnitzke) Richel was living at Sasterhausen in Striegau County.

Karl Julius Richel married Anna Agnes Ottilie Schubert at Giersdorf on the 17th of February in 1878. The groom 25 years old and he was a Protestant. The bride was a Catholic and a resident of Giersdorf. She was born on the 4th of March in 1853 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Tischlergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Carl Friedrich Schubert and Philippine (née Schlesinger) Schubert. Her mother died prior to her daughter's wedding. The status and location of her father was not known.

The Dienstknecht (farm servant) Wilhelm Richel was a witness at the marriage of Karl Julius Richel. Wilhelm was 21 years old (born around 1857, so he was probably the groom's younger brother. He was a resident of Sasterhausen in Striegau County, and he was probably living with his mother Christiane (née Starnitzke) Richel.

Family of David Sternitzke and Julia (née Tauchmann) Sternitzke 1861 to 1899 Trebnitz

The history of David Sternitzke and his wife Julia (née Tauchmann) Sternitzke is known through the records of their children. In 1889, David and Julia Sternitzke were Schießhausbesitzers (shooting lodge owners) at Trebnitz, according to the marriage record of the son Robert Theodor Sternitzke. David and Julia Sternitzke were Gastwirthe (innkeepers) at Trebnitz in 1899, according to the death record of their daughter Emma (née Sternitzke) Lachmann.

Birth and Marriage of son Robert Theodor Sternitzke, 1861 & 1889

Robert Theodor Sternitzke was born on the 6th of September in 1861 at Trebnitz.

In 1889, the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Robert Theodor Sternitzke was living in Pawellau. He married the Bauerstochter (farmer's daughter) Emilie Viertel on the 13th of May in 1889. Their marriage was recorded at Brietzen but it was probably held at Pawellau. The bride and groom were both Protestants. The groom's parents were the Schießhausbesitzer David Sternitzke and his wife Julia (née Tauchmann) Sternitzke who lived in Trebnitz. The Schießhaus may have been the shooting club building (converted to an inn) at the Sportplatz about three blocks southwest from the city square. The Altes Schießhaus building was in the

Pre-1945 map of Trebnitz showing the Altes Schießhaus.

Emilie Viertel was born the 13th of November in 1868 at Pawellau. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Robert Viertel and his wife Johanna (née Generlich) Viertel. Robert Viertel died before the wedding, but his wife was still living at Pawellau in 1889.

The wedding witnesses were 35 years old Erbscholtiseibesitzer (owner of the hereditary mayor's estate) Robert Ruschig at Pawellau and the 47 years old Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Heinrich Labitzke.

See Book II, Records of Sternitzke Family Events at Pawellau/Paulskirch: the Family of Robert Theodor Sternitzke, 1889 to 1892 Pawellau. Also, see Book III, Chapter 6 Militsch County in the Breslau District, Village of Heidchen in Militsch County: the Family of Robert Theodor Sternitzke, 1893 Heidchen to 1945 Bautzen.

Birth, Family and Death of daughter
Emma Sternitzke (1868-1899)

Emma Sternitzke was born at Trebnitz around the 10th of July in 1868, the daughter of David Sternitzke and Julia (née Tauchmann) Sternitzke. That date is based on her age (31 years and 1 month) when she died at Breslau on the 10th of August in 1899. Her parents, David Sternitzke and his wife Julia were Gastwirts (innkeepers) at Trebnitz in 1899.

Baptism Sponsor Emma Sternitzke, 1896

Fräulein Emma Sternitzke from Trebnitz was one of the baptismal sponsors for Alfred Robert Oskar Curt Gusinde on the 25th of October in 1896 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen

Protestant Church in Breslau. He was the son of the Wurstfabrikant (sausage maker) August Gusinde and his wife Martha (née Taushmann) Gusinde. They lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 80. The other sponsor was the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Karl Gusinde who was a resident of Trebnitz.

And the death of Emma (née Sternitzke) Lachmann (1868-1899)

In 1899, Emma (née Sternitzke) Lachmann and her husband, the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Friedrich Lachmann, lived in Breslau at Adolfstraße 9 (4 blocks northwest from the University Bridge, now Otwartta Street). They were Protestants. Their unnamed daughter died at birth on the 5th of August in 1899, five days before the death of her mother Emma (née Sternitzke) Lachmann.

Friedrich Lachmann reported the deaths of his daughter and wife, and signed both death records. He listed his wife's maiden name as Sternitzki on the death record of their daughter. He identified his wife's maiden name and the name of her parents as Sternitzke on his wife's death record.

Family of Johann Josef Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke 1871 & 1872 City of Trebnitz

Marriage records for the city of Breslau and birth records at Kloch-Ellguth (as recorded in the Massel Church records) document the movements of the family of Johann Josef Sternitzke and his wife Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. See the summary of their history below in the discussion titled the Village of Jeschütz in Trebnitz County: the Families of Gottfried and Johann Josef Sternitzke, 1866 Jeschütz to 1943 Breslau.

Two daughters of Johann Josef Sternitzke and his wife Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke were born at Trebnitz in 1871 and 1872.

Birth of daughter Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke, 1871

Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke was born at Trebnitz on the 9th of February in 1871. Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke was confirmed at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 29th of March in 1885. Her father, Joseph Sternitzke was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) at Ellgut (Kloch-Ellguth) in 1885. Joseph was listed as a Catholic.

Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke was the daughter of Josef Sternitzke who was an Arbeiter (laborer) living in Breslau at the time of his daughter's wedding in July of 1893. Martha's mother was Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke who last lived at Kloch-Ellguth in Trebnitz County and died sometime before Martha's wedding to Hermann August Paul Thum in 1893. A 47-years-old Arbeiter named Josef Sternitzke was a witness at Martha's wedding. He shared the same address as Martha in Breslau, and was probably her father. Josef would have been born around 1846. They lived at Enderstraße 7 (now Henryka Pobożnego Street, 3 blocks north of the Oder and near the main road to Trebnitz). See Chapter 1: Marriage and Family of Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke, 27 July 1893 to 1944 City of Breslau.

Birth, Confirmation and Marriage of daughter
Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke, 1872

Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke was born at Trebnitz on the 18th of December in 1872. She was the daughter of Josef Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. After Auguste's birth the family moved to Kobelwitz (three miles northeast of Trebnitz), and then to Kloch-Ellguth where their son Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke was born (in 1877) and where Ernestine died.

Anna Auguste Pauline Sternitzke was confirmed at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 26th of September in 1886. Note that the order of her names was listed differently on the confirmation record, but the birth date, birth location, father's name listed on that record matched marriage record. Her confirmation record show that her mother died shortly before the confirmation. Her father, Joseph Sternitzke was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) at Ellgut (Kloch-Ellguth) in 1886. Joseph Sternitzke was listed as a Catholic and his deceased wife was a Protestant. Josef and his children then moved to Breslau where Josef was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) and Auguste was employed as a Dienstmädchen (maid servant).

Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke married Karl Friedrich August Paul on the 17th of October in 1895 at Breslau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. August Paul was born on the 11th of December in 1858 at Groß Weigelsdorf in Oels County, the son of Karl Paul and Dorothea (née Bautz) Paul from Groß Weigelsdorf. Josef Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of Auguste Sternitzke. Josef Sternitzke was listed on the marriage records as a 49-years-old Arbeiter (laborer) living in Breslau at Bismarkstraße 2 (now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, one block west of the main road to Trebnitz). See the full transcription of this 1895 marriage in Chapter 1 of this book for more details.

Birth and Death of Karl Sternitzke 1873 and 1945 City of Trebnitz

Karl Sternitzke was born at Trebnitz on the 28th of December in 1873. He died at Trebnitz on the 23rd of August in 1945. He was buried at the Klosterfriedhof (Catholic cloister cemetery) at Trebnitz. Karl may have been a son of Johann Josef Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. They had daughters who were born at Trebnitz in 1871 and 1872. Johann Josef Sternitzke was a Catholic. See above: the Family of Johann Josef Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke, 1871 & 1872 City of Trebnitz.

Birth, Marriage and Family of Anna Sternitzki 1875 and 1893 City of Trebnitz, 1903 Groß Glieschwitz and 1908 Borzenzine (Militsch County)

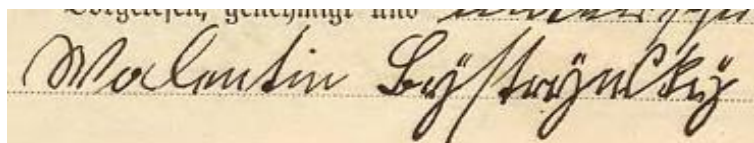

Anna Sternitzki was born at Trebnitz about 1875. She married Valentin Birkner (also known as Valentin Bystrynski) at Trebnitz around 1893. Valentin was born around 1870.

Their son, Richard Wilhelm Birkner (Bystrynski) was born on the 6th of September in 1895.

In 1903, the Schäferknecht (shepherd servant) Valentin Býstrýnský and his wife Anna (née Sternitzki) Býstrýnský were residents of the village Groß Glieschwitz in Militsch County

(about 2.5 miles southwest from the city of Trachenberg). Their son, Karl Franz Býstrýnský was born at their home at Groß Glieschwitz, on the 5th of December in 1903. The father was identified as a Catholic on the birth record. The mother was a Protestant.

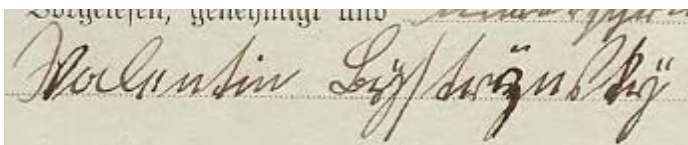

The registrar wrote the father's name on the 1903 birth record as Vallentin Býstrýnský, but the father's signature appears as Valentin Býstrýnský.

Groß Glieschwitz was renamed Freyersdorf in 1937. The population of the village was 232 in 1939. The village is now named Kliszkowice, Poland.

Ida Louise Býstrýnský was born on the 21st of November in 1908 in her parents' home at Borzenzine in Militsch County. Her parents were listed by the registrar at Schmiegrode as the Füttersmann (a man who feeds cattle) Vallentin Býstrýnski and Anna (nee Sternitzki) Býstrýnski. The father signed the birth records as Valentin Býstrýnský. The father was listed as a Catholic on the birth record. The mother was listed as a Protestant.

Wedding Witness Wilhelm Sternitzke 1876 Trebnitz and Maltshawe

The 46 years old Wilhelm Sternitzke was a witness for the wedding of the Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gustav Geisler and Christiane Pauline Rudel. The wedding took place on the 31st of October in 1876 at Maltschawe in Trebnitz County. The wedding was recorded at the Cawallen Standesamt (registry office). Wilhelm Sternitzke was a Ackerbürger, a resident of the city of Trebnitz who derived his income from agriculture (an urban farmer). He was born around 1830. The groom and the bride were Protestants.

The Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gustav Geisler was born on the 1st of May in 1845 at Schickwitz in Trebnitz County. He was the son the Schickwitz Bauergutsbesitzer Daniel Geisler and his wife Helene (née Sille) Geisler. Christiane Pauline Rudel was born on the 17th of 1848 at Droschen in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Droschen Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Friedrich Rudel and his wife Johanne (née Sille) Rudel.

The other witness at the wedding was the 36 years old Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Brossok from Gross Märtinau in Trebnitz County.

Marriage of Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke and Pauline Ernestine Sternitzke
1878 Trebnitz and Pawellau

Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke was born on the 4th of June in 1847 at Pollentschine (now named Boleścín) near Skarsine in Trebnitz County. He was the son the Lohngärtner Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Majunke) Sternitzke. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden.

In 1878, the Arbeiter (laborer) Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke and his mother were living in the city of Trebnitz. His father had previously died at Hochkirch in Trebnitz County.

On the 29th of October in 1878, Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke married Pauline Ernestine Sternitzke. The marriage was recorded at Schimmerau, but the wedding probably took place at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. The bride's parents, the Häusler Daniel Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Feuerstein) Sternitzke were still living at Pawellau at that time.

Pauline Ernestine Sternitzke was born at Pawellau on the 19th of August in 1851. She had two children out of wedlock (in 1876 and 1877) before her marriage in 1878. See Book II: the Family of Daniel Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Feuerstein) Sternitzke, 1834 Striese, 1836 to 1840 Ströhof, 1851 to 1880 Pawellau.

The wedding witnesses were the 38 years old Ackerbürger August Marke from the city of Trebnitz and the 47 years old Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke from Breslau. Based on his age in 1878, Wilhelm Sternitzke was born around 1832. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

An Ackerbürger was a city resident who derived his income from agriculture (an urban farmer). Signatures from the original marriage record is copied below.

After their marriage, August and Ernestine Sternitzke settled in Pawellau. Their first child, Ernst Gustav Sternitzke was born there on the 8th of October in 1879. See Book II: the Family of Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke and Pauline Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, 1879 Pawellau.

Kaufmann* Max Sternitzkÿ
1900 Buchenwalde bei Trebnitz

Walter Wilhelm Robert Sternitzkÿ was born at Breslau on the 17th of March in 1900. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of April in 1900. His parents were the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ (1875-after 1943) and his wife Marie (née Rathmann) Sternitzkÿ. They lived at Lehmdamm 15 in Breslau. Emil was a Protestant. Marie was a Catholic. The baptismal sponsors were Robert Jettke from Stroppen, the Locomotivheizer (railroad stoker) Josef Rathmann, from Breslau, and the Kaufmann (merchant) Max Sternitzkÿ from Buchenwalde. See the Marriage and Family of Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ, 1899 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The Kaufmann Max Sternitzkÿ from Buchenwalde was probably the child's uncle, Wilhelm Max Sternitzkÿ (1880-after 1900). See the Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke, April 1891 to 1911 City of Breslau.

Several books from the 19th century refer to the forest southeast of the city of Trebnitz as Buchenwalde (or as Buchenwald). A map from 1919 shows it as Buchenwald.

Marriage of Karl Max Sternitzke-Hippe, 1938 Trebnitz

Karl Max Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 31st of January in 1912. He was son of the ledigen Plätterin (unmarried ironer) Maria Emma Sternitzke. Reinhold Fritz Hippe legally acknowledged he was the father of Karl Max Sternitzke in a document at the court of the 5th Army Corps dated the 3rd of June in 1915.

A note on his civil birth record shows that Karl Max Sternitzke was married at Trebnitz (Silesia) in 1938 (marriage record number 4 in 1938). He may have been married under the name Karl Max Hippe. See the Birth and Marriage of Maria Emma Sternitzke, 1888 Kotzerke, 1912 to 1915 City of Breslau.

Village of Bischwitz in Trebnitz County

Bischwitz was a village about four miles north of the old city walls of Breslau. It was originally a Rittergut (estate of a knight). There were 359 residents in Bischwitz in 1939. A smaller village named Klein Bischwitz was about one mile north of Bischwitz. Bischwitz was destroyed in the Second World War, but that location is still known as Biskupice Widawskie.

Another village named Bischwitz was located in Ohlau County until the 1st of January in 1945 when it was enfolded into Strehlen County. That village was referred to as Bischwitz bei Wansen in Sternitzke family records at Breslau.

Landwirth Julius Sternitzke 1889 Bischwitz

Julius Sternitzke was a 32 years old Landwirth (farmer) who lived at Bischwitz. Julius was a witness at the wedding of Carl August Julius Sternitzke and Anna Thersia Kolbe in Breslau on the 24th of April in 1889. The signature of Julius Sternitzke and the signature from the groom (who also signed his name as Julius Sternitzke) from the marriage record are shown below.

Witness

Groom

The relationship between Julius the groom and Julius the witness is unknown. The groom, Carl August Julius Sternitzke was born at Wüstendorf (six miles east of Breslau) on the 18th of September in 1858. That means the groom was 30 years old at time of his wedding. He was two years younger than Julius the witness, so they may have been brothers.

The groom was the son of David Sternitzke and Johanna (née Dräsner) Sternitzke from the village Wüstendorf (six miles east of Breslau). They may have also been the parents of Julius Sternitzke (the witness at the wedding in Breslau).

Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County

Brietzen was a village in Trebnitz County. It is now called Brzyków. The population of Brietzen was 206 in 1939. According to Wilhelm Starnitzki's manuscript, a grave from the first century AD was found in Brietzen. Below is a translation of Pastor Conrad's history of Brietzen:

Duke Heinrich I was active in transplanting German culture into the Slavic territory he ruled, with real estate and landholdings to provide for the proper welfare and material maintenance of the nuns. In that same year, he traveled around Trebnitz County and had earth walls constructed and trees planted to designate the Stift's properties. Those boundaries were later identified with boundary stones marked with the initials of the Stift's name. It was under this first donation of properties to the cloister, including estates and land, that Brietzen was first mentioned. Brietzen is listed in the 1203 deed of donation as "villa Brictii" (Brictii Manor). Brictii Manor was later known by other names closer to the Brietzen spelling, such as: Brisovo, Brczow, Brziczaw, Britzaw etc.

Duke Heinrich I received the "villa Brictii" from Johannes, the son of Briccius, who was probably the previous owner. Duke Heinrich donated the villa Johannis Brictii to the Trebnitz convent in 1215.

The Brzyków village website states that Duke Heinrich I bought the property in 1203, from the sons of Johann: Nicolas and Gregory Brictiusa. The property was originally a forest colony, primarily involved in bee-keeping. German Law was established at Brietzen in 1295.

The name of Brietzen has written in the following variations in historic documents: villa Brictii (1203, 1208 and 1236), Bricov (1204), Brziczewo (1236), Brisovo (1266-7), Brisouo (1267), Britzawe and Britzaw (1410), Britzen (1654, 1718 and 1740) and Brietzen (1710, 1863). Aloysius Bach also identified church documents where the village name appeared as Briesnitz and Briesnica.

Birth and Death of Anna Rosine Sternitzke/Starnitzke 1819 Brietzen, 1866 Breslau

The Gutsbesitzer (homestead owner) Johanna Sternitzke was a property owner at Brietzen. Her second daughter, Anna Rosine Sternitzke was born on the 29th of September in 1819, and married Joseph Kintscher at Breslau on the 4th of November in 1844. Johanna Sternitzke died prior to the birth of Anna Rosine's daughter on 15th of March in 1844.

Alwine Henriette Amalie Sternitzke/Starnitzke, 1844 Breslau

Alwine Henriette Amalie Sternitzke-Kintscher was born at Breslau 15th of March in 1844 (before her parents' marriage) and made legitimate on the 20th October in 1844. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 31st of March in 1844. A note on her baptism record shows Anna Rosine Sternitzke was 24 years old when Alwine was baptized, and that Anna Rosine married Joseph Kindscher after the birth of Alwine. A duplicate 1844 baptism record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Church listed the Alwine's mother as Anna Rosalie Starnitzke, the 24 years old second daughter of the former Gutsbesitzer Joh. Starnitzke at Brietzen.

Marriage of Anna Rosine Sternitzke, 1844

Anna Rosine Sternitzke married Joseph Kindscher at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of November in 1844. The church record shows she was 25 years old and the second daughter of Johann Sternitzke. Johann was described on the 1844 marriage record as the weiland (late) and gewesene (former) Erbliche Freigärtner (hereditary free owner of a house and garden) at Langenau. That was the same description listed for the father of Barbara Helene Starnitzke on her 1840 marriage to Carl Rösler. Anna Rosine and Barbara Helene were sisters. In 1844, Anna Rosine Sternitzke was living in Breslau at Rosengasse Nr. 21. That was the same address where her sister was living in 1842.

See Book III, Chapter 1: Marriage and Children of Anna Rosine Starnitzke/Sternitzke and Josef Kintscher, 1844 to 1895 City of Breslau.

Related Notes

The Jungfrau (maiden) Rosine Starnitzke and the Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) Joseph Kindscher were baptismal sponsors for Julius Berthold Wilhelm Rösler on the 14th of August in 1842, at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Rosine Starnitzke was described as the surviving third daughter of the late Bauergutsbesitzer Gottlieb Starnitzke from Brietzen.

Julius Berthold Wilhelm Rösler was the son of Carl Rösler and Barbara Helene (Starnitzke) Rösler. Barbara Helene Starnitzke was 24 years old at the time of her wedding in 1840, so she was born around 1816. She was the daughter of Johann Starnitzke. He was described on the 1840 marriage record as the weiland (late) and gewesene (former) Erbliche Freigärtner (hereditary free owner of a house and garden) at Langenau. See Book III, Chapter 1: Marriage and Family of Anna Barbara Helene (née Starnitzke/Starnitzkü/Sternitzke) Rösler, 1840 to 1853 City of Breslau.

Death of Rosine (née Stanitzke) Kintscher, 1866

The 1862-1871 death and burial record book from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows Rosine (née Stanitzke) Kintscher died on the 11th of August in 1866. She died from cholera at the age 45 years, 10 months and 24 days old. She was buried on the 14th of August in 1866. Her husband was listed as the Papiermacher (paper maker) Joseph Kintscher, who lived in Breslau at Matthias Straße 26e.

Family of Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Gäbel/Gebel 1824 to 1912 Brietzen

The histories of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Gäbel and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Gäbel are only known from the death records of their two daughters: Elisabeth and Christiane. The death record for Christiane listed her maiden name as Gebel. The death records for both daughters listed them as Protestants.

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Elisabeth Gäbel (1824-1897)

Elisabeth Gäbel was born at Brietzen around the 14th of February in 1824. That date was based on her (73 and ½ years old) when she died. She married the Freigärtner Gottfried Stober and they had a daughter named Christiane Stober. Christiane married a Locomotivführer (train engineer) named Mr. Posselt.

The Freigärtner Gottfried Stober died at Obernigk in Trebnitz County before the death of his wife in 1897. Elisabeth (née Gäbel) Stober then lived with her daughter Christiane in Breslau at Holteistraße 12 (now named Prosta Street, about 3 blocks from the southwest corner of the old city moat).

Elisabeth (née Gäbel) Stober died at the home of her daughter Christiane (née Stober) Posselt on the 14th of August in 1897. Christiane provided the details of her mother's life for the civil death record. Christiane did not remember the first names of Elisabeth's parents. She reported they were the Gutsbesitzer (homestead owner) Gäbel and his wife whose maiden name was Sternitzke. They had both died at Brietzen in Trebnitz County

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Christiane Gebel (1831-1912)

Christiane Gebel was born at Brietzen around the 8th of September in 1831. That date was based on her age (80 years and 2 months old) when she died at Brietzen on the 9th of January in 1912. Christiane Gebel was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Gebel and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Gebel, who both died at Brietzen.

Christiane Gebel married the Schmiedemeister (master smith) Carl Krätzig around 1857. The death record for Christiane (née Gebel) Krätzig shows she was married to Carl Krätzig for 55 years. Christiane died at Brietzen on the 9th of January in 1912. Her husband signed Christiane's death record at Brietzen.

Birth and Death of the Taubstumme Friedrich Sternitzke 1825 Brietzen, 1891 Pawellau

Friedrich Sternitzke (1825-1891) was born at Brietzen in May of 1825. He was a Taubstumme (deaf-mute) and the son of the Halbhübner Gottlieb Johann Sternitzke and his wife. The maiden name of Gottlieb's wife was Schwarz. A Halbhübner was a farmer who owned a farm with a property size of ½ Huben (about 8 acres). One Huben (also known as a Hufen) was the size of the property associated with a standard full-sized farm.

The Schmiedemeister (master smith) Wilhelm Sternitzke (1854-1925) from Pawellau reported the death of the Taubstumme (deaf-mute) Friedrich Sternitzke on the 26th of July in 1891. Friedrich was 66 years old when he died, unmarried and a resident of Pawellau. Friedrich's parents died at Brietzen before the death of their son. Wilhelm Sternitzke signed the death record.

Wilhelmine Margarete (née Schwarz) Sternitzky
c.1826 to c.1853 Brietzen

Johann Sternitzky married Wilhelmine Margarete Schwarz around 1826. They were living at Brietzen in 1827 when their daughter Elisabeth was born. Johann Sternitzky died before 1853. His widow and their two daughters emigrated to Canada and then to Buffalo, New York.

Birth, Confirmation and Death of daughter
Elisabeth Sternitzky (1827-1854)

The Jungfrau (maiden) Elisabeth Sternitzky died at the age of 26 years and 9 months old on the 27th of July in 1854, so her calculated birth date was around October in 1827. Her death record shows that she was born at Brietzen in Trebnitz County (Silesia). It states that she was confirmed at Baulau [Pawellau?] near Trebnitz. Elisabeth emigrated with her mother Wilhelmine Margarete Sternitzky, first to Canada in 1853 and then to Buffalo in New York State. Elisabeth Sternitzky died at Buffalo on 27 of July in 1854. Her death was recorded at the Trinity Lutheran Church at Buffalo.

Birth, Marriages and Family of daughter
Johanna Christiane Sternitzky

According to her 1854 marriage record, Johanna Christiane Sternitzky was born at Brietzen in Trebnitz County, Silesia. The date of her birth is not known. She was the daughter of the Bauer (farmer) Johann Sternitzky and Margarette (née Schwarz) Sternitzky. Her father died at Brietzen before 1854.

Johanna Christiane Sternitzky married a Mr. Otterbein. The date and location of that marriage is not known. They had one known child, Friedrich Otterbein who was born around January in 1853 and died on the 24th of July in 1854 at the age of 1 year and 6 months old. He was buried on the 25th of July in 1854 according to a record from the Trinity Lutheran Church in Buffalo. The death/burial record listed the parents of Friedrich Otterbein as Anton Glden and Johana (ne Sternitzky) Glden because the death took place after Johanna's second marriage discussed next.

The widow Johanna Christiane (ne Sternitzky) Otterbein married the widowed Schneider (tailor) Johann Anton Gldner on the 20th of June in 1854. The bride and the groom were Lutherans. They were married at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Buffalo, New York.

Johann Anton Gldner was 46 years old, so he was born around 1808 at Klein Zellnig in Oels County, Silesia. The groom's parents were listed on the marriage record as the late Mller (miller) Anton Gldner and Hedwig (ne Wilde) Gldner from Klein Zellnig. Klein Zellnig was listed in geographic references as Klein Zllnig (southeast from the city of Oels).

Second Marriage of Maria (ne Schwarz) Sternitzky, 1855 Buffalo

The widow Maria (ne Schwarz) Sternitzky (from Brietzen in Trebnitz County near Breslau) married the widowed Hausarbeiter Johann Kernich at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Buffalo. They were married on the 15th of July in 1855. The groom was 58 years old, so he was born around 1797. The bride was probably born around that same year.

The bride's parents were listed as the late Christian Schwarz and the late Maria (ne Matzen) Schwarz. They were from Schwundich near Trebnitz in Silesia. The village listed on the marriage record as Schwundich was probably the village Gross Schwundnig which was near the eastern side of the city of Trebnitz.

The groom was from Schlottau in Trebnitz County near Breslau. He was the son of Johann Kernich and Johanne (ne Bartsch) Kernich from Kachen near Breslau. Kachen was probably Ober Kachel or Neider Kachel in Trebnitz County, near Schlottau. The Schneider Anton Gldner and his wife were wedding witnesses.

Family of Maria (née Sterniske) Langner 1827 Brietzen, 1887 and 1909 City of Breslau

Maria Sternitzke (c.1790-before 1887), the daughter of Johann Sternitzke, married Johann Langner, the son of Johann Langner on the 9th of July in 1810 at the Protestant Evangelical Church at Trebnitz. Maria may have been a sister of Gottfried Sternitzke (1793-1879), which would mean she was the daughter of Johann Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Gersmehle) Sternitzke. See above, the Birth and Death of Gottfried Sternitzke, 1793 to 1879 Brietzen.

Maria (née Sterniske) Langner was the wife of Johann Langner, a Freigärtner in Brietzen. Their son Gottlieb Langner was born at Brietzen on the 3rd of July in 1827. Maria and Johann both died before the 1887 marriage of their son Gottlieb Langner to Auguste Pauline Rind. His parents were listed as Johann Langner and Maria (née Sternicke) Langner on Gottlieb's 1909 marriage to Helene Luise Gertrud Kubiziel.

Gottlieb Langner's first wedding took place in Breslau on the 28th of December of 1887. The groom and the bride were both Protestants. After the marriage, Gottlieb and Auguste (née Rind) Langner lived at Schießwerderstraße 34 in Breslau. Gottlieb was employed as a Stadtpostbote (city postman). Witnesses to the wedding included Gustav Seidelmann (age 46, who was living at Gräbschener Straße 16 in Breslau) and Constantin Klencz (age 33, who was living at Gräbschener Straße 69 in Breslau).

Auguste Pauline Rind was born on the 14th of November in 1850 at Neumittelwande in Wartenberg County. She was the daughter of Karl Rind and Johanna Melde, who had both died before this wedding.

Gottlieb Langner's second wedding took place at Breslau on the 29th of March in 1909. Gottlieb was a Protestant. His bride was a Catholic. Helene Luise Gertrud Kubiziel was born on the 24th of May in 1882 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Eisendreher (iron lathe operator) Friedrich Kubiziel and his wife Anna (née Scharf) Kubiziel. Gottlieb was employed as a Postschaffner (postal worker) and lived at Schulzenwiese 8 (about 9 blocks west of the old city walls, now Sołtysia Street). Gertrud was employed as a Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived at Siebenhufenerstraße 50 (4 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Tęczowa Street).

Witnesses at the 1909 wedding included the 41 years old Schutzmann (policeman) Oskar Lange and the 46 years old Oberpostassistent (senior postal assistant) Gustav Hanisch. Oskar Lange lived at Breslau at Siebenhufenerstraße 10 (2 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Tęczowa Street). Gustav Hanisch lived at Fichtestraße 19 (6 blocks south of the main trainstation, now Tomaszowska Street).

 Circa Gen.IXc. Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1801-1882) Pawellau. Married c.1828 to Susanna Helene
 Thinibel (1806-1883). See the Family of Friedrich Sternitzke and Susanna Helene (née Thinibel) Sternitzke, 1801 to 1912 Pawellau.

The death record of Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) shows he was born at Pawellau on the 2nd of June in 1799. He was the son of the Bauer Heinrich Sternitzke (senior, c.1776-after 1863) and his wife Susanna (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke who both died at Pawellau. See Book II, the Family of Heinrich Sternitzke and Susanna (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke, c.1796 to c.1801 Pawellau.

The Bauergutsauszüger (retired owner of a farmstead) Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) died at Brietzen on the 17th of May in 1887, at the age of 87 years old. He died in the home of his son the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Sternitzke who signed his father's death record at Schimmerau.

Marriages of Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887)
Circa 1828 and 1842

Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) married Susanna (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke around 1828. She was born around 1808 and she died around 1841.

The 1881 death record of his son Robert Julius Sternitzke shows Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) was married to Susanna (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke when their son Robert Julius was born in 1841. Heinrich noted on his son's death record that Susanna was his first wife, implying he was married to someone else, Christiane (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke, when his son died. Susanna probably died during, or shortly after the birth of Robert Julius, because the death record of Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) shows he was married to Christiane (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke for 45 years (from 1842 until his death in 1887).

Heinrich's death record shows that he was married to Christiane (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke for 45 years. So, they were married around 1842. They were both Protestants.

Christiane Gnerlich (1822-1905) was born at Pawellau around the 23rd of November in 1822 (based on her age of 82 and ½ years old when she died). A note on her death record may mean she was born on the 10th of December in 1822. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Gnerlich and his wife whose maiden name was Kotschate.

The death record of their daughter Emilie Sternitzke shows the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife lived at Brietzen from 1844 to 1878. Heinrich Sternitzke was a retired farmer in 1878 and lived at Bauergut property number 4 at Brietzen.

Christiane (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke died at Brietzen on the 23rd of May in 1905. Her death was reported at Brietzen by her son the Gutsbesitzer (homestead owner) August Sternitzke. He reported that his mother had been a widow for 18 years, which matches the death record of Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887).

Birth, Marriage and Death of son
Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (1829-1905)

The 1868 marriage record of Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (1829-1905) shows he was born at Brietzen on the 30th of August in 1829. The marriage record listed his father as the Freibauer Heinrich Sternitzke from Brietzen. Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (1829-1905) married Anna Rosina Dorothea Hoffmann at Breslau on the 2nd of June in 1868.

Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was 76 years and 1 month old when he died at Breslau on the 24th of October in 1905. His death was reported and signed by his wife Anna (née Hoffmann) Sternitzke. She reported his parents as the Bauergutsbesitzers Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Generlich) Sternitzke, who had both died at Brietzen. Anna (née Hoffmann) Sternitzke was born on the 29th of August in 1843, so she was 62 years old when her husband died. She probably made an error in the name of her husband's mother who had died before 1842. See the *Bäckermeister Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Anna Rosina Dorothea (née Hoffmann) Sternitzke, 1868 to 1918 City of Breslau.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son
Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke (1831-after 1863)

The 1863 marriage record for Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke (1831-after 1863) shows he was born on the 30th of July in 1831 at Brietzen. He was baptized at Pawellau on the 7th of August in 1831 and he was confirmed at Easter Sunday in 1845. Johann's marriage record shows he was the son the Freibauer (free farmer) Heinrich Sternitzke and Susanna (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke.

On the 24th of May in 1863, the 31 years old Schmiedegeselle (journeyman blacksmith) Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke married the Jungfrau (maiden) Anna Henriette Kröger (1820-1893) at the St. Peter's Protestant Basilica in Copenhagen, Denmark. The bride was 42 years old. She was born on the 22nd of October in 1820, baptized on the 5th of November in 1820 and confirmed on Easter Sunday in 1836 at Flensburg, in Schleswig-Holstein, Germany. She was the daughter of Georg Heinrich Kröger and Maria (née Petersen) Kröger.

Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke and Anna Henriette (née Kröger) Sternitzke had two known children: Ernstine Henriette Sternitzke and Johan Julius Heinrich Sternitzke.

- Ernstine Henriette Sternitzke was born on the 23rd of November in 1861 and she was baptized on the 3rd of December in 1861 at Copenhagen. Her parents were listed in the baptism record as the Smedsvend (journeyman blacksmith) Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke and Anna Henriette (née Kröger) Sternitzke who were married on the 24th of May in 1863 at the St. Peter Church.

Ernstine Henriette Sternitzke was confirmed at the St. Peter Church on the 26th of September in 1875. Her parents were listed as the Schmiedegeselle (journeyman blacksmith) Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke and Anna Henriette (née Kröger) Sternitzke who lived at Torvegade Street No. 33 in Copenhagen.

Ernstine Henriette Sternitzke married Jörgen Thomsen Schjött on the 5th of October in 1879 at the St. Peter Church in Copenhagen. The bride was the 17-years-old daughter of Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke and Anna Henriette (née Kröger) Sternitzke. The groom was employed in the Polizeidienst (police service). He was the 26-years-old son of Niels Gottfredsen Schjött and Mette Regine (née Schönberg) Schjött.

Ernestine Henriette Sternitzke and Jörgen Thomsen Schjött had six children:

- Hulda Regine Henriette Laurine Schött (1879-after 1902) was born on the 7th of October in 1879 and she was baptized on the 14th of March in 1880. The baptism sponsor was the Smedsvend (journeyman blacksmith) Sternitzke who lived at Torvegade Street No. 33 in Copenhagen.

On the 8th of June in 1902, Hulda Regine Henriette Laurine Schött married Laurids Richard Nielson at the Vor Frelzers Kirke (Church of Our Savior) in Copenhagen. The bride lived at Vildersgade No. 30. The groom was born on the 23rd of July in 1879, the son of Niels Jörgen Nielson and Maren Stine (née Hansen) Nielson.

- An unnamed stillborn child was identified in a church death record book. The child died on the 16th of September in 1880. The parents of the child were identified as the Politibetjent (policeman) Jörgen Thomsen Schött and Ernestine Henriette (née Sternitzke) Schött. No date of baptism or sponsors were listed in the record.
- Anna Georgine Schött was born on the 26th of August in 1881 at Copenhagen. She was baptized on the 26th of January in 1882. The parents of the child were identified as the Politibetjent (policeman) Jörgen Thomsen Schött and Ernestine Henriette (née Sternitskÿ) Schött.
- Ernst Julius Heinrich Jörgen Schött was born on the 4th of September in 1882 at Copenhagen. He was baptized on the 4th of February in 1883. The parents of the child were identified as the Politibetjent (policeman) Jörgen Thomsen Schött and Ernestine Henriette (née Sternitzke) Schött. The Smed (blacksmith) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife were listed as baptism sponsors. Ernst and his wife lived at Dronningensgadel Street No. 46 (second floor).
- Alma Caroline Johanne Schött was born on the 10th of September in 1883 at Copenhagen. She was baptized on the 7th of October in 1883. The parents of the child were identified as the Politibetjent (policeman) Jörgen Thomsen Schött and Ernestine Henriette (née Sternitzche) Schött. The Smedsvend (journeyman blacksmith) Ernst Sternitzche and his wife were listed as baptism sponsors. Ernst and his wife lived at Dronningensgadel Street No. 46 (second floor).
- Jens Johan Ernst Julius Schött was born on 11th of September in 1884. He was baptized on the 28th of September in 1884. The parents of the child were identified as the Politibetjent (policeman) Jörgen Thomsen Schött and Ernestine Henriette (née Sternitzke) Schött. The Smed (blacksmith) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife were listed as baptism sponsors. Ernst and his wife lived at Vildersgade No. 33 in Copenhagen. Jens Johan Ernst Julius Schött was confirmed on the 9th of October in 1898. His parents were listed as the Politibetjent (policeman) Jörgen Thomsen Schött and Ernestine Henriette Sternitzke newlywed with the Elhandler (electricity dealer) Larsen who lived at Vildersgade No. 30.

Ernestine Henriette (née Sternitzke) Schött married the Detailhandler (retailer) Kristen Larson on the 20th of August in 1893 at the Vor Frelzers Kirke (Church of Our Savior) in Copenhagen. The bride was the 31 years old daughter of the Smedsvend (journeyman blacksmith) Johann Ernst Julius Sternitzke and Anna Henriette (née Krøyer) Sternitzke who lived at Vildersgade No. 30. The bride had been living at Vildersgade No. 30. The groom was born on the 1st of February in 1860. He was the son of Lars Kristensen and Karen Marie Rasmussen. The marriage record shows that Ernestine's first husband the Politibetjent (policeman) Jörgen Thomsen Schött had died on the 13th of April in 1884. One of the wedding witnesses was the Smed (blacksmith) E. Sternitzke who lived at Vildersgade No. 30. He was probably the bride's father.

Ernestine Henriette (née Sternitzke) Larsen died on the 9th of January in 1899. She was buried on the 15th of January in 1899. She was buried at the cemetery of the Church of Our Savior in Copenhagen. The cause of her death was listed on the death record as canser uteri (uterine cancer).

- Johan Julius Heinrich Sternitzke was born on the 20th of January in 1866 at Copenhagen. He was baptized on the 17th of June in 1866. His parents were listed on the baptism record as the Smedsvend (journeyman blacksmith) Johan Sternitzke and Anna Henriette (née Krüger) Sternitzke who lived at Torvegade Street No. 33.

Johan Ernst Julius Sternitzke was confirmed in 1880 at the St. Peter Church in Copenhagen. His parents were listed as the Schmied (blacksmith) Johan Ernst Julius Sternitzke and Anna Henriette (née Krüger) Sternitzke who lived at Torvegade Street No. 33.

Anna Henriette (née Krøyer) Sternitzke (1820-1893) died at the age 73 years old on the 4th of August in 1893. She was buried on the 10th of August in 1893. Her death and burial were recorded at the St. Peter's Protestant Basilica in Copenhagen, Denmark. Her name was recorded as Anna Henriette Sternitzki. She was listed as the wife of the Kesselschmied (boilermaker) Sternitzki who lived at Vildersgade No. 30. Vildersgade is a street now known as Wildersgade.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son Julius Robert Sternitzke (1841-1881)

The 1878 marriage record of Julius Robert Sternitzke shows he was born on the 18th of September in 1841 at Brietzen. He was the son of the Landmann (farmer) Heinrich Sternitzke and Susanna (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. Heinrich was living at Brietzen, but Susanna had died before the 1878 marriage of her son.

In 1878, the Schmied (blacksmith) Julius Robert Sternitzke was living at Davidstraße 6 in the St. Pauli suburb of the city Hamburg. According to the marriage record he married Louise Margaretha Dorothea Schöer at Hamburg on the 23rd of July in 1878. The religion of the bride and the groom was listed as Geislicher (spiritualists). The groom signed the marriage record as J.R. Sternitzke. The bride signed the marriage record as L.M.D. Sternitzke geboren Schör. She was born on the 9th of February in 1845 at Segeburg (north of Hamburg). She was the daughter of the Schumacher (shoemaker) Hans Joachim Schöer and Margarethe Dorothea (née Heinrich) Schöer. Her father was living at Segeberg. Her mother died before this wedding.

The Bauergutsauszüger (retired farmstead owner) Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) from Brietzen reported the death of his son the Schiffsmann (shipman, sailor) Robert Julius Sternitzke (note the reversal of his first and middle names on the death record). Heinrich reported his son's death at Schimmerau on the 2nd of February in 1881. He listed the mother of Robert Julius Sternitzke as the deceased Susanna (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. Julius Robert Sternitzke was born at Brietzen on the 18th of September in 1841. He was 39 years old when he died in 1881. His death record shows that he had been married to Louise (née Scheer) Sternitzke for 2 years before he died in 1881. They had lived at Antoni Straße 31 in St. Pauli suburb of the city Hamburg.

The source of his information was a report (dated 11 January 1881 at Lisbon) from J. Heidorn, the captain of the German Dampfschiff (steamboat) Santos owned by the Hamburg-South American Steam Shipping Company. The Santos was traveling from Hamburg, Germany to Lisbon, Portugal. The ship's log book showed Robert Julius Sternitzke died from Schlagfluß (stroke) on the 7th of January in 1881 in the North Sea at 51 degrees 40 minutes North, 2 degrees 35 minutes East (51° 40' n 2° 35' e).

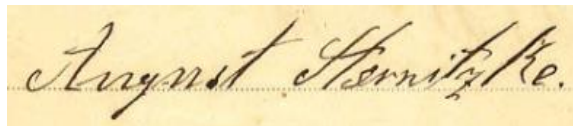

51 degrees 40 minutes North, 2 degrees 35 minutes East.

Birth and Death of daughter Emilie Sternitzke (1844-1878)

Emilie Sternitzke was born in her parents' home at Brietzen on the 16th of March in 1844. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Christiane (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke, who were still living at Brietzen in 1878.

Emilie Sternitzke died at Brietzen on the 1st of January in 1878 at the age of 33 years old. She was unmarried Protestant and she lived with her parents at Bauergut (farmstead) No. 4 until her death. Her death was reported by her brother the Bauergutsbesitzer August Sternitzke who was a resident of Brietzen.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son
August Sternitzke (1846-1929, SN18)

August Sternitzke was born at Brietzen in 1846 (based on his age of 83 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years when he died in 1929). August Sternitzke was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Christiane (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke.

The Bauerauszügler (retired farmer) August Sternitzke died on the 1st of November in 1929. He died at the home of his son the Bauergutsbesitzer Fritz Sternitzke. Fritz signed his father's death record at Pawellau. According to his 1929 death record, the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Sternitzke and his wife Emilie (née Galisch) Sternitzke were married for 48 years, so they were married around 1881. See the discussion below regard the Family of August Sternitzke and Emilie (née Galisch) Sternitzke, 1878 to 1929 Brietzen.

Family of Friedrich Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Bartsch) Sternitzke
1837 to 1884 Brietzen

The Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Bartsch) Sternitzke lived at Brietzen from 1837 to 1884.

The death record of Elisabeth (née Bartsch) Sternitzke was completed by her daughter Caroline (née Sternitzke) Prushock. Her mother was born at Brietzen on the 25th of November in 1816 and died at Brietzen on the 24th of September in 1884, at the age of 68 years old. Her mother was a Protestant. Elisabeth Bartsch was the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gottlieb Bartsch and his wife Susanna (née Prusiek) Bartsch, who both died at Brietzen.

The 1886 marriage record for their daughter Ernestine Pauline Sternitzke listed the parents of Ernestine as the Tagearbeiter Friedrich Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Bartsch) Sternitzke, who last resided at Trebnitz and had both died. That conflicts with the 1884 death record for Elisabeth which listed Brietzen as her last residence. Friedrich was living at Brietzen when he signed the 1885 death record of his granddaughter Emma Ernestine Sternitzke. So, Friedrich Sternitzke died between the 20th of May in 1885 and the 14th of November in 1886. Friedrich may have died at Trebnitz.

Friedrich Sternitzke was a resident of Brietzen in 1837. He was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptim of Johann Gottlieb Bartsch at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 7th of May in 1837. Johann Gottlieb Bartsch was born on the 4th of May in 1837 at Zirkwitz. He was the 3rd child of Gottlieb Bartsch and his wife Helena (née Hahm) Bartsch. The other baptismal sponsors were Susanna Hahm (a Freigärtner from Jeschütz), Elisabeth Kordellen (an Angerhäuslern from Jeschütz) and Johann Kiehnel (a Knecht from Kniegnitz).

Elisabeth Sternitzken was the wife of a Häusler from Brietzen in 1840. She was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptism of Susanna Elisabeth Bartsch at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 16th of February in 1840. Susanna Elisabeth Bartsch was born on the 9th of February in 1840 at Zirkwitz. She was the 4th child of Gottlieb Bartsch and his wife Helena (née Hahm) Bartsch. The other baptismal sponsors were Johann Kiehnel (a Knecht from Peterwitz), Johann David (a Schaffer und Schuhmacher from Zirkwitz), Gottlieb Ritter (a Freigärtner from Bothendorf), Susanna Hahm (a Magd from Kobelwitz) and Elisabeth Dehmel (an Angerhäuslern from Jeschütz).

Birth and Marriage of daughter Dorothea Caroline Sternitzke, 1854 & 1881

Dorothea Caroline Sternitzke was born on the 2nd of August in 1854 at Brietzen. She married Friedrich Ernst Prushock on the 6th of November in 1881. The wedding was recorded at Schimmerau, but was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. Friedrich Ernst Prushock was born on the 8th of November in 1853 at Maluschütz in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer)

Gottlieb Prushock and his wife Anna Rosina (née Winderlich) Prushock who both died at Maluschütz before the 1881 wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the 31 years old Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Heinrich Prushock from Brietzen and the 38 years old Tagearbeiter Gottlieb Halm from Brietzen.

Ernestine Pauline Sternitzke, 1859 & 1886

Ernestine Pauline Sternitzke was born at Brietzen on the 28th of January in 1859.

The Tagearbeiter Friedrich Sternitzke (who lived at Brietzen) reported that his unmarried daughter, the Dienstmagd (servant girl) Ernestine Sternitzke gave birth to a daughter Emma Ernestine Sternitzke. The baby was born at the home of Friedrich Sternitzke on the 20th of May in 1885. Friedrich Sternitzke signed the birth record with 3 crosses. The baby died 5 days later, on the 20th of May in 1885. Friedrich Sternitzke signed the death record with 3 crosses.

Ernestine Pauline Sternitzke married the Knecht (servant) Carl August Becker on the 14th of November in 1886. The wedding was recorded at Schimmerau, but was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. Carl August Becker was born on the 10th of August in 1859 at Bothendorf in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the Lohngärtner Carl Ferdinand Becker and his wife Johanna Elisabeth (née Schilder) Becker. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden.

Paul Max Becker was born in his parents' home at Burgwitz in Trebnitz County, on the 30th of August in 1888. The child died at his parents' home on the 25th of December in 1888. His parents were listed on the birth and death records as the Lohnärtner Carl Becker and Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Becker. The father Carl Becker signed the birth and death records.

Family of Johann Nitschke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Nitschke 1845 to 1883 Brietzen, 1906 to 1909 Breslau

Johann Nitschke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Nitschke lived at Brietzen from 1840 to 1883. They were living at Brietzen when their son was married at Schimmerau/Pawellau in 1883. They moved to Schawoine after 1883 where they both died before their son's death in 1906. Anna Rosina Sternitzke was the daughter of Gottfried Sternitzke (1793-1879). Gottfried's death record was signed by Johann Nitschke the son-in-law of Gottfried Sternitzke. See the Birth and Death of Gottfried Sternitzke, 1793 to 1879 Brietzen.

Birth and Death of son Johann Nitschke,
1845 Brietzen, 1909 Breslau

The Bäcker (baker) Johann Nitschke died at the St. Joseph Krankenhaus (hospital) in Breslau on the 15th of June in 1909. His death record listed him as the son of the Gutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Nitschke and Anna (née Sternitzke) Nitschke who both died at Schawoine in Trebnitz County.

The Bäcker (baker) Johann Nitschke died at the age of 64 years and 5 months, so he was born around January of 1845. His death record shows he was born at Brietzen in Trebnitz County. He was a Protestant. He was married to Luise (née Herder) Nitschke.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son Johann Friedrich August Nitschke, 1850 Brietzen, 1883 Brietzen & 1906 Breslau

Johann Friedrich August Nitschke was born at Brietzen on the 8th of December in 1850. August was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Nitschke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Nitschke.

The Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Friedrich August Nitschke married Rosina Pauline Auguste Müller on the 5th of June in 1883. The marriage was recorded at Schimmerau, but was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. Both the bride and the groom were Protestants. August and his parents were living at Brietzen in 1883.

Rosina Pauline Auguste Müller was born on the 23rd of November in 1860 at Dobrtowitz in Militsch County. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer Gottlieb Müller and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller. In 1883 the Müller family was living at Pawellau.

The wedding witnesses were the 29 years old Erbscholtiseibesitzer (owner of the hereditary mayor's property) Robert Ruschig from Pawellau, and the 25 years old Freistellenbesitzer (free owner of a property) Heinrich Reinsch from Gross Commerowe.

There are three notes written on the second page of their 1883 marriage record:

- Their son, Karl Hermann August Nitschke, was born at Brietzen on the 4th of February in 1888. His birth was recorded on record number 8 in 1888 at the Paulskirch (Pawellau) Standesamt.
- Karl Hermann August Nitschke, the son of Johann Friedrich August Nitschke and Rosina Pauline Auguste (née Müller) Nitschke, was married on the 8th of February in 1941. His marriage was recorded on record number 76 in 1941 at the Breslau Standesamt III.
- Rosina Pauline Auguste (née Müller) Nitschke died at Breslau in 1926. Her death was record on record number 990 in 1926 at Breslau Standesamt V.

Johann Friedrich August Nitschke died at the age of 55 years and 2 months at Breslau on the 24th of February in 1906. His death record of was signed by his widow, Frau Rosina Pauline Auguste (née Müller) Nitschke. They lived in Breslau at Piastenstraße 28 (4 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Piastowska Street). Johann's occupation was listed as a Portier (doorman or porter). August's parents died at Schawoine prior to their son's death in 1906.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Louise Auguste Emilie Nitschke,

Louise Auguste Emilie Nitschke was born at Brietzen on the 28th of May in 1860. She was the daughter of the Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Nitschke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Nitschke.

Louise Auguste Emilie Nitschke married the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Carl Heinrich Reinsch on the 8th of February in 1883. Their marriage was recorded at Schimmerau, but it probably took place at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. The bride's parents were still living at Brietzen in 1883.

Carl Heinrich Reinsch was born on the 6th of April in 1860 at Pawellau. In 1883, he was living at Gross Commerow in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the Bauer (farmer) Carl Reinsch and his wife Anna Rosina (née Reudiger) Reinsch, who both died at Wilxen before the 1883 wedding. A note on the marriage record shows that Heinrich Reinsch died in 1930, as was recorded on death record 1134 in 1930 at Breslau Standesamt V.

The wedding witnesses were the 53 years old Bauergutsbesitzer Karl Krause from Brietzen, and the 31 years old Freigärtner August Knuhr II from Gross Commerowe.

Gottlieb Sternitzke (junior, 1816-1896) was born around the 25th of January in 1816 at Kobelwitz. He died at Breslau on the 25th of February in 1896 at the age of 80 years and 1 month at the Breslau Armenhaus (poorhouse) located at Schuhbrücke 1 (3 blocks southeast from the Ring, now Szewskiej Street). The information on his death record was provided by the Armenhaus Inspector Haas.

Gottlieb Sternitzki (junior, 1816-1896) was the son of Gottlieb (senior) and Karoline Sternitzki. The family name was spelled Sternitzki on Gottlieb's death record, but that was probably an error. It was spelled Sternitzke on the records associated with Gottlieb's children. Both of his parents died prior to the death of Gottlieb (junior) in 1896. His father died as a Stellenbesitzer (property owner) in Brietzen, in Trebnitz County. His mother died in America and her maiden name was not known.

Gottlieb Sternitzke (junior, 1816-1896) married Johanna Fischer around 1848. They lived at Brietzen where they had at least four children. They were still living at Brietzen in 1876, where Gottlieb was a Freigärtner. They moved to Breslau between 1876 and 1884 where Gottlieb found employment as an Arbeiter (laborer). The 1883-1887 burial record book of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church included the death and burial record for Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke, the wife of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzke. She died in Breslau on the 19th of April in 1884, at the age of 63 years and 7 months. She was a Protestant. She was buried on the 22nd of April 1884. The Arbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzke lived at Oelsnerstraße 19 at that time. Oelsnerstraße 19 was about four blocks north of Sand Island. Oelsnerstraße is now known as Oleśnicka Street. The church burial record referenced her civil death record: number 1664 dated the 21st of April in 1884 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

The Breslau birth, marriage and death records provided a chronology of the locations of Gottlieb Sternitzke (1816-February 1896) and his family:

Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke and four of her children were born at Brietzen:

- Caroline Johanne Emilie Sternitzke was a Protestant, born at Brietzen on the 8th of January in 1848. See the Marriage and Family of Caroline Johanne Emilie (née Sternitzke) Nitschke, 1879 Brietzen, 1880 to 1884 Kanitz, 1888 Breslau, 1896 to 1941 Pawellau.
- Heinrich Sternitzke (1851-1891) was a Protestant, born at Brietzen on the 20th of September in 1851. See the Marriages, Family and Death of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1870 to 1938 City of Breslau.

- Karl Sternitzke (1853-1894) was a Protestant, born at Brietzen around the 17th of November in 1853, based on his age on his death record. See the Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.
- Pauline Louise Sternitzke (1858-1939) was a Protestant, born on the 27th of May in 1858 at Brietzen. See the Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau.

Baptismal Sponsor Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1858

Gottlieb Sternitzke, a resident of Brietzen, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Johanne Elisabet Pachale at the Protestant Church at Massel. Johanne Elisabet Pachele was born on the 27th of October in 1858 at Ellguth, and baptized on the 14th of November in 1858 at Massel. She was the 4th child of Gottlieb Pachale and his wife Susanna (née Algner) Pachale. The other baptismal sponsors were Johanna Thomas (a Magd, a maid from Kniegnitz) and Joseph Triebe (a Knecht from Peterwitz).

Wedding Witness Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1876 Brietzen

Carl Samuel Geisler married the widowed Freigärtner Anna Susanna (née Schiskale) Garbsch on the 12th of January in 1876. The marriage was recorded at Schimmerau but the marriage probably took place at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The wedding witnesses were the 48 years old Gärtner Christian Domke and the 60 years old Gärtner Gottlieb Sternitzke. Christian Domke owned house number 17 at Brietzen. Gottlieb Sternitzke owned house number 15 at Brietzen. Below are the signatures from the wedding record.

Anna Susanna (née Tschisgale) Geisler reported the death of her husband Carl Samuel Geissler at Brietzen on the 4th of September in 1876 at the age of 53 years old. The registrar spelled the family name as Geissler, but the widow signed her name as Anna Susanna Geisler. The registrar also spelled Anna Susanna's maiden name differently that how it appeared on her marriage record. On the 27th of March in 1877, the Freistellenbesitzer Gottlieb Sternitzke reported the death of Caroline Ernestine Geissler, the 5 days old daughter of Samuel Geissler and his widow Anna Susanna (née Tschisgale) Geissler. The registrar again spelled the family name as Geissler. Gottlieb Sternitzke signed the death record.

Family of August Sternitzke and Emilie (née Galisch) Sternitzke

August Sternitzke (1846-1929, SN18) was born at Brietzen in 1846 (based on his age of 83 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years when he died in 1929). August Sternitzke was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) and his wife Christiane (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke (1822-1905). August signed his father's 1887 death record and his mother's 1905 death record.

According to his 1929 death record, the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Sternitzke and his wife Emilie (née Galisch) Sternitzke were married for 48 years, so they were married around 1881. The Bauerauszügler (retired farmer) August Sternitzke died on the 1st of November in 1929. He died at the home of his son the Bauergutsbesitzer Fritz Sternitzke. Fritz signed his father's death record at Pawellau.

Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke, 1883 & 1911 Brietzen

Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke (1883-after 1942, SN125) was born on the 20th of March in 1883 in the home of his parents at Brietzen. He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Sternitzke and his wife Emilie (née Galisch) Sternitzke. August Sternitzke signed his son's birth record.

 1883

The Gutsbesitzer (homestead owner) Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke married the Gutsbesitzer Tochter Helene Christiane Ida Labitzke on the 28th of December in 1911. The marriage was recorded at Brietzen, but the marriage was probably performed at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The groom and the bride were both Protestants. The groom and his parents lived at Brietzen.

Helene Christiane Ida Labitzke was born on the 17th of October in 1889 at Pawellau. She was the daughter of the Gutsbesitzer Hermann Labitzke and his wife Ida (née Majuntke) Labitzke who lived at Pawellau.

The wedding witnesses were the 48 years old Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Robert Majuntke from Pawellau, and the 26 years old Landwirt (farmer) Richard Lachmann from Brietzen.

The Bauer (farmer) Fritz Sternitzke was listed as a resident of Brietzen in references until 1942. He was a Gutsbesitzer (owner of an estate), Standesbeamte (civil registrar) and Gerichtscholz (court appointed mayor) at Brietzen in 1931. See the associated discussions below.

Bertha Pauline Emilie Sternitzke, 1884 & 1904

Bertha Pauline Emilie Sternitzke was born at Brietzen on the 15th of June in 1884. The Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Sternitzke signed his daughter's birth record at Schimmerau on the 17th of June in 1884.

Bertha married the Kaufmann (merchant) Ernst Friedrich Wielsch on the 19th of April in 1904. Ernst was born on the 1st of October in 1871 in Ratibor County. In 1904, he was living at Breitestraße 33/34 in Breslau.

The wedding witnesses were the 59-years-old Partikular (owner of a business) Ernst Hermann Wielsch from Breslau, and the 44-years-old Gutsbesitzer Julius Streloche from Gross Krutschen.

Birth and Death of son

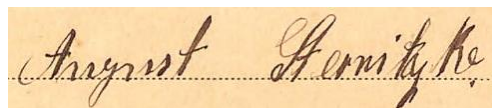

Richard Robert August Sternitzke (1887-1891)

Richard Robert August Sternitzke was born at his parents' home in Brietzen, on the 22nd of July in 1887. His father the Bauergutsbesitzer August Sternitzke signed the birth record at Schimmerau on the 25th of July in 1887.

1887

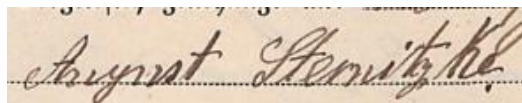

Richard Sternitzke died at Brietzen on the 3rd of December in 1891. His father signed the death record at Brietzen.

1891

1893 Brietzen, 1915 Skierniewice, Poland

Kurt Wilhelm Richard Sternitzke was born in the home of his parents at Brietzen on the 3rd of September in 1893. He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Sternitzke and his wife Emile (née Galisch) Sternitzke. His parents were both Protestants.

The Breslau 1915 death record of Kurt Sternitzke shows he was an unmarried Kaufmann (merchant) who lived at Viktoriastraße 107 in Breslau before he was called into military service (about 7 blocks southwest of the main train station). Viktoriastraße is now Lwowska Street. His parents were still living at Brietzen at the recording of Kurt's death in 1915.

Kurt Sternitzke was a Gefreiter (lance corporal) in the 3rd Company of the Reserve-Jäger-Bataillon Nr. 22. Military reports dated the 17th of May and the 5th of June in 1915 listed Kurt Sternitzke (who was born at Brietzen) as severely wounded. His death record shows that he died at the age of 21 years old, on the 14th of May in 1915, at the Reserve Field Hospital number 83 at Skierniewice, Poland. The city of Skierniewice (near the center of modern-day Poland) was in the front line of battles between the German and Russian soldiers during the First World War.

Gemeindevorsteher August Sternitzke
1897 to after 1909 Brietzen

August Sternitzke was the Gemeindevorsteher (community chairman) from Brietzen and school board member at Pawellau, from 1897 until after 1909.

Marriage and Family of Caroline Johanne Emilie (née Sternitzke) Nitschke 1879 Brietzen, 1880 to 1886 Kanitz, 1888 Breslau, 1896 to 1941 Pawellau

Caroline Johanne Emilie Sternitzke (1848-1914) was born at Brietzen on the 8th of January in 1848. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke. See the Family of Gottlieb and Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke, 1851 to 1876 Brietzen, 1884 to 1896 City of Breslau.

In 1879, Caroline and her parents were still living at Brietzen. Caroline died at Pawellau in 1914 (see below).

Caroline Johanne Emilie Sternitzke married the Gärtenstellenbesitzer (owner of a house and garden) Heinrich Gustav Nitschke on the 20th of February in 1879. The marriage was recorded at Schimmerau, but because the bride and groom were both Protestants, they were probably married at the Protestant Church at Pawellau.

A note on the second page of the 1879 marriage record recorded the adoption by the Stellenbesitzer Gustav Nitschke of his wife's daughter, Caroline Pauline Otilie Sternitzke, who was born on the 29th of March 1872. Otilie was confirmed at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 4th of April in 1886. The Freigärtner Gustav Nitschke from Kanitz was listed on her baptism record. See the 1896 birth of Otilie's illegitimate son Hermann Robert Sternitzke (below).

Heinrich Gustav Nitschke (1849-1909) was born on the 30th of November in 1849 at Schickwitz in Trebnitz County. Gustav was the son of the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Wilhelm Nitschke and his wife Dorothea (née Friedrich) Nitschke. Gustav and his parents lived at Kanitz in Trebnitz County in 1879. Kanitz had a population of 24 in 1939. It was part of the community of Werndorf (about 4 miles northeast of Trebnitz). See the map below.

The wedding witnesses were the 50 years old Freigärtner Wilhelm Friedrich from Schickwitz and the 50 years of Bauergutbesitzer Carl Krause from Brietzen.

1936 map showing Kanitz (top middle), Schickwitz and Werndorf.

Birth, Marriage and Family of son Gustav Heinrich Nitschke,
1880 Kanitz, 1909 to 1942 Pawellau

Gustav Heinrich Nitschke was born at Kanitz in Trebnitz County on the 3rd of February in 1880. In 1909, Gustav was a Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) at Pawellau. His parents, the Bauergutsbesitzer Heinrich Gustav Nitschke and his wife Karoline (née Sternitzke) Nitschke, also lived at Pawellau.

The Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gustav Heinrich Nitschke married the Bäckermeister Tochter (master baker's daughter) Martha Anna Scholz on the 14th of April in 1909. The marriage was recorded at Brietzen, but was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The groom and the bride were both Protestants.

Martha Anna Scholz was born on the 26th of February in 1882 at Pawellau. She was the daughter of the Bäckermeister (master baker) Robert Scholz and his wife Christiane (née Schrigert) Scholz, who lived at Pawellau.

The wedding witnesses were the 44 years old Bauergutsbesitzer Heinrich Zingler from Pawellau and the 34 years old Bäckermeister Robert Scholz from Pawellau.

There are notes on the second page of the marriage record regarding the children of Gustav and Martha Nitschke:

- Daughter Hildegard Madalene Nitschke was born on the 8th of March in 1915 at Pawellau (record number 8 in 1915), and married on the 8th of March in 1941 at Pawellau (record number 1 in 1941).
- Daughter Martha Meta Ida Nitschke was born on the 1st of November in 1913 at Pawellau (record number 27 in 1913, and married on the 29th of November in 1941 (record number 9 in 1941).

- Son Reinhold Gustav Adolf Nitschke was born on the 26th of January in 1910 at Pawellau (record number 3 in 1910), and married on the 31st of October in 1942 (record number 5 in 1942).

Birth, Marriage and Family of son Adolf Gustav Nitschke,
1882 Kanitz, 1911 Pawellau

Adolf Gustav Nitschke was born at Kanitz in Trebnitz County on the 12th of May in 1882. He was probably living at Pawellau when his brother was married there in 1909. In 1911, Adolf was a Gasthofbesitzer (owner of a hotel) at Pawellau. His father, Gustav Sternitzke was listed as a deceased Bauerauszügler (retired farmer) from Pawellau. Gustav's wife, Karoline (née Sternitzke) Nitschke was still living at Pawellau in 1911 (she died in 1914).

Adolf Gustav Nitschke married the Freistellenbesitzer Tochter (daughter of a free property owner) Berthe Emilie Luise Gembus on the 5th of December in 1911. Berthe was born at Hammer Sulau in Militsch County on the 23rd of September in 1888. She was the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer Hermann Gembus and his wife Auguste (née Pressgot) Gembus from Hammer Sulau. Hermann Gembus was still living at Hammer Sulau in 1911, but his wife died before her daughter's wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the 30 years old Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gustav Nitschke from Pawellau and the 28 years old Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Heinrich Dimke from Guhlau in Trebnitz County.

There are notes on the second page of the marriage record regarding the daughter of Adolf and Martha Berthe Nitschke: daughter Klare Charlotte Nitschke was born on the 12th of November in 1918 (Standesamt Stroppen record number 7 in 1918), and she was married on the 24th of August in 1940 (Standesamt Obernigk record number 34 in 1940).

Birth, Marriage and Family of son Friedrich Wilhelm Nitschke,
1884 Kanitz, 1911 to 1941 Pawellau

Friedrich Wilhelm Nitschke was born at Kanitz in Trebnitz County on the 15th of March in 1884. He was probably living at Pawellau when his brother was married there in 1909. In 1911, Wilhelm was also a Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) at Pawellau. He probably inherited his father's farm. His father, Gustav Sternitzke was listed as a deceased Bauerauszügler (retired farmer) from Pawellau. Gustav's wife, Karoline (née Sternitzke) Nitschke was still living at Pawellau in 1911 (she died in 1914).

Friedrich Wilhelm Nitschke married the Bauergutsbesitzer Tochter (farmstead owner's daughter) Ida Emma Ruschig on the 18th of November in 1911. Their marriage was recorded at Brietzen but it was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants.

Ida Emma Ruschig was born on the 6th of May in 1890 at Pawellau. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer Robert Ruschig and his wife Emma (née Gembus) Ruschig. Emma Ruschig died at Pawellau before her daughter's wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the 58 years old Rentier (pensioner) Carl Gluche from Pawellau, and the 31 years old Bauergutsbesitzer Gustav Nitschke from Pawellau. Gustav Nitschke was the groom's brother.

There are notes on the second page of the marriage record regarding the children of Wilhelm and Ida Nitschke:

- Daughter Klara Ida Else Nitschke was born on the 6th of November in 1917 at Pawellau (record number 17 in 1917), and married on the 26th of April in 1941 at Pawellau (record number 2 in 1941).
- Daughter Helene Ida Gertrud Nitschke was born on the 17th of March in 1920 at Pawellau (record number 11 in 1920), and married on the 8th of December in 1941 at Pawellau (record number 10 in 1941).

Birth of grandson Hermann Robert Sternitzke, 1896

The Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gustav Nitschke reported that his unmarried Pflegetochter (foster daughter) Otilie Sternitzke gave birth to a son Hermann Robert Sternitzke on the 6th of August in 1896. The child was born in the home of his grandfather Gustav Nitschke at Pawellau.

Death of Gustav Nitschke, 1909

The Bauerauszügler (retired farmer) Gustav Nitschke (1849-1909) died at Pawellau on the 14th of May in 1909, at the age of 59 and ½ years. According to his death record, Gustav Nitschke and his wife Caroline (née Sternitzke) Nitschke were married for 30 years. His death was reported at Brietzen by his son, the Pawellau Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gustav Heinrich Nitschke.

Death of Caroline Johanne Emilie (née Sternitzke) Nitschke, 1914

Caroline Johanne Emilie (née Sternitzke) Nitschke died at Pawellau on the 2nd of October in 1914, at the age of 66 years old. Her husband, Gustav Nitschke died 5 and ½ years before her death. Caroline's death record was signed by her son, the Pawellau Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gustav Nitschke.

Birth and Death of Kurt Sternitzke 1893 Brietzen, 1915 Skierniewice, Poland

Kurt Wilhelm Richard Sternitzke was born in the home of his parents at Brietzen on the 3rd of September in 1893. He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Sternitzke and his wife Emile (née Galisch) Sternitzke. His parents were both Protestants. See the Family of August Sternitzke and Emilie (née Galisch) Sternitzke, 1878 to 1929 Brietzen.

The Breslau 1915 death record of Kurt Sternitzke shows he was an unmarried Kaufmann (merchant) who lived at Viktoriastraße 107 in Breslau (about 7 blocks southwest of the main train station) before he was called into military service. Viktoriastraße is now Lwowska Street.

Kurt Sternitzke was a Gefreiter (lance corporal) in the 3rd Company of the Reserve-Jäger-Bataillon Nr. 22. Military casualty reports dated the 17th of May and the 5th of June in 1915 listed Kurt Sternitzke (who was born at Brietzen) as severely wounded. His death record shows that he died at the age of 21 years old, on the 14th of May in 1915, at the Reserve Field Hospital number 83 at Skierniewice, Poland. The city of Skierniewice (near the center of modern-day Poland) was in the front line of battles between the German and Russian soldiers during the First World War.

Marriage of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, Son of Friedrich Sternitzke 1858 Breslau and Bruschwitz

Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Karoschke around the 16th of March in 1832. That date was based on his age (66 years and 2 months old) when he died in Breslau, on the 16th of May in 1898. His death record was completed by Wilhelm's daughter Minna (née Sternitzke) May and Wilhelm's second wife Johanna (née Cholewa) Sternitzke. They did not remember any details about Wilhelm's parents other than that his father was the deceased Häusler (agricultural day laborer) Mr. Sternitzke. The 1858 record of Wilhelm's first marriage identified his father as the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Friedrich Sternitzke who was living in 1858 at Bruschwitz in Trebnitz County.

The 1832 calculated year of birth is not consistent with the ages of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke as listed on the records of his first and second marriages. He was 24 years old when he married Johanna Spiller on the 25th of January in 1858, which means he was 25 years old in March of 1858 and born in 1833. He was 34 years old when he married Johanna Cholewa on the 1st of July in 1867, so he was born in 1833. The two marriage records were based on information from the groom, so they are probably correct.

See the Chapter 1: City of Breslau, Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Pauline Sternitzke 1860 to 1893 Bruschewitz, 1893 Breslau

Pauline Sternitzke was born around the 22nd of August in 1860 at Mirkau in Öls County. Mirkau (now named Mirków, Poland) is only two miles southeast from Bruschewitz. Her birthdate was based on her age (33 years old) at the time of her death on the 22nd of August in 1893. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Messner) Sternitzke who were Stellenbesitzers (property owners) who died at Bruschewitz in Trebnitz County prior to Pauline's death in 1893. Pauline's death record was signed by her husband, the Bremser (railroad brakeman) Ferdinand Schubert who lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 31.

Pauline Sternitzke (1860-1893) was the second wife of Ferdinand Schubert. His first wife, Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert (1864-1889) was born on the 27th of November in 1864 at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County. Her parents were Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Rudnik) Sternitzke. See Book III, Chapter 1, Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert and Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert, 1887 to 1893 City of Breslau.

Müller Christian Sternitzke 1830 Burgwitz

A mill was built on the south side of the main road from Burgwitz to Kawallen. A miller named Siegmund owned the mill in 1696. The mill passed to the Heisig family and in 1700 it passed to the Konschack family.

Christian Sternitzke bought the mill in 1830. The property then passed to the Lausche family. Around 1895 the mill was bought by Ferdinand von Prittwitz und Gaffron, the lord of Kawallen. The buildings on the property then became the home of the forester for the manors at Kawallen, Burgwitz and Pflaumendorf, which all belonged to Herr von Prittwitz. He died at Breslau on the 15th of December in 1933. The fields and forestry buildings at Burgwitz were then sold to Adalbert Reinking. The forester Grätz moved from the manor house. Adalbert Reinking then had the former mill buildings demolished.

Birth of Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke
1874 Burgwitz

Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke was born at Burgwitz (in Trebnitz County) on the 4th of October in 1874. Her birth was recorded at Maltshawe for the Kawallen Standesamt (registry office). She was the daughter of the Lohngärtner Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Klemm) Sternitzke who were Protestants and resided at Burgwitz. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden. Ernst Sternitzke signed the birth record.

1874

First Marriage of Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke, 1896

Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke married the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl August Paul Pascheke on the 5th of July in 1896 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestant. The groom lived at Ottostraße 46 before the wedding. The bride was employed as a Köchin (cook) and she lived at Junkernstraße 2.

Birth of son Max Karl Robert Pascheke, 1897

Max Karl Robert Pascheke was born at Breslau on the 9th of June in 1897. He was the son of the Brennerei Arbeiter (distillery laborer) Karl Pascheke and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Paschecke. The family lived in Breslau at Ottostraße 27 at that time.

Second Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke, 1912

Her second marriage was to the Stellmacher (wheelwright) Paul Hugo Karl Joppich. That marriage took place at Breslau on the 24th of August in 1912. The record for that marriage listed her parents as the Rentenempfänger (pensioner) Ernst Sternitzke and Karoline (née Klemm) Sternitzke, who were both deceased and last resided at Wildschütz in Oels County. Anna's marriage record listed her second middle name as Ernestine, instead of the Ernstine shown on her birth record. See Chapter 1: Marriages and Family of Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke, 1896 to 1937 City of Breslau.

From Burgwitz, the Ernst and Karoline Sternitzke family moved to Raschen (in Trebnitz County) where their son Karl Robert David Sternitzke was born (in 1877) and then to Wildschütz in Öls County (5 miles northeast of Breslau). Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Klemm) Sternitzke were living at Wildschütz in 1902 and 1910 according to the Breslau marriage records of their son Karl. See the Three Marriages of Karl Robert David Sternitzke, 21 July 1902 and 26 September 1910 City of Breslau, 28 September 1944 Berlin-Köpenick.

Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Klemm) Sternitzke died at Wildschütz between the 1910 marriage of their son Karl and the 1912 marriage of their daughter Anna.

A note on the birth record for Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke indicated she died at Breslau in 1937. The death record was number 161 in 1937 at Standesamt Breslau IV.

Village of Deutsch Hammer in Trebnitz County

Deutsch Hammer was a village in Kreis Trebnitz, about ten miles northeast from the city Trebnitz. In the Middle Ages Deutsch-Hammer was one of the forest villages in the Sessovo forest district owned by the Catholic Cloister at Trebnitz. Historical names for Deutsch Hammer include: Obristen Hammer in 1390 and 1410, Oberhammer in 1523 and Deutschhammer in 1718 and 1863. It had a population of 1421 in 1939. The town is now named Czeszów, Poland.

A Protestant funeral chapel (associated with the Evangelical Church at Schlottau) was built at Deutsch Hammer in 1816. The chapel became a Catholic church in 1946. The 1917 postcard shown below identifies the chapel as a Kirche (church).

Pauline Luise Sternitzke was born at Deutsch Hammer (in Trebnitz County) on the 30th of July in 1865. She married August Bartsch at Katholisch Hammer on the 7th of August in 1887. Their marriage was recorded at the Katholisch Hammer Standesamt (record number 5 in 1887).

The Landarbeiter (farmhand) August Bartsch died before his wife's death. Pauline Luise (née Sternitzke) Bartsch died at Breslau on the 30th of December in 1939. Her death record identified her as a Protestant and a Sozialrentnerin (pensioner). She died at home at Klosterstraße 62 (southeast of the old city walls, now Romualda Traugutta Street). Her death record listed the causes of her death as Arteriosklerose, Herzmuskelentzündung, Gehirnschlag und Lungenentzündung (arteriosclerosis, cardiac inflammation, brain stroke and pneumonia).

Pauline's death record was signed by the Aufwärterin Berta Bartsch, who also lived at Klosterstraße 62. Berta may have been Pauline's daughter. An Aufwärterin in the modern sense of the word is a waitress. The word used to mean a woman who looked after the tenants and the building as an intermediary between the tenants and the owner of the building, in exchange for reduced rent.

Birth and Marriage of Martha Berta Sternitzke
1895 Deutsch Hammer, 1917 City of Breslau

The following information is from the 1917 civil marriage record of Martha Berta Sternitzke. See the discussion below regarding data from the 1917 church record of that marriage.

Martha Berta Sternitzke was born on the 7th of July in 1895 at Deutsch Hammer in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Landwirt (farmer) Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Hubrig) Sternitzke.

In 1917, Martha Berta Sternitzke was employed as a Stepperin (quilt seamstress) and lived in Breslau at Ohlauer Straße 64 (5 blocks east of the Ring, now Oławska Street). She was a Protestant. Her father had died at Deutsch Hammer before Martha's wedding in 1917, but her mother was still living at Deutsch Hammer at that time.

Martha Berta Sternitzke married the Friseur (barber) Karl Julius Heinrich Riedel at Breslau on the 12th of November in 1917. Heinrich Riedel lived at Schillerstraße 17 in Breslau (about 3 blocks west of the main train station). He was also a Protestant.

Karl Julius Heinrich Riedel was born at Nimpsch in Reichenbach County on the 11th of May in 1883. He was the son of the Kutscher (carriage driver) Julius Riedel and his wife Pauline (née Sauer) Riedel. Both of Heinrich's parents died at Breslau before Heinrich's 1917 marriage.

One of the witnesses at the wedding was the 27 years old Mauer (mason) Karl Sternitzke from Deutsch Hammer. The identity of Karl Sternitzke was verified by the registrar, from Karl's military papers. Based on his age in 1917, Karl Sternitzke born around 1890. He was probably Martha's older brother.

The other witness at the wedding was the 55 years old Friseur (barber) Gustav Hartmann who lived at Hüschenstraße 24 in Breslau. His identity was verified from his Trauschein (marriage certificate).

According to the marriage record from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau, the Jungfrau (single woman) Marta Sternitzke from Breslau married the Frisör (barber) Heinrich Riedel on the 12th of November in 1917 (church record number 95). The bride and the groom were Protestants. They lived at Schillerstraße 17. Their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt IV (civil record number 512) on the 12th of November in 1917.

Death of Johann Sternitzke 1815 Droschen

Johann Sternitzke (1771-1815) died at Droschen on the 28th of April in 1815. He was born on the 25th of December in 1771 and was at one time a farmer at Pawellau. Johann married

Anna Susanna Ruschig and they had one daughter, Johanna Susanna Sternitzke (listed above). Anna Susanna Ruschig was born on the 27th of May in 1773 at Pawellau.

A 45 years old farmer named Johann Sternitzke committed suicide at Droschen on the 28th of April in 1815. The nature of his death was reported in the Schlesische Provinzialblätter as:

Suicide. The farmer Johann Sternitzke in Droschen near Trebnitz, 45 years old and a good and brave man, lived with his contentious wife in an unhappy marriage and therefore he often sought to escape this situation by using brandy. This he also did on April 28th in the nearby village Burgwitz. He went back home at 4 o'clock p.m. and asked for food. His wife gave him a great piece of bread but he wanted to have a cooked meal. She gave him (instead of his wishes) some inappropriate and hard words. Upset about it, he threw the piece of bread at her, which hit her so that she fell to the ground unconscious. He shook her to revive her, but could not see any effect. Believing her to be dead, he feared for himself, searched for a rope and went to a birch tree and hung himself. A short time after he left his wife, she woke up.

Birth, Family and Death of Helene (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer Circa 1826 Droschen, 1911 Kawallen

Susanna Helene Sternitzke was born at Droschen around 1826. She was the daughter of the Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Freitag) Sternitzke. Susanna Helene's parents died before 1911. Her father, Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Oberrnigk. Her mother Elisabeth (née Freitag) Sternitzke died at Kunzendorf.

Helene's approximated year of birth was based on her age (85 years old) when she died at Kawallen on the 23rd of June in 1911 at the home of her daughter Emma (née Kretschmer) Schubert. Helene's husband (Emma's father), the Auszügler (retired farmer) Ernst Kretschmer preceded Helene in death. Ernst died after he was a witness at his daughter's wedding in 1891 (see below).

Ernst Kretschmer and Susanne Helene née Sternitzke) Kretschmer had at least two children: Louise Amalie Juliane Kretschmer and Emma Pauline Agnes Kretschmer.

Louise Amalie Juliane Kretschmer, 1859 & 1881

Louise Amalie Juliane Kretschmer was born on the 10th of February in 1859 at Kawallen. According to her 1881 marriage record, her parents were the Freigärtner und Schneidermeister (free owner of a house with a small farm, and master tailor) Ernst Kretschmer and Susanna Helena (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer, who lived at Kawallen. On the 14th of February in 1881, Louise Amalie Juliane Kretschmer married the Müllermeister (master miller) Paul Oskar Scholz at Schweretau. They were both Protestants.

Paul Oskar Scholz was born on the 19th of July in 1857 at Rawitsch in Kröben County of Posen. He was a Müllermeister at Heinzendorf in Wohlau County in 1881. He was the son of the Prausnitz (Militsch County) Müllermeister Wilhelm Scholz and his wife Rosina (née Gimel) Scholz.

The witnesses at the Scholz-Kretschmer wedding were the 34 years old Müllermeister (master miller) Ernst Polz from Beckern in Trebnitz County, and the 33 years old Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Anwand from Machnitz in Trebnitz County.

Birth and First Marriage of daughter
Emma Pauline Agnes Kretschmer, 1861 & 1883

Emma Pauline Agnes Kretschmer was born on the 15th of February in 1861 at Kawallen. On the 19th of January in 1883, Emma Pauline Agnes Kretschmer married the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Ernst Herrmann Müller at Schweretau in Trebnitz County. They were both Protestants. The groom was born on the 19th of May in 1849 at Hochkirch in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the Freistellen-Auszügler (free property owner and retired farmer) Gottlieb Müller and Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Müller, who were residents of Hochkirch.

The witnesses at the wedding were the 48 years old Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Nitschke and the 26 years old Lehrer (teacher) August Mielnash. Gottlieb Nitschke was a Gemeinde Vorsteher (community leader) at Hochkirch in Trebnitz County. August Mielnash was a resident of Kawallen in Trebnitz County.

This marriage ended in a divorce.

According to her 1883 and 1891 marriage records, Emma's parents were the Freistellenbesitzer und Schneidermeister (free owner of a property and master tailor) Ernst Kretschmer and Susanna Helena (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer, who lived at Kawallen.

Second Marriage of
Emma Pauline Agnes (née Kretschmer) Müller, 1891

On the 14th of January in 1891 the divorced woman Emma Pauline Agnes (née Kretschmer) Müller married the widower Johann Heinrich Schubert at Schweretau. They were both Protestants.

Johann Heinrich Schubert was born on 3rd of February in 1845 at Domatschine in Öls County. In 1891 he was a widower, a Freistellenbesitzer und Gemeindevorsteher (free property owner and community leader) at Domatschine (now Domaszczyn, Poland). He was the son of the Schafmeister (shepherd) Gottfried Schubert and his wife Anna Rosina (née Weigelt) Schubert. Both of Johann's parents died at Domatschine prior to the wedding in 1891.

The witnesses at the 1891 wedding were the 66 years old Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Ernst Kretschmer from Kawallen, and the 33 years old Mühlenbesitzer (mill owner) Paul Scholz from Heinzendorf (in Wohlau County).

Glauche (Ober-Glauche and Nieder-Glauche) in Trebnitz County

Ober-Glauche and Nieder-Glauche were two small villages about one mile apart. Nieder-Glauche was about two miles southeast of the city Trebnitz. Ober-Glauche was another mile farther southeast. Today, Ober-Glauche is named Głuchów Górny, and Nieder-Glauche is named Głuchów Dolny. The population of Ober-Glauche was 473 in 1939.

A document from 1376 showed that a Catholic church existed at Gluchovo (Glauche) in that year. It became a Protestant church around the year 1540, and it remained Protestant during the Counter-Reformation. The timber-framed church burned down in 1853, and was replaced with the current brick church that was completed in 1857. The parish house (address Nr. 36) was built in 1956. In 1902, baptism, death and marriage records were known to exist for Ober-Glauche for the period from 1726 to 1900. A Protestant cemetery dating back to around 1850 still exists to the west of the village Ober Glauche (according to the Trebnitz regional tourism website), and tombstones from the second half of the 14th century are still found at the Church of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross (formerly a Protestant church).

Marriage of Anna Rosina Stärnitzky
1817 Gross Glauche and Breslau

The Jungfrau Anna Rosina Stärnitzky married Jakob Morawa at the church in Groß Glauche. Their marriage was attested (documented) at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau in 1817. The date 24 July 1817 was recorded in the marriage record book but that date may have been the date of record in Breslau instead of their marriage date at Groß Glauche. The marriage record listed Jakob as a Catholic and Anna Rosina as a Lutheran. The village was recorded as Groß Glauche (instead of Ober Glauche) in the St. Bernhardin record because of the names of the nearby villages: Klein Glauche, Groß Totschen and Klein Totschen.

Top to bottom: Klein Glauche, Groß Totschen, Klein Totschen, Ober Glauche.

Anna Rosina Stärnitzky was the oldest daughter of the Freigärtner Johann Stärnitzky from Groß Glauche. She was employed as a servant “auf dem Sande” (at Sand Island on the Oder between the old city walls and the Catholic St. John the Baptist’s Cathedral).

Jakob Morawa was the youngest son of the deceased Bauer (farmer) Jakob Morawa from Zottwitz in Ohlau County. Jakob (the son) was employed as a Weinbrenner (brandy distiller) at Klein Totschen at the time of his wedding. When the marriage was recorded at the St. Bernhardin Church, Jakob (the son) was employed in Breslau as a Kutscher (coachman) in the service of the Königliche Oberlandesgerichtsrath Graf (royal high court judge Count) Matuschka. Count Matuschka was Heinrich Bernhard von Matuschka (the son of Heinrich Gottfried von Mattuschka).

Birth and Confirmation of Johanna Dorothea Sternitzke
1839 Ober-Glauche, 1853 Massel and Ober Kehle

Johanna Dorothea Sternitzke was born at Ober Glauche on the 10th of March in 1839. She was the daughter of Heinrich Sternitzke, who died at Ober Glauche before his daughter's confirmation in 1853. Johanna Dorothea Sternitzke was confirmed at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 20th of March in 1853. Her mother was not named in the confirmation record, but it showed her mother was living at Ober Kehle in 1853.

Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Marke
1851 Neiderei, 1883 Polnisch Hammer,
1889 & 1910 Ober-Glauche and 1910 Breslau

Karl Marke (junior, 1851-1899) was born at Neiderei in Trebnitz County, around the 3rd of August in 1851. That estimated birthdate was based on his age 48 years and 1 month, as was identified on his death record. He died at a hospital in Breslau (the Krankenhaus Allerheiligen) on the 3rd of August in 1899. Karl Marke (junior) was the son of the Weber (weaver) Karl Marke (senior) and his wife Johanna (née Walter) Marke from Polnisch Hammer (in Trebnitz County).

Karl Marke (junior) married Anna Stanitzke. Karl was a Protestant and was employed as a Häusler (agricultural day-laborer) at Ober-Glauche when he died at the Breslau hospital in 1899. His wife was living at Ober-Glauche at the time Karl's death in 1899. The hospital staff reported his death, which explains why his name was spelled Carl, and his wife's maiden name was spelled Stanitzke on his death record. Anna's name was spelled Sternitzke on other family records.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son
Karl Paul Reinhold Marke (1883-1910)

Karl Paul Reinhold Marke was born at Polnisch Hammer in Trebnitz County, on the 14th of November in 1883. Paul was working as a Kellner (waiter) at Breslau in 1910. He lived in Breslau at Friedrichstraße 76 (4 blocks southwest from the old city walls, now Koiejowa Street). On the 5th of January in 1910, Karl Paul Reinhold Marke was married in Breslau to the Verkäuferin (sales clerk) Anna Lipp. The groom was listed as a Protestant on the marriage record, and the bride was listed as a Catholic. The groom's parents were listed as the deceased Maurer (mason) Karl Marke who died at Ober Glauche in Trebnitz County, and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Marke who was still living at Ober-Glauche in 1910. Note the spelling of his parents' names on the marriage record.

The bride, the Verkäuferin (sales clerk) Anna Lipp was born on the 9th of June in 1887 at Vienna, Austria. In 1899, she lived in Breslau at Friedrichstraße 63 (4 blocks southwest from the old city walls, now Koiejowa Street). Anna was the daughter of the Privatmann (self-employed man) Johann Lipp and his wife Barbara (née Görg) Lipp who were residents of Vienna, Austria.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 55 years old Oberpostschaffner (senior postal worker) Hugo Malischke and the 28 years old Kellner (waiter) Max Wiegner. Hugo Malischke lived in Breslau at Friedrichstraße 63 (the same address as the bride). Max Wiegner lived in Breslau at Friedrich-Karl Straße 23 (7 blocks northwest from the old city walls, now Inowrocławska Street).

The Kellner (waiter) Karl Paul Reinhold Marke died at home on the 4th of February in 1910, at the age of 26 years and 2 months old. His death record was signed by his wife Anna (née Lipp) Marke. Their residence was at Friedrichstraße 76. She listed his place of birth as Polnisch Hammer in Trebnitz County. His father, the Maurer (stonemason) Karl Marke had died previously at Breslau, but Anna (née Sternitzke) Marke was still living at Ober-Glauche in Trebnitz County).

Birth and Marriage of Gustav Adolf Paul Sternitzke 1866 Ober-Glauche and 1897 Breslau

Gustav Adolf Paul Sternitzke was born at Ober-Glauche on the 29th of April in 1866. He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Viertel) Sternitzke.

Gustav Adolf Paul Sternitzke married Johanne Ernestine Seidel in Breslau on the 7th of October in 1897. The groom signed his name as Paul Sternitzke. Both of the groom's parents were identified as having died at Ober-Glauche before the wedding. The groom was employed as a Hotel-Portier (hotel doorman or porter) in Breslau and lived at Messergasse 25 (2 blocks south of the University, now Nożownicza Street). The groom and the bride were both Protestants. See Gustav Adolf Paul Sternitzke and Johanne Ernestine (née Seidel) Sternitzke, 1897 to 1934

Birth and Marriage of Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke 1881 Ober-Glauche and 1905 Breslau

Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke (1881-1931) was born at Ober-Glauche on the 22nd of November of 1881. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Dorothea (née Hippe) Sternitzke, who both died at Ober-Glauche prior to Martha's wedding in 1905.

Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke married Hermann Gustav Oskar Schattmann at Breslau on the 23rd of July in 1905. Martha was unemployed at the time of her marriage, and lived at Klein Totschen (one mile west of Ober-Glauche, now Taczów Mały) in Kreis Trebnitz. Her civil marriage record listed her as a Protestant. The Geneteka genealogical database shows that they were married at the Erlöserkirche (Protestant Church of the Redeemer) in Breslau on the 25th of July in 1905.

Martha (née Sternitzke) Schattmann, the wife of the Fleischermeister Oskar Schattmann, died at Breslau on the 15th of February in 1931. The burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed her age as 49 years and 2 months old at the time of her death. The causes of her death were listed as: Nervenleiden, Lungenentzündung mit Herzschwäche (nerve disease, pneumonia with cardiac weakness). She was buried on the 19th of February in 1931. See Chapter 1: the Marriage and Family of Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke, July 1905 to 1931 City of Breslau.

Village of Groß Biadauschke in Trebnitz County

Groß Biadauschke was the name of a village located about seven miles north-northeast of the city Trebnitz, and about two miles southeast of Gross Ujeschütz. Some sources listed it as Gross Biadauschen. It was listed as Bedaußke (in 1691) and Bedauschke (in 1696) in church records. In 1936, it was renamed as Heidegrund. It is now known as Biedaszków Wielki. During the Middle Ages, Groß Biadauschke was one of the forest villages located in the Sessovo forest district owned by the Catholic Cloister at Trebnitz.

Marriage of Susanna Sciernisko 1691 Bedaußke and Schawoine

Many of the Protestant churches in Trebnitz County were turned over to the Catholics from 1675 to 1707. See Book I, Chapter 2: Church Books and General Church Conditions in Trebnitz County. The records at the Schawoine Catholic Church during this period contained records of the Sternitzke family from the nearby villages, including Groß Biadauschke (which was recorded as Bedaußke). See Book III, Village of Schawoine in Trebnitz County: Records at the Schawoine Catholic Church 1675 to 1707.

In February of 1691, the marriage of Susanna Sciernisko to Joannes Georgy Kluge was recorded at the Catholic Church in Schawoine. Susanna was described in the record as Susanna relictia filia (surviving daughter of the late) Joannis Sciernisko from Bedaußke. The witnesses at the wedding were Adam Hahn and Georgius Kluge.

Susanna Sciernisko was probably an older step-sister of Adam Schiernisko/Scierniske (1671-1749, SN1). Their father was Johann (Johannes, Hans, Adam) Tschernißke (Sciernisko) 1703, Sternitzke, SN273) who was born around 1610 at Domnowitz and bought Bauergut 16 in Gross Ujeschütz in 1665. Susanna's mother was probably the second wife of Johann. Adam's mother was Johann's third wife (Katharine née Rendzin). The lineage of Johann was: George (c.1510-c.1574, SN1) - Blasius (c.1544-c.1615, SN22) - Gregor (c.1580-1678, SN200) - Johann (1610-1672, SN273). See Book I, Chapter 6: The Ancestors and Descendants of Wilhelm Starnitzki.

Johann Tschernißke died in 1672 at Ujeschütz. Prior to his death, Johann was a Freibauer at Gross Ujeschütz. His third wife Katharina (née Rendzin) Sternitzke sold Bauergut 16 at Gross Ujeschütz to Hans Tyroke on the 10th of March in 1674. The family must have then moved to Bedaußke (Gross Biadauschke) before Susanna's wedding in 1691. See Book I, Chapter 10, Gross Ujeschütz and Klein Ujeschütz: Sternitzke Family Property Transfers, Purchases and Sales in Ujeschütz, Gross Ujeschütz and Klein Ujeschütz.

Birth and Death of Christiane (née Sternitzke) Neumann Circa 1817 Groß Biadauschke, 1880 Kawallen

Christiane Sternitzke was born at Groß Biadauschke around 1817. She was the daughter of the Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottfried Sternitzke and Rosina (née Nitschke) Sternitzke.

Christiane (née Sternitzke) Neumann died at the age of 63 years old on the 7th of September in 1880 at Kawallen in Trebnitz County. She was a Protestant. Her parents had died before that date. Christiane was the widow of the Groß Biadauschke Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottfried Neumann, but she was a Tagarbeiterin (day laborer) at Kawallen when she died. Her death was reported by her daughter's husband the Lohngärtner Robert Kuhnert. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden. Christiane was living with the Robert Kuhnert family when she died.

Birth and Death of Rosina (née Schmidler) Kutzner
1825 Groß Biadauschke, 1895 City of Breslau

Rosina Schmidler was born at Groß Biadauschke around the 25th of January in 1825. That date is based on her age (70 years and 2 months) on her death record. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Gottlieb Schmidler and his wife Susanne (née Sternitzki) Schmidler.

Rosina Schmidler married the Müllenneister (master miller) August Kutzner who died at Trachenberg before 1895.

Rosina (née Schmidler) Kutzner died in Breslau on the 25th of March in 1895. Her death was reported by the Bäckerfrau (baker's wife) Klara (née Förster) Wagner and the Bäckermeister (master baker) Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzki. Klara Wagner lived at Marienstraße 16 and Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzki lived at Marienstraße 48 (both addresses are about 6 blocks southeast from the Catholic St. John the Baptist's Cathedral, now Władysława Nehringa Street) in Breslau.

Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke (1852-1938) was the daughter of August and Rosina (née Schmidler) Kutzner and the granddaughter of Susanne (née Sternitzki) Schmidler. Ernestine was the wife of the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke. Heinrich was born in 1851 at Brietzen and died at Breslau in 1891. A comparison of Ernestine's signatures was not possible. Heinrich's death record was a Neben (duplicate) copy and signed by the Standesbeamte (registrar). Rosina Schmidler's 1895 death record was signed with three crosses, probably because the reporters of Rosina's death could not write. Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 12th of October in 1938. See the Marriages, Family and Death of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1870 to 1938 City of Breslau.

Anna Susanna (née Sternitzke) Siebenthal 1874 to 1899 Groß Biadauschke

The Schmiedemeister (master smith) Karl Siebenthal and his wife Anna Susanna (née Sternitzke) Siebenthal lived at Groß Biadauschke in 1874. Their son Karl August Sebenthal was born there on the 13th of November in 1874.

Karl August Siebenthal married Anna Martha Halm on the 9th of November in 1899. The wedding was recorded at Brietzen, but it was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The groom and the bride were both Protestants. The groom's father had died at Groß Biadauschke, but his mother was still living there at the time of the wedding.

Anna Martha Halm was born at Schimmerau on the 6th of March in 1878. She was the daughter of the Müllermeister (master miller) August Halm and his wife Ernestine Rosina (née Stahn) Halm. The bride's father was still living at Schimmerau at the time of the wedding, but his wife had died before the wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the 44 years old Fleischermeister (master butcher) Ernst Ludwig from Groß Biadauschke, and the 44 years old Freigärtner Oscar Tilgner from Groß Biadauschke.

Marriage and Children of Johann Gottlieb Hübner and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner 1849 to 1906

The database at Geneteka.genealodzy.pl shows Johann Gottlieb Huebner from Groß Leipe married Johanne Rosina Sternizke (also known as Sternitzke) at Prausnitz on the 7th of January in 1849. It was a Protestant marriage. Johann Gottlieb Huebner (junior) was the son of Johann Gottlieb Huebner (senior). Johanne Rosine Sternizke was the daughter of Gottlieb Sternizke.

Daughter Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner (1849-1899)
1849 Groß Leipe, 1888 to 1899 Breslau

Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner was born at Groß Leipe on the 30th of October in 1849. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Hübner and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner. They were Protestants. Gottlieb Hübner was a Drechsler (lathe operator for making wooden furniture) in Groß Leipe and Jäkel. Gottlieb Hübner died at Jäkel before his daughter's wedding in 1888. Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner was still living at the time of her daughter Karoline's 1888 wedding but Anna Rosina had died at Breslau prior to her other daughter Anna's wedding in 1896.

Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner married Johann Karl Josef Anders in Breslau on the 10th of December in 1888. Johann Karl Josef Anders was born on the 12th of September in 1849 at Sachwitz in Neumarkt County. He was the son of Gottlieb Anders and Hedwig Rabon (according to a transcription available at the Schlesien Datenbank). Johann was Catholic and a Maurer (bricklayer or stonemason) at Breslau in 1888. See the Marriage of Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner, 10 December 1888 City of Breslau.

At the time of her marriage to Josef Anders, Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner was the widow of Mr. Jung who died before 10 December 1888. After their marriage, Josef and Karoline Anders lived at the Mittelfeld-Schreiber-Haus in Breslau. Witnesses to the marriage included the Stroh. [Strohmenger, straw merchant] August Hübner (35 years old, living at Gräuznergasse 4a in Breslau) and Zimmermeister (master carpenter) Moritz Butter (62 years old, living at the Mittelfeld-Schreiber-Haus in Breslau).

The Mittelfeld-Schreiber-Haus was apparently an apartment building. A 1935 address book for Breslau listed the Schreiber'sches Haus near the intersection of Mittelfeldweg (now Stefana Jaracza Street) and Michaelisstrasse (now Nowowiejska Street). This intersection is less than one mile northeast of the St. John the Baptist's Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław.

The Maurer Josef Anders, the husband of Caroline (née Hübner) Anders, died at home on the 11th of December in 1897 at the age of 48 years and 2 months old. He was born at Sachwitz in Neumarkt County, the son of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Anders and Hedwig (née Kabon) Anders, who had died at Sachwitz. Prior to his death Josef Anders and his wife lived at Friedrichstraße 91 (4 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Kolejowa Street).in Breslau.

Josef was a Catholic. The civil death record was signed by his wife Caroline (née Hübner) Anders.

The widow Caroline (née Hübner) Anders, daughter of the Drechsler (lathe operator for making wooden furniture) Gottlieb Hübner and Rosalie (née Starnitzke) Hübner, died on the 2nd of February in 1899, at the age of 49 years and 3 months. She was a Protestant who was born at Gross-Leipe in the Trebnitz County. She was the widow of the Maurer (bricklayer or stonemason) Josef Anders, who had died at Breslau. Rosalie's father had died at Jäkel in Wohlau County. Her mother had died at Breslau. Prior to her death Caroline (née Hübner) Anders lived at Friedrichstraße 91 in Breslau. Caroline's death was reported by Pastor Ullrich from the evangelisch-lutherische Diakonissenanstalt Bethanien zu Breslau (the Protestant Deaconess Institute Bethany Church and Hospital at Breslau).

Son Johann Friedrich August Hübner (1853-1906)

1853 Groß Leipe and 1906 Breslau

Johann Friedrich August Hübner was born at Groß Leipe around the 18th of August in 1853. That date was calculated from his age (53 years and 4 months) when he died at Breslau on the 18th of December in 1906. His death record shows that he was the son of Gottlieb Hübner and Rosina (née Sternitzky) Hübner. The record shows that Gottlieb Hübner had died before 1906 at Jäkel, and that Rosina (née Sternitzky) Hübner had died at Breslau before 1906.

Before his death, Johann Friedrich August Hübner was living in Breslau with his wife Berta née Knetsch at Gellhornstraße 37 (5 blocks southeast from the Botanical Gardens, now a small grassy area near Benedykta Plaka Street). He was employed as a Hutarbeiter (a laborer for a hatmaker). Johann died at the Allerheiligen Hospital in Breslau. His death was reported by Ober-Inspector Doktor Müller at the hospital, which may explain why his mother's maiden name was spelled Sternitzky instead of Sternitzke (see the records above and below for the sisters of Johann).

Daughter Anna Luise Hübner (1861-after 1896)
1861 Jäkel and 1896 Breslau

Anna Luise Hübner was born at Jäkel in Wohlau County on the 8th of November in 1861. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Hübner and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner. In 1896, Anna was employed as a Plätterin (ironer) and lived in Breslau at Ziethenstrasse 6. Ziethenstrasse (shown as Zietenstraße on earlier maps) was 6 blocks west of the main trainstation in Breslau, and is now named Żytnia Street.

On the 6th of January in 1896, Anna Luise Hübner married the Maurer (bricklayer) Friedrich Wilhelm Stahr. The marriage record shows Anna Luise was a Protestant, and Friedrich was a Catholic. They both lived at Ziethenstrasse 6. Anna Luise's parents both died before the 1896 wedding. Gottlieb Hübner had died at Jäkel before the 1888 wedding of Anna's sister Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner. Their mother Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner died at Breslau between 1888 and 1896.

Friedrich Wilhelm Stahr was born on the 13th of November in 1853 at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the deceased Kutscher (coachman) Carl Stahr and his deceased wife Anne née Vater, who both last resided at Breslau.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 37 years old Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) Traugott Schirbel and the 47 years old Maurer (bricklayer) Friedrich Wende. Traugott Schirbel lived in Breslau at Sadowastrasse 13 (one block west of the main trainstation, now Swobodna Street). Friedrich Wende lived in Breslau at Seidlitzstrasse 9 (shown as Seydlitzstrasse on maps, about 8 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Pszenna Street).

Birth and Marriage of David Sternitzke 1807 Groß Märtinau, 1842 Breslau

David Sternitzke was born at Groß Märtinau around the 10th of August in 1807. That date was calculated from his age (34 years and 8 months) when he was married in Breslau.

David was the second son of the Häusler Daniel Sternitzke.

In 1842, David Sternitzke was a Gefreiter (lance corporal) in the 1st Battalion of the 10th Landwehr Regiment of the Prussian Army at Breslau. He married Caroline (née Gurlt) Pabmahl at the Protestant garrison church in Breslau on the 10th of April in 1842. His father Daniel Sternitzke died before the wedding.

Frau Caroline (née Gurlt) Pabmahl was a Catholic. The marriage record does not specify if she was a widow or divorced. She was 45 years old, so she was born around 1797. She was born at Robenvorwerk near the city Jauer.

Birth and Marriage of Georg Tschosnig (Schosnig)
1822 Groß Märtinau, 1884 Dobberschütz (Posen)

Georg Tschosnig (alias Schosnig) was born at Groß Märtinau in Trebnitz County on the 13th of December in 1822. He was the son of the Bauer (farmer) Georg Tschosnig (Schosnig) and his wife Marie (née Sternitzke) Tschosnig (Schosnig).

The Tschosnig (Schosnig) family had links to the Sternitzke family at Pawellau in Trebnitz County. George Sosnik (Tschosnig) and Christoph Sciernisko (Sternitzke, c.1676-after 1709) were Church Fathers at Pawellau in 1709. Wilhelm Sternitzke (1854-1925) married Pauline Schosnig (1867-1952) around 1890. See Book II: Pawellau for details.

In 1884, the Hausler (a cottage owner and day-laborer) Georg Tschosnig (Schosnig) was living at Dobrzyca (Dobberschütz). He married Anna Rosina Jahner on the 13th of October in 1884 at Dobberschütz. They were both Protestants. Both of the groom's parents died at Groß Märtinau before their son's wedding in 1884.

Anna Rosina Jahner was born on the 22nd of November in 1840 at Strzyzewo (Grünau). She was the daughter of the Hausler Gottfried Jahner and Regina (née Rauhut) Jahner. Rosina's parents died at Strzyzewo (Grünau) before the 1884 marriage.

The wedding witnesses were the Auszügler (retired farmer) Johann Liebert and the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Strauss. Johann Liebert was 51 years old and lived at Dobberschütz (Dobrzyca). Gottlieb Strauss was 53 years old and lived at Dobberschütz (Dobrzyca).

Family of Johann Sternitzke and Susanna Helene (née Günther) Sternitzke Circa 1837 Groß Märtinau, 1874 Klein Kommerowe, 1891 to 1924 Zduny (Posen)

Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke (c.1837-1891) was born at Groß Märtinau in Trebnitz County around 1837. Gottlieb's civil death record shows he was the son of the Häusler Johann Sternitzke and his wife Susanne Helene (née Günther) Sternitzke.

Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke married Susanne Helene (née Kordelle) Sternitzke around 1873. She was born around 1838 at Kommerowe in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the farmer Friedrich Kordelle and his wife Susanna (née Nitschke) Kordelle.

Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke had at least two children: the daughters Anna Louise Sternitzke and Helene Sternitzke. Anna Louise Sternitzke was born at Klein Kommerowe in Trebnitz County in 1874. Helene Sternitzke signed her mother's death record in 1924.

Birth and Death of daughter Anna Louise Sternitzke (1874-1897)

Anna Louise Sternitzke died at her mother's home on the 22nd of July in 1897, at the age of 22 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old. She would have turned 23 years old in October of 1897, so she was born around October of 1874. Her death record shows that she was born at Klein Kommerowe in Trebnitz County. Anna Louise Sternitzke was not married when she died. Her death was reported by and signed by her mother, the widowed Hausbesitzerin (house owner) Helene (née Kordelle) Sternitzke. Helene's husband died in 1891 (see below).

Death of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke (c.1837-1891)

The Ackerbürger Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke died on the 1st of April in 1891 in his home at Zduny. An Ackerbürger was a resident of the city who derived his income from agriculture (an urban farmer). He died at the age of 54 years old, so he was born around 1837. His death record shows he was born at Gross Mertinau (Groß Märtinau) in Trebnitz County, Silesia. He was the son the deceased Häusler Johann Sternitzke and his wife Susanne Helene (née Günther) Sternitzke.

The death record was signed by his wife Susanne Helene (née Kordelle) Sternitzke.

Death of Susanne Helene (née Kordelle) Sternitzke (1838-1924)

Susanne Helene (née Kordelle) Sternitzke died on the 10th of July in 1924 at the age of 86 years old. She was a Protestant and a resident of Zduny. Her daughter Helene Sternitzke signed the death record at the Zduny registry office (see below). Helene Sternitzke was not married. The death record was written in Polish, so there are minor differences in spelling of the names. The name of Susanne Helene (née Kordelle) Sternitzke was written as Zusanna Sternitzka, the wife of Gottlieb Sternitzki. Their daughter's name was written by the registrar as Helene Sternitzka.

Marriage and Family of Ernestine Johanne Louise (née Sternitzke) Schipke 1875 to 1880 Groß Peterwitz, 1888 Rawitsch (Posen), 1908 Breslau

Ernestine Johanne Louise Sternitzke (c.1849-after 1888) was born at Pawellau around 1849. She was the daughter of the Freibauer (free farm owner) Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Susanne Helene (née Thinibel) Sternitzke. She was still living with her parents at Pawellau in 1875. See the Family of Friedrich Sternitzke and Susanna Helene (née Thinibel) Sternitzke, 1801 to 1912 Pawellau.

Marriage of Ernestine Johanne Louise Sternitzke, 1875

Ernestine Johanne Louise Sternitzke was 26 years old when she married the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Heinrich August Schipke at Schimmerau, on the 6th of July in 1875. They were both Protestants. Heinrich August Schipke was 33 years old and lived at Gross Peterwitz in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer Johann Gottlieb Schipke and his wife Dorothea (née Strietzel) Schipke. The groom's parents also lived at Groß Peterwitz. The registrar wrote the family name as Tschipke, but the groom signed his name as August Schipke (see below).

The wedding witnesses were the 76 years old Bauergutsbesitzer Heinrich Sternitzke from Brietzen and the 36 years old Gasthausbesitzer (hotel owner) Georg Vogt from Gross Peterwitz. Heinrich Sternitzke was born on the 2nd of June in 1799 at Pawellau. Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) was the bride's uncle. He was probably the Heinrich Sternitzke from Brietzen who was a member of the Community Church Council for the Protestant Church at Pawellau in 1858 and was named a church father in 1866. He was a farm owner who later retired from the council on 14 July 1901.

Birth and Death of son Richard Schipke (c.1878-1888)

Richard Schipke was born at Groß Peterwitz in Trebnitz County around 1878. He died at Rawitsch at the age of 10 years old on the 9th of July in 1888. His mother, the widow Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Schipke reported her son's death at the Rawitsch Standesamt. The city of Rawitsch was in Rawitsch County in Posen. The death record shows that Richard and his mother were residents of Rawitsch. The record shows that Richard's father, the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) August Schipke had previously died at Groß Peterwitz.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Emma Pauline Schipke,
1880 Groß Peterwitz and 1908 Breslau

Emma Pauline Schipke was born at Groß Peterwitz on the 22nd of July in 1880. She was the daughter of the Freigutsbesitzer (free owner of a homestead) August Schipke and his wife Ernstine (née Sternitzke) Schipke.

In 1908, Emma Pauline Schipke was living in Breslau at Lützowstraße 15 (7 blocks northeast from the main trainstation, now Miernicza Street). Her father had died at Groß Peterwitz before that year, and her mother had remarried to a Müllermeister (master miller) Eduard Mitzon. Eduard Mitzon had also died prior 29 April 1908 and Ernstine (née Sternitzke) Schipke was living in Breslau (probably with her daughter Emma).

On the 29th of April in 1908, Emma Pauline Schipke married the Kaufmann (merchant) Karl Bartold Adolf Hendrich at Breslau. Both the bride and the groom were identified as Protestants on the marriage record. Karl lived in Breslau at Friedrichstraße 78 (4 blocks southwest from the old city walls, now Koiejowa Street). He was the son of the deceased Breslau Fleischermeister (master butcher) Karl Hendrich and his wife Maria née Tesch, who was still a resident of Breslau at the time of her son's wedding.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 59 years old Bauergutsbesitzer und Amtsvorsteher-Stellvertreter (farmstead owner and Deputy Chief Administrator) Eduard Nitschke and the 42 years old Kaufmann (merchant) Max Hendrich. Eduard Nitschke lived at Gross-Peterwitz in Trebnitz County. Max Hendrich lived in Breslau at Rosenthalerstraße 45 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Pomorska Street).

A handwritten note on the marriage record indicated the couple divorced on the 14th of December in 1911.

Second Marriage of Ernestine Johanne Louise (née Sternitzke) Schipke, 1890

The widow of August Schipke, Ernestine Johanne Louise (née Sternitzke) Schipke was 41 years old when she married the widower Eduard Mitzon at Rawitsch. He was 50 years old.

Birth of Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Sterniße
1795 Groß Totschen

Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Sterniße was born on the 7th of March in 1795, the son of David Sterniße and Anna Rosina (née Klosin or Klose) Sterniße. David was listed as an Einwohner (resident) of Groß Totschen on the baptismal record (at Glauche) for his son Johann.

The Glauche Church book records show David Sterniße and Anna Rosina (née Klosin or Klose) Sterniße lived at Nieder-Glauche in 1791 and 1793. Baptism records for the later children of David Sterniße and Anna Sterniße show the parents were then residents of Skotschene (Skotschenine). For details, see the table titled Glauche Church Book Records and the map included in the discussion of Glauche (Ober-Glauche and Nieder-Glauche in Trebnitz County).

Village of Guhlau in Trebnitz County

The village Guhlau was located one mile southwest of Prausnitz (now named Prusice) in Militsch County). Kapatschütz was a less than a mile from Guhlau. The irregular shape of Militsch County places Guhlau and Kapelschütz very close to the border between Militsch and Trebnitz Counties. The 1827 Lower Silesia Industry, Trade and Craft Directory and the other sources listed below identified Guhlau as being in Trebnitz County. The population of Guhlau was 61 in 1939. Guhlau is now named Gola, Poland.

Family of Johanne Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Zimmer 1836 Guhlau and Prausnitz, 1903 Breslau

Dorothea Sternitzke, the daughter of Christian Sternitzke, married Johann Zimmer, the son of George Zimmer, on the 20th of November in 1820 at the Protestant Church in the city of Trebnitz. See Chapter 2: Protestant Church Marriages, 1796 to 1827 City of Trebnitz.

Johann Carl Heinrich Zimmer was born at Guhlau on the 20th of February in 1836. He was baptized at the Protestant church at Prausnitz on the 21st of February in 1836. He was the son of Guhlau Vogt (village administrator) Johann Zimmer and his wife Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Zimmer. The baptism record listed the mother as Dorothea (née Sternitzkin) Zimmer. Sternitzkin was the female variation of the Sternitzke surname.

The Zimmermann (carpenter) Heinrich Zimmer, the son of Johann Zimmer and Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Zimmer died at Breslau on the 13th of February in 1903. He died at home at Gabitzstraße 125. He was a Protestant. His death was reported by his son, the Handschuhmacher (glove maker) Paul Zimmer who lived in Breslau at Gabitzstraße 42.

Heinrich Zimmer's death record shows that his father died at Burgwitz and Heinrich's mother Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Zimmer died at Kottwitz in Trebnitz County. Johann Zimmer was identified as an invaliden Dominial Schirmvogtes (military disabled estate administrator).

See the Birth and Death of Elisabeth (née Zimmer) Schlensog, 1823 Trebnitz and 1903 Breslau. See the 1831 birth record of Johanne Caroline Zimmer at Kapatschütz, the daughter of Johann Zimmer and Johanne Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Zimmer.

Birth, Family and Death of Frieda (née Sternitzke) Haunschilde Circa 1900 Guhlau, 1974 Burg-Stargard

A Militsch-Trachenberger newspaper from 1960 included the obituary of Paul Haunschilde. It listed his widow as Frieda (née Sternitzke) Haunschilde. A 1974 issue of that newspaper included the obituary for Frieda (née Sternitzke) Haunschild. Her obituary was the source of information for this discussion.

Frieda Sternitzke was born at Guhlau around 1900. That year was based on her age (74 years old) when she died on the 14th of September in 1974. She died from schwerer Krankheit (serious illness) at Burg-Stargard. The obituary mentions Frieda's sister as Selma (née Sternitzke) Schneider. Burg-Stargard is a small town in the German state Mecklenburg-West Pomerania.

The Sternitzke family name was listed as Steonitzki in Frieda's obituary as shown in the online database. Guhlau was listed as Gulau in the Breslau District. The errors were either made in the original newspaper, or by the transcriber for entry in the database. Gulau was not found in the geography books written by Meyer and Knie.

Müllermeister Paul Sternitzke 1905 Guhlau and Trebnitz

The 36 years old Guhlau Müllermeister (master miller) Paul Sternitzke was a witness at the marriage of Emil Paul Max Kluge and Emma Luise Gerber. The wedding was in Breslau on the 5th of October in 1905.

Emil Paul Max Kluge was Protestant. He was employed in Breslau as a Eisenbahn-Streckenarbeiter (railroad track worker) and lived at Holteistraße 14a. He was born on the 10th of June in 1880 at Klein Krutschen in Militsch County, the son of the deceased at Klein Krutschen Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Ferdinand Kluge and his wife Paulene (née Tyroke) Kluge.

Emma Luise Gerber was also a Protestant. She was employed as a Stubenmädchen (chambermaid) and lived in Breslau at Tauentzienstraße 49 (one block north of the main train station, now General Kościuszki Tadeusza Street). She was born on the 13th of June in 1883 at Groß Breesen in Trebnitz County (now Brzezno, Poland). She was a daughter of the Freistellenbesitzers (free property owners) Hermann Gerber and Johanna (née Hippe) Gerber, who were residents of Groß Breesen.

The other witness at the wedding was the 25 years old Eisenbahnarbeiter Karl Gerber, who lived in Breslau at Holteistraße 14a.

Birth and Death of Rosina (née Sternitzke) Pfaffe 1830 Haasenau and 1901 Breslau

Rosina (née Sternitzke) Pfaffe was born around the 12th of November in 1830. That date was based on her age (70 years and 2 months) when she died at Breslau on the 12th of January in 1901. Her civil death record shows that she was the daughter of the deceased Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Gottfried Sternitzke who died at Hasenau, and his wife (whose name was not known). Rosina died at home in Breslau at Friedrich-Carlsstrasse 8 (Friedrich-Karl-Straße, 5 blocks west of the old city walls, now Inowrocławska Street). Her husband, the Breslau Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Pfaffe preceded her in death. The burial records from the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau shows Rosina (née Sternitzke) Pfaffe was buried on the 16th of January in 1901 at the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb (southwest from the old city walls). The burial record listed her age as 70 years and 3 months old when she died.

Rosina's death was reported by her son, the Sattlermeister (saddle master) Robert Pfaffe, who lived at Groß Mochbern in Breslau County (about 4 miles west of the city center of Breslau). Groß Mochbern was renamed as Lohbrück (in 1937) and it is now known as Muchobor Wielki. The population of Lohbrück was 2,975 in 1939.

Forstconductor Sternitzke 1808 Haltauf

A member of the Sternitzke family from Haltauf was hired as a Forstconductor in the Breslau office of the Prussian Royal Forest Service in 1808. A Forstconductor was an occupational term for a type of forester. Moritz Sternitzki was born around 1783 (based on his age when he died). He died at the age of 83 years old on the 5th of October in 1866. He was buried at Neisse on the 5th of October in 1866. Family of the Vogt Gottfried Sternitzke
1880 to 1882 Haltauf

The Vogt (village administrator) Gottfried Sternitzke and his wife Caroline (née Pohl) Sternitzke were residents of Haltauf from 1880 to 1882. See the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Caroline (née Pohl) Sternitzke, 1868 to 1874 Kloch-Ellguth, 1882 Haltauf.

Confirmation of son Heinrich Adolf Sternitzke, 1880

Heinrich Adolf Sternitzke was born at Jeschütz on the 4th of February in 1866. He was the first child of the Knecht (farm laborer) Gottfried Sternitzke and his wife Caroline (née Pohl) Sternitzke. Heinrich was baptized at the Massel Protestant Church on the 18th of February in 1866. Joseph Sternitzke from Jeschütz was Heinrich's godfather.

Joseph Sternitzke was probably the brother of Gottfried Sternitzke. See the Village of Massel in Trebnitz County: Massel Church Book Records.

Heinrich Adolph Sternitzke was confirmed at the Massel Protestant Church on the 21st of March in 1880. His father Gottfried Sternitzke was a Vogt (village administrator) at Haltauf in Trebnitz County at that time. The Vogt position was probably a hired position for managing the farming activities for the village owner. The book by Johann Knie listed the Graf von Blücher and the Trebnitz Stift as owners of the village.

Godmother Pauline Sternitzke, 1881

The Vogts Frau (village administrator's wife) Pauline Sternitzke from the village Haltauf was the godmother at the baptism of Carl August Hermann Sternitzke at the Protestant Church in Massel, on the 25th of September in 1881. The name Pauline may have been a transcription error. The original document was not available for review.

Carl August Hermann Sternitzke was born at Kloch-Ellguth on the 11th of September in 1881. He was the son of the Wirtshaus Pächter (tavern tenant) Joseph Sternitzke and Christine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke.

Confirmation of son Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1882

Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Kloch Ellguth on the 27th of April in 1868. He was confirmed at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 2nd of April in 1882. His father was listed in the Massel Church confirmation record book as Gottfried Sternitzke, the Vogt at Haltauf.

Marriage of Johann Friedrich Sternitzke Circa 1808 Hennigsdorf

Johann Friedrich Sternitzke and Maria Elisabeth Garbsch were married at the Protestant church at Polnisch Hammer around 1808. Johann was an Erbbauer (hereditary farm owner) and Gerichtsscholz (court appointed mayor) of Hennigsdorf. Maria was born at Polnisch Hammer (also known as Groß Hammer).

Karl Sille recorded one child for Johann and Maria: Anna Rosina Sternitzke was born on the 16th of December in 1808 at Striese (Hennigsdorf). She was probably born at Hennigsdorf and baptized at Striese. A Catholic church was located at Striese. The 1902 book listing known church records in Silesia, Die Kirchenbücher Schlesiens beider Confessionen, shows that baptism records for the Catholic Church at Striese existed (in 1902) for the years 1785 to 1900.

Anna Rosina Sternitzke married Gottfried Mücke before 1832 at Peterwitz (now known as Piotrkowiczki) in Trebnitz County. Gottfried and Anna Mücke had five children: Ernst Wilhelm, Friedrich Karl, Anna, Emma and Johann Gottlieb Ernst Mücke. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Rosina Sternitzke, Before 1832 Peterwitz to 1920 City of Trebnitz.

The widow Ann Rosina (née Sternitzke) Mücke died on the 8th of April of 1874 at Heidewilxen.

Marriage of Artur Hermann Ritter 1938 Hennigsdorf

Artur Hermann Ritter was born at Breslau in the family home on the 12th of August in 1913. He was the son of the Schmied (smith) August Friedrich Wilhelm Ritter and his wife Emma Martha (née Sternitzke) Ritter. They were both Protestant. They lived in Breslau at Mariannenstraße 1 (now Trzemeska Street, 5 blocks west of the old city walls). A note on the birth record shows Artur Hermann Ritter was married at Hennigsdorf in Trebnitz County (marriage record number 6 in 1938).

Hochkirch Parish: Hochkirch, Machnitz and Schön-Ellguth in Trebnitz County

The parish of the Protestant Church at Hochkirch included the villages Machnitz and Schön-Ellguth. Hochkirch is now known as Wysoki Kościół. Machnitz is now known as Machnice. Schön-Ellguth is now known as Ligota Piękna. These villages are on the main roads (Poland's National Road 5, European Route E261) connecting Breslau and Trebnitz. Machnitz is 2 miles south of Trebnitz and 11 miles north of Breslau.

The Principality of Öls had political jurisdiction of the Hochkirch Parish during most of the period of time that included the Sternitzke family history. Dr. Gustav Stein identified the von Diebitsch family as the hereditary landlords of Machnitz, and the von Rothkirch family were landlords of the Schön-Ellguth during the 18th century. There were no members of the Sternitzke family in the Hochkirch parish at the time of Dr. Stein's research (around 1934), but he noted that the family name was widely known in Silesia.

Family of Christoph Sternitzky
1739-1745 Machnitz, 1745-1797 Schön-Ellguth

Christoph Sternicke (Sternicke 1739, Sternicky 1741, Sternisky 1745 and Sternitzky 1777) was an innkeeper and farmer (Kretschmer und Dreschgärtner) at Machnitz at the time of the birth of his son Johann in 1739. Dr. Gustav Stein (a descendant of Christoph Sternicke) estimated the birth of Christoph occurred between 1700 and 1710. Dr. Stein reviewed a file folder of original and duplicate purchase agreements from the Schöppenlade (a wooden community lock box) for the village Machnitz. The contracts were dated from the 18th of February in 1707 to the 10th of December in 1782. Dr. Stein found the 1745 purchase agreement for the sale of the Christoph Sternisky properties in Machnitz (discussed below) but there was no documentation (from the Schöppenlade) associated with a prior purchase of those properties. Dr. Stein assumed this meant that Christoph inherited the Kretschamgut (inn and farmstead) properties from his father. Based on the date of the birth of his son Johann, Christoph Sternicke was born around 1709. Christoph died after 1745 and before his son's wedding in 1777.

Christoph was married to Maria (her maiden name is unknown). The official Hochkirch church baptism record for their son Johann and the birth record for their son Gottfried show the following information (including variations in the spelling of the family name):

Father: Christoph Sternicke, Innkeeper at Machnitz, Protestant.

Mother: Maria (maiden name was not listed).

Son: Johann Sternicke.

Birthday and place of birth: 22 January 1739 at Machnitz.

Baptism: 23 January 1739 at Hochkirch.

Father: Christoph Sternicky, Innkeeper in Machnitz.

Mother: Maria (her last name was once again not specified).

Son: Gottfried Sternicky.

Birthday and place of birth: 8 April 1741 at Machnitz.

Christoph Sternisky sold his Kretschamgut (village inn and farmstead) at Machnitz on the 24th of June in 1745 to Andreas Stritzke for 310 Silesian Thalers, and purchased a Freigärtnerstelle in Schön-Ellguth. The contract for the sale of the Machnitz property identified Christoph as Christoph Sternisky. Christoph's status changed from a Dreschgärtner and Kretschmer (innkeeper) to a Freigärtner with these property transfers. A Dreschgärtner was an owner of a small farm who had to provide threshing services on the fields of the lord of the village. A Freigärtner had fewer obligations of service to the landlord.

Christoph was identified as Christoph Sternitzky, an honorable Freigärtner from Schön-Ellguth and the deceased father of Johann Sternitzky, on the marriage document for Johann at Breslau on the 15th of April in 1777, so Christoph died between 1745 and 1777 (probably at Schön-Ellguth). Christoph and Maria had two known sons (Johann and Gottfried) and probably two more sons (George and Christian):

- Johann Sternicke (Sternicke 1739, Sternitzky 1777) was born on the 22nd of January in 1739 at Machnitz. He was baptized on the 23rd of January in 1739 at the Protestant Church at Hochkirch. Johann (1739-after 1794) moved to Breslau and was working as a coin smelter at the Breslau Mint at the time of his marriage in 1777. See the discussion regarding his marriage and later family history in Book III: Chapter 1, City of Breslau, the Marriage of Johann Sternitzky, 1777 City of Breslau. Johann died at Breslau after 1794.
- Gottfried Sternicky (1741-unknown) was born on the 8th of April in 1741 at Machnitz.
- George Sternitzke (c.1740-after 1770) was a Dreschgärtner in Schön-Ellguth in 1770. He was probably a son of Christoph and Maria Sternitzky. George married Anna Rosine Bautz, and they had a son named Christian Sternitzke.
 - Christian Sternitzke was born on the 5th of October in 1770 at Schön-Ellguth.
- Christian Sternitzke (c.1743-after 1785) was a Dreschgärtner in Schön-Ellguth in 1773. Christian married Anna Rosina Baumgarth (the daughter of George Baumgarth).
In 1778, Christian acquired land (1 hectare, 17 acres and 90 square meters = 11,790 square meters = 2.91 acres) from his father-in-law George Baumgart. In 1797, Christian Sternitzke sold his Bauergut to his son-in-law Gottfried Pursian.

Christian Sternitzke was one of the few villagers who could write his own name in the Schön-Ellguth Urbarium of 1785. There were 11 Freigärtners and 10 Dreschgärtners identified in the Schön-Ellguth Urbarium, but 15 could only sign with ++++. An Urbarium was a register listing the noble landlord and the subjects by name, detailing the land rights, services, obligations and conditions of payment to the landlord.

Christian and Anna Rosina had a daughter, also named Anna Rosina.

- Anna Rosina Sternitzke was born on the 23rd of September 1773 in Schön-Ellguth. Anna married Gottfried Pursian.

Birth and Marriage of Ernst Herrmann Müller 1849 and 1883 Hochkirch

Note: This was an interesting marriage. The groom's mother and the bride's mother both had the Sternitzke maiden name.

Ernst Herrmann Müller was born at Hochkirch on the 19th of May 1849. He was the son of the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Gottlieb Müller and Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Müller, who were residents of Hochkirch.

The Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Ernst Herrmann Müller married Emma Pauliene Agnes Kreschmer at Schweretau in Trebnitz County, on the 19th of January in 1883. They were both Protestants. The groom's parents were still living at Hochkirch in 1883. Gottlieb Müller was described as a Freistellen-Auszügler (free property owner and retired farmer).

Emma Pauliene Agnes Kretschmer was born on the 15th of February in 1861 at Cawallen in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) and Schneidermeister (master tailor) Ernst Kretschmer and his wife Susanna Helena (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer who lived at Cawallen in Trebnitz County.

The witnesses at the wedding were the 48 years old Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Nitschke and the 26 years old Lehrer (teacher) August Mielnash. Gottlieb Nitschke was a Gemeinde Vorsteher (community leader) at Hochkirch in Trebnitz County. August Mielnash was a resident of Cawallen in Trebnitz County.

This marriage ended in a divorce.

Marriage of David Sternitzke 1856 Schweinern, Obernigk, Hünern and Breslau

In 1856, David Sternitzke was employed as a Herrschaftliche Kutscher (a coachman for a noble family) at Schweinern in Breslau County (about 7 miles northwest of Breslau, see the map below). He was the youngest son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Sternitzke who lived at Obernigk in Trebnitz County.

In April of 1856, David Sternitzke was married at the Protestant Church at Hünern (about 4 miles north of Breslau, now the village Psary). He married Johanna Dorothea Dresdner, the youngest daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer Gottfried Dresdner. The Dresdner family lived at Simsdorf (now named now Szymanów), about one mile northwest of Hünern. The Sternitzke-Dresdner marriage was recorded in the marriage record book at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Parish Church in Breslau. Family of Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki (1865-1938, SN252)
1891 to 1938 Janischguth

Ancestry of Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki

Karl Sille completed an ancestor tree for Else Marta Meta Labitzke in June of 1972. She was the granddaughter of Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki and Ida Martha Minna (née Sille) Sternitzki. That ancestor tree provided details of many of the Sternitzke family members. Below is a brief summary of that ancestor tree. It shows how three lines from Johann Tschernißke converged with the 1916 birth of Else Marta Meta Labitzke.

Birth of Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki, 1865

Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki (1865-1937) was a Protestant Freigärtner at Janischguth. He was born at Gross Ujeschütz on the 25th of January in 1865. He was baptized at Kainowe on the 9th of February in 1865. Hermann was the son of the Protestant Bauer (farmer) Ernst Gottlieb Sternitzky (1839-1907) and Anna Susanna (née Tilgner) Sternitzky (1841-1912) from Gross Ujeschütz.

Marriage and Family of Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki, 1889

Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki married Ida Martha Minna Sille at Kainowe on the 3rd of September in 1889. Ida died at Janischguth on the 18th of May in 1897. Hermann later married Emma Korschake (see Sille 026, page 16 of 31). Hermann Sternitzke purchased a farmstead (Bauergut 16) at Gross Ujeschütz in 1899, and sold it to his son Hermann Sternitzke in 1937. Hermann (the elder) then apparently lived with his daughter's family in Janischguth, where he died on the 18th of March in 1938.

Ida Martha Minna Sille was born at Domnowitz on the 11th of June in 1873. She was the daughter of Ernst Gottfried Sille and Maria Rosina Luise (née Tirock) Sille. She was baptized at Kainowe on the 20th of June in 1872.

Children of Herman and Ida Sternitzki:

- daughter Meta Marta Selma Sternitzki was born at Janischguth on the 19th of December in 1891 (see below),
- son Hermann Sternitzke was born about 1894, purchased Bauergut 16 at Gross Ujeschütz in 1937 from his father, and
- daughter Martha Ida Anna Sternitzki was born on the 4th of October in 1895 at Janischguth. She was baptized on 5th of October at home. Her birth and baptism were recorded in the baptism book the Protestant Church at Massel. The baptism witnesses were: the Auszügler (retired farmer) Anna Sille from Domnowitz, the Schuhmacher Frau (shoemaker's wife) Mathilde Becker from Groß Ujeschütz, Bauergutsbesitzer Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Bertha Sternitzke from Domnowitz, and the Jungfrau Emma Sternitzke from Groß Ujeschütz,

Birth, Marriage and Family of daughter
Meta Martha Selma Sternitzki, 1891 to 1972

Meta Martha Selma Sternitzki was born at Janischguth on the 19th of December in 1891. Meta was the daughter of Hermann Reinhold Paul Sternitzki and Ida Martha Minna (née Sille) Sternitzki.

Meta Sternitzki married Richard Reinhold Hermann Max Labitzke at Gross Hammer on the 6th of July in 1914. Meta died at Salzgitter-Bad in Lower Saxony on the 2nd of February in 1963.

Richard Reinhold Hermann Max Labitzke was a Bauergutbesitzer who was born at Gross Ujeschütz on the 27th of September in 1877. He was the son of Adolf David Theodor Labitzke and Johanna Emilie (née Sternitzky) Labitzke. Johanna (born on the 18th of October in 1851 at Domnowitz, died on the 4th of December of 1918) was the daughter of Karl Friedrich Sternitzki (born on the 12th of February in 1832 at Domnowitz, died on the 18th of August in 1876 at Domnowitz). Richard Labitzke died at Trebnitz on the 2nd of July in 1926.

Else Marta Meta Labitzke was the daughter of Richard Reinhold Hermann Max Labitzke and Meta Martha Selma (née Sternitzki) Labitzke. Else Marta Meta Labitzke was born at Gross Ujeschütz on the 29th of December in 1916, and was baptized at Kainowe on the 30th of December of 1916. Else married Heinrich Scholz at Friedrichskirch (Kainowe) on the 17th of April in 1943. Karl Sille's monograph (DSHI 100 Sille 026) shows that she lived at Sehle in Lower Saxony in 1972.

Family of Hedwige (née Schmidt) Sternitzke 1860 & 1891 Jeschütz and the City of Breslau

Karl Schmidt was born at Kapsdorf in Trebnitz County around the 25th of January in 1831. That date is based on his age (60 years and 10 months old) on the date of his death at Breslau on the 25th of November in 1891. His 1860 marriage record listed him as Carl Joseph Schmidt, and 29 years old, which confirms his year of birth as 1831. Kapsdorf (now named Kryniczno) is seven miles south of Trebnitz and seven miles north of Breslau.

Carl Joseph Schmidt (also known as Carl Joseph Stenzel) married Johanna Dorothea Otilie Vielhaar on the 24th of September in 1860 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The marriage record listed him as the Catholic “außerehelicher Sohn der” Hedwige Schmidt who later married the “Tagearbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzke in Jäschitz bei Trebnitz”. The phrase “außerehelicher Sohn” means one of the parents was married to someone other than the other parent of the child. In this case Carl’s father was a Mr. Stenzel who was married to a Mrs. Stenzel. Carl’s mother Hedwige Schmidt married Gottlieb Sternitzke after Carl was born.

Johanna Dorothea Otilie Vielhaar was 25 years old in 1860, so she was born in 1835. She was born at Ober Damsdorf in Striegau County. Her mother was Marie Rosine Vielhaar, who was unmarried. Marie Rosine Vielhaar married a schoolteacher named Mr. Meintke after Johanna was born.

The death record of Karl Schmidt (also known as Karl Stenzel) shows he was the son of Hedwig (née Schmidt) Sternitzki who was a widow and was living at Jeschütz when her son died in 1891. Karl’s mother was not married when Karl was born. Karl Schmidt was also known as Karl Stenzel (the surname of his father). Prior to his death Karl was employed as a

Birth and Confirmation of Heinrich Adolf Sternitzke 1866 Jeschütz, 1880 Haltauf

Heinrich Adolf Sternitzke was born at Jeschütz on the 4th of February in 1866. He was the first child of the Knecht (farm laborer) Gottfried Sternitzke and his wife Caroline (née Pohl) Sternitzke. Heinrich was baptized at the Massel Protestant Church on the 18th of February in 1866. Joseph Sternitzke from Jeschütz was Heinrich's godfather.

Joseph Sternitzke was probably the brother of Gottfried Sternitzke. See the Village of Massel in Trebnitz County: Massel Church Book Records.

Heinrich Adolph Sternitzke was confirmed at the Massel Protestant Church on the 21st of March in 1880. His father, Gottfried Sternitzke was a Vogt (village administrator) at Haltauf in Trebnitz County at that time. The position of Vogt may have been a hired position to oversee the farming activities for the owner of the village properties. See the Village of Haltauf in Trebnitz County: Family of the Vogt Gottfried Sternitzke, 1880 to 1882 Haltauf.

This discussion below outlines the events and locations of the two Sernitzke families, concentrating on the intersections of their lives. The details of events are found in other discussions in this book, as noted below. With the exception of the later events in Breslau, all of these events took place within five miles from the city of Trebnitz. See the map below. Many of the records were from the Protestant Church at Massel. See Chapter 2, the Village of Massel in Trebnitz County: Massel Church Book Records.

1866, Jeschütz and Massel

Gottfried Sternitzke and Johann Josef Sternitzke both lived at Jeschütz in 1866.

Gottfried's son, Heinrich Adolf Sternitzke was born at Jeschütz on the 4th of February in 1866. He was baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 18th of February in 1866. Gottfried Sternitzke was employed as a Knecht (farmhand) at Jeschütz. Josef Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for the child.

1868 Kloch-Ellguth and Massel

Gottfried Sternitzke was employed as a Knecht (farm laborer) at Kloch-Ellguth in 1868. A son of Gottfried Sternitzke was born at Kloch-Ellguth and baptized at Massel. Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Kloch-Ellguth on the 26th of April in 1868. The child was baptized at Massel on the 3rd of May in 1868. See Chapter 2, the Village of Massel in Trebnitz County: Massel Church Book Records. See the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Caroline (née Pohl) Sternitzke, 1868 to 1874 Kloch-Ellguth, 1882 Haltauf.

1871 & 1872 Trebnitz

Johann Josef Sternitzke lived at Trebnitz in 1871 and 1872. Two daughters of Johann Josef Sternitzke were born at the city of Trebnitz. Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke was born on the 9th of February in 1871. Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke was born on the 18th of December in 1872. See Chapter 2, City of Trebnitz: the Family of Johann Josef Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke, 1871 & 1872 City of Trebnitz.

1872, 1873 & 1874 Kloch-Ellguth, Massel and Trebnitz

Gottfried Sternitzke lived at Kloch-Ellguth. Johann Josef Sternitzke lived at Trebnitz. Two children of Gottfried Sternitzke were born at Kloch-Ellguth and baptized at Massel. Frau Sternitzke from Trebnitz was one of the godparents for both of Gottfried's children. Frau Sternitzke was probably Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke, the wife of Johann Josef Sternitzke.

Joseph Gottlieb Hermann Sternitzke was born on the 22nd of February in 1872 and baptized on the 1st of March in 1872 at the Protestant Church in Massel. He died on the 9th of September in 1872.

Anna Auguste Pauline Sternitzke was born on the 12th of June in 1874 at Kloch-Ellguth. She was baptized on the 15th of June in 1874 at the Protestant Church in Massel.

1874 Kobelwitz

Johann Josef Sternitzke lived at Kobelwitz in 1874. A daughter of Johann Josef Sternitzke was born at Kobelwitz. Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke was born on the 14th of December in 1874. See Chapter 1, City of Breslau: See the Marriage and Death of Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke, 1898 and 1931 City of Breslau.

1886 Kloch-Ellguth and Massel

Johann Josef Sternitzke was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) in Kloch-Ellguth. A daughter of Johann Josef Sternitzke was confirmed at Massel. Anna Auguste Pauline Sternitzke was confirmed at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 26th of September in 1886. Her confirmation record show that her mother died before the confirmation. Her father, Joseph Sternitzke was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) at Ellgut (Kloch-Ellguth). See Chapter 2, the Village of Massel in Trebnitz County: Massel Church Book Records.

1888 Kloch-Ellguth, Massel and Breslau

Johann Josef Sternitzke was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) in Kloch-Ellguth. A daughter of Johann Josef Sternitzke was confirmed at Massel. Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke was confirmed at the Protestant Church at Massel on 23rd of September 1888. Her confirmation record shows that her father Joseph Sternitzke was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) at Ellgut (Kloch Ellguth) at the time of her confirmation.

A grandson of Johann Josef Sternitzke was born and baptized in Breslau. Karl Paul Fritz Sternitzke, the son of Bertha Ernestine Emilie Sternitzke, was born in Breslau on the 24th of January in 1888. He was baptized in Breslau as Fritz Carl Paul Sternitzke on the 29th of January in 1888. See the Birth, Family and Death of Bertha Ernestine Emilie Sternitzke, 1867 to 1881 Massel, 1888 to 1932 Breslau.

Johann Josef Sternitzke was an Arbeiter (laborer) in Breslau. A grandson of Johann Josef Sternitzke was born and baptized in Breslau.

Richard Carl Sternitzke, the son of Bertha Ernestine Emilie Sternitzke, was born in Breslau on the 28th of December in 1891. He was baptized in Breslau on the 17th of January in 1892. See the Birth, Family and Death of Bertha Ernestine Emilie Sternitzke, 1867 to 1881 Massel, 1888 to 1932 Breslau.

1893 Breslau

He was listed on the civil marriage record as the 47-years-old Arbeiter (laborer) who lived at Enderstraße 7. Josef's wife died at Kloch-Ellguth before the wedding of their daughter in 1893. See the Marriage and Family of Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke, 27 July 1893 to 1944 City of Breslau.

1895 Breslau

Johann Josef Sternitzke was an Arbeiter (laborer) in Breslau. A daughter of Johann Josef Sternitzke was married at Breslau. Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke married Karl Friedrich August Paul on the 17th of October in 1895 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Josef Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding. He was listed on the civil marriage record as the 49 years old Arbeiter who lived at Bismarkstraße 2 (the same address listed for the bride on the church marriage record. The civil marriage record shows the bride's mother had died at Kloch-Ellguth before the 1895 wedding. See Chapter 1: the Marriage of Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke, October 1895 City of Breslau.

1897 Breslau

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Joseph Sternitzke as a resident who lived at Bismarckstraße 2 Keller (cellar, now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, one block from the main road to Trebnitz on Breslau's north side).

1898 Breslau

Johann Josef Sternitzke was an Arbeiter (laborer) in Breslau. A daughter of Johann Josef Sternitzke was married at Breslau. Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke married Paul August Neumann at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau the 13th of January in 1898. The witness Josef Sternitzke was listed as a 52 years old Arbeiter living in Breslau at Bismarckstraße 2. See Chapter 1: the Marriage and Death of Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke, 1898 and 1931 City of Breslau.

1902 Breslau Oswitz

The Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Sternitzke was buried at the St. Boniface municipal cemetery in the Oswitz suburb of Breslau. He was buried on the 10th of July in 1902, at grave number 5023 in line 125. He was 56 years old, so he was born around 1846. See Chapter 1, Village of Oswitz in Breslau County: the Burial of Josef Sternitzke, 1902 Oswitz.

1903 Breslau

A son of Johann Josef Sternitzke was married at Breslau. Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Bismarckstraße 2. He married Meta Hedwig Bulitz on the 24th of April in 1903. Both of Paul's parents had died before 1903. See the Chapter 1: Marriage and Family of Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke, 1903 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Village of Kampern in Trebnitz County

The village named Kampern was 8 miles southeast of the city of Trebnitz. The Catholic and Protestant residents of Kampern attended church at Lossen (2 miles west of Kampern). Kampern was known as Camperow in 1373. The population of Kampern was 183 in 1939. Kampern is now named Keřpa, Poland.

Birth and Baptism of Johanne Caroline Zimmer 1831 Kapatschütz and Prausnitz

Johanne Caroline Zimmer was born at on the 26th of October in 1831. She was the daughter of the Vogt (village administrator) Johann Zimmer and Johanne Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Zimmer. Dorothea Sternitzke, the daughter of Christian Sternitzke, married Johann Zimmer, the son of George Zimmer, in 1820 at the Protestant Church in the city of Trebnitz. See Chapter 2: Protestant Church Marriages, 1796 to 1827 City of Trebnitz.

Johanne Caroline was baptized at the Evangelical Church at Prausnitz on the 27th of October in 1831. Her baptismal sponsors were: the Kunstgärtners Frau (wife of a nurseryman) Caroline Gerlich from Kapatschütz (see note below); the Hebamme (midwife) Anna Rosina Kimmel from Kapatschütz; and the Protestant Church Glöckner Carl Baumann from Prausnitz.

See the 1836 birth of Johann Carl Heinrich Zimmer at Guhlau, son of Johann Zimmer and Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Zimmer.

Note: the Meine-Ahnen.eu database listed Kapatschütz as Kapelschütz. A search of the Internet and Knie's Silesian geography book did not identify a village named Kapelschütz.

Birth of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke 1832 or 1833 Karoschke in Trebnitz County

Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Karoschke around the 16th of March in 1832. That date was based on his age (66 years and 2 months old) when he died in Breslau, on the 16th of May in 1898. His death record was completed by Wilhelm's daughter Minna (née Sternitzke) May and Wilhelm's second wife Johanna (née Cholewa) Sternitzke. They did not remember any details about Wilhelm's parents other than that his father was the deceased Häusler (agricultural day laborer) Mr. Sternitzke. The 1858 record of Wilhelm's first marriage identified his father as the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Friedrich Sternitzke who was living in 1858 at Bruschwitz in Trebnitz County.

The 1832 calculated year of birth is not consistent with the ages of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke as listed on the records of his first and second marriages. He was 24 years old when he married Johanna Spiller on the 25th of January in 1858, which means he was 25 years old in March of 1858 and born in 1833. He was 34 years old when he married Johanna Cholewa on the 1st of July in 1867, so he was born in 1833. The two marriage records were based on information from the groom, so they are probably correct.

Birth and Death of Karl Pittwohn 1856 Katholisch Hammer and 1904 Breslau

Karl Pittwohn was born at Katholisch Hammer around the 2nd of March in 1856. That date is based on his age when he died in 1904 (see below). He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Pittwohn and his wife Helene (née Sternitzke) Pittwohn who both died at the village Dürrgoy in Breslau County before their son. Dürrgoy was renamed as Tarnogaj in 1945. It is now a southeastern suburb of Wrocław, about two miles from the old city walls.

Helene (née Sternitzke) Pittwohn was probably a sister of Anna Sternitzke, and a daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Friedrich Sternitzke from Katholisch Hammer. Anna Sternitzke, the 4th daughter Friedrich Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Helene's son Hermann Friedrich Pittwohn in 1869. See the discussion below regarding the Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke and Franz Junke, 1871 City of Breslau and Katholisch Hammer.

Karl Pittwohn and Helene (née Sternitzki) Pittwohn were living at Gräbschen in 1859, where their daughter Anna Rosina Dorothea Pittwohn was born. Gräbschen was a village about two miles southwest of the old city walls of Breslau. Anna Pittwohn married the Steindruker (lithographer) Karl Hübner. See Chapter 1, the Village of Gräbschen in Breslau County: the Birth and Death of Anna (née Pittwohn) Hübner, 1859 Gräbschen and 1900 Breslau.

The Arbeiter Carl and Helene (née Sternitzke) Pittwohn later lived at Dürrgoy where their other children were born: Friedrich Wilhelm Pittwohn was born in 1863, Ernst Paul Pittwohn was born in 1865, and Carl Heinrich Pittwohn was born in 1866 and Hermann Friedrich Pittwohn in 1869. See Chapter 1, The Village of Dürrgoy in Breslau County; the Family of Helene (née Sternitzke) Pittwohn, 1863 to 1869 Dürrgoy.

In 1904, Karl Pittwohn (the son) was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) in Breslau, and lived at Tauentzienstraße 37a (2 blocks northwest of the main train station, now Kościuszki Street). He was married to Rosina (née Fischer) Pittwohn. Karl Pittwohn died at the Krankenhospital zu Allerheiligen on the 2nd of July in 1904, at the age of 48 years and 4 months.

Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke and Franz Junke 1871 City of Breslau and Katholisch Hammer

Baptismal Sponsor Anna Sternitzke, 1869 Breslau

Anna Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for Hermann Friedrich Pittwohn on the 29th of August in 1869 at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. Anna Sternitzke was described on the baptism record as the 4th daughter of the late Friedrich Sternitzke who was a Stellenbesitzer (property owner) in Katholisch Hammer in Trebnitz County. See Chapter 1, The Village of Dürrgoy in Breslau County; the Family of Helene (née Sternitzke) Pittwohn, 1863 to 1869 Dürrgoy.

Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke, 1871 Breslau

According to her 1871 marriage record Anna Rosina Sternitzke was the surviving daughter of the late Häusler (agricultural day laborer) Friedrich Sternitzke in Katholisch Hammer, in Trebnitz County. In 1871, Anna Rosina Sternitzke she was 32 years old, so she was born around 1839. She had never been married before 1871. Anna Rosina Sternitzke married the Tischlermeister und Wittwer (master carpenter and widower) Franz Junke, at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 1st of May in 1871. He was 45 ¼ years old and was from the village Canth in Breslau County (about 14 miles southwest of Breslau). Canth was written as Kanth from 1930 to 1945. It is now named Kały Wrocławskie, Poland. Franz August Junke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke may have moved to Berlin after their 1871 marriage at Breslau. See Chapter 1, the City of Breslau: the Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke and Franz Junke, 1871 City of Breslau and Katholisch Hammer.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Pauline Luise (née Sternitzke) Bartsch 1865 Deutsch Hammer, 1887 Katholisch Hammer, 1939 Breslau

Pauline Luise Sternitzke was born at Deutsch Hammer (in Trebnitz County) on the 30th of July in 1865. She married August Bartsch at Katholisch Hammer on the 7th of August in 1887. Their marriage was recorded at the Katholisch Hammer Standesamt (record number 5 in 1887).

The Landarbeiter (farmhand) August Bartsch died before his wife's death. Pauline Luise (née Sternitzke) Bartsch died at Breslau on the 30th of December in 1939. Her death record identified her as a Protestant and a Sozialrentnerin (pensioner). She died at home at Klosterstraße 62 (southeast of the old city walls, now Romualda Traugutta Street). Her death record listed the causes of her death as Arteriosklerose, Herzmuskelentzündung, Gehirnschlag und Lungenentzündung (arteriosclerosis, cardiac inflammation, brain stroke and pneumonia).

Pauline's death record was signed by the Aufwärterin Berta Bartsch, who also lived at Klosterstraße 62. Berta may have been Pauline's daughter. An Aufwärterin in the modern sense of the word is a waitress. The word used to mean a woman who looked after the tenants and the building as an intermediary between the tenants and the owner of the building, in exchange for reduced rent.

Circa Gen.XIc. Johanna Elisabeth Schubert (1877-unknown).

Birth of Maria Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1814

Maria Elisabeth Sternitzke was born at Kawallen around 1814. She was the daughter of the Kawallen Dreschgärtner George Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Müller) Sternitzke. George and Susanna Sternitzke died at Kawallen before 1880. Elisabeth was a Protestant.

Marriage and Family of Maria Elisabeth Sternitzke, Daughters Johanna Rosina Schubert and Anna Juliane Schubert

Maria Elisabeth Sternitzke married Johann Gottlieb Schubert around 1850. Their daughter, Johanna Rosina Schubert was born at Kawallen on the 24th of January in 1851. Their second daughter Anna Juliane Schubert may have been born later at Kawallen.

Children of Anna Juliane Schubert, 1875 & 1877

Anna Juliane Schubert had two daughters out of wedlock. Her first daughter, Anna Johanne Schubert was born on the 16th of December in 1875 at the Rittergut (knightly estate) in Maltshawe. Anna Juliane Schubert was a Dienstmädchen (servant girl) at the estate. The baby's grandmother, the Tagelöhnersfrau (wife of a day laborer) Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert signed the birth record with 3 crosses.

The second daughter of the Tagarbeiterin (day laborer) Anna Juliane Schubert was born on the 5th of November in 1877. Johanna Elisabeth Schubert was born at Kawallen, in the home of her grandmother. Her grandmother the Tagarbeiterin (day laborer) Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert signed the birth record with 3 crosses.

First Marriage of Johanna Rosina Schubert, 1880

Death of Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert, 1880

The Tagarbeiterin (day laborer) and widow Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert died at Kawallen on the 10th of February in 1880 at the age of 66 years old. Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert was the widow of Gottlieb Schubert, who previously died at Kawallen. The death record of Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert was signed at Schweretau by Elisabeth's daughter, Johanna (née Schubert) Ludwig.

Second Marriage of Johanna Rosina (née Schubert) Ludwig, 1882

The widow and Arbeiterin (laborer) Johanna Rosina (née Schubert) Ludwig married a second time in 1882. She married the Arbeiter Friedrich Wilhelm Matzke on the 19th of February in 1882, at Schweretau in Trebnitz County. They were both Protestants. The marriage record was the source of the full names of Johanna's deceased parents: Johann Gottlieb Schubert and Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert.

Friedrich Wilhelm Matzke was born at Trebnitz on the 1st of March in 1852. He was living at Schweretau in Trebnitz County in 1882. He was the son of the Freigärtner Gottlieb Matzke (who died before the 1882 wedding) and Johanna Elisabeth (née Viertel) Matzke, who was still living at Schweretau at the time of the wedding.

The wedding witnesses were the 65 years old Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Gottlieb Sternitzke who lived at Kawallen, and the 31 years old Schlosser (mechanic) Julius Matzke who lived at Görlitz. Below are the signatures from the marriage record.

The signature of Gottlieb Sternitzke and his age in 1882, leads me to believe this witness, the Freistellenbesitzer Gottlieb Sternitzke was the Kawallen Freigärtner Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke who signed the death record of his son Karl Herrmann Sternitzke in 1876 (see below).

Friedrich Wilhelm Matzke and Johanna Rosina (née Schubert) Matzke had a son who was born around the 21st of June in 1892. Carl Adolf Matzke died at Kawallen on the 21st of August in 1892 at the age of 2 months old. The baby's father, the Futtersmann (cattle feed merchant) Wilhelm Matzke signed the death record.

Death of Johanna Rosina (née Schubert) Matzke, 1911

The Futtersmann (cattle feed dealer) Wilhelm Matzke reported the death of his wife Johanna (née Schubert) Matzke. She was 60 years old when she died at home in Kawallen on the 20th of December in 1911. She was a Protestant. The death record showed that Johanna was the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gottlieb Schubert and his wife Rosina (née Sternitzke) Schubert. Perhaps Maria Elisabeth Sternitzke had another middle name (Rosina).

Gen.VIII. Johann Sternitzke (c. 1785-after 1858, SN316), married Marie Elisabeth Drechsler (Dreßler).

Gen.Xa. Ernst Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (c.1844-1886), married Marie Charlotte Elisabeth Davids.

Gen.Xb. Anna Rosina Sternitzke (1845-1913), married Johann Gottfried Raacke.

Gen.Xc. Karl Herrmann Sternitzke (1850-1876).

Birth of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1815

Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke (1815-1896) was born at Briesche in 1815. He was the son of the Bauer (farmer) Johann Sternitzke (SN316) and Marie Elisabet (née Drechsler or Dreßler) Sternitzke from Schlenz, in Militsch County. Based on his signatures and his ages when he was a wedding witness in 1874 (see below) and in 1882 (see above), Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke was born between the 19th of February and the 27th of December in 1815. He and was a direct descendant of Blasius Sternitzke (who was born about 1544 at Zantkau): Blasius-Gregor-Johann-Adam-Mattes-Anton- Johann-Johann Gottlieb. See Chapter 15 Briesche, the Sternitzke Family Personal Data for Briesche, the Family of Johann Sternitzke (c.1785-after 1858, SN316).

Baptismal sponsor Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1844

The Dreschgärtner Gottlieb Sternitzke from Kawallen was one of the sponsors at the baptism of Johanna Christiane Schubert at the Protestant Church in Massel in 1844. Johanna Christiane Schubert was born at Zirkwitz on the 9th of March in 1844 and baptized at Massel on the 15th of March in 1844. She was the second child of the Schäferknecht (shepherd servant) Gottlieb Schubert and his wife Maria Rosina (née Sternitzke) Schubert.

Gottlieb Schubert was probably the brother of Johanna Elisabeth Schubert (the wife of Gottlieb Sternitzke).

The other baptismal sponsors were: the Dreschgärtner Rosina Kaschel from Kawallen, the Jungfer (maiden) Susanna Gottwald from Mienitz (also known as Mühnitz) and the Freigärtner Elisabeth Mausch from Karauschky.

Marriage and Children of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke and Johanna Elisabeth (née Schubert) Sternitzke

Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke (1815-1896) became a Freigärtner at Kawallen. He married Johanna Elisabeth Schubert around 1840. Elisabeth was born around 1820. They had three known children: Ernst Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (c.1844-1886), Anna Rosina Sternitzke (1845-1913) and Karl Herrmann Sternitzke (1850-1876).

Birth and Death of son Ernst Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (c.1844-1886)

Ernst Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Kawallen around 1844 (based on his age when he died). His death record listed him as the son of the Landwirt (farmer) Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke and Elisabeth Schubert. He was a Protestant.

Ernst Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke married Marie Charlotte Elisabeth Davids, who was born on the 20th of October in 1840 at Perleberg in Westpriegnitz County, in Brandenburg, Prussia. She was the daughter of Schneidermeister (master tailor) Friedrich Davids and Dorothee Friederike Elisabeth (née Meyer) Davids. After the death of her husband in 1886, Marie married Karl Kube at Berlin on the 29th of April in 1890. Karl Kube was born on the 12th of September in 1835. Karl and Marie Kube lived in Berlin at Kielerstraße 19 after their marriage.

Ernst Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was employed as a Tischler (carpenter) in Berlin. Prior to his death, he lived with his wife at Schillingstraße 4. He died at Berlin on the 25th of January in 1866, at the age of 42 years old.

Birth of daughter Anna Rosina Sternitzke, 1845

Anna Rosina Sternitzke was born at Kawallen on the 25th of August in 1845. She was baptized a Protestant on the 3rd of September in 1845 at Lindenwaldau in Trebnitz County. Anna's father was Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke, who was born at Briesche in 1815. Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke was a Freigärtner at Kawallen. Anna's mother was Johanna Elisabeth (Schubert) Sternitzke, who was born in 1814 at Kawallen, and was listed as Johanne Sternitzke, an Auszüglerin (retired farmer) in the 1901 census for Kawallen.

Marriage and Family of Anna Rosina Sternitzke

Anna Rosina Sternitzke married the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Johann Gottfried Raake on the 13th of June in 1869 at Trebnitz in Trebnitz County. Gottfried's surname was sometimes written as Raacke. Johann Gottfried Raake was born at Schweretau (a farmstead about 4 miles west of Trebnitz) on the 15th of April in 1840. He was the son of Gottlieb Raacke (1800-1878) and Elisabeth (née Bannert) Raacke. Johann Gottfried Raake and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Raake were the great-great-grandparents of Wilfried Hübner.

Johann Gottfried Raacke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Raake had seven known children:

- Anna Rosina Pauline Raake was born on the 28th of April in 1875 at Klein Märtenau. She died at Maltschawe on the 17th of September in 1876 at the age of 1 year and 5 months old. She was a Protestant. Gottfried Raacke was a Lohngärtner at Maltschawe in 1876. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden.

- Johann Gottfried Raacke was born at Schweretau in Trebnitz County on the 12th of October in 1877. He died at Schweretau on the 3rd of April in 1881, at the age of 3 years and 6 months old. His father was the Inwohner und Tagarbeiter (resident and day laborer) Gottfried Raacke at Schweretau.
- Auguste Martha Raacke was a twin born on the 25th of February in 1882 at Schweretau. She died on the 10th of September in 1964 at Goddelau, Riedstadt, Hessen, Germany. Her father was the Inwohner und Tagarbeiter (resident and day laborer) Johann Gottfried Raacke at Schweretau. She married Johann Hermann Hübner on the 16th of September in 1906 at Kawallen. Johann Hermann Hübner was born on the 11th of January in 1879 at Kawallen. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Johann Franz Hübner (1839-1935) and Johanna Christiane (née Tietze) Hübner (1845-1925).
- Ernst Wilhelm Raacke was born on the 25th of February in 1882 at Schweretau. He died on the 17th of July in 1882 at Schweretau at the age of 5 months old. His father was the Inwohner und Tagarbeiter (resident and day laborer) Johann Gottfried Raacke at Schweretau.
- Anna Pauline Raacke was born on the 13th of April in 1885 at Schweretau. She died on the 24th of July in 1890 at Schweretau. Her father was the Inwohner und Tagarbeiter (resident and day laborer) Johann Gottfried Raacke at Schweretau.
- Carl Gustav Raacke was born on the 24th of November in 1887 at Schweretau. He died on the 12th of February in 1888 at Schweretau, at the age of 3 months old. His father was the Inwohner und Tagarbeiter (resident and day laborer) Johann Gottfried Raacke at Schweretau.
- Elisabeth Raacke married August Koschmieder.

Deaths of Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Raacke and Johann Gottfried Raacke

The Auszüglerin (retired farmer) Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Raacke from Kawallen died at the age of 67 years and 3 months old, on the 3rd of May in 1913. She died at home in Kawallen in Trebnitz County. She was a Protestant. Her death record was signed by her son-in-law the Kawallen Freistellenbesitzer Hermann Hübner II (Johann Hermann Hübner). The death record was recorded at Droschen and filed at the Kawallen Standesamt (registry office). The death record listed the parents of Rosina (née Sternitzke) Raacke as the deceased Häusler Gottlieb Sternitzke and his deceased wife Elisabeth (née Schubert) Sternitzke, who last resided at Kawallen.

Johann Gottfried Raacke died on the 29th of June in 1913 at Kummernigk in Trebnitz County.

Birth and Death of son Karl Herrmann Sternitzke (1850-1876) Kawallen

Karl Herrmann Sternitzke was born at Kawallen on the 5th of November in 1850. He was the son of Freigutbesitzer Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke and Johanna Elisabeth (née Schubert) Sternitzke.

The Haushälter (janitor) Karl Herrmann Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Schuhbrücke 81 (1 block southeast from the Ring, now Szewska Street), but he died at his father's home at Kawallen on the 5th of June in 1876. His father, the Kawallen Freigärtner Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke signed the death record as Gottlieb Sternitzke:

The Freigärtner (free owner of a house and garden) Gottlieb Sternitzke from Kawallen was one of the sponsors at the baptism of Caroline Dorothea Stache, on the 31st of October in 1852 at the Protestant Church at Massel. Caroline Dorothea Stache was born at Ellguth on the 22nd of October in 1852. She was the 3rd child of the Schäferknecht (shepherd servant) Gottlieb Stache and his wife Anna Rosina (née Machnitzke) Stache.

The other baptismal sponsors were: the Magd (maid) Anna Rosina Stache from Brockotschine, Anna Rosina Stache a resident of Riesenthal and the Knecht (farm servant) Johann Hobitz from Groß Komrawe (Kommerowe). The village Riesenthal was near Kapsdorf, between Trebnitz and Breslau.

Wedding Witness Gottlieb Sternitzke

1874 Kawallen and Maltschawe

The Freigärtner (free owner of a house and garden) Gottlieb Sternitzke was 58 years old (born circa 1816) and he was a resident of Kawallen in 1874. He was one of the witnesses at the marriage of Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Kieter and Pauline Juliane Adelgunde Flöter. The marriage was on the 27th of December 1874 at Maltschawe. Gottlieb's signature from the marriage record was:

1874

The Freistellenpächter (a tenant of a property) Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Kieter was a Protestant. In 1874, he was 32 years old and lived at Kawallen in Trebnitz County. He was born at Zirkwitz in Trebnitz County, the son of the Einwohner (resident) Karl Kieter and his wife Elisabeth (née Eichelmann) Kieter.

Pauline Juliane Adelgunde Flöter was a Protestant. In 1874, she was 25 years old and lived at Cawallen. She was born at Cawallen, the daughter of the deceased Freigärtner (free owner of a house and garden) Ernst Flöter and his deceased wife Rosina (née Nitschke) Flöter.

The other wedding witness was the Schäfer (shepherd) Ernst Kluge. He was 39 years old and a resident of Maltschawe.

Wedding Witness Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1882

The widow and Arbeiterin (laborer) Johanna Rosina (née Schubert) Ludwig married a second time in 1882. She married the Arbeiter Friedrich Wilhelm Matzke on the 19th of February in 1882, at Schweretau in Trebnitz County. They were both Protestants. The marriage record was the source of the full names of Johanna's deceased parents: Johann Gottlieb Schubert and Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert.

The wedding witnesses were the 65 years old Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Gottlieb Sternitzke who lived at Kawallen, and the 31 years old Schlosser (mechanic) Julius Matzke who lived at Görlitz. Below are the signatures from the marriage record.

The signature of Gottlieb Sternitzke and his age in 1882, leads me to believe this witness, the Freistellenbesitzer Gottlieb Sternitzke was the Kawallen Freigärtner Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke who signed the death record of his son Karl Herrmann Sternitzke in 1876. See the above discussion: the Family of Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schubert, c.1814-1880 Kawallen.

Village of Klein Schweinern in Trebnitz County

The village of Klein Schweinern was about ½ mile east of Massel. The houses there are now in rural Masłów.

1890 map showing Massel and Klein Schweinern.

Baptismal Sponsors David and Elisabeth Sternitzke 1857 to 1862 Klein Schweinern

The 1843 to 1862 baptism record book for the Protestant Church at Massel listed five baptisms where the baptismal sponsors were identified as the Knecht (farm servant, farmhand) David Sternitzke or the Knechtin (wife of a farmhand) Elisabeth Sternitzke from Klein Schweinern. In one of those records (from 1861) they were identified as husband and wife. This was probably the same married couple as the Knecht David Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Spohr) Sternitzke who previously lived at Massel from 1847 to 1856. See the discussion regarding them in the section for the village Massel: David and Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1847 to 1856 Massel.

Baptism of Johanna Dorothea Bartsch, 1857

Johanna Dorothea Bartsch was born at Massel on the 3rd of December in 1857, and she was baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 13th of December in 1857. She was the 4th child from the first marriage of the Knecht (farm servant) Carl Bartsch and his wife Elisabeth (née Kasper) Bartsch. The baptismal sponsors were: the Jungfer (maiden) Elisabeth Schlange from Massel, the Knechtin (wife of a farm servant) Elisabeth Sternitzke from Klein Schweinern and the Herrschaftliche Kutscher (coachman for a noble family) Gottlieb Kasper from Massel.

Baptism of Carl Friedrich Wilhelm Bartsch, 1859

Carl Friedrich Wilhelm Bartsch was born at Massel on the 16th of December in 1859, and baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 26th of December in 1859. He was the son of the Knecht (farm servant) Carl Bartsch and his wife Elisabeth (née Kasper) Bartsch. The baptismal sponsors were: the Freigärtner's son Carl Kasper from Klein Schweinern, the Knechtin (wife of a farm servant) Elisabeth Sternitzke from Klein Schweinern and the Knechtin Johanna Schlinsog from Klein Schweinern. A note on his baptismal record shows Carl Friedrich Wilhelm Bartsch died on the 25th of December in 1864.

Baptism of Carl August Prowatschke, 1860

Carl August Prowatschke was born at Klein Schweinern on the 18th of September in 1860, and baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 23rd of September in 1860. He was the second child from the first marriage of the Knecht (farm servant) Johann Prowatschke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Hein) Prowatschke. The baptismal sponsors were: the Einwohner (resident) Carl Hubrig from Lahse, the Magd (maid) Dorothea Hein from Kobelwitz and the Knechtin (wife of a farm servant) Elisabeth Sternitzken from Klein Schweinern. A note on his baptismal record shows Carl August Prowatschke died on the 17th of December in 1860.

Baptism of Carl Gottlieb Christian Prowatschke, 1861

Carl Gottlieb Christian Prowatschke was born at Klein Schweinern on the 25th of December in 1861, and baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 29th of December in 1861. He was the third child from the first marriage of the Knecht (farm servant) Johann Prowatschke and his wife Johanna Elisabeth (née Hein) Prowatschke. Note the difference in the mothers' names listed in the 1860 and 1861 records. The baptismal sponsors were: the Magd (maid) Dorothea Hein from Groß Totschen, the Knecht David Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth Sternitzke from Klein Schweinern.

Baptism of Carl Friedrich August Bartsch, 1862

Carl Friedrich August Bartsch was born at Massel on the 13th of February in 1862, and baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 23rd of February in 1862. He was the sixth child from the first marriage of the Knecht (farm servant) Carl Bartsch and his wife Elisabeth (née Kasper) Bartsch. The baptismal sponsors were: the Magd (maid) Johanna Dorothea Schlinsog from Massel, the Knechtin (wife of a farm servant) Elisabeth Sternitzke from Klein Schweinern, and the Staller Carl Kasper from Massel. A note on his baptismal record shows Carl Friedrich August Bartsch died on the 16th of June in 1876.

Carl Kasper's Staller occupation was described by August Meitzen as a Knecht bei herrschaftliche Pferden, another word for a Gesind. That roughly means an agricultural servant who took care of the horses for a noble family.

Birth and baptism of Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzke.

Family of Anna Susanna (née Sternitzke) Hobitz 1852 to 1861 Kloch-Ellguth

Anna Susanna Sternitzke married the Freigärtner Gottlieb Hobitz around 1851. She was his third wife. Her maiden name was often written as Sternitzken (the female version of Sternitzke) in the Massel church records. The baptismal record book for the Protestant Church at Massel shows the first marriage of Gottlieb Hobitz was to Caroline Tielsch from around 1842 to around 1848. His second marriage was to Anna Rosine Ogroske from around 1848 to around 1850.

First marriage: Dreschgärtner Gottlieb Hobitz and Caroline Tielsch
4 Children:

- Carl Friedrich Wilhelm Hobitz born on the 10th of May in 1843 at Ellguth.
- Carl August Hobitz born on the 10th of August in 1844 at Ellguth.
- Johann Heinrich Gottlieb Hobitz born in 1845 at Ellguth.
- Johanna Wilhelmine Christiane Hobitz born in 1846 at Ellguth.

Second marriage: Freigärtner Gottlieb Hobitz and Anna Rosina Ogroske
1 Child:

- Johanna Elisabeth Hobitz born in 1849 at Ellguth.

Third marriage: Freigärtner Gottlieb Hobitz and Anna Susanna Sternitzke
6 Children:

- Stillborn son Hobitz in 1852 at Ellguth.
- Maria Elisabeth Hobitz in 1853 at Ellguth.
- Johann Gottlieb Hobitz in 1855 at Ellguth.
- Ernst Wilhelm Hobitz in 1857 at Ellguth.
- Stillborn son Hobitz in 1859 at Ellguth.

- Anna Christiane Caroline Hobitz in 1861 at Ellguth.

The Freigärtner Gottlieb Hobitz and his wife Anna Susanna (née Sternitzke) Hobitz lived at Kloch-Ellguth. The baptism book for the Protestant Church at Massel shows that they had a stillborn son on the 9th of January in 1852. The unnamed son was the first child of Gottlieb and Anna Susanna Hobitz. The record shows that their marriage was the third marriage for Gottlieb Hobitz. Anna Susanna's maiden name was written in the church record as Sternitzken, the female version of Sternitzke.

Birth of daughter Maria Elisabeth Hobitz, 1853

Maria Elisabeth Hobitz was born at Ellguth on the 12th of July in 1853, and she was baptized at Massel on the 17th of July in 1853. She was the second child of the Freigärtner Gottlieb Hobitz and his wife Anna Susanna (née Sternitzke) Hobitz. The baptismal sponsors were: the Magd (maid) Johanna Dorothea Sinner from Schickwitz, the Angershäuslern Helena Ratsch from Deutsch Hammer and the Freigärtner Gottlieb Kobitzke from Ellguth.

Birth of son Johann Gottlieb Hobitz, 1855

Johann Gottlieb Hobitz was born at Ellguth on the 25th of February in 1855, and he was baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 4th of March in 1855. He was the third child of the Freigärtner Gottlieb Hobitz and his wife Susanna (née Sternitzken) Hobitz. The baptismal sponsors were: the Freigärtner Gottlieb Kobitzke from Ellguth, Christian Ratsch from Katholisch Hammer and the Magd (maid) Johanna Kapelle from Ellguth.

Birth and Death of son Ernst Wilhelm Hobitz, 1857

Ernst Wilhelm Hobitz was born at Ellguth on the 29th of May in 1857, and he was baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel. He was the 4th child of the third marriage of Gottlieb Hobitz and his wife Susanna (née Sternitzke) Hobitz. Susanna's maiden name was written as Sternitzken with the final n crossed out. The baptismal sponsors were: the Freigärtner Gottlieb Kobitzke from Ellguth, the Gartenknechtin Johanna Kapelle from Maßlich Hammer and the Angershäuslern Helena Ratsch from Deutschhammer. The baptismal record shows that Ernst Wilhelm Hobitz died on the 18th of September in 1857.

Stillborn son Hobitz, 1859

The baptism record book for the Protestant Church at Massel listed the 5th child from the marriage of the Ellguth Einwohner (resident) Gottlieb Hobitz and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzken) Hobitz. That child was a stillborn son, who died on the 28th of January in 1859. Note the name of Gottlieb's wife was listed differently in that record: Anna Rosina instead of Anna Susanna or Susanna. Sternitzken was a female variation of Sternitzke.

Death of Gottlieb Hobitz, November 1860 and the Birth of daughter Anna Christiane Caroline Hobitz, January 1861

Anna Christiane Caroline Hobitz was born at Ellguth on the 27th of February in 1861, and she was baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 1st of March in 1861. She was the 6th child of the deceased Freigärtner Gottlieb Hobitz and Susanna (née Sternitzken) Hobitz. Notes on the baptism record show that this was from the third marriage of Gottlieb Hobitz, and that Gottlieb Hobitz died on the 16th of November in 1860.

Johann Sternitzke and Christiane Sternitzke, *Freigärtner*s at Briesche, were two of the three baptismal sponsors for Anna Christiane Caroline Hobitz at the Protestant Church at Massel in 1861. They may have been husband and wife. Johann may have been the son of Johann Sternitzke (c.1785-after 1858, SN316) and Marie Elisabet (née Drechsler) Sternitzke. The third sponsor was the Freigärtner Gottlieb Kobitzke from Ellguth.

Birth and Death of Gottlieb Sternitzke 1816 Kobelwitz and 1896 City of Breslau

Gottlieb Sternitzke (junior, 1816-1896) was born around the 25th of January in 1816 at Kobelwitz. He died at Breslau on the 25th of February in 1896 at the age of 80 years and 1 month at the Breslau Armenhaus (poorhouse) located at Schuhbrücke 1 (3 blocks southeast from the Ring, now Szewskiej Street). The information on his death record was provided by the Armenhaus Inspector Haas.

Gottlieb Sternitzki (junior, 1816-1896) was the son of Gottlieb (senior) and Karoline Sternitzki. The family name was spelled Sternitzki on Gottlieb's the death record, but that was probably an error. It was spelled Sternitzke on the records associated with Gottlieb's children. Both of his parents died prior to the death of Gottlieb (junior) in 1896. His father died as a Stellenbesitzer (property owner) in Brietzen, in Trebnitz County. His mother died in America and her maiden name was not known. His father may have been Gottlieb Sternitzke (who was born around 1795), the son of Anton Sternitzke (1758-1808, SN16) at Briesche. See Book I, Chapter 15, Briesche, Sternitzke Family Personal Data for Briesche: Family of Anton Sternitzke (1758-1808, SN16).

Gottlieb Sternitzke (junior, 1816-1896) married Johanna Fischer around 1848. They lived at Brietzen where they had at least four children. See Book III: Chapter 2, the Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County, *Family of Gottlieb and Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke, 1851 to 1876 -Brietzen, 1884 to 1896 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of Elisabeth Sternitzke 1797 Koschnöwe, 1882 Pawellau

The deaths of Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Klake and her second husband Friedrich Klake (or Klacke) were reported by the same person. The transcriptions of their death records are reported here separately for comparison.

Death of Friedrich Klacke, 1875

Friedrich Klacke was born around 1803 at Klein Kommerowe. His father was the Häusler (house owner and day laborer) Gottfried Klacke from Klein Kommerowe. The name of Friedrich's mother was not known.

The Zimmermann (carpenter) Friedrich Klacke died at the age of 72 years old on the 5th of May in 1875. Friedrich Klacke was married to Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Klacke. Elisabeth was the widow of a Mr. Liebthal when she married Friedrich.

Gottlieb Opitz reported Friedrich's death and signed the death record. The Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gottlieb Opitz lived at Pawellau at house number 28, and he was the son-in-law of Friedrich Klacke.

Death of Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Klake, 1882

The widow Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Klake died at Pawellau on the 12th of April in 1882 at the age of 85 years old, so she was born around 1797. She was a Protestant. She died at an Armenhaus (poor house).

Elisabeth Sternitzke was born at Koschnöwe in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Marie Elisabeth (née Tiegau) Sternitzke. Friedrich Sternitzke and his family moved to Pawellau, where Elisabeth and here parents died.

Elisabeth Sternitzke married the Knecht (servant) Friedrich Liebtal. They were married for 47 years. After her first husband's death, Elisabeth married the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Friedrich Klake. Friedrich Klake and Elisabeth were married for 3 years before Friedrich's death in 1875. Birth and Marriage of Karl Friedrich Krause 1876 Kotzerke and 1907 City of Breslau

Karl Friedrich Krause was born at Kotzerke on the 25th of October in 1876. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Krause and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Krause, who were residents of Kotzerke. They were Protestants.

In 1907, Karl Friedrich Krause was a Restaurateur (restaurant owner) at Krotoschin (in Posen). On the 29th of May in 1907, Karl married Helena Ida Dittert in Breslau. Helena was a Catholic. She was born on the 31st of August in 1884 at Zirlau (now named Ciernie) in Schweidnitz County. She was the daughter of the Bahnhofwächter (trainstation guard) August Dittert and his wife Anna (née Poleschner) Dittert who lived in Breslau.

In 1907, Helena Ida Dittert was employed as a Köchin (cook) and living with her parents at Lehmgrubenstraße 95 (4 blocks southeast from the main trainstation, now Gliniana Street).

Witnesses at the wedding included the father of the bride August Dittert (who was 57 years old) and the 28 years old Müller (miller) Oskar Kothe. Oskar Kothe lived in the village Kriechen (7 miles east of Breslau, now named Krzykow) in Breslau County.

A handwritten note on the marriage record indicates the bride, Helena Ida (née Dittert) Krause, died in 1931, as was recorded on death record number 881 at Breslau Standes-Amt II.

Birth, Family and Marriage of Maria Emma Sternitzke 1888 Kotzerke, 1912 to 1915 City of Breslau

Maria Emma Sternitzke was born on the 11th of April in 1888 at Kotzerke in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Susanne (née Grebasch) Sternitzke.

Birth and Marriage of son Karl Max Sternitzke, 1912 & 1938

In 1912, the ledigen Plätterin (unmarried ironer) Maria Emma Sternitzke was a Catholic. She lived in Breslau at Friedrichstraße 48 (4 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Kolejowa Street). Her son Karl Max Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 31st of January in 1912. The birth record was completed by the director of the Provinzial-Hebammen-Lehr-Anstalt und Frauenklinik in Breslau (the Provincial School for Midwives and Women's Hospital). Reinhold Fritz Hippe legally acknowledged he was the father of Karl Max Sternitzke in a document at the Court of the 5th Army Corps dated the 3rd of June in 1915.

Marriage of Maria Emma Sternitzke, 1913

Notes on the birth record for her son Karl Max Sternitzke show that Maria Emma Sternitzke married the Breslau Kutscher (coachman) Reinhold Fritz Hippe on the 5th of February in 1913. He was also a Catholic. At the time of their marriage Reinhold was serving as a Grenadier in the 7th Kompagnie of the Grenadier Regiment Nr. 6.

The 1913 civil marriage record for Maria Emma Sternitzke shows that she was employed as a Plätterin (ironer) Maria Emma Sternitzke and she lived in Breslau at Messergasse 17 two blocks south of the University of Breslau (now Nożownicza Street). The Kutscher (coachman) Reinhold Fritz Hippe was also living at Messergasse 17 at the time of their marriage. Maria's father Wilhelm Sternitzke died at Trebnitz before the 1913 marriage. Maria's mother Susanne (née Grebasch) Sternitzke was still living in Trebnitz at the time of the wedding.

Reinhold Fritz Hippe was born on the 23rd of March in 1891 at Rosenthal in Breslau County. He was the son of the Arbeiter Karl Gottlieb Hippe and Pauline (née Beil) Hippe. Both of Reinhold's parents died at Breslau before their son's marriage in 1913.

The wedding witnesses were Karl Odoj and Robert Schindler. The Hausmeister Karl Odoj was 63 years old and lived in Breslau at Malergasse 25. The Kutscher Robert Schindler was 34 years old and lived in Breslau at Neumarkt 12.

Erbliche Freigärtner Johann Starnitzke
 Circa 1816 Langenau, 1840 & 1844 Breslau

Marriage of Barbara Helene Starnitzke, 1840 Breslau

Barbara Helene Starnitzke married Carl Rösler on the 13th of September in 1840 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Barbara Helene Starnitzke was 24 years old at the time of her wedding, so she was born around 1816. She was the daughter of Johann Starnitzke who was described on the marriage record as the weiland (late) and gewesene (former) Erbliche Freigärtner (hereditary free owner of a house and garden) at Langenau. There were at least four villages named Langenau at that time. The closest (and most likely) was the village Langenau located six miles north of Breslau, in Trebnitz County. See Book III, Chapter 1, City of Breslau: Marriage and Family of Anna Barbara Helene (née Starnitzke/Starnitzkö/Sternitzke) Rösler, 1840 to 1853 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Anna Rosine Sternitzke, 1844 Breslau

Anna Rosine Sternitzke married Joseph Kindscher at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of November in 1844. The church record shows she was the second daughter of Johann Sternitzke. He was described on the 1844 marriage record as the weiland (late) and gewesene (former) Erbliche Freigärtner (hereditary free owner of a house and garden) at Langenau. That was the same description listed for the father of Barbara Helene Starnitzke on her 1840 marriage to Carl Rösler.

Village of Massel in Trebnitz County

Massel was three miles northeast of the city of Trebnitz. Massel had a population of 401 in 1939, and is now known as Masłów. The church at Massel was first mentioned in 1592. It was associated with the church at Trachenberg.

In January of 2011, Frau Margarete (née Runge) Reiter of Bremen reported (by email) that the Massel church books were stored at the Peace Church at Schweidnitz but were being moved to the National Archives in Breslau. Additional transcriptions from the Peace Church at Schweidnitz were reported by email in 2015. The following information was transcribed from the Massel church books by Margarete (née Runge) Reiter and Manfred Gotsch. Herr Gotsch reported that the baptism records for 1807 to 1823 are missing at Schweidnitz. See the additional birth and Massel baptism events recorded under the villages of the children's birth: Janischguth, Jeschütz, Kloch-Ellguth, Maßlich Hammer, Ströhof and Werndorf. In some cases the mother's maiden name was recorded as Sternitzken, which was a female version of the Sternitzke name.

David and Elisabeth Sternitzke
1847 to 1856 Massel

David Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Spohr) Sternitzke lived at Massel from 1847 to 1856. David Sternitzke was employed as a Knecht (a farmhand). They were baptismal sponsors for many children at the Protestant Church at Massel during the years they lived at Massel, and during the years they lived about ½ mile to the east at the village of Klein Schweinern. See the discussion regarding them in the section for the village Klein Schweinern: Baptismal Sponsors David and Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1857 to 1862 Klein Schweinern.

Birth and Baptism of daughter Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1847

Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzke was born at Massel on the 4th of August in 1847, and baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 8th of August in 1847. Her baptism record listed her as the first child of the first marriage of the Knecht David Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Spohr) Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsors were: the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Helena Dorothea Ruben from Trebnitz, the Staller Gottlieb Kasper from Massel and the Knecht Friedrich Bartsch from Buchwald.

Gottlieb Kasper's Staller occupation was described by August Meitzen as a Knecht bei herrschaftliche Pferden, another word for a Gesind. That roughly means an agricultural servant who took care of the horses for a noble family.

Birth and Baptism of son Ernst Wilhelm Bartsch, 1850

Ernst Wilhelm Bartsch was born at Massel on the 3rd of November in 1850, and baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 10th of November in 1850. He was the first child from the first marriage of the Knecht Carl Bartsch and his wife Susanne (née Scholz) Bartsch. The baptismal sponsors were the Knechtin (wife of a farm servant) Elisabeth Sternitzke from Massel, the Freigärtner Carl Bartsch from Maßlich Hammer and the Knecht Christian Schreiber from Maßlich Hammer.

Birth and Baptism of Johanna Elisabeth Bartsch, 1853

Johanna Elisabeth Bartsch was born at Massel on the 24th of January in 1853, and baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 30th of January in 1853. She was the first child from the marriage of the Knecht (farm servant) Carl Bartsch and his wife Elisabeth (née Kasper) Bartsch. The baptismal sponsors were the Jungfer (maiden) Johanna Elisabeth Schlange from Klein Schweinern, the Knechtin (wife of a farm servant) Elisabeth Sternitzken from Massel, the Hofewächter (estate watchman) Carl Ritter from Massel and the Schäferjunge (shepherd boy) Gottlieb Fischer from Massel. Sternitzken was a female version of Sternitzke.

Birth and Baptism of Johanna Helena Bartsch, 1854

Johanna Helena Bartsch was born at Massel on the 27th of July 1854, and baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 30th of July in 1854. She was the second child from the marriage of the Knecht (farm servant) Carl Bartsch and his wife Elisabeth (née Kasper) Bartsch. The baptismal sponsors were the Müllerlehrling (apprentice miller) Johann Gottlieb Fischer from Buchwald, the Jungfer (maiden) Johanna Elisabeth Schlange from Massel, the Knechtin (wife of a farm servant) Elisabeth Sternitzke from Massel and Wächter (security watchman) Carl Ritter from Massel.

Birth and Baptism of Carl Gottlieb Bartsch, 1856

Carl Gottlieb Bartsch was born at Massel on the 9th of September in 1856, and baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 14th of September in 1856. He was the 3rd child of the first marriage of the Knecht (farm servant) Carl Bartsch and his wife Elisabeth (née Kasper) Bartsch. The baptismal sponsors were the Jungfer (maiden) Johanna Elisabeth Schlange from as a Knecht (servant) and resided at Massel. See the Families of Gottfried and Johann Josef Sternitzke, 1866 Jeschütz to 1943 Breslau.

Berta Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Kieslich died at Breslau on the 11th of May in 1932. Her death record shows that she was born at Massel in Trebnitz County. Berta died at the age of 64 years old. She died at home in Breslau at Schwenkfeld Straße 9 (one block east of the Botanical Gardens). Schwenkfeld Straße was later known as Kleine Scheitnigerstraße. It is now named Benedyktyńska Street. Her death record was signed by her husband, the Tischler (carpenter) Karl Julius Kieslich.

Children of Berta Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Kieslich

Before she married Karl Julius Kieslich, Berta Ernestine Sternitzke gave birth to three sons in: 1888, 1891 and 1895.

Birth and Death of son Karl Paul Fritz Sternitzke, 1888-1906

The civil birth record shows Karl Paul Fritz Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 24th of January in 1888. He was baptized as Fritz Carl Paul Sternitzke on the 29th of January in 1888 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal record listed his unmarried mother as Bertha Sternitzke, the daughter of the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Joseph Sternitzke from Kloch Ellguth. Bertha lived at Ottostraße 48 (7 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street). The baptismal sponsors were: the Nätherin (seamstress) Auguste Röscher, and the Drechslerfrau Auguste Röscher. A Drechslerfrau was the wife of a lathe operator who made wooden furniture.

The Gärtnerlehrling (apprentice gardener) Karl Paul Fritz Sternitzke was unmarried when he died at the age of 18 years and 8 months old. He was a Protestant. He lived in Breslau at Ottostraße 35 (7 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street). The civil death record shows he was born in Breslau, the son of the Breslau resident and unmarried Wäscherin (laundrywoman) Berta Sternitzke. He died in the Allerheiligen Hospital on 29th of September in 1906. He was buried on the 2nd of October in 1906.

Birth and Death of son Richard Carl Sternitzke (1891-1913)

Richard Carl Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 28th of December in 1891. His mother was Bertha Sternitzke, a Ledigen (an unmarried woman) and a Protestant who lived at Enderstraße 7 (now Henryka Pobożnego Street, 3 blocks north of the Oder, near the main road to Trebnitz). The birth record was signed by the midwife Ottlie Schmidt. Richard Carl Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 17th of January in 1892. The baptismal record shows that Bertha was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Sternitzke who lived in Breslau. The baptismal sponsor was the Breslau Dienstmädchen Anna Sternitzke.

Richard Karl Sternitzke died at his mother's home on the 17th of April in 1913 at the age of 21 years and 3 months. He was not married and he had no occupation. He was Protestant and lived with his mother at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 9. His death was reported by his mother Berta (née Sternitzke) Kieslich, the wife of a Tischler (carpenter) named Kieslich.

Birth of Paul Carl Sternitzke, 1895

Paul Carl Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 5th of February in 1895. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 17th of March in 1895. The baptismal record listed his unmarried mother as Bertha Sternitzke (a Protestant) who was the daughter of the Breslau Arbeiter Josef Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsors were the Musiker (musician) August Dokter from Gross Weigelsdorf in Oels County, and the Dienstmädchen Anna Sternitzke from Paschkerwitz in Trebnitz County. Bertha Sternitzke was living at Paulinenstraße 22 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Paulińska Street) at the time of the baptism.

Paul Carl Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 13th of July in 1914 at the age of 19 years and 5 months old. He died at the Universitäts-Kliniken at Hobrecht Ufer 4 (now the Wrocław Medical University at Wybrzeże Ludwika Pasteura). His death was reported by an official at the clinic, who identified Paul's mother as Berta Sternitzke who was married to the Tischler (carpenter) Kiesslich. Before his death, Paul Sternitzke was an unmarried Buchbinder (book binder) and lived at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 9 (now Szczytnicka Street, one block east of St. John the Baptist Cathedral).

Birth and Marriage of daughter Gertrud Selma Kieslich, 1909 & 1932

Gertrud Selma Kieslich was born at Breslau on the 13th of December in 1909. At that time, the Tischler (carpenter) Karl Julius Kieslich and his wife Berta Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Kieslich lived in Breslau at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 9 (now Benedyktyńska Street, one block east of St. John the Baptist Cathedral). Karl was a Catholic. Berta was a Protestant. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Gertrud Selma Kieslich was married in Breslau in 1932 (record number 232 at Standesamt V).

Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schoschnig
1892 to 1907 Mühnitz

A kataster (cadastre) book is a land registry record of all tax-paying persons in a community. It lists the official inventory of the property values to determine property taxes. The 1892 Trebnitz County kataster book listed the widow Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Schoschnig as the owner of Grundstück (property) number 16 at Mühnitz. The Freisteller (free property owner) Friedrich Springer was also listed in that book. The book was signed at Trebnitz on the 5th of April in 1892. See the discussion below regarding the Death of Emma (née Sternitzke) Springer, 1938 Mühnitz.

The 1907 Trebnitz County kataster book included a handwritten note that listed the Bauer (farmer) Wilhelm Schoschnig at Mühnitz associated with property number 16. Wilhelm's first name was crossed out and the note included the year 1871 followed by: Elisabeth, Wittwe née Sternitzke (widow Elisabeth née Sternitzke). Perhaps Wilhelm Schoschnig died in 1871.

Death of Gottfried Sternitzke (c.1785-1847) 1847 Obernigk

Gottfried Sternitzke (c.1785-1847) was a resident of Ober-Obernigk when he died on the 31st of October in 1847. He was buried at the Protestant Church at Obernigk on the 3rd of November in 1847. He died at the age of 62 years old, making his calculated year of birth 1785. He was the son of a Dreschgärtner from Schön-Ellguth. A Dreschgärtner (threshing farmer) was a farmer who owed annual threshing and flax processing services for the fields owned by the village landlord. His parents may have been the Schön-Ellguth Dreschgärtner Christian Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Baumgarth) Sternitzke.

Gottfried Sternitzke served in the military from 1813 to 1815 (a period that included the War of the Sixth Coalition from 1812 to 1814, and the Battle of Waterloo in 1815) and he received multiple wounds. He was mustered out of service and received thereafter monthly disability payments of one Thaler per month.

Gottfried Sternitzke married Elisabeth Koritsch at Glatz in 1819. They had three sons who were still living in 1847. Elisabeth died in 1836. Gottfried remarried shortly after his wife's death. Gottfried married the widow Anna Rosina née Härtel, a daughter (or widow) of the deceased Großknechts (agricultural foreman) Härtel in Nieder-Obernigk. They had a daughter who was seven years old and was still living in 1847.

Gottfried worked for twenty years (1827 to 1847) as a Kutscher (coachman) for the noble Böhmer family at Groß Muritsch (now Morzęcin Wielki) in Trebnitz County. He moved from Groß Muritsch to Ober-Obernigk around the first of October in 1847, probably due to the illness he had suffered for about half a year. After 14 days in bed, he died on the 31st of October in 1847, at 2 o'clock in the morning, at the age of around 62 years. The burial record listed his cause of death as Abzehrung which translates to emaciation, but in English was called consumption. Consumption was a general term for diseases resulting in weight loss and loss of strength, included diseases such as tuberculosis, diabetes, cancer, nutritional disorders.

Anna Rosina (née Härtel) Sternitzke, died at Obernigk in 1871 at the age of 70 years and 3 months old. She was buried at the Protestant Lutheran Church on the 7th of July in 1871.

See the above table of death records. From her age at the time of her death, her calculated birthdate was around April in 1801.

Marriage of David Sternitzke 1856 Schweinern, Obernigk, Hünern and Breslau

In 1856, David Sternitzke was employed as a Herrschaftliche Kutscher (a coachman for a noble family) at Schweinern in Breslau County (about 7 miles northwest of Breslau, see the map below). He was the youngest son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Sternitzke who lived at Obernigk in Trebnitz County. Schweinern is now a Wrocław suburb named Wrocław-Swiniary.

In April of 1856, David Sternitzke was married at the Protestant Church at Hünern (about 4 miles north of Breslau, now the village Psary). He married Johanna Dorothea Dresdner, the youngest daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Gottfried Dresdner. The Dresdner family lived at Simsdorf (now named now Szymanów), about one mile northwest of Hünern. The Sternitzke-Dresdner marriage was recorded in the marriage record book at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Parish Church in Breslau. See the Family of David Sternitzke and Johanna Dorothea (née Dresdner) Sternitzke, 1858 to 1889 Wüstendorf.

The Großknechts (agricultural foreman) Ernst Sternitzke died at Obernigk on the 2nd of March in 1885. He died at the age of 54 years, 9 months and 4 days old. His calculated birth date was the 26th of May in 1830.

Death of Elisabeth (née Heinsch) Sternitzke, 1912 Breslau

Elisabeth (née Heinsch) Sternitzke died at the Krankenhospitals zu Allerheiligen at Breslau on the 19th of September in 1912. She died at the age of 80 years old, so she was born around 1832. She was born at Obernigk in Trebnitz County, the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Christian Heinsch and his wife Elisabeth (née Hertel) Heinsch. Her parents died at Obernigk.

The civil death record shows she was a Protestant, the widow of the Knecht (farmhand) Ernst Sternitzke, and that prior to her death she lived at Stockgasse 18 in Breslau. Stockgasse 18 (about 4 blocks north of the Ring and near the University) is now Więzienna Street.

Birth and Marriage of Bertha Louise Johanna Sternitzke
1873 Obernigk and 1896 Breslau

Bertha Louise Johanna Sternitzke was born around the month of July in 1873. That estimate is based on her age when she married in 1896 (see below). The table above of baptism records at Obernigk shows the baptism of Johanna Louise Bertha Sternitzke on the 12th of July in 1873. She was the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Paschuntke) Sternitzke from Nieder-Obernigk.

Godparents Bertha Sternitzke and Gustav Koschel, October 1896

The Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Bertha Sternitzke from Obernigk was one of the three baptismal sponsors for Martha Emilie Koschel, at the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau. Bertha Sternitzke was a Protestant. The baby was born on the 29th of September and baptized on the 11th of October in 1896. A note on the baptism record shows the child died on the 21st of November. Martha was the daughter of the Pferdeknecht Ernst Koschel and his wife Anna (née Hellmann) Koschel from Neuhaus. Ernst was a Protestant. His wife was a Catholic.

The other baptismal sponsors were: the Heizer (stoker) Gustav Koschel (a Protestant) from Bischofswalde near Breslau, and the Arbeiter (laborer) Anton Schimke (a Catholic) from Bischofswalde near Breslau.

Marriage of Bertha Sternitzke and Gustav Koschel, December 1896

The Köchin Jungfrau (cook and single woman) Bertha Sternitzke from Obernigk married the Kesselheizer (boiler stoker) Gustav Koschel from Neuhaus on the 16th of December in 1896. They were both Protestants. Bertha was 23 years and 5 months old, so she was born around July in 1873. Gustav was 20 years and 4 months old, so he was born around August in 1876. They were married at the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Marriage and Family of Bertha Louise Johanna (née Sternitzke) Koschel, 1896 to 1933 City of Breslau.

Godfather Friedrich Stanitzke
1903 Obernigk and Breslau

On the 13th of April in 1903, the Arbeiter (laborer) Friedrich Stanitzke from Obernigk was one of the baptismal sponsors at the baptism of Frieda Marks. The baptism was held at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the daughter of the Schlosser (mechanic) Heinrich Marks and his wife Bertha (née Knecht) Marks.

The other godparents were the Schneider (tailor) Paul Praus who lived in Breslau at Nachodstraße 4, the Stellenbesitzerstochter (property owner's daughter) Ida Schnieder from Gross-Leipe in Trebnitz County and the Verkäuferin (sales clerk) Wally Bialeck who lived at Scheitnigerstraße 8 in Breslau.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Helmut Hermann Fritz Sternitzke 1913 Obernigk, 1938 Breslau, 1943 Belgorod (Russia)

Helmut Hermann Fritz Sternitzke was born at Obernigk on the 5th of November in 1913. He was the son of the Gärtner Hermann Sternitzke (1884-1934) and Beate (née Gniowski) Sternitzke. Hermann was a Gärtner (homeowner with small garden) at Obernigk. See the tables above (marriage and death records at the Protestant Church in Obernigk). The death record for Helmut referenced his birth record number 59 in 1913 (probably at the Obernigk Standesamt). Helmut's death record also referenced his marriage record number 985 in 1938 at Breslau Standesamt I.

Helmut Hermann Fritz Sternitzke married Charlotte Bischof at Breslau on the 24th of September in 1938. Before his death in 1943, Helmut was a Kaufmann (merchant) and lived in Breslau at Herdainstraße 61 (now Gajowa Street, south of the old city). The 1941 and 1943 Breslau address books listed him at that address. His father died at Obernigk before Helmut's death in 1943, but his mother was still living at Obernigk at the time of Helmut's death. The records of the Protestant church at Obernigk show that the Gärtner Hermann Sternitzke died at the age of 50-years-old on the 19th of July in 1934 (so he was born around the 19th of July in 1884).

Helmut Hermann Fritz Sternitzke served as an Obergefreiter (Corporal) in the Wehrmacht during the Second World War. Helmut was killed in action on the 8th of February in 1943, at Belgorod, Russia. He was buried at Belgorod. His death was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt II on the 9th of June in 1944.

Village of Parnitze in Trebnitz County

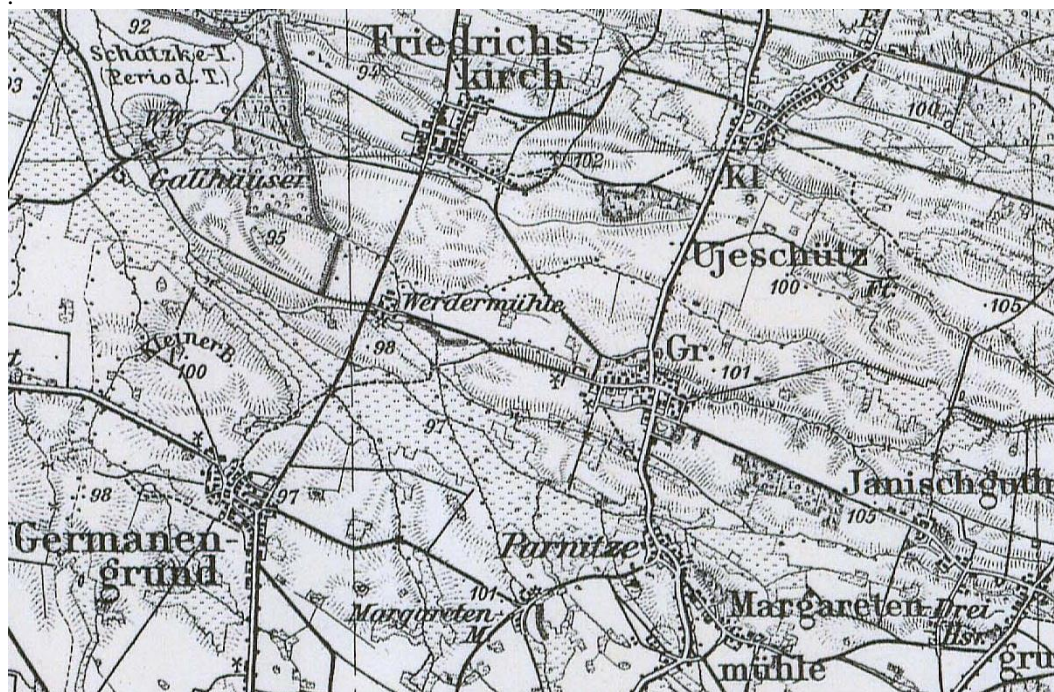

Parnitze was a small village about one kilometer south of Gross Ujeschütz. In the Middle Ages, Parnitze was one of the forest villages in the Sessovo forest district owned by the Catholic Cloister at Trebnitz. According to Pastor Conrad, Parnitze was one of the villages ecclesiastically incorporated with the church at Pawellau from 1647 until 1862 when it became associated with the Protestant Church at Kainowe. Pastor Conrad wrote the village was known as Bornice, and it had a mayor named Hans Schilder in 1709. He also wrote about some interestingly named places near Parnitze: the *Teichwärtere*i (pond warden's house) with the Krötekretscham (Toad Inn). Kröte may have been the name of the family that owned the inn.

Parnitze and Klein Biadauschke (Margaretenmühle) are now combined into one village known as Biedaszków Mały.

Marriage of Hanß Schiernißke and Susanna Sebranke, Wedding Witness Andreas Schiernißke
1736 Parnitze

Lineage of Hanß Schiernißke:

George (c.1510-c.1574, SN1) - Blasius *der Altere (c.1544-c.1616, SN22) - Gregor (c.1580-1678, SN200) - Johann (Hans, Johannes, Adam, c.1610-1672, SN273) - Michael (1670-before 1737) - Hans (c.1700-after 1736).

The Häusler Hanß Schiernißke from Pornitz (Parnitze) was the surviving son of the late Häusler Michael Schiernißke. Hanß married Susanna Sebranke at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 18th of November in 1736. Susanna Sebranke was the daughter of the Pauer (farmer) Thomaß Sebranke from Domnowitz.

The Häusler Andreas Schiernißke from Pornitz (Parnitze) was one of the witnesses for the marriage. Andreas may have been the Andreas Tschernisko who was baptized at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 22nd of November in 1693. He was the son of Gregor (Gregor) Tschernisko and his wife Maria from Domnowitz. See the Family of Gregor (1669-1719) and Marianna Tschernißko, 1688 to 1719 Domnowitz.

Family of Gottfried Sternitzke
1855 Parnitze and Gross Ujeschütz

Wilhelm Starnitzki identified Sternitzke family members who lived at Parnitze and owned properties in the nearby village Gross Ujeschütz. On the 29th of September in 1855, Gottfried Sternitzke was living in Parnitze, but was listed as the owner of Bauergut 10 in Gross Ujeschütz when he purchased 3.237 hectares (8 acres) of farmland near Gross Ujeschütz.

This Gottfried may have been the Gottfried Sterniske (1821-after 1855) the son of Christian Sterniske (c.1790-c.1844, SN30). See Chapter 15, Briesche, Sternitzke Family Personal Data for Briesche: the Family of Christian Sterniske (c.1790-c.1844, SN30).

In 1888, the 3.237 hectares of farmland near Gross Ujeschütz was transferred to David Sternitzke (c.1850-after 1900) from Parnitze (the son of the above Gottfried Sternitzke). In 1900, David and his wife Anna (née Berger) Sternitzke purchased 1.4909 hectares of farmland from Bauergut 17 in Gross Ujeschütz. In 1901, the original 3.237 hectares of land was registered to Anna Sternitzke of Parnitze (the wife of David Sternitzke), possibly due to the death of her husband. In 1907, both the original 3.237 acres and the 1.4909 acres of land were transferred to Oskar Sternitzke of Parnitze (the son of David Sternitzke).

Birth of Richard Sternitzke 1895 Parnitze

According to First World War records, Richard Sternitzke (1895-1946) was born at Parnitze on the 9th of May in 1895. He served in the 8th Company of a unit of the German Army during the First World War. Military casualty reports listed him as lightly wounded on the 14th of December in 1916, and he was listed as missing in action on the 16th of June in 1919. An International Red Cross record listed Richard Sternitzke (who was born on the 9th of May in 1895) as a prisoner of war. Richard served as a Musketier (Infantryman) in the Infantry Regiment No. 9, 1st Regiment, 8th Company.

Klein Biadauschke was renamed as Margaretenmühle in 1936, and its population in 1939 was 202. The villages named Parnitze and Klein Biadauschke (Margaretenmühle) were combined into one village known as Biedaszków Mały in 1945. See the Birth and Death of Richard Ernst Sternitzke, 1895 Klein Biadauschke, 1946 Belarus.

Village of Paschkerwitz in Trebnitz County

The village named Paschkerwitz was located about eight miles north of Breslau and seven miles south of Trebnitz. The population of Paschkerwitz in 1939 was 554. Earlier names for this village included Pastorowicz (1335), and Pasterzowice (1896). It is now known as Pasikurowice, Poland.

The church at Paschkerwitz was first mentioned in literature in 1335. It was a Catholic Church until 1535. The religious upheavals of the Reformation and Counter Reformation and many wars resulted in the church to change hands several times: 1535 to 1631 Protestant, 1631 to 1638 Catholic, 1638 to 1654 Protestant, 1654 to 1707 Catholic, 1707 to 1945 Protestant, and Catholic since 1945.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Berta Sternitzke 1874 Perschütz, 1900 Strebitzko, 1944 Bad Salzbrunn

Berta Sternitzke was born at Perschütz in Trebnitz County on the 6th of September in 1874. She was the daughter of the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Gustav Sternitzke and Johanna (née Zwilling) Sternitzke. See the discussion below regarding Berta's brother Karl Sternitzke who was born at Perschütz in 1881 and died at Breslau in 1904.

Berta Sternitzke married the Mauer (mason) August Zimmerling at Strebitzko in Militsch County on the 15th of April in 1900. Their marriage record was number 6 in 1900 at the Strebitzko Standesamt (registry office). Strebitzko (now known as Trzebicko) is about 2 miles southeast of Freyhan (now known as Cieszków). They were villages near the northern border of Militsch County, and within 3 miles from Zduny in Posen.

August and Berta Zimmerling lived at Freyhan (now named Cieszków) in Militsch County in 1906. Their son August Reinhold Zimmerling was born at Freyhan on the 31st of August in 1906.

Berta (née Sternitzke) Zimmerling died at her home, at Bad Salzbrunn in Waldenburg County on the 2nd of November in 1944. Her death record shows her father Gustav Sternitzke died at Glogau. Her mother Johanna (née Zwilling) Sternitzke died at Sibyllenort in Öls County. Berta's death was reported by Frau Elisabeth Webrorke who was a resident of Bad Salzbrunn.

The death record described Berta's husband as the „Schwere-Kriegsbeschädigten“ (severely disabled by war) August Zimmerling, who was a resident of Bad Salzbrunn, at Untere Hauptstraße 22. The cause of Berta's death was listed as “Herzmuskelschwäche im Gefolge einer chronischen Hermmuskelentartung” (cardiac muscles in the wake of chronic erythrocyte erythema).

Birth and Death of Hermann Arlt 1875 Perschütz and 1908 Breslau

Hermann Arlt was born at Perschütz around the 10th of January in 1875. That date was based on his age (33 years old) when he died in Breslau in 1908. Hermann Arlt was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) August Arlt and his wife Maria (née Sternitzki) Arlt. August Arlt died at Hundsfeld prior to the death of his son. Maria (née Sternitzki) Arlt was living at Breslau when her son died. Hermann died at the St. Georgs Krankenhause at Mehlgasse 22/28, on the 10th of January in 1908.

Prior to his death, Hermann Arlt was employed as a Kutscher (carriage driver) and lived in Breslau at Kletschkaustraße 20 (one block north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 3rd block west of the main road to Trebnitz, now Kleczkowska Street). He was married to Rosina (née Maschler) Arlt.

Birth and Death of Karl Sternitzke (1881-1904) 1881 Perschütz and 1904 Breslau

Karl Sternitzke (1881-1904) was born at Perschütz in Trebnitz County around the 9th of November in 1881. That date was calculated from his age (23 years and 1 month old) when his death was discovered at Breslau on the 9th of December in 1904. The hour and day of his death was not established by the police. The Königlichen Polizei Präsidium (royal police bureau) reported the death of Karl Sternitzke.

In 1904, Karl Sternitzke was an unmarried Haushälter (janitor) and lived at Ohlauer Chaussee 120 in Breslau (about 1.5 miles southeast from city moat, now Krakowska Street). Karl Sternitzke was the son of Gustav Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Zwilling) Sternitzke. His father was the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Gustav Sternitzke who lived at Sibyllenort in Öls County. Karl's mother Johanna (née Zwilling) Sternitzke had previously died. See the above discussion regarding Karl's sister: the Birth, Marriage and Death of Berta Sternitzke, 1874 Perschütz, 1900 Strebitzko, 1944 Bad Salzbrunn.

Village of Peterwitz in Trebnitz County

The village named Peterwitz was located about 3 miles southwest of Trebnitz and 10 miles north of Breslau. Variations of the name for this village include: Petrcovich (1203), Petrcovici (1208 & 1218), Petrcovice (1223) and Piotrkowice (1896). The population of Peterwitz was 389 in 1939. Peterwitz was renamed as Piotrkowiczki in 1945.

A Catholic Church existed at Peterwitz as early as 1376. A Protestant Church replaced the Catholic Church at Peterwitz during the reformation. See Chapter 1 of Pastor Conrad's book for the Peterwitz church history. The book written in 1902, Die Kirchenbücher Schlesiens Beider Confessionen, shows that Protestant church records for baptismal records existed for Peterwitz from 1669 to 1900. Marriage and burial records existed for the years 1668 to 1900.

There were two villages named Gross Peterwitz and Klein Peterwitz in Trebnitz County. Gross Peterwitz was located northwest of Prausnitz. Klein Peterwitz was located near the northern border of Prausnitz.

Birth and Family of Thomas Sternitzke (1708-1758)
1708 to 1739 Schickwitz, 1739 to 1759 Peterwitz

Volume 80 of the Deutsches Geschlechterbuch shows Thomas Sternitzke was born at Schirkwitz (probably Schickwitz) in 1708. The 1732 and 1737 baptism records discussed below listed the baptism sponsor Thomas Schiernißke as the son of the Gärtner Thomas Schiernißke from Schickwitz. A Gärtner owned a house and small garden.

Birth, First and Second Marriages of Maria Rother, 1710 to 1739

Maria Rother was born in 1710. Her first marriage was to the Bauer (farmer) Daniel Wielisch, who was born at Peterwitz on the 4th of July in 1703. Daniel Wielisch died on the 9th of March in 1736.

The widow Maria (née Rother) Wielisch married the Bauer (farmer) Christoph Rimaïne (also spelled Rymaine and Riemaine) at Peterwitz on the 12th of November in 1736. He was the son of George Riemaine (1665-1730) who was a Bauer at Mühnitz. Christoph was born at Mühnitz on the 4th of March in 1697. Christoph Rimaïne bought the Daniel Wielisch Bauergut (farmstead) on the 21st of March in 1737. Christoph Rimaïne died on the 11th of February in 1739.

Christoph and Maria's son, Christoph Rymaine, was born at Peterwitz on the 27th of September in 1737 and died on the 27th of August 1739. Maria married Thomas Sternitzke two months after her son's death.

Baptism Sponsor Thomas Schiernißke, 1732

Matheus Kilma was baptized at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 14th of September in 1731. He was the son of the Haußman (house owner) Caspar Kilma and Anna (née Klackin) Kilma from Domnowitz. The baptism sponsors were: Anna the daughter of the Pauer (farmer) Andreas Polacke from Domnowitz, the Gärtnerin (wife of a Gärtner) Hedwig Nowauckin from Pornitz (Parnitze), and Thomas Schiernißke the son of the Gärtner Thomas Schiernißke from Schickwitz.

Hedwig Nowauckin was formerly the widow of George Schiernißke. She married the Haußler Martin Nowauck on the 25th of May in 1732. See the Family of Georg Sciernisko (c.1710-c.1731) and Hedwig (née Carna) Sciernisko, 1728 to 1732 Domnowitz.

Baptism Sponsor Thomas Schiernißke, 1737

Rosina Kilma was baptized at the Catholic church at Powitzko on the 3rd April in 1737. She was the daughter of the Haußman (house owner) Caspar Kilma and Anna (née Klackin) Kilma from Domnowitz. The baptism sponsors were: the Gärtnerin Anna Maÿßin from Domnowitz, the Gärtnerin Hedwig Nowauckin from Pornitz (Parnitze), and Thomas Schiernißke the son of the Gärtner Thomas Schiernißke from Schickwitz.

Marriage and Death of Thomas Sternitzke, 1739 and 1758

Thomas married the widow Maria (née Rother) Romaine at Peterwitz on the 25th of October in 1739. This was the third of Maria's four marriages.

Thomas Sternitzke bought Christoph Romaine's Bauergut at Peterwitz on the 11th of March in 1740. The Bauergut was located at the western edge of Peterwitz on the road to Mühnitz. Thomas was a Bauer (farmer) and a Gerichtsgeschworener (court juryman) at Peterwitz.

Thomas Sternitzke died at Peterwitz on the 23rd of May in 1758.

Fourth Marriage of Maria (née Rother) Sternitzke, 1759

Maria (née Rother) Sternitzke married for the fourth time at Peterwitz on the 22nd of May in 1759. She married Heinrich Mickul, the son of Hans Mickul who was a Bauer at Kniegnitz.

Family of Johann Christian Sternitzke
1816 Trebnitz, 1821 & 1833 Peterwitz

Johann Christian Sternitzke, the son of Johann Sternitzke, married Susanna Fabisch, the daughter of George Fabisch at the Protestant Church in Trebnitz on the 9th of January in 1816. See Book III, Chapter 2: Protestant Church Marriages, 1796 to 1827 City of Trebnitz.

There were two known spellings of Susanna's maiden name in Trebnitz County: Fabisch and Fabische. The 1816 marriage record for Johann Christian Sternitzke listed his wife's maiden name as Fabisch, but the source of that information (Geneteka.genealodzy.pl) listed the following related Protestant marriages at Trebnitz.

- George Saussner married Susanna Fabisch the daughter of Georg Fabisch on the 5th of October in 1767.
- Christian Fabisch married Anna Rosina Renner on the 31st of July in 1803.
- Gottfried Wehber married Elena Fabische the daughter of George Fabische on the 7th of July in 1807.
- Johann Christian Sternitzke the son of Johann Sternitzke married Susanna Fabisch the daughter of George Fabisch on the 9th of January in 1816.
- Daniel Lustig married Anna Fabische the daughter of George Fabische on the 4th of July in 1826.

The Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Christian Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Fabische) Sternitzke lived at Peterwitz in 1821 and 1833. They died at Peterwitz before 1901.

The death records of their daughters (see below) seem to show the Fabische variation.

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Anna Rosina Sternitzke
1821 Peterwitz, c.1848 & 1901 Pawellau

Anna Rosina Sternitzke was born on the 4th of June in 1821 at Peterwitz. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Christian Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Fabische) Sternitzke. Her parents died at Peterwitz before Anna Rosina's death in 1901.

Anna Rosina Sternitzke married Gottlieb Müller. They lived at Dobertowitz (in Militsch County) in 1849 and 1860. Their son (Karl Müller) and their daughter (Rosina Pauline Auguste Müller) were born at Dobertowitz.

Gottlieb Müller and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller were married for 38 years according to Gottlieb's death record (which was signed by his wife). So, they were married around 1848. Gottlieb Müller was 64 years old when he died in his home at Pawellau on the 3rd of July in 1883.

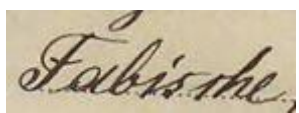

Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller died at Pawellau on the 17th of May 1901, at the age of 79 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years. Her husband, Gottlieb Müller died in 1883. Her death record was signed by her daughter Louise (née Müller) Nitschke who was a resident of Groß Peterwitz in Trebnitz County. See Book II: the Family of Gottlieb Müller and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller, 1883 to 1901 Pawellau.

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Anna Christiana Sternitzke
1833 Peterwitz, 1858 Peterwitz & 1910 Breslau

Anna Christiana Sternitzke was born at Peterwitz in Trebnitz County on the 17th of April in 1833. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Christian Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Fabische) Sternitzke, who both died at Peterwitz.

Anna Christiana Sternitzke married Gottlieb Sternitzke (1832-1911) at Peterwitz on the 2nd of November of 1858. Gottlieb Sternitzke was born at Briesche on the 26th of January in 1832, the son of Johann Sternitzke (1800-after 1832, SN321) and Susanna (née Knur) Sternitzke. Anna Christiane's maiden name was also Sternitzke. She was born at Peterwitz on the 17th of April of 1833. She was the daughter of Christian Sternitzke and Susanna (née Fabische) Sternitzke, who both died at Peterwitz. See the Birth and Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1832 to 1877 Briesche.

Anna Sternitzke preceded her husband in death, dying at Breslau on the 21st of March in 1910. Anna Christiana (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, the wife of the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke died at their home in Breslau at Bismarkstraße 31 on the 21st of March in 1910. She died at the age of 76 years and 11 months old. She was a Protestant. Her death record shows her mother's maiden name as Fabische. Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Breslau in April of 1911. See the Deaths of Gottlieb and Anna Christiane Sternitzke, 1910 & 1911 City of Breslau.

Marriage and Family of Anna Rosina Sternitzke Before 1832 Peterwitz to 1920 City of Trebnitz

Anna Rosina Sternitzke (1808-1874) married Gottfried Mücke at Peterwitz (now known as Piotrkowiczki) in Trebnitz County before 1832. They were both Protestant.

Gottfried Mücke was born at Burgwitz around 1800. He was the son of the Burgwitz Landwirt (farmer) Gottlieb Mücke (c.1754-c.1827). Gottfried was buried at Trebnitz before 1874.

Ann Rosina (née Sternitzke) Mücke was born on the 16th of December in 1808 at Hennigsdorf and baptized at Striese (two miles south of Peterwitz), the daughter of Johann Friedrich Sternitzke and Maria Elisabeth (née Garbsch) Sternitzke. Anna Rosina died on the 8th of April of 1874, at Heidewilxen in Trebnitz County.

Gottfried and Anna Rosina Mücke had five children: Ernst Wilhelm, Friedrich Karl, Anna Rosina, Johanna Emma and Johann Gottlieb Ernst Mücke.

Ernst Wilhelm Mücke (unknown-1862)

Ernst Wilhelm Mücke married Anna Roina Tietze. His second marriage was to Louise Wende. Ernst Wilhelm Mücke died at Heidewilxen on the 9th of April in 1862.

Friedrich Karl Mücke (unknown-1862)

Friedrich Karl Mücke was employed as a Zimmermann (carpenter).

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Rosina Mücke (1832-1902)

Karl Sille wrote a history of the Mücke family in May of 1974. Anna Rosina Mücke married the Maurerpolier (team leader of masons) Karl Münch at Heidewilxen in Trebnitz County.

The Breslau Haushälter (janitor) Josef Brieger reported the death of his Schwiegermutter (mother-in-law) Rosina (née Mücke) Münch at Breslau. He reported that Rosina was the daughter of the deceased Burgwitz Stellenbesitzer Gottlieb Mücke and his deceased wife (first name unknown, née Stanetzki) Mücke. Rosina died at the age of 69 years and 11 months old on the 13th of January in 1902. Her calculated birthdate was the 13th of February in 1832.

Marriage and Family of daughter Johanna Emma Mücke, circa 1864

Johanna Emma Mücke married Heinrich Scholz at Groß Bresen in Trebnitz County. They had three children: Hermann Scholz (born 3 July 1864), Anna Scholz (born 22 January 1868) and Emma Scholz.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son Johann Gottlieb Ernst Mücke (1837-1915)

Johann Gottlieb Ernst Mücke was born at Burgwitz in Trebnitz County on the 23rd of February in 1867. The Burgwitz Freistellenbesitzer Johann Gottlieb Ernst Mücke married Susanna Christiane Banke (1847-1912) at Hünern on the 17th of November in 1867.

Their son Gustav Mücke was born at Klein Krütschen on the 20th of November in 1889. He married Meta Baude at Trebnitz on the 15th of May in 1920. Gustav Mücke died on the 14th of July in 1969 at Wabern near Kassel in the German State of Hesse.

The Burgwitz Freistellenbesitzer Johann Gottlieb Ernst Mücke died at Trebnitz on the 8th of January in 1915.

Family of August Klimpke and Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Klimpke 1846 & 1858 Peterwitz

Birth and Death of son Robert Klimpke
1846 Peterwitz and 20 April 1903 Breslau

Robert Klimpke was born at Peterwitz around the 20th of September in 1846. That date was based on his age (56 years and 7 months) at the time of his death (at Breslau) on the 20th of April in 1903. Robert Klimpke was the son of the Freigärtners (owners of a small farm) August Klimpke and Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Klimpke at Peterwitz.

Robert Klimpke was a Protestant and worked as an Arbeiter (laborer) in Breslau. His death was reported by his sister the Arbeiters Frau (laborer's wife) Berta (née Klimpke) Juhr and Robert's widow Johanna (née Pape) Klimpke. See below for information regarding Robert's sister who was born in 1858. Robert died at home in Breslau at Weißenburgerstraße 19 (now Słowiańska Street, 5 blocks north of Sand Island, in the third block east of the main road to Trebnitz).

Birth and Marriage of daughter Johanna Christiane Bertha Klimpke
8 September 1858 Peterwitz and 8 July 1891 Breslau

Johanna Christiane Bertha Klimpke was born at Peterwitz on the 8th of September in 1858, the daughter of the Peterwitz Freistellenbesitzers (free property owners) August Klimpke and his wife Elisabet (née Sternitzke) Klimpke. Both parents, August and Elisabet were listed as deceased in the 1891 marriage record for their daughter Johanna.

Johanna Christiane Bertha Klimpke married Hermann Robert Juhr at Breslau on the 8th of July in 1891. Both the bride and groom were Protestants. Johanna was a Verkäuferin (saleswoman) and Hermann was a Victualienhändler (trader in agricultural goods) living at Berlinerstraße 45 (now Braniborska Street, about ½ mile west of the old city walls).

Hermann Robert Juhr was born on the 7th of October in 1858 at Groß Peiskerau, Kreis Ohlau (now Piskorzow, Poland). He was the son of the deceased Bauergutsbesitzers Karl Juhr and Luise (née Hoffmann) Juhr, from Groß Peiskerau.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 25 years old Breslau Ausschänker (barkeeper) Johann Janocha, and the 45 years old Freigärtner Gottlieb Rindfleisch from Kobelwitz in Trebnitz County. Kobelwitz was a village about three miles northeast of Trebnitz, with a population of 159 in 1939. Kobelwitz is now named Kobylice, Poland.

Birth of Johann Joseph Sternitzke/Sternitzkÿ
21 March 1818 Pristelwitz

Johann Joseph Sternitzke (1818-1874) was born on the 21st of March in 1818 at Pristelwitz. His birth date was recorded on the church record for his marriage in 1865. He married the widow Johanna Susanne (née Vogt) Weinert on the 5th of June in 1865 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The church record shows they both had lost previous spouses to death.

Joseph died at the age of 57 years old, on the 13th of October in 1874 at Rosenthal. His name was written as Josef Sternitzkÿ on his death record. He was a Catholic. The Neben Register (duplicate) of his death record shows his wife signed her name with 3 crosses, and a registrar then signed her name as Susanne Sternitzkÿ.

The Arbeiterwittwe (widow of a laborer) Susanne (née Vogt) Sternitzke (1820-1891) died at Rosenthal on the 27th of September in 1891, at the age of 70 years, 9 months and 25 days. Death of Johanna (née Sternitzke) Rother 1903 Pristelwitz

Johanna (née Sternitzke) Rother (1863-1903) died at Pristelwitz on the 20th of May in 1903. She was the daughter of Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1824- after 1870) from Gross Kainowe, who later lived at Pawellau. See his biographical information in Book II, Memorial Book for the Bicentennial Anniversary of the Protestant Church of Pawellau 1709-1909, Records of Sternitzke Family Events at Pawellau: Friedrich Sternitzke Family from Pawellau, Trebnitz County, 1854 to 1945 Pawellau.

Johanna Sternitzke was born on the 30th of October in 1863, probably at Pawellau but according to Rother family records Johanna Sternitzke was born at Müllkirch in the Pawellau parish. That location has not been identified in other sources.

Johanna Sternitzke married Hermann Rother in October of 1887 at Pawellau. He was born on the 8th of January in 1864, the son of Karl Rother and Susana Helena (née Tischer) Rother. Johanna died at Pristelwitz on the 20th of May 1903. Hermann Rother died at Pristelwitz on the 29th of October in 1936.

Hermann Rother and Johanna (née Sternitzke) Rother had eight children, all born at Pristelwitz:

- Emma Rother (9 April 1889-?),
- Fritz Rother (2 November 1890-21 February 1963 at Geithain),
- Hermann Rother (circa 1891-16 November 1918),
- Ida (née Rother) Kühn (15 July 1892-29 April 1975),
- Gustav Robert Emil Rother (23 October 1897-24 October 1982 at Kaufungen),
- Alfred Rother (27 March 1899-30 September 1946) and
- Elfriede (née Rother) Meier (11 May 1901-19 December 1956).

Birth of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke Circa 1807, Rux

Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke (c.1807-1886) was born around 1807 at Rux in Trebnitz County. That year of birth was calculated from his age (79 years old) when he died at Breslau on the 21st of March in 1886. Heinrich was the son of a Bauer (farmer) Sternitzke. Details regarding his parents were not known when Heinrich's death record was completed. See the Family of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke and Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzke, 1837 to 1901 City of Breslau.

The baptism record for their son Karl Heinrich Robert Starnitzki, (1837- 1843) listed his parents as the Kattun-Druckergesell Ernst Heinrich Starnitzki and Johanna (née Schönwald) Starnitzki. The family surname was listed as Sternitzki on the burial record for Robert Sternitzki.

The death of the Kattendrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Sternitzke was reported by his son the Maler (painter) Reinhold Sternitzke. Heinrich was living with his son Reinhold until his death at Seitengasse 8. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław). See Book III, Chapter 1, the Marriages, Family and Death of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke, 1862 to 1901 City of Breslau.

The death record of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke shows he was a Protestant and a widower. His wife Johanne (née Schönwald) Sternitzke died at Breslau before Heinrich. Based on the records for their children, Heinrich Sternitzke (c.1807-1886) and Johanna née Schönwald were married around 1837.

Johann Nitschke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Nitschke
1850 Brietzen, 1906 Breslau and Schawoine

Johann Friedrich August Nitschke was born at Brietzen around the 24th of December in 1850. That date was calculated from his age (55 years and 2 months) when he died at Breslau on the 24th of February in 1906. Johann was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Nitschke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Nitschke, who both died at Schawoine prior to their son's death in 1906.

The death record of Johann Friedrich August Nitschke was signed by his widow, Frau Rosina Pauline Auguste (née Müller) Nitschke. They lived in Breslau at Piastenstraße 28 (4 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Piastowska Street). Johann's occupation was listed as a Portier (doorman or porter).

Village of Schickwitz in Trebnitz County

Schickwitz was a village in Trebnitz County, three miles north of the city Trebnitz. It had a population of 202 in 1939. It is now named Szezytkowice. Historical names for the village include: Stotkovichi (1203), Stitkovichi (1203), Stitkowich (1204), Stitkovici (1208), Schitkowicze (1236), Czitkowicz (1355), Sczetkowitz (1465), Zitcovici (1266 & 1267), Schitkowitz (1410), Szczetkowitz (1465), Schithowitz (1482), Schitkowicz and Schitkowitz (1523). The Schickwitz (1785 to 1945) and the Szezytkowice (1896 to present) versions were apparently concurrent German and Polish versions of the name.

Domroth identified the origin of the village name as Dorf der Schildermacher (village of the shield-maker).

Birth and Family of Thomas Sternitzke (1708-1758) 1708 to 1739 Schickwitz, 1739 to 1759 Peterwitz

Birth, First and Second Marriages of Maria Rother, 1710 to 1739

Maria Rother was born in 1710. Her first marriage was to the Bauer (farmer) Daniel Wielisch, who was born at Peterwitz on the 4th of July in 1703. Daniel died on the 9th of March in 1736.

The widow Maria (née Rother) Wielisch married the Bauer (farmer) Christoph Rimaïne (also spelled Rymaine and Riemaine) at Peterwitz on the 12th of November in 1736. He was the son of George Riemaine (1665-1730) who was a Bauer at Mühnitz. Christoph was born at Mühnitz on the 4th of March in 1697. Christoph bought the Daniel Wielisch Bauergut (farmstead) on the 21st of March in 1737. Christoph Rymaine died on the 11th of February in 1739.

Christoph and Maria's son, Christoph Rymaine, was born at Peterwitz on the 27th of September in 1737 and died on the 27th of August 1739. Maria married Thomas Sternitzke two months after her son's death.

Baptism Sponsor Thomas Schiernißke, 1732

Matheus Kilma was baptized at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 14th of September in 1731. He was the son of the Haußman (house owner) Caspar Kilma and Anna (née Klackin) Kilma from Domnowitz. The baptism sponsors were: Anna the daughter of the Pauer (farmer) Andreas Polacke from Domnowitz, the Gartnerin (wife of a Gärtner) Hedwig Nowauckin from Pornitz, and Thomas Schiernißke the son of the Gartner Thomas Schiernißke from Schickwitz.

Hedwig Nowauckin was formerly the widow of George Schiernißke. She married the Haußler Martin Nowauck on the 25th of May in 1732.

Baptism Sponsor Thomas Schiernißke, 1737

Rosina Kilma was baptized at the Catholic church at Powitzko on the 3rd April in 1737. She was the daughter of the Haußman (house owner) Caspar Kilma and Anna (née Klackin) Kilma from Domnowitz. The baptism sponsors were: the Gärtnerin Anna Maÿßin from Domnowitz, the Gärtnerin Hedwig Nowauckin from Pornitz, and Thomas Schiernißke the son of the Gartner Thomas Schiernißke from Schickwitz.

Marriage and Death of Thomas Sternitzke, 1739 and 1758

Thomas Sternitzke married the widow Maria (née Rother) Rimaïne at Peterwitz on the 25th of October in 1739. This was the third of Maria's four marriages.

Thomas Sternitzke bought Christoph Rimaïne's Bauergut at Peterwitz on the 11th of March in 1740. The Bauergut was located at the western edge of Peterwitz on the road to Mühnitz. Thomas was a Bauer (farmer) and a Gerichtsgeschworener (court juryman) at Peterwitz. Thomas Sternitzke died at Peterwitz on the 23rd of May in 1758.

Fourth Marriage of Maria (née Rother) Sternitzke, 1759

Maria (née Rother) Sternitzke married for the fourth time at Peterwitz on the 22nd of May in 1759. She married Heinrich Mickul, the son of Hans Mickul who was a Bauer at Kniegnitz.

Bauer Georg Sternitzky 1757 Schickwitz

Georg Sternitzky (c.1720-1757, SN140), the son of Johannes Sternitzky (SN274) was a Bauer (farmer) and a Gerichtsmann (member of the local court) at Schickwitz around 1757. Georg may have been the Hauptmann (Captain) George Sternitzky who served in the Imperial and Royal Austrian Army from 1741 to 1757. See Chapter 15: Military Men of the Sternitzke Family.

The only reference to Georg and his father in the manuscript by Wilhelm Starnitzki was in the table of Sternitzke family members who were village magistrates and members of the court (see Book I, Chapter 5).

Georg Sternitzky was born around the same time as Michael Sternitzke (c.1720-1788, SN377) who was in the 7th generation in the family tree of George Tschirnitzke (c.1510-c.1574, SN1). Georg's father, Johannes Sternitzky (SN274) would have been in the 6th generation. Johannes would have been born around the same time as Michael's father Johannes Sternitzke (1691-1769, SN278) from Gross Ujeschütz. Wilhelm Starnitzki assigned SN273 to Johannes Tschernißke (1610-1672, SN273). Wilhelm Starnitzki's manuscript did not include Stammliste numbers between SN274 and SN278. The records associated with those numbers were probably destroyed by the bombing of Heilbronn in 1944, as was described by Wilhelm Starnitzki in his preface to Book I.

Birth and Death of Johanna Pasbrich 1852 Schickwitz and 1910 Breslau

Johanna Pasbrich was born at Schickwitz around the 15th of September of 1852. That date was based on her age (58 and ¼ years) when she died at the Breslau Allerheiligen Hospital on the 15th of December in 1910. Johanna was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Kasper Pasbrich and his wife Helene (née Sternitzke) Pasbrich, who both died at Schickwitz prior to their daughter's death.

Johanna Pasbrich was a Protestant. She married a Mr. Langner, who died and left her a widow. She then married Robert Steinert. Robert was still living in Breslau when his wife died, and he was probably retired. His occupation was listed on Johanna's death record as the frühere Maurer (former mason). Their address in Breslau was Moltkestraße 7 (3 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Władystawa Łokietka Street).

Death of Emma (née Sternitzky) Kotschate 1915 Schickwitz and City of Breslau

Emma Sternitzky was born at Gross Ujeschütz around the 10th of May in 1868. She was the daughter of the Auszügler (pensioner) David Sternitzky and Dorothea (née Kaschmieder) Sternitzky, who both died at Gross Ujeschütz.

Emma Sternitzky married Mr. Kotschate who was a Protestant and a Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) at Schickwitz. Emma (née Sternitzky) Kotschate was a resident of Schickwitz, but died at Viktoriastraße 61 in Breslau, on the 10th of January in 1915. Emma was 46 years and 8 months old when she died.

Her death was reported by the Prediger (Pastor) Franz Hellwich and Wanda Kotschate. Wanda Kotschate was unmarried, unemployed and was a resident of Schickwitz. Wanda was probably the daughter of Emma (née Sternitzky) Kotschate.

Viktoriastraße 61 (now Lwowska Street) is about 9 blocks west of the main train station. The 1915 Breslau address book listed the Pastor Franz Hellwich as a resident at Viktoriastraße 61 (4th floor). That address was the location of the Schlesisches Haus für Krankenpflege (a private clinic and residence of Protestant nurses).

Village of Schimmerau in Trebnitz County

Schimmerau was a village in Trebnitz County, five miles northwest of the city of Trebnitz. It had a population of 449 in 1939. It is now named Wszemirów. The research of the Sternitzke family history at Schimmerau by Wilhelm Starnitzki was prevented by the outbreak of the Second World War. He noted that Anna Sciernisko (the sister of Blasius Sciernisko) married Stefan Hönisch at Schimmerau in 1587. A modern map (below) shows the location of the church.

Pastor Conrad noted that Schimmerau was the third location of the Pawellau church parish. Schimmerau (written as Zemirovo) was mentioned as one of the properties transferred to the Trebnitz cloister in 1208. In the year 1245, Schimmerau (written as Semirovo) became one of the properties of the Breslau diocese (Bishop's Manor) until the secularization in 1810. Other variations of the village name were recorded in the records of the Catholic church at Powitzko: Schemerau and Schiemerau.

It is not known when Schimmerau fell under German Law, but it was probably granted by the Bishop of Breslau. It probably occurred around the year 1300, because in 1305 village land was permanently attached to the office of a village mayor and it had a church. In Lib. Fund. The following words were written in that year:

“Item in villa Semirovo domini episcopi sunt L mansi solventes et unus mansus, scultetus hōbet VII liberos, plebanus duos mansos.”

“Just as there are 51 Hufen in Schimmerau, the village mayor has 7 free Hufen, the priest has 2 Hufen”.

Note by JWS: “Lib. Fund.” Refers to the Liber fundationis episcopatus Wratislaviensis, an early 14th century catalog of lands ruled by the Bishop of Breslau with the tithe obligations owed to the bishop (Hoffmann, pg. 7).

Pastor Conrad also recorded that in 1638, the Schimmerau inspection report noted the rather large mixture of denominations (also noting that the village mayor and even the cook of the Catholic priest were Protestant), and in 1651 the Schimmerau priest lamented to the church census taker that the village had been always entirely Catholic but was at that time hardly one-third Catholic.

Birth and Death of David Strecker 1810 Skarsine, 1880 Schweretau

David Strecker was born at Skarsine around the 4th of June in 1810. That date was based on his age when he died. He was the son of the Dreschgärtner George Strecker and Maria (née Sternitzke) Strecker. A Dreschgärtner was an owner of a small farm who had to provide threshing services on the fields of the lord of the village.

David Strecker married Elisabeth Barth. Their son Gottlieb Strecker was born on the 10th of September in 1846 at Günterwitz in Trebnitz County. Gottlieb married Maria Hedwig Hentschel at Schweretau on the 16th of March in 1879. Gottlieb's mother died before Gottlieb's wedding.

The Tagarbeiter (day laborer) David Strecker died at his home Schweretau in Trebnitz County on the 4th of December in 1880. David was 70 and ½ years old when he died. He was a Protestant.

David Strecker's death was reported by his son, the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Gottlieb Strecker who was a resident of Cawallen in Trebnitz County. The death was recorded at the Schweretau registry office. The registrar spelled the village Skarsine as Skarsiene.

Family of the Dorfgärtner Daniel Sternitzke 1834 Striese

Birth and Marriage of son Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1834 Striese

Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke (1834-1910) married Dorothea Elisabet Gelfert at the St. Elisabeth Church in Breslau on the 29th of April in 1862. Carl was a 28 years old Rollkutscher in Breslau at that time, so he was born around 1834. His calculated date of birth, based on his age when he died in 1910, was around the 10th of April in 1834. See the Book III, Chapter 1: the Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau.

A Rollkutscher was a delivery man (called a Drayman in English) who transported local freight by horse-drawn wagon, to and from the railroad station, within the city. A Dray was a low, flat-bed wagon without sides. A Rollkutscher was also the person who delivered beer from the local brewery.

Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke was the son of Daniel Sternitzke who lived at Striese, in Trebnitz County. Daniel Sternitzke was identified as a Dorfgärtner (village homeowner with a small garden) on the Striese website, but Carl's marriage record from St. Elisabeth Church showed Daniel Sternitzke was a Dreschgärtner. A Dreschgärtner was an owner of a small farm who had to provide threshing services on the fields of the lord of the village. See Book II: the Family of Daniel Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Feuerstein) Sternitzke, 1834 Striese, 1836 to 1840 Ströhof, 1851 to 1880 Pawellau.

1846 Striese, 1875 Schwoitsch and 1900 Breslau

Birth and Death of Julie Sternitzki (1846-1900)

Julie Sternitzki was born at Striese around the 4th of October in 1846. That date was calculated from her age (53 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old) at the time of her death on the 4th of July in 1900. Prior to her death, she lived in Breslau at Trebnitzerstraße 10 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Trzebnicka Street). She died at the Breslau hospital Krankenhaus zu Allerheiligen. Her death record listed her as the Wittfrau (widow) Julie (née Sternitzki) Rauer, and it identified her parents as the deceased (at Striese) Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Gottfried Sternitzki and Johanna (née Rother) Sternitzki. Her deceased husband was identified as the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Rauer who died at Breslau previously. She was a Protestant.

Schwoitsch in Breslau County, where she had a daughter. Augustine Elisabeth Neburg was born at Schwoitsch in Breslau County on the 27th of December in 1875. She was the daughter of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Ernst Neburg and Juliann (née Sternitzke) Neburg. Ernst Neburg had died and Juliann (née Sternitzke) Neburg married an Arbeiter (laborer) named Josef Rauer.

Augustine Elisabeth Neburg married the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Franz in Breslau on the 19th of October in 1900. Augustine was employed as a Köcherin (cook) and lived in Breslau at Trebnitzerstraße 8 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Trzebnicka Street). A handwritten note on the marriage record shows that Josef Franz and Augustine (née Neburg) Franz divorced on the 30th of December of 1913.

Witnesses at Augustine's 1900 wedding included the 31 years old Maurer (bricklayer), Christian Czekalla and the 36 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Stanislaus Kandulski. Christian Czekalla lived in Breslau at Trebnitzerstraße 30 (7 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Trzebnicka Street). Stanislaus Kandulski lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 30 (3 blocks northwest from Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street).

Freigärtner Johann Gottfried Sternitzke 1856 Striese and Breslau

In 1856, the Freigärtner (free owner of a house and garden) Johann Gottfried Sternitzke lived at Striese. His daughter, Anna Rosina Sternitzke married the widowed Bürger und Tischlermeister (citizen and master carpenter) Johann Heinrich Hackmann on the 23rd of June in 1856 (record number 133) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The 1856 marriage record listed Anna Rosina as the third daughter of the Freigärtner Johann Gottfried Sternitzke from Striese in Trebnitz County. The bride was 18 years old, so she was born around 1838. Her place of birth was not identified on the marriage record. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Rosina Sternitzke, 1856 to 1940 City of Breslau.

Death of Heinrich Sternitzke 1866 Striese & Biskupitz

Calvalryman (Kürassier, Curassier) Heinrich Sternitzke was a member of the Silesian Kürassier Regiment Number 1 of the Royal Prussian Calvary. The Special Supplement Number 40 to the Official Journal of the Royal Prussian Government in Frankfurt (on the Oder River) listed the casualties as of the 5th of August in 1866. It identified the Cavalryman Heinrich Sternitzki as being from Striese in Trebnitz County, and listed him as having been shot through the abdomen and died near Biskupitz on the 14th of July in 1866. Although the spelling of his last name was slightly different, this was undoubtedly the same person. See the full discussion regarding Heinrich in the chapter titled Military Men of the Sternitzke Family: Kürassier Heinrich Sternitzke, Royal Prussian Calvary (1866).

Birth and Family of Adolf Sternitzke 1872 to 1938 Striese

Circa Gen.XI. Adolf Sternitzke (1872-?) Striese.

Circa Gen.XIIa. Willi Sternitzke (1907-1990). Married Erna Frieda Wache (1921-2012).

Circa Gen.XIIb. Martha Sternitzke (c.1910-after 1935).

Circa Gen.XIIc. Elfrieda Sternitzke (?-deceased).

Adolf Sternitzke was born at Striese on the 14th of December in 1872. He served in the German military during the First World War. A German casualty report listed him as severely wounded on the 7th of May in 1917.

Helmut Springer's webpage shows that Adolf Sternitzke was married. The name of his wife is not known. They had three children: Willi, Martha and Elfrieda. Nothing is known about Elfrieda Sternitzke.

Willi Sternitzke was born on the 23rd of February in 1907. He married Erna Frieda Wache who was born on the 24th of May in 1921 at Tauchritz. She was baptized at Tauchritz on the 3rd of July in 1921. She was the daughter of Karl Alfred Max Wache and Martha Agnes (née Fiedler) Wache. Tauchritz is a suburb of the city Görlitz in Saxony. Willi Sternitzke died on the 9th of June in 1990 at Walsrode in Lower Saxony. Erna Frieda (née Wache) Sternitzke died on the 25th of August in 2012 at Eickeloh in Lower Saxony. Her funeral was on the 30th of August in 2012.

The Springer family wedding photographs from 1935 and 1938 include several members of the Sternitzke family including Adolf Sternitzke, Willi Sternitzke and Martha Sternitzke. Adolf may have been the younger brother of Emma (née Sternitzke) Springer. Family of Heinrich Sternitzke (junior) 1816 Trebnitz to 1832 Ströhof

The small portion of the history of Heinrich Sternitzke (junior) is known from the record of his 1816 marriage at the city of Trebnitz, and from the baptism records of his children. The location of Heinrich's residence before 1827 is not yet known. In 1827, Heinrich lived at Kloch-Ellguth in Trebnitz County. He lived at Werndorf in Trebnitz County in 1829. In 1832, Heinrich lived at Ströhof in Trebnitz County.

Marriage of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1816 Trebnitz

Heinrich Sternitzke (junior), the son of Heinrich Sternitzke, married Anna Rosina John, the daughter of Heinrich John, at the Protestant Evangelical Church at Trebnitz. Their marriage record was number 19 dated the 20th of November in 1816. The source of this information was the Geneteka online database. The database included hyperlinks to the scanned marriage records at FamilySearch.org, but those scans were not available for viewing outside the LDS Family History Centers in 2020. Heinrich's wife Anna Rosina (née John) Sternitzke died shortly after the 1827 baptism of their fifth child: Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzke.

Birth of daughter of Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1827 Kloch-Ellguth

Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzke was born at Kloch-Ellguth on the 31st of August in 1827 at Ellguth, Johanna was the daughter (and the 5th child) of Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née John) Sternitzke. Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzke was baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 2nd of September in 1827. Heinrich was listed as a Knecht (farmhand). The baptismal witnesses were:

- Alma Rosina Krebs, a Magd (maid) from Massel,
- Johanna Elisabeth Kalotschken, a Jungfer (maiden) from Werndorf, and
- Friedrich Koschmieder, a Junggesell (bachelor) from Ellguth.

Second Marriage of Heinrich Sternitzke

Heinrich Sternitzke's second wife was Elisabeth (née Grätz) Sternitzke. They had two known children: Anna Rosina Sternitzke and Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke.

Birth of daughter Anna Rosina Sternitzke, 1829 Werndorf

Anna Rosina Sternitzke was born at Werndorf on the 20th of September in 1829. She was baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 27th of September in 1829. Anna was the daughter of Heinrich Sternitzke and his second wife Elisabeth (née Grätz) Sternitzke. Heinrich was listed as a Knecht (farmhand). The baptismal witnesses were:

- the Magd (maid) Barbara Rademacher from Werndorf,
- the Magd Anna Rosina Fehniger from Jeschütz, and
- the Knecht (farmhand) Gottfried Koschmieder from Ellguth.

Birth of son Johann Gottlieb Sternitzky, 1832 Ströhof

Johann Gottlieb Sternitzky was born at Ströhof on the 4th of August in 1832. He was baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 12th of August in 1832. The baptism record shows the child was the son of Heinrich Sternitzky who was a Vogt (administrator) at Ströhof. The mother of the child was listed as Elisabeth (née Grätz) Sternitzky. This was her second child. The baptismal witnesses were:

- Anna Rosina Fehniger, a Gärtner Magd (maid at a small farm) from Trebnitz,
- the Magd Maria Elisabeth Rademacher from Werndorf,
- the Dreschgärtner (threshing farmer) Josef Serembe from Ströhof, and

Death of the Milchpächter Sternitzke Death of Rosina (née Sternitzke) Bittner Before 1903 Tschachawe, 1903 Breslau

The Milchpächter (dairy farmer) Sternitzke and his wife died at Tschachawe sometime before the death of their daughter Rosina Sternitzke in 1903. Rosina (née Sternitzke) Bittner was born at Raake in Wohlau County around the 17th of September in 1827 and died at Breslau on the 17th of June in 1903. She died at the age of 75 years and 9 months. The full names of her parents were not known to her daughter Amalie (née Bittner) Jordan, who reported the death of her mother. Amalie's report about her mother's place of birth may have been unreliable. There was a small settlement named Raake near Auras in Wohlau County (see map below).

Rosina's husband, the Steinsetzer (cobblestone street paver) Franz Bittner died at Breslau sometime before Rosina's death. Prior to her death, the widowed Frau Rosina (née Sternitzke) Bittner lived with her daughter Amalie at Zimmerstraße 6a (about 3 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Joachim Lelewela Street). They were Protestants.

Village of Tschelentnig in Trebnitz County

The village Tschelentnig was one mile south of Schawoine, and about six miles east of the City of Trebnitz. The name of the village Tschelentnig was written as Tschelentnigk in 1523 and as Cieletniki in 1896. It was renamed as Wenigwasser in 1936, and then in 1937 it was changed to Bergfelde. See the map under the discussion for Ströhof. The population in 1939 was 106. It is now known as Cielętniki, Poland.

The church records from Schawoine, transcribed by Frau Margarete (née Runge) Reiter of Bremen and shown above in the discussion regarding Schawoine, show the following Sternitzke families were living at Tschelentnig:

- The Freigärtners Hanß and Susanna Starnitzke /Sternißke owned a house and a small property for growing crops for their household at Tschelentnig. Hanß Sternißke was born in 1692, the oldest son of Hanß and Anna Starnitzke from Gross Ujeschütz. Hanß the Elder was a farmer at Gross Ujeschütz.

Hanß Starnitzke the Younger married Susanna née Jochmann at Schawoine on the 5th of May in 1720. Hanß died on the 31st of December in 1747. Susanna was the youngest daughter of Christoph Jochmann, the deceased Freigärtner and Gerichtsmann from Tschelentnig. Hanß and Susanna Sternißke had six children who were baptized at Schawoine: Johannes (1726), Rosina (1729), Heinrich (1732), Jacob (1738), Anna (1741) and Christoph (1744). The exact dates of their baptisms are listed above in the discussion regarding Schawoine.

- Heinrich Sternißke, the son of Hanß and Susanna Sternißke, married Susanna Scholze (or Scholtze). Heinrich was a Freigärtner at Tschelentnig like his father. Heinrich and Susanna had children who were baptized at Schawoine: Heinrich (1755), Maria (1757), Christian (1766), Gottlieb (1769) and David (1771).
- Daniel Sternitzke was the miller at Langenmühle, but he apparently lived at Tschelentnig. Two of his children died from small pox: Christian Gottlieb Sternitzke died on the 31st of August in 1781 and Anna Rosina Sternitzke died on the 18th of January in 1787.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Richard Sternitzke (1887-1936) 1887 Werdermühle, 1921 Obernigk, 1936 City of Breslau

Richard Sternitzke (1887-1936) was born around 1887 at Werdermühle. That year of birth was calculated from his age (34 years old) on his 1921 marriage record at the Protestant Church in Obernigk in Trebnitz County. See Chapter 2: City of Obernigk in Trebnitz County, Marriage Records at the Protestant Church in Obernigk.

Richard Sternitzke was married at the Protestant Church at Obernigk on the 24th of September in 1921, to the Jungfrau Marta Wiste. The marriage record listed Richard as an Oberkellner (headwaiter) at the city of Striegau (in Schweidnitz County). His father was identified on the marriage record as the deceased Müllermeister (master miller) Hermann Sternitzke at Werdermühle.

Marta Wiste was 26 years old in 1921, making 1895 the calculated year of her birth. Marta was the daughter of Johann Wiste at Obernigk.

Just before his death in 1936, the Oberkellner (headwaiter) Richard Sternitzke was living at Wilhelmstraße 2 in the city of Striegau (in Schweidnitz County). The city of Striegau

(now named Strzegom, Poland) is about 32 miles west of Breslau. Richard died at the Menzel-Hancke Krankenhauses (hospital) in Breslau on the 4th of December in 1936. He died at the age of 49 years old (again making 1887 his calculated year of birth). His death record listed his wife's name as Martha (née Wiste) Sternitzke.

The widow Martha Sternitzke was still living at Wilhelmstraße 2 at Striegau in 1942. See Chapter 10: City of Striegau in Schweidnitz County, Martha Sternitzke, 1942 Striegau, 1948 Griez (Thuringia).

Birth of Hermann Sternitzke Before 1898 Werdermühle

Hermann Sternitzke was wounded and later killed in battle during the First World War. He was born at Werdermühle, sometime before 1898 because the minimum age for conscription was 17 (though usually a young man was not sent to combat units before his 20th birthday). Hermann Sternitzke was severely wounded on the 1st of July in 1915. At that time, he was serving in the Grenadier-Regiment Number 7, First Battalion, 2nd Company. He then served in the Infantry Regiment Number 155, 6th Company. He was reported as killed in action on the 18th of April in 1916.

Family of Ernst Horn and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn
1841 to 1853 Zirkwitz, 1870 to 1916 Breslau

Wilhelm Starnitzki's book (edited by Karl Sille) listed Gottlieb Scholz and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Scholz as the owners of Bauergut Grundstück Nr. 26 at Domnowitz in 1837. A Bauergut Grundstück was a farmstead property. No payment was listed in the property transfer in 1837, which may mean Anna Rosina Sternitzke inherited the property from her mother Christiane (née Gramatte) Sternitzke-Ruschig. Christiane was probably the widow of Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1744-after 1811). Christiane was married to Gottlieb Ruschig when they paid for that property as a result of a judicial estimate. The payment was probably made to the heirs of Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1744-after 1811). See Book I, Chapter 9, Germanengrund (Domnowitz): Sternitzke Family Purchases and Sales in Domnowitz (Germanengrund) 1584 to 1925.

Both the book by Wilhelm Starnitzki and Karl Sille's original notes (from the Herder Institute) show that the widow Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Scholz married a Mr. Horn in 1839. Based on her age when she died (see below) Anna Rosina was born around the 27th of March in 1814. The Breslau address books show she was living at Breslau in 1891 and 1897. Ernst Horn died at Breslau between 1870 and 1880.

Ernst Horn and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn were listed as Besitzers der Vogtey (owners of the village administrator's residence) in the records of their children's baptisms at the Protestant Church at Massel. Ernst owned the title of village administrator (Vogt). Ernst was listed with that title from 1841 to 1847. A review of 19th century German books found many instances where the position was purchased, and the titles Erbvogt and Gerichtsvogt show that the position could be inherited or appointed by a court. The 1853 baptism record for their son listed Ernst Horn as an Ober Amtmann (a judge or magistrate) at Zirkwitz.

Birth of son Ernst Herrmann Horn, 1841

Ernst Herrmann Horn was born at the Vogtey Zirkwitz on the 16th of January in 1841, and he was baptized at Massel on the 2nd of February in 1841. His baptism record shows he was the 2nd child born from the marriage of the Besitzer der Vogtey Ernst Horn and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn.

The 1824-1842 Massel baptism record book was searched for a record of the first child from this marriage, and nothing was found. Perhaps the first child was baptized at Kainowe. The baptismal sponsors in 1841 were: the Bauersfrau (farmer's wife) Elisabeth Labitzke from Gross Ujeschütz, the Freigutsbesiter (free property owner) Eduard Ramisch from Rämisch Mühle, the Wirtschafts Inspector (agriculture inspector) Gottlieb Heinzel from Zirkwitz, and the Bauer (farmer) Gottlieb Labitzke from Gross Ujeschütz.

Birth of daughter Adelheide Agnes Horn, 1842

Adelheide Agnes Horn was born at the Vogtey Zirkwitz on the 2nd of October in 1842. She was baptized at Massel on the 21st of October in 1842. The baptism record listed Adelheide as the 3rd child of the Besitzer der Vogtey Ernst Horn and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn. The baptismal sponsors in 1842 were: the Pastor Franz Meier from Massel, the Organist Carl Trumpf from Massel and the Hebamme (midwife) Elisabeth Kiehnel from Zirkwitz.

Birth and Death of son Emil Paul Oskar Horn (1844-1913)

Emil Paul Oskar Horn was born at the Vogtey Zirkwitz on the 9th of January in 1844, and was baptized at Massel on the 14th of January in 1844. The baptism record listed him as the 2nd child from this marriage. The baptism sponsors were: Frau Inspector Caroline Heinzel from Zirkwitz, the Stadt Hebamme (city midwife) Caroline Tschikowski from Trebnitz and Herr Pastor Sämisch from Trebnitz.

Birth of son Eugen Paul Alexius Horn, 1846

Eugen Paul Alexius Horn was born at the Vogtey Zirkwitz on the 15th of May in 1846. He was baptized at Massel on the 19th of June in 1846. His baptism record listed him as the third child from the marriage of the Besitzer der Vogtey Ernst Horn and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn. The baptism record listed him as the 3rd child from this marriage. The baptism sponsors were: Frau Wirthschafts Inspector Caroline Heinzel from Zirkwitz, Herr Ritterguts-besitzer Ernst Hempe from Ströhof and Herr Wirthschafts Inspector Carl Horn from Zuplau.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son Arthur Richard Horn (1847-1900)

Arthur Richard Horn was born at the Vogtey Zirkwitz on the 1st of July in 1847. He was baptized at Massel on the 8th of August in 1847. His baptism record listed him as the 4th child from the marriage of the Besitzer der Vogtey Ernst Horn and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn. The baptism sponsors were: Frau Inspector Heinzel from Zirkwitz, Herr Ober Amtner Ernst Richter from Ellguth, Herr Ernst Hempe from Klein Zauche and Herr Carl Horn from Pfaffemühle.

The Kaiserliche Postsecretair (imperial post secretary) Arthur Richard Horn was a resident of Breslau in 1880. He married Sophia Eugenia Tepfer at Glatz in Glatz County on the 10th of July in 1880. The groom was a Protestant. His father, the Gutsbesitzer (estate owner) Ernst Horn had died at Breslau prior to the wedding. His mother, Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn was still living at Breslau.

Sophia Eugenia Tepfer was a resident of Glatz in 1880. She was a Catholic. She was born at Grottkau (in Grottkau county) on the 16th of August in 1854. She was the daughter of Wirthschaftsinspector (economic inspector) Cölestin Tepfer and Theola Johanna Magdalene (née Wendler) Tepfer. Her father had died at Glatz prior to the marriage. Her mother was still living at Glatz.

The Oberpostsekretär (senior postal secretary) Arthur Richard Horn died at his home (at Bohrauerstraße 3 in Breslau) on the 29th of August in 1900. His wife Sophie (née Tepfer) Horn Tepfer signed the civil death record. The record shows he was 53 years and 1 month old when he died. It listed Zirkwitz in Trebnitz County as his place of birth and listed his parents as the Oberamtmann Ernst Horn and Anne (née Sternitzki) Horn (who had both died at Breslau). See the discussion below regarding the Horn family in the Breslau address books.

Birth of son Eugen Alexander Dagobert Horn, 1853

Eugen Alexander Dagobert Horn was born at the Vogtey Zirkwitz on the 9th of May in 1853. He was baptized at Massel on the 17th of May in 1853. His baptism record listed him as the 5th child from the marriage of the Ober Amtmann (a judge or magistrate) Ernst Horn and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Horn. The baptism sponsors were: the Freibauer Gutsbesitzerin (free farmstead owner) Helena Labitzke from Gross Ujeschütz, the Lehrer (teacher) Albert Rauch from Pohlenowitz, Stadthebamme (city midwife) Caroline Schikowsky from Trebnitz.

Death of Anna (née Sternitzke) Horn (1814-1898)

The Gutsbesitzer-Witwe (widow of a homestead owner) Anna (née Sternitzke) Horn died on the 27th of June in 1898, at the age of 84 years and 3 months. Based on her age, she was born around the 27th of March in 1814. She was buried on the 30th of June in 1898 at the cemetery at Lehmgruben. Lehmgruben was a town near the southern edge of Breslau. It later became a suburb of Breslau. The church death/burial record listed the civil death record as number 1832 in 1898 at the Breslau Standesamt II.

Horn Family in Breslau Address Books 1870 to 1916

The Ernst Horn family moved from Zirkwitz to Breslau between 1853 and 1870. There were many members of the Horn family who lived in Breslau during those years, but a few entries can be linked to this branch of the Horn family.

The 1870 Breslau address book (page 148 of 1344) listed the Partikulier (owner and operator of a business) Ernst Horn as a resident at Teichstraße 12 III (third floor).

The 1884 Breslau address book (page 194 of 995) listed Anna Horn as the widow of an Oberamtmann. It listed her address as Teichstraße 12 II (second floor). The Post-Sekretair Richard Horn was listed as a resident who lived at Nachodstraße 20 I (first floor).

The 1891 Breslau address book (page 225 of 1344) listed the widow Anna (née Sternitzky) Horn. She was the widow of a Partikulier and lived at Bohrauerstraße 17 III.

The 1897 Breslau address book (page 291 of 818) listed the Post-Sekretair (postal secretary) Richard Horn as a resident at Sabowstraße 5 II. The widow of a Partikulier Anna Horn was still living at Bohrauerstraße 17 III.

The 1916 Breslau address book (page 285 of 1540) listed the widow Sophie (née Tepfer) Horn as a resident at Bohrauer Straße 85 III. She was the widow of an Oberpostsekretär (senior postal secretary).

Birth and Baptism of Johanna Christiane Schubert 1844 Zirkwitz

The Dreschgärtner Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke from Kawallen was one of the sponsors at the baptism of Johanna Christiane Schubert at the Protestant Church in Massel in 1844. Johanna Christiane Schubert was born at Zirkwitz on the 9th of March in 1844 and baptized at Massel on the 15th of March in 1844. She was the second child of the Schäferknecht (shepherd servant) Gottlieb Schubert and his wife Maria Rosina (née Sternitzke) Schubert.

Gottlieb Schubert was probably the brother of Johanna Elisabeth Schubert (the wife of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke).

The other baptismal sponsors were: the Dreschgärtner Rosina Kaschel from Kawallen, the Jungfer (maiden) Susanna Gottwald from Mienitz (also known as Mühnitz), and the Freigärtner Elisabeth Mausch from Karauschky.

Birth of Anna Johanna Caroline Neumann 1861 Zirkwitz

Anna Johanna Caroline Neumann was born on the 7th of August in 1861 at Zirkwitz in Trebnitz County. She was baptized at the Protestant Church at Massel on the 9th of August in 1861. The record of her baptism listed her father, Max Friedrich Neumann as the Weiland

Einwohner (deceased resident) of Zirkwitz. He died at Zirkwitz on the 18th of November in 1860, and he was buried at Massel. Her mother was Christiane (née Sternitzke) Neumann.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Zirkwitz Einwohner Anna Rosina Brendal, the Zirkwitz Einwohner Susanna Helena Hummel and the Hebamme (midwife) Susanna Stein from Massel.

The baptism records for the children of Friedrich Neumann and his wife Christiane (née Sternitzke) Neumann show they lived at Jeschütz from 1841 to 1852, and then moved to Zirkwitz. They were living at Zirkwitz in 1861. The death record of their daughter Auguste Ernestine Emilie Neumann shows Friedrich Neumann died at Zirkwitz, and that his wife Christiane (née Sternitzke) Neumann died at Kawallen. See the Family of Friedrich Neumann and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Neumann, 1841 to 1852 Jeschütz, 1861 Zirkwitz.

Birth and Marriage of Marie Sternitzke 1901 Groß Neudorf, 1921 City of Breslau and Gebirgsbauden in Hirschberg County

Marie Sternitzke married Alfred Teichmann at Gebirgsbauden in Hirschberg County on the 21st of May in 1921. Their marriage record provided the following information.

Marie Sternitzke was born at Groß Neudorf in Brieg County on the 10th of November in 1901. Her parents were not identified on her marriage record, but it referenced her birth record as number 85 in 1901 at the Groß Neudorf Standesamt (registry office).

In 1921, Marie was unemployed and lived in Breslau at Gertrudenstraße 1 (5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now named Benedykta Polaka Street). This was the same address where the Briefträger Wittwe or Postschaffnerwitwe (letter carrier's widow) Susanna (née Kulose or Kulosa) Sternitzke lived from 1914 to 1937. Susanna Sternitzke may have been Marie's mother. See the Marriage of Marie Sternitzke, 1921 City of Breslau and Gebirgsbauden in Hirschberg County.

Alfred Teichmann was born at Mittel Zillertal in Hirschberg County on the 3rd of March in 1875. His parents were not identified on his marriage record but his birth record was referenced as number 11 at the Erdmannsdorf Standesamt. Zillertal-Erdmannsdorf was a community in Hirschberg County. In 1921, the Hotelbesitzer (hotel owner) Alfred Teichmann was a resident of Brückenberg in Hirschberg County.

Family of Minna (née Sternitzke) Spitze 1871 to 1884 Linden

Birth and Death of daughter Martha Spitze (1871-1882)

The Plantagenbesitzer (plantation owner) August Spitze reported to the Standesamt (registry office) at Briesen that his daughter Martha Spitze died at Linden on the 15th of March in 1882. She was 11 years old when she died, so she was born at Linden around 1871. His wife's name was listed as Minna (née Sternitzke) Spitze.

Stillborn Spitze daughter, 1876

The Plantagenbesitzer (plantation owner) August Spitze reported to the Standesamt

Birth of daughter Helene Amalie Klara Spitze, 1880

Helene Amalie Klara Spitze was born in her parents' home at Linden on the 7th of March in 1880. She was the daughter of the Plantagenbesitzer (plantation owner) August Spitze and his wife Minna (née Starnitzke) Spitze, who were both Protestant. The birth was reported by the midwife Bertha (née Scholz) Mogwitz, who was also a resident of Linden.

Stillborn Spitze son, 1884

The midwife Bertha (née Schulz) Hample reported the stillborn son of the Gasthausbesitzer (guest house owner, innkeeper) August Spitze and Minna (née Sternitzke) Spitze. The child died in the family home at Linden on the 26th of June in 1884. The Geneteka genealogical database incorrectly listed that event as the death of the mother Minna (née Sternitzke) Spitze. The original record was available for review from the Polish Archives.

Wedding Witness Wilhelm Sternitzke
1910 Festenberg and Suschenhammer

The 42-years-old Postschaffner (postal worker) Wilhelm Sternitzke was one of the witnesses at the wedding of the Postbote (mailman) Karl Robert Heinrich Bittner and Anna Pauline Emma Zech. The wedding was recorded at the Suschenhammer Standesamt on the 17th of November in 1910. Wilhelm Sternitzke was a resident of Festenberg at that time. His signature from the original record is copied below. Wilhelm Sternitzke married Christine née Zech in 1894. See the Birth, Marriage and Death of Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1868 Groß Lahse, 1894 Suschen, 1910 Festenberg, 1915 to 1943 Breslau.

The other wedding witness was the 30 years old Postbote (mailman) August Kahl. He was a resident of Suschen.

Karl Robert Heinrich Bittner was born on the 13th of October in 1882 at Eisersdorf Glatz County. He was a Protestant. In 1910, he was employed as a Postbote (mailman) at the Suschen Gutsbezirk. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Robert Bittner and his wife Luise (née Hanke) Bittner, who were residents of Mahlen in Trebnitz County.

Anna Pauline Emma Zech was born on the 25th of July in 1890 at Kuckenburg in Querfurt County (southwest of Halle in Sachsen-Anhalt). She was a Protestant. In 1910 she lived at Surmin in the Suschen Gutsbezirk. She was the daughter of the Handarbeiter (manual laborer) Karl Zech and his wife Johanna (née Gohla) Zech. They were residents of Dobis in Saal County (in Sachsen-Anhalt).

Maria (née Sternitzke) Weiss
1911 City of Breslau and
Festenberg in Gross Wartenberg County

Paul Gustav Weiss was born on the 6th of December in 1881 at Groß-Lahse in Militsch County. He was the son of Erdmann Weiss and Maria (née Sternitzke) Weiss. Erdmann Weiss married Marie Sternitzky on the 27th of April in 1879 at Schlottau in Trebnitz County. Erdmann Weiss was the son of Carl Weiss. Marie Sternitzke was the daughter of Gottfried Sternitzke. See Chapter 2, Village of Schlottau in Trebnitz County, Schlottau Church Book Records: Marriages.

In 1911, Paul Gustav Weiss was a Schühmacher (shoemaker) and lived in Breslau at Fährgrasse 3 (on the island northwest from the old city walls, now Jana Žižki Street). His parents, the Freistellenbesitzers Erdmann Weiss and Maria (née Sternitzke) Weiss had moved to Festenberg in Gross Wartenberg County (northeast of Öls County) between Paul's birth in 1881 and Paul's marriage in 1911. A Freistellenbesitzer was the owner of a property free of rent or mortgage payments. Erdmann Weiss died at Festenberg before Paul's marriage, but Maria (née Sternitzke) Weiss was still living at Festenberg at that time.

On the 22nd of December of 1911, Paul Gustav Weiss married Ida Neumann at Breslau. They were both Protestants. Ida was unemployed and lived at the same address as Paul: at Fährgrasse 3. Ida Neumann was born on the 13th of June in 1882 at Colonie Hammer in Öls County. She was the daughter of the Waldarbeiter (forest worker) Wilhelm Neumann and his wife Christiana Neumann, who were both deceased at the time of the wedding and last lived at Briese in Öls County.

Witnesses at the 1911 wedding were the 25 years old Friseur (male barber or hairdresser) Fritz Janus and the 30 years old Barbier (barber) August Przibyla. Fritz Janus lived in Breslau at Schuhbrück 33 (2 blocks southeast from the Breslau University, now Szewska Street). August Przibyla lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 130 (5 blocks north of Sand Island, now Jeności Narodowej Street).

Müller Heinrich Sternitzke 1842 Langendorf and Massel

Heinrich Sternitzke was a Müller at Langendorf in 1842. On the 18th of December in 1842, he was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptism of Susanne Helene Kessel at the Protestant Church in Massel (in Trebnitz County).

Susanne Helene Kessel was born at Haltauf in Trebnitz County on the 15th of December in 1842. She was the second child from the marriage of the Dreschgärtner Ernst Gottlieb Kessel and Susanna (née Koschmiede) Kessel. A Dreschgärtner (threshing farmer) was a farmer who owed annual threshing and flax processing services for the fields owned by the village landlord.

The other baptismal sponsors were: the Freigärtner Helene Meidel from Buchwald and the Dreschgärtner Friedrich Koschmieder from Ellguth.

Birth and Death of Arthur Emil Curt Sternitzkÿ 1884 Breslau and Otto-Langendorf

Anna Sternitzkÿ was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Friedrich Sternitzkÿ in the village Otto-Langendorf (in Groß Wartenberg County). In 1884, Anna Sternitzkÿ was unmarried and lived in Breslau at Uferstraße 3, now Fryderyka Joliot-Curie Street along the north bank of the Oder River, near the Peace Bridge (Polish: most Pokoju, formerly the German: Lessing Brücke).

On the 2nd of April of 1884, Anna Sternitzkÿ gave birth to Arthur Emil Curt Sternitzkÿ. The baby was baptized on the 8th of April in 1884 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were the Frau Hutmacher (wife of a milliner) Bertha Podt and the Kutscher (coachman) Friedrich Sternitzkÿ.

Arthur Sternitzkÿ, the son of the unmarried Köchin (cook) Anna Sternitzkÿ died at Breslau on the 22nd of April in 1884, and was buried on the 25th of April in 1884, at the age of 20 days old. His mother was a Protestant and she lived at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 45. The church burial record referenced his civil death record as number 1698 dated the 22nd of April in 1884 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

A Protestant, unmarried Köchin (cook) named Anna Sternitzke appeared in other Breslau records. Those records may have referenced the same person. See the Ledigen Köchin Anna Sternitzke, 1884 to 1913 City of Breslau.

Suschen and Suschenhammer in Gross Wartenberg County

The villages Suschen and Suschenhammer were difficult to locate because they were near the border between Silesia and Posen. There were several changes in the location of the border, resulting in changes in the names of the counties along the border. The two villages were located: about 5 miles northwest from Neumittelwalde (now Międzybórz), 18 miles southeast Krotoszyn, 15 miles east of Militsch, 20 miles northeast of Oels, 17 miles northwest from Bralin and 15 miles southwest of Ostrowo.

Most of the Sternitzke family records placed Suschen and Suschenhammer in Gross Wartenberg County in Silesia. But, the death record for Wilhelm Sternitzke (at Breslau on the 11th of April in 1943) listed the Standesamt (registry office) at Suschenhammer in Ostrowo County as the location of his 1894 marriage record. A German website for Suschen listed Suschen (not Suschenhammer) as the locations of the registry office and the Protestant church for the villages in that area. See below for the URL of the website. A Polish website correctly identified his marriage as having been recorded at the Suschen civil registry office.

Suschen is now named Sośnie, Poland. Suchenhammer is now named Moja Wola, Poland.

Marriage of Wilhelm Sternitzke 1894 Suschen or Suschenhammer

Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Groß Lahse in Militsch County on the 13th of December in 1868. His 1943 death record listed his parents as Karl Sternitzke and Susanna (née Stahr) Sternitzke, who both died at Groß Lahse (named Mittenwald in 1937) in Militsch County.

Wilhelm Sternitzke married Christine née Zech in 1894. The transcribed summary of their marriage record (available at the National Archive in Poznań website) listed Wilhelm's bride as Christine Zech (she was listed as Christiane on Wilhelm's civil and church death records). She was born in 1872, the daughter of Carl Zech and Marie (née Ulbrich) Zech. The transcribed summary of their marriage record (at the National Archive in Poznań website) listed Wilhelm's parents as Carl Sternitzke and Susanne (née Stahr) Sternitzke. The first names of his parents are slightly different from Wilhelm's 1943 death record. The Poznań website listed the source of the information as the civil registry (Standesamt) at Suschen (now named Sośnie).

The database at the Meine-ahnen.eu website shows transcribed data from the marriage record of Wilhelm Sternitzke. He was born on the 13th of December in 1868 at Groß Lahse in Militsch County. He was a Protestant. He was the son of the Auszügler (retired farmer) Carl Sternitzke and Susanna (née Stahr) Sternitzke who were living at Groß Lahse on the day of the wedding. Christiane Zech was born on the 19th of August in 1872. She was the daughter of the late Wirth (innkeeper) Carl Zech and the late Maria (née Ulbrich) Zech from Kalkowski in Groß Wartenberg County. Wilhelm and Christiane were married on the 23rd of March in 1894 at Suschenhammer. Wilhelm Sternitzke was employed as a Briefträger (mailman) in Suschenhammer. The witnesses to the wedding were: the 28 years old Hauptlehrer (middle school teacher) Gustav Pietsch from Suschen, and the 38 years old Gastwirt (innkeeper) Johann Gonschorek from Surmin.

Wilhelm's civil death record showed Wilhelm and Christiane were married on the 23rd of March in 1894 at Suschenhammer in Ostrowo County (previously in Gross Wartenburg County). According the Wilhelm's death record, their marriage was recorded at the Suschenhammer Standesamt (registry office) as record number 8 in 1894. Suschenhammer was 15 miles east of Groß Lahse, and 15 miles southwest of the city of Ostrowo. See the discussion regarding the Silesian-Posen border changes in Chapter 4: Suschen and Suschenhammer in Gross Wartenburg County.

Militsch County in the Breslau District

In the civil registration book for the village Zantkau (in Trebnitz County), Wilhelm Starnitzki identified several members of the Sternitzke family associated with Militsch County in the late 16th to early 17th centuries. The following children of George and Katharine Tschirnitzke (of Zantkau) were associated with Militsch County:

- Paul Czierniske the Erbscholz in Zantkau married Anna Kargin (from Militsch) around 1570.
- Elizabeth Tschirnitzke married Viteg Kolewe at Prausnitz (now Prusice) in Militsch County around 1575.
- Hans Tschirnitzke was living in Przittkowitz (now Przedkowice), north of Prausnitz in Militsch County, from 1580 to 1588.
- Dorothea Tschirnitzke was living at Prausnitz (now Prusice) in Militsch County) in 1603.
- Katharine Tschirnitzke married Christoph Scholz in Kassawe (now Kaszowo), three miles southwest of the city Militsch in Militsch County, about 1587.
- A grandson of George and Katharine Tschirnitzke, Paul Sciernisko (the son of Blasius der Ältere) was the court appointed mayor (Gerichtsscholz) of Deutkowe around 1611. Variations of Blasius's surname included Ziernißko, Czirnisko, Czirniszko, Szernischko and Szernitzke. That village may have been Donkawe or Duchowe, two villages in Militsch County.
- Another grandson, Simon Sciernisko (Paul's brother) was living at Dobrtowitz (now Dobroslawice) in Militsch County from 1611 to 1668. See the Village of Dobrtowitz in Militsch County: the Family of Simon Sciernisko and Hedwig (née Klubrowna) Scziernisko, 1611 to 1689 Dobiertowitz.

City of Militsch and the Bartsch Suburb in Militsch County

A castle in the City of Militsch was mentioned (as Miliche) in the papal bull of Pope Innocent II in 1136. The city and the castle were sold to Duke Konrad of Öls in 1358. Militsch remained as a possession of the Dukes of Öls until that line died out in 1492, then the city passed to the King of Bohemia and Hungary, Vladislas II (also known as Ladislaus Jagiellon). Militsch and Trachenberg were granted to Sigismund Kurzbach in 1494. Militsch was purchased by the Maltzan family 1590. The city of Militsch had 5390 inhabitants in 1939. It is now known as Milicz.

Family of Carolina (née Sternitzke) Kuban 1878 to 1884 Militsch

Johann Kuban and his wife Carolina (née Sternitzke) Kuban had three children who were baptized at Militsch. The records of those baptisms were brief transcriptions, so it is unknown if the family lived in the city of Militsch or if they lived at a nearby village. There may have been another child of this family (Karoline Kuban) and a grandson (Karl Fritz Kuban). See the Town of Freyhan (Freÿhan, Freihan) in Militsch County: Karoline (née Starniske) Kuban, 1901 Freyhan.

Birth and Baptism of son August Johann Kuban, 1878

August Johann Kuban was born on the 13th of August in 1878. He was baptized at Militsch on the 22nd of September in 1878, He was the son of Johann Kuban and Carolina (née Sternitzke) Kuban.

Birth and Baptism of daughter Auguste Kuban, 1880

Auguste Kuban was born on the 3rd of July in 1880. She was baptized at Militsch on the 15th of August in 1880. Her parents were identified as Johann Kuban and Carolina (née Sternitzke) Kuban. It is possible that her full name was Auguste Karoline Kuban, and that she was the mother of Karl Fritz Kuban in 1901.

Birth and Baptism of daughter Anna Bertha Kuban, 1884

Anna Bertha Kuban was born on the 1st of May in 1884. She was baptized at Militsch on the 13th of June in 1884. Her parents were identified as Johann Kuban and Carolina (née Sternitzke) Kuban.

Village of Altenau in Militsch County

The village Altenau in Militsch County is now named Dziadkowo. Polish versions of its name before 1890 included Dziatkawe (1809 map), Dziatkawe, Dziakowo, Dziatkowo and Dziatkowa. Its population was 455 in 1939. It is located approximately 4 miles north of the city Militsch (Milicz) and one mile north of Gugelwitz (now known as Gogołowice).

Catholics from Altenau attended church in the city of Militsch. Protestants belonged to the Evangelical Church parish at Militsch from 1820 to 1895, but belonged to the parish at Hochweiler from before 1921 to 1945. The Protestants at Hochweiler (now known as Wierzchowice) were members of the Evangelical Church at Massel from 1635 to 1709, followed by the Gnadenkirche zum Heiligen Kreuz from 1709 to 1754. They attended the Evangelical Church at Hochweiler from 1755 to 1945.

Birth and Marriage of Hermann Paul Heinrich Hendriok 1851 Borzentine and 1891 Breslau

Hermann Paul Heinrich Hendriok was born at Borzentine on the 22nd of May in 1851. He was the son of the Bahnwärter Anton Hendriok and Hedwig (née Sternitzke) Hendriok. Anton was a Bahnwärter (railroad signalman) from Schmiegrode (a village about 1 mile north of Trachenberg). Schmiegrode is now named Żmigródek.

Hermann Hendriok married Mathilda Emilie Rieger in Breslau on the 10th of April in 1891. Hermann was a Catholic and occupied as a Straßenbahnkondukteur (streetcar conductor) in Breslau. Mathilda was also a Catholic. She was employed as a Dienstmädchen (maid servant) in Breslau. Mathilda was born on the 31st of October in 1857, at Gross Nossen in Münsterberg County.

At the time of Hermann Hendriok's wedding, his mother Hedwig (née Sternitzke) Hendriok was deceased (she died at Gellendorf in Trebnitz County), but his father was living at Schiegrode. Gellendorf was 5 miles west of Prausnitz, 11 miles northwest of Trebnitz and 20 miles northwest of Breslau. Gellendorf is now known as Skokowa, Poland. Hermann's brother, Carl Anton Hendriock married Anna Maria Rosalie Zimmerman in 1897. See the Village of Schmiegrode in Militsch County: Schmiegrode Standesamt I Marriage Records: the 1879 marriage of Carl Anton Hendriock. The family names were spelled Hendriock and Sterniske on that marriage record.

The witnesses to the wedding were the Haushälter (janitor) August Rieger (age 32) and the Schmidt (smith) Paul Liebisch (age 29). August and Paul were residents of Breslau.

A note on the 1891 marriage record shows that the groom Hermann Hendriok died in 1916 (death record number 963 at Breslau Standesamt I).

Family of Simon Sciernisko/Scziernisko 1609 to 1668 Dobrtowitz

Simon Sciernisko (Gen.III-14. 1574-after 1668) was born in 1574 at Zantkau. He was the son of the Erbbauer und Erbscholz Blasius der Ältere (the Elder) Sciernisko. The name of Blasius' first wife (Simon's mother) is not known. See Book I, Chapter 9 Germanengrund (Domnowitz): Sternitzke Personal Data from the Domnowitz (Germanengrund) Schöppenbuch.

Simon Scziernisko from Dobrtowitz was a baptism sponsor at the Powitzko Catholic Church on the 12th of April in 1609. He married Hedwig Klubrowna before 1611. The -owna suffix on Hedwig's maiden name indicates she was the daughter of a Mister Klubro. Simon and his wife were the sponsors for many baptisms at Powitzko. The last baptism record at Powitzko that listed Hedwig Sczierniskowa was dated the 24th of November in 1656. The -owa suffix indicates she was a married woman. The last baptism record at Powitzko that listed Simon Scziernisko as a sponsor was dated the 10th of June in 1668.

The following events regarding the family of Simon Scziernisko were recorded at the Catholic church in Powitzko:

- Margreta, the daughter of Simon Scziernisko and his wife Hedwigis from Dobiertowitz, was baptized on the 9th of June in 1611.
- Michael, the son of Simon Scziernisko and his wife Hedwigi from Dobiertowitz, was baptized at Powitzko on the 28th of September in 1614. Susanna Scziernisken was one of the baptism sponsors. I have not identified how she was related to Simon Scziernisko.
- Hans, the son of Simon Scziernisko and wife Hedwigis from Dobiertowitz, was baptized at Powitzko on the 20th of May in 1618. Catarina Scziernisken was one of the baptism sponsors. She was Catarina (née Wenczel) Scziernisken the wife of Jakob Scziernisko (1584-c.1641, SN262) from Domnowitz. Jakob was Simon's brother.
- Anna, the daughter of Simon Scziernisko and his wife Hedwigis, was baptized at Powitzko on the 4th of August in 1624.
- Marcin (Martin), the son of Simon Scziernisko and his wife Jadwiga from Dobiertowitz was baptized at Powitzko on the 5th of October in 1642. Martinus Scziernisko from Dobiertowitz married Anna Poremba on the 25th of August in 1672 at Powitzko.
 - Mattias/Matthias, the son of Martin Scziernisko and his wife Anna from Dobiertowitz was baptized at Powitzko on the 6th of September in 1673.
 - Bartolomeus, the son of Martin Shiernisko and wife Anna from Dobiertowitz was baptized at Powitzko on the 22nd of August in 1677.
 - Jacobus (Jakob), the son of Martinus Sternisko and his wife Anna from Dobiertowitz was baptized at Powitzko on the 9 July 1684.
 - Anna, the daughter of Martin Schernisko and his wife Anna from Dobiertowitz was buried on the 2nd of August in 1689.
- Joannes (Johann), the son of Simone Scziernisko and wife Hedwige (née Klubrowna) Scziernisko from Dobiertowicz was baptized at Powitzko on the 22nd of November in 1654. Joannes Scziernisko died on the 27th of March in 1655 (age 18 weeks old). He was buried at Powitzko on the 29th of March in 1655.

Family of Gottlieb Müller and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller 1849 to 1860 Dobertowitz

The Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Müller and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller lived at Dobertowitz (in Militsch County) in 1849 and 1860. Their son (Carl Friedrich David Müller) and their daughter (Rosina Pauline Auguste Müller) were born at Dobertowitz. The Gottlieb Müller family was living at Pawellau when their daughter was married in 1883. Gottlieb Müller and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller died at Pawellau according to their son's 1904 death record. See Book II: Family of Gottlieb Müller and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller, 1883 to 1901 Pawellau.

Four children of Gottlieb Müller and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller were baptized at Prausnitz.

- An unnamed daughter of Johann Gottlieb Müller and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller was born on the 6th of June in 1846 and was baptized at Prausnitz in that same month.
- Christiane Louise Müller was born on the 25th of July in 1847. She was baptized at Prausnitz on the 1st of August in 1847. She was the daughter of Johann Gottlieb Müller and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller.
- Carl Friedrich David Müller was born on the 23rd of May in 1849. He was baptized at Prausnitz on the 29th of May in 1849. The source of this information was a brief transcription of the baptism record (which had obvious errors). His father was listed as Johan Gottlib Mutten. The mother was transcribed as Ana Rosina Sternitzke. Karl Müller was born at Dobertowitz around the 5th of June in 1849. That date was calculated from his age (55 years and 5 months) on his death record. He was the son of Gottlieb Müller and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller. His parents moved to Pawellau in Trebnitz County where they were Bauergutsbesitzers (farmstead owners) until their deaths before 1904.
In 1904, Karl Müller was employed as a Monteur (mechanic) and lived in Breslau at Berliner-Chaussee 174 (Berlin Highway, about 2 miles northwest of the old city walls). He was married to Emilia (née Rossdeutscher) Müller, who signed his death record. Her husband died at home on the 5th of November in 1904. They were Protestants.
- Rosina Pauline Auguste Müller was born on the 23rd of November in 1860 at Dobrtowitz in Militsch County. She was baptized at Prausnitz on the 2nd of December in 1860. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer Gottlieb Müller and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Müller. In 1883 the Müller family was living at Pawellau. The Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Friedrich August Nitschke married Rosina Pauline Auguste Müller on the 5th of June in 1883. The marriage was recorded at Schimmerau, but was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. Both the bride and the groom were Protestants.

Paul Czierniske (1572-1618, SN22a) 1611 to 1618 Donkawe

Paul Czierniske (1572-1618, SN22a) was one of the sons of Blasius (SN22). Paul was born at Zantkau before Blasius moved the family to Domnowitz. See Book I, Chapter 9 Germanengrund (Domnowitz): the Sternitzke Personal Data from the Domnowitz (Germanengrund) Schöppenbuch.

Paul Czierniske (SN22a) was a farmer and the Gerichtsscholz at Deutkowe (court appointed mayor) at Deutkowe until 1611, and he died there in 1618. The village Deutkowe, as written by Wilhelm Starnitzki, has not been found in other references. It may have been either Donkawe or Duchowe, two villages in Militsch County. Donkawe was renamed as Freihufen in 1937, and is now named Dunkowa. Duchowe was renamed as Weinberge in 1936, and is now known as Duchowo.

Marriage of Eva Scierniskowna 1656 Donkawe

Eva Scierniskowna was a resident of Zdonkowo (Donkawe) in 1656. The -owna suffix of Eva's maiden name indicates she was the daughter of a Mr. Sciernisko. Eva married Alberty Adami Nawere at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 31st of January in 1656.

Family of David Hermann Sternitzke
1873 to 1943 Donkawe

David Hermann Sternitzke was born at Klein Ujeschuetz on 28th of February in 1850. He was the son of Johann Sternitzke and Helene (née Fischer) Sternitzke of Klein Ujeschütz, in Trebnitz County. See the table above.

David Hermann Sternitzke married Anna Pauline Elias on the 29th of April in 1873. She was born on the 15th of August in 1851. She died at Donkawe on the 8th of October in 1887.

David Hermann Sternitzke married Elisabeth Ziebe at Sulau on the 20th of November in 1888. Their marriage was recorded on the 1943 death record of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke, which referenced the marriage record number 19 in 1888 at the Sulau Standesamt (civil registry office) at Sulau in Militsch County. Elisabeth Ziebe was born on the 19th of January in 1863 at Peterkaschütz in Militsch County. She was the daughter of Gottfried Ziebe and Anna Rosina (née Döring) Ziebe, who last resided at Peterkaschütz. Peterkaschütz was named Lachmannshofen in 1937. It is now named Piotrkosice, Poland.

Children of David Hermann Sternitzke and Anna (née Elias) Sternitzke

The Geneteka database includes the birth records for six children of David Sternitzke and Anna (née Elias) Sternitzke. They were all born at Donkawe. The birth records listed the religion of the parents as altlutherisch (Old Lutheran). The births were recorded at the Standesamt (registry office) as Sulau in Militsch County.

- Herrmann Ernst Sternitzke was born on the 15th of April in 1875.
- Wilhelm Paul Sternitzke was born on the 18th of July in 1878. See below: the Family and Emigration of Wilhelm Paul Sternitzke, 1878 to 1926 Donkawe.
- The twin Georg Hermann Sternitzke was born on the 12th of March in 1882.
- The twin Friedrich Johann Sternitzke was born on the 12th of March in 1882. See Chapter 13: The Liegnitz District, Bunzlau County in the Liegnitz District, Village of Seifersdorf in Bunzlau County: the Family of Friedrich Johann Sternitzki, 1915 to 1928 Seifersdorf.
- Johanna Helene Sternitzke was born on the 12th of April in 1884.
- Martin Paul Sternitzke was born on the 28th of August in 1885. See the table above for his marriage and family.

Probable Children of David Hermann Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke

- Paul Sternitzki was born at Donkawe on the 12th of December in 1891. See below: the Birth and Death of Paul Sternitzki, 1891 Donkawe to 1917.
- Martha Elisabeth Sternitzki was born at Donkawe on the 18th of May in 1897. She married Hermann Friedrich Friebe on the 7th of June in 1924 and reported the death of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke in 1943. See below: the Birth and Marriage of Martha Elisabeth Sternitzki, 1897 Donkawe, 1924 Sulau and Breslau. Martha (née Sternitzke) Friebe was living with, and reported the death of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke at Breslau in 1943. See below.

Death of David Hermann Sternitzke (1850-1922)

The Auszügler (retired farmer) David Hermann Sternitzke died at home in Donkawe in Militsch County on the 14th of August in 1922, at the age of 72 years old. His death was reported by his son, the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke who lived at Donkawe. The death was recorded at the Standesamt (registry office) at Sulau.

The death of David Sternitzke was reported in the Militscher Kreis- und Stadtblatt (Militsch county and city newspaper) Number 66 in 1922. The following announcement appeared in that newspaper:

Traueranzeige der Spar- u. Darlehnskasse Donkawe: Verstarb der Mitbegründer unserer Kasse und langjähriges Vorstandsmitglied. Danksagung der trauernden Gattin: mein lieber Mann, unser guter Vater, Schwieger- und Großvater.

Translation: Death announcement by the Donkawe Savings and Loan Bank. He was one of the founders of our bank and a longtime board member. Acknowledgement by the grieving wife: my dear husband, a good father, father-in-law and grandfather.

Death of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke (1863-1943)

The widow Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke died at home in Breslau on the 15th of December 1943. She had lived at Gräschener Straße 16 (about 4 blocks from the southwest corner of the old moat, now Grabiszyńska Street). Elisabeth was a Protestant. The causes of Elisabeth's death were listed as Aderverkalkung und Gehirnschlag (venous calcification and cerebral apoplexy).

Elisabeth's death was reported by Martha (née Sternitzke) Friebe, who lived at the same address. She was probably the daughter of David Hermann Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke. The 1943 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiterin (laborer) Frau Martha Friebe, but not Elisabeth Sternitzke as a resident at Gräschener Straße 16.

Family and Emigration of Wilhelm Paul Sternitzke 1878 to 1926 Donkawe

Wilhelm Paul Sternitzke was born on the 18th of July in 1878 at Donkawe. He was the son of David Sternitzke and Anna (née Elias) Sternitzke. Wilhelm Sternitzky was listed as a Freistellenbesitzer (free owner of a property) at Donkawe in the 1922 and the 1925-1926 address books for Militsch County. He was the son of David Sternitzke who was listed in the 1922 address book for Militsch County and died that year (see above).

His 1936 petition for naturalization shows Wilhelm Paul Sternitzke married Johanna Kretschmer on the 16th of March in 1920 at Sulau in Militsch County. The birth date for Johanna was listed as the 24th of June in 1895. The petition shows he emigrated from Hamburg, Germany in 1929 on the ship SS Albert Brallin. He was employed as Metzger (butcher) in New York. The years of birth for their children was listed as 1920, 1921 and 1925. Their children were all born at Donkawe.

Wilhelm Sternitzke was listed on the passenger list of the ship SS Albert Ballin, which had arrived in New York on the 10th of June in 1929. His place of birth was listed as Donkave [Donkawe], Germany. Wilhelm was listed as a 39-years-old farm laborer. His last permanent residence prior to emigration was listed as Bruch, Germany (Bruch in Neumarkt County). Wilhelm and his family must have lived at Bruch for a short time prior to emigration, because the youngest child was born at Donkawe in 1925.

On the 23rd of February in 1930, Johanna Sternitzke and her three children arrived in New York on the ship named SS Hamburg. The birthplace of Johanna and her children was identified as Donkawe, and their last place of residence was listed as Bruch, Germany (in Neumarkt County, Silesia). Their ages and estimated year of birth were:

- Johanna Sternitzke, age 34 female, born around 1896 at Donkawe,
- Paul Sternitzke, age 9 male, born around 1921 at Donkawe,
- Fritz Sternitzke, age 8 male, born around 1922 at Donkawe, and
- Nemi Sternitzke, age 4 female, born around 1926 at Donkawe.

Birth and Marriage of Martha Elisabeth Sternitzki
1897 Donkawe, 1924 Sulau and Breslau

The 1924 marriage record for Martha Elisabeth Sternitzki provided the following information. Martha Elisabeth Sternitzki was born at Donkawe in Militsch County on the 18th of May in 1897. She was the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer David Sternitzki who died at Donkawe before the day of the wedding. She was an Evangelical Lutheran. See above: the Family of David Hermann Sternitzke, 1873 to 1943 Donkawe, the Death of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke (1863-1943).

Martha Elisabeth Sternitzki married Hermann Friedrich Friebe on the 7th of June in 1924. The marriage was recorded at the Sulau Standesamt (registry office) on the 7th of June in 1924 (record number 13 in 1924. The marriage was recorded in a Breslau military record book on the 8th of June in 1924. This was the first marriage for both the bride and the groom.

Hermann Friedrich Friebe was born on the 25th of April in 1897 at Waldenburg. In 1934, Hermann was serving in the Prussian Army. He was an Obergefreiter (corporal) in the 9th Royal Infantry Regiment 7 at Breslau. He was a Evangelical (Protestant).

Village of Duchowe in Militsch County

The village Duchowe was renamed as Weinberge in 1936. It had 295 inhabitants in 1933 and 272 inhabitants in 1939. It is located about 2 miles southeast of Militsch. The village is now known as Duchowo. See the 1895 map above in the discussion for Altenau, and the modern map below. Duchowe is one possible village that Wilhelm Starnitzki referred to as Deutkowe. Paul Czierniske was a Bauer (farmer) and the Gerichtsscholz (court appointed mayor) at Deutkowe until 1611 and he died there in 1618.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Wilhelm Sternitzke 1868 Groß Lahse, 1894 Suschen, 1910 Festenberg, 1915 to 1943 Breslau

Birth of Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1868

Wilhelm Sternitzke (1868-1943) was born at Groß Lahse in Militsch County on the 13th of December in 1868. His 1943 civil death record listed his parents as Karl Sternitzke and Susanna (née Stahr) Sternitzke, who both died at Groß Lahse (named Mittenwald in 1937) in Militsch County.

Godfather Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1892

The Briefträger (letter carrier) Wilhelm Sternitzke was the godfather at the baptism of Maximilian Walter Sternitzke at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 11th of January in 1892. The baby was the son of Wilhelm's brother: Ernst Sternitzke (1859-1930). See the: Family of Ernst Sternitzke (1859-1930), 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1894

Wilhelm Sternitzke married Christine née Zech in 1894. The transcribed summary of their marriage record (available at the National Archive in Poznań website) listed Wilhelm's bride as Christine Zech (she was listed as Christiane on Wilhelm's civil and church death records). She was born in 1872, the daughter of Carl Zech and Marie (née Ulbrich) Zech. The transcribed summary of their marriage record (at the National Archive in Poznań website) listed Wilhelm's parents as Carl Sternitzke and Susanne (née Stahr) Sternitzke. The first names of his parents are slightly different from Wilhelm's 1943 civil death record. The Poznań website listed the source of the information as the civil registry (Standesamt) at Suschen (now named Sośnie).

The database at the Meine-ahnen.eu website shows transcribed data from the marriage record of Wilhelm Sternitzke. He was born on the 13th of December in 1868 at Groß Lahse in Militsch County. He was a Protestant. He was the son of the Auszügler (retired farmer) Carl Sternitzke and Susanna (née Stahr) Sternitzke who were living at Groß Lahse on the day of the wedding. Christiane Zech was born on the 19th of August in 1872. She was the daughter of the late Wirth (innkeeper) Carl Zech and the late Maria (née Ulbrich) Zech from Kalkowski in Groß Wartenberg County. Wilhelm and Christiane were married on the 23rd of March in 1894 at Suschenhammer. Wilhelm Sternitzke was employed as a Briefträger (mailman) in Suschenhammer. The witnesses to the wedding were: the 28 years old Hauptlehrer (middle school teacher) Gustav Pietsch from Suschen, and the 38 years old Gastwirt (innkeeper) Johann Gonschorek from Surmin.

Wilhelm's civil death record showed Wilhelm and Christiane were married on the 23rd of March in 1894 at Suschenhammer in Ostrowo County (in Posen) which was previously in Gross Wartenburg County, Silesia. According the Wilhelm's civil death record, their marriage was recorded at the Suschenhammer Standesamt (registry office) as record number 8 in 1894. Suschenhammer was 15 miles east of Groß Lahse, and 15 miles southwest of the city of Ostrowo. See the discussion regarding the Silesian-Posen border changes in Chapter 4: Suschen and Suschenhammer in Gross Wartenburg County.

Wedding Witness Wilhelm Sternitzke,
1910 Festenberg and Suschenhammer

The 42 years old Postschaffner (postal worker) Wilhelm Sternitzke was one of the wittenesses at the wedding of the Postbote (mailman) Karl Robert Heinrich Bittner and Anna Pauline Emma Zech. The wedding was recorded at the Suschenhammer Standesamt on the 17th of November in 1910. Wilhelm Sternitzke was a resident of Festenberg at that time. His signature from the original record is copied here. Wilhelm Sternitzke married Christine née Zech in 1894.

The other wedding witness was the 30 years old Postbote (mailman) August Kahl. He was a resident of Suschen.

Karl Robert Heinrich Bittner was born on the 13th of October in 1882 at Eisersdorf Glatz County. He was a Protestant. In 1910, he was employed as a Postbote (mailman) at the Suschen Gutsbezirk. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Robert Bittner and his wife Luise (née Hanke) Bittner, who were residents of Mahlen in Trebnitz County.

Anna Pauline Emma Zech was born on the 25th of July in 1890 at Kuckenburg in Querfurt County (southwest of Halle in Sachsen-Anhalt). She was a Protestant. In 1910 she lived at Surmin in the Suschen Gutsbezirk. She was the daughter of the Handarbeiter (manual laborer) Karl Zech and his wife Johanna (née Gohla) Zech. They were residents of Dobis in Saal County (in Sachsen-Anhalt).

Death of Wilhelm Sternitzke (1868-1943)

Wilhelm's death record shows that before his death, Wilhelm Sternitzke was a retired Postassistent (postal assistant). He lived at Bohrauer Straße 105 in Breslau. Wilhelm Sternitzke died at the Landes-Krankenhaus Nord (hospital) at Einbaumstraße 25 in Breslau on the 11th of April in 1943. He was a Protestant. His death record listed the cause of death as Hirnarterienverkalkung und Lungenoedem (pulmonary arteries and pulmonary edema).

The 1942 to 1944 burial record book from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau included the burial record for the retired Postassistent (postal assistant) Wilhelm Sternitzke. The information for that record was provided by his widow, Christiane Sternitzke who signed the church record (see below). The church record shows Wilhelm was born on the 13th of December in 1868. It incorrectly listed his place of birth as Groß Lase in Kreis Nimptsch. He died on the 11th of April in 1943 at the age of 75 years old. The cause of his death was listed as Gehirnverkalkung (stroke due to brain calcification). His death record was number 730 in 1943 at the Breslau Standesamt III. He was buried on the 15th of April in 1903 at Friedhof I.

Breslau Address Books, 1914 to 1943

The Breslau address books show two men named Wilhelm Sternitzke whose service for the post office at Breslau overlapped. They lived about two blocks apart at Bohrauer Straße house numbers 44 and 105. They may have been father and son. Wilhelm Sternitzke (1868-1943) died at Bohrauer Straße 105. The other Wilhelm Sternitzke, who started his post office career about 15 years later, lived at Bohrauer Straße 44. Here is a table showing their job titles according to the Breslau address books.

Birth and Marriage of Paul Gustav Weiss
1881 Groß-Lahse in Militsch County, 1911 City of Breslau and Festenberg in Gross Wartenberg County

Paul Gustav Weiss was born on the 6th of December in 1881 at Groß-Lahse in Militsch County. He was the son of Erdmann Weiss and Maria (née Sternitzke) Weiss. Erdmann Weiss married Marie Sternitzky on the 27th of April in 1879 at Schlottau in Trebnitz County. Erdmann Weiss was the son of Carl Weiss. Marie Sternitzke was the daughter of Gottfried Sternitzke. See Chapter 2, Village of Schlottau in Trebnitz County, Schlottau Church Book Records: Marriages.

In 1911, Paul Gustav Weiss was a Schühmacher (shoemaker) and lived in Breslau at Fährgasse 3 (on the island northwest from the old city walls, now Jana Žižki Street). His parents, the Freistellenbesitzers Erdmann and Maria Weiss had moved to Festenberg in Gross Wartenberg County (northeast of Öls County) between Paul's birth in 1881 and Paul's marriage in 1911. A Freistellenbesitzer was the owner of a property free of rent payments. Erdmann Weiss died at Festenberg before Paul's marriage, but Maria (née Sternitzke) Weiss was still living at Festenberg at that time.

On the 22nd of December of 1911, Paul Gustav Weiss married Ida Neumann at Breslau. They were both Protestants. Ida was unemployed and lived at the same address as Paul: at Fährgasse 3. Ida Neumann was born on the 13th of June in 1882 at Colonie Hammer in Öls County. She was the daughter of the Waldarbeiter (forest worker) Wilhelm Neumann and his wife Christiana Neumann, who were both deceased at the time of the wedding and last lived at Briese in Öls County.

Witnesses at the 1911 wedding were the 25 years old Friseur (male barber or hairdresser) Fritz Janus and the 30 years old Barbier (barber) August Przibyla. Fritz Janus lived in Breslau at Schuhbrück 33 (2 blocks southeast from the Breslau University, now Szewska Street). August Przibyla lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 130 (5 blocks north of Sand Island, now Jeności Narodowej Street).

Birth and Marriages of Karl Adolf Franz 1887 to 1939 Groß-Lahse and Breslau

Karl Adolf Franz was born at Groß-Lahse on the 4th of June 1887. He was the son of Karl Franz and Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Franz. Karl Adolf Franz was married in Breslau on the 17th of March in 1910. He was employed as a Schneider (tailor) and lived at Neumarkt 31 (northwest side of the Neumarkt, now plac Nowy Targ). His parents, the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Karl Franz and his wife Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Franz were still living at Groß-Lahse at the time of their son's wedding in 1910.

On the 17th of March in 1910, Karl Adolf Franz married the Plätterin (ironer) Pauline Anna Janke. The groom was a Protestant. The bride was a Catholic. The bride was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Paul Janke and his wife Anna (née Fritsche) Janke, residents of Weidenhof in Breslau County. Witnesses at the wedding were the 30 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Daum who lived in Oswitz in Breslau County, and the 25 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Joseph Janke who lived in Weidenhof in Breslau County.

According to notes on the 1910 marriage record, the couple divorced on the 29th of May in 1936 at Breslau. Karl Adolf Franz married for a second time on the 8th of February in 1939 (marriage record 112 in 1939 at Breslau Standesamt III).

The Militscher Kreisblatt (Militsch county newspaper) reported the foreclosure sale of the property of Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Franz in Groß Lahse on the 14th of March in 1917. Ernestine was described as a Häuslerfrau (wife of an agricultural day laborer) from Groß Lahse.

Village of Groß Perschnitz in Militsch County

Groß Perschnitz was a village in Militsch County, north of Frauenwaldau in eastern Trebnitz County. Both villages had early histories as properties belonging to the Trebnitz Stift. In 1927, the postal service for Groß Perschnitz was at Frauenwaldau. The population of Groß Perschnitz was 509 in 1925. Groß Perschnitz and Klein Perschnitz were known as Groß Zeidel and Klein Zeidel from 1937 to 1945. They are now named Pierstnica Duża and Pierstnica Mała, Poland.

Family of the Bauergutbesitzer David Sternitzke 1823 an 1825 Groß Perschnitz

There are two definite records and one possible record that relate to the Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Sternitzke (circa 1793-after 1854) from Groß Perschnitz.

- Carl Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1823-1868) was the oldest son of the Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Sternitzke. Carl was born around 1823 according to his age on the 1858 marriage record in Breslau (see below for details).
- Johanna Elisabet Sternitzky (1825-1839) was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer David Sternitzky (c.1793-after 1854). In 1839, she was in the care of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzky (1786-1848) who lived at Goldene Radegasse 5 in Breslau. Johanna died on the 9th of September in 1839 from Schlagfluß (a stroke). She was buried on the 12th of September in 1839 at St.

Barbara Church Cemetery. She was 14 years and 3 months old when she died, so she was born around the 9th of June in 1825.

Friedrich Sternitzky (spelled Sternitzke in other records) was born in 1786, so he could have been a brother of David Sternitzke. See Chapter 1: the Bäckermeister Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5, 1817 to 1871, City of Breslau.

- Anna Bertha Kleinert was born at Groß Perschnitz on the 29th of June 1855. Her mother, Dorothea (née Sternitzki) Kleinert (c.1835-before 1891), was probably born around 1835, around the same time as Carl and Johanna, so Dorothea could have also been a daughter of David Sternitzke. See below for details of Anna's marriage in 1891.

Family of Dorothea (née Sternitzki) Kleinert 1855 Groß Perschnitz and 1891 Breslau

Anna Bertha Kleinert was born at Groß Perschnitz on the 29th of June 1855. She was the daughter of August Kleinert and his wife Dorothea (née Sternitzki) Kleinert (c.1835-before 1891). In 1891, Anna Bertha Kleinert was a frühere Köchin (retired female cook) living in Breslau at Oelsnerstraße 17 (two blocks north of the Botanical Gardens, now Oleśnicka Street). Her father, the Schneidermeister (master tailor) August Kleinert was still living at Gross Perschnitz in 1891, but her mother Dorothea (née Sternitzki) Kleinert was deceased.

Johann Karl Friedrich Hilbig married Anna Bertha Kleinert at Breslau on the 9th of May in 1891. Johann was born on the 8th of February in 1855 at Grossky in Wohlau County. He was the son of Rosina Hilbig, who at the time of the wedding was named Rosina Anders and resided at Berghof in Militsch County. Johann Hilbig was a Kutscher (coachman) living in Breslau at Am Birkenwäldchen 5 (one mile east of the Botanical Gardens, now Kazimiersa Bartla Street). He was a Protestant and Anna Bertha Kleinert was a Catholic. The witnesses at the wedding were the 30 years old Schneidermeister (master tailor) Gustav Huttke and the 25 years old Sattler (saddle maker) Paul Schüler.

Marriage of Carl Friedrich Sternitzke 1858 City of Breslau and Groß Perschnitz

The Bäckergeselle (journeyman baker) Carl Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1823-1868) married Susanna Eleonore Taube at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 26th of July in 1858. Carl was the oldest son of the Bauergutbesitzer David Sternitzke (c.1793-after 1854) from Groß Perschnitz in Militsch County. Susanna was the oldest daughter of the Erbsaß (hereditary owner of a country estate) Gottfried Taube in Hundsfeld.

This was the first marriage for both the groom and the bride. They were both 35 years old at the time of their wedding, so they were both born around 1823. Their marriage was recorded at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau.

Carl Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1823-1868) became a Bäckermeister (master baker) in Breslau. See Chapter 1: the Bäckermeister Carl Friedrich Sternitzke at Reuschestraße 10, 1858 to 1968 City of Breslau.

Birth and Marriage of Anna Martha Kleinert 1868 Groß Perschnitz and 1903 Breslau

Anna Martha Kleinert was born at Groß Perschnitz on the 17th of November in 1868. She was the daughter of August Kleinert and his wife Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Kleinert (c.1835- before 1891). Note the slightly different spelling in her mother's maiden name, from the Sternitzki variation used in the 1891 marriage record of the older daughter Anna Bertha Kleinert (see above).

In 1903, Anna Martha Kleinert was a Plätterin (ironer) who lived at Rebengasse 3 in Breslau. Her father was a Schneidermeister (master tailor) who was still living at Gross Perschnitz, but her mother was deceased. On the 21st of October in 1903, Anna married the Eisenbahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) August Ferdinand Guckel. Anna was listed as a Catholic on the marriage record. August was listed as a Protestant.

August Ferdinand Guckel was born on the 15th of August in 1871 at Krumpach, in Trebnitz County. In 1903, he lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 125. He was the son of the deceased Schneidermeister August Guckel and his wife Rosena (née Keruke) Guckel, who had last lived at Krumpach. Krumpach (now named Borów, Poland) is 11 miles northwest of Trebnitz, and 5 miles west of Prausnitz (now Prusice) in Militsch County .

The 38 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Hilbig was one of the witnesses at the 1903 wedding. He was probably a younger brother of Johann Karl Friedrich Hilbig, who married Anna Bertha Kleinert in 1891 (see above).

Family of Elisabeth (Sterniske) Strauss 1833 to 1837 Gürkwitz

Birth of son Karl Friedrich Strauss, 1833

Karl Friedrich Strauss was born on the 10th of December in 1833 at Gürkwitz. He was baptized on the 15th of December in 1833 at Prausnitz. Karl was the son of the Lohngärtner Gottfried Strauss and his wife Elisabeth (née Sterniske) Strauss. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden. The family was Protestant. The baptism sponsors were: the Auszüglers Tochter Susanne Neugebauer from Groß Kaschütz, the Einwohnerin Elisabeth Suhantke from Groß Kaschütz, and the Einwohnerin Susanne Berger from Groß Kaschütz.

Birth and Death of son Friedrich Wilhelm Strauss (1837-1901)

Friedrich Wilhelm Strauss was born at Gürkwitz on the 28th of December in 1837. He was the son of the Lohngärtner Gottfried Strauss and his wife Elisabeth (née Sterniske) Strauss. The baby was baptized at Prausnitz on the 1st of January in 1838. They were Protestants. The baptism sponsors were: the Schäferstochter Susanna Oertel from Groß Kaschütz, the Einwohners Frau Elisabeth Roday from Prausnitz, the Freihäusler Johann Krusche from Domnowitz, and the Schäfersknecht Carl Gottfried Riedel from Gürkwitz.

The death record for Wilhelm Strauss shows he was born around the 23rd of January in 1838 at Gürkwitz. That date was calculated from his age (63 years old) at his time of death on the 23rd of January in 1901. He was the son of the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Wilhelm Strauss and Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Strauss, who both died at Gürkwitz prior to 1901.

Prior to his death in 1901, Wilhelm Strauss was employed as a Maler (painter) and lived in Breslau at Paulstraße 26 (4 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now Michała Wrocławczyka Street). He was married to Johanna (née Heiser) Strauss, who was still living at Breslau when Wilhelm died at the Breslau Krankenhospital zu Allerheiligen on the 23rd of January in 1901.

Stellenbesitzer Karl Sternitzke
1877 and 1888 Gürkwitz and Breslau

Susanne Helene Sternitzke was probably born around 1855. She married Julius Pipiale around 1875 (based on the birth of her first known child). She was probably the sister of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Karl Sternitzke who lived at Gürkwitz (near Prausnitz in Militsch County). Karl was a baptismal sponsor for two of Helene's children. Karl Sternitzke and Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale were probably the children of Carl Sternitzke and Elisabet (née Scheuner) Sternitzke. Elisabeth (née Scheiner) Sternitzke was listed as the baptismal sponsor for one of Helene's children in 1880. Elisabeth was listed as the widow of the Häusler Sternitzke. Julius Pipiale and Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale lived in Breslau at Seitengasse 5 at that time.

Two years later, Frau Elisabet (née Scheuner) Sternitzke, the surviving wife of the Häusler Carl Sternitzke, was living at Seitengasse 5. She died at Breslau on the 25th of September in 1882, at the age of 69 years and 7 months (so she was born around February of 1813). She was buried on the 28th of September in 1882. She was a Protestant. The death record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau reported that her civil death record was number 3778, dated 26 September 1882, at the Breslau Standesamt I. See the Family of Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale, 1877 to 1904 City of Breslau.

Baptism of Martha Helene Gertrud Pipiale, 1877

Martha Helene Gertrud Pipiale was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of December in 1877. She was born on the 17th of November in 1877, the daughter of the Eisenbahnschaffner (railroad conductor) Julius Pipiale and Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale, who lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 41 (about 3 blocks northwest from Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street). Julius Pipiale was a Catholic. His wife was a Protestant.

The baptismal sponsors were: Karl Sternitzke a Stellenbesitzer (property owner) from Gürkwitz, Luise Scheuer the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer Scheuer from Herrn Kaschütz, and Chistiane (née Fleischer) Majunke the wife of the Breslau Haushälter (janitor) Majunke.

Birth of daughter Ida Emma Olga Pipiale, 1880

Ida Emma Olga Pipiale was born on the 24th of January in 1880. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of February in 1880. She was the daughter of the Schaffner (conductor) Julius Pipiale and Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale. The baptism record listed Julius as a Catholic and Helene as a Protestant. They lived at Seitengasse 5 at that time. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław).

The baptismal sponsor was Elisabeth (née Scheiner) Sternitzke, the widow of the Häusler Sternitzke. This woman was probably the mother of Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale.

Baptism of Bertha Hulda Margarethe Pipiale, 1888

Bertha Hulda Margarethe Pipiale was born on the 30th of August in 1888. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 4th of September in 1888. Her parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Eisenbahn Schaffner (railroad conductor) Julius Pipiale and Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale. Julius was listed as a Catholic. Helene was listed as a Protestant. They lived at Seitengasse Nr. 5. The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiter (laborer) Heinrich Schwebsch, and Carl Sternitzke a Freistellenbesitzer in Gürkwitz (near Prausnitz in Militsch County).

Family of Rosina (née Fischer) Starnitzki 1892 to 1913 Gürkwitz

Karl August Heinrich Hippe (1864-1913) was born at Schimmerau (in Trebnitz County) on the 18th of November in 1864. He was the son of Franz Hippe and Rosina (née Fischer) Hippe. The Franz Hippe family moved to Gürkwitz between 1864 and 1892. The Eigenthümer (property owner) Franz Hippe died at Gürkwitz and his widow married an Eigenthümer named Starnitzki.

The Hausdiener (house servant) Karl August Heinrich Hippe married Martha Maria Magdalena Buschinski at Berlin on the 20th of September in 1892. His mother, Rosina (née Fleischer) Starnitzki, was living with her husband the Eigenthümer Starnitzki at Gürkwitz. The groom and the bride were both Catholic. Martha Maria Magdalena Buschinski was born on the 7th of June in 1870 at Marienburg, in Marienburg County in West Prussia. She was the daughter of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Franz Buschinski and Emilia (née Niklei) Buschinski.

The Kutscher (coachman) Heinrich Karl August Hippe died at Berlin on the 31st of December in 1914. His death record was completed by Berlin Police, which is why the order of his first and middle names were written differently from his marriage record. The cause of his death was not listed. His religion was listed as Protestant. He was listed as homeless and he died at Hauptstraße 107 in the Schöneberg borough of Berlin. His wife, Martha (née Buschinski) Hippe was living at Dieffenbachstraße 28 in the Kreuzberg district of Berlin. His mother, Rosina (née Fleischer) Starnitzki, was living at Gürkwitz.

Family of Robert Theodor Sternitzke 1893 Heidchen to 1945 Bautzen

Robert Theodor Sternitzke was born on the 6th of September in 1861 at Trebnitz. See Book III: Chapter 2, the Family of David Sternitzke and Julia (née Tauchmann) Sternitzke, 1861 to 1899 Trebnitz.

In 1889, the Gastwirth (inkeeper) Robert Theodor Sternitzke was living in Pawellau in Trebnitz County. He married the Bauerstochter (farmer's daughter) Emilie Viertel on the 13th of May in 1889. Their marriage was recorded at Brietzen but it was probably held at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The bride and groom were both Protestants.

Robert Theodor Sternitzke and Emilie (née Viertel) Sternitzke had two children while living at Pawellau. Kurt Karl Robert Theodor Sternitzke was born in his parents' home on the 1st of May in 1891. Emma Herrmine Gertrud Sternitzke was born in her parents' home at Pawellau on the 16th of June in 1892. See Book II, Records of Sternitzke Family Events at Pawellau/Paulskirch: the Family of Robert Theodor Sternitzke, 1889 to 1892 Pawellau.

The Theodor and Emilie Sternitzke family moved from Pawellau to the village

Heidchen in Militsch County sometime between the June 1892 birth of their daughter and the August 1893 birth of their son. Heidchen (now named Borek, Poland) was a village 3 miles north of Trachenberg. Theodor Sternitzke was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) at Heidchen. Two of their children were born at Heidchen.

Birth and Death of son Carl Wilhelm Robert Sternitzke (1893-1945)

Carl Wilhelm Robert Starnitzke (Sternitzke) was born at Heidchen on the 10th of August in 1893. His parents, the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Theodor Starnitzke (Sternitzke) and his wife Emilie (née Viertel) Starnitzke (Sternitzke) were both Protestants, and residents of Heidchen in Militsch County. Their son was born in their home at Heidchen.

The midwife Louise (née Kadur) Sommer from Trachenberg reported the birth and signed the record at Schmiegrode. A note was added to the birth record by a registrar on the 2nd of September in 1938. The note corrected the spelling of the family name from Starnitzke to Sternitzke.

Military records show Karl Sternitzke was born at Heidchen on the 10th of August in 1893. He served as a Volkssturmmann (militia-man) and was killed in action near Bautzen on the 1st of April in 1945. He was buried at Bautzen, Germany, in Grave V.

Birth of daughter Emma Emilie Sternitzke, 1894

Emma Emilie Sternitzke was born in her parents' home at Heidchen on the 14th of November in 1894. Her parents, the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Theodor Sternitzke and his wife Emilie (née Viertel) Sternitzke were both Protestants. Theodor Sternitzke reported his daughter's birth at Schmiegrode, and he signed the birth record.

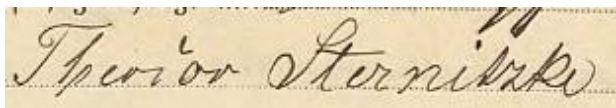

1894

Death of Emilie (née Viertel) Sternitzke and the Second Marriage of Robert Theodor Sternitzke

Theodor's wife Emilie (née Viertel) Sternitzke apparently died shortly after the 1894 birth of their daughter. Theodor remarried and his second wife Johanna (née Micknass) Sternitzke gave birth to a daughter in their home at Heidchen in 1896.

Birth of daughter Johanna Lina Emma Sternitzke, 1896

Johanna Lina Emma Sternitzke was born on the 27th of September in 1896. The Gastwirth (innkeeper) Theodor Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Micknass) Sternitzke, were residents at Heidchen. They were both Protestants. Their daughter was born in their home. Theodor Sternitzke signed the birth record.

Second Marriage of Johanna Ernestine (née Micknass) Sternitzke, 1913

The Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Johanna Ernestine (née Micknass) Sternitzke married the Möbelpolierer (furniture polisher) August Czȳbulinski at Breslau on the 19th of May in 1913. They were both Protestant. Their marriage record does not give any information regarding Johanna's previous marriage to a Mr. Sternitzke.

The 1913 marriage record shows that Johanna Ernestine Micknass was born on the 15th of December in 1870 at Tschelentnig in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owners) Wilhelm Micknass and his wife Johanna (née Kluge) Micknass. Both of Johanna's parents died at Tschelentnig before her 1913 marriage. See Book III, Marriage of Johanna Ernestine (née Micknass) Sternitzke, 19 May 1913 City of Breslau.

Rosina (née Sterniskin) Stiskale 1773 Kanterwitz

Anna Stiskale, the daughter of the Haußmannes (house owner) Mathes Stiskale and his wife Rosina (née Sterniskin) Stiskale was born on the 23rd of March in 1773. The parents were residents of Kanterwitz. The child was baptized at the Catholic church in Powitzko on 24th of March in 1773.

Rosina's maiden name (Sterniskin) indicates she was the daughter of a Mister Sterniske. She may have been the Rosina identified as a daughter of Georg Sterniske (1707-1780) and his second wife Hedwig (née Schlinsauk) Sterniske. Their daughter Rosina was born in 1751, and would have been 22 years old in 1773. Georg Sterniske was a Freigärtner and Gerichtsscholz at Briesche in Trebnitz County. Briesche was 9 miles south-east from Kanterwitz.

Georg Sterniske was also known as George Scierniske, Stierniske, Sternißke and Sternitzke. See Chapter 15 Briesche, Sternitzke Family Personal Data for Briesche: Family of Georg Sternitzke (1707-1780, SN143).

Village of Kassawe in Militsch County

Kassawe was written as Kasawe by Wilhelm Haeusler. He noted that it was known as Kazow in 1359. It was written as Casawe in a 1908 Breslau death record (see below). Kassawe was renamed as Thomasort in 1939, and had a population of 330. It is now known as Kaszowo. It is about 3 miles southwest of Militsch and 28 miles north of Breslau (Wrocław). See the 1895 map above in the discussion regarding Altenau.

Family of Berta (née Sternitzke) Nitzborn 1850 Casawe and 1908 Breslau

Wilhelm Nitzborn was born at Casawe in Militsch County around the 5th of July in 1850. That date was based on his age (58 years and 4 months) when he died in 1908. He was the son of the Landwirt (farmer) Christian Nitzborn and Berta (née Sternitzke) Nitzborn. They preceeded him in death. Prior to his death, Wilhelm Nitzborn was employed as a Handelsmann (merchant) and had been married to Ida (née Lampert) Nitzborn. His wife preceeded him in death. Wilhelm died in Breslau on the 5th of November in 1908. His death was reported by the Königlichen Polizei Präsidium (Royal Police Headquarters) in Breslau. The reports shows that Wilhelm did not have a residence and that he died at the address of the Police Headquarters: Schuhbrücke 45/46 (1 block south from the Breslau University, now Szewska Street).

Village of Klein Krutschen in Militsch County

Groß Krutschen was a village about three miles northeast of Prausnitz and ten miles northwest of Trebnitz. Klein Krutschen was less than one mile west of Prausnitz. Because of the irregular boundary between Trebnitz County and Militsch County, Groß Krutschen was in Trebnitz County but Prausnitz and Klein Krutschen were in Militsch County. They are now in Trebnitz County.

Groß Krutschen is now named Krościna Wielka, Poland. Klein Krutschen is now named Krościna Mała.

Family and Marriage of Anna Martha Berta Sternitzke
1913 Klein Krutschen and Breslau, 1915 Dohms

In 1913, Anna Martha Berta Sternitzke was a ledigen Dienstmädchen (unmarried servant girl) who was a resident of Klein Krutschen in Militsch County. Berta was a Catholic. She may have been Anna Martha Bertha Sternitzke who was born at Burgwitz in Trebnitz County on the 12th of February in 1893. She was the daughter of the Pferde-Knecht (horse groom) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Theresia (née Ludwig) Sternitzke. Wilhelm was a Protestant and Theresia was a Catholic.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Hedwig Sternitzke, 1913

The daughter of Berta Sternitzke, Gertrud Hedwig Sternitzke was born at the Royal University Clinic at Maxstraße 3 in Breslau, on the 21st of March in 1913. The child was baptized at Breslau on the 27th of March in 1913. A note the civil birth record shows August Robert Fiebag had been documented as the child's father by the Oppeln district court on the 28th of June in 1913.

Marriage of Anna Martha Berta Sternitzke, 1915

Notes on her daughter's birth record show Anna Martha Berta Sternitzke married the child's father, the Musketier August Robert Fiebag at the village Dohms in Sagan County on the 7th of January in 1915. August Robert Fiebag was a Catholic. In 1915, he was stationed at the Truppenübungsplatz (military proving grounds) at Neuhammer am Queis near Dohms in Sagan County.

Village of Klein Peterwitz in Militsch County

There were several villages named Klein Peterwitz in Silesia prior to 1945:

- Klein Peterwitz, in Militsch County, just north of Prausnitz,
- Klein Peterwitz, also in Militsch County, near the city of Sulau,
- Klein Peterwitz in Öls County, just south of the city of Öls,
- Klein Peterwitz in Guhrau County and
- Klein Peterwitz in Ratibor County.

The Klein Peterwitz associated with the George Vater/Rosina Sternitzke family (discussed below) was most likely the village near the northern edge of Prausnitz, and is now within the city limits of Prusice. I based this conclusion on the locations associated with their heirs, and on the known connections between the village named Klein Peterwitz (near Prausnitz) with the church at Pawellau and the Sternitzke family.

It is interesting that the Baron von Reichenbach family associated with the church at Pawellau lived at Klein Peterwitz near Prausnitz. See the discussions in Book II, Chapters 4 and 5 regarding the von Reichenbach family and the relationship between Klein Peterwitz and the church at Pawellau.

Map of Klein Peterwitz and Prausnitz.

Family of Rosina (née Sternitzke) Vater
1753 to 1756 Klein Peterwitz

Rosina Sternitzke was a Protestant who was born before around 1733 and died after 1756. She married George Friedrich Vater who was a Protestant and a Wassermüller (watermill operator) at Klein Peterwitz. George was born before 1732 and died after 1777. George Friedrich Vater (before 1732-after 1777) married Rosina Sternitzke before 1753. George and Rosina had two sons: George and Johann. The details of their family and a map of their locations are shown below.

- George Friedrich Vater (junior) was born on the 18th of March in 1753. He died in 1812. He married Anna Rosina Herrmann in 1776. George was listed as a Protestant and a Kretschmer (innkeeper) at Groß Wilgawe (which was most likely Groß Wilkawe, now named Wilkowa Wielka) about 2.5 miles southwest of Prausnitz. George and Anna had eight children, all listed as having been born as Protestants at Groß Wilgawe:
 - Johann Gottlieb Vater was born 25 July 1777. He was an Erbkretschmer (hereditary innkeeper). Johann died at Groß Wilgawe on 9 October 1818.
 - Johanna Eleonore Vater was born 22 March 1779. She died after 1798.
 - Johann Christian Vater was born 20 December 1780
 - Carl Friedrich Vater was born 28 March 1783. Carl was an Erbwindmüller (hereditary windmill operator) at Puditsch, about 1.5 miles west of Prausnitz. Puditsch was a village known as Georgendorf in 1936, and is now named Budzicz.
 - Johanna Rosina Vater was born 2 January 1785. She died before 1795.
 - Johann Gottlob Vater was born 21 August 1786. He was a Schuhmacher (shoemaker) who died on 31 July 1821 at Heidewilxen (now Wilczyn, Poland) about 5.5 miles south of Prausnitz.
 - Johann David Vater was born 23 March 1789. Johann was a Brauer (brewer), Mälzer (malter), Freigärtner (farmer), Kretschmer (innkeeper) and Gerichtsscholz (court appointed mayor) at Klein Wilgawe (which was probably Klein Wilkawe, known as Friedensruh in 1936 and is now Wilkowa Mals, Poland). He died after 1823.
 - Johanna Rosina Dorothea Vater was born 15 May 1791.
- Johann Friedrich Vater was born on the 2nd of January in 1756. He died after 1786. Johann married Anna Rosina Brühlschneider before 1780. Johann was listed as a Müller (miller) at Groß Wilgawe (probably Groß Wilkawe). Johann and Anna had one son:
 - Carl Sigmund Vater was born on the 16th of August in 1780.

Village of Kodlewe in Militsch County

The geography book by Johann Knie listed the village Kottlewe (also known as Kadlewe) in Wohlau County. He wrote that the post office for Kottlewe and the Catholic church for Kottlewe was at Herrnstadt (now named Wasosz, Poland). Meyer's Gazetteer shows the village named Kodlewe was about 4 miles northwest from Trachenberg, in Militsch County. Kodlewe is about 14 miles northwest from Gross Ujeschütz in Trebnitz County. Kodlewe is now named Chodlewo, Poland.

Marriage of Johann Starnitzki 1803 Militsch and Liegnitz

The Musketeer Johann Starnitzki was stationed at Liegnitz, where he was serving in the Infantry Regiment No. 43 Leibkompanie in the Prussian Army. He married Susanna Catoren at the Protestant Garrison Church in Liegnitz on the 1st of December in 1803. Their ages were not listed on the marriage record.

Susanna Catoren was from the city of Militsch in Militsch County. Johann Starnitzki was from Cottlewe in Trachenberg County. Cottlewe was not found in Meyer's Gazetteer. The geography book by Johann Knie listed the village Kottlewe (also known as Kadlewe) in Wohlau County. Meyer's Gazetteer shows the village named Kodlewe was about 4 miles northwest from Trachenberg, in Militsch County.

Family of Elisabeth (née Sterniske) Löchel 1848 to 1902 Korsenz

Birth and Marriage of Marie Louise Henriette Löchel, 1848 & 1876

Marie Louise Henriette Löchel was born on the 29th of January in 1848 at Korsenz. She was the daughter of Friedrich Johann Löchel and his wife Elisabeth (née Sterniske) Löchel. Friedrich Johann Löchel was a Bauer (farmer) at Korsenz, who died there before the 25th of July in 1876.

Marie Löchel married Friedrich Eduard Weidner at Korsenz on the 25th of July in 1876. Friedrich Weidner was a Freigärtner in Raschewitz. He was born on the 17th of August in 1841, the son of George Friedrich Weidner and Johanna (née Illguth) Weidner.

Birth, Marriages and Family of Maria Anna Löchel, 1854 to 1902

Otilie Maria Anna Löchel was born on the 23rd of November in 1854 at Korsenz in Militsch County. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Friedrich Löchel and his wife Elisabeth (née Sterniske) Löchel.

Otilie Maria Anna Löchel was married to Ferdinand Kittlaus before 1888. They lived in the village named Zylice. The village Zylice (also known in German as Schlitze) is now known as Żylice. It is about 2 miles northwest of the city of Rawitsch. Their daughter Ida Selma Kittlaus was born at Zylice on the 12th of March in 1888. Ferdinand Kittlaus died sometime before 1902.

The Gastwirths Wittwe (widow of an innkeeper) Otilie Maria Anna (née Löchel) Kittlaus from Zylice married the Müllermeister (master miller) Friedrich Wilhelm Labitzke on the 17th of July in 1902. Their marriage was recorded at the city of Rawitsch Standesamt in Rawitsch County, Posen. They were both Protestant. Both of the bride's parents died at Korsenz before their daughter's marriage in 1902.

Friedrich Wilhelm Labitzke was born at Groß Ujeschütz in Trebnitz County on the 14th of October in 1847. He was the son of the Auszügler (retired farmer) Gottlieb Labitzke and his wife Louise (née Sebrantke) Labitzke. They both died at Groß Ujeschütz before their son's marriage in 1902. In 1902, Friedrich Wilhelm Labitzke was the Müllermeister (master miller) at Werdermühle in Trebnitz County.

The witnesses at the 1902 wedding were: the 56 years old Landwirth (farmer) Julius Werschin from Zylice, and the 45 years old Bauergutsbesitzer Wilhelm Löchel from Korsenz. Wilhelm Löchel was probably the younger brother of the bride, who was 48 years old at the time of the wedding.

Marriage of Julius Robert Johannes Sternitzke 1923 Korsenz

Julius Robert Johannes Sternitzke was born in his parents' home at Pawellau on the 24th of June in 1894. His parents, the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Julius Sternitzke and his wife Emilie (née Ritter) Sternitzke were both Protestant. See the Family of Julius Sternitzke and Emilie (née Ritter) Sternitzke 1875 to 1942 Pawellau.

Julius Robert Johannes Sternitzke married Hildegard Ida Meta Nehring on the 4th of September 1923 at Korsenz in Militsch County. She was born on the 23rd of September in 1902, at Korsenz (now named Korzeńsko, Poland) in Militsch County. Marriage of Joseph Sterniske 1861 City of Breslau and Ladzidza in Militsch County

The Haushälter (janitor) Joseph Sterniske (c.1829-after 1861) married Charlotte Friedricke Caroline Wichur at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 7th of January in 1861. This was the first marriage for both the groom and the bride. Joseph Sterniske (c.1829-after 1861) was the 32 years old son of the former Schmied (smith) Joseph Sterniske (c.1799-after 1828) who lived at Ladzidza near Trachenberg.

Charlotte Friedricke Caroline Wichur was the 36 years old daughter of the Bürger und Schuhmacher Meister (citizen and master shoemaker) Carl Wichur in Medzibor in Groß Wartenberg County. Medzibor was named Neumittelwalde after 1886. It is now known as Międzybórz.

Family of Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Reim 1858 to 1861 Pinkotschine

Susanna Helene Sternitzke was the daughter of Johann Sternitzke (SN316) and Marie Elisabet (née Drechsler) Sternitzke. See Book I, Chapter 15, Briesche: the Family of Johann Sternitzke (c.1785-after 1858, SN316).

Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Bartsch married Gustav Carl Reim around 1857. They had three children at Pinkotschine near Sulau in Militsch County and then moved to Gräbschen near Breslau. See Book III, Chapter 1, Village of Gräbschen in Breslau County: the Family of Susanna Helene (née Sternitzke) Reim, 1858 to 1861 Pinkotschine, 1858 to 1892 Gräbschen.

Village of Powitzko in Militsch County

Powitzko was a village in Militsch County, located about 3 miles southeast of Trachenberg, 11 miles north of Trebnitz and 6 miles northwest of Domnowitz. Early names for this village were Powidsco (1329), Powidska (1414) and Powitzke (1741). Other variations of the village name were found in the church records of the Catholic Church at Powitzko: Povitzke, Pouitzke, Povizko, Powicko, Powitcko and Powiczko.

Powitzko was renamed Urdorf in 1936. The population of Powitzko was 664 in 1939. It is now named Powidzko.

1899 map of Trebnitz area, showing Powitzko.

St. John the Baptist Catholic Church at Powitzko (now named Kościół św. Jana Chrzciciela) was first built in 1329. It was rebuilt in 1791. A Protestant Church was built at Powitzko in 1909. It was destroyed after the Second World War. The ruins of the Protestant Church are known in Polish as Kościół ewangelicki.

The Catholic Church at Powitzko was affiliated with the Trachenberg parish. A book published in 1902, Die Kirchenbücher Schlesiens beider Confessionen, listed the Catholic records from Powitzko that were known to exist in that year. Baptism records existed for the years 1607 to 1627, and from 1637 to 1900. The baptism records from 1628 to 1636 were already missing in 1902. Marriage and death records existed for the years 1654 to 1900.

The Family Search web page includes a list of the Powitzko Catholic Church record books that were microfilmed from manuscripts at Breslau in 1936. The books available at Family Search show the same gap in baptism records from late 1628 to late 1636. The following ten record books were available for review via the Internet in 2020 from the URL:

The filmed record books at the Family History Library are from the Deutschen Zentralstelle für Genealogie (German Central Office for Genealogy) in Leipzig, Germany. The website of the Saxon State Archives listed the above records (with their original film numbers D937 to D950) at the URL https://archiv.sachsen.de/archiv/bestand.jsp?oid=13.01&bestandid=21962&syg_id=250759.

The ten microfilms include the records of the Sternitzke family during religious and political conflicts between the Catholics and the Protestants. The incorporation the Bohemian Crown territories into the Habsburg monarchy resulted in the Thirty Years' War (1618 to 1648). The Powitzko church records also include the periods of the three Silesian Wars (1740-1763). The First Silesian War (1740 to 1742) and Second Silesian War (1744 to 1745) resulted in Silesia was taken away from the Catholic Austrian Hapsburg monarchy and became part of the Protestant Prussian Empire. The Third Silesian War (1756 to 1763), also called the Seven Years War, was Austria's unsuccessful attempt to reclaim Silesia from Prussia.

The Powitzko Catholic Church record books started 68 years after the 1540 Reformation in Silesia. The books also included records during the 1671 to 1708 period when the Protestant churches were turned over to the Catholics as part of the Counter Reformation. See Book I, Chapter 2: Church Books and General Church Conditions in Trebnitz County for a discussion regarding that period.

These events certainly had effects on the languages and rules for spelling of the surnames recorded in the books. The church records from 1608 to 1627 were written in German, except in 1609 when baptisms were recorded in Latin. The records from 1637 to 1675 were written in Latin. Records were recorded in German from 1677 to 1678. Records from 1679 to 1684 were written in Latin. Records were written in German from 1685 to 1714, except for marriage records in 1690 and 1698 which were in Latin. Records were written in Latin from 1714 to 1730. Records were written in German from the end of 1730 to 1792.

The 1845 geography book by Johann Knie shows the Catholic Parish Church at Powitzko served the following communities in Militsch County: Bukolowe, Gahlhäuser, Grüneiche, Dobertowitz, Fürstenau, Herrn-Kaschütz, Kanterwitz, Groß-Kaschütz, Ladzidza, Groß-Ossig, Klein-Ossig, Jamnig, Przittkowitz, Sayne and Schätzke. The church also served the communities Domnowitz and Pawellau in Trebnitz County.

According to the 1847 church history book written by Goedsche, the Catholic members of the Powitzko parish from the villages Dobertowitz, Przittkowitz, Domnowitz and Pawellau attended church at Powitzko (Goedsche, page 188). The Protestants at Powitzko attended church at Trachenberg. But, when reviewing copies of the actual record books for the Catholic church at Powitzko, I found baptism, marriage and burial records for people who were identified as Lutheran members of those villages. Some of the records identified the events as having been performed at the church in Pawellau and were then recorded at the church in Powitzko.

In 1968, Karl Sille received copies of several Powitzko Catholic Church records, associated with the Sille and Sternitzke families, from the Zentralstelle für Genealogie in der Deutschen Demokratischen Republic in Leipzig. Below are the baptism and marriage records associated with the Sternitzke family from Karl Sille's file 016 at Marburg.

The variations of the names were probably due to the Latin language used in the Catholic Church records, and also possibly due to the ethnicity (probably Polish) of the Catholic priests. Jacobus is the Latin form for the German name Jakob, and Kuba (written as Cuba in the 1618 record) is the Polish form for Jakob. Catarina is the Latin form for the German names Katrina, Katharina and Katharine. See the discussion below regarding the Sternitzke name variations found in the Powitzko church records.

The “ij” combination was used in Frühneuhochdeutsch (Early New High German, 1350 to 1650) to represent the hard “I” sound in German (which is the hard “E” sound in English). The “ij” combination was later written as “ÿ”. The practice of using “ÿ” continued into the 19th century, such as the spelling of Max Emil Willÿ Sternitzkÿ in a record of a marriage recorded at Berlin between 1874 to 1920.

The records also show Latin and German variations of the word for farmer. The Latin words Coloni (farmer), Coloni filius (farmer’s son) and Coloni filia (farmer’s daughter) were used in records from 1724. The German words Pauer (peasant or farmer) and Pauerin (wife of a farmer) were used in 1731, 1733 and 1736; but the modern German words Bauer (peasant or farmer) and Bauerin (wife of a farmer) were used in 1739. A few examples from the Karl Sille records include:

- Susanna Labitzkin (maiden name Labitzke, wife of the Coloni named Adam Sille) in 1724 and 1726,
- Eva Kräusin, Pauerin (wife of farmer named Krause) in 1736,
- Susanna Mundrin, Pauerin (wife of a farmer named Mundry) in 1736,
- Eva Kraußin, Bauerin (wife of a farmer named Krause) in 1739, and
- Susanna Nitschkin, Bauerin (wife of a farmer named Nitschke) in 1739.

Other Latin and German occupational titles found in the records include: hortulanus (Gärtner, Freÿgärtner), Cauponis (innkeeper), inquilininus (Häusler, Haußmann, tenant farmer or agriculture day laborer), Freÿhaußler, Sculteto, Scultetus (Scholz, Scholtz, village mayor).

The Jacobus Sciernisko/Scziernisko and Cuba Scziernisko listed above (in 1617, 1626 and 1618) may have been the same man recorded elsewhere as Jakob Szernitzke (in 1611), who was also recorded as Jakob Tzernitzke in 1615. He was born in 1584 at Domnowitz, and died at Domnowitz around 1640. Other surname variations (as recorded in property transfers) for the Sternitzke family from Domnowitz around 1600 included: Ziernitschke in 1601, Szernischko in 1593 and 1610, and Tschiernisko in 1639.

Catarina Sczirnisen/Scziernisen (a married woman as indicated by the -ken suffix) listed in 1613 and 1620 was probably Katharina Tzernisky, the wife of Jacob's brother Gregor Tzernisky (c.1580-1678, SN200). Katharina married Gregor around 1610 so she would have been old enough to be a baptismal sponsor. The sister of Jakob and Gregor, Katharina Szernitzke, was born in 1598 at Domnowitz so she would have been a 15-years-old single girl in 1613.

Eva, the daughter of the Coloni (farmer) Georgij Sciernisko from Domnowitz was identified as a sponsor in the 1724 baptism of Martinus Sille. Eva may have been a daughter of Georg Sciernisko and Eva (née Tetsel) Sciernisko. See Book I, Chapter 9 Germanengrund (Domnowitz), End of Chapter Notes and Additional Information by JWS: Baptism Sponsor Eva Sciernisko, 1719 to 1725 Domnowitz.

The bride, Catharina Syllin (a female variation of the name Sille) was baptized at Powitzko on the 6th of November in 1687. She was the daughter of Georg Sille who was born at Groß Kaschütz (in Militsch County), but purchased the office of mayor at Domnowitz from Heinrich Böhm on the 3rd of June in 1670. The year of the marriage for George Tschernißke was listed as 1706 in the original record from the Zentralstelle für Genealogy (Sille 016, page 16), but it was listed as 1705 in the Karl Sille's genealogy manuscript (Sille 021, page 8). Catharina was spelled Katharina in the Sille 021 document. The original marriage record book shows the marriage took place on the 23rd of November in 1706.

The groom George Tschernißke (1686-c.1739) was the son of Gregor Sternitzke (c.1655-c.1714) who moved from Domnowitz to Klein Ujeschütz around 1698. The groom George was born at Domnowitz in 1686. The wedding witness Jacob Tschernißke (c.1659-1728, SN264) was the younger brother of the groom's father Gregor, and the uncle of the groom George.

In his 1902 book, Dr. Joseph Jungnitz transcribed financial reports published by the Catholic Diocese of Breslau in the 16th to 19th centuries. Karl Sille identified several entries in that book related to donations to the Catholic Church at Powitzko that were made by members of the Zyla (Sille) and Tschernitzke (Sternitzke) families. The diocese report from 1666-1667 showed the Tschernitzke family donated 19 Groschens and 6 Hellers to the Catholic Church at Powitzko. This was probably Gregor Sciernisko (Sczernisko, Tschernisko, Tschiernisko, Tschernisky, Tschiernißke) (c.1619-c.1730). See Book I: Germanengrund (Domnowitz), the Family of Gregor Sciernisko (c.1619-c.1730) and Ursula (née Beim) Sciernisko, 1653 to 1735 Domnowitz. Full Review of the Powitzko Church Records

My review of the Powitzko Catholic Church found 623 records that listed members of the Sternitzke family, including:

- 122 baptisms where the fathers or mothers were members of the Sternitzke family,
- 28 marriages of members of the Sternitzke family,
- 43 burial records of members of the Sternitzke family,

- 426 baptism records that listed members of the Sternitzke family as baptism sponsors, and
- 27 marriage records that listed members of the Sternitzke family as wedding witnesses.

There are probably more Sternitzke family records in those church books. Some of the pages could not be read due to the poor quality of some of the photographed records. The details of those recorded events are documented in the chapters associated with the home village of the Sternitzke family identified in the records:

- Book I: Chapter 9 Germanengrund (Domnowitz); Chapter 10 Gross Ujeschütz and Klein Ujeschütz; Chapter 14 Friedrichskirch (Kainowe),
- Book II: Sternitzke Family from Pawellau, Trebnitz County,
- Book III: Chapter 2 Trebnitz County in the Breslau District: Schickwitz, Schimmerau; Chapter 6 Militsch County in the Breslau District: Dobrtowitz, Donkowe, Groß Kaschütz, Grüneiche, Herren Kaschütz, Kanterwitz, Przittkowitz, and Sayne.

Variations of the Sternitzke Name Found in the Powitzko Catholic Church Records

The male members of the family were indicated by adding a -ko or a -ke suffix to the surname. The female members of the family were indicated by adding a -ken or a -kin suffix. There were also many instances where the Polish female name modifiers were used. For example: Jadwiga Scierniskowa was recorded as a baptism sponsor on the 14th of May in 1639. She was probably Hedwig Sternitzke the wife of Simon Sternitzke (1574-after 1617) who was born at Zantkau and later lived at Dobrtowitz. A married or widowed woman was sometimes identified by modifying her husband's surname with the Polish -owa suffix. An unmarried woman was indicated by modifying her father's surname with the Polish -ówna or the -owna suffix. For example: Hedwigi, the daughter of Martino Sciernisko and his wife Anna (maiden name Salekowna), was baptized on the 11th of October in 1654.

The first records of the Sternitzke family name in the Powitzko books were the baptism sponsors Hedwigi Sciernisken (6 March 1608) and Bartos Sciernisko (in May of 1608). Their daughter Elisabet was baptized at Powitzko on the 10th of November in 1608. They were residents of the village Przittkowitz. The last record that mentioned the Sternitzke family was a baptism record dated the 30th of December in 1787. The Müllers Eheweib (miller's wife) Helena Sterniskin was from the village Grüneiche. She was one of the baptism sponsors for Johann Grande, the son of the Häußler Michael Grande and his wife Susanna (née Roderin) Grande from Fürstenau.

The Sciernisko and Sciernisken variations continued in German records until 1637 when they were generally replaced by the Sciernisko and Scierniskowa variations in records written in Latin. The Sczernissko and Sczernisßko variations were used in 1642. Cziernißke and Cziernißken was used in Latin records from 1647, 1648 and 1649.

The 1714 burial record for Mathias Sciernisko was recorded in German. The language used in the later baptism records shifted from Latin to German in 1730 and Sciernisko /Scierniskin was gradually replaced with Schiernisko and SchierniBko. Use of the SchierniBke variation started in 1731. Use of the TschiernieBke variation started in 1746. The Sciernisko variation returned to use in 1755. The Sterniske/Sterniskin variations started in 1773 and continued until December of 1787.

Male Name Variations Found:

Female Name Variations Found:

City of Prausnitz in Militsch County

Prausnitz was known as Prusicz in 1253, when a Catholic Church was documented as having been established there. Other variations of its name included: Prusnicz (1288 & 1287), Prausnicz, Praußnicz & Prawßnicz (1523) and Pruśnicz (1896). The city of Prausnitz was plundered and burned by the Hussite army in 1432. The Catholic Church at Prausnitz became a Protestant Church in 1584. The population of Prusice has been about 2000 people since 1875. The city Prausnitz had 2018 inhabitants in 1939, and is now the city Prusice, Poland.

Village of Przittkowitz in Militsch County

Przittkowitz (spelled as Przitkowitz by Wilhelm Starnitzki) was a village in Militsch County, about midpoint between Trachenberg and Domnowitz, near Dobrtowitz (Gutfelde) and Powitzko (Urdorf). See the map in the section regarding Dobrtowitz. The village was known as Spritzkowitz in 1809 and renamed as Gutweide in 1936. An older Slavic name for the village was Sprieczkowice, which translated to German as Streitfeld or Zankplatz (dispute field, squabble place). It is now known as Przedkowice, Poland. The population of the village was 30 in 1905. In 1905, the Catholics in Przittkowitz attended church at Powitzko, and the Lutherans attended church in Trachenberg.

Hans Tschirnitzke (c.1552-after 1588) 1580 to 1588 Przittkowitz

Hans Tschirnitzke, the son of George and Katharine Tschirnitzke, was born at Zantkau in Trebnitz County around 1552. He was living at Przitkowitz in Militsch County, from 1580 to 1588. Wilfried Hübner estimated that Hans died around 1615 (at the age 63).

Possible Children of Hans Tschirnitzke

Bartos Scziernisko (c.1585-after 1619) may have been a son of Hans Tschirnitzke (see above). See the Family of Bartos and Hedwig Scziernisko, 1608 to 1655 Przittkowitz.

Bartel (Bartelomeus) Scziernisko/Sczierniske (c.1580-after 1625) may have been a son of Hans Tschirnitzke (see above). See the Family of Bartel Scziernisko and Anna Scziernisken, 1617 to 1639 Przittkowitz.

Paulus Scziernisko (c.1590-after 1641) may have been a son of Hans Tschirnitzke (see above). See below: Paulus Scziernisko and Dorotea Scziernisken, 1608 to 1641 Przittkowitz.

Hans Namoglij from Borzenczin (Borzenzine) married Maria Sternizke (c.1600-after 1618) at the Catholic Church in Powitzko on the 16th of September in 1618. Maria was the surviving daughter of the late Hans Sternizke from Sahn (Sayne). Maria was born around 1600. See the Marriage of Hans Namoglij and Maria Sternizke, 1618 Sayne, Borzenzine, Powitzko.

Family of Bartos Scziernisko and Hedwig Scziernisken

Bartos Scziernisko (c.1585-after 1615) may have been a son of Hans Tschirnitzke (see above). Bartos may have been a variation of Bartelomeus. Bartos was born around 1585 and married Hedwig (maiden name unknown) around 1608. Bartos and his wife Hedwig were residents of Przittkowitz when their daughter was baptized in 1608.

Bartos Scziernisko and his wife Hedwig Scziernisken were the baptism sponsors at the Powitzko Catholic Church for many of the children born at Przittkowitz and the nearby villages. Bartos was listed as a baptism sponsor in May 1608, May 1610, January 1613 (twice), February 1613, May 1613 and July 1615. Hedwig was listed as a baptism sponsor in March 1608, March 1610, June 1610, November 1610 (twice), August 1611 (twice), February 1612, January 1613, January 1614, September 1614, November 1614, February 1615 (twice), March 1615, November 1615, March 1616, January 1617, January 1618, January 1620, October 1620, October 1621 and November 1621.

Baptism of daughter Elisabet Sczierniskowna, 1608

Baptism Sponsor Elisabeth Sczierniskowna, 1655

Elisabeth Sczierniskowna was listed as one of the baptism sponsors for Adam Adamek at the Powitzko Catholic Church on the 8th of February in 1655. An unmarried woman was indicated by modifying her father's surname with the Polish -ówna or the -owna suffix.

Adam Adamek was the son of Mathia Adamek and his wife Hedwige (née Sczierniskowna) Adamek. They were residents of the village Groß Kaschütz. Hedwige may have been another daughter of Bartos Scziernisko and his wife Hedwigis Scziernisken.

Paulus Scziernisko and Dorotea Scziernisken
1608 to 1641 Przittkowitz

Paulus Scziernisko (c.1590-after 1641) was listed as a baptism sponsor Paulus and Pawel Scziernisko in baptism records for the Catholic church at Powitzko. He was also listed as Pawel and Paul Scziernisko. Dorotea Scziernisken was also listed as baptism sponsor in those church records. The relationship between Paul and Dorotea is not known, but they were probably husband and wife. Paul may have been a brother of Bartos Scziernisko (c.1585-after 1615) and Bartel (Bartelomeus) Scziernisko (c.1580-after 1625).

Dorotea Scziernisken was listed as a baptism sponsor in May of 1608, so she was probably born around 1590. She was listed as a baptism sponsor in February of 1612, along with Hedwig Scziernisken (the wife of Bartos Scziernisko). In May of 1617, Dorotea Scziernisken and Bartel Scziernisko were sponsors for a baptism for a child from Przittkowitz. Dorotea was also a baptism sponsor in September 1617, November 1618 and August 1622. In August of 1623, Dorotea and Anna Scziernisken (the wife of Bartel Scziernisko) were baptism sponsors for a child from Przittkowitz.

Paulus Scziernisko and Bartel Scziernisko were baptism sponsors in April of 1622. Paulus Scziernisko and Anna Scziernisken (the wife of Bartel) were baptism sponsors in November of 1623. Pawel Scziernisko was listed as a baptism sponsor in October of 1639 and February of 1640. He was listed as the baptism sponsor Paul Scziernisko in October of 1641.

Family of Bartel Scziernisko and Anna Scziernisken 1617 to 1639 Przittkowitz

Bartel (Bartelomeus) Scziernisko (c.1580-after 1625) married Anna (maiden name unknown) before 25 March 1620. Bartel may have been a brother of Bartos Scziernisko. They both lived at Przittkowitz. See the Family of Bartos and Hedwig Scziernisko, 1608 to 1655 Przittkowitz.

Bartel Scziernisko and his wife Anna Scziernisken were the baptism sponsors at the Powitzko Catholic Church for many of the children born at Przittkowitz and the nearby villages. Bartel Scziernisko was listed as a baptism sponsor in January 1617, with Dorotea Scziernisken in May 1617, December 1618, November 1619, February 1621 (twice), September 1621, with Paulus Scziernisko in April 1622, with Anna Scziernisken in December 1622, December 1623, September 1624 and June 1625.

Anna Scziernisken was listed as a baptism sponsor in March 1620, July 1621, March 1622, April 1622, with Bartel Scziernisko in December 1622, with Dorotea Scziernisken in August 1623, with Paulus Scziernisko in November 1623, January 1624 and November 1626. She was listed as the baptism sponsor Anna Sczierniskowa in December 1637, July 1639 and September 1639. The “-owa” suffix indicated a married woman or widow. In these cases, I think it indicates that Bartel Scziernisko died between November 1626 and December 1637.

Paulus Scziernisko and Dorotea Scziernisken were probably husband and wife. Paulus Scziernisko and Bartel Scziernisko were probably brothers.

Children of Bartel Scziernisko and Anna Scziernisken

Hedwigi the daughter of Bartel Sczierniske from Przittkowitz married Mateus Golý the Scholtes Sohn (son of the mayor) from Groß Kaschütz on the 2nd of March in 1621. They were married at the Catholic church in Powitzko. Hedwig was probably born around 1603.

Hans, the son of Bartel Scziernisko and his wife Anna from Przittkowitz was baptized at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 27th of April in 1621.

Maria, the daughter of Bartel Scziernisko and his wife Anna from Przittkowitz was baptized at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 26th of March in 1623.

Eva, the daughter of Bartel Scziernisko and his wife Anna from Przittkowitz was baptized at the Catholic church in Powitzko on the 18th of September in 1624.

Family of Gottlieb Starniske and Anne Marie (née Scholz) Starniske c.1822 to 1842 Rackelsdorf

Birth and Death of Gottlieb Starniske (1785-1840)

Gottlieb Starniske (1785-1840) was the Gerichtsscholz und Freisteller (court appointed mayor and free owner of property) at Rackelsdorf. Gottlieb Starniske died on the 3rd of September in 1840 at Rackelsdorf. He died from Auszehrung (consumption, phthisis pulmonalis) at the age of 55 years and 6 months old. Based his age, his calculated date of birth was around the 3rd of March in 1785.

Gottlieb Starniske (1785-1840) was the correct age to have been a son of Johann Sterniske (1743-1804, SN294) and Katharina (née Nitschke) Sterniske. That would place Gottlieb in the eight generation (Gen. VIII) in the overall Sternitzke family tree. Gottlieb would have been born at Klein Ujeschütz between the births of his brothers Johann Sternitzke (1775-1843) and Friedrich Sternitzke (1787-1846).

Based on the ages of other people who lived at Rackelsdorf during the years Gottlieb and Anna Marie Sternitzke lived there, they were the parents of: Gottlieb Starniske (junior, c.1822-after 1899) and Gottfried Starniske (c.1822-after 1875). See the Family of Gottlieb Starniske and Karoline (née Langner) Starniske, 1841 to 1899 Rackelsdorf. See the Family of Gottfried Starniske and Johanna (née Schröter) Starniske, 1843 to 1875 Rackelsdorf.

Death of Anne Marie (née Scholz) Starniske

Anne Marie (née Scholz) Starniske (1787-1842), the wife of the Freisteller (free property owner) Mr. Starniske, died at Rackelsdorf on the 18th of August in 1842. She died from Krebs (cancer) at the age of 55 years and 6 months, so she was born around the 18th of February in 1787. Anne Marie was probably the wife of Gottlieb Starniske (c.1785-1840) who died at Rackelsdorf in 1840.

| 8 May 1897, Record Number 12 | Carl Anton Hendrick , son of the Bahnwärter Anton Hendrick and Hedwig (née Sterniske) Hendriock . | Anna Maria Rosalie Zimmermann , daughter of Joseph Zimmermann and Maria (née Leander) Zimmermann |
| The Hilfsbillettschaffner (assistant ticket conductor) Carl Anton Hendriock was a Catholic. He was born on the 21st of May in 1867 at Gellendorf in Trebnitz County. At the time of his wedding, he lived at Husittenstrasse 22 in Berlin. The marriage record for Carl Anton Hendriock shows his father the Bahnwärter (railroad signalman) Anton Hendriock died at Trachenberg before the 1897 wedding. The record shows his mother, Hedwig (née Sterniske) Hendriock had died at Gellendorf. That information is consistent with the 1891 Breslau marriage record of his brother, Hermann Paul Heinrich Hendriock, which showed his father was the Bahnwärter Anton Hendriock who was living at Schmiegrode in 1891, and Hedwig (née Sternitzke) Hendriock had died at Gellendorf before the 1891 wedding. See the Village of Borzenzine in Militsch County: Birth and Marriage of Hermann Paul Heinrich Hendrick, 1851 Borzenzine and 1891 Breslau. The family names were spelled Hendriock and Sternitzke on that marriage record. | | |

Gellendorf was 5 miles west of Prausnitz, 11 miles northwest of Trebnitz and 20 miles northwest of Breslau. Gellendorf is now known as Skokowa, Poland.

Lichtenberg is a suburb of Berlin.

Anna Maria Rosalie Zimmermann was unoccupied, a Catholic, and she lived at Schoß-Trachenberg. She was born on the 4th of May in 1873 at Schoß-Trachenberg. Her parents were still living at Schoß-Trachenberg at the time of the wedding. Her father, Joseph Zimmermann was a fürstlichen Kammerdiener (valet for the prince) for Prince Hermann von Hatzfeldt (1848-1930).

The wedding witnesses were the Königliche Eisenbahn-Stations-Assistent Friedrich Benkel and the Tafeldecker Max Zimmermann. The royal railroad station assistant Friedrich Benkel was 47 years old and lived at Sagan. Max Zimmermann was 33 years old and lived in Berlin at Flemmingstraße 5. A Tafeldecker (boardman) was a servant in a large household, or an independant contractor, who set the table linens and napkins for ceremonies, weddings, etc.

Birth and Family of Helene (née Sternitzke) Schulz 1785 to 1854 Sulau

The information sources for the history of Helene (née Sternitzke) Schulz were the baptism and marriage records for her son Gottfried Johann Schulz and the death/burial record for her husband Christian Schulz.

Helene Sternitzke was born before 1785 at Sulau. The names of her parents are not known. She was a Protestant. She married the Häusler (day laborer) Christian Schulz at Sulau around 1803. Christian Schulz was born in 1781 and died on the 14th of October in 1854, at the age of 73 years old. He was buried at Sulau on the 18th of October in 1854. Helene (née Sternitzke) Schulz died before her son's marriage in 1823 at Sulau.

Their son, Gottfried Johann Schulz (1804-after 1852) was born on the 5th June in 1804 at Sulau. He was baptized at Sulau in June of 1804. He became a Freigärtner at Brechine-Sulau (now Brzezina Sulowska) and Ziegelscheune (now named Wszewilki), in Militsch County. Gottfried died after 1852 - possibly at Ziegelscheune.

Gottfried Johann Schulz was married twice. He married Marie Elisabeth Gotter (1803-1833) at Sulau on the 26th of August in 1823. The marriage record apparently recorded his mother as deceased at that time. His father, Christian Schulz was listed as the Häusler und Schneider (day laborer and tailor) Gottfried Schulz who was living at Sulau. Marie Elisabeth Gotter was the daughter of Christian Gotter, who was the Erb- und Gerichtsscholz (hereditary and court appointed mayor) at Brechine-Sulau. Gottfried Johann Schulz and his first wife had three children: Caroline Schulz (born in 1824), Beate Johanne Schulz (1830-1908) and one unnamed stillborn child (1833).

Gottfried Johann Schulz was listed as a Freigärtner in Brechine-Sulau in Militsch County on the 1845 marriage record of his daughter. Caroline Schulz married Matthaus Noserke on the 22nd of June in 1845 at Sulau. Matthaus Noserke was a Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) at Pinkotschine near Militsch.

Gottfried Johann Schulz married Anna Rosina Lachmann (1809-after 1852) at Sulau on the 14th of July in 1833. Anna Rosina was from Peterkaschütz, in Militsch County. They had two stillborn children (in 1834 and 1835). Peterkaschütz was named Lachmannshofen in 1937. It is now named Piotrkosice, Poland. Gottfried Johann Schulz and his second wife moved from Breschine-Sulau to Ziegelscheune (by the city of Militsch) between 1845 and 1852. Gottfried Johann Schulz was listed in a property record as the owner of the Scholtisei (mayor's property) at Ziegelscheune in 1852.

Marriage of Friedrich Sternitzke and Elisabeth Schulz 1852 Sulau

The widower Friedrich Sternitzke married Elisabeth Schulz in the Protestant Church at Sulau in 1852. Friedrich Sternitzke was 50 years old, so he was born around 1802. Elisabeth Schulz was 41 years old, so she was born around 1811. She was the daughter of Georg Schulz.

Marriage of Gustav Sternitzke (1831-1881) 1868 Sulau

The databases for the Poznan Project and Meine-ahnen.eu include two records that are probably the original and the attested marriage records for Gustav Sternitzke and Beate Gruttke. The first marriage church record was from the Protestant church at Sulau in Militsch County (record number 26c in 1868). The database shows Gustav Sternitzke was born in 1833. He was a widower when he married Beate Gruttke. She was born in 1834, the daughter of Matthaeus Gruttke. A second marriage record was recorded in the Protestant church at Dobberschütz (Dobrzyca) in Posen (record number 6 in 1868). It shows Gustav Sternitzki was a 35 years old widower who married Johanna Beate Caroline Gruttke. She was 34 years old and the daughter of Matthaeus Gruttke.

The second marriage record from the Protestant church at Dobberschütz (Dobrzyca) was available for download and review. It shows the marriage at Dobberschütz took place on the 19th of July in 1868. The widowed Wirth (Landwirth, farmer) Gustav Sternitzki from Grünau (Strzyzewo) married Johanna Beate Gruttke from Peterkaschütz near Sulau (in Militsch County, Silesia). She was the youngest daughter of Bauer (farmer) Mathaeus Gruttke. The original record listed their ages as 35 and 34, which would make the calculated years of birth around 1833 for Gustav, and 1834 for Beate. They were both Protestant. The record from Dobberschütz listed two dates in the column for the ceremony, the 12th and the 19th of July, with

Death of Gustav Sternitzke (1831-1881)

Beate Sternitzke, a resident of Grünau (Strzyzewo) reported the death of her husband the Arbeiter Gustav Sternitzke, at the Standesamt (registry office) in Dobberschütz (Dobrzyca). Gustav was a resident of Grünau and died there. Gustav Sternitzke died on the 7th of April in 1881, at the age of 49 years, 6 months and 9 days. That would make his calculated birth date the 29th of September in 1831.

Gustav Sternitzke was born at Polnisch Hammer in Trebnitz County, Silesia. He was the son of Christoph Sternitzke, who died before Gustav. The name of Christoph's wife was not known by Beate Sternitzke. Gustav Sternitzke was a Protestant. See the Family and Death of Gustav Sternitzke (1831-1881), 1867 to 1881 Grünau (Strzyzewo).

Marriage and Family of Carl Hermann Sternitzke 1882 & 1883 Sulau

Carl Hermann Sternitzke (Gen.XI-296, 1855-after 1916) from Domnowitz married Anna Marie Kroke (from Peterkaschütz) at Sulau on the 30th of January in 1883. He was listed as Hermann Karl Sternitzke in the Genetaka.genealodzy.pl database. Carl Hermann Sternitzke was born in 1855. He was the son of Carl Friedrich Sternitzke (Karl Friedrich Sterniski, Gen.X-266, 1832-1876) and Johanna Karoline (née Sille) Sternitzke. Karl Friedrich Sterniski was the Erb-Kretschambesitzer (hereditary inn owner) at Domnowitz. See the Family of Johann Sterniske (1765-c.1806) and Maria (née Skor) Sterniske, 1785 to 1876 Domnowitz.

Birth and Death of Anna Marie (née Kroke) Sternitzke (1861-1909)

Anna Marie Kroke was born in 1861. She was the daughter of Mattaeus Kroke and Beate (née Lachmann) Kroke. Marie (née Kroke) Sternitzke was 48 years and 10 months old when she died at the-Breslau Hospital of the Allerheiligen, on the 9th of December in 1909. Based on her age, she was born around the 9th of February in 1861. Her death record shows she was born at Peterkaschütz in Militsch County, the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Matthias Kroke and his wife Berte (née Lachmann) Kroke, who had both died at Peterkaschütz prior to the death of their daughter. Peterkaschütz was renamed as Lachmannshofen in 1937 and is now named Piotrkosice, Poland. See the Death of Marie (née Kroke) Sternitzke, 9 December 1909 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Adolph Kroke-Sternitzke, 1882

The Geneteka genealogy database of Polish record includes a transcription of the birth record for Adolph Kroke-Sternitzke. He was born on the 21st of January in 1882. His birth was recorded at the registry office at Sulau in Militsch County. The original record was not available for online review in May of 2023. The child's father was listed as Herrmann Sternitzke. The mother was listed as Marie Kroke. The place of birth was listed as Peterkaschütz. A note from that birth record states the birth was reported by the Mattheus Kroke, the father of the unmarried Marie Kroke. Mattheus Kroke was a Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) at Peterkaschütz. My guess is that the name of the father, Herrmann Sternitzke was added to the original birth record when he married Maria in 1883. He probably adopted the child at that time, or he acknowledged he was the legal father.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1916

The Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Sternitzke was listed in Breslau address books as still living at Kletschkaustraße 27 IV (fourth floor) in 1914 and 1916.

Marriage of David Hermann Sternitzke and Elisabeth Ziebe 1888 Sulau

David Hermann Sternitzke (1850-1922) married Elisabeth Ziebe at Sulau on the 20th of November in 1888. Their marriage was recorded on the 1943 death record of Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke, which referenced the marriage record number 19 in 1888 at the Standesamt (civil registry office) at Sulau in Militsch County. This was the second marriage of David Hermann Sternitzke who was born at Klein Ujeschütz on the 28th of February in 1850, and died at Donkawe (in Militsch County) on the 13th of August in 1922. He was the son of Johann Sternitzke and Helene (née Fischer) Sternitzke. His first wife, Anna Pauline (née Elias)

Sternitzke died at Donkawe on the 8th of October in 1887. See the Village of Donkawe in Militsch County: Family Tree of David Hermann Sternitzke.

Elisabeth Ziebe was born on the 19th of January in 1863 at Peterkaschütz in Militsch County. She was the daughter of Gottfried Ziebe and Anna Rosina (née Döring) Ziebe, who last resided at Peterkaschütz. Peterkaschütz was named Lachmannshofen in 1937. It is now named Piotrkosice, Poland.

David Hermann Sternitzke died at Donkawe in Militsch County on the 14th of August in 1922, at the age of 72 years. See the Death of David Hermann Sternitzke, 1922 Donkawe.

The widow Elisabeth (née Ziebe) Sternitzke died at home in Breslau on the 15th of December 1943. She had lived at Gräschener Straße 16 (about 4 blocks from the southwest corner of the old moat, now Grabiszyńska Street). Elisabeth was a Protestant. The causes of Elisabeth's death were listed as Aderverkalkung und Gehirnschlag (venous calcification and cerebral apoplexy). Elisabeth's death was reported by Martha (née Sternitzke) Friebe, who lived at the same address and was probably her daughter. The 1943 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiterin (laborer) Frau Martha Friebe, but not Elisabeth Sternitzke as a resident at Gräschener Straße 16.

Marriage and Death of Anna Starnitzke 1889 to 1944 Breslau and Trachenberg

Anna Starnitzke (1855-1944) was born at Carlsburg (in Öls County) on the 29th of July in 1855. She was the daughter of the Landwirth (farmer) Ernst Starnitzke and his wife Elisa (née Langner) Starnitzke.

In 1889, Anna Starnitzke was employed in Breslau as a Verkäuferin (sales clerk). She lived in Breslau at Paradiesstrasse 17 (one block east from the old city walls, now Stanisława Worcela Street). Anna married the Kaufmann (merchant) Carl Friedrich Werner at Breslau on the 27th of February 1889. Their marriage record shows that Anna and Carl were both Protestants. It also shows that Carl Friedrich Werner lived at Trachenberg in Militsch County. Anna's parents were still living at Carlsburg at the time of Anna's wedding.

Carl Friedrich Werner was born on the 9th of April in 1855 at Körnitz near Trachenberg. He was the son of the Landwirth (farmer) Friedrich Werner and Elisabeth (née Klose) Werner. At the time of Carl's wedding to Anna Starnitzke, Carl's father was still a farmer, living at Körnitz (3 miles northwest of Trachenberg, now Karnitz, Poland), but Carl's mother was deceased.

Witnesses at the 1889 wedding were the 30 years old Haushälter (janitor) Robert Feder and the 52 years old Kaufmann (merchant) Mr. Lindner. Robert Feder lived in Breslau at Paradiesstrasse 17 (the same address as the bride, Anna Starnitzke). The 9th of May in 1892 birth record of Frieda Gertrud Bertha Feder listed her parents as Robert Feder and Bertha Starnitzke. Bertha and Anna Starnitzke were probably sisters. See Chapter 9, Öls County in the Breslau District, Village of Carlsburg: the Birth, Marriage and Family of Johanna Louise Bertha Starnitzke, 1860 Carlsburg, 1887 to 1892 City of Breslau.

Handwritten notes on the marriage record show that Carl Friedrich Werner died at Trachenberg in 1932 (Trachenberg death record number 109 in 1932), and Anna (née Starnitzke) Werner died at Trachenberg on the 21st of July in 1944 (Trachenberg death record number 125 in 1944).

Family of Wilhelm Sternitzke and Christiana (née Horn) Sternitzke 1870 to 1885 Tschotschwitz

The records for their children provide a brief history of Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Christiana (née Horn) Sternitzke. Christiana was listed as Christiane and Christine in some of the records. They were farmers who lived at Tschotschwitz from 1875 to 1885. In 1887, they were farmers who lived in at Cäcilienthal (now named Kozły, Poland) in Schildberg County (Posen). In 1904 they were *Auszügler*s (retired farmers) who lived at Glasdorf (now named Szklarka Przygodzicka, Poland) in Adelnau County of Posen.

Birth and Marriage of Wilhelm Sternitzke (junior, 1870-1946)

Wilhelm Sternitzke (junior, 1870-1946) was born on the 17th of September in 1870 at Tschotschwitz. He was the son of Wilhelm Sternitzke and Christiane (née Horn) Sternitzke. They were farmers who lived at Tschotschwitz. Wilhelm (junior) also became a Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) at Tschotschwitz. Wilhelm married Pauline Langner around 1894. They had six children. Wilhelm died in September of 1946 at Versmold in Gütersloh County, in the German State of North Rhine-Westphalia. See the Family of Wilhelm Sternitzke (junior), 1894 Tschotschwitz to 1939 Brandetal.

Birth and Marriage of son Ernst Sternitzke, 1872 & 1896

A brief summary of the marriage record of Ernst Sternitzke shows he was born in 1872, the son of Wilhelm Sternitzke and Christine (née Horn) Sternitzke. Ernst Sternitzke married Helene Ulbrich in 1896 at the Standesamt in Mittelwalde (now Międzybórz, Poland). Helene Ulbrich was born in 1879, the daughter of Carl Ulbrich and Helene (née Berger) Ulbrich. See the Family of Ernst Sternitzke and Helene (née Ulbrich) Sternitzke, 1898 to 1919 Cäcilienthal.

Birth and Marriage of son Karl Sternitzke, 1875 & 1904

According to his 1904 marriage record, Karl Sternitzke was born on the 16th of February in 1875 at Schotschwitz in Militsch County. He was the son of the farmer Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Christiana (née Horn) Sternitzke. The village written as Schotschwitz was probably Tschotschwitz in Militsch County. Tschotschwitz is now named Czatkowice, Poland. The village named Glasdorf is 19 miles east from the village that was named Tschotschwitz.

In 1904, the divorced Gastwirt (innkeeper) Karl Sternitzke was living at Glasdorf. His parents the Auszügler (retired farmer) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Christiana (née Horn) Sternitzke were also living at Glasdorf in 1904.

On the 21st of November in 1904, the divorced Gastwirt Karl Sternitzke married the Ernstine Marie Ulrich. Their marriage was registered at the Adelnau Standesamt. They were both Protestants. This was the first marriage for Ernstine Marie Ulrich. She was a resident of Bonikow, a village that was 2 miles south of Adelnau. Bonikow is now known as Boników, Poland. See Karl's signature below.

Ernstine Marie Ulrich was born on the 8th of September in 1887 at Bonikow. Her parents were the Auszügler (retired farmer) Wilhelm Ulrich and his wife Auguste (née Hübner) Ulrich. They were still living at Bonikow at the time of their daughter's wedding.

The wedding witnesses were: the 26 years old Gastwirt (innkeeper) Sylveste Krawczyk from Adelnau, and the 38 years old Gewerbescher (businessman) Wincent (also known as Wincentz) Cierniak who also lived at Adelnau.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Pauline Sternitzka, 1877 & 1894

A brief summary of the marriage record of Pauline Sternitzka shows she was born in 1877, the daughter of Wilhelm Sternitzki and Christine (née Horn) Sternitzki. Pauline Sternitzka married Adolf Bonk in 1894 at Schildberg, Posen. He was born in 1869, the son of Friedrich Bonk and Catharine Bonk.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Ernestine Sternitzke, 1879 & 1896

A brief summary of the marriage record of Ernestine Sternitzke shows she was born in 1879, the daughter of Wilhelm Sternitzki and Christine (née Horn) Sternitzki. Ernestine Sternitzke married Michael Ulbrich in 1896 at Schildberg, Posen. He was born in 1871, the son of Carl Ulbrich and Helene Berger. See the Family of Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Ulbrich, 1899 to 1913 Jeschunne.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Bertha Sternitzke, 1883 & 1899

A brief summary of the marriage record of Bertha Sternitzke shows she was born in 1883, the daughter of Wilhelm Sternitzke and Christine (née Horn) Sternitzke. Bertha Sternitzke married Carl Johann Fietz at Schildberg, Posen. He was born in 1868, the son of Hermann Fietz and Susanne (née Brust) Fietz.

Birth and Death of daughter Anna Sternitzke, 1885 & 1887

Anna Sternitzke died on the 22nd of July in 1887 at Caecilienthal (Cäcilienthal) in Schildberg County (Posen) at the age of 1 year, 10 months and 20 days. Her calculated date of birth was the 2nd of August in 1885. The death record listed her place of birth as Tschotschwitz in Militsch County of Silesia. She was a Protestant. She was the daughter of the Wirth (farmer) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Christiana (née Horn) Sternitzke. Wilhelm Sternitzke signed the death record at the Schildberg Standesamt (registry office).

Village of Wirschowitz in Militsch County

Wirschowitz was a village about 4 miles southeast of the City of Militsch, and 28 miles northeast of Breslau. Wirschowitz was renamed as Hochweiler in 1935. Its population was 730 in 1939. Wirschowitz is now named Wierzchowice, Poland.

Below is the data regarding Paul Richard Sternitzke who according to cemetery records was buried in 1920 at Wirschwitz. A search of the Internet for Wirschwitz places the village in Silesia but does not result in enough information to place it in a specific county. For example, Dorothea Drabon was born around 1686 at Wirschwitz, in Silesia. The closest match to Wirschwitz in Silesia is Wirschowitz in Militsch County, which makes sense considering the number of Sternitzke family members who lived at nearby Tschotschwitz (see above).

Birth and Death of Richard Stanitzke Late 19th Century Schreibersdorf to 1915

Richard Stanitzke was born at Schreibersdorf in the late 19th Century. He served as a Wehrmann (Private) in the German Army during the First World War. In 1914, he served in the Reserve-Infanterie-Regiment Nr. 10. A military casualty report listed him as wounded on the 1st of November in 1914. He then served in the Reserve-Infanterie-Regiment Nr. 5, 6th Company in 1915. He was reported as killed in action on the 29th of May in 1915.

Chapter 8

Ohlau County in the Breslau District

City of Ohlau

The county seat of Ohlau County was the city of Ohlau. The city was known as Oloua in 1149 and was first written as Ohlau in 1527. The population of the city was 13,136 in 1939. The German population was expelled from Ohlau in 1945. Ohlau is now known as Oława, Poland.

Family of the Zimmermann Gottfried Sternitzke 1823 to 1864 City of Ohlau

Circa Gen.IX. Gottfried Sternitzke (c.1790-before 1862). Married Johanne Charlotte Polke (or Polken).

Circa Gen.Xa. Juliane Sternitzke (1823-1900). Married August Pohl.

Circa Gen.XIa. Emma Auguste Bertha Sternitzke (1845-unknown). Born at Ohlau. Married Carl Friedrich Heinrich Quandt in 1872.

Circa Gen.XIIa. Karl Emil August Quandt (1872-1872). Born and died at Breslau.

Circa Gen.XIIb. Meta Alma Elsa Quandt (1876-1943). Born at Breslau. Married Wilhelm Karl Vietense in 1913.

Circa Gen.Xb. Berta Auguste Sternitzke (1832-1910). Married Wilhelm Hirschmann.

Circa Gen.XIb. Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann (1864-1933). Born at Ohlau. Married Heinrich Wilhelm Gustav Mücke (1864-1935) in 1891.

Circa Gen.Xc. Reinhold Robert Sternitzke (c.1835-unknown). Married Helena Grebasch in 1862.

The history of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottfried Sternitzke is known from the records of his children. His known children were born at the city of Ohlau. His earliest known child Juliane Sternitzke was born at Ohlau in 1823. Gottfried was probably born around 1790 and was married around 1820.

The wife of the Zimmermann Gottfried Sternitzky was listed as Charlotte (née Polke) Sternitzky on the 1900 death record of their daughter Juliane (née Sternitzky) Pohl. The 1910 death record for the daughter Berta Auguste (née Sternitzke) Hirschmann identified the wife of the Zimmermann Gottfried Sternitzke as Johanne Charlotte (née Polken) Sternitzke.

His son Reinhold Robert Sternitzke was born at Ohlau around 1835. The 1862 marriage record for Reinhold Robert Sternitzke stated he was the youngest son of Gottfried Sternitzke (implying there was at least one other son), and it also stated Gottfried Sternitzke had died at Ohlau before the 1862 wedding.

Birth and Death of daughter Juliane Sternitzke (1823-1900)

Birth of granddaughter Emma Auguste Bertha Sternitzke, 1846 Ohlau

Juliane (née Sternitzke) Pohl was born at Ohlau around the 6th of April in 1823. That date is based on her age (76 years and 10 months) at the time of her death in Breslau on the 6th of June in 1900. She was a Protestant.

Her death record at Breslau was completed by the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Felix Schlabs and the wife of a Schutzmann named Frau Emma (née Sternitzky) Quandt. A Schutzmann was a uniformed policeman. Julie's daughter signed the death record as Emma Quandt geb. Starnitzky (see her signature below).

The marriage record for Emma Auguste Bertha Sternitzke shows she was born at Ohlau on the 9th of January in 1846. She was the daughter of Juliane Sternitzke. Emma was probably born out of wedlock, since her maiden name matched her mother's maiden name.

Emma Auguste Bertha Sternitzke married Carl Friedrich Heinrich Quandt on the 16th of January in 1872. Emma Sternitzke was 25 years and 4 months old. Carl was 27 and 5 months old. They were married at the military garrison church in Breslau. Carl Quandt was a Sergeant in the 3rd Company of the 1st Silesian Grenadier Regiment Nr. 10. They were both Protestant. See the Family of Emma Auguste Bertha (née Sternitzke/Starnitzky) Quandt, 1872 to 1943 Breslau.

The death record of Julie (née Sternitzky) Pohl shows she was the daughter of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Sternitzky and his wife Charlotte (née Polke) Sternitzky. The first name of Julie's father was not known by the people who completed the death record.

The death record shows Julie Sternitzky had been married the Tuchwalkmeister (master fuller) August Pohl, who was from Brieg. Her daughter recorded on Julie's death record that she did not know if her mother was the widow of August Pohl, or if they had divorced.

Prior to her death, Frau Julie (née Sternitzky) Pohl lived with her daughter Emma (née Starnitzkÿ) Quandt at Neue Junkernstraße 16 (as it was known in 1892; it was shown as Herzogstraße on an 1850 map, 4 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Jana Kilińskiego Street).

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Berta Auguste Sternitzke (1832-1910)

Berta Auguste (née Sternitzke) Hirschmann died at Breslau on the 29th of October in 1910, at the age of 78 years old. Her calculated date of birth was around the 29th of October in 1832. Her death record stated that she was born at Ohlau. She was the daughter of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottfried Sternitzke and Johanne Charlotte (née Polken) Sternitzke. They had died at Ohlau prior to 1910. Berta was a Protestant. The death record was signed by her daughter Ida (née Hirschmann) Mücke, the wife of the Tapeziermeister (master wallpaper hanger) Heinrich Wilhelm Gustav Mücke. See the Marriage of Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann, 15 July 1891 City of Breslau.

Berta Auguste Sternitzke married Wilhelm Hirschmann around 1860. They were probably married at Ohlau. The civil death record for Wilhelm Hirschmann states that he married Auguste Starnitzkÿ at Breslau, but that death record was submitted by a person from the Wenzel Hancke Krankenhaus (hospital) in Breslau.

Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann was born at Ohlau on the 1st of May in 1864. The marriage record for Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann listed her parents as Wilhelm Hirschmann and Auguste (née Starnitzke) Hirschmann. In 1891, the family was living in Breslau. Wilhelm Hirschmann was employed as a Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker). Ida Hirschmann was employed as Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived at Hubenstraße 14 (one block southeast from the main trainstation, now Hubska Street).

The 1884 Breslau address book listed a Zigarrenmacher Wilhelm Hirschmann as a resident at Hubenstraße 8 II. The 1897 Breslau address book listed him at Hubenstraße 14 IV, 500 meters east from Kantstraße 4.

The former Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker) Wilhelm Hirschmann was 74 years old when he died on the 19th of November in 1908. He was a Protestant. He had lived at Hubenstraße 14 in Breslau prior to his death. He was born at Kamnitz in Glatz County. His parents, the Gärtner August Hirschmann and Caroline (née Hötzel) Hirschmann previously died at Bischwitz über der Oder in Ohlau County. According to the civil death record Wilhelm married at Breslau to Auguste Starnitzkÿ. His death was reported by the Wenzel Hancke Krankenhaus in Breslau.

At the time of her death Berta Auguste was the widow of the Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker) Wilhelm Hirschmann. She died at home in Breslau at Kantstraße 4 (now Łódzka Street, about 5 blocks south from the main train station).

The 1884 Breslau address book listed a Zigarrenmacher Wilhelm Hirschmann as a resident at Hubenstraße 8 II. The 1897 Breslau address book listed him at Hubenstraße 14 IV, 500 meters east from Kantstraße 4.

Birth and Marriage of son Reinhold Robert Sternitzke, 1835 and 1862

The Schlossermeister (master mechanic) Reinhold Robert Sternitzke from Ohlau married Helena Grebasch on the 5th of May in 1862. They were married at the evangelische Haupt- und Pfarrkirche St. Maria-Magdalena (Protestant Cathedral and Parish Church of St. Maria Magdalena) in Breslau.

Reinhold Robert Sternitzke was 27 years old at the time of his marriage, so he was born around 1835. He was a Protestant, and the youngest son of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottfried Sternitzke. His father died at Ohlau prior to the wedding.

Helena Grebasch was 26 years old at the time of the wedding. She was a Protestant, and the youngest daughter of Maria Grebasch from Breslau.

Village of Bischwitz bei Wansen in Ohlau County

The villages named Bischwitz were based on the Latin word episcopus (bishop), so perhaps they were landholdings of Catholic bishops. Two villages named Bischwitz in Ohlau County are both about 20 miles from Breslau: Bischwitz bei Wansen was about 20 miles south of Breslau, and Bischwitz über der Oder was 20 miles east of Breslau. The villages are about 20 miles apart. Records at Breslau referred to it as Bischwitz bei Wansen to differentiate it from the other villages named Bischwitz:

Bischwitz in Kolmar County, Bromberg District in Posen, Bischwitz am Berge in Breslau County, Breslau District in Silesia, and Bischwitz über der Oder, Ohlau County, Breslau District in Silesia.

There was also the nearby village named Bischwitz in Trebnitz County, which was only four miles north of the old city walls of Breslau.

Historical names of Bischwitz included: Biscopitz (1305), Byscupitz and Byschkowitz (1471) and Bischkowiz (1783). The population of Bischwitz was 652 in 1939. The borders of Ohlau and Strehlen Counties were moved on the 1st of January in 1945. Bischwitz and Wansen were then included in Strehlen County (see the second map below).

Bischwitz bei Wansen is now named Biskupicka. Biskupicka is now part of the community of Wansen (known in Polish as Gmina Wiązów).

Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke 1840 to 1876 Bischwitz bei Wanssen

History of daughter Caroline Sternitzke and her son Wilhelm August Traugott Sternitzke

On the 9th of November in 1862, Caroline Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Emilie Louise Daniel at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. Caroline was listed as the oldest daughter of the weiland Hausbesitzer (late home owner) Gottlieb Sternitzke from Bischwitz near Wanssen. Emilie Louise Daniel was the daughter of Gottfried Daniel and Anna Maria (née Franke) Daniel who were residents of Oltaschin. The child was born on the 29th of October in 1862. The other baptism sponsors were: Carl Bassler the oldest son of Gottlieb Bassler a Freistellenbesitzer from Gaulau in Ohlau County; and Caroline Kroker the second daughter of Ernst Kroker a Freistellenbesitzer from Baumgart in Strehlen County.

An 1863 baptism record listed Caroline Sternitzke as the first daughter of the Freigärtner Gottlieb Sternitzke. Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Bischwitz near Wanssen (in Ohlau County) before the baptism of his grandson Wilhelm August Traugott Sternitzke.

Wilhelm August Traugott Sternitzke was born at Oltaschin on the 17th of March in 1863. He was baptized at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of March in 1863. He was the son of Caroline Sternitzke from Oltaschine. The baptismal sponsors were: Dorothea Pluder the second daughter of Gottlieb Pluder, from Oltaschine, Caroline Völke the third daughter of Franz Völke a Freigärtner at Oltaschine, and Christiane Sternitzke the second daughter of Gottlieb Sternitzke a Freigärtner at Bischwitz.

Karol. (Karoline) Sternitzke married a Brunnenbauer (well digger) named Mr. Patschureck at St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau on the 15th of January in 1865. Mr. Patschureck was from the city Oltaschin.

See the City of Oltaschin in Breslau County: the Family of Caroline Sternitzke, 1863 to 1865 Oltaschin.

History of daughter Johanne Christiane Sternitzky and her children Anna Johanna Ida Starnitzki and Gustav Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzky

Johanne Christiane Sternitzky was born at Bischwitz near the city of Wansen in Ohlau County, on 11th of September in 1840. She was the daughter of the Schneidermeister und Hausbesitzer (master tailor and house owner) Gottlieb Sternitzky. Gottlieb died before the birth of Christiane's daughter in 1861. The following variations of her surname were found in church and civil records: Starnitzki, Starnitzke, Sternitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzky. A note added to the baptism record of her son in 1869 indicated Sternitzky was the correct variation. Before Christiane married Gustav Robert Scholz at Breslau (in 1872) she had a daughter and a son who were born out of wedlock: Anna Johanna Ida Starnitzki in 1861 and Gustav Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzky in 1869. See the Family of Johanne Christiane (née Sternitzky) Scholz, 1861 to 1920 City of Breslau.

History of daughter Anna Starnitzki and her daughter Olga Emma Starnitzki

Anna Starnitzki was probably a daughter of Gottlieb Sternitzke. Anna had a daughter out of wedlock at Bischwitz.

Olga Emma Starnitzki was born at Bischwitz (in Ohlau County) on the 17th of June in 1876. She was the daughter of the ledigen Köcherin (unmarried cook) Anna Starnitzki, who died at Bischwitz before her daughter's wedding in 1901.

In 1901, Olga Emma Starnitzki was a Protestant and a Köchin (cook) who lived in the Kleinburg suburb of Breslau at Linden Allee 7 (now Aleja Lipowa Street, about 12 blocks southwest from Breslau's main train station). Olga married the Postunterbeamte (postal official) David Hohaus on the 5th of September in 1901.

Olga's death record listed her maiden name as Sternitzke. The widowed Rentenempfängerin (pensioner) Olga (née Sternitzke) Hohaus was 62 years old when she died at a city hospital at Glatz (in Glatz County) on the 23rd of January in 1938. Her last residence was at auf der Höhe 6 at Glatz. Olga's birth place was listed on her death record as Bischwitz bei Wansen (in Ohlau County), which matches her birthplace as was identified on her marriage record. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Olga Emma Starnitzki, 5 September 1901 City of Breslau, 1938 Glatz.

Öls County in the Breslau District

A portion of the Breslau District, showing Militsch, Trebnitz, Breslau and Öls Counties.
Original map by Thomas Rüffer. Retrieved from http://wiki-de.genealogy.net/Regierungsbezirk_Breslau.

The Duchy of Öls was also originally ruled by the Silesian Piast dynasty, until it passed from the last Silesian Piast Duke of Öls to the Bohemian King in 1492. The Duchy of Öls remained under the Austrian-Bohemian Empire until the Silesian Wars, when it became under the Kingdom of Prussia in 1742. The religious conflict between the principality and the Catholic Church was one part of a conflict for legal authority over the local villages that began with the Bohemian and Saxon royalty in the 16th century and continued under the Prussian royalty in the 18th century, was not settled until the Prussian king secularized the holdings of the Catholic Stift at Trebnitz.

City of Öls in Öls County

Öls (also written as Oels) was a city in Öls County, about 19 miles northeast of the city of Breslau. The city of Öls had a population of 18,183 in 1939. It is now known as Oleśnica and had a population of about 37,000 in 2008. The name Öls (Oels) is from the Norse word “oel” meaning the fermented malt beverage known in English as ale. Other names for the city of Öls include Oelße and the Latin versions: Olsna and Olesnicia.

Marriage and Family of Juliane Starnitzke 1865 City of Öls

Juliane Starnitzke (Gen.X-274, 1836-after 1865) married Hermann Winkler at Öls on the 21st of May in 1865. Hermann Winkler was a Sergeant in the 6th Company of the 3rd Lower Silesian Infantry Regiment No. 50. This regiment was the 3rd infantry regiment from Lower Silesia in the province of Silesia, and the 50th infantry regiment of the German empire.

Their marriage was recorded in military records at Öls and Breslau. The military record from the garrison at Breslau shows the marriage took place at Öls. The records at Öls were copied to Breslau because the infantry regiment at Öls reported to the 21st Infantry Brigade at Breslau. The Breslau record includes a note regarding paternity of an illegitimate child born on the 5th of May in 1860 at Bohrau. A record taken on the 6th of May in 1865 to established paternity for Juliane's illegitimate child was turned over to the court on the 30th of May. That child was probably Pauline Anna Clara Winkler who married Franz Gustav Adolf Draese on the 24th of September in 1892 at Tarnowitz (in Tarnowitz County in the Oppeln District). The Geneteka genealogical database shows Pauline Anna Clara Winkler was the daughter of Hermann Winkler and Julianna (née Starnitzke) Winkler. Franz Gustav Adolf Draese was the son of Carl Draese and Anna (née Hain) Draese.

Hermann Winkler was 31 years old at the time of his 1865 wedding, so he was born around 1834. He was the oldest son of the Schullehrer (schoolteacher) David Winkler from Eichgrund. The village Eichgrund in Öls County is 2 miles northeast from Sibyllenort, which was probably where David Winkler taught school. A map of the area (at Meyers Gazetteer) shows a large school at Sibyllenort. Eichgrund is now named Dąbrowica, Poland. Sibyllenort is now called Szczodre, Poland.

The marriage records show that Juliane Starnitzke was 28 years and 9 months old, so she was born around August in 1836. She was the daughter of the deceased Müllermeister (master miller) Gottlieb Starnitzke from Neudorf near Juliusburg in Öls County. This information and the note regarding the birth of Juliane's illegitimate child at Bohrau shows that Juliane was the daughter of Gottlieb Sternüske (also known as Sternitzke) and Johanna Elisabeth (nee Titze) Sternüske.

Gottlieb Sternüske / Sternitzke married Johanna Elisabeth Titze in 1832. Gottlieb Sternitzke, the former Müllermeister (master miller) at Neudorf died on the 29th of May in 1848 from a Geschwulst (tumor) at the age of 40 years and 10 months. Juliane Starnitzke would have been 11 years old at the time. See Book III: Village of Neudorf in Öls County, the Death of Gottlieb Sternüske/Sternitzke, 1848 Neudorf. Johanna Elisabeth (nee Titze) Sternitzke was only 35 years old when she was widowed. She survived her husband by 34 years. She celebrated a second marriage, and died at Bohrau in 1882 as a widow – her second husband died years before. In Bohrau, Öls County, she had found a second homestead. The birth of Juliane's illegitimate child on the 5th of May in 1860 at Bohrau fits into this timeline. Bohrau (now named Borowa, Poland) is 4 miles east of Sibyllenort.

See Book I, Chapter 12 (Pirschen) and Chapter 13 (Gross Hammer) for the history of the Gottlieb Sternüske / Sternitzke family. Also see the Death of Johanna Elisabeth (née Titze) Sternüske, 1882 Bohrau.

Death of Johanna (née Sternitzke) Schaffner 1871 City of Öls

Johanna (née Sternitzke) Schaffner (1809-1871) died from fever (after long and severe sufferings) on the 3rd of August in 1871. Her occupation was listed as Schneidermeistersfrau (wife of a master tailor) and Schneidermeisterin (master seamstress). Her age at time of death was 61 years, 10 months and 16 days. A genealogical birthdate calculator identified her birthdate as the 18th of September in 1809. Her obituary reads that Johanna was a dear wife, mother-in-law and grandmother.

Johanna was probably the grandmother of Paul Schaffner who died from cholera on the 30th of September in 1866, at the age of 14 years and 7 days. Paul was the son of the tailor Eduard Schaffner (who was probably Johanna's son).

Wilhelm Ernst Max Sternitzke 1874 to 1895 City of Öls

Wilhelm Ernst Max Sternitzke was born in (or near) the city of Öls on the 23rd of October in 1874. He passed his first teaching examination at the city of Öls on the 30th of May in 1895. On the 10th of May in 1899, he passed his second teaching examination at Eisleben, the birthplace and place of death of Martin Luther. Eisleben passed from the Electorate of Saxony to the Kingdom of Prussia in 1815. After 1945, Eisleben passed to Saxony-Anhalt.

Wilhelm Ernst Max Sternitzke married Selma Tischendorf. Their son, Erwin Paul Sternitzke was born at Essen on the 1st of April in 1909 (see his obituary in Chapter 15-Military Men of the Sternitzke Family). In May of 1923, Wilhelm Sternitzke was the Rektor (headmaster) teaching at Essen, in the Düsseldorf Region of the State of North Rhine-Westphalia.

Richard Arthur Emil Sternitzke 1900 to 1902 City of Öls

Gen.XI-301 Richard Arthur Emil Sternitzke (1880-after 1941) was born at Gross Ujeschütz on the 2nd of March in 1880, the son of Gen.X-271 Ernst Gottlieb Sternitzke (1839-1897, SN87) and Anna Susanna (Tilgner) Sternitzke (1841-1912).

Richard was a teacher. He passed his first teaching examination at Öls on the 30th of June in 1900, and his second teaching examination also at Öls on the 28th of November of 1902.

He passed the middle school teaching examination at Breslau in 1906, and the Rektor (headmaster) teaching examination also at Breslau in 1908. Richard was living in Breslau with his wife Maria (maiden name Maria Christalle) when he was called to military service. Richard served in the Bavarian Artillerie Flak-Zug 174 (Flugabwehrkanonen (Flak) u. Scheinwerfer = antiaircraft and searchlight platoon). He may have been the same Richard Sternitzke (who was born in Gross Ujeschütz and was reported as the lightly wounded Gefreiter (lance corporal) in the 10th Company, as reported in the casualty report of 28 April 1916. See the paragraphs regarding Richard Arthur Emil Sternitzke in Chapter 1: the First World War Soldiers from the City of Breslau.

Marriage of Erna Elsa Stanitzke
1928 City of Öls

Erna Elsa Stanitzke was born at Breslau on the 18th of March in 1905. She was the daughter of the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Samuel Hermann Richard Stanitzke and his wife Klara Helena (née Friedrich) Stanitzke. They were Protestants, and lived in Breslau at Augustastraße 138 (about 7 blocks southwest of the main trainstation, now Szczęśliwa Street). The father signed the birth record as Richard Stanitzke.

1905

A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Erna Elsa Stanitzke was married in 1928 at Oels, as recorded on marriage record number 54 in 1928.

Baptismal Sponsor Emma Sternitzke
1940 and 1944 City of Öls and Breslau

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Emma Sternitzke from Öls had family connections to the Hübsch/Becker family in Breslau. Note that Selma (née Becker) Hübsch had family members who lived at Friedrichskirch (also known as Kainowe) in Trebnitz County. The maiden name of Emma Sternitzke may have been Becker.

Baptism of Karlfritz Günter Hübsch, 1940 Breslau

Karlfrizt Günter Hübsch was born at Breslau on the 16th of April in 1940. His birth was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt V on record number 799 in 1940. He was the son of the Müller (miller) Karl Hübsch, and his wife Selma (née Becker) Hübsch. They were both Protestant and lived in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 39.

Karlfrizt Günter Hübsch was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of May in 1940. The baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Ehefrau (wedded wife) Emma Sternitzke from Öls, the Protestant Ehefrau Meta Schubert from Friedrichskirch in Trebnitz County, the Protestant Bäcker Fritz Becker from Friedrichskirch, and the Protestant Landwirt, (farmer) Adolf Becker from Friedrichskirch.

Baptism of Ursula Renate Hübsch, 1944 Breslau

Ursula Renate Hübsch was born at Breslau on the 22nd of August in 1944. Her birth was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt IV on record number 2394 in 1944. She was the daughter of the Müllermeister (master miller) Karl Hübsch and his wife Selma (née Becker) Hübsch. They were both Protestant and lived in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 39.

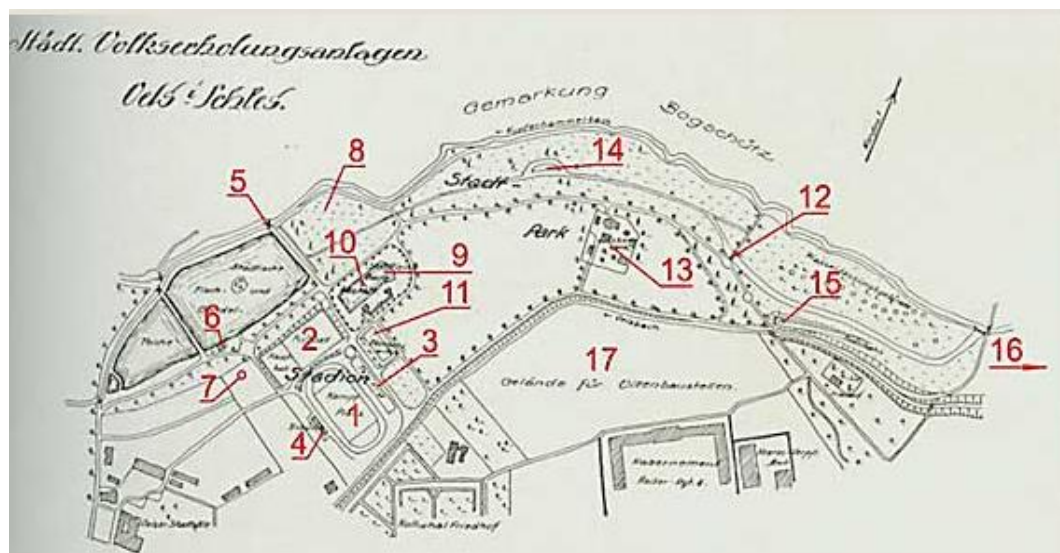

Ursula Renate Hübsch was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 10th of September in 1944. The baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Ehefrau (wedded wife) Emma Sternitzke who lived at the Teichhaus at Öls (see below), the Protestant Ehefrau Margarete Gilge who lived at Brigittental 47 in Breslau, and the Catholic Ehefrau Katharina Suppa who lived at Altbüßerstraße 47 in Breslau.

Teichhaus at Öls

The Teichhaus (marina house) at Öls was located at Promenade Street along the southern shore of one of the small lakes on the north side of the city of Öls. It was probably built when the city developed the lake area as a recreational complex in 1922. The Teichhaus was owned by the city. It had a café, an open viewing terrace and guest rooms. There were four apartments on the upper floors. Dances were held at the Teichhaus on holidays. Small boats were rented from the city at the marina house. The Teichhaus was demolished in the late 1950s.

Emma Sternitzke apparently lived in one of the apartments at the Teichhaus in 1944. She may have been the wife of the Gastwirt (innkeeper) Gustav Sternitzke who owned a Gasthof (inn) at Ohlauerstrasse 4, in the city of Öls in 1927 and 1933. Emma was not identified as a widow in the 1944 baptism discussed above, so her husband probably lived with her and worked as an innkeeper at the Teichhaus.

Baptismal Sponsor Ida Sternitzke 1941 City of Öls and Breslau

Udo Hermann Sternitzke was born on the 21st of December in 1941. His church baptism record shows that his birth was recorded at a Breslau Standesamt (record number 2115 in 1941). He was baptized on the 15th of February in 1942 (record number 23 in 1942). The baptism record listed his parents as the Oberwachtmeister der Schutzpolizei (senior watch master of the protection police) Hermann Sternitzke and Margarete (née. Bischoff) Sternitzke. The parents were both Protestant.

The baptism sponsors were: Ida Sternitzke, a Protestant from Oels; Marta Idschek, a Protestant from Leuchten; the Stellmachermeister (master wheelwright) Paul Joppich, a Catholic from Breslau; the Eisenbahner (railway man) Paul Halkow, a Protestant from Ströbitz; and the Oberwachtmeister der Schutzpolizei (senior watch master of the protection police) Paul Scholz, a Protestant from Breslau.

Death of Johanna Elisabeth (née Titze) Sternüske 1882 Bohrau

Johanna Elisabeth Titze was born on the 7th of March in 1813 at Pirschen in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Gerichtsschotz of Pirschen Johann Christoph Titze and Anna Rosina (née Gammert) Titze. Johanna married Gottlieb Sternüske on the 20th of November in 1832, at Pirschen. Gottlieb died on the 29th of May in 1848 at Neudorf, and he was buried at Juliusburg, in Öls County. Johanna died on the 16th of April in 1882 at Bohrau.

See Book I: Chapter 12 (Pirschen) and Chapter 13 (Gross Hammer) for the history of Gottlieb and Johanna Sternüske. This following paragraph regarding Johanna's grave is translated from Chapter 12 of Wilhelm Starnitzki's manuscript:

Her tomb at the Bohrau cemetery near the church entrance is shaded by the branches of a mighty elm, grown up from a bucket. Her son William marked this place with a cross on which we can find the words: "A faithful heart down in this grave was moved from stormy times and got peace right in the moment, when it beats no longer".

Wilhelm Theodor Starnitzkÿ was born around 1841. He was the son the Müllermeister Gottlieb Starnitzkÿ/Sternüske. His father died at Neudorf near Juliusburg in Öls County. The Schneidergeselle Wilhelm Theodor Starnitzkÿ/Sternitzke married Johanna Louise Brinke on the 6th of January in 1868 at Breslau. See Book III, Chapter 1: the Marriage and Family of the Schneidermeister Wilhelm Theodor Starnitzkÿ, 1867 to 1914 City of Breslau.

Village of Carlsburg in Öls County

The village of Carlsburg is three miles west of the city of Öls. The village was also listed as Karlsburg in Breslau records and on some maps. The population of Karlsburg was 409 in 1939. It is now known as Zamek Dobra. Carlsburg was named after Karl Friedrich Podiebrad who built a castle at that location on the Dobra River. Construction of the castle started in 1631 and was completed in 1632. Karl Friedrich (Charles Frederick in English) Podiebrad was the Duke of Münsterberg and Öls from 1617 to 1647.

The closest Protestant church was located at Döberle. The Catholics attended church at Juliusburg.

The Fleischer (butcher) Julius Rother and Auguste Starnitzke were married at Breslau on the 4th of June in 1878 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church (church marriage record number 79, civil record number 499 at the Breslau Standesamt II).

The Fleischer (butcher) Julius Rother was 34 years old and a resident of Groß Weigelsdorf in Oels County. He was the son of Aloys Rother and Johanna (née Hauschild) Rother.

Auguste Starnitzke was 24 years old in 1878, so she was born around 1854. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Ernst Starnitzke and Elisabet (née Langner) Starnitzke from Carlsburg in Oels County.

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Anna Starnitzke 1855 Carlsburg, 1889 Breslau and 1944 Trachenberg

Anna Starnitzke was born at Carlsburg on the 29th of July in 1855. She was the daughter of the Landwirth (farmer) Ernst Starnitzke and his wife Elisa (née Langner) Starnitzke.

In 1889, Anna Starnitzke was employed in Breslau as a Verkäuferin (sales clerk). She lived in Breslau at Paradiesstrasse 17 (one block east from the old city walls, now Stanisława Worcela Street). Anna married the Kaufmann (merchant) Carl Friedrich Werner at Breslau on the 27th of February 1889. Their marriage record shows that Anna and Carl were both Protestants. It also shows that Carl Friedrich Werner lived at Trachenberg in Militsch County. Anna's father Ernst Starnitzke had died prior to the wedding, but Elisa (née Langner) Starnitzke was still living at Carlsburg at the time of Anna's wedding.

Carl Friedrich Werner was born on the 9th of April in 1855 at Körnitz near Trachenberg. He was the son of the Landwirth (farmer) Friedrich Werner and Elisabeth (née Klose) Werner. At the time of Carl's wedding to Anna Starnitzke, Carl's father was still a farmer, living at Körnitz (3 miles northwest of Trachenberg, now Karnitz, Poland), but Carl's mother was deceased.

Witnesses at the 1889 wedding were the 30 years old Haushälter (janitor) Robert Feder and the 52 years old Kaufmann (merchant) Mr. Lindner. Robert Feder lived in Breslau at Paradiesstrasse 17 (one block east of the old city walls, now Stanisława Worcela Street). Mr. Lindner lived in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 30 (one block northwest from the Botanical Gardens, now Świetokrzyska Street).

Handwritten notes on the marriage record show that Carl Friedrich Werner died at Trachenberg in 1932 (Trachenberg death record number 109 in 1932), and Anna (née Starnitzke) Werner died at Trachenberg on the 21st of July in 1944 (Trachenberg death record number 125 in 1944).

Birth and Death of son Hermann Starnitzke c.1856 Carlsburg, 1884 Berlin

Hermann Starnitzke was born at Carlsburg around 1856, based on his age (28 years old) when he died in 1884. He died at his home in Berlin on the 23rd of November in 1884. Prior to his death, he was employed as a Kellner (waiter) and he lived at Alexandrinenstraße 32. His death record shows he was a Protestant and he was not married.

His death was reported by the Tafeldecker Fritz Hillmann, who also lived Alexandrinenstraße 32. A Tafeldecker (boardman) was a servant in a large household, or an independant contractor, who set the table linens and napkins for ceremonies, weddings, etc. Fritz Hillmann reported that Hermann Starnitzke was the son of the Freistellenbesitzer Ernst Starnitzke who had previously died in Carlsburg. The first name and the maiden name of Hermann's mother was not known by Fritz Hillman, but he reported that the mother was still living at Carlsburg.

Birth, Marriage and Family of daughter Johanna Louise Bertha Starnitzke 1860 Carlsburg, 1887 to 1892 City of Breslau

Johanna Louise Bertha Starnitzke was born at Karlsburg in Öls County on the 3rd of June in 1860. On the 25th of September in 1887, she married Robert Herrmann Feder at the Elftausend Protestant Church in Breslau. The bride and the groom were both Protestant.

Robert Herrmann Feder was born on the 10th of January in 1859 at Winzig in Wohlau County. In 1887 he was employed as a Buchhalter (accountant) and he lived in Breslau at Kohlenstraße 10. Johanna Louise Bertha Starnitzke lived at Wäldchen 1 before the wedding.

Robert Herrmann Feder and Johanna Louise Bertha (née Starnitzke) Feder had two children.

- Willi Georg Alfred Feder was born at Breslau on the 16th of July in 1889. He was the son of the Buchhalter (book keeper) Robert Feder and his wife Bertha (née Starnitzke) Feder were both Protestants. They lived at Paradiesstrasse 17 (one block east from the old city walls, now Stanisława Worcela Street). Their son was baptized on the 4th of August in 1889 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were the Putzmacherin (milliner) Clara Feder, Frau Anna Werner, Frau Rudolph Scheurich, Frau Julie Rother, and the Buchhalter (book keeper) Hugo Fendler.

Frau Anna Werner was probably Anna (née Starnitzke) Werner, the sister of Bertha (née Starnitzke) Feder.

- Frieda Gertrud Bertha Feder was born in Breslau on the 9th of May in 1892. The Kaufmann (merchant) Robert Feder and his wife Bertha (née Starnitzke) Feder were both Protestant. They lived in Breslau at Alexanderstraße 21 (two blocks east of the old city moat, 6 blocks southeast of the Neumarkt). Alexanderstraße no longer a street. It was in an area about two blocks east of the location of the Galeria Dominikańska shopping mall (in 2009).

The baby was baptized at St. Bernhardin Church on the 29th of May in 1892. The baptismal record listed the baby as Frieda Bertha Gertrud Feder (with Frieda underlined). The mother was listed as Bertha (née Starnitzkÿ) Feder. The baptismal sponsors were the Kaufmann Fritz Werner from Trachenberg, the Kaufmann Rudolf Scheunert from Breslau and the Kaufmann Arthur Pape from Breslau.

Village of Sorau in Öls County

Birth of Karl Sternitzke Late 19th Century, Sorau

The village named Sorau in Öls County has not been found. A military casualty report from the First World War was the only Sternitzke family reference found (so far) that listed that village. The original record dated the 2nd of October in 1914 shows Karl Sternitzke was born at Sorau in Oels County, and he was severely wounded during the First World War. The city of Sorau in Sorau County was in Lower Lusatia (Niederlausitz). It is now named Żary, Poland. Perhaps Karl Sternitzke was born at Sacrau in Öls County and the military report incorrectly listed Sorau as his place of birth. The other people listed with him in the casualty report were from Silesia.

Karl Sternitzke was a Reservist in the Reserve Infanterie Regiment Nr. 11, Glatz, Schweidnitz, Münsterberg Third Bataillon, 12th Company. The 12th Company was a Maschinen-gewehr Kompanie, meaning they operated the large Maschinengewehr (machineguns).

Birth of Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki 1864 Spahlitz

Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki was born at Spahlitz on the 19th of November in 1864. He was the son Karl Robert Starnitzki and Johanna Christiane (née Nitschke) Starnitzki.

Karl Robert Starnitzki (1839-1866) was born on the 14th of January in 1839 at Pirschen. He died on the 11th of February in 1866 and was buried at Spahlitz. Robert married Johanna Christiane Nitschke at the city of Öls on the 22nd of January in 1863. She was born on the 26th of March in 1843 at Dammer in Öls County (see the map of Spahlitz above). She died on the 24th of September in 1911 at the city of Öls.

Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki was the author of the „Familiengeschichte des Geschlechts Sternitzke aus dem Kreis Trebnitz, Schlesien“. See Book I, Chapter 6, The Ancestors of Wilhelm Starnitzki: The Ancestors and Descendants of Wilhelm Starnitzki.

Death of Karl Robert Starnitzki 1866 Spahlitz

Karl Robert Starnitzki was born on the 14th of January in 1839 at Pirschen in Trebnitz County, during the period of time when his father (Gottlieb Sternüske) was the miller at Pirschen. Karl died from nervous fever at Spahlitz in Öls County on the 11th of February in 1866, and was buried at the city Öls. He was 27 years old. His son was Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki who was born at Spahlitz in 1864 (see above). See Book I: Chapter 6, The Ancestors and Descendants of Wilhelm Starnitzki.

According to the birth and death dates provided by Wilhelm Starnitzki, the age of his father Karl Robert Starnitzki was 27 years old. A second source, the Church Chronicle of the City and Parish of Oels, listed a Tagearbeiter (day laborer) named Starnitzki (first name not listed) who died at Spahlitz from nervous fever at the age of 24 years and 27 days. The date of death for this death was the 11th of February in 1866 (matching the date of death for Karl Robert Starnitzki). A birthdate calculator yielded a birthdate for Tagearbeiter Starnitzki as the 15th of January in 1842.

Ernst Sternitzke and Karoline (née Klemm) Sternitzke 1902-1912 Wildschütz

Karl Robert David Sternitzke was born at Raschen in Trebnitz County, on the 24th of August in 1877. He was the son of Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Klem) Sternitzke. Karoline's maiden name was spelled Klem on records related to her son Karl Sternitzke, but was spelled as Klemm on records related to her daughter Anna. Klemm was probably the correct spelling because Ernst Sternitzke signed the original birth record for Anna.

Karl Sternitzke was first married in Breslau on the 21st of July in 1902. His parents were living at Wildschütz in Öls County (5 miles northeast of Breslau) where Ernst Sternitzke was employed as a Aufseher (supervisor), probably at the brewery. Karl was employed as a Stellmacher (wheelwright) and lived in Breslau at Alsenstraße 6 (about 0.5 mile west of the old city walls, now Stefana Czarnieckiego Street).

Karl Sternitzke married a second time at Breslau on the 26th of September in 1910. His parents Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Klem) Sternitzke still lived at Wildschütz in Oels County, where his father was employed as a Leute Aufseher (personnel supervisor). See the Three Marriages of Karl Robert David Sternitzke, 21 July 1902 and 26 September 1910 City of Breslau, 28 September 1944 Berlin-Köpenick.

Anna Rosina Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Pascheke was born at Burgwitz (in Trebnitz County) on the 4th of October in 1874. Her second marriage was to the Stellmacher (wheelwright) Paul Hugo Karl Joppich. That marriage took place at Breslau on the 24th of August in 1912. The record for that marriage listed her parents as the Rentenempfänger (pensioner) Ernst Sternitzke and Karoline (née Klemm) Sternitzke, who were both deceased and last resided at Wildschütz in Oels County. See Chapter 1, City of Breslau: Marriages and Family of Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke, 1896 to 1937 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of Joseph Anton Stranitzky 1676 Schweidnitz, 1726 Vienna

Joseph Anton Stranitzky (1676-1726) was born in a Protestant family at Schweidnitz on the 10th of September in 1676. He died at Vienna, Austria, on the 19th of May in 1726. He attended the Protestant Gymnasium in Breslau. Other sources listed his year of birth as 1680, and his year of death as 1727 or 1737. He was also listed in sources as Johann Antoni Stranitzky and Joseph Anton Strinitzky.

Joseph Anton Strinitzky was a Schauspieler (actor) who created a character named Hansworth, who was a crude, clownish, beer drinking peasant.

Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke
1882 Schweidnitz to 1913 Breslau

The Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Pauline (née Rieger) Sternitzke lived at Schweidnitz in 1882. Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Schweidnitz before the 1905 marriage of the daughter Martha. Pauline (née Rieger) Sternitzke died before the 1913 marriage of their son Max.

Birth and Death of step-daughter Anna Pauline Rieger (c.1867-1908)

Pauline (née Rieger) Sternitzke may have been the mother of Anna Pauline (née Rieger) Fischer. The death record for Anna Pauline (née Rieger) Fischer listed her mother as the ledigen (unmarried) Karoline Rieger, who later married the Zimmermann Sternitzke. That death record shows Karoline (née Rieger) Sternitzke died at Schweidnitz before the death of her daughter. If the two ladies Karoline (née Rieger) Sternitzke and Pauline (née Rieger) Sternitzke were the same person, then Anna Pauline was her illegitimate daughter, and the step-daughter of Gottlieb Sternitzke.

Anna (née Rieger) Fischer was born at Creisau in Schweidnitz County. She was 41 years and 7 months old when she died at her home on the 13th of August in 1908. Her calculated date of birth was circa 13 January 1867. Prior to her death, she had lived with her husband at Weinstraße 30 in Breslau. She was a Protestant. Her husband, the Zimmermann (carpenter) August Franz Fischer signed the death record as August Fischer.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Martha Auguste Pauline Sternitzke
1882 & 1905 Schweidnitz

Martha Auguste Pauline Sternitzke was born on the 2nd of October in 1882 at Schweidnitz. In 1905 she married Paul Hermann Heinze at Schweidnitz. The bride and the groom were both Protestant, and residents of Schweidnitz, at Untere Wilhelmstraße 28.

The Fabrikarbeiter (factory worker) Martha Auguste Pauline Sternitzke was the daughter of the deceased Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Gottlieb Sternitzke and Karoline (née Rieger) Sternitzke who was a resident of Schweidnitz in 1905.

The Fabrikarbeiter Paul Hermann Heinze was born on the 29th of March in 1877 at Pfarrwiedermuth-Bögendorf, in Schweidnitz County. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Heinze and Pauline (née Grosser) Heinze who were residents of Peterwitz in Schweidnitz County.

The wedding witnesses were: the 39 years old Kutscher (coachman) Auguste Werner from Schweidnitz; and the 28 years old Bergmann (miner) Hermann Kruppas from Peterwitz in Schweidnitz County.

Birth and Marriage of son Max Gustav Adolf Sternitzke,
1883 Schweidnitz, 1913 Breslau

Max Gustav Adolf Sternitzke was born on the 8th of December in 1883 at Schweidnitz. He was the son of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottlieb Sternitzke and Pauline (née Rieger) Sternitzke.

The Machinist Max Sternitzke (1883-1935) married Elfriede Matzke at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 27th of November in 1913. The groom and the bride were both Protestant. Max Sternitzke was a resident of the city of Brieg at the time. His parents had died at Schweidnitz before the wedding of their son. One of the wedding witnesses was the 36 years old Bierfahrer (beer delivery man) Paul Heinze who was a resident at Schweidnitz. Paul Heinze was the husband of the groom's sister Martha Auguste Pauline (née Sternitzke) Heinze. See the Marriage and Family of Max Gustav Adolf Sternitzke, November 1913 City of Brieg, 1913 to 1943 City of Breslau.

City of Striegau in Schweidnitz County

Striegau was nine miles northwest of the city Schweidnitz, and thirty-two miles west of Breslau. The city of Striegau was in Striegau County from 1816 to 1932. A restructuring of the counties resulted in the city of Striegau and the neighboring towns and villages being added to Schweidnitz County. The population of Striegau was 15,918 in 1939 and 16,782 in 2006. It is now known as Strzegom, Poland.

Birth of Kurt Ewald Artur Sternitzi 1916 City of Striegau

Kurt Ewald Artur Sternitzi was born at Striegau on the 26th of October in 1916. He was baptized at Striegau on the 22nd of March in 1917. He was the son of Artur Sternitzi and Helene (née Albrecht) Sternitzi. The parents were Protestants.

In 1916, the Unteroffizier (lance sergeant) Artur Sternitzi was serving in the Prussian Army at the Rekrutendepot (recruit depot) of the Infantry Regiment No. 154 at Striegau. The misspelling of Sternitzki was as it was written on the baptism record. See Sprottau County in the Liegnitz District, Mallnitz in Sprottau County: the Birth and Military Service of Artur Sternitzki, 1892 Mallnitz, First World War.

Richard Sternitzke 1921 to 1936 City of Striegau

Richard Sternitzke was born at Werdermühle in Trebnitz County around 1887. He was the son of the Müllermeister (master miller) Hermann Sternitzke at Werdermühle.

The Oberkellner (headwaiter) Richard Sternitzke from Striegau married the Jungfrau Marta Wiste at the Protestant Church at Obernigk in Trebnitz County on the 24th of September in 1921. Marta Wiste was 26 years old in 1921, making 1895 the calculated year of her birth.

Just before his death in 1936, the Oberkellner (headwaiter) Richard Sternitzke was living at Wilhelmstraße 2 in the city of Striegau. The city of Striegau (now named Strzegom, Poland) is about 32 miles west of Breslau. Richard died at the Menzel-Hancke Krankenhauses (hospital) in Breslau on the 4th of December in 1936. He died at the age of 49 years old (making 1887 his calculated year of birth). His death record listed his wife's name as Martha (née Wiste) Sternitzke.

Death of Johanna Maria Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke 1945 Waldenburg

Johanna Maria Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke died at Hindenburgstraße 203 in Waldenburg on the 29th of April in 1945. She died at the age of 83 years old. The cause of her death was listed as Altersschwäche (decrepitude due to old age).

She had previously lived at Zimmerstraße 101 in Oppeln with Maria Spottke, who was living with Theresia at Waldenburg and reported the death. The relationship between the two women wasn't listed. Hindenburgstraße 203 was about 3 blocks east from the train station. They were apparently fleeing from the invading Soviet Army. The city of Waldenburg was conquered by the Soviet Red Army on the 8th of May in 1945.

The death record provided the following information regarding Theresia. She was born on the 4th of July in 1861 at Pleischwitz (about 5 miles southeast of Breslau, now named Blizanowice) in Breslau County. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Karl Gottlieb Starnitzke and Anna Maria (née Hähnel) Starnitzke, who had both died at Breslau.

Johanna Maria Theresia Starnitzke married Eduard Spottke at Breslau on the 4th of November in 1886. See the Family of Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke, 1886 to 1894 City of Breslau. Theresia's death record shows that Eduard Spottke died at Oppeln.

Town of Bad Salzbrunn in Waldenburg County

Bad Salzbrunn translates to English as a “salt spring spa”. The town was named Salzborn in 1221. It grew to become two connected villages Ober Salzbrunn and Nieder Salzbrunn by the 14th century. The map from 1900 (see below) shows there were three connected villages: Ober Salzbrunn, Nieder Salzbrunn and Neu Salzbrunn. Ober Salzbrunn was renamed Bad Salzbrunn in 1935 to recognize it as a spa town. From 1945 to 1946 it was known as Solice-Zdrój. It is now known as Szczawno-Zdrój.

Birth, Marriage and Death of Berta Sternitzke
1874 Perschütz, 1900 Strebitzko, 1944 Bad Salzbrunn

Berta Sternitzke was born at Perschütz in Trebnitz County on the 6th of September in 1874. She was the daughter of the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Gustav Sternitzke and Johanna (née Zwilling) Sternitzke. See the discussion regarding Berta's brother Karl Sternitzke who was born at Perschütz in 1881 and died at Breslau in 1904. See Chapter 2, Village of Perschütz in Trebnitz County: the Birth and Death of Karl Sternitzke (1881-1904), 1881 Perschütz and 1904 Breslau.

Berta Sternitzke married the Mauer (mason) August Zimmerling at Strebitzko in Militsch County on the 15th of April in 1900. Their marriage record was number 6 in 1900 at the Strebitzko Standesamt (registry office). Strebitzko (now known as Trzebicko) is about 2 miles southeast of Freyhan (now known as Cieszków). They were villages near the northern border of Militsch County, and within 3 miles from Zduny in Posen.

August and Berta Zimmerling lived at Freyhan (now named Cieszków) in Militsch County in 1906. Their son August Reinhold Zimmerling was born at Freyhan on the 31st of August in 1906.

Berta (née Sternitzke) Zimmerling died at her home, at Bad Salzbrunn in Waldenburg County on the 2nd of November in 1944. Her death record shows her father Gustav Sternitzke died at Glogau. Her mother Johanna (née Zwilling) Sternitzke died at Sibyllenort in Öls County. Berta's death was reported by Frau Elisabeth Webrorke who was a resident of Bad Salzbrunn.

The death record described Berta's husband as the "Schwere-Kriegsbeschädigten" (severely disabled by war) August Zimmerling, who was a resident of Bad Salzbrunn, at Untere Hauptstraße 22.

The cause of Berta's death was listed as "Herzmuskelsehväche im Gefolge einer chronischen Hermuskelentartung" (cardiac muscles in the wake of chronic erythrocyte erythema).

Marriages of the Sisters

Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke and Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke 1904 and 1907 Dittersbach and Breslau

On the 16th of July in 1904, Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke married the Lokomotivheizer (locomotive stoker) Paul Julius Hahn at Breslau. Paul was a resident of Dittersbach in Waldenburg County. The bride and groom were both Protestants.

Paul Julius Hahn was born on the 18th of October in 1878 at Breslau. He was the son of Johann Julius Hahn and Christiane Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Hahn. In 1904, Julius Hahn was a Zugführer ausßer Dienst (railroad conductor, retired from service) and lived with his wife in Breslau. See Chapter 1, City of Breslau: the Marriage and Family of Christiane Ernestine Sternitzke, 1873 to 1930 City of Breslau.

Paul Julius Hahn and his wife Martha Auguste Luise (née Sternitzke) Hahn apparently lived at Dittersbach after their wedding. Three years later, on the 17th of June in 1907, Paul was a witness at the wedding of his wife's sister Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke to the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Paul Kische. The 1907 marriage was held in Breslau. Paul Julius Hahn was listed on the marriage record as a 28 years old Lokomotivheizer (locomotive stoker) who was a resident of Dittersbach in Waldenburg County.

Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke and her sister Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke were the daughters of the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Friedrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke. See the Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke, 1875 to 1941 City of Breslau.

Chapter 12

Wohlau County in the Breslau District

City of Wohlau in Wohlau County

Wohlau County was the next county to the west of Trebnitz County. The county seat was the city of Wohlau (now known as Wołów). The city of Wołów is about 16 miles west of the city Trzebnica (previously known as Trebnitz).

Emigration, Family and Death of Karl Siegfried Sternitzke 1905 Wohlau, 1905 to 1954 New York

Karl (Carl) Siegfried Sternitzke was born at Winzig in Wohlau county on the 23rd of July in 1882. His parents were both Protestant. His parents were listed on his birth record as the Bäckermeister (master baker) Carl Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Henschel) Sternitzke. The father signed the birth record as Karl Sternitzke. See the City of Winzig in Wohlau County: the Family of the Bäckermeister Carl Sternitzke, 1878 to 1882 Winzig, 1898 Polnischdorf, 1907 Wohlau and Hamburg.

According to a posting on an Internet forum at www.Genealogy.com, the parents of Carl Siegfried Sternitzke were Carl David Sternitzke and Auguste (née Henschell) Sternitzke. Carl had two brothers named Max Sternitzke and Arthur Sternitzke, and he had a sister named Ella Sternitzke. Max Sternitzke was Max Georg Sternitzke (1878-1964) discussed in the Family of the Bäckermeister Carl Sternitzke mentioned above. I have not found information regarding Arthur Sternitzke or his sister Ella Sternitzke.

The Hamburg passenger list records show that on the 28th of January 1905, the 22 years old Barbier Gesell (journeyman barber) Karl Sternitzke departed Hamburg, Germany on the Dampfschiff (steamship) Pretoria. The Hamburg passenger list records for the departure of the ship listed Karl's previous residence as Wohlau. It also listed his nationality as Schlesien. The Ellis Island records show a Karl Sternitzke was 22 years old when he emigrated to the United States on the 11th of February in 1905, on the ship Pretoria. This was his first trip to the United States, and he was traveling to join his friend Otto Ziebie in New York. Karl was listed as a single man (on both the New York and Hamburg records) whose occupation was a barber.

He apparently married Agnes Maria Pertz in the United States. They were married around 1904 (based on the age of their son Karl (junior) who was 2 years old in 1907).

According to a posting on an Internet forum at www.Genealogy.com, his wife Agnes Maria (née Pertz) Sternitzke was born in 1882, in Altona, a borough of Hamburg, Germany. Agnes died in 1954, in Brooklyn, New York. Karl and Agnes Sternitzke had a son named Herbert Sternitzke.

On the 31st of May in 1907, Agnes Sternitzki (age 24) and her two-years-old son Karl (junior) returned home from Germany to Brooklyn, where she lived with her husband Carl Sternitzki. The passenger list of the ship Pretoria showed her as a citizen of Germany, but had been to the United States one year prior to this trip. Her place of birth is listed as Altona, a suburb of Hamburg am Elbe. Based on his age on the passenger list, Karl Sternitzke (junior) was born around 1905.

On the 23rd of April in 1938, Carl Sternitzke and his wife Agnes returned from a visit to Germany. Their ages were both listed as 55 years old. Their ship departed Hamburg on 15 April 1938. The passenger list states they became naturalized U.S. citizens on 1/15/38. Their address is listed as 252 Madison Street, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Carl Sternitzke and his wife Agnes (née Pertz) Sternitzke both died at Brooklyn, New York in 1954. Carl died on the 2nd of June in 1954, at the age of 71 years old. Agnes died on the 1st of December in 1954, at the age of 72 years old.

Arthur Sternitzke Konditorei 1927 Wohlau

Arthur Sternitzke was the owner of a Konditorei (pastry shop) at Steinauer Strasse 49 in the city of Wohlau, Wohlau County. He may have been the owner of the Café Sternitzke shown below. An old map of Wohlau shows Steinauer Tor (the western gateway through the old city walls) was the start of the road that ran northwest to the city Steinau (now named Ścinawa). Modern maps show that road is now named Marszałka Józefa Piłsudskiego Street. See the 1935 and 1940/1945 records below.

Widow Agnes Sternitzke and the Konditormeister Helmut Sternitzke
1940 Wohlau, 1945 Sonneberg

Agnes Sternitzke was a widow living at Straße der SA 49 in the city of Wohlau. Helmut Sternitzke was a Konditormeister (master confectioner) who was also living at that address in 1940. They were probably the wife and son of the Arthur Sternitzke who was listed as living at that address in 1927.

Steinauer Strasse was named the Straße der SA (street of the Sturmabteilung: storm battalion, the paramilitary wing of the Nazi Party) from 1939 to 1945. That street is now named Marszałka Józefa Piłsudskiego Street.

Agnes (née Laube) Sternitzke (1883-1945) was listed on a webpage honoring the Wohlau residents who died during the Second World War, or died as a result of the expulsion of the Germans from Silesia. Agnes (née Laube) Sternitzke was born on the 25th of January in 1883. She died on the 27th of September in 1945 at Sonneberg. The source of the information on that webpage was a memorial book edited by Luzia Günther in 2011. Sonneberg is a town in Thuringia, Germany.

Café Sternitzke
Pre-1945 Wohlau

The old photograph below shows the Café Sternitzke in Wohlau. The photograph was briefly for sale at a Polish online auction site. No details were provided about when the photograph was taken, but it must have been before 1945, when the name of the city was changed to Wołów. Below that photograph is a modern view of the same building. It is located about 1000 feet west of the old city walls of Wohlaw, at the intersection of Marszałka Józefa Piłsudskiego Street and Aleja Obrońców Lwowa Street.

City of Auras in Wohlau County

Auras is a city on the Oder River about 12 miles northwest of Breslau. It used to be located in Wohlau County, but it is now located in Trzebnica (Trebnitz) County. Auras is now known as Uraz, Poland.

Within the city was the village and Rittergut (knight's estate) of Auras-Burglehm. A Burglehm is a feudal legal term describing a village or group of houses owned by people who owed allegiance to the ruler of the local castle. Their legal rights were separate from the rights of the city's inhabitants.

Family of Johann Friedrich Julius Sternitzkÿ (1834-1889) 1834 Auras, 1863 to 1946 Berlin

Birth and Death of Johann Friedrich Julius Sternitzkÿ (1834-1889)

Based on his age (29 years old) listed on his 1863 marriage record Johann Friedrich Julius Sternitzkÿ was born around 1834. The marriage record shows he was born at Auras, and he was the son of the Ackerbürger Friedrich Sternitzkÿ. An Ackerbürger was a city resident who derived his income from agriculture (an urban farmer).

The Tischler (carpenter) Johann Julius Sternitzkÿ died at Berlin on the 5th of May in 1889, at the age of 54 years and 7 months old. Based on his age when died, he was born around September in 1834. A note was written in the margin of his death record that shows he was born on the 11th of September in 1834. He died at home at Blücherstraße No. 21 in Berlin. His death was reported by the unmarried Arbeiterin (laborer) Luise Schneider, who lived at that same address. He was a Protestant. He was born at Auras in Wohlau County. Frau Schneider didn't know the first names of his parents or the maiden name of his mother, but she reported they had both died at Auras. He was married to Friederike Dorothea Wilhelmine (née Otto) Sternitzkÿ.

Marriage of Johann Friedrich Julius Sternitzkÿ, 1863

The Tischler (carpenter) Johann Friedrich Julius Sternitzkÿ married Friederike Dorothea Wilhelmine Otto at the Protestant Dreifaltigkeitskirche (Holy Trinity Church) in Berlin on the 3rd of May in 1863. The groom lived at Puttkamer Straße Nr. 14 in Berlin. The bride was 26 years old, so she was born around 1837. She was the daughter of Heinrich Otto from Zühlen. A village named Zühlen is 50 miles northwest from Berlin. The names of the groom's mother and the bride's mother were not identified in the church marriage record.

Birth, Marriage, Family and Death of son Adolph Julius Sternitzkÿ, 1863 to 1935

Adolph Julius Heinrich Sternitzkÿ (1863-1935) was born at Berlin on the 31st of May in 1863. He was baptized on the 12th of July in 1863 at the Protestant Jerusalem Church in Berlin. He was the son of the Tischlergesell (journeyman carpenter) Johann Friedrich Julius Sternitzkÿ and Friederike Dorothea Wilhelmine (née Otto) Sternitzkÿ who lived at Friedrichsstraße No. 8 in Berlin.

The 30 years old Lederarbeiter (leather worker) Adolph Julius Heinrich Sternitzkÿ married the Schneiderin (tailor) Marie Auguste Hübel at Berlin on the 11th of September in 1893. They were both Protestant. The groom's first name was written by a registrar as Adolf, but the groom signed the second page of the marriage record as Adolph Sternitzkÿ. The groom's address was Blücherstraße No. 21 in Berlin. The groom's parents, the Tischler Johann Friedrich Julius Sternitzkÿ died at Berlin before this marriage. The groom's mother, identified as Friederike Wilhelmine Dorothea (née Otto) Sternitzkÿ was still living in Berlin.

Marie Auguste Hübel was born on the 28th of February in 1875 at Berlin. She was 18 years old at the time of her marriage. The bride's address was Alexandrinenstraße 118 in Berlin. She was the daughter of the Tischler (carpenter) Ernst Hübel and Auguste (née Alter) Hübel who were both living in Berlin.

Adolph Julius Heinrich Sternitzkÿ and Marie Auguste (née Hübel) Sternitzkÿ had two daughters:

- Else Dorothea Johanna Sternitzkÿ (1893-1893) was born on the 12th of September in 1893. Her parents were listed on her birth record as the Lederarbeiter Adolf Julius Heinrich Sternitzkÿ and Marie Auguste (née Hübel) Sternitzkÿ who lived at Urbanstraße 8 in Berlin. The father signed the birth record as Adolf Sternitzkÿ. Else Dorothea Johanna Sternitzkÿ died at Berlin on the 27th of October in 1893. Her mother signed the death record as Marie Sternitzkÿ geborene Hübel.
- Lisbeth Frieda Marie Sternitzkÿ (1895-?) was born on the 23rd of January in 1895. Her parents were listed on her birth record as the Lederarbeiter Gehilfe (leather worker assistant) Adolf Julius Heinrich Sternitzkÿ and Marie Auguste (née Hübel)
