Marriage of George Sternitzki 1800 Brietzen & Breslau

The Oberstleutnant (Lieutenant Colonel) George Sternitzki from Brietzen married the Jungfrau (maiden) Susanna Hoffmann on the 2nd of January in 1800. They were married at the Protestant Military Garrison Church at Breslau. The groom was serving in the Company von Nase in the Prussian Army.

The bride was from Birbischau in Trebnitz County, a village between the cities of Trebnitz and Breslau. Historical names of that village include: Pirwosow in 1352, Pirwuschaw in 1367, Pirwischaw in 1393, Birbischau in 1739, Pirbischau in 1785, Pirbischau in 1818, Purbischau in 1830, Pürbischau in 1898 and Purbischau from 1937 to 1945. It is now named Pierwoszów, Poland.

Death of Johann Christian Sternitzky 1804 City of Breslau

The Lohnkutscher Knecht (hired coachman's servant) Johann Christian Sternitzky (c.1756-1804) died at the age of 48 years old, on the 23rd of March in 1804. Based on his age, he was born around 1756. The cause of his death was listed on the burial record as Brustkrankheit (pneumonia). His burial was recorded at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church, but he was buried on the 25th of March in 1804 at the St. Salvator Church Cemetery. The burial was arranged by his unidentified Schwäger (brother-in-law) from Rosenthal.

Prior to his death Johann Christian Sternitzky lived at the Schafweide Haus. The 1825 book by Friedrich Nösselt listed the location of the Schafweide Haus as Messergasse. The 1884 and 1886 Breslau address books listed the location of the Schafweide Haus as Messergasse 3 and Schuhbrücke 34 (about 3 blocks south of the University of Breslau). Messergasse is now Nożownicza Street. Schuhbrücke is now Szewska Street.

Death of Carl Ferdinand Stanitzky
1804 City of Breslau

Carl Ferdinand Stanitzky (c.1793-1804) died at the age of 11 years and 8 months, on the 30th of August in 1804. Based on his age, he was born around the 1st of January in 1793. The cause of his death was listed as rothe Ruhr (dysentery). His death and burial were recorded at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church, but he was buried at the St. Christopher Church cemetery on the 2nd of September in 1804.

According to the burial record, the father of Carl Ferdinand Stanitzky was the late Inwohner und Zwirnhändler (resident and thread trader) Jos. Stanitzky. The father (who was probably named Josef) died before the death of his son. The burial arrangements were made by the Zwirnhändler Pfitzner, who was probably a friend of the family.

Bauconducteur Moritz Sternitzke
1806 City of Breslau

Anton Friedrich Moritz Geissler was born on the 8th of June in 1806. He was the son of the Wachs Polier (wax polisher) Johann Friedrich Geissler and Caroline (née Ultsch) Geissler. The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 19th of June in 1806. The baptism sponsors were: the Bauconducteur (building contractor) Moritz Sternitzke, the Bauconducteur Ernst Burghantt, and Clara (née Fritschen) Bauschkin the wife of the Bauconducteur Anton Bauschke.

Moritz Sternitzke may have been the Moritz Sternitzke/Sternitzky/Sternitzki who was born in 1783 and died in 1866. See Book III, Chapter 2, City of Trebnitz and the Polnischdorf Suburb: A Summary of the Life of the Forstmeister Sternitzke/Sternitzky/Sternitzki, 1808 Haltauf in Trebnitz County to 1866 Neisse in Neisse County.

Family of Dorothea Louise Charlotte (née Starnetschkÿ) Kaninskÿ

In 1814 the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Johann Michael Kaninskÿ and his wife Dorothea Louise Charlotte (née Starnetschkÿ) Kaninskÿ lived at number 1339 in the Grün Baumbrücken Bezirk (district) of Breslau. The Grün Baumbrücken district was probably the district east of the St. Maria Magdalena Church where the Ohlauer Strasse (now Oławska Street) ends at the Grüne Baumbrücke (green tree bridge) over the moat.

Birth of son Johann Eduard August Kaninskÿ, 1814

Johann Eduard August Kaninskÿ was born on the 22nd of January in 1814. He was baptized on the 30th of January in 1814 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau.

Marriage of Johann Gottlieb Ferdinand Sternitzkÿ
1815 Cities of Breslau and Trebnitz

Rudolf Robert Theodor Krebaum was born on the 15th of June in 1815. He was the son of the Bürger und Schneider Meister (citizen and master tailor) Johann Friedrich Krebaum and Christiana Juliana (née Barisch) Krebaum. The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism record listed the baptism sponsors as: the Kaufmann (merchant) Carl Ferdinand Jäschke, the Schneider Meister Hans Hoffmann, the Fabrikant (factory owner) Georg Burwein, the Handelsmann (merchant) Johann Gottlieb Ferdinand Sternitzkÿ and the Jungfrau (unmarried woman) Henriette Wilhelmine Bernothe.

The Schlesische Provinzialblätter from 1815 reported a Kaufmann (merchant) named Sternitzky from the city of Trebnitz married the Jungfrau (maiden) Henrietta Wilhelmina Bernothe on the 15th of June in 1815 at Breslau. It is not known if they were married at the St. Maria Magdalena Church in Breslau. The 1815 to 1818 marriage record books for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church were apparently lost. They are not available at the website for the National Archive in Wrocław.

After their marriage in Breslau, the Kaufmann Sternitzky and his wife apparently returned to Trebnitz. The husband died before 1819.

Second Marriage of Henriette Wilhelmine (née Bernothe) Sternitzke, 1819

The widow Henriette Wilhelmine (née Bernothe) Sternitzke married Franz Ferdinand Heisler, the son of Joseph Heisler on the 16th of February in 1819 at the Protestant Evangelical Church at Trebnitz.

Bäckergeselle Friedrich Starnitzke From Damnowitz, 1815 City of Breslau

Emilie Augustine Marie Kesselbauer was born on the 10th of March in 1815. She was the daughter of the Bäcker-geselle (journeyman baker) Friedrich Kesselbauer and Johanne Beate (née Weintzigen) Kesselbauer. They were residents of the Breslau and lived at house number 1595 in the Neumarckt district. The child was baptized at the St. Marie Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of March in 1815. The baptism sponsors were: the Kaufmann daughter Jungfrau (single woman) Emilie Theodore Tschirschnitz, the Buchdrucker (printer) daughter Jungfrau Auguste Adelheide Amilie Zimmermann, and the Backer-geselle (journeyman baker) Friedrich Starnitzke from Damnowitz. The baptism record was completed by the midwife Frau Helena Lungmos.

Damnowitz was one spelling variation for the village Domnowitz in Trebnitz County. The Backer-geselle (journeyman baker) Friedrich Starnitzke was probably the same man identified as the Bäcker (baker) Friedrich Sternitzki (1786-1848) in 1817. See the Bäckermeister Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5, 1817 to 1871 City of Breslau.

Haushälter* Johann Früdric Starnitzke
March 1817 City of Breslau

The Haushälter (janitor) Johann Früdric Starnitzke was the youngest son of Gottlieb Starnitzke. Gottlieb Starnitzke was the former Scholz of a village that looks like it was written as Klein Hurintzwitz (see below). That village may have been Klein Ujeschütz in Trebnitz County.

Baptism of Anne Juliane Caroline Jagardin, 1817

Anne Juliane Caroline Jagardin was born on the 8th of March in 1817. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on 16th of March in 1817. She was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Matteas Jagarde and Elisabeth (née Grundken) Jagardin. The parents resided at house number 1755 in the Matteas district in Breslau.

The baptism sponsors were: Anarosina Geniloken the oldest daughter of the Freigärtner Johann Geniloke from Müse; the Haushälter Johann Früdric Starnitzke; and Joseg Jagarde who was a soldier in the 7th Company of the 2nd Battalion Major von der Wense and the 4th son of the Freigärtner Michel Jagarde from Merzdorf. The source of the information may have been the Hebamme (midwife) Schillern.

Bäckermeister* Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5
1817 to 1871 City of Breslau

The generation numbers (shown as roman numerals in the below tree) were based on the known chronology shown in a table in Book I, Chapter 6: *The Ancestors and Descendants of Wilhelm Sternitzki. For example: Friedrich Karl Sternitzke was approximately (circa) in the eighth generation in the descendants from the first known ancestor George Tschirnitzke (c.1510-c.1574, SN1) from Zantkau.

Circa Gen.IXa. Stillborn Son of Friedrich Sternitzki (1817-1817).

Circa Gen.IXb. Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871). First marriage to Amalie Albertine Tonn in 1845. Second marriage to Johanna Wilhelmine Ida Meindel in 1851. Third marriage to Louise Emma Ottilie Gerlitz in 1871.

Circa Gen.Xa. Julie Eleonore Brunhilde Olga Sternitzke (1846-unknown).

Circa Gen.Xb. Emma Sternitzkÿ (c.1847-after 1867).

Friedrich Karl Sternitzke (1786-1848) was born around the 23rd of September in 1786. That date was calculated from his age when he died in 1848 (see below). His wife, Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternitzke was born around the 2nd of July in 1790. That date was calculated from her age when she died in 1871 (see below). Friedrich Karl Sternitzke was probably the Bäckergeselle Friedrich Starnitzke from Damnowitz. See the Bäckergeselle Friedrich Starnitzke From Damnowitz, 1815 City of Breslau.

Stillborn son of Friedrich Sternitzki from Hinterdom, 1817

A stillborn son of the Bäcker Friedrich Sternitzki was born/died on the 7th of May in 1817. The 10 May 1817 burial record for the child listed the father's address as the Hinterdom district of Breslau (the district directly east of the St. John the Baptist Catholic Cathedral). The location of the cathedral was originally an island called the Dom (or Dohm in old books). The area across the river was called Hinterdom, Hinter Dom, Hinterdohm and Hinter Dohm. Breslau maps showed that district as Hinterm Dohm in 1750 and Hinter Dom in 1806. If that Bäcker Friedrich Sternitzki was the same person as the Friedrich Sternitzke discussed here, then Friedrich Sternitzke probably married Anna Rosina Elsner around 1816. Friedrich would have been around 30 years old, and Anna Rosina would have been around 26 years old in 1816.

Birth of son Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871)

The first positively identified son of Friedrich Sternitzke was Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871), who was born in 1821 (based on the ages of Carl Friedrich Alexander when he married in 1845 and 1851).

Baptismal Sponsor Friedrich Starnitzkÿ from Hinter Dohm, May 1825

In 1825, the Einwohner und Bäcker (resident and baker) Friedrich Starnitzkÿ was a resident of the Hinter Dohm district of Breslau. On the 19th of May in 1825, Friedrich was one of the baptismal sponsors for Johann Friedrich Gottlieb Klaus at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. The child was born on the 11th of May in 1825, the son of the Einwohner und Bäcker Johann George Klaus and his wife Carolina (née Oelsner) Klaus. They were residents of Commende Freiheitgasse (now Zaulek Wolski Street, two blocks west of the main train station). The other sponsors were: the Johann Michael Klaus a Bürger und Bäcker (citizen and baker) from Lehmgruben, and Ehphram Gottlob Dresler the oldest son of Christian Dresler a Schumacher (shoemaker) from Trebnitz. Lehmgruben was a town near the southern edge of Breslau. It later became a suburb Breslau.

Carolina (née Oelsner) Klaus was probably a sister of Friedrich's wife Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Starnitzkÿ. See the variations of Elsner in the table below: Bäckermeister Sternitzke Name Variations Found in St. Bernhardin Baptism Records.

Baptismal Sponsor Friedrich Sternitzke, October 1825

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Friedrich Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Friedricke Auguste Wilhelmine Elsner on the 9th of October in 1825. The girl was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau.

Friedricke Auguste Wilhelmine Elsner was born on the 29th of September of 1825. She was the daughter of the Schuhmacher Meister (master shoemaker) Samuel Elsner and Friedricka (née Köchran) Elsner. Friedricka was probably a sister of Friedrich's wife Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternitzke. See the 1827 baptism of Auguste Amalie Berta Elßner.

Baptismal Sponsor Friedrich Stanitzkÿ from Hinterthom, October 1826

The Bürgerlich Bäckermeister (citizen and master baker) Friedrich Stanitzkÿ was one of the baptism sponsors for Maria Berta Florenstina Greschmelle. The baptism record listed Friedrich as a resident of the Hinterthom district. See the discussion above regarding the Hinterthom district (in 1817).

Maria Berta Florenstina Greschmelle born on the 20th of September in 1826. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 1st of October in 1826. She was the daughter of the Kretschmer (innkeeper) Gottlieb Greschmelle and Maria Elisabeth (née Kunneken) Kunneken. They lived at Neumarkt Straße Nr. 35 in Vincenz district. The baptism sponsors were: Friedrich Stanitzkÿ, Bürgerlich Bäckermeister auf dem Hinterthom; Joseph Riedel, Bürgerlich Haus Eigenthümer (citizen and house owner); Joseph Bertrand, Bürgerlich Barbier (citizen and barber).

Baptism Sponsor Friedrich Starnicke, 1827

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Friedrich Starnicke was one of the baptism sponsors for Auguste Amalie Berta Elßner. She was born on the 13th of March in 1827 and baptized on the 22nd of March in 1827 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau.

Auguste Amalie Berta Elßner was the daughter of the Schumacher (shoemaker) Samuel Elßner and Friedericke (née Küchern) Elßner. They were residents of the Mathias district north of the University Bridge.

Breslau Address Books in 1832, 1833 and 1835

The 1832 Breslau address book listed a Bäcker (baker) named Sternitzky lived at Altbüßerstraße 41 (inside the old city walls, now Łaciarska Street). That address does not exist now. A fenced lot with a large tree is there now.

The 1833 Breslau address book listed the Bäcker und Eigenthümer (baker and property owner) F. Sternitzky at Laurentiusplatz 4 in 1833 (now Piwna Street, two blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens). This was in the Hinterthom District of Breslau. A stillborn son of the Bäcker Friedrich Sternitzki was born and died on the 7th of May in 1817. The 10 May 1817 burial record for the child listed the father's address as the Hinterdom District of Breslau (the district just east of the St. John the Baptist Catholic Cathedral).

The 1835 Breslau address book listed the Bäcker und Eigenthümer (baker and property owner) F. Sternitzky at Goldene Radegasse 5. The baker named Mr. F. Sternitzky was certainly Friedrich Sternitzke who was 46 years old in 1832, and was a Bäckermeister who lived at Goldene Radegasse 5 (now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street) in 1839. Goldene Radegasse 5 was about ½ mile to the west of Altbüßerstraße 41.

St. Maria Magdalena Church Baptism Records, 1837 to 1866

The Bäckerssohn (son of a baker) Karl Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Paul Aloisius Hugo Kalmus. The child was born on the 14th of October in 1837. He was the son of the Bürger und Damen Kleidermacher (citizen and maker of women's dresses) Karl Kalmus and Rosalie (née Schulz) Kalmus. The child was baptized on the 29th of October in 1837 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. The other sponsors were: the Bürger und Schneidermeister (citizen and master tailor) Heinrich Drücke, the Handlungs-Commis (merchant's clerk) Aloisius Jaeschke and the Butterhändlerstochter (daughter of a butter merchant) Pauline Schultz.

The Bäckergeselle (journeyman baker) Karl Stanitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Maria Clara Agnes Otilie Kalmus. The child was born on the 21st of May in 1839. She was the daughter of the Bürger und Schneidermeister (citizen and master tailor) Karl Kalmus and Rosina (née Schotz) Kalmus. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 9th of June in 1839. The other baptism sponsors were: Maria Schneider and Butterhändlerstochter Pauline Schulz.

The Bäckermeistersfrau (wife of a baker) Rosina Sternitzky was one of the baptism sponsors for Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Belkner. The child was born on the 7th of July in 1840. He was the son of Karoline Belkner, who was the daughter of late Haushälter (janitor) Heinrich Belkner from Militsch. The child was baptized on the 12th of July in 1840. The other baptism sponsors were: the Müllergesellenwittwe (widow of a journeyman miller) Karoline Knapp and the Wirtsschafterin (housekeeper) Johanna Rosina Linke.

The Bäckermeistersfrau (wife of a master baker) Rosina Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for August Paul Duerr. The child was born on the 24th of August in 1840. He was the son of the Bürger und Bäckermeister (citizen and master baker) Johann Friedrich Duerr and Berta (née Schmidt) Duerr. The child was baptized on the 6th of September in 1840. The other baptism sponsors were: the Haushälterstochter (daughter of a janitor) Johanna Schröder, the Bäckermeister Wilhelm Schuster and the Apotheker (pharmacist) Moritz Schmidt.

The Bäckermeistersfrau (wife of a master baker) Anna Rosina Starnitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Anna Auguste Pauline Willert, the daughter of the Bäckergeselle (journeyman baker) Johann Gottfried Willert and Beate Friedericke (née Regber) Willert. The child was born on the 1st of March in 1841 and was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 5th of March in 1841. The other baptism sponsors were: the Bäckermeister August Lummert and the Bäckermeister Alexander Wehnert.

The Bäckermeistersfrau (wife of a master baker) Anna Rosina Sternitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Clara Fanny Agnes Hauckold. Note: her name was originally written as Anna Rosina Sternitzki and then the “t” was crossed out. The child was the daughter of the Bürger und Leinewandhändler (citizen and linen bound book merchant) Christian Friedrich Hauckold and Anna Rosina (née Schneider) Hauckold. The child was born on the 11th of December in 1841 and she was baptized on the 19th of December in 1841. The other baptism sponsors were: the Oberamtmanns Tochter (daughter of a government administrator) Berta Benke and the Partikuliersfrau (wife of a boatbuilder) Juliane Würdig.

The Bäckermeistersfrau (wife of a master baker) Anna Rosina Sternitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Johann Alfred Dürr, the son of the Bäckermeister (master baker) Johann Friedrich Dürr and Pauline Berta (née Schmidt) Dürr. The child was born on 17th of June in 1842 and he was baptized on the 17th of June in 1842. The other baptism sponsors were: Marcia Schmidt and the Leinewandhändlersfrau (wife of a linen bound book merchant) Henriette (née Schmidt) Schuster.

The Bäckermeistersfrau (wife of a master baker) Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Otilie Berta Dürr, the daughter of the Bürger und Bäckermeister (citizen and master baker) Friedrich Dürr and Pauline Emilie Berta (née Schmidt) Dürr. The child was born on the 28th of September and baptized on the 22nd of October in 1843. The other baptism sponsors were: the Kaufmann (merchant) Wilhelm Schuster and the Beamter (public official) Julius Schmidt.

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Karl Starnitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Karl Alexander Ludwig Kalmus, the son of the Bürger und Schneidermeister (citizen and master tailor) Karl Gottlieb Kalmus and Anna Rosina (née Schulz) Kalmus. The child was born on the 8th of January in 1844, and he was baptized on the 15th of January in 1844. The other baptism sponsors were: the Buchhändler (bookseller) Alois Jäschke and Maria Schneider.

The Bäcker (baker) Karl Sternitzki and Albertine Tonn were baptism sponsors for Karl Julius Friedrich Näfe at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 16th of February in 1845. Albertine was described as the Pflagetochter (foster daughter) of the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Wolff. See the discussion below regarding the marriage of Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke to Albertine Amalie Tonn on the 27th of April in 1845. Karl Julius Friedrich Näfe was born on the 1st of February in 1845. He was the son of the Bürger und Fleischermeister (citizen and master butcher) Friedrich Näfe and Amalie (née Wölff) Näfe. The other baptism sponsor was the Tapazier (wallpaper hanger) Karl Schlott.

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Karl Sternitzkÿ was one of the baptism sponsors for Karl Emil Hermann Oskar Schlott, the son of the Bürger, Tapazier und Möbelhändler (citizen, wallpaper hanger and furniture dealer) Karl Wilhelm August Schlott and Auguste Leopoldine (née Wolff) Schlott. The child was born on the 31st of May in 1845 and baptized on the 17th of June in 1845. The other baptism sponsors were: the Kaufmann (merchant) Hermann Stahlschmidt, the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Justus Koch, the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Leopold Wolff, the Sattlermeister (master saddlemaker) Friedrich Wilding and the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Friedrich Näfe.

The Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Julius Moritz Konrad Dürr, the son of the Bäckermeister (master baker) Johann Friedrich Dürr and Berta (née Schmidt) Dürr. The child was born on the 3rd of June in 1845 and baptized on the 17th of June in 1845. The baptism sponsors were: the Oekonom (economist) Julius Schmidt and the Leinewandhändlersfrau (wife of a linen bound book merchant) Henriette (née Schmidt) Schuster.

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Karl Sternitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Paul Emil Hugo Näfe, the son of the Bürger und Fleischmeister (citizen and master butcher) Friedrich Näfe and Amalie (née Wolff) Näfe. The child was born on the 13th of December in 1845, and he was baptized on the 28th of December in 1845. The other baptism sponsors were: the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Daniel Wolff and the Tapazierer (wallpaper hanger) Karl Schlott.

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Friedrich Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Adalbert Alexander Oskar Dürr, the son of the Bürger und Bäckermeister (citizen and master baker) Friedrich Dürr and Mathilde (née Müller) Dürr. The child was born on the 20th of May in 1847, and baptized on the 13th of June in 1847. The other baptism sponsors were: the Kaufmannsfrau (wife of a merchant) Henriette Schuster and the Registrator (registrar) Anton Kern.

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Karl Sternitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Karoline Juliane Leopoldine Ottilie Naefe, the daughter of Friedrich Simon Naefe and Amalie (née Wolff) Naefe. The child was born on the 14th of July in 1847, and she was baptized on the 12th of August in 1847. The other baptism sponsors were: the Tapazierer und Möbelhändler (wallpaper hanger and furniture dealer) Karl Schlott, the Buchhalter (bookkeeper) Adolph Schleicher, the Fleischermeisterswittwe (widow of a master butcher) Maria Eleonore (née Hoffmann) Wolff, the Schneidermeistersfrau (wife of a master tailor) Juliane Karoline (née Güzel) Wolff and the Schneidermeistersfrau Juliane Koch.

The Bäckermeisterswittwe (widow of a master baker) Rosina Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Adolph Richard Edmund Dürr, the son of the Bürger und Bäckermeister (citizen and master baker) Johann Friedrich Dürr and Maria Mathilde (née Müller) Dürr. Born on the 4th of May in 1848 and baptized on the 11th of June in 1848. The other baptism sponsors were: the Kaufmann (merchant) Wilhelm Schuster and the Müllermeister (master miller) Christian Gottlieb Zimmer. Rosina's husband Friedrich Sternitzke died on the 23rd of March in 1848. See below.

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Karl Starnetzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Maria Helena Emma Meindel, the daughter of Ida Meindel. Ida was the daughter of the late Lieutenant Johann Meindel from the 4th Husaren Regiment. The child was born on the 7th of September in 1848, and baptized on the 11th of October in 1848. The other baptism sponsors were: Emma Meier and the Goldarbeiter (gold worker) Ferdinand Lilpop.

The Bäckermeister Karl Sternitzky was one of the baptism sponsors for Bertha Marie Ernestine Klaus, the daughter of the Oelstreicher (oil painter) Friedrich Klaus and Ida (née Kress) Klaus. The child was born on the 14th of June in 1866 and baptized on the 17th of June in 1866. The other baptism sponsors were: the Bäckermeister Georg Gunz and the Kretschmertochter (daughter of an innkeeper) Agnes Kalewe.

Death of Johanna Elisabet Sternitzky (1825-1839)

The link between this family group at Goldene Radegasse 5 to a possible village of origin) was the 1839 death record for Johanna Elisabet Sternitzky (1825-1839). She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Sternitzky (c.1793-after 1854) from Groß Perschnitz in Militsch County. In 1839, Johanna Elisabet was in the care of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Karl Sternitzky (1786-1848) at Goldene Radegasse 5 (now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street) in Breslau. Johanna died on the 9th of September in 1839 from Schlagfluß (a stroke), and she was buried on the 12th of September in 1839 at St. Barbara Church Cemetery. She was 14 years and 3 months old when she died, so she was born around the 9th of June in 1825.

Friedrich Karl Sternitzky (Stanitzke, Sternetzke, Sternitzke, Sternitzki, 1786-1848) may have been a brother of the Bauergutsbesitzer David Sternitzke (Sternitzky, c.1793-after 1854) from the village of Groß Perschnitz, and therefore Johanna Elisabet's uncle. The village Groß Perschnitz was in Militsch County, north of the village Frauenwaldau in eastern Trebnitz County. The oldest son of David Sternitzke was Carl Friedrich Sternitzke. Carl Friedrich was around 16 years old when Johanna Elisabet died. Carl Friedrich later became a Bäckermeister and he lived at Reuschestraße 10 (about 200 feet east of the residence of his uncle Friedrich Karl Sternitzke).

St. Bernhardin Church Baptism Records, 1841 to 1845

The baptism records for the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau include records that probably refer to Friedrich and Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternitzke. If that is true, then these records provide interesting details regarding their full names. Friedrich's full name may have been Karl Friedrich or Friedrich Karl Sternitzke. Anna Rosina's full name may have been Johanna Rosina Karoline Oelsner, or other variations in the order of her first, second and third names. The Oelsner spelling of her maiden name could indicate her family were originally residents of the city Oels. It is also possible (but unlikely) that there was another related family group of a master baker Sternitzke that lived at Goldene Radegasse 4 at the same time the master baker Friedrich Sternitzke lived at Goldene Radegasse 5.

The wife of the Bürger und Bäckermeister (citizen and master baker) Karl Starnitzke, Frau Rosina (née Oelsner) Starnitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptism of Robert Julius Heinrich Scheffler. The baby was born on the 1st of January in 1841, the son of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Wilhelm Scheffler and Susanna (née Kabuske)

Scheffler. The Scheffler family lived in Breslau at Laurenzplatz 1, near the Catholic Cathedral. The other baptismal sponsors were the Maurergeselle Gottfried Kintzel and the Maurergeselle Wilhelm Weikart.

The wife of the Bürger und Bäckermeister Friedrich Starnitzke, Frau Johanna (née Oelsner) Starnitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptism of Carl Friedrich Paul Guttenschwager. The Starnitzke family lived at Goldene Radegasse 4. The baby was born on the 18th of August in 1841, the son of the Polizei Sergeant Johann Guttenschwager and Johanna (née Freyer) Guttenschwager. The Guttenschwager family lived at Hirschgasse 10. The other baptismal sponsors were Karl Friedrich Niebelschütz and Paul Fränkler.

The wife of the Bürger und Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke, Frau Karoline (née Elsner) Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptism of Berthold Carl August Guttenschwager. The address of the Sternitzke family was not identified in the record. The baby was born on the 3rd of April in 1843, the son of the Königliche Polizei Sergeant (royal police sergeant) Johann Guttenschwager and Johanna (née Freyer) Guttenschwager. The Guttenschwager family lived at Hirschgasse 10. The other baptismal sponsors were the Royal Police Commissioner Wilhelm Hübler and Fraulein Louise Differt (daughter of the Royal Police Commissioner August Differt).

The Bürger und Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptism of Albertine Henriette Caroline Kloch, on the 3rd of December in 1843. The address of the Sternitzke family was not identified in the record. The baby was born on the 27th of November in 1843, the daughter of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Adolf Kloch and his wife Caroline (née Schmidt) Kloch. The Kloch family lived at Laurenzplatz 4. The other baptismal sponsors were journeyman masons Julius Wruck and Matthias Thirl.

The wife of the Bürger und Bäckermeister Karl Starnitzke, Karoline (née Oelsner) Starnitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baptism of Anna Caroline Sophie Scheffler. The baby was born on the 26th of March in 1845, the daughter of Wilhelm Scheffler and Susanna (née Kabuste) Scheffler. Note the different spelling of Susanna's maiden name (it was spelled Kabuske in the 1841 baptism record – see above). The other baptismal sponsors were: Auguste Hirsch (daughter of the Schuhmachergeselle Gottfried Hirsch) and Rosina (née Rogel) Anders (the wife of the Tagarbeiter Gottfried Anders).

The table below shows the name variations from these baptism records. It demonstrates to me that these records all refer to the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternitzke.

| Bäckermeister Sternitzke Name Variations Found in St. Bernhardin Baptism Records | | |
|--|------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| Baptism Date | Husband's Name | Wife's Maiden Name |
| January 1841 | Karl Starnitzke | Rosina Oelsner |
| August 1841 | Friedrich Starnitzke | Johanna Oelsner |
| April 1843 | Friedrich Sternitzke | Karoline Elsner |
| December 1843 | Friedrich Sternitzke | Not listed |

| March 1845 | Karl Sternitzke | Karoline Oelsner |

First marriage of oldest son Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke, 1845

The Bürger und Bäckermeister (middle class citizen and master baker) Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke married Albertine Amalie Tonn on the 27th of April in 1845. Their marriage was recorded in the marriage records at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The groom and the bride were both 24 years old at the time, so they were both born around 1821. The marriage record shows this was the first marriage for both of them. That is important because it shows the St. Bernhardin baptism records discussed above could not have referred to Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke, because he could not have had a wife named Rosina or Karoline prior to his marriage to Albertine Amalie Tonn.

The groom was the oldest son of the Breslau Bürger und Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternitzke. The bride was the oldest daughter of the Gasthofbesitzer (inn owner) Christoph Tonn who lived in Bromberg (Posen).

Birth of granddaughter Julie Eleonore Brunhilde Olga Sternitzke, 1846

Julie Eleonore Brunhilde Olga Sternitzke was born on the 18th of May in 1846. She was the daughter of the Bäckermeister (master baker) Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821- after 1871) and his wife Amalie Albertine (née Tonn) Sternitzke. Note that the order of his wife's first two names were reversed on the baptism record. The family lived at Goldene Radegasse 5 (inside the old city walls, now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street) at that time. The baptismal sponsors were: Friedrich Naefe, Gustav Munstedt, Julie Wolf and Rosina Sternitzky (the grandmother of the baby and the wife of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzky).

Breslau Address Book in 1848

The data for the 1848 was probably collected in 1847. The 1848 book listed F. Sternitzke as the Partikulier (owner of a business) located at Goldene Radegasse 5. He lived on the second floor of the building. He was also the Eigenthümer (the owner of the building). This was Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848).

The Bäckermeister (master baker) C. Sternitzke lived on the first floor at Goldene Radegasse 5. This was Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871). He was the son of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848).

The 1848 Breslau address book also listed the Backwarenhandlerin (a female bakery goods dealer) J. Sternitzki. She lived at Hirschgasse 2 on the second floor, in the Hinterdom District (the streets near the east side of the Catholic Cathedral). Hirschgasse 2 was about 5 blocks southeast from the Catholic Cathedral. She may have been related to Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848) and Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871).

Death of Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848)

The former Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848) died on the 23rd of March in 1848, at the age of 61 years and 6 months. His age when he died places his birth around the 23rd of September in 1786. His address was listed as Goldene Radegasse 5. The cause of his death was listed as Brustwaßersucht (hydrothorax, dropsy of the chest, a collection of serous fluid within the pleural cavity without inflammation). He was buried at the St. Elisabeth Church Cemetery on the 26th of March in 1848.

Second marriage of Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke, 1851

The marriage records for St. Elisabeth Church show that the Bürger und Bäckermeister Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke was divorced from his first wife before March of 1851, when he applied for his marriage to Johanna Wilhelmine Ida Meindel. The marriage was postponed until the second Advent Sunday in December of 1851. Carl was 30 years old when he married Johanna Wilhelmine Ida Meindel, confirming he was born around 1821. Johanna was 26 years old, so she was born around 1825. She was the oldest daughter of the Premier Leutenant Johann Thomas Meindel.

A Breslau address book from 1852 listed the separated wife of a baker who lived at Neue Schweidnitzerstraße 2 (at Tauentzien Platz just outside the old city walls, now Kościuszki Plaza on Świdnicka Street). This was probably Amalie Albertine (née Tonn) Sternitzke, the first wife of Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke. She married the Lehrer (teacher) Carl Friedrich Quitau on the 2nd of November in 1852. The marriage record listed her as Frau Albertine (née Tonn) the former wife of the Bäckermeister Sternitzke.

The 1852, Breslau address book listed the widow of a Partikulier (a business owner) Sternitzke who lived at Goldene Radegasse 5 and was the Eigenthümer (property owner). This was certainly Rosina Sternitzke, the widow of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke.

The 1863 Breslau address book listed Ros. Stanitzke as the widow of a Bäckermeister (master baker). She was still living at Goldene Radegasse 5 on the first floor and she was the Eigenthümer (property owner). The Bäckermeister (master baker) Carl Starnitzke lived at Goldene Radegasse 16 on the first floor. He was probably Rosina' son Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871).

The 1868 Breslau address book listed Rosina Sternitzke as the widow of a Bäckermeister (master baker). She was still living at Goldene Radegasse 5, and owed a local business (probably the bakery) on the ground floor.

The 1870 Breslau address book listed two residents named Sternitzky at Goldene Radegasse 5: the verwittwe Bäckermeister (widow of a master baker) R. Sternitzky and the Bäckermeister Ch. Sternitzky. They were certainly the widow Rosina and her son Carl. The widow was listed as the owner of the building and lived on the first floor. Her son was listed as having a business on the ground floor (probably a bakery) and he also lived on the first floor. They were both listed with the surname Sternitzki in the sort by addresses.

Baptismal Sponsor Emma Starnitzkÿ, 1867

Emma Starnitzkÿ the daughter of the Bäckermeister Carl Starnitzkÿ was one of the baptismal sponsors for Sigismund Arthur Conrad Scherbaum. He was baptized on the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 8th of December in 1867. Emma was probably born around 1847.

Sigismund Arthur Conrad Scherbaum. He was born on the 17th of November in 1867. He was the illegitimate son of Emma Scherbaum. She lived at Mehlgasse 14. The other baptismal sponsor was Camilla Scherbaum. Emma Scherbaum and Camilla Scherbaum were daughters of the Handschuhsarbeiter (glove maker) Wilhelm Scherbaum.

Death of Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternetzke (1790-1871)

Anna Rosina (née Elsner) Sternetzke died on the 2nd of June in 1871, at the age of 80 years and 11 months. Based on her age, she was born around the 2nd of July in 1790. Her address was listed as Goldene Radegasse 5. Her death record listed her as the widow of the deceased Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternetzke. Anna Rosina died from a Schlagfluß (a stroke). She was buried at Gräbschen on the 4th of June in 1871.

Third marriage of Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzky, 1871

The St. Elisabeth Protestant Church marriage record book for 1871 to 1873 listed the attested (certified) marriage of Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzky (1821-after 1871) that was performed at the Hofkirche in Breslau in 1871. Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzky was described as a Partikulier (owner and operator of a business) who was geschieden (divorced) on the marriage record. He married Louise Emma Otilie Gerlitz, the daughter of the Kaufmann Johann Samuel Gerlitz. The Hofkirche was built in 1750 and is located two blocks south of the Blücherplatz (Salt Market). The marriage record was recorded at St. Elisabeth because it was the Protestant Parish Church for Breslau until after 1945 when St. Elisabeth became a Catholic Church. The Hofkirche then became the bishopric for the Protestant churches in Breslau. The attested copy does not include the ages or addresses of the bride and groom. It also does not include the exact date of the wedding. But the attested marriage was recorded between the marriages performed on the 6th and the 13th of November in 1871.

Dorothea Sternitzke I, II and III
19th Century Breslau

The Breslau civil and church records provide some confusing data regarding three women who were born around the same time, lived in Breslau at the same time, and were named with variations of Dorothea Sternitzke. To keep them straight, I called them Dorothea I, II and III. All three women had children out of wedlock at Breslau. Two of the women (Dorothea I and Dorothea II) were later married.

Dorothea I was born in December of 1818 and died in 1849. She was the daughter of Daniel Sternitzke. Several variations of their surname were found in records: Stanitzke, Starnitzke, Starnitzki, Starnitzky, Sternitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzky. She married Carl Julius Robert Kranz and lived in Breslau at Klosterstraße.

Dorothea II was born in October of 1819 and died in 1904. The names of her parents are not known. Two variations of her maiden name were found in records: Sternitzki and Sternitzky. She married Gottfried Wiesner.

Dorothea III was born around 1822 and died between 1863 and 1897. She was the daughter of the Breslau Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Johann George Sternitzke. Several variations of their surname were found in records: Stanitzke, Sternitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzky. She lived in Breslau at Vorwerksstraße.

Family of Dorothea I
Johanna (Anna) Dorothea
Stanitzke / Starnitzke / Starnitzki / Starnitzky / Sternitzke / Sternitzki / Sternitzky
1818 to 1849 City of Breslau

Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Sternitzke was born in December of 1818 and died on the 26th of August in 1849 at the age of 30 years and 8 months old. She was the daughter of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Daniel Sternitzke. She may have been the daughter of the Tagarbeiter Daniel Sternitzki and Anne Susanne (née Döhring) Sternitzki who were married at Breslau on the 18th of January in 1818. See the Village of Rosenthal in Breslau County: the Marriage of Daniel Sternitzki, 1818 Rosenthal and Breslau.

Several variations of their surname were found in records for Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Sternitzke: Stanitzke, Starnitzke, Starnitzki, Starnitzky, Sternitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzky. She married Carl Julius Robert Kranz between July 1840 and October 1841. They lived in Breslau at Klosterstraße.

Birth and death of daughter Anna Pauline Auguste Starnitzke, 1838

Dorothea Starnitzke was not married when her daughter Anna Pauline Auguste Starnitzke was born at Breslau on the 3rd of July in 1838. Anna Pauline Auguste Starnitzke was baptized at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 8th of July in 1838. The baptismal sponsors were the Tagarbeiter Joseph Hellmann, the Jungfrau Emilie Kranz

(daughter of the Steinkohler-händler Julius Kranz), and the Jungfrau Louise Friederika Zimmermann (daughter of the Bürger und Schneidermeister Martin Zimmermann).

Dorothea was listed as on the baptism record the daughter of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Daniel Starnitzke. Daniel Starnitzke may have been still alive at that time, but he was listed as deceased on the burial record for Auguste dated the 6th of December in 1838. The address for Dorothea was identified on her daughter's baptism record as Klosterstraße 31 (2 blocks east of the old city moat, now Romualda Traugutta Street).

Auguste Starnitzki died at the age of 22 weeks old, on the 3rd of December in 1838 and was buried on the 6th of December. The cause of death was listed as Krämpfen (infantile convulsions). The St. Bernhardin Church burial record listed her mother as the unmarried mother Dorothea Starnitzki, the daughter of the deceased Tagearbeiter Daniel Starnitzki. Dorothea's address was listed on the burial record as Klosterstraße 31.

Godmother Dorothea Starnitzky, 1839 and 1840

Dorothea Starnitzky, the daughter of the deceased Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Daniel Starnitzky was the godmother at the 19 May 1839 baptism of Amalie Auguste Waldau, daughter of Carl Waldau and Josephine (née Heinze) Waldau. The Waldau family lived at Klosterstraße 22 (neighbors of Dorothea Starnitzky).

Dorothea Starnitzky, the daughter of the Tagarbeiter Daniel Starnitzke was the godmother at the 19 July 1840 baptism of Emilie Pauline Auguste Kranz, the daughter of the unmarried Emilie Charlotte Kranz. Emilie Kranz lived in the same building as Dorothea (Klosterstraße 31).

Birth of son Gustav Herrmann Paul Kranz, 1841

Gustav Herrmann Paul Kranz was born at Breslau on the 17th of October in 1841. His parents, the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Robert Kranz and his wife Dorothea née Sternitzky lived at Klosterstraße 31 (2 blocks east of the old city moat, now Romualda Traugutta Street). This was the same address listed for Dorothea Starnitzke on her daughter's 1839 baptism record (see above). The church record for the baptism of Gustav Kranz shows her maiden name was corrected from Starnitzky to Sternitzky.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Joseph Hellmann, Friedericke Zimmermann (daughter of Martin Zimmermann, Bürger und Schneidermeister at Breslau), Emilie née Kranz (wife of Wilhelm Sakof, Sergeant in the 10th Infantry Regiment).

Birth of son Paul Robert Gustav Kranz, 1843

Paul Robert Gustav Kranz was born on the 3rd of November in 1843 at Breslau. His parents, the Kattendrucker (cotton fabric printer) Carl Julius Robert Kranz and his wife Anna Dorothea née Sternitzke lived at Klosterstraße 31 (2 blocks east of the old city moat, now Romualda Traugutta Street). This was the same address they lived at on 17 October 1841 (see above). Their son was baptized on the 12th of November in 1843 at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were: the Tagearbeiter Joseph Kellmann, the Jungfrau Friederika Zimmermann (daughter of the Schneidermeister Martin Zimmermann) and the Jungfrau Emilie Kranz (daughter of the Organist Julius Kranz).

Birth of son Eduard Gustav Ernst Kranz, 1845

Eduard Gustav Ernst Kranz was born at Breslau on the 30th of October in 1845. His parents, the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Robert Kranz and his wife Dorothea née Sternitzke lived at Klosterstraße 28. They were Protestants. Their son was baptized at St. Bernardin Church in Breslau on the 9th of November in 1845. The godparents were Dorothea Kempe (daughter of the deceased Wiespächter Gottfried Kempe), Franz Hanisch (Haushälter - janitor), and Gottlieb Selle (Tischlergeselle - journeyman furniture maker).

Birth of son Paul Otto Berthold Gustav Kranz, 1847 and 1848

Paul Otto Berthold Gustav Kranz was born at Breslau on the 21st of September in 1847. His parents, the Hausknecht (house servant) Carl Julius Robert Kranz and his wife Johanna Dorothea (née Sternitzki) Kranz lived at Klosterstraße 36 in 1847. They were both protestants. Their son was baptized on the 26th of September in 1847 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were: the Ofenbaumeister (master oven builder) Augustin Wurmser, the Tischlergeselle (journeyman furniture maker) Gottlieb Seller, and Pauline Lengsfeld daughter of the Weber (weaver) Joseph Lengsfeld.

Otto Kranz died at Breslau on the 13th of December in 1848, at the age of 1 year and 2 months old. He was buried on the 16th of December. He died from Abzehrung (consumption, an archaic name for tuberculosis). The St. Bernhardin Church burial record listed his father as the Gräupner Robert Kranz who lived in Breslau at Klosterstraße 22. A Gräupner was a Vorkosthändler, the operator of a small retail Vorkosthandlung (a mom-and-pop grocery store). These stores usually sold peas, beans, lentils, vegetables, flour and semolina. They also sometimes sold fruit, meat, coffee and tea.

1848 Breslau Address Book

The 1848 Breslau address book listed the Wittve Waschfrau (widow, cleaning woman) J. Starnitzky as a resident at Klosterstraße 31/32. This was probably Johanne (Anne) Susanne (née Döhring) Sternitzki who were married Daniel Sternitzki at Breslau on the 18th of January in 1818. Daniel died before his wife's death in 1861. Their daughter Dorothea Starnitzky lived at Klosterstraße 31 from 1838 to 1943. See the Village of Rosenthal in Breslau County: the Marriage of Daniel Sternitzki, 1818 Rosenthal and Breslau.

Birth and death of daughter Ida Dorothea Louise Kranz, 1849

Ida Dorothea Louise Kranz was born at Breslau on the 3rd of June in 1849. Her parents, the Gräupner Carl Julius Robert Kranz and his wife Dorothea née Starnitzki lived at Klosterstraße 21/22. The baby was baptized at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 17th of June in 1849. The baptismal sponsors were: Karl Wurmser, Karl Pohl and Pauline (née Lengfeld) Wolff the wife of August Wolff.

Ida Kranz died at the age of 3 months old, on the 22nd of August in 1849. She died from Abzehrung (consumption, an archaic name for tuberculosis). She was buried on the 25th of August in 1849. The St. Bernhardin Church burial record listed her father as the Eisenbahnbeamter (railroad official) Robert Kranz, who lived at Klosterstraße 21/22.

Death of Dorothea (née Stanitzke) Kranz, 1849

Dorothea (née Stanitzke) Kranz died on the 26th of August in 1849, at the age of 30 years and 8 months. Dorothea died from Nervenfieber (typhoid). She was buried on the 29th of August in 1849. The St. Bernhardin Church burial record listed her husband as the Eisenbahnbeamter (railroad official) Robert Kranz, who lived at Klosterstraße 21/22.

Family of Dorothea II
Dorothea Sternitzki/Sternitzky
1819 to 1904 City of Breslau

Birth and death of Dorothea Sternitzky, 1919 and 1904

Dorothea Sternitzky (1819-1904) was born in Breslau around the 10th of October in 1819. The names of her parents are unknown. Her birthdate was calculated from her age (85 years and 1 month) when she died on the 10th of November in 1904. Dorothea was a Protestant. Her death record was completed by her daughter, the widow Elfriede (née Sternitzky) Jahnel. Dorothea was an unwed mother when her daughter Elfriede Sternitzky (c.1839- after 1904) was born. Dorothea later married the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottfried Wiesner, and they had a son Karl Wiesner who was born at Breslau around the 2nd of May in 1847.

Birth and death of son Karl Wiesner, 1847 and 1903

Karl Wiesner was born around the 2nd of May in 1847. The birthdate of Karl Wiesner was based on his age (55 years and 8 months) when he died on the 2nd of January in 1903. Karl Wiesner's death record recorded his parents as the deceased Barttschneider (beard trimmer) Gottfried Wiesner and Dorothea (née Sternitzki) Wiesner. Dorothea was still living at the time of her son's death in 1903. Karl Wiesner's death record was completed by his wife, Alwine (née Goldmann) Wiesner and Anne Walter. Anne Walter was the widow of a Zeugschmied (a blacksmith who made tools, such as drills, saws, pliers, shovels, etc.). Karl Wiesner was a Handelsmann (merchant) in Breslau until his death. He was a Protestant. Karl and Alwine Wiesner lived at Wörtherstraße 18 (4 blocks east from the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, 2 blocks east of the main road to Trebnitz, now Kręta Street).

Birth of daughter Albertine Elfriede Fanny Wiesner, 1849

Albertine Elfriede Fanny Wiesner was born on the 20th of February in 1849. She was baptized at Breslau on the 4th of March 1849. She was the daughter of August Wiesner and Dorothea Sternitzky.

Death of husband Gottfried Wiesner, before 1868

Gottfried Wiesner died before his wife Dorothea. The widow Dor. Wiesner was listed in the 1868 Breslau address book as living at Hauser'sche Ziegelei I. After her husband's death, Dorothea lived with her daughter Elfriede (née Sternitzky) Jahnel in Breslau at Adlerstraße 6 (about 7 blocks north of Sand Island, 5 blocks east of the main road to Trebnitz, now Namysłowska Street). A Schneider für Herren (men's tailor) named C. Jahnel lived at Trebnitzerstraße 12 in 1895. He could have been Elfriede's husband.

Family of Dorothea III
Johanna (Anna) Rosine Dorothea
Sternitzke / Stanitzke / Sternitzke / Sternitzki / Sternitzky
1840 to 1910 City of Breslau

Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Stanitzke was born around 1822. She was the daughter of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Johann George Stanitzke who died before the birth of Dorothea's daughter in 1840. This Johann Georg Stanitzke was probably Georg Friedrich Starnitzke (c.1790-1835). See the Family of George Friedrich Starnitzke, 1822 to 1857 Rosenthal.

The year of Dorothea's birth was estimated from the birthdate of her first known child in 1840. Dorothea died sometime between the 1866 baptism listed below and the 1897 marriage of her daughters. She may have been the Dor. Sternitzke listed in the 1870 Breslau address book.

Birth of daughter Anna Rosina Dorothea Sternitzke, 1840

Anna Rosina Dorothea Sternitzke born on the 15th of September in 1840. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of September in 1840. Her mother was listed on the baptism record as Dorothea Sternitzke, the daughter of the late Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Georg Sternitzke from Rosenthal.

The baptism sponsors were listed as: the Schuhmachersfrau (shoemaker's wife) Theresia Otto, the Tagearbeitersfrau (the day laborer's wife) Eleonore Konrad and the Seilersfrau (rope maker's wife) Karoline Eitner.

Birth and death of son
Friedrich Wilhelm Ludwig Stanitzke (1842-1843)

Friedrich Wilhelm Ludwig Stanitzke was born at Breslau on the 11th of June in 1842. His unmarried mother Johanna Dorothea Stanitzke lived at Vorwerksstraße 29 (1 block from the southeast corner of the old city moat, now Komuny Paryskiej Street). Dorothea was the daughter of the Tagarbeiter Johann George Stanitzke. Her son was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 15th of June in 1842. The baptismal sponsors were: Susanna (née Bober) Richter the wife of the Maler Ludwig Richter, Christiane (née Christ)

Arnhold the wife of the Knopfmacher Wilhelm Arnhold), Dorothea (née Rickert) Schmidt the wife of Ferdinand Schmidt who was a Bürger und Schuhmachermeister in Breslau.

Friedrich Wilhelm Ludwig Sternitzki died at the age of 1 year and 5 months, on the 5th of November in 1843. The baby was buried on the 9th of November. The cause of death was listed in the St. Bernhardin Church burial book as Waßersucht (dropsy, edema). The burial book listed the mother as unwed mother Dorothea Sternitzki, who lived at Vorwerksstraße 29.

Birth Marriages and Death of daughter
Anna Hedwige Maria Stanitzke (1844-1906)

Anna Hedwige Maria Stanitzke was born on the 15th of October in 1844 at Breslau. She was the daughter of Dorothea Stanitzke, who was the daughter of the deceased Breslau Tagarbeiter (day laborer) George Stanitzke. Dorothea was unmarried and lived at Vorwerksstraße 29 when her daughter was born. This was the same address she lived at on 11 June 1842 (see above). The baptismal sponsors for the baby's 19 October 1844 baptism were: Louis Richter (a Bürger und Maler in Breslau), Susanna (née Rabe) Nagel (wife of the Kutscher Gottfried Nagel), Hedwige (née Reichalt) Haubitz (the wife of the Tagarbeiter Anton Haubitz).

The Jungfrau Anna Hedwig Marie Stanitzke married the Möbalführwerkbesitzer (owner of a furniture transportation business) Carl Adolf Böhm at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 2nd of February in 1863. The marriage record shows the bride was 18 ¼ years old and the groom was 25 years old. They were both Protestants and had both been born at Breslau. The bride was the daughter of unmarried mother Dorothea Stanitzke, who was the daughter of the deceased Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Georg Stanitzke. The groom was the son of the deceased Möbalführwerkbesitzer Johann Gottfried Böhm.

In 1869, Maria (née Starnitzkÿ) Böhm, the widow of the Graveur (engraver) Adolph Böhm was one of the baptismal sponsors for Johann Carl August Stanetzky/ Starnitzkÿ. He was the son of the Maurer (mason) Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/ Starnitzkÿ. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/ Starnitzkÿ (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubilion, 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal.

Anna Hedwige Maria née Stanitzke later became the wife of the Breslau Bureaudiener (civil service bureau office worker) August Wuttke. Nine years before the death of his wife, August Wuttke was a witness at the marriage of Karl Trippner and Helene Louise Rosalie Sternitzke, on the 29th of July in 1897. Anna's husband, August Wuttke was a 68 years old Kanzleidiener (office worker) in 1897. They lived in Breslau at Schweidnitzerstraße 1 (the southeast corner of the Ring, now Świdnicka Street). The mother of Helene Louise Rosalie Sternitzke was listed on the marriage record as Dorothea Sternitzke who had died at Breslau as an unmarried Wirthschafterin (housekeeper). Anna Hedwige Maria Stanitzke and Helene Louise Rosalie Sternitzke were sisters.

The Kassendiener ausser dienst (retired clerk) August Wuttke died on the 28th of November in 1903 at Breslau. He died at the age of 74 years and 1 month old, so he was born around the 28th of October in 1829. He was a Catholic who lived at Alexanderstraße 12 in Breslau. That was the same address where Louise Sternitzke lived prior to her wedding in 1897 (see below). August Wuttke was born at Zobten in Schweidnitz County. He was survived by his wife Marie (née Sternitzke) Wuttke, who was still living at Breslau when August died. August was the son of the unmarried Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Josefa Wuttke. His death was reported by Pastor Ulbrich at the Diakonissenanstalt Bethanien, a general hospital at Kloster Straße 112 in Breslau.

Anna Hedwige Maria (née Stanitzke) Wuttke died at the age of 61 years and 8 months, on the 19th of June in 1906. She was a Protestant and lived at Weidenstraße 21 (4 blocks east of St. Dorothea Church, now Wierzbowa Street). Anna was married at Breslau to the Bureaudiener (civil service bureau office worker) August Wuttke, who died at Breslau before his wife. Anna's 1906 civil death record was completed by her brother-in-law the Kassendiener (clerk, cash collector) Karl Trippner who lived in Breslau at Schweidnitzerstraße 1 (the southeast corner of the Ring, now Świdnicka Street). That civil death record listed Anna's mother as Dorothea Stanitzke who had died at Breslau as an unmarried Wirthschafterin (housekeeper). The 1902 to 1907 death record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church include the death and burial record for the Bürodienerfrau Marie (née Stanitzke) Wuttke. She was buried on the 22nd of June in 1906 at the St. Mauritius Alter Pfarrfriedhof (old parish cemetery) that was located at Steinstraße 87.

Birth of son Johann Wilhelm Gustav Sternitzky, 1846

Johann Wilhelm Gustav Sternitzky was born at Breslau on the 18th of May in 1846. His mother was listed on his baptism record as Anna Rosine Dorothea Sternitzky. She was the daughter of deceased Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Georg Sternitzky. She was unmarried and lived at Vorwerksstraße 29b. Her son was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 24th of May in 1846. The baptismal sponsors were the Bürger und Maler (citizen and painter Ludwig Richter, the Bürger und Tischlermeister (citizen and master carpenter) Johann Blech and Friedericke (née Jackisch) Jensch (the wife of the Zimmergeselle Johann Jensch). The surnames of Dorothea, her father and her son were all corrected on the baptism record from Starnitzky to Sternitzky.

The Maschinenmeister (master machinist) Wilhelm Sternicki died at Posen on the 15th of April in 1879 at the age of 33 years old. He was born at Breslau around 1846. He was the right age to have been Johann Wilhelm Gustav Sternitzky. Wilhelm's wife, Julianne (née Kamniczna) Sternicki did not know the names of his parents. See the Death of Wilhelm Sternicki, 1879 City of Posen.

Birth and Death of daughter
Anna Maria Dorothea Sternitzke (1852-1852)

Anna Maria Dorothea Sternitzke was born on the 17th of June in 1852 and baptized on the 20th of June in 1852. The baptism record identified the mother as the unmarried daughter of the deceased Rosenthal Arbeiter Georg Sternitzke. The baptism sponsors were: the Tagelöhnerin (day laborer) Eva Matuscheck, the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Johanna Winkler and the Hebammenschülerin (midwife student) Rosina Barowska.

Anna Sternitzke died on the 28th of September in 1852 at the age of 1 month and 14 days. Her calculated date of birth was the 14th of August in 1852. Anna was buried on the 1st of October in 1852. The St. Bernhardin burial record book shows that her mother was the unmarried mother Dorothea Sternitzke, the daughter of the deceased Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Sternitzke. Dorothea lived at Vorwerksstraße 29. The burial book listed Ausschlag Husten (rash and cough) as the cause of death.

Godmother Dorothea Sternitzke, 1853

William Gottfried George Jüngling and Robert Adolph Louis Jüngling were twin son of Wilhelm Jüngling and Pauline (née Herrmann) Jüngling. The twins were born on the 25th of September in 1853 and were baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 6th of the October in 1853. Dorothea Sternitzke, the daughter of the deceased Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Georg Sternitzke was one of the godparents for the baptism of Robert Adolph Louis Jüngling.

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter
Helene Louise Rosalie Sternitzke (1856-1910)

Helene Louise Rosalie Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 4th of June in 1856. She was the daughter of Dorothea Sternitzke. Dorothea was not married and lived at Vorwerksstraße 29 in 1856. They were Protestants. Her daughter was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 7th of June in 1856. The baptismal sponsors were Rosine (née Mehland) Rüsser the wife of the Schneidergesell (journeyman tailor) Karl Rüsser, Louise (née Dittmann) Knittel the wife of the Schneidergesell Ernst Knittel and Julie (née Nagel) Jürgens wife of the Schlosser (mechanic) Heinrich Jürgens.

Dorothea Sternitzke was a Wirthschafterin (housekeeper) who died at Breslau before Louise's wedding in 1897. In July of 1897, Louise was a Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived at Alexanderstraße 12 (one block east of the old city moat and 5 blocks southeast of the Neumarkt). Alexanderstraße is no longer a street. In 2008, it was a grassy area next to the intersection of major roads about two blocks east the Galeria Dominikańska shopping mall.

Helene Louise Rosalie Sternitzke married Karl Wilhelm Robert Trippner in Breslau on the 29th of July in 1897. Karl was born on the 10th of September in 1852, at Nieder Schmollen (now Smolna Dolna) in Oels County. He was the son of Wilhelm Trippner and his wife Elizabeth (née Stalke) Trippner who moved to Kronendorf in Oels County (now Witanow, Poland) where they died before Karl's wedding in 1897. They were Protestants. In 1897, Karl was employed as a Kassendiener (a clerk, cash collector) and lived in Breslau at Schweidnitzerstraße 1 (near the southeast corner of the Ring, now Świdnicka Street).

Witnesses at the 1897 wedding included the 68 years old Kanzleidiener (office worker) August Wuttke who lived at Alexanderstraße 12 (the same address as the bride Louise Sternitzke), and 27 years old Barbiermeister (master barber) Hermann Hilbig who lived at Albrechtstraße 48 (now Wita Stwosza Street, one block north of the St. Maria Magdalena Church).

Luise (née Sternitzki) Trippner died on the 3rd of December in 1910 at the age of 54 years and 5 months. Born at Breslau. Protestant. Her civil death record shows she was the daughter of Dorothea Sternitzki who died at Breslau before 1910. She was the wife of the Kassendiener Kassendiener (clerk, cash collector) Karl Trippner. She died at the Claassen'sches Sieschenhause (hospice) located at Elbingstraße 30 (6 blocks north of Sand Island, one block east of the main road to Trebnitz), now Ołbińska Street.

Baptismal Sponsor Dorothea Sternitzke, 1866

Dorothea Sternitzke, the daughter of the deceased Rosenthal Tagarbeiter Georg Sternitzke, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Johanna Emilie Auguste Stanetzky (Sternitzky). He was the son of the Maurer (mason) Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Sternitzky. Dorothea was probably the child's aunt. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Sternitzky (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubilion, 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal.

1870 Breslau Address Book

In 1870, the Haushalterin (housekeeper) Dor. Sternitzke was living at Vorwerksstraße 14 I (first floor). This may have been Dorothea Sternitzke.

Death of Dorothea Sternitzke, before 1897

The 29 July 1897 marriage record for Helene Louise Rosalie Sternitzke shows her mother was the Wirthschafterin (housekeeper) Dorothea Sternitzke who died at Breslau before Louise's wedding.

Death of Johann Wilhelm Sternitzki (1780-1820)
1820 City of Breslau

The Breslau Bürger (citizen) and Gürtler-Meister Johann Wilhem Sternitzki died on the 14th of September in 1820, at the age of 40 years and 3 months old. Based on his age, he was born in June in 1780. Ernest Thode's dictionary defines a Gürtler-Meister as a master leather belt maker, or a master brassworker.

The burial of Johann Wilhem Sternitzki was recorded at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. He was buried at the St. Christopher Church cemetery on the 17th of September in 1820. The burial record listed his cause of death as Abzehrung which translates to emaciation, but in English was called consumption. Consumption was a general term for diseases resulting in weight loss and loss of strength, included diseases such as tuberculosis, diabetes, cancer, nutritional disorders.

Family of Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Weissenberg
1823 City of Breslau, 1823 East Prussia

Johann Joseph Weissenberg and Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Weissenberg had two known daughters. The baptism record from Breslau for their first known daughter conflicts with a church record from East Prussia.

- A baptism record from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau shows that Johanna Maria Emilie Weissenberg was born on the 19th of December in 1823. She was baptized there on the 26th of December in 1823. Her parents were listed as the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Johann Joseph Weissenberg and his Ehegattin (wife) Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Weissenberg. They lived at house number 864 in the Hummerey (Hummerei) District in Breslau. Hummerei Straße was 3 blocks south of the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. That street is now part of Kazimierza Wielkiego Street. The baptism sponsors were: the Schneidermeister Johann Caspar Wendel, the Schuhmachermeister Johann Carl Gottlieb Suschke, and the Jungfrau Susanna Rungin the daughter of a Pächter (a tenant on rented property).

The FamilySearch database has a transcription of the baptism of Johanna Maria Emilie Sternitzke. According to that transcription she was baptized in East Prussia on the 19th of December of 1823 which was listed as her date of birth in the Breslau record. The FamilySearch transcription only recorded Maria Elisabeth Sternitzke as a parent. The child's surname and the mother's surname were listed as Sternitzke, which implies the mother was not married when the child was baptized. The source document for the FamilySearch transcription was not available for online review in April of 2023.

- Johanna Rosina Bertha Weissenberg was born on the 18th of December in 1826. She was baptized in East Prussia on the 25th of December in 1826. The baptism record listed her parents as Johann Joseph Weissenberg and Maria Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Weissenberg.

Marriage of Christoph Stanitzke 1824 City of Breslau

The Haushälter (janitor) Christoph Stanitzke married the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Marie Elisabeth Stulpe on the 11th of May in 1824 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both residents of the city of Breslau.

Christoph Stanitzke was 34 years old at the time of the wedding, so he was born around 1790. He was the son of the late Oeconoms Johann Stanitzke from Johannesberg near Königsberg in East Prussia. Johannesberg was a Vorwerk (residence or farm) to the east of the state-owned estate named Kobbelbude. They were both southwest of Königsberg. Kobbelbude is now named Swetloje (Kaliningrad), Russia. Königsberg is now named Kaliningrad, Russia. The genealogical dictionary by Ernest Thode listed more than one translation of an Oekonom or Oeconom: small farm owner, farm manager, steward, innkeeper or economist. Given the rural location of Johannesberg, Johann Stanitzke was probably a small farm owner.

Marie Elisabet Stulpe was 20 years old at the time of the wedding, so she was born around 1804. Her father was the Freigärtner und Gerichtscholz (free owner of a small farm and the court appointed mayor) Johann Stulpe, at Ober Backen near Hernstadt in Guhrau County. The city named Herrnstadt is now named Wałosz, Poland. It is about 37 miles northwest from Breslau (Wrocław). Ober Backen is now named Zbaków Górny, Poland. It is three miles north of Herrnstadt (Wałosz).

The 1848 Breslau address book listed the Kutscher Wittwe (widow of a coachman) M. Sternitzke as a resident at the Grenzhausegasse 4. This may have been Marie Elisabet (née Stulpe) Stanitzke who was the widow of the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman) Christoph Starnitzke.

Baptism Sponsor Rosine (née Stolpe) Starnitzke, 1856

Marie Elisabet (née Stulpe) Stanitzke may have been the Rosine (née Stolpe) Starnitzke who was the widow of the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman) Christoph Starnitzke. On the 19th of October in 1856, Rosine (née Stolpe) Starnitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Anna Louise Pauline Mentzel at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. See the Godmothers Anna (née Sternitzki) Klamt and Rosine (née Stolpe) Starnitzke 1854 and 1856 City of Breslau.

1863 Breslau Address Book

The 1863 Breslau address book listed a Droschkenkutscher Wittwe (widow of a carriage owner) Sternitzke as a resident at Altbüßerstraße 31 Hinterhaus 1 (at the rear of the building, first floor). Altbüßerstraße was inside the old city walls. It is now Łaciarska Street). This may have been Rosine (née Stulpe) Stanitzke who was the widow of the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman) who was the widow of the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman) Christoph Starnitzke.

Marriage and Family of David Sternitzke/Sternitzky/Sternitzkÿ
1831 to 1867 City of Breslau

Based on his age when he died, David Sternitzky was born around the 13th of August in 1807. He would have been around 23 years and 11 months old in July of 1931. He would have been around 26 years and 9 months old in May of 1834. Based on this chronology and his history with the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church, I included the following two events with the known history of David Sternitzky.

Baptism Sponsor David Sternitzky, 1831

A Soldat (soldier) named David Sternitzky was one of the baptism sponsors for Friedrich August Wilhelm Kettner at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church at Breslau. David was a member of the 10th Infantry Regiment.

Friedrich August Wilhelm Kettner was born on the 15th of July in 1831, and he was baptized on the 19th of July in 1831. He was the son of the Kattundruckergesell (journeyman cotton fabric printer) Karl Benjamin Kettner and Anne Rosine (née Titz) Kettner. The baptism sponsors: the August Wilhelm Eisermann; David Sternitzky, Soldat vom 10th Infantry [Regiment]; and Johann Friedrich Schubert.

Birth of son August Wilhelm Alexander Spiegel, 1834

August Wilhelm Alexander Spiegel was the son of Johanna Spiegel. Johanna was not married. She was the daughter of the weiland (late) Gottfried Speigel, who had been a Müller (miller) at Brieg. The remarks column of baptism record listed der angeben Vater (the specified father) was David Sternitzky, a Schneidergeselle (journeyman tailor).

The baby was born on the 13th of May in 1834, and he was baptized on the 25th of May in 1834. The baptism sponsors were: the Tischler (carpenter) Wilhelm Pfend, the Tischlerfrau (wife of a carpenter) Juliane Pfend and Rosine Preiss in Diensten (a servant).

1848 Breslau Address Book

The 1848 Breslau address book showed the Rathsdienner (city council employee) D. Sternitzky was a resident at Weißgerbergasse 21, 1 Stockwerk (first floor). That address was two blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church. Weißgerbergasse is now Biatoskórnicza Street.

Baptism Sponsor Bezirke-Vorsteher Sternitzkÿ, 1848

The Bezirke-Vorsteher (district director) Sternitzkÿ was one of the baptism sponsors for Gustav Adolph Karl Theobald Blumberg, the son of the Bürger und Kaufmann (citizen and merchant) Wilhelm Adolph Karl Blumberg and Mathilde (née Mancke) Blumberg. The child was born on the 1st of July in 1848, and he was baptized on the 23rd of July in 1848. The other baptism sponsors were: the Wegebaumeister (master road constructor) Leopold Schepel, Gustav Knorr, and Frau Emma Göhling.

Second Marriage of David Sternitzke, 1849

In 1849, David Sternitzke was a widower and a Rathsdienner (city council employee). On the 16th of October in 1849, David Sternitzke married Rosina Dorothea Gabriel. He was 42 years old when he got married, so he was born around 1807 (see his death record information for a closer estimate). Rosina was 39 years old at the time of the marriage, so she was born around 1810. Rosina was the daughter of the Freigärtner Stellmacher (wheelwright) Gottfried Gabriel, from Manze in Nimptsch County.

Birth and Death of daughter

Bertha Emilie Auguste Sternitzkÿ/ Sternitzke (1850-1866)

Bertha Emilie Auguste Sternitzkÿ was born on the 6th of November in 1850. She was the daughter of the Rathsdienner (city council employee) David Sternitzkÿ and Rosina (née Gabriel) Sternitzkÿ. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 17th of November in 1850. The baptism sponsors were: the Briefträger (city letter carrier) August Hartman and the Eisenbahnbeamter (railroad official) Rosina Schmüschke.

Bertha Sternitzke, the daughter of the Rathsdienner David Sternitzke, died on the 20th of May in 1866, at the age of 15 years and 6 months. Based on her age when she died, Bertha was born around in of November in 1850. Bertha died from Lungenleiden (pulmonary disease). She was buried at the St. Barbara Church Cemetery on the 23rd of May in 1866. The Sternitzke family lived at Gerbergasse 1 at the time of Bertha's death in 1866.

1852 Breslau Address Book

A Rathsdienner named Sternitzky was listed in the 1852 City of Breslau Residents Book (see below). His address was An der Matthiaskunst 5 (Matthias Island near the University of Breslau, now Tamka Island, see photo below).

Birth of son Gustav Adolph Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1853

Gustav Adolph Wilhelm Sternitzke was born on the 20th of October in 1853. He was the son of the Rathsdienner (city council worker) David Sternitzke and Dorothea (née Gabriel) Sternitzke. The baby was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 31st of October in 1853. The baptism sponsors were: the Federhändlersfrau (wife of a feather dealer) Dorothea Scheer, the Briefträgersfrau (wife of a city letter carrier) Anna Hartmann and the Rathsdienner (city council worker) Johann Ehle.

Death of David Sternitzky, 1857

The Rathsdienner David Sternitzky died on the 13th of February in 1857, at the age of 50 years and 6 months. That means he was born around the 13th of August 1807. He was buried on the 16th of February in 1857 at the St. Barbara Protestant Church graveyard. His address was listed as Gerbergasse 2. Gerbergasse was inside the old city walls near the Breslau University. It is now Garbary Street near the University.

1863 Breslau Address Book

The widow Anna Sternitzki was listed in the 1863 Breslau address book. Her address was listed as Gerbergasse 1 IV (fourth floor). Gerbergasse was inside the old city walls near the Breslau University. It is now Garbary Street near the University. That was the same address listed for the family when her daughter died in 1866.

Death of the widow of David Sternitzky, 1867

There is conflicting information regarding the death of the widow of a Rathsdienner David Sternitzky. A webpage listed her death date the 28th of December in 1866. The original burial record for the widow of David Sternitzkÿ was available online for review. It listed her death date as the 27th of December in 1867. The 1860 to 1879 death registry book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church shows that Bertha Sternitzkÿ was buried at the St. Christophori Church cemetery on the 31st of December in 1867.

A website listing transcriptions of Breslau church records shows that Bertha (née Gabriel) Sternitzky, the widow of a Rathsdienner (city council employee), died at Breslau on the 28th of December in 1866. According to the webpage, she was 57 years old when she died, so she was born around 1809. According to the webpage, her death was recorded at the St. Maria Magdalena Church Protestant Church. The 1860 to 1879 death registry book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church shows that Bertha Sternitzkÿ was buried at the St. Christophori Protestant Church on the 31st of December in 1867.

The burial record book of the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau listed the death and burial of Bertha (née Gabriel) Sternitzkÿ, the widow of the Rathsdienner David Sternitzkÿ. She died on the 27th of December in 1867, at the age of 57 years, 2 months and 4 days. That means she was born on the 23rd of October in 1810. She was the correct age to have been the Rosina Dorothea Gabriel who married the Rathsdienner David Sternitzke in 1849. The burial record listed the cause of her death as: Allgemeine-Lähmung und Gesirnschlag (general weakness – palsy or paralysis and cerebral apoplexy).

Rosina Sternitzke was listed as the widow of a Rathsdienner in the 1868 Breslau residents book. Her address at that time was Gerbergasse 1. The data for the 1868 residents book was probably collected in late 1867, so the burial record was probably accurate.

Family of Johann Gottlieb Starnitzke and Louise (née Matzke) Starnitzke 1832 to 1905 City of Breslau

The histories of Johann Gottlieb Starnitzke (c.1800-before 1873) and Louise (née Matzke) Starnitzke are known from the records of their sons and from the 1873 death record of Louise (née Matzke) Sternitzke (1800-1873).

Birth of Son Ferdinand Adolph Reinhold Starnitzke, 1832

Ferdinand Adolph Reinhold Starnitzke (1832-1905) was born in Breslau on the 27th of January in 1832, and baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of February in 1832. His parents were identified as the Herrschaftliche Kutscher (coachman for a noble family) Johann Gottlieb Starnitzke and Louise (née Matzke) Starnitzke. In 1832, the family lived at Reuschestraße 50 (now Ruska Street) in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were Anna Louise Ferdinande, Carl Adolph Kudrass and Adolph Schoenber. See below: the Family of Adolph Sternitzke and Ernestine née Warwas) Sternitzke, 1865 to 1905.

Birth of Son Gustav Herrmann Johann Sternitzke, 1833

Gustav Herrmann Johann Sternitzke (born 15 August 1833) was Adolf's younger brother). Gustav was baptized at the 25th of August in 1833 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. Gustav's parents were listed on his baptism record as the Herrschaftliche Kutscher (coachman for a noble family) Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke and Louise (née Matzke) Sternitzke. In 1833, the Sternitzke family lived at Reuschestraße 65 (now Ruska Street). The baptismal sponsors were Miss Ferdinande Reimann, the Kaufmann Adolph Kudrass and Ernst Ruscher. Note the common baptismal sponsor (Adolph Kudrass) for both sons.

Family of Adolph Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Warwas) Sternitzke, 1865 to 1905

Ferdinand Adolph Reinhold Sternitzke (1832-1905) married Ernestine Warwas before 1865. Adolph was also listed as Adolph Sternitzke, Adolf Sternitzke and Adolf Sternitzky in church and civil records. He was listed as the Vergolder (gilder) Sternitzki in the 1863 Breslau address book. He lived at Schubrücke 54 III (third floor) at that time. Schubrücke is now Szewska Street near the University of Wrocław.

Birth of son Adolph Ernst Rudolph Richard Sternitzke, 1865

Adolph Ernst Rudolph Richard Sternitzke, was born at Breslau on the 12th of February in 1865. He was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 12th of March in 1865 (record number 164). He the son the Vergolder Adolph Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Warwas) Sternitzke. The baptism sponsors were: the Goldarbeiter (goldsmith) Rudolph Steller, the Goldarbeiter Hermann Lange, the Geschäftsführer (executive) Ernst Warwas and Emilie Warwas the Schneidermeistertochter (daughter of a master tailor) from Trebnitz.

Birth of daughter Agnes Elisabet Gertrud Sternitzke, 1866

Agnes Elisabet Gertrud Sternitzke, the daughter of the Vergolder Adolf Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Warwas) Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 27th of April in 1866. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 27th of May in 1866 (record number 340). The baptism sponsors were: the Schneidermeistertochter (daughter of a master tailor) Emilie Warwas from Trebnitz, the Goldarbeiter (goldsmith) Albert Lange, and the Goldarbeiter Rudolf Steller.

Breslau Business Directory and Address Books, 1866 to 1897

The 1866 Silesia and Posen Business Directory listed a Vergolder (gilder) named Sternitzky who was working in Breslau. The 1868 Breslau address book listed the Vergolder named Ad. Sternitzke at Schuhbrücke 54 on the third floor (3 blocks south from the University, now Szewska Street). The 1870 address book listed him at Schuhbrücke 32 (2 blocks south from the University), again on the third floor.

The Breslau address books from 1884 to 1887, 1891 and 1897 show that the Vergolder und Staffirer (gilder and decorator) Adolf Sternitzke had a Werkstatt (workshop) at Engelsburg 1 - Seitenhaus II (side building, second floor). He lived at Kohlenstraße 8 III (third floor). Engelsburg is now Łazienna Street, one block north of the St. Elisabeth Church. Kohlenstraße was one block north of the University Bridge. It is now Stanisława Dubois Street.

His name was listed in the street address sort (in 1884 and 1886) as Sternitzky, but he listed in a business directory section of the 1884 and 1886 books as Sternitzke. The 1887 Breslau address book listed him as Ad. Sternitzky in the sort by family names, but listed his name as Sternitzke in the sorts by street addresses and businesses.

The 1895 Breslau address book listed the Vergolder Ad. Sternitzke as still living at Kohlenstraße 8. The 1897 address book listed the Vergolder und Staffirer (gilder and decorator) Adolf Sternitzke as still living at Kohlenstraße 8, but the address of his workshop was listed as at Herrenstraße 19 Hinterhaus II (at the rear of the building on the second floor). Herrenstraße is now named Rzeźnicza Street. Herrenstraße 19 may have been the same building as Engelsburg 1 - Seitenhaus II (side building, second floor), just with a new address. Engelsburg I and Herrenstraße 19 were both at the corner of those two streets (see the map below).

Baptism Sponsor Adolf Sternitzke, November 1867

The Vergolder Adolf Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors of Elsbeth Martha Sabina Steller, the daughter of the Goldarbeiter (gold worker) Rudolf Steller and Ida (née Bockelmann) Steller. The child was born on the 7th of October in 1867, and she was baptized on the 10th of November in 1867. The other baptism sponsors were: the Klempnermeisterstochter (daughter of a master plumber) Sabina Bockelmann and Julius Steller from Ransen.

Birth and Death of daughter Helene Valeska Bianka Sternitzke (1867-1869)

Helene Valeska Bianka Sternitzke, the daughter of the Vergolder (gilder) Adolf Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Warwas) Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 22nd of December in 1867. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 26th of January in 1868 (record number 65). The baptism sponsors were: the Nätherin (seamstress) Emilie Warwas, the Goldarbeiter (goldsmith) R. Steller, and the Goldarbeiter H. Lange.

The 1869-1877 death record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church shows that Helene Bianka Valeska Sternitzke died on the 14th of April in 1869 at the age of 1 year, 3 months and 23 days. She was the daughter of the Vergolder Adolf Reinhold Sternitzke. The cause of her death was listed as Hirnausschwitzung (brain sweating). She was buried on the 17th of April at St. Christophori Protestant Church cemetery.

Birth and Death of daughter

Olga Amanda Magdalena Sternitzke (1869-1904)

Olga Amanda Magdalena Sternitzke, the daughter of the Vergolder (gilder) Adolf Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Warwas) Sternitzke, was born at Breslau on the 30th of October 1869. She was baptized on the 26th of December in 1869 (record number 820). The baptism sponsors were: the Goldarbeitersfrau (wife of a goldsmith) Ida Steller, the Goldarbeiter Albert Lange, and the Kaufmann (merchant) Alwin Heiber.

The ledige (unmarried woman) Olga Sternitzke died on the 10th of January in 1904, at the age of 34 years and 2 months. She was buried on the 13th of January at the cemetery for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The church record book listed her as ledige und ohne Beruf (unmarried and without an occupation). She lived at Kohlenstraße 8 until her death. Based on her age when she died, she was born around November of 1869. She was probably a daughter of Adolf Sternitzke who lived at that address from 1884 to 1897. He was born in Breslau on the 27th of January in 1832. The church record listed her civil death record as number 118 in 1904 at Breslau Standesamt III (which was not available for download in 2018).

Baptism Sponsor Ernestine Sternitzke, 1970

The Vergoldersfrau (wife of a gilder) Ernestine Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Rudolf Carl Julius Steller, the son of the Goldarbeiter und Juwelier (gold worker and jeweler) Rudolf Steller and Ida (née Bockelmann) Steller. The child was born on the 11th of July in 1870, and he was baptized on the 24th of July in 1870 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The other baptism sponsors were: the Lehrer (teacher) Julius Steller, and the Klempnermeistersfrau (wife of a master plumber) Pauline Bockelmann.

Birth of son Richard Robert Rudolf Sternitzke, 1872

Richard Robert Rudolf Sternitzke, the son the Vergolder (gilder) Adolf Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Warwas) Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 8th of October in 1872. He was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 24th of November in 1872 (record number 791). The baptism sponsors were: the Goldarbeiter (goldsmith) Albert Lange, the Goldarbeitersfrau Ida Steller and Emilie Warwas (the daughter of the deceased Gottfried Warwas from Trebnitz).

Death of Louise (née Matzke) Sternitzke (1800-1873)

The 1873 burial record for Louise (née Matzke) Sternitzke shows that her husband, the Kutscher (coachman) Johann Sternitzke preceded her in death. The widow Sternitzke died on the 8th of March in 1873 at the age of 72 years, 10 months and 13 days. Her calculated birthdate was the 23rd of April in 1800. She died from Hirnleiden which translates as encephalopathy, a disease where the function of the brain is affected by a viral infection or toxins in the blood. She was buried at the St. Christophori Protestant Church cemetery on the 11th of March in 1873.

Death of Adolf Sternitzke (1832-1905)

The frühere Vergolder (former gilder) Adolf Sternitzke was 72 years and 11 months old, when he died on the 25th of January in 1905. He was a Protestant. He died in Breslau at the Claassen'sches Sieschenhause (hospice) located at Elbingstraße 30 (6 blocks north of Sand Island, one block east of the main road to Trebnitz), now Ołbińska Street. The 1904 to 1912 death and burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau shows that the frühere Vergolder (former gilder) Adolf Sternitzke was buried on the 28th of January in 1905. It listed his last residence as Trebnitzerstraße 25. The church record referenced his civil death record: number 250 in 1905 at Breslau Standesamt III.

The civil death record for Adolf Sternitzke shows he was born at Breslau. He was the son of the Kutscher (carriage driver) Johann Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Matzke) Sternitzke, who both died at Breslau before Adolf's death. Adolf's wife, Ernestine (née Warwas) Sternitzke was born at Polnisch Hammer in Trebnitz County and died at Breslau before the death of her husband Adolf.

Lohnkutscher (coachman) Starnetzky
1832 City of Breslau

The 1832 Breslau address book listed the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman) Starnetzky who lived at Große Dreilindengasse 1. Große Dreilindengasse was about 7 blocks north of the University Bridge, and is now Ptasia Street. This may have been the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman) Christoph Starnitzke who was survived by Rosine (née Stolpe) Starnitzke. See the Godmothers Anna (née Starnitzki) Klamt and Rosine (née Stolpe) Starnitzke, 1854 and 1856 City of Breslau.

Student Moritz Sternitzky
1832 & 1833 City of Breslau

Moritz Sternitzky was born in 1809 at Ratiborhammer (a village now named Kuźnia Raciborska) about 100 miles southeast of Breslau. He studied medicine at the University of Breslau (inside the old city walls) in 1832 and 1833, where he was investigated and questioned because of his candidacy status (Renonce) for membership in a student fraternity. Student organizations were considered radical groups by the authorities. Moritz is the German version of the Latin name Mauritius.

Family of Bäudler Johann Sternitzky 1835 to 1852 City of Breslau

The 1835 Breslau address book listed the Bäudler Jh. (Johann) Sternitzky with two addresses: Domstraße 22 and Laurenzplatz 14. One address was probably where he lived and the other was the location of his shop. A Bäudler was the operator of a small shop that sold assorted merchandise, similar to a general store.

Domstraße is now Katedralna Street. It runs from the Dombrücke (Cathedral Bridge, now named most Tumski) to the Catholic Cathedral. Laurenzplatz was four blocks east of the Catholic Cathedral.

The Bäudler Jh. (Johann) Sternitzky may have been the father of three girls: Josephine (née Sternitzki) Gärtner, Louise Sternitzki the daughter of the Bäudler Johann Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Sternitzki) Schulze.

Birth and Baptism of Johanna Auguste Emilie Gärtner, 1839

Johanna Auguste Emilie Gärtner was the daughter of Nagelschmidteselle Wilhelm Gärtner and his wife Josephine (née Sternitzki) Gärtner. They lived at Hirschgasse 6 in the Hinterdom District (the streets near the east side of the Catholic Cathedral). A Nagelschmidteselle (also known as a Nagelschmied) was a journeyman smith who made nails.

Louise Sternitzki, the daughter of the deceased Johann Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Johanna Auguste Emilie Gärtner on the 3rd of March in 1839 at St. Bernhardin Church in Breslau. Before his death, Johann Sternitzke had been a Bürger (citizen) und Bäudler in Breslau. The other baptism sponsors were: the Nagelschmidteselle (journeyman nail smith) Moritz Scholz from Breslau and the Nagelschmidteselle (journeyman nail smith) Karl Butting from Breslau.

Baptism of Friedrich Moriz Schulz, 1843

Friedrich Moriz Schulz was the son of the Bürger und Nagelschmiedemeister (citizen and nail smith) Moriz Schulz and Elisabeth (née Stirnizki) Schulz. The child was born on the 4th of August and baptized on the 20th of August in 1843. The baptism sponsors were: the Bürger und Nagelschmiedemeister Ferdinand Gräser, the Bürger und Nagelschmiedemeister Karl Schwarz and the Tischlergesell Ferdinand Stirnizki. The surname for Elisabeth and Ferdinand was originally written Stirnitzkŷ and later edited to read Stirnizki.

Baptism of Karl Ferdinand Schulze, 1844

Karl Ferdinand Schulze was the son of the Bürger und Nagelschmiedemeister (citizen and nail smith) Moriz Schulze and Elisabeth (née Sternitzki) Schulze. The child was born on the 7th of October in 1844 and baptized on the 20th of October in 1844. The baptism sponsors were: the Nagelschmiedemeister Johann Hann, the Nagelschmiedemeister Ferdinand Gräser, and the Nagelschmiedemeisterfrau Anna Theurich.

Breslau Address Book 1852

A Bäudlerin Sternitzke (a female operator of a general store) was listed in the 1852 Breslau address book. She lived at Vorwerksstraße 10b (southeast of the old city, now Komuny Paryskiej Street).

Death of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzky 22 March 1836 City of Breslau

The Tagelöhner (day laborer) Johann Gottlieb Sternitzky (c.1770-1836) died on the 22nd of March in 1836. He died from Lungenschwindsucht (tuberculosis) at the age of 66 years, so he was born around 1770. He was buried at the St. Barbara Church cemetery at Breslau on the 25th of March in 1836. His burial was recorded at the St. Elisabeth Church.

There are several family records that are probably associated with this Johann Gottlieb Sternitzky. The records are not complete enough to definitely state these people are the wife and children of this man.

A Tagelöhner Frau (the wife of a day laborer) Sternitzky died in 1830. Her death was recorded at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. She may have been the wife of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzky. These children may have been their sons and daughters:

- Anna Rosina Eleonora Sternitzky was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Church in 1789. She was the daughter of the Pöpelwitz Erbsaß und Müller (hereditary owner of a country estate and miller) Johann Sternitzky. See below: the Village of Pöpelwitz in Breslau County.
- Johanna Elisabeth Sternitzky was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Church in 1791. She was the daughter of the Pöpelwitz Erbmüller (hereditary owner of a mill) Johann Sternitzky. See below: the Village of Pöpelwitz in Breslau County.

- Carl Friedrich Starnitzke was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Church in 1795. He was the son of the Pöpelwitz Müller (miller) Johann Starnitzke. See below: the Village of Pöpelwitz in Breslau County.
- The death of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke was also recorded at the St. Elisabeth Church in 1803. The church record shows the child Johann Gottlieb was the son of the Lohmüller Johann Sternitzke. A Lohmüller ground up roots, branches or bark to create a powder used in the leather tanning process. The mother's name was not listed. See above: the Death of Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1803 City of Breslau.
- Johann Ernst Gottlieb Starnitzke was baptized at St. Elisabeth Church in early 1804. His father, Johann Starnitzke was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) at a Lohmühle. The name of the baby's mother was not listed in the entry for this baptism in the register of baptisms. See the table: the Sternitzke Family Births in Breslau in the 19th and 20th Centuries, the 1804 birth of Johann Ernst Gottlieb Starnitzke. Johann Ernst Gottlieb Starnitzke was probably the blind, former Schneidergeselle (journeyman tailor) Ernst Starnitzke (c.1804-1881) who died at Stettin on the 30th of September in 1881. See Chapter 18 The Prussian Province of Pomerania, City of Stettin: the Death of Ernst Starnitzke (c.1804-1881), 1881 Stettin.

Family of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke and Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzke
1837 to 1901 City of Breslau

Birth and Death of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke (c.1807-1886)

Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke (c.1807-1886) was born around 1807 at Rux in Trebnitz County. That year of birth was calculated from his age (79 years old) when he died at Breslau on the 21st of March in 1886. Heinrich was the son of a Bauer (farmer) Sternitzke. Details regarding his parents were not known when Heinrich's death record was completed.

The death of the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Sternitzke was reported by his son the Maler (painter) Reinhold Sternitzke. Heinrich was living with his son Reinhold until his death at Seitengasse 8. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław). The burial record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed him as the Maler und Kattundrucker Heinrich Ernst Sternitzkÿ. He was buried on the 25th of March in 1886. He was a Protestant.

The civil death record for the Kattundrucker Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke shows he was a Protestant and a widower. His wife Johanne (née Schönwald) Sternitzky died (suicide by hanging, see below) at Breslau on the 24th of December 1861. Based on the records for their children, Heinrich Sternitzke (c.1807-1886) and Johanna née Schönwald were married around 1837.

Birth and Death of son

Karl Heinrich Robert Starnitzki / Sternitzki (1837-1843)

Karl Heinrich Robert Starnitzki was born at Breslau on the 13th of September in 1837. He was baptized on the 24th of September in 1837. The baptism record listed his parents as the Kattundruckergesell (journeyman cotton fabric printer) Ernst Heinrich Starnitzki and Johanna (née Schönwald) Starnitzki. The baptism sponsors were: Henriette Karsch the daughter of a Schneidermeister; the Kattundruckergesell Friedrich Richter; and the Kattundruckergesell Franz Klabothschke. The index for that baptism book (page 701 of 713) listed the family name as Starnitzky.

Robert Sternitzki (1837-1843) died at Breslau on the 30th of March in 1843 at the age of 5 years old, so he was born around April of 1838. The burial record from the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church shows he was the son of the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Sternitzki who lived at Kirschstraße 26 (across the street from the west side of St. Bernhardin Church (now Bernardyńska Street)). The child died from Abzehrung (consumption, an archaic name for tuberculosis) and was buried on the 2nd of April in 1843.

Birth and Marriages of son Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke, 1840

Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke (1840-1901) was born at Breslau on the 1st of January in 1840. He was the son of the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzke. Reinhold was baptized on the 19th of January in 1840 at St. Bernardin Protestant Church. At that time the family lived at Kirschstraße 26 (across the street from the west side of St. Bernhardin Church (now Bernardyńska Street). The former St. Bernhardin Church is now the home of the Architectural Museum in Wrocław. The baptismal sponsors were: the Kattundrucker Friedrich Rührer, the Kattundrucker Simon Felke and the Jungfrau Henriette Kuschner (daughter of the Bürger und Schneidermeister Gottlieb Kuschner).

Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke married Henriette Caroline Hedwig Hain at Breslau in 1862. He married the Jungfrau Anna Maria Theresia Kramer in 1878. He married Anna Klara Hedwig Christ at Breslau in 1900. See the Marriages, Family and Death of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke, 1862 to 1901 City of Breslau.

1848 Breslau Address Book

The 1848 Breslau address book listed the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) E. Sternitzke. He lived at one of the two unnumbered houses located near Tauenzienstraße 22, about one-half of block east from the Tauentzien Platz. Tauenzienstraße is now named Tadeusza Kościuszki Street.

Death of Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzky, 1861

Frau Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzky, the wife of the Kattundrucker Heinrich Sternitzky died from Selbstentleibung-Erhängen (suicide by hanging) on the 24th of December in 1861. She was 55 years old at the time, so she was born around 1806. She was buried on the 30th of December in 1861 according to the burial record book of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Her address was listed in the record book as Viehmarkt 10 in Breslau. Viehmarkt 10 was near the intersection of Rosenthaler Straße (now name Pomorska Street) and Vinzenz Straße (now named Świętogo Wincentego Steet) between the Dreilinden Gasse (now named Ptasia Street) and the Schiesswerder Platz (now named plac Strzelecki).

1863 Breslau Address Book

The 1863 Breslau address book listed the Kattundrucker Ernst Sternitzki. He lived at Oberschleuße 1 Parterre (ground floor). The Oberschleuße was a small island between the An der Mattiaskunst Island and Sand Island

Marriage and Family of Anna Barbara Helene (née Starnitzke/Starnitzkÿ/Sternitzke) Rösler
1840 to 1853 City of Breslau

Marriage of Barbara Helene Starnitzke, 1840

Barbara Helene Starnitzke married the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Rösler on the 13th of September in 1840 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau.

Barbara Helene Starnitzke was 24 years old at the time of her wedding, and she was still 24 years old when she was confirmed in 1841 (see below), so she was born between March and October in 1816. She was the daughter of Johann Starnitzke who was described on the 1840 marriage record as the weiland (late) and gewesene (former) Erbliche Freigärtner (hereditary free owner of a house and garden) at Langenau. There were at least four villages named Langenau at that time. The closest (and most likely) Langenau was the village Langenau located six miles north of Breslau, in Trebnitz County. That village is now named Cienin, Poland.

Carl Rösler was 30 years old at the time of his wedding, so he was born around 1810. He was the son of the weiland (late) Gottfried Rösler who had been a Tagarbeiter (day laborer) at Schosdorf (near Greifenberg) in Löwenberg County. The marriage record listed Carl Rösler as a Haushälter (janitor) at the Papierfabrick (paper factory) on the Bürgerwerder Island northwest from the old city walls of Breslau. The record listed the residence of Carl Rösler and his bride as Große Rosengasse. Große Rosengasse was renamed Rosenstraße in 1873. It is now Juliana Ursyna Niemcewicz Street, three blocks north of Sand Island.

Birth and Death of son August Herrmann Rudolph Rösler, 1840

August Herrmann Rudolph Roesler was born on the 10th of December in 1840. He was baptized on the 18th of December in 1840 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism record listed his parents as the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Roesler and Helene (née Starnitzkÿ) Roesler. The baby died at the age of 11 days old on the 22nd of December in 1840. He was buried on the 25th of December in 1840.

Confirmation of Anna Helene Barbara (née Starnitzke/Sternitzke) Roesler, 1841

Anna Helene Barbara (née Starnitzke/Sternitzke) Roesler was listed in the church confirmation record book as the 24 years old wife of the Haushälter (janitor) Roesler, when she was confirmed at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Her confirmation was a special case that warranted a paragraph in the church record book to document her confirmation on the 28th of February in 1841. Typically, only the name of the confirmant, the name of the confirmant's father and his occupation was listed in one line per confirmant in the record book. Her confirmation was performed by Pastor Letzner in private after four months of private instruction. According to the record book, Anna Helene Barbara (née Starnitzke/Sternitzke) Roesler had not been previously confirmed because she had been raised without instruction and confirmation due to the negligence of her mother.

One year later, on the 6th of February in 1842, Anna Rosine Starnitzke the 21 years old sister of Anna Helene Barbara (née Starnitzke/Sternitzke) Roesler was confirmed at the same church by Pastor Letzner. Again, the confirmation was regarded as significant enough to justify a lengthy description in the church record book. Anna Rosine Starnitzke completed one year of private tutoring to prepare for her confirmation. It was noted that the confirmant had been previously unable to attend school and confirmation classes due to the negligence and poverty of her mother. The confirmation was performed privately in the sacristy. See the Marriage and Children of Anna Rosine Starnitzke/Sternitzke and Josef Kintscher, 1844 to 1895 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Julius Berthold Wilhelm Rösler, 1842

Julius Berthold Wilhelm Rösler was born on the 27th of July in 1842. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 14th of August in 1842. The baptism record listed his parents as the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Rösler and Helene (née Starnitzke) Rösler. They lived at Rosengasse Nr. 21 in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Littmann from Breslau, the Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) Joseph Kinscher from Breslau, and the Jungfrau (maiden) Rosine Starnitzke.

The Jungfrau Rosine Starnitzke was listed on the baptism record as the daughter of the weiland und gewesen (deceased and former) Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Starnitzke from Brietzen. The Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) Joseph Kinscher was probably the papermaker Joseph Kinscher who married Anna Rosine Sternitzke on the 4th of November in 1844. A short biography of Joseph Kinscher shows the birth date of his wife as 1820, and it identified the mother of Anna Rosine (née Sternitzke) Kinscher as Johanna Sternitzke from Brietzen. The biography shows Johanna Sternitzke was a property owner at Brietzen, who died before the 4th of November in 1844. See the Marriage and Children of Anna Rosine Starnitzke/Sternitzke and Josef Kinscher, 1844 to 1895 City of Breslau. It is likely that Johanna Sternitzke from Brietzen was the widow of Gottlieb Starnitzke from Brietzen. See the 1848 baptism record (below) for Bertha Christiane Louise Rösler, where the sponsor was listed as Helene (née Sternitzke) Kindscher.

Birth of son Johann Carl August Rösler, 1845

Johann Carl August Rösler was born on the 24th of August in 1845. He was the son of the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Rösler and his wife Helene (née Sternitzke) Rösler. Note the spelling of Helene's surname (from the baptism record). They lived at Rosengasse Nr. 19 at that time.

Johann Carl August Rösler was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 31st of August in 1845. The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Julius Derber, the Breslau Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) Joseph Kinscher, and the Jungfrau (maiden) Juliane Gutte who was the second daughter of the Müllermeister (master miller) Gottlieb Gutte in Nieder Schönau.

Birth of daughter Bertha Christiane Louise Rösler, 1848

Bertha Christiane Louise Rösler was born on the 7th of January in 1848. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 16th of January in 1848. Her parents were listed as the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Rösler and his wife Helene (née Sternitzke) Rösler, who lived at Große Rosengasse Nr. 19.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Haushälter (janitor) Carl Littmann, Frau Rosine (née Sternitzke) Kindscher, the wife of the Papiermachergeselle Joseph Kindscher who also lived at Gross Rosengasse in Breslau, and the Jungfrau (maiden) Louise Kraus, the oldest daughter of the deceased Breslau Brautweinbrauers Carl Krause.

Birth of son Johann Carl Gustav Roesler, 1850

Johann Carl Gustav Roesler was born at Breslau on the 21st of August in 1850. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 1st of September in 1850. The Fabrikarbeiter (factory laborer) Carl Roesler and his wife Helene (née Starnitzke) Roesler lived at Roßgasse Nr. 2 (named Belltafelstraße in 1910, near the Roßplatz and the Odertor trainstation, now the street is named Biskupa Tomaszka).

The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Schneidergeselle (journeyman tailor) Gustav Krause, Bertha (née Schaffrinský) Neumann the widow of Carl Neumann, and Pauline Rösler the oldest daughter of the Federviehhändler (poultry dealer) Gottfried Rösler.

Death of Carl Roesler, 1853

The death/burial books for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau include the record for the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Carl Roesler. Prior to his death, he lived in Breslau at Mehlgasse 28 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Ludwika Rydygiera Street). He died on the 23rd of July in 1853 from Lungenschlag (pulmonary apoplexy; pulmonary edema). He was 38 years old when he died according to the death/burial record. He was buried on the 26th of July in 1853.

1843 City of Breslau Residents:
Czarnetzky and Sternitzke

Czarnetzky, Schiffer (shipper), Laurentiusplatz 5 (now Piwna Street, two blocks east of the Botanical Gardens).

Sternitzke was identified as a family name in Breslau (by August Heinrich Hoffmann von Fallersleben) but no examples were listed in his 1843 Breslau address book.

Marriage and Children of Anna Rosine Starnitzke/Sternitzke and Josef Kintscher
1844 to 1895 City of Breslau

Birth and Confirmation of Anna Rosine Starnitzke, 1819 & 1842

Anna Rosine Starnitzke was born on the 29th of September in 1819. That birthdate was recorded on her confirmation record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 6th of February in 1842. Her confirmation was regarded as significant enough to justify a lengthy description in the church record book. Anna Rosine Starnitzke completed one year of private tutoring to prepare for her confirmation. It was noted that the confirmant had been previously unable to attend school and confirmation classes due to the negligence and poverty of her mother. The confirmation was performed privately in the sacristy by Pastor Letzner. The confirmation was one year after her sister, was confirmed by the same pastor at the same church. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Barbara Helene (née Starnitzke/Starnitzky/Sternitzke) Rösler, 1840 to 1853 City of Breslau.

The records for Anna Rosine Starnitzke (also known as Stanitzke, Starnitzky, Sternitzke and Sternitzky) have several conflicting details: the year of her birth, the names and locations of her parents, and the spelling of surnames.

Year of Birth Conflicts

The 1842 confirmation record for Anna Rosine Starnitzke listed her birthdate as the 29th of September in 1819.

The 31 August 1844 baptism record of her daughter Alwine Henriette Amalie Sternitzke listed the age of the mother Anna Rosine Sternitzke as 24 years old. That was one month before Anna Rosine's 25th birthday (1844-25=1819), confirming the accuracy of the birthdate listed in the confirmation record.

The 4 November 1844 marriage record for Joseph Kindscher and Anna Rosine Sternitzke listed the bride's age as 25. That age again confirms the accuracy of the birthdate listed in the confirmation record.

The short biography of Joseph Kintscher (from the Historical Museum of Papermaking) shows that his wife Anna Rosine (née Sternitzke) Kintscher was born in 1820. That conflicts with the birthdate listed in the 1842 confirmation record.

The death and burial record for Frau Rosine (née Stanitzke) Kintscher listed her as 45 years, 10 months and 24 days old when she died on the 11th of August in 1866. That would make her calculated birthdate as the 17th of September in 1820. That also conflicts with the birthdate listed in the 1842 confirmation record.

Details of Parents Conflicts

The 1842 baptism record for Julius Berthold Wilhelm Rösler listed his baptismal sponsor the Jungfrau Rosine Starnitzke as the third daughter of the late Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Starnitzke from Brietzen.

The 31 August 1844 baptism record for Alwine Henriette Amalie Sternitzke listed her mother Anna Rosine Sternitzke as the second daughter of the deceased Joh. Sternitzke who was the former Gutsbesitzer in Brietzen. This may mean Anna Rosine was the third daughter of Gottlieb Starnitzke, but she was the second daughter by Gottlieb's second wife Joh(anna).

The 4th of November 1844 marriage record for Joseph Kindscher and Anna Rosine Sternitzke listed the bride as the second daughter of the late Johann Sternitzke. It described Johann Sternitzke as the former Freigärtner in Langenau, Trebnitz County. This record is probably least accurate. It seems to have been based on the testimony from the wedding witness Heinrich Beckmann, who was also a paper maker at Breslau. The 1840 marriage record of Anna Rosine's sister (Barbara Helene Starnitzke to Carl Rösler) listed Barbara Helene as the first daughter of the late Joh. Starnitzke, the former erbliche Freigärtner in Langenau. Those two marriage records may mean that Gottlieb Starnitzke died at Brietzen and then his widow Johanna moved to Langenau.

The short biography of Joseph Kintscher (from the Historical Museum of Papermaking) shows that his wife Anna Rosine was the second daughter of Johanna Sternitzke. It described Johanna Sternitzke as “właściciela majątku w Brzykowie, pow. Trzeb.” (the owner of an estate in Brietzen, Trebnitz County).

Husband's Surname Conflicts (Kinscher, Kindscher, Kintscher, Kintsscher)

The 1842 baptism record for Julius Berthold Wilhelm Rösler listed one of his baptismal sponsors as Joseph Kinscher, a Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) from Breslau.

The 31 August 1844 baptism record for Alwine Henriette Amalie Sternitzke listed her father as Joseph Kindscher, the Papiermacher (paper maker) who worked in a paper factory in Breslau.

The 1845 baptism record for Johann Carl August Rösler listed one of his baptismal sponsors as Joseph Kindscher, a Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) from Breslau.

The short biography of Joseph Kintscher (from the Historical Museum of Papermaking) shows that in 1848, Joseph Kintscher was a Papiernik (Polish: paper maker) who worked at a paper factory in Breslau.

The 1848 baptism record for the twin son Ferdinand Joseph Petrus Kintsscher listed his parents as Joseph Kintsscher and Rosina Sternitzky.

The 1848 baptism record for the twin son Stephan Paul Pius Kintscher listed his parents as Joseph Kintscher and Rosina Starnitzky.

The 1866 death record of Frau Rosine (née Starnitzke) Kintscher listed her husband as the Papiermacher Joseph Kintscher.

Baptismal sponsor Rosine Starnitzke, 1842

Julius Berthold Wilhelm Rösler was born on the 27th of July in 1842. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 14th of August in 1842. The baptism record listed his parents as the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Rösler and Helene (née Starnitzke) Rösler. They lived at Rosengasse Nr. 21 in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were the Haushälter (janitor) Carl Littmann from Breslau, the Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) Joseph Kinscher from Breslau, and the Jungfrau (maiden) Rosine Starnitzke.

The Jungfrau Rosine Starnitzke was listed on the baptism record as the 3rd daughter of the weiland und gewesen (deceased and former) Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Gottlieb Starnitzke from Brietzen. The Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) Joseph Kinscher was probably the papermaker Joseph Kintscher who married Anna Rosine Sternitzke on the 4th of November in 1844. A short biography of Joseph Kintscher shows the birth date of his wife as 1820, and it identified the mother of Anna Rosine (née Sternitzke) Kintscher as Johanna Sternitzke from Brietzen. The biography shows Johanna Sternitzke was a property owner at Brietzen, who died before the 4th of November in 1844.

Marriage of Anna Rosine Sternitzke, 1844

Anna Rosine Sternitzke married Joseph Kindscher at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of November in 1844. The church record shows she was 25 years old and the second daughter of Johann Sternitzke. Johann was described on the 1844 marriage record as the weiland (late) and gewesene (former) Erbliche Freigärtner (hereditary free owner of a house and garden) at Langenau. That was the same description listed for the father of Barbara Helene Starnitzke on her 1840 marriage to Carl Rösler. Anna Rosine and Barbara Helene were sisters. In 1844, Anna Rosine Sternitzke was living in Breslau at Rosengasse Nr. 21. That was the same address where her sister was living in 1842. See the Marriage and Family of Barbara Helene (née Starnitzke/Starnitzkj/Sternitzke) Rösler, 1840 to 1853 City of Breslau.

The 1844 marriage record listed Joseph Kindscher as a 37 years old Papiermachergeselle (journeyman paper maker) who lived at Sakerau. He was a Catholic. He was the son of the late Carl Kindscher, who was a former Freigärtner at Hain near Glatz.

According to Joseph's biography, his wife was the drugą córką (second daughter) of Johanna Sternitzke, who was a property owner at Brzykowie (Brietzen) in Trebnitz County. Joseph Kintscher married Anna Rosine Sternitzke on the 4th of November in 1844. Anna Rosine Sternitzke was born in 1820. Johanna Sternitzke died before her daughter's wedding in 1844. The baptism record of Anna Rosine's daughter shows that Anna Rosine Sternitzke was the surviving daughter of the late and former Gutsbesitzer (homestead owner) Joh. Sternitzke from Britzen (Brietzen in Trebnitz County). See Book III, Chapter 2: Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County, Birth and Death of Anna Rosine Sternitzke/Starnitzke, 1819 Brietzen, 1866 Breslau.

Joseph Kintscher and Anna Rosine (née Sternitzke) Kintscher had three children:

- Alwine Henriette Amalie Sternitzke-Kintscher was born at Breslau 15th of March in 1844 (before her parents' marriage) and made legitimate on the 20th October in 1844. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 31st of March in 1844. A note on her baptism record shows Rosine Sternitzke was 24 years old when Alwine was baptized, and that Rosine married Joseph Kindscher after the birth of Alwine. Her baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Papiermacher (paper maker) Heinrich Christian Albrecht, the Breslau Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Ernst Zulauf and the Jungfrau (maiden) Amalie Heidrich (who was the oldest surviving daughter of Anton Heidrich). Anton Heidrich was a deceased and former Züchnermeister (master linen weaver) at Breslau. A duplicate 1844 baptism record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Church listed the Alwine's mother as Anna Rosalie Starnitzke. According to Alwine's death record, Alwine married the Instrumentenmacher (instrument maker) Karl Veith, who preceded her in death. Alwine lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 31 prior to her death. She died at a Breslau hospital on the 24th of April in 1895 at the age of 51 years and 1 months. Her death record stated Alwine was a Catholic and her parents, the Papiermacher (paper maker) Josef Kintscher and Rosalie (née Sternitzke) Kintscher, also preceded her in death.
- Ferdinand Joseph Peter Kintscher and Stephan Paul Pius Kintscher were twin brothers who were born on the 12th of October in 1848 at Breslau. They were both baptized on the 15th of October in 1848 at Breslau.

The short biography of Joseph Kintscher (from the Historical Museum of Papermaking) shows that in 1848, Joseph Kintscher was a Papiernik (Polish: paper maker) who worked at a paper factory in Breslau. Joseph and his wife Anna Rosine (née Stanitzke) Kintscher lived at Rosenstraße 17 (now Juliana Ursyna Niemcewiczka Street, three blocks north of Sand Island).

Death of Rosine (née Stanitzke) Kintscher, 1866

The 1862-1871 death and burial record book from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows Rosine (née Stanitzke) Kintscher died on the 11th of August in 1866. She died from cholera at the age 45 years, 10 months and 24 days old. She was buried on the 14th of August in 1866. Her husband was listed as the Papiermacher (paper maker) Joseph Kintscher, who lived in Breslau at Matthias Straße 26e.

1848 City of Breslau Residents:
Starnitzki, Starnitzky, Sternitzke and Sternitzky

Starnitzki, J., Backwarenhandlerin (a female bakery goods dealer). Hirschgasse 2, 2 Stockwerk (2nd floor) in the Hinterdom District (the streets near the east side of the Catholic Cathedral). Hirschgasse 2 was about 5 blocks southeast from the Catholic Cathedral. She may have been related to Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848) and Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871) who were also listed in that book.

Starnitzky, J., Wittwe, Waschfrau (widow, cleaning woman), Klosterstraße 31/32. This was probably the widow of the Tagearbeiter Daniel Starnitzky. Their daughter Dorothea Starnitzky lived at Klosterstraße 31 from 1838 to 1943. See the Family of Dorothea I Johanna (Anna) Dorothea Stanitzke / Starnitzke / Starnitzki / Starnitzky / Sternitzke / Sternitzki / Sternitzky, 1818 to 1849 City of Breslau.

Sternitzke, C., Bäckermeister, Goldene Radegasse 5, 1 Stockwerk (first floor). This was Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871). He was the son of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848). See the Bäckermeister Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5, 1817 to 1871 City of Breslau.

Sternitzke, E., Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer), Tauenzienstraße, 1 Stockwerk (first floor). The sort by addresses shows he lived in one of the two houses without numbers near Tauenzienstraße 22, about one-half block east from Tauentzien Platz. Tauenzienstraße is now known as Tadeusza Kościuszki Street. See the Family of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke and Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzke, 1837 to 1901 City of Breslau.

Sternitzke, F., Partikulier (the owner of a business), Goldene Radegasse 5, 2 Stockwerk (second floor). He was also the Eigenthümer (the owner of the building). This was Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848) who died in 1848. See the Bäckermeister Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5, 1817 to 1871 City of Breslau.

Sternitzke, Kutscher Wittwe (widow of a coachman), Siebenhufenerstraße 1. That address was one block southwest from the old city moat. Siebenhufenerstraße is now named Tęczowa Street.

Sternitzke, M., Kutscher Wittwe (widow of a coachman), Grenzhausgasse 4, 3 Stockwerk (third floor). Grenzhausgasse (now named Grabarska Street) is about 4 blocks west of the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. This may have been Marie Elisabet (née Stulpe) Stanitzke who was the widow of the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman) Christoph Starnitzke. See the Marriage of Christoph Stanitzke, 1824 City of Breslau.

Sternitzky, D., Rathsdiener (city council employee), Weißgerbergasse 21, 1 Stockwerk (first floor). That address was two blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church. Weißgerbergasse is now Biatoskórnicza Street. See the Marriage and Family of David Sternitzke / Sternitzky / Sternitzkj, 1831 to 1867 City of Breslau.

Tagelöhner Anton Sternitzki
April 1851 to 1852 City of Breslau

The Tagelöhner (day laborer) Anton Sternitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Karl Heinrich Robert Steiner, the son of Christiane Steiner. Christiane was the daughter of late Mauer (mason) Karl Steiner from Herischdorf in Hirschberg County. The child was born on the 31st of March in 1851 and baptized on the 6th of April in 1851 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. The other baptism sponsors were: Wilhelm Steiner and the Näthermädchen (seamstress) Friederike Baumgart.

Anton Sternitzki was probably the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Sternitzky who was listed in the 1852 Breslau address book. Data for the 1852 address book was collected in 1851. The address book listed him as a resident at Lehmdamm 4d (north of the old city, now Bolesława Prusa Street).

Helene (née Sternitzke) Büttner
1851 and 1852 City of Breslau

Helene (née Sternitzke) Büttner was the wife of the Milchpächter (dairy farmer) August Büttner. On the 18th of June in 1851, Helene (née Sternitzke) Büttner was one of the godparents for the baptism of Herrmann Oswald Staab. The baby was the son of Gottfried Staab and Anna (née Thiel) Staab. The Staab family lived two miles east of the old city walls of Breslau, in the village Grüneiche where the father was employed as a Schaffner (administrator). The Staab baptism was held at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The two other baptismal sponsors were the Kretschmer Berthold Päßler and the Milchpächter (dairy farmer) Auguste Sternitzke. Auguste Sternitzke may have been Helene's mother.

On the 10th of October in 1852, Helene (née Sternitzke) Büttner, the wife of the Milchpächter (dairy farmer) August Büttner, was the godmother at the baptism of Johann Carl Friedrich August Simon. The baptism was held at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the son of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Eduard Simon and Caroline (née Kipke) Simon. The Simon family lived at house number 5 in Grüneiche.

Marriage, Family and Death of Johanna Karoline Sternitzke
1851 to 1909 City of Breslau

Marriage of Johanna Karoline Sternitzke, 1851

The Jungfrau (unmarried woman) Johanna Karoline Sternitzke (c.1825-1866) married the Tischlergesell (journeyman carpenter) Gottfried Rudolph Benjamine Herrmann at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 14th of July in 1851 (marriage record 158). The groom was the second son of the late Bürger und Tischlermeister (citizen and journeyman carpenter) Johann Jakob Herrmann from Ohlau. The groom was 27 years old (born around 1824).

The bride was 26 years old (born around 1825). She was the eldest daughter of the late Maurerpolier (team leader of masons) Karl Sternitzke from Trebnitz.

Birth and Death of daughter Clara Pauline Selma Herrmann (1858-1909)

Clara Pauline Selma Herrmann, the daughter of Tischlergesell (journeyman carpenter) Rudolph Herrmann and Johanna (née Sternitzkÿ) Herrmann was born on the 11th of December in 1858. She was baptized on the 27th of December in 1858 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau (record number 863). The baptism sponsors were: the daughter of a Hutmacher (hatmaker) Henriette Schiersche, the daughter of a Grenzaufseher (border guard) Henriette Riedel, and the Stellenbesitzerfrau (wife of a property owner) Susanna (née Hübsch) Schneider.

The civil death record listed a different order for her names. The unmarried Näherin (seamstress) Selma Pauline Klara Herrmann died at the age of 50 years old on the 26th of May in 1909. She was a Protestant and had lived with Anna (née Herrmann) Suttmann, who was probably her sister. They lived in Breslau at Marthastraße 7 (about 4 blocks east from the southeast corner of the old city moat, now Waleriana Łukasińskiego Street). The death record listed her parents as the Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) Rudolf Herrmann and Johanna (née Sternitzkÿ) Herrmann, who had both died at Breslau before their daughter's death.

Birth of son Albert Carl Max Herrmann, 1864

Albert Carl Max Herrmann was born on the 30th of August in 1864. He was the son of the Tischler (carpenter) Rudolf Herrmann and his wife Johanna (née Sternitzke) Herrmann. They lived at Brüderstraße 20 (5 blocks northeast of the main train station, now Generała Kazimierza Pułaskiego Street). They were both Protestant. Their son was baptized on the 18th of September in 1864 at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau.

Death of Johanna (née Sternitzky) Herrmann, 1866

Johanna (née Sternitzky) Herrmann died on the 18th of October in 1866 and was buried on the 21st of October. She died at the age of 41 years old (so she was born around 1825).

She died from cholera and typhus. She was survived by her husband the Victualienhändler (trader in agricultural goods) Rudolf Herrmann, who lived at Brüderstraße 18.

1852 City of Breslau Residents:

Czarnitzky, Starnitzky, Sternitzke, Sternitzki, Sternitzky and Zernitzky

- Czarnitzky, Tagearbeiter (day laborer), Fischergasse 11 (outside the old city walls, less than one mile west of the Ring, now Rybacka Street).
- Starnitzky, Wittwe (widow), Malergasse 29 (inside the old city, now Malarska Street two blocks north of St. Elizabeth Church).
- Sternitzke, gew. Bäckermeister (gewesen, former master baker), Reuschestraße 66 (inside the old city walls, now Ruska Street, see the photographs below).
- Sternitzke, Bäcker, sep. Frau (separiert, separated wife of a baker), Neue Schweidnitzerstraße 2 (at Tauentzien Platz just outside the old city walls, now Kościuszki Plaza on Świdnicka Street). This was probably Amalie Albertine (née Tonn) Sternitzke, the first wife of Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke.
- Sternitzke, unverehelicht (unmarried), Neumarkt 18 (now named the Nowy Targ Plaza).
- Sternitzke, Witwe (widow), Klosterstraße 74 (southeast of the old city walls, now Romualda Traugutta Street).
- Sternitzke, Partikulier Witwe (the widow of an owner of a business), Goldene Radegasse 5 Eigentümer (owner the property or proprietor of a business at that address, inside the old city walls, now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street). This was certainly Rosina Sternitzke, the widow of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke who died in 1848.
- Sternitzke, Bäudlerin (female operator of a general store), Vorwerksstraße 10b (southeast of the old city, now Komuny Paryskiej Street). See the Bäudler named Sternitzky in the 1835 Breslau address book.

Sternitzki, Witwe (widow), Klosterstraße 43 (southeast of the old city, now Romualda Traugutta Street).

Sternitzky, Rathsdienner (city council employee), An der Matthiaskunst 5 (Matthias Island near the University of Breslau, now Tamka Island, see photo below). See the Marriage and Family of David Sternitzke/Sternitzky/Sternitzkÿ, 1831 to 1867 City of Breslau.

Sternitzky, Tagearbeiter (worker who was paid by the day for small jobs), Lehmdamm 4d (north of the old city, now Bolesława Prusa Street). See the Tagelöhner Anton Sternitzki, April 1851 to 1852 City of Breslau.

Sternitzky, Lohnkutscher Witwe (hired coachman's widow), Altbüßerstraße 31 (inside the old City walls, now Łaciarska Street, see photo below). This may have been Rosine (née Stolpe) Starnitzke who was the widow of the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman)

Christoph Starnitzke. See the Marriage of Christoph Starnitzke, 1824 City of Breslau.

Zernitzky, Sackträger, Nikolaistraße 64 (now św. Mikotaja Street, inside the old city, about four blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church). A Sackträger was a manual laborer involved in loading and unloading ships. See the Tagearbeiter Johann Zarnitzke/Zernitzke 1855 to 1857 City of Breslau.

Marriage and Family of Ernestine Juliane August Wilhelmine Sternitzke 1853 to 1854 City of Breslau

Ernestine Juliane August Wilhelmine Sternitzke married the Bedienter (servant) Christian Müller on the 15th of November in 1853 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau (record number 264).

The bride was 24 years old in 1853, so she was born around 1829. She was the only daughter of the late Kutscher (coachman) Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke. The marriage record did not list the birthplace of Ernestine Sternitzke. She may have been the Ernestine Sternitzke who was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau in 1829. The baptism registry for that year listed her father as the Haushälter (janitor) Sternitzke.

Christian Müller was the second son of the late Gärtner (owner of a house and garden) Johann Müller from Buchwald bei Bernstadt (in Oels County). Buchwald is now named Bukowie, Poland. Bernstadt is now named Bierutów, Poland. The groom was 29 years old, so he was born around 1824.

Birth of son Julius Paul Theodor Müller, 1854

Julius Paul Theodor Müller was born on the 21st of March in 1854. He was the son of the Bedienter Christian Müller and Auguste (née Sternitzke) Müller. The child was baptized on the 9th of April in 1854 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church (baptism record number 302). The baptism sponsors were: the widow Julie Wäcken, Pauline Demmig, and the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Robert Bahl.

Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke
25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau

Birth of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1832 or 1833

Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (1832-1898) was born at Karoschke (in Trebnitz County) around the 16th of March in 1832. That date was based on his age (66 years and 2 months old) when he died in Breslau, on the 16th of May in 1898. His death record was completed by his daughter Minna (née Sternitzke) May and Wilhelm's second wife Johanna (née Cholewa) Sternitzke. They did not remember any details about Wilhelm's parents other than that his father was the deceased Häusler (agricultural day laborer) Mr. Sternitzke. The 1858 record of Wilhelm's first marriage identified his father as the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Friedrich Sternitzke who was living in 1858 at Bruschwitz in Trebnitz County.

The 1832 calculated year of birth (based on his age when he died) is not consistent with the ages of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke as listed on the records of his first and second marriages. He was 24 years old when he married Johanna Spiller on the 25th of January in 1858, which means he was 25 years old in March of 1858 and born in 1833. He was 34 years old when he married Johanna Cholewa on the 1st of July in 1867, so again it indicates he was born in 1833. The two marriage records were based on information from the groom when he was young, so 1833 is probably correct.

The Droschkenbesitzer Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke may have been a brother of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Ernst Sternitzke, who was born around 1835. See the Family of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke, 1865 to 1912 City of Breslau.

First Marriage of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1858

On the 25th of January in 1858, Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke married Johanna Spiller at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. This was the first marriage for the bride and groom. Wilhelm was a 24 years old Kutscher (coachman) at Breslau. He was the oldest son of the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Friedrich Sternitzke who was living in 1858 at Bruschwitz in Trebnitz County.

Birth and Death of Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke (1830-1867)

Johanna Spiller was born at Kammerau in Groß Wartenberg County. She was 27 years old at the time of her marriage. Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke died from Lungenleiden (pulmonary disease) on the 3rd of February in 1867 at Breslau. She was 37 years, 2 months and 12 days old when she died, so she was born on the 22nd of January in 1830, and she turned 28 years old three days after her marriage. She was buried at the St. Elisabeth cemetery on the 6th of February in 1867. The St. Elisabeth Church death record for Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke shows that the family lived at Kupferschmiedestraße 29 (now Kotlarska Street, two blocks north of the Ring) in February of 1867.

Birth and Marriage of son Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1858 and 1890

Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 5th of July in 1858. He was the son of the Kutscher (coachman) Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke. The Sternitzke family lived at Antonien Straße 11 (inside the old city walls, 2 blocks from the southwest corner of the Salt Market, now św. Antoniego Street).

Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of July in 1858. The baptismal sponsors were: Rosina Lies (a daughter of a Bauergutsbesitzer), Christiane Malija (daughter of Webermeister) and Auguste Gerth (the daughter of a Kutscher).

The Droschkenbesitzer (carriage cab owner) Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke and the widow Anna Klara Maria (née Krause) Lellau were married at Breslau on the 21st of December of 1890. Heinrich signed the marriage document as Robert Sternitzke. Witnesses to the wedding were the groom's brother-in-law, the 31 year old Droschkenführer (coach driver) Karl May, and the groom's brother Oscar Sternitzke. Oscar Sternitzke was a 24 year old Droschkenführer (coach driver) who lived with the groom at Heinrichstraße 10.

On the 22nd of August in 1891, Robert and Anna (née Krause) Sternitzke became the parents of Fritz Robert Oskar Sternitzke. Robert and Anna were living at Altbüßerstraße 52 (now named Łaciarska Street). Fritz Sternitzke was 5 months old at the time of his death on the 16th of February in 1892. See the Marriage and Family of Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke, 29 December 1890 to 1908 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of daughter Anna Rosali Ida Sternitzke (1860-1860)

Anna Rosalie Ida Sternitzke was born on the 9th of February in 1860 and baptized at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The baptismal record identified her parents as the Droschken- kutscher (carriage cab driver) Wilhelm Sternitzki and Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzki. They were certainly Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna Spiller. The family lived at Weißgerbergasse 41 (two blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now Biatoskórnicza Street). The sponsors at the 19 February baptism were Anna Heuja (daughter of Joseph Heuja), Christiane Maliga (daughter of Christiane Maliga) and Susanna David (daughter of the Schäfer – shepherd Gottlob David). Susanna David also was a sponsor at other baptisms of Wilhelm Sternitzke's children (in 1861 and 1863).

The church death record for the baby gave the correct spelling of the family name and a slightly different address: Rosalie Sternitzke was the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver in Breslau) Wilhelm Sternitzke. She died at the age of 1 month and 14 days, on the 26th of March in 1860, from Krämpen (infantile convulsions). Her parents lived at Weißgerbergasse 14. Rosalie was buried at the St. Barbara Cemetery on the 29th of March in 1860.

Birth of the Twins

Clara Rosalie Henriette Sternitzke and Oscar Adolf Carl Sternitzke, 1861
Death of Clara Rosalie Henriette Sternitzke (1861-1864)

Clara Rosalie Henriette Sternitzke and Oscar Adolf Carl Sternitzke were born on the 5th of July in 1861. The baptismal records for the twins identified their parent's names as the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Wilhelm Starnitzke and Johanna née Stüller. They were certainly Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna née Spiller. The baptismal record listed Sternitzke family's address as Neue Weltgasse 20 (three blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now Nowy Świat Street).

The baptismal sponsors for the twins were Susanna David (daughter of the Schäfer – shepherd Gottlieb David), Henriette Frische (daughter of the Kutscher Gottlieb Frische) and Clara Korner (the daughter of the Schneidermeister Johann Korner).

Clara Sternitzky, the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzky died on the 9th of February in 1864, at the age of 2 years and 7 months. The St. Elisabeth Church record of her birth listed the cause of death as Durchfall (diarrhea). Her parents lived at Kupferschmiede 29. Clara was buried at the St. Barbara cemetery on the 12th of February in 1864.

Birth and Marriage of daughter

Emilie Minna Valeska Sternitzke, 1863 and 1891

Emilie Minna Valeska Sternitzke was the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke. Minna was born on the 11th of August in 1863 at Breslau. At the time of her baptism (23 August 1863) the Sternitzke family lived at Oder Straße 8 (2 blocks northeast of the St. Elisabeth Church, now Odrzańska Street). The St. Elisabeth Church registry of baptisms listed Wilhelm Sternitzke as Stärnitzke. The baptism record has the name Stärnitzke lined out and replaced with Sternitzke.

The baptismal sponsors were Susanna David (the daughter of a Schäfer), Henriette Frisch (the daughter of a Kutscher) and the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Gottlieb David.

Emilie Minna Valeska Sternitzke married the Droschkenführer (coach driver) Johann Karl Josef Maÿ at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of September in 1889. They were protestants. Prior to the wedding, Minna lived at Wäldchen 23 and Karl lived at Schrotgasse 5 in Breslau. See the Family of Karl May and Emilie Minna Valeska née Sternitzke, 1889 to 1913 City of Breslau.

Birth and Marriage of son
Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 1865 and 1894

Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 31st of December in 1865. He was the son of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke from Breslau. Oskar was baptized at Breslau on the 14th of January in 1866 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant church. The family lived at Kupferschmiedestraße 29 (now Kotlarska Street, two blocks north of the Ring). In legal documents Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke was identified as Oscar Sternitzke.

Oscar Sternitzke was a witness at his brother's wedding on the 29th of December in 1890. Oscar Sternitzke was then a 24 year old Droschkenführer (coach driver) who lived with the groom Heinrich Sternitzke at Heinrichstraße 10. See the Marriage and Family of Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke, 29 December 1890 to 1908 City of Breslau.

Oscar Sternitzke was still living at Heinrichstraße 10 three years later, when he was identified as a 27 years old Droschkenkutscher and a witness at the wedding of the Kutscher (coachman) Karl Franz Pankalla and Anna Franzisca Melzer.

On the 18th of October in 1894, Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke married Bertha Agnes Auguste Schael (Schäl). Both the bride and the groom were Protestants. Oscar was employed as a Fleischer (butcher) and still living at Heinrichstraße 10. Karl May was a witness at Oscar's wedding. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 18 October 1894 to 1937 City of Breslau.

The Breslau city address books have some related information. In 1915, a Droschkenkutscher (cab driver) named Oskar Sternitzke was living at Frankfurter Straße 127 II (now Legnicka Street), in a far northwest section of Breslau near the Pöpelwitz train station. An Oskar Sternitzke was listed as a Fleischer (butcher) living at Frankfurter Straße 127 II address in 1923, 1927, 1931 and 1934. He was listed as retired in 1937 and not listed in later address books.

Second Marriage of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1867

Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke died on the 5th of February in 1867, between the 1865 birth of Carl Richard Oscar and the 1868 birth of Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke. Wilhelm's second wife was Johanna (née Cholewa). That was the spelling of her maiden name on their marriage record in 1867. Her maiden name was also written as Cholewa on the 1868 baptism record of their son Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke and on Paul's 1896 marriage record. Her maiden name was written as Johanna Kollewa on her daughter Anna's 1869 baptism record, and Kalewa on the 1872 baptism record for her son Hermann. The misspelling of Johanna's last name may have been because the documents to request the baptisms were completed by a midwife. The Taufberichte document for Hermann was also the only document found that listed Johanna as a Catholic. All other documents listed her as a Protestant. Johanna's maiden name was written as Holewa on the death record for her husband in 1898. The misspellings were probably because Johanna could not write her name. She signed her husband's death record with + + +.

Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke married Johanna Cholewa on the 1st of July in 1867 at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. Wilhelm was a 34 years old widow, and he was employed as a Droschkenkutscher at Breslau. Johanna was the 33 years old daughter of Christian Cholewa, a Lohnknecht (paid servant) in Neudorf, in Kreuzburg County. Based on their ages on the marriage record, Wilhelm was born around 1833 and Johanna was born around 1834. See the discussion below regarding the death of Johanna in 1912.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke, 1868, 1896 and 1899

Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 12th of February in 1868. He was the son of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna (née Cholewa) Sternitzke. The family still lived at Kupferschmiedestraße 29. Paul was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 15th of March in 1866. The baptismal sponsors were: the Haushälter (janitor) August Seifert, the Haushälter Oscar Sabath and Pauline Grundmann (the daughter of a Stellenbesitzer). The St. Elisabeth Taufbericht (application for a baptism) listed the father as Wilhelm Sternitzki, but he signed the document as Sternitzke. The mother's maiden name was listed as Johanna Kollewe. Wilhelm was a Protestant. Johanna was listed as a Catholic.

The St. Elisabeth baptismal record listed the parents as Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna Kollewe. A correction was made to the mother's maiden name on the church record, listing it as Cholewa.

The Arbeiter (laborer) Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke married the widow Bertha (née Wolf) Giese at Breslau on the 12th of February in 1896. Their marriage record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed the groom's names in a different order - as the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Gustav Karl Sternitzke. The groom lived at Heinrichstraße 10 (now Henryka Brodatego Street, 2 blocks north of the University Bridge). The bride lived at Schrotgasse 13. They were both Protestant.

The church record listed Bertha (née Wolf) Giese as a widow and a Häuslerin (agricultural day laborer). The civil marriage record listed her as the widow of an Arbeiter (laborer) named Giese. The civil record shows that she was born on the 23rd of June in 1858 at Festenberg. She was the daughter of the deceased Maschinenheizer (boiler stoker) Christian Wolf and his wife Elisabeth (née Patzke) Wolf from Breslau.

The 1896 civil marriage record shows his brother Carl Richard Oscar Sternitzke was a witness at Paul's wedding. Oscar was listed as a 30 years old Droschkenführer (coach driver) who lived at Ursulinerstraße 9 (one block south of the University of Breslau, now Uniwersytecka Street). The other wedding witness was the 32 years old Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Carl Schinke who lived at Wäldchen 13 in Breslau. The signatures on the marriage record shows different writing styles were used by the Sternitzke brothers.

The Kutscher Paul Sternitzke died on the 13th of February in 1899. His widow, Bertha (née Wolf) Sternitzke remarried on the 31st of October in 1904. See the Marriage of Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke and the Remarriage of his widow Bertha (née Wolf) Sternitzke, 12 February 1896 and 31 October 1904 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of daughter

Anna Auguste Caroline Sternitzke (1869-1872)

Anna Auguste Caroline Sternitzke was born on the 18th of October in 1869. The Kutscher (coachman) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife (identified as Johanna Kollawa on Anna's baptism record) lived at Hinterhäuser 20. This was on a narrow street that ran parallel to the west side of the Blücher Platz (Salt Market). That street was shown as Krullstrasse on an 1850 map and is now known as Psie Budy Street.

Anna was baptized on the 14th of November in 1869 at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were the Kutscher Carl Urban, the Haushälter (janitor) August Seifert and Anna Fentner, the daughter of a Buchhalter (accountant).

Anna Sternetzky, the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher Wilhelm Sternetzky (who lived at Hinterhäuser 20), died on the 29th of July in 1872. She died from Lungenschwindsucht (tuberculosis) at the age of 2 years and 9 months. She was buried at Gräbschen on the 1st of August in 1872.

Birth and Death of son

Hermann Max Paul Sternitzke (1872-1872)

Hermann Max Paul Sternitzke was born on the 11th of April in 1872. His baptism record listed his parents as the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Kalewa) Sternitzke. The misspelling of Johanna's last name (Kalewa instead of Cholewa) may have because the Taufberichte document was completed by a midwife. The family lived at Hinterhäuser 20. This was on a narrow street that ran parallel to the west side of the Blücher Platz (Salt Market). That street was shown as Krullstrasse on an 1850 map and is now known as Psie Budy Street.

Max was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 23rd of April in 1872. The baptismal sponsors were Fraulein Louise Sternitzke (daughter of the Handelsmann Friedrich Sternitzke in Hochkirch, in Trebnitz County, and a Protestant), the Handelsmann (merchant) August Seifert (a Protestant) and the Eisenbahnbeamter Adam Opalofsky (a Catholic).

The St. Elisabeth Church death record book (for 1872 to 1884) includes a record of the death of Max Sternetzky, the son of the Droschkenkutscher Wilhelm Sternetzky. The address was listed as Hinterhäuser 20. Max died at the age of 8 months old, on the 17th of December in 1872. He was buried on the 21st of December 1872 at the Schmiedefeld Village Cemetery (about 4 miles west of the St. Elisabeth Church. Max died from a Halsgeschwer (an ulcer of the throat or neck).

Unnamed Stillborn Sternitzke son, 1874

An unnamed son was stillborn on the 20th of February in 1874 and was buried at the St. Elisabeth Church Cemetery on the 23rd of February. The father was identified in the death record book of the church as the Droschkenkutscher Wilhelm Sternitzky who lived at Hinterhäuser 20. That was the address of the Droschkenkutscher Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Cholewe) Sternitzke on records from 1869 to 1876.

Martha Elisabeth Clara Sternitzke (1876-1876)

Martha Elisabeth Clara Sternitzke was born on the 13th of May in 1876. She was the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Johanna née Hollewer (according to her baptism record). The family still lived at Hinterhäuser 20. The baptismal sponsors were the Kaufmann August Seifert, the Händlerin (merchant) Elisabet Sternitzke and the Schuhmacher Fritz David. The birth record for Clara Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke listed her names in a different order and listed her mother's maiden name as Kolewa. The baby's mother was listed as a Catholic on her birth record.

Elisabet Sternitzky, the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher Wilhelm Sternitzky, died on the 17th of October in 1876. She was buried on the 21st of October in 1876 at Gräbschen. Her father's address was listed as Hinterhäuser 20.

Wedding Witness Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1878

The 47 years old Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke from Breslau was a wedding witness for Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke in 1878. Based on his age in 1878, Wilhelm Sternitzke was born around 1832.

On the 29th of October in 1878, Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke married Pauline Ernestine Sternitzke. The marriage was recorded at Schimmerau, but the wedding probably took place at the Protestant Church at Pawellau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke was born on the 4th of June in 1847 at Pollentschine (now named Bolesćin) near Skarsine in Trebnitz County. He was the son the Lohngärtner Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Majunke) Sternitzke. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden. In 1878, the Arbeiter (laborer) Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke and his mother were living in the city of Trebnitz. His father had previously died at Hochkirch in Trebnitz County.

Pauline Ernestine Sternitzke was born at Pawellau on the 19th of August in 1851. She had two children out of wedlock (in 1876 and 1877) before her marriage in 1878. See Book II: the Family of Daniel Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Feuerstein) Sternitzke, 1836 to 1840 Ströhof, 1834 Striese, 1851 to 1880 Pawellau. The bride's parents, the Häusler Daniel Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Feuerstein) Sternitzke were still living at Pawellau at that time.

See the Marriage of Carl Friedrich August Sternitzke and Pauline Ernestine Sternitzke, 1878 Trebnitz and Pawellau.

Breslau Address Books 1863 to 1897

The 1863 Breslau address book listed the Droschkenkutscher (cab driver) Wilhelm Sternitzki as a resident at Kupferschmiedestraße 29 Hinterhaus II (rear of the building, second floor). Kupferschmiedestraße 29 was inside the old city walls, two blocks north of the Ring, now Kotlarska Street).

The 1868 Breslau address book listed the Droschkenkutscher (cab driver) Wilh. Sternitzky as a resident at Kupferschmiedestraße 29 Hinterhaus I (rear of the building, first floor, inside the old city walls).

The 1870 Breslau address book listed the Droschkenkutscher W. Sternitzke, as a resident at Hinterhäuser 20 III (third floor). Hinterhäuser was a narrow street that ran parallel to the west side of the Blücher Platz (Salt Market). That street was shown as Krullstrasse on an 1850 map and is now known as Psie Budy Street.

The 1884 Breslau address book listed the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) W. Sternitzke, as a resident at Vincenzstraße 13 III (third floor). Vincenzstraße (now Świętego Wincentego) was very near the station for the small train to Trebnitz, and the Oderthor Bahnhof (train station).

In 1886, the Droschkenbesitzer W. Sternitzke lived at Oswitzerstraße Augusthöhe I (first floor), but he was listed as Sternitzky in the 1886 sort by addresses. Oswitzerstraße is now Władysława Reymonta Street. It was the street that ran along the train tracks north from the small train station to Trebnitz. The Augusthöhe seems to have been a large building at the corner of Oswitzerstraße and Kletschkaustraße with apartments above Wagner's Restaurant.

The 1887 and 1897 Breslau address books listed a Droschkenbesitzer W. Sternitzke who lived at Heinrichstraße 10 on the fourth floor. This was Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke who died at that address in 1898 (see below). The 1887 Breslau address book also listed a Droschkenbesitzer Wilh. Sternitzke who lived at Neue Tauentzienstraße 71. That was probably Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke who was born in 1850 at Klein Schwundnig (in Trebnitz County) and died at Breslau in 1909. See the Death of Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 26 October 1909 City of Breslau.

Death of the Droschkenbesitzer Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1898

The Droschkenbesitzer Wilhelm Sternitzke died at home at Heinrichstraße 10 on the 16th of May in 1898. He was 66 years and 2 months old when he died. His death was reported by his daughter the Droschkenbesitzersfrau (carriage owner's wife) Minna (née Sternitzke) May, a resident at Matthiasstraße 106, and Wilhelm's wife Johanna (née Hollewa) Sternitzke. The death record shows that Wilhelm was born at Karoschke in Trebnitz County. The first names of his parents were unknown, but his father was identified as the deceased Häusler Sternitzke. Johanna (née Hollewa) Sternitzke signed her husband's death record as + + +.

The 1897 to 1899 burial record book of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church included the record for the Droschkenbesitzer Wilhelm Sternitzke. It listed him as 66 years old when he died on the 16th of May in 1898, and shows he had been a resident at Heinrichstraße 10. He was buried on the 20th of May in 1898.

Death of Johanna (née Hollewa) Sternitzke, 1912

Johanna (née Hollewa) Sternitzke, the widow of the Droschkenbesitzer Wilhelm Sternitzke, died on the 31st of March in 1912. Her death was reported by an employee at the Filialkrankenanstalt der Elisabethinerinnen Hospital in Breslau. The civil death record listed Johanna as a Catholic and a resident at Rosenthalerstraße 51/52. She died at the age of 79 years old, so she was born around 1833. The death record listed her place of birth as Neudorf in Kreuzburg County. She was the daughter of the Brenner (distiller) Christian Hollewa and Johanna (née Kuballa) Hollewa. Her father died at Neudorf. Her mother died at Kempen (a city and county in Posen).

Marriage of Daniel Sternitzke 1858 Ujeschütz, Kainowe and Breslau

Daniel Sternitzke was a widower and a Freigärtner in Ujeschütz in Trebnitz County. He married Frau Helena (née Bieberstein) Gehlich at the Protestant Church at Kainowe in 1858. Helena was the widow of the Fabrikarbeiter Carl Gehlich in the City of Trebnitz. The marriage was recorded at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. This indicates they moved to Breslau and had their marriage document recorded at St. Elisabeth because they became members of that congregation.

Bäckermeister Carl Friedrich Sternitzke Reuschestraße 10, 1858 to 1868 City of Breslau

Marriage of Carl Friedrich Sternitzke, 1858

The Bäckergeselle (journeyman baker) Carl Friedrich Sternitzke (c.1823-1868) married Susanna Eleonore Taube at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 26th of July in 1858. Carl was the oldest son of the Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Sternitzke from Groß Perschnitz in Militsch County. Susanna was the oldest daughter of the Erbsaß (hereditary owner of a country estate) Gottfried Taube in Hundsfeld in Breslau County.

This was the first marriage for both the groom and the bride. They were both 35 years old at the time of their wedding, so they were both born around 1823. The 1868 death record of Frau Louise (née Taube) Sternitzkÿ, the wife of the Bäckermeister Carl Sternitzkÿ, supports the theory that she was born in 1823 (see below).

Death of Louise (née Taube) Sternitzkÿ, 1868

Louise (née Taube) Sternitzkÿ, the wife of the Bäckermeister (master baker) Carl Sternitzkÿ died at Breslau on the 4th of January in 1868, at the age of 44 years old from Typhus (typhoid fever). Based on her age, she was born around 1823. She was buried on the 7th of January in 1868. Her death and burial were recorded at the Elftausend-Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The address of Carl Sternitzkÿ was identified on the burial record as Reuschstraße 10. The church was located at Elbingstraße 1 (about 5 blocks north of Sand Island, now Ołbińska Street). The website identified below (Ahnenforschung.net) incorrectly transcribed the death record for Louise (née Taube) Sternitzke from the Elftausend-Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The webpage listed a different spelling of the family name and it listed her year of death as 1867.

The death and burial information regarding Louise (née Taube) Sternitzkÿ were also recorded in the death records of the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The St. Elisabeth Church was the main Protestant Church at Breslau. That record referenced the original death/burial record at the Elftausend-Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The information in the St. Elisabeth Church record matches the Elftausend-Jungfrauen Church death record except for the spelling of the family name. It was written Sternitzki in the St. Elisabeth record book. That is odd, considering the family name was recorded in the same book (18 months later) as Sternitzkÿ in the death record for the Bäckermeister Carl Sternitzkÿ.

Death of Carl Friedrich Sternitzkÿ, 1868

The Bäckermeister und Wittwer (master baker and widower) Carl Sternitzkÿ died on the 24th of July in 1868 at the age of 44 years and 2 months. His address was listed as Reuschstraße 10. Based on his age when he died, he was born around the 24th of May in 1824. According to the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church death record book, he was buried on the 27th of July in 1868 at Gräbschen. The cause of death was listed as Lungentyphus. He probably died from pneumonia which is a complication from typhoid fever.

Marriage of Joseph Sterniske 1861 City of Breslau

The Haushälter (janitor) Joseph Sterniske (c.1829- after 1870) married Charlotte Friedricke Caroline Wichur at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 7th of January in 1861. This was the first marriage for both the groom and the bride.

Joseph Sterniske was the 32 years old son of the former Schmied (smith) Joseph Sterniske (c. 1799- after 1828) at Ladzidza bei Trachenberg in Militsch County. Ladzidza (also known as Ladziza) was renamed as Wiesengrund in 1939. The village is now rural Trachenberg, which is now named Żmigród.

Charlotte Friedricke Caroline Wichur was the 36 years old daughter of the Bürger und Schuhmacher Meister (citizen and master shoemaker) Carl Wichur in Medzibor in Groß Wartenberg County. Medzibor was named Neumittelwalde after 1886. It is now known as Międzybórz.

The 1863 Breslau address book listed the Haushälter (janitor) Sternitzki. He lived at Neuweltgasse 14 I (first floor). Neuweltgasse was four blocks west from the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The small narrow streets in that area are now Kazimierza Wielkiego Nowy Street.

The 1868 Breslau address book listed the Haushälter (janitor) Jos. Sterniske as a resident at Altbüßerstraße 37 II (second floor, 3 blocks north of St. Mary Magdalene Church, now Łaciarska Street). The 1870 address book listed his residence as Schuhbrücke 52 III (third floor, 2 blocks southeast from the University of Breslau, now Szewska Street).

Family of Johanne Christiane (née Sternitzky) Scholz 1861 to 1920 City of Breslau

Johanne Christiane Sternitzky was born at Bischwitz near the city of Wansen in Ohlau County, on 11th of September in 1840. She was the daughter of the Schneidermeister und Hausbesitzer (master tailor and house owner) Gottlieb Sternitzky. Gottlieb died before the birth of Christiane's daughter in 1861. The following variations of her surname were found in church and civil records: Starnitzki, Starnitzke, Sternitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzky. A note added to the baptism record of her son in 1869 indicated Sternitzky was the correct variation (see below). Christiane married Gustav Robert Scholz at Breslau in 1872. See the Village of Bischwitz bei Wansen in Ohlau County: the Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1840 to 1876 Bischwitz bei Wansen.

Birth of daughter Anna Johanna Ida Starnitzki, 1861

Anna Johanna Ida Starnitzki was born at Breslau on the 27th of June in 1861. She was baptized at the St Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 7th of July in 1861. Her mother, Christiane Starnitzki was not married. Christiane was the daughter of the deceased Schneidermeister (master tailor) Gottlieb Starnitzki, who died at the village Bischwitz bei Wansen (in Ohlau County). Christiane lived in Breslau at Ohlauer Stadtgraben Nr. 16 (the street that ran along the eastern bank of the moat, on the east side of the city, now Podwale Street).

Birth and Marriage of son Gustav Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzki, 1869 and 1903

Christiane's son Gustav Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzky was born at Breslau on the 25th of March in 1869. Gustav was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 11th of April in 1869. Gustav's baptismal record shows that his mother's maiden name was Sternitzky. The Taufberichte (application) for Gustav's baptism was completed by a midwife who wrote Christiane was the daughter of the deceased Schneidermeister Gottlieb Starnitzki. Christiane lived at Kupferschmiedestraße 31 (now Kotlarska Street, two blocks north of the Ring) next to the Kutscher (coachman) Wilhelm Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsors were the Productenhändler Wilhelm Schwarzer (a Protestant), Luise Scholz (a Protestant and the daughter of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Scholz), and the Schumachermeister Gustav Wippitsch (a Catholic). Christiane Sternitzky was a Protestant.

There must have been some confusion at the time of his marriage in 1903 regarding the legal spelling of his name, because a note was added to his 1869 baptismal record. The note (dated the 30th of May in 1903) stated his mother's name was verified to be Sternitzky by the Royal Government Department of Churches and Education at Breslau.

Gustav Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzki was employed as a Handelsmann (merchant) in 1903. He lived at Heiligegeiststraße 6 (near the south end of the bridge to Sand Island, now Świątego Duchy Street). That location was close to the Market Square and it was across the street from where the Breslau Market Hall was built from 1906 to 1908. Gustav was a Protestant. He married Klara Johanna Franziska (née Vieweger) Krusch on the 25th of February in 1903. Her address was also listed as Heiligegeiststraße 6

Klara Johanna Franziska Vieweger was a Catholic, born on the 30th of February in 1891 at Oppeln. She was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Franz Vieweger and his wife Betha (née Hoffmann) Vieweger, who lived at Oppeln. Johanna was the widow of a Mr. Matelski, and the divorced wife of the Anstreicher (house painter) Krusch.

Witnesses to the 1903 wedding were the 25 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Max Schneider and the 30 years old Hausdiener (man servant) Rudolf Scholz. Max Schneider lived at the same address as the bride and groom. Rudolf Scholz lived at Kurzegasse 68. Kurzegasse was shown on a 1896 Breslau map as Kurze Gasse. It was shown as Westend Straße on a 1941 map. It was about 8 blocks northwest of old city walls, and is now Zachodnia Street.

The 1914 Breslau address book show the Handelsmann (merchant) Hermann Sternitzke lived at Sandstraße Nr. 7 Seitenhaus I (first floor of a side house) now Piaskowa Street, the east side of the Neumarkt and inside the old city walls. The 1915 Breslau address book listed Hermann Sternitzke as a Geflügelhändler (poultry dealer) who lived at Sandstraße 7 Seitenhaus II (second floor of a side house). The 1916 Breslau address book listed the Handelsmannfrau (merchant's wife) Klara Sternitzky as a resident at Katharinenstraße 5. The 1918 Breslau address book listed the Handelsmann Frau Klara Sternitzke as living at Katharinenstraße was inside the old city walls, southeast of the Neumarkt. It is now św. Katarzyny Street.

An attachment to their 1903 marriage record shows that Gustav Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzki and his wife were divorced in Breslau on the 27th of August in 1919. The Geflügelhandlerin (poultry merchant) Klara Johanna Franziska (née Vieweger) Starnitzki died at Breslau at the age of 59 years and 7 months old, on the 5th of October in 1920. Her death record shows she lived at Sandstraße 7 in Breslau prior to her death, and that she was divorced from the Handelsmann (merchant) Hermann Starnitzki. Her death was reported by the Handelsmann (merchant) Max Matelski, who also lived at Sandstraße 7.

Baptism Sponsors Hermann and Klara Sternitzke / Sternitzki / Sternitzky
St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church, 1906 to 1920

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Klara Sternitzke from Breslau was one of the baptism sponsors for Herbert Max Fritz Georg Lux, the son of the Oberkellner (headwaiter) Friedrich Lux and Maria (née Kille) Lux. Both parents were Protestant. The child was born on the 27th of March in 1906 (birth record 881, dated the 29th of March in 1906 at the Breslau Standesamt I. The child was baptized on the 9th of May in 1906 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The child was born on the 12th of March in 1913 (recorded at Breslau Standesamt I). He was baptized on the 11th of May in 1913. The other baptism sponsors were: the Hausdiener (house servant) Henriette Röthrich from Breslau and the Hausdiener (house servant) Eugen Röthrich from Breslau.

The Handelsmann (merchant) Hermann Sternitzke was one of the baptism sponsors for Hermann Drobeck. The Handelsmann was a Protestant from Breslau. The child was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Berta Drobek. Berta was a Protestant. The child was born on the 2nd of May in 1914 (birth record 992 in 1914 at the Breslau Standesamt I) and he was baptized on the 13th of May in 1914 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The other baptism sponsors were: Helene Wutke a Catholic from Beuthen and the Arbeiter (laborer) Erich Drobek from Breslau.

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Klara Sternitzki was one of the baptism sponsors for Elisabeth Martha Matelski. Klara was a Catholic from Breslau. The child was the daughter of the Handelsmann (merchant) Max Matelski and Selma (née Satter) Matelski. The father was a Catholic. The mother was a Protestant. The child was born on the 2nd of June in 1915 (record number 1093 in 1915 at the Breslau Standesamt II) and she was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 23rd of June in 1915. The other baptism sponsor was the Näherin (seamstress) Emma Sorake from Breslau.

The Handelsfrau Klara Sternitzki from Breslau was one of the baptism sponsors for Charlotte Kandler, the daughter of the late Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Kandler and the widow Auguste (née Kabus) Kandler. The father had been a Catholic. The mother was a Protestant. The child was born on the 31st of March in 1920 and baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 18th of April in 1920. The other baptism sponsors were: the Arbeiter (laborer) Ferdinand Oldach from Maserwitz, the Arbeiter Oskar Baumann from Breslau, and the Arbeiterin (laborer) Selma Kabus from Breslau.

Marriage of Johanne Christiane Sternitzki, 1872

Johanne Christiane Sternitzki married the Maschinenheizer (boiler stoker) Gustav Robert Scholz on the 22nd of April in 1872, at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestant. The marriage record shows that the bride was born at Bischwitz (in Ohlau County) on the 11th of September in 1840. She was the daughter of Schneidermeister und Hausbesitzer (master tailor and homeowner) Gottlieb Sternitzki, who died at Bischwitz before the 1872 wedding.

Gustav Robert Scholz was born at Auras in 1846. The groom was the son of the Freigärtner Carl Scholz, who died at Auras before the 1872 wedding.

Birth and Marriage of son Adolf Paul Bernhard Scholz, 1873 and 1898

Adolf Paul Bernhardt Scholz was born at Breslau on the 8th of February in 1873. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 2nd of March in 1873. His parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Maschinheizer Gustav Scholz and Christiane (née Starnitzke) Scholz. They were both Protestants, and lived in Breslau at Kohlenstraße 14. Kohlenstraße was one block north of the University Bridge. It is now Stanisława Dubois Street. The baptismal sponsors were: Bertha Rösner the daughter of the deceased Breslau Briefträger Gottfried Rösner, the Arbeiter (laborer) Rudolph Scholz, Henriette (née Tillner) Schönfelder the wife of the Brauer (brewer) Gottfried Schönfelder from Breslau, and Pauline Hampert the daughter of the Breslau Müller (miller) Heinrich Hampert.

On the 8th of October in 1898, the Mechaniker (mechanic) Adolf Paul Rudolf Bernhard Scholz married the Schneiderin (seamstress) Martha Gulda Valarea Pätzold. The civil marriage record shows he was the son of the Maschinemeister (master machinist) Gustav Scholz and his wife Christiane (née Starnitzke) Scholz. His parents were still living in Breslau on the date of their son's wedding.

Martha was born at Breslau on 8 April 1873, the daughter of the deceased Breslau Arbeiter Heinrich Pätzold and his wife Agnes (née Fischer) Pätzold. The groom and the bride were both Protestants. The groom lived at Mehlgasse 35. The bride lived at Vincenzstraße 12.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Margarethe Elsbeth Scholz, 1878 and 1905

Margarethe Elsbeth Scholz was born in Breslau on the 6th of March in 1878. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 24th of March in 1878. The church record listed her as the daughter of the Heizer (stoker) Gustav Scholz and Christiane (née Starnitzke) Scholz, who lived at Kohlen Straße 14. The baptismal sponsors were Marie Müller the daughter of the Schuhmacher Müller, the Maurerpolier (mason teamleader) Carl Scholz from Auras, the Bureau Diener Joseph Meier and Frau Radler the wife of a Breslau Restaurateur.

The Heizer (stoker) Gustav Scholz and his wife Christiane (née Sternitzke) Scholz, who were both living in Breslau when Elsbeth was married in Breslau in 1905. The registrar who completed the 1905 Neben (duplicate) marriage record wrote the last name of Christiane as:

It appears to me that the registrar first wrote Sternitzki and then wrote the letter e over the final i.

In 1905, Margarethe Elsbeth Scholz was employed as a Näherin (seamstress) and lived in Breslau at Mehlgasse 35 (Gustav-Müller-Strasse, now Ludwika Rydygiera). On the 11th of February, Margerete Elsbeth Scholz married the Feuerwehrmann (fireman) Paul Fritz Emil Gonschyk who lived in Breslau at Breitestraße 35 (now Jana Purkyniego Ewangelisty). The marriage record identified Margarete as a Protestant and Paul as a Catholic. Paul was born in Breslau on the 25th of March in 1880. He was the son of the deceased Breslau Ober-Feuerwehrmann (sergeant fireman) Johann Gorschyk and his wife Frenziska (née Göckel) Gorschyk who was still living in Breslau at the time of the 1905 wedding.

Witnesses at the 1905 wedding included the 62 years old Schuhmachermeister (shoemaker) Julius Hierse and the 58 years old Heizer (stoker) Gustav Scholz. Julius Hierse lived in Breslau at Klosterstraße 65 (now Romualda Traugutta Street). Gustav Scholz lived at the same address of the bride, Mehlgasse 35.

Death of Johanna (née Döring) Sternitzki 28 October 1861 City of Breslau

The Arbeiters Wittwe (widow of a laborer) Johanna (née Döring) Sternitzki died on the 28th of October in 1861. Her death record at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church shows she was 79 years old and lived at Klosterstrasse 21/22 (southeast of the old city walls, now Romualda Traugutta Street). Based on her age, she was born around 1782. She died from Herzfehler (a heart problem) and Lungenentzündung (pneumonia).

Anne Susanne Döhring married the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Daniel Sternitzki at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of January in 1818. Daniel Sternitzki was 33 years old at that time, and Anne Susanne Döhring was 27 years old. So, the bride was born around 1791. See the Village of Rosenthal in Breslau County: the Marriage of Daniel Sternitzki, 1818 Rosenthal and Breslau.

Family of Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Sowieja) Sterniske 1862 to 1930 City of Breslau

The Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and his wife Sophia née Sowieja lived in Breslau in 1862 when their first son Paul Karl Franz Sterniske was born. The marriage records of her children showed several variations of Sophie Sowieja's name: Sophia Sowia, Josepha Sowija and Sophia Sowieja. Her 1905 death record, which was signed by her daughter the Heizerfrau (wife of a boiler stoker) Martha (née Sterniske) Jarausch, listed her mother's maiden name as Sophie Helene Sowieja. The correct spelling of her surname was probably Sowieja. Members of the Sowieja family were found in a Breslau church record, and in Silesian address books for Königshütte (1893) in Beuthen County and Faldowitz (1926) in Oppeln County. Sophie Helene Sowieja was born around April of 1832 (based on her death record; see below) so her husband Franz Sterniske was probably born around 1822.

Birth of son Paul Karl Franz Sterniske, 1862 Breslau

The first marriage record for Paul Karl Franz Sterniske shows he was born at Breslau on the 26th of January in 1862. He was the son of the Breslau Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Sowia) Sterniske. His father died before Paul's first marriage. Paul was married three times: to Martha Selma Agnes Sust in 1890, to Emma Clara Anna Vally Waldmannshausen in 1892, and in 1903 to Anna Maria Bertha Schneider. See the Marriages and Children of Paul Karl Franz Sterniske: 17 February 1890 City of Breslau, 31 December 1892 City of Breslau and 6 July 1903 City of Breslau.

1863 Breslau Address Book

The 1863 Breslau address book listed the Schmiedegeselle (journeyman blacksmith) F. Sternitzki. He lived at Sandstraße 15 Hinterhaus I (rear of the building, first floor). Sandstraße is now Piaskowa Street, on the east side of the Neumarkt and inside the old city walls.

Godfather Franz Starnitzke, 1864 Breslau

On the 28th of September in 1864, the Schmied (smith) Franz Starnitzke was a godparent at the baptism of Bertha Pauline Louise Gärtner, at St. Bernardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the daughter of the Schmied Wilhelm Gärtner and his wife Christiane (née Schattmann) Gärtner.

Birth and Death of son Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske (1865-1930)

Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske was born on the 21st of February 1865 at Breslau. He was the son of the Breslau Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and his wife Sophie née Soweja. See the Marriage of Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske, 21 March 1889 City of Breslau. The marriage record shows that the father of the groom was deceased at the time of the wedding.

A handwritten note at the bottom of the marriage record indicates that Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske died in 1930, and his death was recorded in death record number 422 at Breslau Standesamt I.

Birth of son Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske, 1867

Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske was born on the 13th of July in 1867, and he was baptized at Breslau on the 28th of July in 1867. The 1892 marriage record for Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske shows he was born in Breslau on the 13th of July in 1867, the son of the Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and Josepha (née Sowija) Sterniske. See the Marriage and Death of Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske, 1892 to 1917 City of Breslau.

Franz Sterniske in the 1868 & 1870 Breslau Address Books

The 1868 Breslau address book listed the Schmiedegeselle F. Starnitzki as living at Neue Junkernstraße 21 II (second floor). Neue Junkernstraße was on the north side of the Oder River, at the north end of the bridge to Sand Island. A 1900 map showed that street as Neue Junkenstraße. A map from 1850 showed that street as Herzog Straße. It is now named Jana Kilińskiego Street.

The 1870 Breslau address book listed the Schmiedegeselle (journeyman blacksmith) Frz. Starnitzke as living one block to the southwest from Neue Junkernstraße at Matthiasstraße 25 (now Bolesława Drobniera Street).

Birth of daughter Martha Susanna Maria Emilie Sterniske, 1870 Breslau

The 1896 marriage record of Martha Susanna Maria Emilie Sterniske shows she was born on the 9th of January in 1870 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Sowieja) Sterniske from Breslau. See the Marriage of Martha Susanna Maria Emilie Sterniske, 3 February 1896 City of Breslau.

Deaths of Franz Sterniske and Sophie Helene Sterniske

Franz Sterniske died before the 1889 marriage of his son Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske.

The widow Sophie Sternitzke lived at Friedrich-Wilhelmstraße 30b Hinterhaus III (rear of the building, third floor) in 1884, 1886, 1887 and 1891. That was the same address listed for her son, Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske in 1889. It was also the same address for her son Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske in 1892. Friedrich Wilhelmstraße 30 was about three blocks west of the old city walls, and it is now Legnicka Street. The 1897 Breslau address book listed the widow Sophie Sternitzke and her son Rudolf Sternitzke as both living at Fischergasse 2 Hinterhaus II (rear of the building on the second floor).

Sophie Helene (née Sowieja) Sterniske died at home on the 6th of January in 1905, at the age of 73 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old. She was a Catholic. Helene was born at Konstadt in Kreuzburg around April of 1832 (based on her age when she died. She was the daughter of Josef Sowieja and his wife Susanna (née Wobisch) Sowieja, who were both deceased, the first at Konstadt, the second died at Breslau. Prior to her death, Sophie lived with her daughter Martha (née Sterniske) Jaraus at Albrechtstraße 33/34 (now Wita Stwosza, one block north east from the St. Maria Magdalena Church).

Gottlieb Valentin Sowieja married Ann Rosine Badewig at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau in 1852. His marriage record shows that he born at Bodland near Kreuzburg. He was the son of Joseph Sowieja. Gottlieb was 32 years old at the time of his marriage, so he was born in 1820, and may have been an older brother of Sophie Helene Sowieja.

Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke (1840-1901) was born on the 1st of January in 1840. He was the second son of the Breslau Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Sternitzke. Frau Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzky, the wife of the Kattundrucker Heinrich Sternitzky died from Selbstentleibung-Erhängen (suicide by hanging) on the 24th of December in 1861. See the Family of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke and Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzke, 1837 to 1901 City of Breslau.

The history of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke (1840-1901) is known from his 1862, 1878 and 1900 marriage records, through the records regarding his children, and from the death record of his father. His surname was also recorded as Starnitzky, Sternitzky and Sternitzkÿ. His first wife's surname was recorded as Hein and Hain.

First marriage of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke, 1862

The Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke (also known as Sternitzkÿ) married Henriette Caroline Hedwig Hain on the 24th of March in 1862. They were married at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestants. Their address was Viehmarkt 10 (near the intersection of Rosenthaler Straße and Vinzenz Straße). Reinhold was 22 years old when he was married (for the first time). He was born on the 1st of January in 1840, the second son of the Breslau Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Sternitzke.

Henriette Caroline Hedwig Hain was 21 years old at the time of her wedding in 1862. She was born on the 18th of April in 1840. Her father was the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Joseph Hain who lived at Ufergasse 24.

A note on the 1862 marriage record discusses the legitimization of their child born before the marriage, and baptized in 1861 (baptism record number 308). The 1861 baptism book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the baptism of Auguste Martha Anna Hain.

Birth, Marriage and Family of daughter
Auguste Martha Anna Hain-Sternitzky, 1861

Auguste Martha Anna Hain was born on the 12th of October in 1861 at Breslau. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 1st of December in 1861. Her mother was Henriette Hain, the unmarried daughter of the Tischlergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Joseph Hain, who lived at Ufergasse Nr. 24a in Breslau. Henriette Hain was a Protestant and lived in Breslau at Viehmarkt Nr. 10. The father of the child was identified as the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Reinhold Sternitzky who also lived at Viehmarkt Nr. 10 in Breslau.

The baptismal sponsors were Bertha Hain, the daughter of the Tischlergeselle Joseph

Hain, Anna Kramer the unmarried daughter of Louise Kramer, and the Breslau Mauergeselle Theodor Wagner. Anna Maria Theresia Kramer and her mother Luise Kramer both had later marriages to the Sternitzke family. See the Second Marriage of Reinhold Ernst Sternitzke, 1878.

A note in the margin of the baptismal record states the Mauergeselle Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzky married Henriette Caroline Hedwig Hain on the 24th of March in 1862, and their daughter was made legitimate at Breslau on the 25th of March in 1862.

Adolph Philipp Karl Sternitzkÿ was born at Breslau on the 25th of April in 1880. He was baptized on the 2nd of May in 1880 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. His baptism record shows his civil birth record was recorded at Breslau Standesamt I. The baptismal sponsors were the Schiffer (shipper) Julius Ankelmann and Christiane Fischer. Adolph's mother was identified on the baptismal record as Martha Sternitzkÿ, the unmarried daughter of the Maler (painter) Reinhold Sternitzkÿ who was a resident of Breslau. Martha Sternitzkÿ was Auguste Martha Anna Sternitzkÿ, the daughter of Reinhold Sternitzkÿ and his first wife Henriette (née Hain) Sternitzkÿ.

In 1880, Martha Sternitzkÿ lived in Breslau at Hintergasse 3. Hintergasse was in the Hinterdom district of Breslau (the area east of the Catholic Cathedral). Hintergasse was shown on an 1892 map as between the St. Bernhardin Church Cemetery and the Oder River. A map from 1850 shows that street as named Schwalbendamm. That location is now near the intersection of Hoene-Wrońskiego and wybrzeże Stanisława Wyspiańskiego Streets.

In 1885, the unmarried Schneiderin (seamstress) Auguste Martha Anna Sternitzkÿ was living at Ziegelstraße 17 (first floor) in the Pirnaisch suburb of Dresden (east of the Altstadt). Her son, Wilhelm Arthur Walter Sternitzkÿ was born at her home in Dresden on the 8th of April in 1885. Her religion was listed as Protestant Lutheran. The birth was recorded by a midwife. Wilhelm Arthur Walter Sternitzkÿ died in his mother's home on the 14th of April in 1886. He was one year and six days old when he died. At that time, the Strahhutnäherin (straw hat seamstress) Anna Auguste Martha Sternitzkÿ lived at Ost Straße No. 17 (which is now Wäagnerstraße), near the south-east corner of the Waldpark in the Striesen neighborhood of Dresden. Martha's religion was listed as Protestant-Lutheran. Martha reported the death and signed the record with a different order of her first and middle names, compared to other records showing her as Auguste Martha Anna Sternitzkÿ.

In 1887, the Strahhutnäherin (straw hat seamstress) Auguste Martha Anna Sternitzkÿ and her mother lived at Dresden in Saxony. The 46 years old divorced Wirthschafterin (housekeeper) Henriette Karoline Hedwig (née Hain) Sternitzkÿ lived at Priebnitzstraße No. 16 on the north side of the Elbe River in the Neustadt district of Dresden. Martha married the Gärtner Carl Adolph Friebel at the Striesen neighborhood on the 26th of March in 1887. Their marriage was recorded at the Striesen registry office. Their address was listed at Ost Straße No. 25 (which is now Wäagnerstraße). The religion of the bride and the groom was listed as Protestant-Lutheran. The groom was born on the 20th of February in 1833 at Berggießhübel in Saxony. He was the son of the Glasermeister (master glazier) Friedrich August Friebel and Eva Rosina (née Krebb) Friebel. Martha's mother Henriette Karoline Hedwig (née Hain)

Sternitzkÿ signed the marriage record as a witness. Martha's father was listed on the marriage record as the Maurer (bricklayer or stonemason) Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzky who was living in Breslau.

Carl Adolph Friebel and Auguste Martha Anna (née Sternitzkÿ) Friebel had two sons:

- Walter Friedrich August Friebel was born on the 22nd of December on 1887. The Gärtnergehilfe (assistant farmer) Carl Adolph Friebel signed the birth record. The child was born in the family home at Blasewitzer Straße 20 (second floor) in Dresden. The religion of both parents was listed as Protestant Lutheran. A note on the birth record indicates Walter Friedrich August Friebel died in 1963 at Hamburg-Barnbeck-Uhlenhorst.
- Otto Oskar Georg Friebel was born on the 12th of June in 1895. His father, the Landschaftsgärtner (farmer) Carl Adolph Friebel signed the birth record. The child was born in the family home at Fürstenstraße 5 in Dresden. That street was renamed to Fetscherstraße in 1946.

Birth and Death of daughter

Bertha Emma Henriette Sternitzke (1862-1863)

Bertha Emma Henriette Sternitzke was born on the 10th of November in 1862. Her parents the Maurergeselle Reinhold Sternitzke and his wife Henriette (née Hain) Sternitzke were both Protestants and lived in Breslau at Viehmarkt 10. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of January in 1863. The baptismal sponsors were: Frau Christiane (née Nerz) Luse the wife of the Sattlergeselle (journeyman saddle maker) Carl Luse, and Henriette Poedell the daughter of the deceased Oeconom Erdmann Podell in Carlsruh.

A note in the margin of the baptism record shows the baby's death was recorded in the 1863 death record book of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Church, in record number 50 of that year. That death record book was downloaded and reviewed. It showed that Bertha Emma Henriette Sternitzke, the daughter of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Reinhold Sternitzke, died on the 2nd of March in 1863 from Lungenkatarrh, at the age of 3 months and 22 days old. She was buried on the 5th of March in 1863. The family lived at Viehmarkt No. 10 in Breslau. Lungenkatarrh was a term meaning the inflammation of the mucous membranes of the lungs.

Birth and Death of son

Robert Carl Heinrich Sternitzke (1865-1866)

Robert Carl Heinrich Sternitzke was born on the 16th of January in 1865. He was the son of the Maurergeselle (journeyman mason) Reinhold Sternitzke and his wife Henriette née Hain. His parents were both Protestants, and they lived in Breslau at Viehmarkt 10. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of March in 1865. The baptismal sponsors were: the Maurergeselle Carl Karwig from Breslau, Berth Hain the daughter of the Tischlermeister Joseph Hain from Breslau, and Anna Kramer the daughter of the Breslau Kaufmann Carl Kramer.

Robert Sternitzke died on the 24th of December in 1866 at the age of 2 years. He was buried on the 27th of December in 1866 at the Scheitnig Cemetery. His burial was recorded in the record book of the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The record book listed Abzehrung (consumption, an archaic name for tuberculosis). His father's name was recorded as the Maurer (mason) Reinhold Sternitzke, who lived at Scheitnigerstraße 7.

Birth and Death of son

Reinhold Carl Paul Sternitzky / Sternitzkÿ (1866-1867)

Reinhold Carl Paul Sternitzky was born at Breslau on the 29th of December in 1866. His parents were the Maurer (mason) Reinhold Sternitzky and his wife Henriette (née Hein) who were both Protestants. They lived at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 27 (two blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, shown on an 1850 map as Schwenckfeldstraße, now Benedyktynska Street). Their son was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 3rd of February in 1867. The baptismal sponsors were Dorothea Hein (daughter of Tischler Joseph Hein), Anna Kramer (the daughter of the Kaufmann Carl Kramer) and the Tischler (carpenter) Carl Hoffmann.

The St. Bernhardin Church burial record book listed the burial of Reinhold Sternitzkÿ on the 12th of March in 1867. He was the son of the Arbeiter Reinhold Sternitzkÿ. The baby died on the 8th of March in 1867 from Abzehrung (consumption, an archaic name for tuberculosis). The record listed the baby's age as 10 months old (which is an error, they probably meant 10 weeks old). The family lived at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 24 in 1867.

Birth of daughter Anna Elisabet Agnes Sternitzky, 1869

Anna Elisabet Agnes Sternitzky was born at Breslau on the 1st of March in 1869. Her parents were the Maurergesell (journeyman bricklayer) Reinhold Sternitzky and his wife Henriette (née Hein) who were both Protestants. They lived at Gross Scheitnigerstraße 16a (3 blocks east of the St. John the Baptist Catholic Cathedral, now Szczytnicka Street). The baby was baptized on the 29th of March in 1869 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were the Tischlergeselle (journeyman furniture maker) Julius Scholz, the Schlossermeister (master mechanic) Adolph Glatz and Emilie (née Foerster) Potz the wife of the Maurer (mason) Herrmann Potz.

Birth of son Reinhold Wilhelm Herrmann Sternitzky, 1870

Reinhold Wilhelm Herrmann Sternitzky was born at Breslau on the 13th of March in 1870. His parents, Reinhold Sternitzky and his wife Henriette (née Hain) Sternitzky were both Protestants. They lived at St. Laurenziamstraße 15. Their son, Reinhold Wilhelm Herrmann Sternitzky was baptized at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 18th of April in 1870. The baptismal sponsors were Carl Hoffmann, the Maurer Herrmann Poths and Wilhelm Korneck.

Birth and Death of daughter Gertrud Sternitzkÿ (1871-1871)

Gertrud Sternitzkÿ died on the 21st of August in 1871 at the age of 1 month and 27 days. Her calculated birthdate was the 28th of June in 1871. The death and burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed Gertrud Sternitzkÿ as the daughter of the Maler (painter) Reinhold Sternitzkÿ, who lived in Breslau at Michaelisstraße 1b. That address was at the corner of Michaelis Straße (now ulica Nowowiejska) and Matthias Straße (now Jedności Narodowej Street), six blocks north of Sand Island and three blocks northeast of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. Gertrud Sternitzkÿ was buried on the 24th of August in 1871. The cause of her death was listed on the church record as Brechdurchfall (cholera morbus or cholera notras).

Birth of son Edmund Arthur Sternitzkÿ, 1872

Edmund Arthur Sternitzkÿ was born at Breslau on the 19th of May in 1872. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 27th of May in 1872. His parents were listed on the baptism record as the Rouleauxmaler Reinhold Sternitzkÿ and his wife Henriette (née Hein) Sternitzkÿ. They were both Protestants and lived at that time at Michaelis Straße 1b. A Rouleaux-maler was a painter/artist who used a Rouleaux printing machine for fabric printing.

The baptismal sponsors were Anna Kramer, the daughter of the deceased Breslau Haushälter (janitor) Gottlieb Kramer, and the Maurer (mason) Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ who was listed as resident of Breslau. Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ was probably the Maurer Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1835-1902) whose children were also baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church from 1860 to 1871. He was the son of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) George Stanetzky also known as Starnitzky in Rosenthal. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubilion, 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal.

Divorce, Second Marriage and Death of Henriette Caroline Hedwig (née Hain) Sternitzkÿ (1840-1915)

Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke and Henriette Caroline Hedwig (née Hain) Sternitzkÿ were divorced between the birth of their son in 1872 and the second marriage of Reinhold in 1878. The 1887 marriage record of her daughter Auguste Martha Anna Sternitzky listed her parents as divorced, and Henriette (née Hain) Sternitzkÿ was living at Dresden.

The divorced Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Henriette Caroline Hedwig (née Hain) Sternitzkÿ married the Lohgerbergehilfe (assistant tanner) Karl Julius Peter at Dresden on the 24th of September in 1896. The marriage record does not identify the date of the divorce for her previous marriage. The marriage record shows Henriette was born on the 18th of April in 1840 at Schebitz in Trebnitz County, Silesia. She was the daughter of the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Joseph Hain and Dorothea (née Walter) Hain, who had both died at Breslau. Her religion was listed as Roman Catholic (which may have been an error - see her death record information below). She was living in the Dresden Neustadt district at Bischefsweg 17 (second floor) prior to the wedding. Karl Julius Peter was born on the 15th of May in 1835 at Zeitz in Sachsen-Anhalt. He was the son of the Handarbeiter (manual laborer) Johann August Peter and Johanne Sophie (née Wetzel) Peter who both died at Zeitz. The groom was a Protestant.

Henriette Caroline Hedwig (née Hain) Peter died at Dresden on the 2nd of January in 1915. Her divorce from a Mr. Sternitzkÿ was identified on the death record, but the date of that divorce was not identified. Her birth date, place of birth and the information regarding her parents matches her 1896 marriage record except for the maiden name of her mother - it was listed as Walther on the death record. She died at the age of 74 years old at the city hospital in Dresden. Her religion was listed as Protestant-Lutheran. She was the wife of the Lohgerber (tanner) Karl Julius Peter and lived at Große Plauensche Straße 17 (near the main trainstation in the Altstadt district of Dresden).

Second Marriage of Reinhold Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke, 1878

The order of the first and middle names of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke were listed as Reinhold Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke on his marriage record dated the 6th of June in 1878. Reinhold was employed as a Maler at that time. His birth date was listed as the 1st of January in 1840 at Breslau. He married the Jungfrau Anna Maria Theresia Kramer at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. She was born at Breslau on the 11th of July in 1846. The address for the bride and the groom was listed as Michaelis Straße 101. The bride was a 31 years old Catholic. The groom was a 38 years old Protestant. Note that Anna Kramer (the daughter of Louise Kramer) was one of the baptismal sponsors for Reinhold's daughter Auguste Martha Anna Hain in 1861.

The 1897 address book listed the Malermeister (master painter) Reinhold Sternitzky as living at Sternstraße 80 IV. That address book also listed Anna Sternitzky, the separated wife of a Maler. She lived at Laurentiusstraße 23 III. The Maler (painter) Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke and his wife Anna Maria Theresia (née Kramer) Sternitzke were legally divorced some time later, according to the death record of Anna Maria. Anna Maria Theresia (née Kramer) Sternitzke died in her home at the age of 66 years and 6 months on the 9th of February in 1913. She was a Catholic and lived in Breslau at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 25. She was listed on her civil death record as the daughter of Luise Kramer who later married the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Sternitzke. Her mother died at Breslau before Anna Maria's death.

Death of father Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke, 1886

Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke (c.1807-1886) was born around 1807 at Rux in Trebnitz County. That year of birth was calculated from his age (79 years old) when he died at Breslau on the 21st of March in 1886. Heinrich was the son of a Bauer (farmer) Sternitzke. Details regarding his parents were not known when Heinrich's death record was completed.

The death of the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Sternitzke was reported by his son the Maler (painter) Reinhold Sternitzke. Heinrich was living with his son Reinhold until his death at Seitengasse 8. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław).

The death record of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke shows he was a Protestant and a widower. His wife Johanne née Schönwald died at Breslau before the date of Heinrich's death. Based on the records for their children, Heinrich Sternitzke (c.1807-1886) and Johanna née Schönwald were married around 1837.

Third marriage of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke, 1900

In 1900, Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke was 60 years old and employed as a Kunstmaler (artist/painter). He lived at Sternstraße 80, about 3 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens in Breslau (now Henryka Sienkiewicza Street). He married the 21 years old Schneiderin (seamstress) Anna Klara Hedwig Christ on the 9th of February in 1900. Anna's address was listed on their marriage record as the same address where the groom lived. Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke signed the marriage record as Reinhold Sternitzke (shown below). He was a Protestant.

Anna Klara Hedwig Christ was born in Breslau on the 17th of January in 1879. She was the daughter of Ludwig Christ and his wife Juliane née Schubert, who were both deceased prior to their daughter's wedding, but last resided at Breslau. Anna was a Catholic.

The witnesses at the 1900 wedding were the 70 years old August Ebert and the 66 years old Karl Schwuttke.

Birth and Death of the baby Reinhold Sternitzke (1901-1901) and the father Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke (1840-1901)

Reinhold Sternitzke (1901-1901), the son of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke and Anna (née Christ) Sternitzke, was born around the 12th of February in 1901. The baby's father, the Kunstmaler (artist painter) Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke died at home at Sternstraße 80 about one week after his son was born. The father died at home on the 20th of February in 1901 at the age of 61 years and the 1 month old. Reinhold (the baby) died at home at the age of 3 weeks old on the 4th of March in 1901. The father and the baby were listed as Protestants on their death records. Both death records were signed by Anna (née Christ) Sternitzke.

Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau

Marriage of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862

Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke (1834-1910) married Dorothea Elisabet Gelfert at St. Elisabeth Church in Breslau on the 29th of April in 1862. Carl was a 28 years old Rollkutscher in Breslau at that time, so he was born around 1834. His calculated date of birth, based on his age when he died in 1910, was around the 10th of April in 1834.

Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke was the son of Daniel Sternitzke who lived at Striese, in Trebnitz County. Daniel Sternitzke was identified as a Dorfgärtner (village homeowner with a small garden) on the Striese website, but Carl's marriage record from St. Elisabeth Church showed Daniel Sternitzke was a Dreschgärtner. A Dreschgärtner was an owner of a small farm who had to provide threshing services on the fields of the lord of the village. See Book II: the Family of Daniel Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Feuerstein) Sternitzke, 1834 Striese, 1836 to 1840 Ströhof, 1851 to 1880 Pawellau.

A Rollkutscher was a delivery man (called a Drayman in English) who transported local freight by horse-drawn wagon, to and from the railroad station, within the city. A Dray was a low, flat-bed wagon without sides. A Rollkutscher was also the person who delivered beer from the local brewery.

Dorothea Elisabet Gelfert was 31 years old when she married Carl Sternitzke. She was the daughter of the Gärtner Johann Gottlieb Gelfert. He lived at the village Scheibau, two miles southwest of the town Neustädtel. The village Scheibau is now named Szyba. The city of Neustädtel was in Freystadt County, in northwest Silesia near Glogau. Neustädtel is now named Nowe Miasteczko, Poland.

Birth of Johanne Ernestine Louise (Gelfert) Sternitzke, 1858

Birth of her son Herbert Josef Sternitzke, 1892

Death of Johanne Ernestine Louise Sternitzke, 1917

A note (dated 13 May 1866) was written on the St. Elisabeth marriage record for Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke. Carl acknowledged that he was the father of Dorothea's illegitimate daughter Johanne Ernestine Louise Gelfert. Their daughter was born on the 11th of March in 1858 and baptized on the 13th of March in 1858 at Neustädtel in Freystadt County.

On the 28th of May in 1880, Ernestine Sternitzke, the daughter of the Produktenhändler Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for Oskar Adolph Oswald Raabe at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The child was the son of the unmarried mother Anna Raabe.

On the 5th of September in 1880, Ernestine Sternitzke, the daughter of the Produktenhändler Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for Hermann Ernst Pfitzner at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The child was the son of the Maler (painter) Paul Pfitzner and his wife Caroline (née George) Pfitzner.

On the 26th of March in 1882, Ernestine Sternitzke, the daughter of the Produktenhändler Carl Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for Paul Herrmann Pfitzner at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The child was the son of the Maler (painter) Paul Pfitzner and his wife Caroline (née George) Pfitzner.

On the 26th of December in 1886, Ernestine Sternitzki, the daughter of the Produktenhändler Sternitzki was a baptismal sponsor for Elsa Elfriede Pfitzner. The child was the daughter of the Stubenmaler (house painter) Paul Pfitzner and his wife Caroline (née Georg) Pfitzner. The other sponsor was Emma Georg, the wife of the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Herrmann Georg from Oppeln in Upper Silesia.

On the 22nd of June in 1890, the Nätherin (seamstress) Ernestine Sternitzke, the daughter of the Kaufmann Sternitzke was living at Wassergasse 6. This was the same address listed in Breslau address books from 1884, 1886 and 1887 for the Productenhändler (produce merchant) Carl Sternitzki (Sternitzky). Ernestine was one of the godparents for the baptism of Irma Martha Johanna Schmidt, the daughter of the Werkführer Ernst Schmidt and Clara (née Seidelmann) Schmidt. The baptism was at St. Bernhardin Church in Breslau.

On the 18th of March in 1892, Ernestine Sternitzke, the daughter of the Productenhändler (produce merchant) Karl Sternitzke (who lived at Wassergasse 6) gave birth to Herbert Josef Sternitzke at the Königliche Universitäts Frauen Klinik at Maxstraße 3 in Breslau. Ernestine Sternitzke was a Ledigen (an unmarried woman), an Arbeiterin (laborer) and a Protestant who lived at Schrotgasse 6 (now Śrutowa Street, 2 blocks north of the University Bridge). The baby's baptism was on the 18th of March in 1892 at the clinic and recorded at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. No baptismal sponsors were listed on the church record. The 1891-1894 death/burial book for the Elftausend Jungfraune Protestant Church in Breslau included the record for Herbert Sternitzke. He was the illegitimate son of the Arbeiterin (laborer) Ernestine Sternitzke, who lived at Enderstraße 9. Herbert died on the 2nd of July in 1892 at the age of 3 months old, and he was buried on the 6th of July in 1892. The church record referenced his civil death record as number 1406 dated the 4th of July in 1892 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

The unmarried Etuiarbeiterin Johanne Ernestine Louise Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 12th of November in 1917, at the age of 59 years old. An Etuiarbeiterin (literally a case worker) is a person who sews cases for items and also includes workers who sew the pages of a book together for bookbinding. She was a Protestant. Her death was reported by her sister the Schneiderin (tailor) Bertha Klara Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Waschta. Bertha was a widow. Berta and Ernestine lived at An den Kasernen 3 (now Władysława Jagiełły Street on the island northwest from the University). Ernestine's death record listed the village Scheibau in Freyßstadt County as her place of birth. Scheibau was the location of her grandfather Johann Gottlieb Gelfert identified in the 1862 marriage record of her mother, Dorothea Elisabet (née Gelfert) Sternitzke.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son
Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke (1866-1941)

In 1866, the Kutscher (coachman) Karl Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Gelfert) lived at Werderstraße 10 (on the island north of St. Elisabeth Church, now Księżca Witolda Street). Their son, Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke was born on the 4th of June in 1866 and baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 5th of June in 1866. The baptismal sponsors were the Jungfrau Auguste Werner (daughter of the Kutscher Carl Werner), the Schneidermeister Carl Steiner and the Aktuar und Agent Friedrich Conrad.

The Produktenhändler (produce dealer) Karl Sternitzke and Elisabet (née Gelfert) Sternitzke, were living at Breslau at the time of their son's marriage in 1892. Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke married Klara Anna Maria Janus on the 10th of May in 1892.

Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke died at home, at Zietenstraße 21, on the 24th of February in 1941. His death was reported by Emma (née Korsetzke) Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Gustav-Müller Straße 59. That was the address of Karl's brother Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke. Emma was probably Alfred's wife. See the Marriage and Death of Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke, 10 May 1892 and 1941 City of Breslau.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke,

In 1868, the Kutscher Carl (Karl) Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Gelfert) lived at Wassergasse 23 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. The 1868 Breslau address book listed the Kutscher (coachman) C. Stanitzky as living at Wassergasse 24. He was listed as C. Sternitzke at that same address in the 1870 address book. Their daughter Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke was born on the 27th of June in 1868, and baptized at the St. Elisabeth Church on the 12th of July in 1868. The Taufberichte document (signed by Carl) shows that Carl and his wife were both Protestants.

The baptismal sponsors were the Haushälter (janitor) Johann Alois Hubrich, Dorothea Kuhnt and the Buchhalter (book keeper) Paul Schild.

Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke married Johann Waschta in Breslau on the 30th of December in 1890. The wedding was witnessed by Bertha's brother, a 24-years-old Musiker (musician) Karl Sternitzke, and the 58-years-old pensionierte Polizeibeamte (retired police officer) Wilhelm Hapke. Karl Sternitzke lived at Wassergasse 24. Wilhelm Hapke lived at Werderstraße 6. See the Marriage and Family of Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke, 30 December 1890 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Godfather Carl Sternitzke / Karl Sternitzke, 1869, 1878 & 1892

The Kutscher Carl Sternitzke was one of the godparents at the St. Bernhardin Church baptism of Robert August Alfred Kuhnt, on the 27th of June in 1869. The baby was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) August Kuhnt and his wife Dorothea (née Stephan) Kuhnt. Dorothea Kuhnt was the godmother of Carl's daughter Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke.

The Produktenhändler Karl Sternitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Elfriede Dorothea Elisabet Kuhnt. The baptism was on the 15th of December in 1878 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The baby was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) August Kuhnt and his wife Dorothea (née Stolz) Kuhnt.

The Breslau Musiker (musician) Carl Sternitzke and Musikerfrau (wife of a musician) Clara Sternitzke from Breslau were baptismal sponsors for their nephew Alfred Johann Conrad Waschta. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of May in 1892. The child's parents were the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Johann Waschta and his wife Bertha (née Sternitzke) Waschta. See the Marriage and Family of Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke, 30 December 1890 to 1943. City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Emma Clara Marie Sternitzke, 1870

In 1870, the Kutscher Carl (Karl) Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Gelfert) still lived at Wassergasse 23. Their daughter Emma Clara Marie Sternitzke was born on the 4th of August in 1870, and baptized on the 21st of August in 1870. The St. Elisabeth Church Taufberichte document (signed by Carl) shows that Carl and his wife were both Protestants.

The baptismal sponsors were the Spediteur (freight shipper) Johann Carl Lucas (a Catholic), the Handlungsdiener Eduard Hartwig (a Protestant) and the Maschinist August Kuhnt (a Protestant). Emma Sternitzke died on the 9th of April in 1871 from Blattern (smallpox), at the age of 8 months and 5 days. She was buried on the 12th of April in 1871. Her father was listed as the Rollkutscher Carl Sternitzke, who lived at Wassergasse 23.

Birth and Death of son
Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke (1877-1946)

In 1877, the Productenhändler (produce merchant) Carl Sternitzke and his wife lived at Wassergasse 6 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. Their son Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke was born on the 22nd of November in 1877, and was baptized at St. Elisabeth Church on the 26th of December in 1877. The baptismal sponsors were the Schuhmachermeister Florian Hanke, the Arbeiter August Kuhnt and the Mauer Franz Ache.

Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke survived the Second World War. He died on the 1st of August in 1946. He was buried at the St. Stephani Evangelical Lutheran Cemetery at Helmstedt, Germany (Block 7, Row F, Grave 55). Helmstedt is between Brunswick and Magdeburg, in the German State of Niedersachsen. See the Birth and Death of Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke, 1877 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Breslau Address Books 1863 to 1897

The Breslau address book from 1863 listed the Auflader (freight loader) Carl Sternitzke, as a resident at Fährgäßchen 3 I (first floor). His Auflader position was related to his 1862 occupation as a Rollkutscher (a delivery man who transported local freight by a horse-drawn wagon). Fährgäßchen was one of the small alleys in the Bürgerwerber District (the island west from the Breslau University). Fährgäßchen was an alley south of Werderstraße (now named Księża Witolda Street).

The Breslau address book from 1868 listed the Kutscher (coachman) C. Stanitzky, as a resident of Wassergasse 24 I (first floor, now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. The Breslau address book from 1870 listed the Kutscher (coachman) C. Sternitzke, as a resident of Wassergasse 23 I.

The Breslau address books from 1884, 1886, 1887, 1891 and 1897 listed the Productenhändler (produce merchant) Carl Sternitzki (Sternitzky) at Wassergasse 6 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. In some of the address books his name was spelled Sternitzki in the sort by surnames, and it was listed as Sternitzky in the sort by addresses.

Death of Karl Sternitzke, 1910

The widow of a Zuschneider (fabric cutter for a tailor) Berta (née Sternitzke) Waschta reported the death of her father the frühere Produktenhändler (former produce merchant) Karl Sternitzke. He was a resident of Breslau at Werderstraße 43 (on the island north of St. Elisabeth Church, now Księża Witolda Street). He died at home on the 10th of November in 1910, at the age of 76 years and 7 months old, so the calculated date of his birth was around the 10th of April in 1834. The civil death record showed he was born at Striese in Trebnitz County, and he was the widower of Elisabeth (née Gelfert) Sternitzke. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Sternitzke who last lived at Striese. Berta (née Sternitzke) Waschta did not know the first names of Karl's parents, and did not know the maiden name of Karl's mother. Berta (née Sternitzke) Waschta was a resident of Breslau at An Den Kasernen 3 (now Władysława Jagiełły Street on the island northwest from the University).

Marriage of Reinhold Robert Sternitzke
May 1862 City of Breslau and City of Ohlau

The Schlossermeister (master mechanic) Reinhold Robert Sternitzke from Ohlau married Helena Grebasch on the 5th of May in 1862. They were married at the evangelische Haupt- und Pfarrkirche St. Maria-Magdalena (Protestant Cathedral and Parish Church of St. Maria Magdalena) in Breslau.

Reinhold Robert Sternitzke was 27 years old at the time of his marriage, so he was born around 1835. He was a Protestant, and the youngest son of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottfried Sternitzke. His father died at Ohlau prior to the wedding. See the Chapter 8, Ohlau County in the Breslau District, City of Ohlau: the Family of the Zimmermann Gottfried Sternitzke, 1823 to 1864 City of Ohlau.

Helena Grebasch was 26 years old at the time of the wedding. She was a Protestant, and the youngest daughter of Maria Grebasch from Breslau.

1863 City of Breslau Residents:

Stanitzke, Starnitzke, Sternicki, Sternitzke and Sternitzki

Anna Sternitzki, Witwe (widow) Gerbergasse 1 IV (fourth floor). Gerbergasse was inside the old city walls near the Breslau University. It is now Garbary Street near the University. See the Marriage and Family of David Sternitzke/Sternitzky/Sternitzkj, 1831 to 1867 City of Breslau.

Carl Starnitzke, Auflader (freight loader), Fährgäßchen 3 I (first floor). Fährgäßchen was one of the small alleys in the Bürgerwerber District (the island west from the Breslau University). It was an alley south of Werderstraße (now named Księżca Witolda Street). This was probably Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke (1834-1910) See the Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau.

Carl Starnitzke, Bäckermeister (master baker), Goldene Radegasse 16 wohnung I (lived on the first floor). This was Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke (1821-after 1871). He was the son of the Bäckermeister Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848). See the Bäckermeister Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5, 1817 to 1871 City of Breslau.

Dorothea Sternicki, Witwe (widow), Vorwerkstraße 30 Hinterhaus 1 (at the rear of the building, first floor). Vorwerkstraße 30 was one block southeast from the old city moat. It is now Komuny Paryskiej Street.

Ernst Sternitzki, Kattundrucker, Oberschleuße 1 Parterre (ground floor). The Oberschleuße was a small island between the An der Mattiaskunst Island and the Sand Island. See the Family of Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke and Johanna (née Schönwald) Sternitzke, 1837 to 1901 City of Breslau.

F. Sternitzki, Schmiedegeselle (journeyman blacksmith), Sandstraße 15 Hinterhaus I (rear of the building, first floor). Sandstraße is now Piaskowa Street, on the east side of the Neumarkt and inside the old city walls. See the Family of Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Soweija) Sterniske, 1862 to 1930 City of Breslau.

Gottlieb Sternitzki, Colporteur (door-to-door salesman). Nikolaistraße 8 Hinterhaus II (rear of the building, second floor). Nikolaistraße 8 (now named now św. Mikotaja Street) was one block west of the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. See the Marriage and Family of Gottlieb Wilhelm Sternitzky, 1854 to 1921 City of Breslau.

J. Sternitzki, Witwe (widow). Ursulinerstraße 9 II (second floor). Ursulinerstraße 9 was one block south of the University of Breslau, now Uniwersytecka Street. That address was associated with Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke and Bertha (née Schäl) Sternitzke in 1895 and 1896, but Oskar's mother Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke was not a widow in 1863. Johanna died on the 6th of February in 1867. Her husband the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke (1832-1898) was listed as living at Kupferschmiedestraße 29 in the 1863 Breslau address book. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 18 October 1894 to 1937 City of Breslau. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

R. Sternitzki, Mauergeselle (journeyman mason). Viehmarkt 10 Seitenhaus (a residence next to the main building at that address). This was Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke (1840-1901). See the Marriages, Family and Death of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke, 1862 to 1901 City of Breslau.

Ros. Stanitzke, verwitwet Bäckermeister (widow of a master baker), Eigentümer (property owner). Goldene Radegasse 5 I (first floor). Goldene Radegasse was inside the old city walls. It is now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street. This was certainly Rosina Sternitzke, the widow of Friedrich Sternitzke (1786-1848). See Book III, Chapter 1, Breslau County in the Breslau District, City of Breslau: the Bäckermeister Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5, 1817 to 1871 City of Breslau.

Wilhelm Sternitzki, Droschkenkutcher, Kupferschmiedestraße 29 Hinterhaus II (rear of the building, second floor). Kupferschmiedestraße 29 was inside the old city walls, two blocks north of the Ring, now Kotlarska Street). See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

Sternitzke, Witwe (widow) Droschkenbesitzerin (carriage cab owner). Altbüßerstraße 31 Hinterhaus 1 (at the rear of the building, first floor). Altbüßerstraße was inside the old city walls. It is now Łaciarska Street). This may have been Rosine (née Stulpe) Stanitzke who was the widow of the Lohnkutscher (hired coachman). See the Marriage of Christoph Stanitzke, 1824 City of Breslau.

Sternitzki, Haushälter (janitor). Neuweltgasse 14 I (first floor). Neuweltgasse was four blocks west from the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The small narrow streets in that area are now Kazimierza Wielkiego Nowy Street. This was possibly Joseph Sterniske. See the Marriage of Joseph Sterniske, 1861 City of Breslau.

Sternitzki, Vergolder (gilder), Schubrücke 54 III (third floor). Schubrücke is now Szewska Street near the University of Wrocław. This was Ferdinand Adolph Reinhold Starnitzke (1832-1905) who was the son of Johann Gottlieb Starnitzke and Louise (née Matzke) Starnitzke. See the Family of Johann Gottlieb Starnitzke and Louise (née Matzke) Sternitzke, 1832 to 1905 City of Breslau.

Haupt-Steuer-Amt-Assistent Ernst Sternitzke
Second Lieutenant Sternitzke
Royal Prussian Army (1863- 26 April 1864)
1863 Bromberg (Posen) and Breslau, 1864 Breslau

In 1863, Second Lieutenant Sternitzke served in the infantry of 1st Aufgebot (squad) of the 2nd Battalion (Schrimm) of the 2nd Posensches Regiment Number 19.

The Militär-Wochenblatt (an independent weekly newsletter of the Royal Prussian Army) reported the following Landwehr transfer for Second Lieutenant Sternitzke. On the 15th of September in 1863, Second Lieutenant Sternitzke was transferred from the 1st Aufgebot (squad) of the 2nd Battalion (Schrimm) of the 2nd Posensches Regiment Number 19, to the 2nd Battalion (Bromberg) of the 3rd Pommersches Regiment Number 14.

The formal names for these regiments were:

- the Infantry Regiment von Courbière (2nd Posen) Number 19 (1813), probably named for Prussian Military Governor (of West Prussia from 1807 to 1809) Field Marshal Wilhelm René de l'Homme de Courbière (1733-1811), and
- the Infantry Regiment Graf Schwerin (3rd Pomerania) Number 14 (1813), named after the Prussian General Field Marshal Kurt Christoph Count von Schwerin (1684-1757).

The Militär-Wochenblatt (Number 47 from 1863) reported that on the 13th of November of 1863, Second Lieutenant Sternitzke was transferred from the 1st Aufgebot of the 2nd Battalion (Bromberg) of the 3rd Pommersches Regiment Number 14.

The Haupt-Steuer-Amt-Assistent (main tax office assistant) Sternitzke from the provincial tax administration at Bromberg (in Posen) transferred to Breslau where he worked in the same capacity. This was reported in the 9th of October 1863 issue of the Amtsblatt der Königlichen Preußischen Regierung zu Bromberg.

The 1864 death record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau included the death and burial record for Ernst Sternitzke. He was listed as the Kgl. Landwehr Leutnant und Haupt Steuer Amts Assistent, who had lived at Michaelisstraße 5. He died on the 26th of April in 1864 from Lungenschwindsucht (tuberculosis) at the age of 29 years, 1 month and 4 days. That would make his calculated birth date the 22nd of March in 1835. He was buried on the 30th of April in 1864. Michaelisstraße is now Nowowiejska Street (about 5 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island).

The Militär-Wochenblatt (Number 34 from 1864) reported that Second Lieutenant Sternitzke in the 1st Battalion (Breslau) of the 3rd Niederschlesisches (Lower Silesian) Regiment Number 10 (of the 6th Army Corps) died on the 26th of April in 1864. This was during the Second Schleswig War (1 February to 30 October 1864) in which Austria and Prussia were allies against Denmark.

The May 1864 issue of the Schlesische Provinzialblätter reported the death of the Central-Haupt-Steuer-Amt-Assistent Sternitzke at Breslau.

Marriage of Karoline Sternitzke 15 January 1865 City of Breslau

Karol. (probably Karoline) Sternitzke married a Brunnenbauer (well digger) named Mr. Patschureck at St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau on the 15th of January in 1865. Mr. Patschureck was from the city Oltaschin. See the City of Oltaschin in Breslau County: the Family of Caroline Sternitzke, 1863 to 1865.

The city named Oltaschin was renamed as Herzogshufen in 1937 and had a population of 1386 in 1939. It is now known as Oltaszyn and Wrocław-Oltaszyn.

A grocery store now occupies the site where the St. Salvator Church was located.

The 1887 death and burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows that the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage cab owner) Ernst Sternitzke lived at Große Dreilindengasse 12b in Breslau before his death. He died on the 11th of September in 1887 at the age of 52 years and 4 months old. That would make his calculated birth date as around May in 1835. He was buried on the 14th of September in 1887. He was listed as a Protestant on the burial record. The church record identified his civil death record as number 3909 dated the 12th of September in 1887 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

The Droschkenbesitzer Ernst Sternitzke may have been a brother of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, who was born around 1833. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau. The 1858 record of Wilhelm's first marriage identified his father as the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Friedrich Sternitzke who was living in 1858 at Bruschwitz in Trebnitz County.

Ernst Sternitzke may have been a brother of Johanna (née Sternitzke) Kretschmer from Gräbschen. Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke, the wife of the Droschkenkutscher Carl Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for Johann Carl Paul Kretschmer in 1869. She was listed as Rosina (née Groll) Sternitzke, the wife of the Droschkenkutscher Ernst Sternitzke on the baptism records for Ernst Paul Hermann Kretschmer in 1871, and Anna Rosina Maria Kretschmer in 1873.

The history of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke is known primarily through the information regarding their children and from the Breslau address books. The baptisms records for their children show that Ernst and his wife were both Protestants.

Birth and Death of son Carl Richard Max Sternitzke (1865-1866)

Carl Richard Max Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 29th of April in 1865. His father, the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke lived at Weißgerbergasse 34 (two blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now Biatoskórnicza Street). The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. His baptismal sponsors were the Droschkenkutscher Carl Kroll, the Kutschersfrau Hedwig Ulbrich and the Schleußerin (maid) Auguste Kroll.

Richard Sternitzke, the son of the Droschkenkutscher Ernst Sternitzke died from cholera on the 13th of August in 1866, at the age of 1 year and 3 months. The Sternitzke family still lived at Weißgerbergasse 34 at that time. Richard was buried at the St. Barbara Church Cemetery on the 16th of August in 1866.

Godmother Rosine (née Kroll) Starnitzke, 1865

Rosine (née Kroll) Starnitzke, the wife of the Breslau Droschkenkutscher Ernst Starnitzke was one of the three sponsors for the baptism of Anna Dorothea Helene Kroll. The baby was the daughter of the unmarried Auguste Kroll from Oswitz. Auguste Kroll was a Protestant, and the daughter of the Lohngärtner Martin Kroll in Oswitz. The baby was born on the 27th of October in 1865 and baptized on the 5th of November in 1865 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The other baptismal sponsors were: Anna Kroll the daughter of Martin Kroll in Oswitz, and Caroline (née Kroll) Oswald the wife of the Tagarbeiter Gottlieb Oswald.

Birth, Family and Death of Auguste Rosina Ida Sternitzke (1867–1912)

Auguste Rosina Ida Sternitzke was the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke. Ida was born on the 7th of July and baptized on the 21st of July in 1867 (record number 429). She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism sponsors were: the Restaurateur Robert Lange, the Schleußerin (maid) Auguste Raschel and the Köchin (cook) Auguste Kroll.

According to her death record, Ida (née Sternitzke) Postleb died at the Menzel-Hancke Krankenhaus in Breslau on the 28th of January in 1912, at the age of 44 years and 6 months old. Her death record identified her as a Protestant and the widow of the Heizer (stoker) Fritz Postleb. The death record listed her deceased parents as the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage cab owner) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke, who both died at Breslau. Ida's residence was listed as Gräbschener Straße 89 (about 8 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Grabiszyńska Street).

Children of Auguste Rosina Ida (née Sternitzke) Postleb:

Auguste Rosina Ida Sternitzke gave birth to two children out of wedlock. Elfrieda Thusnelda Sternitzke was born in 1885. Otto Fritz Oskar Sternitzke was born in 1887. A note on the baptism record of Elfrieda Thusnelda Sternitzke shows Ida married the Arbeiter (laborer) Friedrich Postleb on the 17th of March in 1888.

Ida Sternitzke gave birth to a daughter, Elfrieda Thusnelda Sternitzke, at Breslau on the 4th of May in 1885. The child was baptized on the 10th of May in 1885 (record number 264) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism record shows the child's birth was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I. The baptism sponsors were: the unmarried woman Auguste Oswald, Friedrich Koch and Hanz Postleb. A note on the baptism record shows the Arbeiter Friedrich Postleb made the child legitimate by marrying the mother on the 17th of March in 1888 (record number 292 in 1888). Elfriede Thusnelda Sternitzke may have been the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Elfrieda Postleb who was a baptismal sponsor for Martha Ida Postleb in 1902 (see below).

Ida Sternitzke gave birth to a son on the 17th of August in 1887. Otto Fritz Oskar Sternitzke was born at Breslau. His mother, the ledigen Arbeiterin (unmarried laborer) Ida Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Große Dreilindengasse 12b (near the Klein Bahnhof - small trainstation to Trebnitz, now Ptasia Street, about 7 blocks north of the University Bridge). Ida Sternitzke was a Protestant. The birth was recorded by the midwife Pauline Bluschke. Otto Fritz Oskar Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 9th of October in 1887. His baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Photographer Heinrich Postleb, the Breslau Schneiderin (tailor) Emma Scholz and the Droschkenbesiterin Johanna Sternitzke. The baptism record listed Ida Sternitzke as the daughter of the deceased Breslau Droschkenbesitzer Ernst Sternitzke. Ernst had died on the 11th of September in 1887. Otto Fritz Oskar Sternitzke died on the 10th of November in 1887 at the age of 2 months and 24 days. The burial record shows the unmarried Arbeiterin (laborer) Ida Sternitzke was living at Große Dreilindengasse 12b. The church record listed the civil death record as number 4661 dated the 11th of November in 1887 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Friedrich Postleb and Ida (née Sternitzke) Postleb had at least ten children who were all born at Breslau. Details regarding each child follow this list:

- Arthur Oskar Friedrich Wilhelm Postleb was born in 1888,
- Anna Emma Clara Postleb was born in 1889,
- Max Friedrich Julius Postleb was born in 1891,
- Elsbet Rosalie Clara Postleb was born in 1892,
- Ida Clara Postleb was born on the 31st of March in 1894, and died in 1894,
- Gertrud Agnes Bertha Postleb was born on the 17th of July in 1895,
- Charlotte Martha Postleb was born on the 28th of October in 1896,

Adolf Robert Max Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 10th of May in 1871. At that time, the Kutscher (coachman) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife lived at Hinterhäuser 20. This was on a narrow street that ran parallel to the west side of the Blücher Platz (Salt Market). That street was shown as Krullstrasse on an 1850 map and is now known as Psie Budy Street. It was named for the Breslau merchant and social worker Johann Georg Krull. There may have been a family connection between Rosina Kroll and Johann Georg Krull. Rosina's maiden name was written as Krull on the 1869 Taufberichte for their other son Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke.

Adolf Robert Max Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 28th of May in 1871. The baptismal sponsors for Max were the Arbeiter Adolf Müller (a Protestant), Anna Lange (the wife of the Restaurateur Robert Lange) and Auguste Wachsmann (a Catholic and the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer, property owner August Wachsmann). The Taufberichte for Max shows that Ernst and Rosina Sternitzke were both Protestants. Ernst signed the document.

The Droschkenführer Max Sternitzke lived at Trebnitzer Chaussee 8 in 1896. A Breslau city map from 1905 shows the Trebnitzer Chaussee ran from the train station near the Trebnitzer Platz to the Rosenthaler Bridge. It is now Trzebnicka Street. Max was the godfather at the baptism of his nephew Alfred Max Berger, the son of Hermann Berger and Martha née Sternitzke, on the 26th of December in 1896.

The unmarried Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Max Sternitzke was 28 years and 10 months old when he died on the 2nd of April in 1900. Ernst Wilhelm Richard Sternitzke was born on the 27th of May in 1875. The Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke were both Protestants. They lived at Moritzstraße in the building called the Lutherischen Hause. The baby was born at their home. Moritzstraße (now known as Lubuska Street) is about 7 blocks west of the main trainstation. Ernst Sternitzke signed the birth record.

Birth and Death of son Arthur Emil Alfred Sternitzke (1876-1876)

The civil birth record for Arthur Emil Alfred Sternitzke was at the Breslau Standesamt

(registry office) number I. The original record was not available from the website of the National Archive in Wrocław. The Archive only published a transcription of the 1876 birth registry from the Breslau Standesamt I. That transcription listed Arthur Emil Alfred Sternitzke as having been born at Breslau on the 4th of October in 1876.

The church records for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the names of the child in a different order. It showed Emil Arthur Alfred Starnitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on 30th of October in 1876. His parents were listed as the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage cab owner) Ernst Starnitzke and his wife Rosina (née Kroll) Starnitzke. The baptismal sponsors were: Frau Droschkenbesitzer Starnitzke from Breslau (probably the baby's mother), Frau Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Kretschmer from Breslau, and the Haushälter (janitor) Ernst Zuder from Breslau. A note in the margin of the church baptism record indicates the baby's death and burial record (at the church) was number 820 in 1876. That record was downloaded and reviewed. It showed that Emil Arthur Alfred Starnitzke was the son of the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Ernst Starnitzke (also known as Sternitzke) who lived at Mehlgasse 14 in Breslau. The child was 2 months and 4 days old when he died. He was buried on the 11th of December in 1876. The cause of death was listed as Darmkatarrh (now called enteritis) which is an inflammation of the intestinal tract, especially of the small intestine.

The civil death record for Arthur Emil Alfred Sternitzke was downloaded from Ancestry.com. He was the son of the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Rosine (née Kroll) Sternitzke. Arthur died at the age of 9 weeks old, on the 8th of December in 1876. - Gen.XI-308. Selma Bertha Martha Starnitzkÿ (1869-1871) Breslau.

Marriage of the Schneidergeselle Wilhelm Theodor Starnitzkÿ, 1868

The Schneidergeselle (journeyman tailor) Wilhelm Theodor Starnitzkÿ married Johanna Louise Brinke on the 6th of January in 1868. A website with transcriptions of Breslau church records incorrectly listed the date of their marriage as the 6th of January in 1867. They were married at the evangelische Haupt- und Pfarrkirche St. Maria Magdalena (Protestant Cathedral and Parish Church of St. Maria Magdalena) in Breslau.

Wilhelm Theodor Starnitzkÿ was 26 years old at the time of his marriage, so he was born around 1841 at Pirschen in Trebnitz County. He was a Protestant, and the youngest son of the deceased Müllermeister Gottlieb Starnitzkÿ. His father died at Neudorf near Juliusburg in Öls County. See the Death of Gottlieb Sternüske/Sternitzke, 1848 Neudorf.

Johanna Louise Brinke was also 26 years old at the time of her marriage. She was also a Protestant. She was the oldest daughter of the Tischler (carpenter) Friedrich Brinke from Strachau near the city Zobten.

Baptism Sponsor Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1868

The Schneidergeselle Wilhelm Sternitzke was one of the godfathers at the baptism of Elise Hulda Pauline Lautner, at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 3rd of May in 1868. The baby was the daughter of the Schneidergeselle Heinrich Lautner and his wife Johann (née Hensel) Lautner.

Birth and Death of daughter Selma Bertha Martha Starnitzkÿ, 1869-1871

Selma Bertha Martha Starnitzkÿ was born on the 5th of January in 1869. Her parents, the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ and Louise née Brinke were both Protestants and lived in Breslau at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße Nr. 48 (now Benedyktyńska Street, four blocks northeast of St. John the Baptist Cathedral). The baby was baptized on the 14th of February in 1869 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Schneidermeister (master tailor) Johann Jaekel, Anna Scholz the daughter of the Breslau Haushälter (janitor) August Scholz, and Maria Bessler the daughter of the Breslau Strassenaufseher (street foreman) Bernhard Bessler.

A note in the margin of the baptism record shows Selma Bertha Martha Starnitzkÿ died in 1871, as was recorded in the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church Death Record Book, record number 246. That record book was downloaded and reviewed. Selma Bertha Martha Starnitzkÿ, the daughter of the Schneidermeister Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ, died on the 31st of May in 1871. The cause of death was listed as Scrophula'sen Knochemleiden, which may have been bone tumors. She died at the age of 2 years, 4 months and 26 days. She was buried on 3rd of June in 1871. The death/burial record shows the family lived at Adalbertstraße 7 at that time, which was their address in 1870 according to the Breslau address book.

The 1870 Breslau address book listed the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Wilhelm Starnitzky as living at Adalbertstraße 7 IV (fourth floor, now 2 blocks east from the Catholic St. John the Baptist's Cathedral). Adalbertstraße is now named Kardynała Stefana Wyszyńskiego Street.

The 1884 Breslau address book listed the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Wilhelm Sternitzky as living at Weinstraße 14 II (1 block north of the Botanical Gardens, now Stanisława Żeromskiego Street) in 1884. In 1886, 1887 and 1891 he was living at Neue Junkernstraße 6 II. Neue Junkernstraße was shown as Herzogstraße on an 1850 map, 4 blocks northeast from the University Bridge and 3 blocks west of the Botanical Gardens, now Jana Kilińskiego Street). The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Schneidermeister Wilhelm Sternitzky at Lehmdamm 15 I (first floor, 1 block north of the Botanical Gardens, now Bolesława Prusa Street). That address was two blocks south east from his Weinstraße 14 address in 1884.

Wedding Witness Wilhelm Starnitzky, 1909

In 1909, he was still living at Lehmdamm 15. On the 4th of January in 1909, Wilhelm Starnitzky was 67 years old Schneidermeister (master tailor) who was a witness at the Breslau wedding of the Volksschullehrer (elementary school teacher) Fritz Karl Otto Schmidt and Emma Lucia Eleonore Ouvrier. Based on his age at the time of the wedding, Wilhelm Starnitzky was born around 1842.

Death of Johanna Starnitzke, 1909

The Hausbesitzer Ehefrau (house owner's wife) Johanna Starnitzke died on the 28th of September in 1909, at the age of 68 years and 1 month. Her calculated birthdate was around September in 1841. She was buried on the 1st of October in 1909. The death and burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed her address as Lehmdamm 15.

The Rentier (pensioner) Wilhelm Theodor Starnitzke signed the civil death record for his wife Johanna Luise (née Brinke) Starnitzke on the 29th of September in 1909. She was a Protestant and died at their home at Lehmdamm 15 in Breslau on the 28th of September. He reported that she died at the age of 68 years and 1 month. She was born at Michelsdorf in Schweidnitz County around the 28th of August in 1841. She was the daughter of the Tischler (carpenter) Johann Friedrich Brinke and Johanna Elisabeth (née Brucksch) Brinke who both died at Strachau in Nimptsch County. The death record was signed by Wilhelm Starnitzke.

The Rentier (pensioner) Wilhelm Starnitzky was listed in the 1914 Breslau address book but not in the 1915 book. He may have died after the data collection in 1913 for the 1914 book, but before the data collection in 1914 for the 1915 book.

The 1914 Breslau address book listed his address as Vorderbleiche 4 III (third floor). Vorderbleiche was the name of the island in the Oder River, between the University bridge and Sand Island. Vorderbleich Island is now named Słodowa Island.

Bäckermeister* Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Anna Rosina Dorothea née Hoffmann) Sternitzke
1868 to 1918 City of Breslau

Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born on the 30th of August in 1829 at Brietzen in Trebnitz County. Heinrich's wife reported on his death record that he was the son of Heinrich Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Generlich) Sternitzke. This was probably Heinrich Sternitzke (junior, 1799-1887) from Brietzen. Heinrich (the father) was listed as a Freibauer (free farmer) on his son's 1868 marriage record, and as a Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) on his son's 1905 death record. Heinrich (the son) moved to Breslau where he was employed as a Bäckergesell (journeyman baker) and was a Bäckermeister (master baker) in March of 1866. See Book III, Chapter 2: Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County,.

Godfather Heinrich Sternitzke/Starnitzke, 1853, 1859 and 1866

Three Bäckergesellen (journeymen bakers) Heinrich Starnitzke, Karl Seidel and Ernst Humpfer were godfathers at the baptism of Theodor Heinrich Carl Röhnert on the 6th of June in 1853. The baptism was at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the son of the Bäckergeselle (journeyman baker) Theodor Röhnert and his wife Rosalie (née Holtzapfel) Röhnert who lived at Hirschstraße 13 (about three blocks southeast from the Botanical Gardens).

The Bäcker Heinrich Sternitzke was a godfather at the baptism of Reinhold Heinrich August Jokisch on the 3rd of July in 1859. The baptism was at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the son of the unmarried mother Thusnelde Jokisch (the daughter of the deceased teacher Julius Jokisch).

The Bäckergeselle (journeymen baker) Heinrich Sternitzke, was one of the godparents at the baptism of Gustav Heinrich Oskar Kampe on the 14th of January in 1866. The child was the son of the Bäckergeselle Johann Gottlob Kampe and his wife Anna (née Winkler) Kampe.

The Bäckermeister Heinrich Starnitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Carl Paul Max Starnitzke on the 11th of March in 1866 at St. Bernhardin Church. The infant was the son of the Colporteur (door-to-door salesman) Gottlieb Starnitzke and his wife Louise (née Demmig) Starnitzke.

Marriage of Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1868

On the 2nd of June in 1868, the Breslau Bäckermeister Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke married the Jungfrau Anna Rosina Dorothea Hoffmann at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestant. Anna was the daughter of the Auszügler (retired farmer) Gottlieb Hoffmann in Poppelwitz (in Ohlau County). Anna was born on the 29th of August in 1843 at Poppelwitz.

The Bäckermeister Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke lived with his wife Anna (née Hoffmann) Sternitzke at Mehlgasse 39 in 1884 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Ludwika Rydygiera Street). He was not listed in the 1886 or 1887 address books. The 1897 Breslau address book listed a Bäcker (baker) named Heinrich Sternitzke who lived at Neuweltgasse 5 III (third floor, about 4 blocks west of the Salt Market, ½ block north of Reuschestraße). Goldene Radegasse became Neuweltgasse at the intersection of Reuschestraße. The small narrow streets in that area have been combined to form the new Kazimierza Wielkiego Nowy Street. Heinrich Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke lived with his wife Anna (née Hoffmann) Sternitzke at Mehlgasse 35 when Heinrich died in 1905.

Godmother Anna Sternitzke, 1888

The Bäckerfrau (wife of a baker) Anna Sternitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Helene Margarethe Kubatschek at St. Bernhardin Church on the 8th of October in 1888. The infant was the daughter of the Arbeiter Friedrich Kubatschek and his wife Caroline (née Lerche) Kubatschek.

Wedding Witness Heinrich Sternitzke, 1900

In 1900, Heinrich Sternitzke was a 70 years old Bäcker (baker) living in Breslau at Mehlgasse 35 (about 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Ludwika Rydygiera Street). On the 20th of July in 1900, Heinrich was a witness at the wedding of the Bäcker Johann Heinrich Wilhelm Rupprecht and the widow of the Bäcker Rosemann, Roselin Henrietta (née Eppler) Rosemann. The Bäcker Johann Heinrich Wilhelm Rupprecht was a Protestant, born on the 12th of October in 1851 at Trebnitz. He lived in Breslau at Sternstraße 69 (3 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Henryka Sienkiewiczza Street). He was the son of the deceased Ziegelmeister (brick layer) Gottlieb Rupprecht from Karoschke in Trebnitz County, and his wife Susanne (née Wiesner) Rupprecht, who were last living at Lossen in Trebnitz County. The other witness to the Rupprecht wedding was the 49 years old Bäcker (baker) Anton Buschta. He was living at Laurentiusstraße 5 (2 blocks southeast from the Botanical Gardens, now Piwna Street).

Death of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1905

On the 24th of October in 1905, Anna (née Hoffmann) Sternitzke reported that her husband Heinrich Sternitzke died at home at Mehlgasse 35, at the age of 76 years and 1 month old. His occupation was listed as a früher Bäcker (former baker). He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Generlich) Sternitzke who both died at Brietzen before their son's death. The Generlich and Gnerlich family name variations were both in use in the 19th century in Breslau and Trebnitz Counties.

The 1914, 1915 and 1916 Breslau address books listed Anna Sternitzke (maiden name Anna Herrmann), who was a Bäcker Wittwe (baker's widow) who lived at Mehlgasse 35 in 1915 on the third floor. The 1918 Breslau address book listed her as Anna Sternitzky (maiden name Anna Hoffmann), who was a Bäckerwitwe (widow of a baker) and a Näherin (seamstress) who lived at Mehlgasse 35 on the third floor.

The 1923 Breslau address book listed the Näherin (seamstress) Anna Sternitzke who lived at Moritzstraße 32 Erdgeschoß (ground floor). Moritzstraße is now Lubuska Street, outside and southwest of the old city walls. A Frau Anna Sternitzke was listed at that address in the 1926 Breslau address book.

Marriages, Family and Death of Heinrich Sternitzke 1870 to 1938 City of Breslau

Heinrich Sternitzke (1851-February 1891) was a Protestant. He was born at Brietzen (in Trebnitz County) on the 20th of September in 1851. Heinrich was the son of the Freigärtner Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke. See Chapter 2: Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County, Family of Gottlieb and Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke, 1851 to 1876 Brietzen, 1884 to 1896 City of Breslau.

The 1870 Breslau address book listed a Bäckergeselle (journeyman baker) H. Sternitzki, who lived at Stockgasse 19 IV (about 4 blocks north of the Ring, now Więzienna Street). This was probably Heinrich Sternitzke (1851-February 1891) who would have been 19 years old at the time.

Marriage of Heinrich Sternitzke and Rosina Kern, 1876

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke married Rosina Kern on the 28th of January in 1876 at Breslau. At that time Heinrich's parents, the Freigärtner Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke were still living at Brietzen. Heinrich and Rosina lived at Posenerstraße 11a (now Poznańska Street, about 1 mile northwest of the old walls of Breslau). The marriage record available for review was a Neben (duplicate) copy, so the original signature of Heinrich was not available.

Rosina Kern was a Protestant. She was born on the 23rd of May in 1850 at Prausnitz (now Prusice) in Militsch County. She was the daughter of the Züchnermeister (master linen weaver) Benjamin Kern and his wife Rosina (née Kempe) Kern. Her parents died at Prausnitz before the 1876 wedding. The witnesses at the wedding were the 21 years old Bäcker (baker) Paul Krebs and the 29 years old Rathsdienner (city council employee) Carl Zindler.

Deaths in 1881

Before discussing the children of Heinrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke, it is important to note that Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke and three of her children died in 1881. That was during a major outbreak of cholera in Prussia.

In 1881, Heinrich Sternitzke moved from Trebnitzerstraße 7 to an apartment building at Klingelgasse 1 in Breslau. Klingelgasse was later named Wörther Straße, and it is now named Kreta Street. The building at Klingelgasse 1 was across the street from the Elftausend Protestant Church and one block south from the St. Hieronymus Hospital.

Children of Heinrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke:

Birth of son Paul Robert Gustav Sternitzke, 1876

Heinrich and Rosina's son Paul Robert Gustav Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 22nd of August 1876. The Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife

Rosine (née Kern) Sternitzke lived at Posenerstraße 22. They were Protestants. Their son was born at their home. The birth record available for review was a Neben (duplicate) copy, so the original signature of Heinrich was not available. The duplicate copy listed Heinrich's wife as Rosine, instead of Rosina. The 1874 to 1887 birth register for the Breslau Standesamt II shows the birth record of Paul Robert Gustav Sternitzke was record number 3631 in 1876.

The baptism record for the son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke identified the child as Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke (with the middle names reversed from the order on the birth record). The child was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of October in 1876. The parents were both Protestants. The baptismal sponsors were: the Schmied (blacksmith) Adolf Winkler, the Weber (weaver) Carl Kern, the Müller (miller) Herrmann Fleischer, the Freigärtnerochter Louise Sternitzke and the Kaufmannsfrau (wife of a merchant) Clara Kuttert. Pauline Louise Sternitzke was the sister of Heinrich Sternitzke (see below).

Birth and Death of daughter Marta Luise Emma Sternitzke (1878-1881)

Marta Luise Emma Sternitzke was born on the 5th of January in 1878. Her parents were the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke. Her parents were both Protestants. They lived at Trebnitzer Chaussee 8. A Breslau city map from 1905 shows the Trebnitzer Chaussee ran from the train station near the Trebnitzer Platz to the Rosenthaler Bridge. It is now Trzebnicka Street.

Marta Luise Emma Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of April 1878. A note on the baptism record indicates her birth was recorded at a registry office on the 8th of January in 1878. The baptism sponsors were: Luise Jäkel the daughter of the deceased Vogt (administrator) Jäkel, Luise Sternitzke the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer Sternitzke in Brietzen, and the Schmidt (smith) Adolf Winkler from Trebnitz. Pauline Louise Sternitzke was the sister of Heinrich Sternitzke (see below).

Martha Sternitzke, the daughter of the Bäckergesellen Heinrich Sternitzke, died at Breslau on the 30th of November in 1881. She was 3 years and 10 months old when she died. She was buried on the 3rd of December in 1881. The death record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed her civil death record as number 4721 dated the 30th of November in 1881 at the Breslau Standesamt I. The church record listed the address of her father as Klingelgasse 1 in Breslau at the time of the burial.

Birth and Death of daughter Emma Auguste Sternitzke (1880-1881)

Emma Auguste Sternitzke was born on the 6th of January in 1880. Her parents were the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke. Her parents were both Protestants. They lived at Bismarckstraße 17 (now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, one block from the main road to Trebnitz on Breslau's north side). The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of April 1880.

The baptismal sponsors were: the unmarried Jungfrau Luise Sternitzke, the unmarried Jungfrau Auguste Gerber and the Brauer (brewer) Karl Sternitzke. Pauline Louise Sternitzke was the sister of Heinrich Sternitzke (see below). Their brother, Karl Sternitzke (1853-1894) was a Brauer (brewer). See the Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.

Emma Sternitzke, the daughter of the Bäckergesellen Heinrich Sternitzke, died at Breslau on the 13th of December in 1881, at the age of 1 year and 11 months. She was buried on the 16th of December in 1881. Heinrich Sternitzke lived at Klingelgasse 1 at that time according to the church record. The death record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed her civil death record as number 4897 dated the 13th of December in 1881 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Birth and Death of son Carl Fritz Sternitzke (1881-1881)

Carl Fritz Sternitzke, the second son of Heinrich and Rosine Sternitzke, was born at Breslau on the 9th of June in 1881. Fritz Sternitzke, the son of the Bäcker Heinrich Sternitzke, died on the 14th of June in 1881. He was 4 days old. Fritz was buried on the 17th of June in 1881. The burial record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church referenced his civil death record as record number 2293 dated the 15th of June in 1881 at the Breslau Standesamt I. Heinrich Sternitzke lived at Trebnitzerstraße 7 according to the church record.

Death of Frau Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke, 1881

The 1881-1883 death record book of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the death of Frau Rosina (née Korn) Sternitzke, the wife of the Bäckergeselle (journeyman baker) Heinrich Sternitzke, who lived at Trebnitzerstraße 7. This was certainly Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke. She died on the 22nd of July in 1881 and was buried on the 25th of July in 1881. Her age was listed on the church record as 31 years and 2 months. The burial record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church referenced her civil death record as record number 2930 dated the 22nd of July in 1881 at Breslau Standesamt I. She was a Protestant.

Child from the second marriage of Heinrich Sternitzke:

Birth of son Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke, 1885

Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke was born on the 13th of September in 1885. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of October in 1885. His parents were the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke. They were both Protestants and lived at Matthiasstraße 29c at that time. The baptismal sponsors were: Rosina Kutzner the daughter of the deceased Mühlenbesitzer August Kutzner from Groß Krutschen, and the Bäcker Gustav Anders. Rosina Kutzner was a sister of Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke. See the Birth and Death of Rosina (née Schmidler) Kutzner, 1825 Groß Biadauschke, 1895 City of Breslau.

Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke was listed as Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke on records in 1911 and 1936. See the Marriage and Family of Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke, 1911 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Godfather Heinrich Sternitzke, 1887

The Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Arthur Carl Richard Sternitzke at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of June in 1887. The baby was the son of Heinrich's brother the Brauer (brewer) Carl Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke. See the Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.

Witness at Pauline Louise Sternitzke Wedding, 1889

A witness at the 1889 wedding of Pauline Louise Sternitzke to Alois Hertwig was described as the 38 years old Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke who lived at the village Rosenthal in Breslau County. Pauline Louise was the younger sister of Heinrich. Louise was one of the baptismal sponsors for Heinrich's children (see above). See the Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau. The signature from the marriage record is copied below.

Death of Heinrich Sternitzke (1851-1891)

The 1891 Breslau address book listed the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzki at Waterloostraße 18 (fifth floor) in the sort by surnames. The sort by addresses listed him as the Bäckermeister (master baker) Starnitzke. The address book was probably researched at the end of 1890.

Heinrich Sternitzke died in Breslau on the 25th of January in 1891 at the age of 39 years and 4 months. According to the civil death record, Heinrich was employed as a Bäcker (baker) who lived with his wife Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke in Breslau at Waterloostraße 18 (about 5 blocks north of Sand Island, now Franklina Delano Rooseveltta Street). The 1891-1894 burial record book of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed Heinrich Sternitzke as a Bäckermeister (master baker). Other details such as his age, date of death and address match the civil death record. He was buried on the 28th of January in 1891.

According to Heinrich's civil death record, his father, Gottlieb Sternitzke was employed as an Arbeiter and living in Breslau in 1891. It also stated that Heinrich's mother Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke had died at Breslau prior to Heinrich's death in 1891. The 1883-1887 burial record book of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church included the death and burial record for Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke, the wife of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzke. She died in Breslau on the 19th of April in 1884, at the age of 63 years and 7 months. See Chapter 2: Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County, Family of Gottlieb and Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke. 1851 to 1876 Brietzen, 1884 to 1896 City of Breslau.

Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke, 1895 & 1897

Four years after her husband's death, Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke reported the death of her mother, Rosina Schmidler in 1895. Ernestine was living at Marienstraße 48 at that time. She signed her mother's death record with †††, indicating she could not write. The registrar wrote Ernestine's name as the Bäckermeister Ernestine Sternitzki.

Ernestine reported her parents as August Kutzner and Rosina Schmidler, and her grandparents as Gottlieb Schmidler and Susanne Sternitzki. See the 1825-1895 history of Ernestine's family in the discussion regarding the village of Groß Biadauschke in Trebnitz County.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the verwitwet Bäcker (widow of a baker) Ernestine Sternitzke as living at Mehlgasse 37 I (first floor). Mehlgasse 37 was four blocks north of the University Bridge. A map from 1941 showed that street as Gustav-Müller-Strasse. It is now Ludwika Rydygiera Street.

Death of Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke (1852-1938)

Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 12th of October in 1938, at the age of 86 years and 1 month. Her burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the cause of her death as Herzlähmung (cardiac paralysis). The church record referenced her civil death record: number 1257 dated 12 October 1938, at the Breslau Standesamt III. She was buried on the 17th of October in 1938 at the Erlöser Cemetery in Oswitz.

According to the church burial record, Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke was born on the 11th of September in 1852 at Groß Krutschen in Trebnitz County. Her last residence was at Matthiasstraße 58 II (second floor) in Breslau. That was also the address of her son the Arbeiter (laborer) Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke and his wife Agnes (née Hain) Sternitzke. Agnes (née Hain) Sternitzke arranged for the funeral. Agnes was listed as a Catholic on the burial record. The burial record incorrectly listed the year of death for the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke as 1888. He died on the 25th of January in 1891.

Pauline Sternitzki (Stanetzky, Starnitzke, Starnitzki, Sternitzke) and Johann Carl August Rohr
1870 to 1914 City of Breslau

According to her 1870 church marriage record Pauline Sternitzki (1842-1914) was the hinterlassen (surviving) daughter of the late Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Johann Sternitzki from Psistein in Lublinitz County (Upper Silesia). A search for a village named Psistein did not yield any results. The village with a name closest to Psistein in Lublinitz County was named Psaar, the German name for a village located 14 miles east of the city Lublinitz in Lublinitz County. Psaar is now named Psary, Poland.

According to her 1874 church marriage record Pauline Sternitzki was born on the 29th of May in 1842 at Dyloken, in Polen (Poland). She was the daughter of the deceased Kretschampächter (inn renter) Johann Sternitzki. Meyer's Gazetteer (published in 1912) listed Dyloken as a village in Oppeln County of Upper Silesia. Dyloken was known as Thielsdorf from 1936 to 1945. It is now named Dylaki, Poland. It is about 90 miles southeast of Breslau. Pauline's death record (at Breslau in 1914) listed her as Pauline (née Sternitzke) Rohr, the widow of the Arbeiter (laborer) August Rohr. Her death record listed her father as the Kretschampächter Johann Sternitzke, and her mother as Johanna (née Wolf) Sternitzke. Her parents died at the city of Oppeln in Oppeln County.

Pauline's maiden name was identified as Stanetzky, Starnitzke and Starnitzki on the baptism records of her children, and as Sternitzke on the death records of Pauline and her second husband August Rohr.

First marriage of Pauline Sternitzki, 1870

Pauline Sternitzki, from Breslau, the hinterlassen (surviving) daughter of the late Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Johann Sternitzki from Psistein in Lublinitz County married the Haushälter (janitor) August Franz Erbs, the surviving son of the deceased Schneidermeister (master tailor) Aloÿs Erbs from Tscheschdorf in Grottkau County. They were married at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau (church marriage record number 184 dated the 2nd of May in 1870). The groom was 31 years old. The bride was 27 years old, which is consistent with her birthdate as listed on Pauline's second marriage record. She turned 28 years old on the 29th of May in 1870.

Second marriage of Pauline Sternitzki, 1874

Pauline Sternitzki was the widow of the Haushälter (janitor) August Erbst when she married the Kutscher (coachman) Johann Carl August Rohr at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau (marriage record number 196 dated 1 June 1874). Johann Carl August Rohr was born on the 3rd of December in 1848 at Tschechen in Neumarkt County. He was the son of the Pferdeknecht (horse groom) Gottlieb Rohr from Koberwitz in Breslau County.

Birth of daughter Auguste Pauline Ernestine Rohr, 1876

Auguste Pauline Ernestine Rohr was born at Breslau on the 13th of June 1876. Her baptism record listed her parents as the Haushälter (janitor) August Rohr and his wife Pauline (née Stanetzky) Rohr who lived at Lessingstraße 12, 2 blocks east of the St. Bernhardin Church (now plac Powstańców Warszawy two blocks east of the building housing the Museum of Architecture). They were both Protestant. Their daughter was baptized on the 9th of July in 1876 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were: Anna Schaffer (the daughter of the deceased Schuhmacher David Schaffer), Frau Christiane Nicolaus and the Haushälter Hugo Gebauer.

Birth, Marriage and Death of son
Fritz Albert Richard Rohr (1878-1941)

Fritz Albert Richard Rohr was born at Breslau on the 18th of October in 1878. He was the son of August Rohr and Pauline (née Starnitzke) Rohr.

Fritz Albert Richard Rohr married Emilie Karoline Weigel on the 19th of March in 1910. They were married in the Protestant Military Church at Hagenau. The groom and the bride were both Protestant. Fritz was a Sanitätsvizefeldwebel (medical sergeant) in the 3rd Schlesischen Dragener (Dragoon) Regiment Nr. 15 at Hagenau (in Alsace-Lorraine). The marriage record shows his mother was still living, but his father the Haushälter (janitor) August Rohr was deceased. The bride was born on the 10th of October in 1883. She was the daughter of the Fabrikarbeiter (factory worker) Gottlieb Weigel from Durlach in Baden-Württemberg.

The Zollsekretär (customs secretary) Fritz Albert Richard Rohr died on the 16th of February in 1941 at Beuthen in Upper Silesia. He died at his home at Ostlandstraße 2. His death was reported by his wife Emilie Karoline (née Weigel) Rohr. The cause of his death was listed as Arterienverkalkung und Herzschlag (hardening of the arteries and heart failure). The death record shows his parents, August Rohr and Pauline (née Starnitzke) Rohr had both died at Breslau.

Birth of daughter Ida Gertrud Anna Rohr, 1880

Ida Gertrud Anna Rohr was born at Breslau on the 17th of December in 1880. Her baptism record listed her parents as the Portier (doorman or porter) August Rohr and his wife Pauline née Starnitzke who were both Protestants. They lived at Ohlau Ufer 6 (1 block east of the old city moat, 9 blocks east of the Ring, now aleja Juliusza Słowackiego Street). Their daughter was baptized on the 23rd of January in 1881 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were: the Kaufmann (merchant) Josef Eckeld, the Fleischer (butcher) Robert Lakowitzky and the Köchin (cook) Auguste Geier.

Birth of daughter Anna Helene Martha Rohr, 1883

Anna Helene Martha Rohr was born on the 11th of February in 1883. Her baptism record listed her parents as the Haushälter (janitor) August Rohr and his wife Pauline née Starnitzki who were both Protestants. They lived at Ohlau Ufer 6 (1 block east of the old city moat, 9 blocks east of the Ring, now aleja Juliusza Słowackiego Street). Their daughter was baptized on the 18th of February in 1883, at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The Köchin (cook) Auguste Zeia was the baptismal sponsor.

Death of August Rohr (1848-1901)

The Königlichen Polizei Präsidium (Royal Police Headquarters) in Breslau reported the death of the Arbeiter (laborer) August Rohr. He died on the 31st of January in 1901, at the age of 52 years and 1 month old. He was a Protestant, and he had lived in Breslau at Friedrich-Wilhelmstraße 57 (4 blocks west of the old city walls, now Legnicka Street) with his wife. He was survived by his wife Pauline (née Sternitzke) Rohr.

According to his death record, August Rohr was born around the 31st of December in 1848 at Tschechen, in Neumarkt County. His father was the deceased Knecht (servant) August Rohr, who died at Koberwitz in Breslau County. His mother's name was not known.

Death of Pauline (née Sternitzke) Rohr (1842-1914)

The widow Pauline (née Sternitzke) Rohr died at Breslau on the 23rd of June in 1914, at the age of 72 years old. She was a Protestant. Her last address in Breslau was Märkische Straße 96/98 (about 10 blocks west of old city walls, now Robotnicza Street).

Family of Emma Marie Helene (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann 1870 to 1900 City of Breslau

Birth of Paul Fuhrmann, 1845

Paul Fuhrmann was born in Breslau around the 5th of May in 1845. He was the son of the Kunstgärtner (plant nursery gardener) Franz Fuhrmann and Wilhelmine (née Rosenbusch) Fuhrmann. His parents had died in Breslau before Paul's death in 1899.

Marriage of Emma Marie Helene Sternitzka, circa 1869

The Kaufmann (merchant) Paul Franz Anton Fuhrmann married Emma Marie Helene Sternitzka. Sternitzka was the female name variation for Sternitzke. Emma was listed as Frau Kaufmann (wife of a merchant) Emma (née Sternitzke) Fuhrmann on a baptism record in 1877 (see below). Emma signed her husband's death record as Emma Fuhrmann geboren Sternitzki in 1899 (see below).

Birth of son Richard Paul Willibald Fuhrmann, 1870

In 1870, the Kaufmann (merchant) Paul Franz Anton Fuhrmann and his wife Emma Marie Helene (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann lived at Nicolaistraße 78 in Breslau. Their son Richard Paul Willibald Fuhrmann was born on the 8th of July in 1870. The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Parish Church in Breslau on the 10th of August. Paul was a Catholic. Emma was a Protestant.

Baptismal Sponsor Emma (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann, 1870

Emma (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann, the wife of the Kaufmann (merchant) Paul Fuhrmann was one of the baptismal sponsors for Siegmunde Camilla Emma Scherbaum. The baby was born on the 29th of September in 1870, the daughter of the unmarried Emma Scherbaum. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 3rd of October in 1870. A note on the baptismal record shows the baby died in 1871 (church death record number 85). The other baptismal sponsor was Camilla Scherbaum (a sister of Emma Scherbaum).

Emma Scherbaum was a Catholic and lived in Breslau at Neue Junkerstraße 1. Emma was the daughter of the deceased Handschuhmachermeister (master glove maker) Wilhelm Scherbaum from Breslau. The father of the baby was a Protestant. He was identified on the baptismal record as Siegismund Glauer, Lieutenant und Adjutant in the 1st Silesian Grenadier Regiment Number 10.

Birth of daughter Lisbeth Clara Margarethe Fuhrmann, 1873

Lisbeth Clara Margarethe Fuhrmann was born on the 15th of July in 1873. She was the daughter of the Kaufmann (merchant) Paul Fuhrmann and Emma (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann. Her father, Paul Fuhrmann was still employed as a Kaufmann, but the family was living at Ring 55 (near the northwest corner of the Ring and close to the St. Elisabeth Church). The widow Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzka was one of the baptismal sponsors for Lisbeth. See Ida (née Meidel or Meindel) Sternitzka, 1873 to 1887 City of Breslau.

Paula Emma Ernestine Henrietta Fuhrmann (1876-1900)

Paula Emma Ernestine Henrietta Fuhrmann was born on the 14th of January in 1876. Her baptismal record listed her parents as the Kaufmann Paul Fuhrmann and Emma (née Sternitzke) Fuhrmann. Her civil birth record shows the father was a Catholic, the mother was a Protestant and her name was listed as Emma (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann. The Kaufmann Paul Fuhrmann and his wife lived at Karlstraße 41 (one block north of St. Dorothea Church, now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street) according to the church and civil records in 1876. Paula was baptized on the 10th of February in 1876. The baptismal sponsors were the Dienstarbeiter Ernst Thieme, the Kaufmann Paul Gräbsch, the Kaufmann Heinrich Zedler and Maria Fuhrmann.

Pauline Fuhrmann died at the age of 24 ¼ years on the 15th of April in 1900. Pauline's death record shows that she was a Protestant, an unmarried Kindergärtnerin (nursery school teacher) and she lived with her mother at Sadowastraße 45 (three blocks west of Breslau's main trainstation, now Swobodna Street). Her death record showed she was the daughter of the Kaufmann (merchant) Paul Fuhrmann and Emma (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann. Her mother signed Pauline's death record as Emma Fuhrmann geboren Sternitzka (the female version of Sternitzke).

Baptism Sponsor Emma (née Sternitzke) Fuhrmann, 1877

Gertrud Paula Wilhelmine Emilie Riener was born on the 28th of December in 1877. She was the daughter of the Buchhalter (bookkeeper) Louis Riener and Caroline (née Mittmann) Riener. The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of December in 1877. The baptism sponsors were: Frau Kaufmann Emilie (née Stumpe) Brehmer, Frau Kaufmann Emma (née Sternitzke) Fuhrman and the Kaufmann Paul Ossmann.

Birth of son Friedrich Wilhelm Gustav Paul Fuhrmann, 1883

Friedrich Wilhelm Gustav Paul Fuhrmann was born at Breslau on the 4th of November in 1883. He was the son of the Kaufmann Paul Fuhrmann and Emma (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann, who lived at Karlstraße 41. The father was a Catholic. The mother was a Protestant. The father signed the birth record.

Death of Paul Fuhrmann (1845-1899)

Paul Fuhrmann died one year before the death of his daughter Pauline. Frau Emma (née Sternitzki) Fuhrmann reported the death of her husband the Kaufmann (merchant) Paul Fuhrmann. He died at the age of 53 years and 11 months old. He was a Catholic. In 1899, they lived in Breslau at Karlstraße 47 (3 blocks south from the southeast corner of the Ring, one block north of St. Dorothy Church, now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street). Paul died at home on 5th of April in 1899. Emma signed the death record as Emma Fuhrmann geboren Sternitzki.

Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke and Franz Junke 1871 City of Breslau and Katholisch Hammer

Anna Rosina Sternitzke was the daughter of the late Häusler (agricultural day laborer) Friedrich Sternitzke in Katholisch Hammer, in Trebnitz County. In 1871, she was 32 years old so she was born around 1839. She had never been married before 1871.

Baptism Sponsor Anna Sternitzke, 1869

Hermann Friedrich Pittwohn was born at Dürrgoy on the 24th of August in 1869. He was the son of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Carl Pittwohn and Helena (née Sternitzke) Pittwohn.

Hermann Friedrich Pittwohn was baptized on the 29th of August in 1869 at the St. Salvator Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: Anna Sternitzke the 4th daughter of the late Friedrich Sternitzke who was a Stellenbesitzer in Katholisch Hammer in Trebnitz County; and Rosina (née Wolf) Klose, the wife of Arbeiter August Klose from Dürrgoy. See the Village of Dürrgoy in Breslau County: the Family of Helene (née Sternitzke) Pittwohn, 1863 to 1869 Dürrgoy.

Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke, 1871

Anna Rosina Sternitzke married the Tischlermeister und Wittwer (master carpenter and widower) Franz Junke, at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 1st of May in 1871. He was 45 ¼ years old and was from the village Canth in Breslau County (about 14 miles southwest of Breslau). Canth was written as Kanth from 1930 to 1945. Canth is now named Kały Wrocławskie, Poland. Based on his age when he was married, Franz Junke was born around February in 1826.

Franz Junke Family in Berlin, 1872 to 1882

Franz August Junke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke may have moved to Berlin after their 1871 marriage at Breslau. Their names, the occupation of Franz, the timeline of their marriage and their first recorded child support that conclusion. Certain details from the death record of Anna (née Sternitzki) Junke also support that conclusion, but there is a discrepancy in the reported age of Anna when she died. See the discussion below.

Children of Franz August Junke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke

They had four children at Berlin.

- Gustav Adolph Otto Junke was born at Berlin on the 2nd of June in 1872. He was baptized on the 13th of October in 1872 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Berlin. His parents were listed as the Tischler Franz Junke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke. They lived at Gartenstraße 122.
- Gertrud Anna Pauline Junke (1874-1875) was born at Berlin on the 28th of January in 1874. She was baptized at the St. Golgatha Protestant Church in Berlin. She died on the 14th of September in 1875 at the age of 1 year, 7 months and 17 days old. The death record listed her parents as the Tischlermeister Franz August Junke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke. They lived at Gartenstraße 122. The death record was signed by the mother Anna Junke.
- Karl Oswald Benno Junke (1875-1875) was born at Berlin on the 16th of July in 1875. He died on the 7th of September in 1875. His father signed the birth record as Franz Junke who recorded the parents as the Tischler Franz August Junke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzki) Junke. They lived at Gartenstraße 122. Both parents were Protestant. The death record was signed by the mother Anna Junke, and it recorded the parents as the Tischler Franz August Junke and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke. She spelled her son's first name as Carl instead of Karl.
- Friedrich Karl Junke (1876-1876) was born at Berlin on the 23rd of June in 1876. He died on the 17th of August in 1876. The father signed the birth record as Franz Junke, and he listed the names of the parents as the Tischler Franz August Junke and Anna Rosine (née Sternitzki) Junke. They lived at Strelitzer Straße 71 in Berlin. The child's death record was recorded by a representative of the Königlichen (royal) Charité Hospital in Berlin, which is where the child died. The parents were listed on the death record as the Tischlergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Franz Junke and Anna (née Sternitzke) Junke.

Death of Anna Rosina (née Sternitzki) Junke, 1882

Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke died at Berlin on the 11th of March in 1882. Her death was reported by the Inspector Julius Koritkowski. She died at the Anstalt maison de santé (a private mental health sanatorium, insane asylum) at Hauptstraße 17-19 in the Schönberg borough of Berlin. The mental condition of the patient and the age of her husband were probably the sources of the discrepancies between their 1871 marriage record and her 1882 death record. Her husband had also recorded his wife's maiden name as Sternitzki on their children's birth records in 1875 and 1876.

The death record listed Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Junke as Anna (née Sternitzki) Junke. She was a Protestant, who died at the age of 51 years, 1 month and 14 days. This yields a calculated date of birth of the 25th of January in 1831, which conflicts with the 1839 calculated birth date from her 1871 marriage record. The death record shows that she was born at Hammern in Trebnitz County, which is similar to the Katholisch Hammer named as her place of birth on her 1871 marriage record. The death record shows that she was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Sternitzki (first name unknown) and his wife Helene Sternitzki (maiden name unknown).

The death record shows Anna (née Sternitzki) Junke was married to the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Franz Junke who was living at Zionskirche Straße 2 in Berlin. He would have been 56 years old in 1882, based on his age reported on his 1871 marriage record.

Death of Johanna (née Sternitzkÿ) Kleinert 1871 City of Breslau

Johanna (née Sternitzkÿ) Kleinert (1803-1871) died at Breslau on the 22nd of May in 1871. She was buried on the 26th of May in 1871. She was the widow of the deceased Freistellenbesitzer Gottfried Kleinert from Schönwald. Prior to her death, she lived at Michaelisstraße 13b (about 4 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). Michaelisstraße is now Nowowiejska Street.

Johanna (née Sternitzkÿ) Kleinert died from Alterschwäche (decrepitude, weakness of old age) at the age of 67 years, 10 months and 28 days. Based on her age, she was born on the 24th of June in 1803.

Death of Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hein (1789-1872) 1872 City of Breslau

Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hein died at Breslau on the 13th of January in 1872. She was buried on the 16th of January in 1872. The death and burial record for Rosina at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church supplied the following information.

Prior to her death, Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hein lived at Viehmarkt 7. She was the widow of the Tagarbeiter (day laborer) Anton Hein. She died from Lungenlähmung (edema of the lung, paralysis of the lung) at the age of 82 years and 20 days old. Her calculated birth date was the 28th of April in 1789.

Viehmarkt Street was near the intersection of Rosenthaller Straße (now name Pomorska Street) and Vinzenz Straße (now named Świętgo Wincentego Street) between the Dreilinden Gasse (now named Ptasia Street) and the Schiesswerder Platz (now named plac Strzelecki).

Family of Emma Auguste Bertha (née Sternitzke/Starnitzkÿ) Quandt 1872 to 1943 Breslau

The marriage record for Emma Auguste Bertha Sternitzke shows she was born at Ohlau on the 9th of January in 1846. She was the daughter of Juliane Sternitzke. Emma was probably born out of wedlock, since her maiden name matched her mother's maiden name.

The history of Emma (née Starnitzkÿ) Quandt is known primarily from her 1872 marriage record, the death record of her mother Juliane in 1900, and from the marriage record of Emma's daughter Meta in 1913. Those records showed different versions of her maiden name. The record of Emma's marriage in 1872 listed her maiden name as Sternitzke. The 1900 death record for her mother shows her mother's name as Julie (née Sternitzky) Pohl, but Emma signed her name on that record in 1900 as Emma (née Starnitzkÿ) Quandt. She was listed as Emma (née Sternitzke) Quandt on the 1913 marriage record of her daughter Meta.

Her mother's death record shows that the grandfather of Emma Starnitzkÿ was the Zimmermann (carpenter) Sternitzky whose first name was unknown. Her grandmother was listed as Charlotte (née Polke) Sternitzky. See the Chapter 8, Ohlau County in the Breslau District, City of Ohlau: the Family of the Zimmermann Gottfried Sternitzke, 1823 to 1864 City of Ohlau.

Marriage of Emma Auguste Bertha Sternitzke, 1872

Emma Auguste Bertha Sternitzke married Carl Friedrich Heinrich Quandt on the 16th of January in 1872. Emma Sternitzke was 25 years and 4 months old. Carl was 27 and 5 months old. They were married at the military garrison church in Breslau. Carl Quandt was a Sergeant in the 3rd Company of the 1st Silesian Grenadier Regiment Nr. 10. They were both Protestant.

Carl Friedrich Heinrich Quandt was born on the 19th of July in 1844 at Gützwow, the son of Johann Christian Erdmann Quandt. In 1872, Johann Quandt was living at Gützwow.

Birth and Death of son Karl Emil August Quandt (1872-1872)

Karl Emil August Quandt was born at Breslau on the 24th of August in 1872. He was baptized on the 28th of August in 1872. His father was listed on the birth/baptism record as Karl Quandt, a Sergeant in the 3rd Company of the 1st Silesian Grenadiers Regiment Number 10. His mother was listed as Emma (née Starnitzky) Quandt. The baptismal sponsors were: Sergeant Karl Kusche, Fräulein Louise Gluffke and Fräulein Auguste Quandt.

Karl Emil August Quandt died on the 31st of August in 1872 at the age of 7 days old. He was buried on the 3rd of September in 1872. The cause of death was listed as Krämpfen (infantile convulsions).

Birth, Marriage and Death of daughter Meta Alma Elsa Quandt (1876-1943)

Meta Alma Elsa Quandt was born on the 22nd of March in 1876 at Breslau. She was baptized on the 9th of April in 1876 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau (baptism record number 195). The baptism record listed her parents as the Schutzmann (policeman) Karl Quandt and Emma (née Starnitzky) Quandt. Meta's civil birth record listed her parents as Carl Quandt and Emma (née Starnitzke) Quandt. Both parents were listed as Protestant on the birth record. The family lived at Ketzerberg 3 (now named plac Dominikański). The baptism sponsors were: the Fleischermeistersfrau (master butcher's wife) Emilie (née Klinke) Flade, the Kaufmannsfrau (the merchant's wife) Wilhelmine (née Seidel) Stiebler, the Sattlermeister (master saddlemaker) Hermann Haumann, and the Lehrersfrau (teacher's wife) Maria (née Gläser) Tietze.

Meta Alma Elsa Quandt was listed as ohne Beruf (without occupation) and a resident of Breslau at Trebnitzerstraße 32 in 1913. She was the daughter of the pensionierten Schutzmann (retired policeman) Karl Quandt and his wife Emma (née Sternitzke) Quandt who both still lived at Breslau in 1913.

Meta Alma Elsa Quandt married Wilhelm Karl Vietense at Breslau on the 11th of February 1913. They were both Protestant. The Bücherrevisor (public accountant) Wilhelm Karl Vietense was born on the 24th of March in 1878 at Hamburg. In 1913 he lived at Ohlauufer 2 in Breslau. He was the son of the Gärtner Johann Wilhelm Theodor Vietense (who died at Hamburg before his son's wedding) and his wife Emma Elisabeth (née Koop) Vietense who lived at Hamburg at the time of wedding.

The wedding witnesses were: the 40 years old Kaufmann Franz Albin Thiemer who lived at Gabitzstraße 35 in Breslau, and the 68 years old pensionierten Schutzmann Karl Quandt who lived at Trebnitzerstraße 32 in Breslau. Based on his age in 1913, Karl Quandt was born around 1845, so he was the right age to be the bride's father.

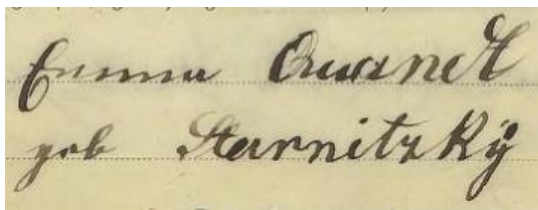

A note attached to the marriage record showed Meta Alma Elsa (née Quandt) Vietense died at Breslau on the 30th of July in 1943. Her death record was number 1368 in 1943 at Breslau Standesamt II. Death record 1368 shows Meta was living at Clausewitzstrasse 4 (now named Józefa Haukego-Bosaka Street) when she died. Her parents were listed as Karl Quandt and Emma (née Sternitzke) Quandt. Her husband was the former Steuerberater (tax advisor) Wilhelm Karl Vietense. The cause of Meta's death was listed as: Blind, bei Altersschwäche, Schwerer Durchfall, Kreislaufschwäche (blind, old age, severe diarrhea, circulatory weakness).

Death of mother Frau Julie (née Sternitzky) Pohl (1823-1900)

Julie (née Sternitzky) Pohl was born at Ohlau around the 6th of April in 1823. That date is based on her age (76 years and 10 months) at the time of her death in Breslau on the 6th of June in 1900. She was a Protestant. Her death record at Breslau was completed by the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Felix Schlabs and the wife of a Schutzmann named Frau Emma (née Starnitzkÿ) Quandt. A Schutzmann was a uniformed policeman. The person who wrote the details on the death record wrote the family name as Sternitzky, but Emma signed the death record as Starnitzkÿ (see her signature below).

Prior to her death, Frau Julie (née Sternitzky) Pohl lived with her daughter Emma (née Starnitzkÿ) Quandt at Neue Junkernstraße 16 (as it was known in 1892, shown as Herzogstraße on an 1850 map, 4 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Jana Kilińskiego Street).

The death record of Julie (née Sternitzky) Pohl shows she was the daughter of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Sternitzky and his wife Charlotte (née Polke) Sternitzky. The first name of Julie's father was not known by the people who completed the death record.

The death record shows Julie Sternitzky had been married the Tuchwalkmeister (master fuller) August Pohl, who was from Brieg. Her daughter recorded on Julie's death record that she did not know if her mother was the widow of August Pohl, or if they had divorced.

Breslau Address Books 1884, 1887 and 1915

The 1884 Breslau address book listed the Schutzmann Carl Quandt as a resident at Bismarckstraße 5 (now named Bolesława Chrobrego Street).

The 1887 Breslau address book listed the Schutzmann Carl Quandt as a resident at Mehlgasse 15 (now Ludwika Rydygiera Street).

The 1915 Breslau address book listed Wilhelm Vietense as a Kaufmann und Bücherrevisor, Geschäftsführer (merchant, accountant and executive director) for the Hansa-Bund (a trade association). He lived at am Ohlau Ufer 2 (now named aleja Juliusza Słowackiego).

Ida (née Meidel or Meindel) Sternitzka 1873 to 1887 City of Breslau

Baptism Sponsor Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzka, 1873

The widow Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzka (1819-1887) was one of the baptismal sponsors for Lisbeth Clara Margarethe Fuhrmann at St. Elisabeth Church on the 31st of July in 1873. The baby was the daughter of Emma (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann. Ida's husband died before the baptism. His name was probably Sternitzke, and Ida's name was spelled with the female suffix “-ka”.

Breslau Address Books, 1868 to 1886

The Breslau address books show that the widow Ida Sternitzka lived at Taschenstraße 16 II (second floor) in 1884 and 1886. Taschenstraße is now Piotra Skargi Street, inside the old city walls near the southeast corner of the moat. There were earlier address books that may have listed Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzka, or perhaps a different woman with the same or similar name. The 1868 Breslau address book listed Ida Sterniska the Schneidermeister (master tailor), who lived at Oberstraße 40 III. Oderstraße was inside the old city walls, and it is now Odrzańska Street near St. Elizabeth Church). The 1870 Breslau address book listed Ida Sternitzka, the Damenschneiderin (women's clothing tailor) who lived at Oberstraße 40 III.

Death of Ida (née Meidel or Meindel) Sternitzka (1819-1887)

Ida (née Meidel or Meindel) Sternitzka was the widow of a Bäckermeister. Her death and burial were recorded in record books at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church and the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. She was listed as Ida (née Meidel) Sternitzka in the St. Elisabeth church record book. She was listed as Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzka in the St. Maria Magdalena church record book.

She died on the 9th of May in 1887 and was buried at the St. Maria Magdalena Cemetery at Gräbschen on the 13th of May in 1887. She died at the age of 67 years and 7 months, so she was born around the 9th of October in 1819. The St. Elisabeth Protestant Church death record listed her address as Karlsstraße 47 (3 blocks south from the southeast corner of the Ring, one block north of St. Dorothy Church, now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street). This was the same address where Paul Fuhrmann and his wife Emma (née Sternitzki) Fuhrmann lived in 1899. Emma's maiden name was spelled Sternitzka and Sternitzke on records. Paul Fuhrmann was born in 1845, so his wife was probably born around that year. Ida was probably Emma's mother. See the Family of Emma Marie Helene (née Sternitzka) Fuhrmann, 1870 to 1900 City of Breslau.

The St. Maria Magdalene death record book shows the civil death record for Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzka was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I on the 11th of May in 1900 (record number 1900). The church record listed her age as 68 years old when she died. The St. Maria Magdalena church record shows the death information came from the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church.

I first thought Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzka (1819-1887) was Johanna Wilhelmine Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzke, the second wife of the Bürger und Bäckermeister Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke. But the calculated birth dates for the two women are about six years apart. Johanna Wilhelmine Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzke was born around 1825. Carl Friedrich Alexander Sternitzke divorced Johanna Wilhelmine Ida (née Meindel) Sternitzke before he married Louise Emma Ottilie Gerlitz in 1871. So, technically neither Meindel women would have been his widow. See the Bäckermeister Sternitzke Family of Goldene Radegasse 5, 1817 to 1871 City of Breslau.

Marriage and Family of Christiane Ernestine Sternitzke 1873 to 1930 City of Breslau

Christiane Ernestine Sternitzke (1850-1930) was the daughter of the Freistellenauszüglers (free property owner and retired farmer) Johann Sternitzke in Domnowitz. An Auszügler (retired farmer) named Johann Sternitzke was listed as a Domnowitz resident in the 1908 Trebnitz County Address Book.

Johann Julius Hahn was a Weichensteller (railroad switchman) in Breslau, working for the ROUE (Rachsen-Oder-Ufer-Eisenbahn). He was the son of Carl Hahn, who was a resident of Grüneiche near Trachenberg.

The marriage of Johann Julius Hahn and Christiane Ernestine Sternitzke at Kainowe was attested (certified) at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. The record from the St. Elisabeth Church does not identify the actual marriage date. The attested marriage was recorded at St. Elisabeth in August of 1873.

Children of Julius Hahn and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn:

- Adolf Hermann Heinrich Hahn was born at Breslau on the 26th of January in 1875. His parents were listed as the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) der Rachsen-Oder-Ufer-Bahn Julius Hahn and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn. They lived at Berlinerstraße 18 (now Braniborska Street, west of the old city walls of Breslau). They were Protestants. The father signed the birth record.
- Paul Julius Hahn was born at Breslau on the 18th of October in 1878. Was baptized on the 27th of October in 1878 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. His parents were both Protestants, and they lived at Matthiasstraße 41. His father Julius Hahn was employed as a Bahnbeamter at the ROUE (Rachsen-Oder-Ufer-Eisenbahn). The baptismal sponsors were: Emilie Jenner the daughter of the Grundbesitzer Jenner from Domnowitz, and Heinrich Lossog from Domnowitz.
Paul married Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke on the 16th of July in 1904. Martha was the daughter of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke. Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Domnowitz on the 11th of March in 1849. He also was the son of the former Domnowitz Freistellenbesitzer Johann Sternitzke (who was an Auszügler in 1875). Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was probably a brother of Christiane Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Hahn. That means Paul Julius Hahn married his first cousin. See the Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke, 1875 to 1941 City of Breslau.
- Selma Berta Hahn was born at Breslau on the 14th of March in 1880. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 19th of March in 1880. Her parents were the ROUE Schaffner (railroad conductor) Julius Hahn and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn, who were both Protestants and lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 44a (3 blocks northwest from Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street). The baptismal sponsor was: Johanna (née Palesche) Buttermilch, the wife of the Breslau Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Eduard Buttermilch.

- Martha Christiane Hahn was born at Breslau on the 23rd of August in 1881. She was baptized on the 2nd of September in 1881 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Her parents were the ROUE Schaffner (conductor) Julius Hahn and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn, who were both Protestants and lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 44a. The baptismal sponsor was: Johanna (née Palesche) Buttermilch, the wife of the Breslau Weichensteller Eduard Buttermilch.
- Herrmann Gustav Hahn was born at Breslau on the 26th of September in 1884. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 19th of October in 1884. His father was an Eisenbahnschaffner (railroad conductor). His parents were both Protestants and lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 29D. The baptismal sponsors were the Breslau Maurer (mason) Eduard Schwitthale, the Breslau Schleußerin (maid) Louise Sternitzke and the Breslau Weichenstellersfrau Johanna Buttermilch.

Death of Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn (1850-1930)

Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn died on the 6th of October in 1930, at the age of 79 years and 10 months Her calculated birth date was the 6th of December in 1850. The burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the causes of her death as Alters und Herzschwäche (old age and weak heart). She was a resident of Breslau and lived at Vincenzstraße 51 I. Notes on the church record show Christiane's husband, the Zugführer Julius Hahn died in 1915. The funeral was requested by Christiane's son, the Uhrmacher (watchmaker) Adolf Hahn, who lived at Fürstenstraße 8. The funeral was paid by Selma Heinrich, who may have been Christiane's daughter Selma Berta née Hahn. The church record referenced her civil death record: number 25 dated the 6th of October in 1930 at the Breslau-Hundsfeld Standesamt VI.

Marriage and Family of Herrmann Starniske and Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske 1875 to 1903 City of Breslau

The Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Starniske (c.1852-before 1889) married the Köchin (cook) Bertha Kutzner on the 27th of April in 1875 at Breslau. Herrmann was 23 years old at the time of his wedding. He was born at Rackelsdorf (in Militsch County) around 1852, the son of Gottfried Starniske (c.1822-after 1875) and his wife Johanna (née Schröter) Starniske who lived at Rackelsdorf in 1875. Gottfried Starniske was an Auszügler (retired farmer) in 1875. See the Family of Gottfried Starniske and Johanna (née Schröter) Starniske, 1843 to 1875 Rackelsdorf.

Herrmann and Bertha Starniske were Protestants and lived at Löschstraße 31 (5 blocks east of the main Breslau train station, now Prądyńskiego Street) in 1875.

Bertha Kutzner was 27 years old at the time of her marriage. She was born at Klein Kreidel (in Wohlau County; now Krzydlina Mała in Gmina Wołów). She was the daughter of the Müllermeister (master miller) Wilhelm Kutzner from Kloster Leubus and his wife Johanna née Schmidt.

The witnesses at the wedding were the 21 years old Schneider (tailor) Karl Kutzner and the 26 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Robert Gerber. See the Schneidersfrau Bertha (née Sternitzk) Kutzner, March 1876 City of Breslau.

Birth and marriage of daughter Emilie Klara Bertha Starniske, 1877 and 1903

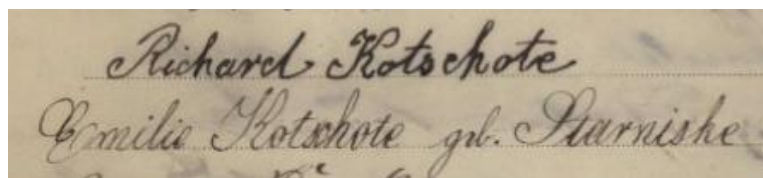

Emilie Klara Bertha Starniske (1877-after 1903) was born at Breslau on the 20th of November in 1877. The birth registry for the 1874 to 1887 Breslau Standesamt II shows her birth was recorded as number 4979 in 1877. The baptism record for Emilie Klara Bertha Stanisk listed her parents as the Arbeiter Herman Stanisk and Bertha (née Kutzner) Stanisk. They were Protestants and lived at Löschstraße 31 (5 blocks east of the main train station, now Prądyńskiego Street). Emilie was baptized on the 30th of December in 1877 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were Frau Emilie Wolf, the Arbeiter Robert Gerber and the Frisör (barber) Gottlieb Bursian.

On the 6th of July in 1902, the Fräuline Näherin (unmarried seamstress) Klara Starniske was the godmother of Klara Elisabeth Ruske. The baby was the daughter of the Tischler (tablemaker) Johann Ruske and his wife Anna née Bartsch. Klara lived at Königgrätzerstraße 21 (7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Stanisława Wieckowskiego Street). Johann Ruske was a witness at Klara's wedding in 1903.

In 1903, Emilie Klara Bertha Starniske was employed as a Plätterin (ironer) and lived in Breslau at Königgrätzerstraße 21. Her father was deceased, but her mother was still living in Breslau. The 1915 and 1923 Breslau address books listed a widow named Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske who lived at Königgrätzerstraße 21.

On the 14th of April in 1903, Emilie Klara Bertha Starniske married the Schlossergesell (journeyman locksmith) Paul Josef Richard Kotschote who signed the marriage record as Richard Kotschote. Richard lived in Breslau at Neue Tauentzienstraße 54 (about 7 blocks east from the main train station, now General Kościuszki Tadeusza Street). Richard was a Catholic. Emilie was a Protestant. Their signatures are copied below:

Richard Kotschote
Emilie Kotschote geb. Starniske

1903

Paul Josef Richard Kotschote was born on the 31st of May in 1875 at Fürstenau in Militsch County. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Kotschote and his wife Johanna (née Hartebrodt) Kotschote, who were both residents of Breslau in 1903. The names on the marriage record were all written as Kotschote, but a handwritten note (dated 20 May 1912) indicates that Kotschate was the correct spelling. Both spellings appeared in other records related to Trebnitz County. The Kotschote version was found in Domnowitz and Gross Ujeschütz property transfer records (presented in Book 1), and a Bauerntochter (farmer's daughter) Susanne Kotschote married Gottlieb Sterniski at Trebnitz on 19 April 1831. The Kotschate version was recorded in the 26 September 1904 Breslau marriage record of Wilhelm Quickert and Pauline Geppert. Pauline was the daughter of Ernst Geppert and Christiane (née Kotschate) Geppert from Pawellau in Trebnitz County.

The village Fürstenau is now named Książęca Wieś. It is six miles east of the city Żmigród (formerly the city Trachenberg). The Kotschote family may have been members of the Protestant Church at Friedrichskirch (Gross Cainowe, now known as Koniowo) which was about 2.5 miles southeast of Fürstenau.

Witnesses at the 1903 wedding included the 38 years old Tischler (tablemaker) Johann Ruske and the 32 years old Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Karl Koska.

Birth and Marriage of son Wilhelm Karl Herrmann Starniske, 1879 & 1906

Wilhelm Karl Herrmann Starniske (1879-after 1906) was born at Breslau on the 21st of August in 1879. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Starniske and his wife Bertha née Kurtzner who lived at Löschstraße 31. The birth registry for the 1874 to 1887

Breslau Standesamt II shows his birth was recorded as number 3738 in 1879. Their son was baptized on the 12th of October in 1879 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were the Brenner (distiller) Karl Pouhech, Robert Gerber and the Zimmermanns Frau (wife of a carpenter) Christiane Langner. See the Schneidersfrau Bertha (née Sternitzkj) Kutzner, March 1876 City of Breslau.

The Geneteka genealogical database shows that Wilhelm Carl Hermann Starniske married Julianna Antonie Gawenda at Kattowitz in 1906. The groom was the son of Hermann Starniske and Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske. The bride was the daughter of Paul Gawenda and Rosalie (née Makosch) Gawenda. See the records regarding their son in Chapter 14, The Oppeln District, the City of Gleiwitz in Tost-Gleiwitz County: the Marriage and Death of Hermann Karl Starniske, 1937 & 1942 Cities of Gleiwitz and Breslau.

Birth of son Herrmann Carl Starniske, 1881

Herrmann Carl Starniske was born on the 19th of September in 1881. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Starniske and his wife Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske were both Protestants. They lived at Löschstraße. The birth registry for the 1874 to 1887 Breslau Standesamt II shows his birth was recorded as number 4136 in 1881. Their son was baptized on the 25th of December in 1881 at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Emilie Wolf, Carl Scholz and the Brauer Carl Baschbeck.

Birth of daughter Clara Ida Starniske, 1883

Clara Ida Starniske was born at Breslau on the 14th of November in 1883. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Starniske and his wife Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske were both Protestants. The birth registry for the 1874 to 1887 Breslau Standesamt II shows her birth was recorded as number 4827 in 1883. They lived at Löschstraße 31 (5 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Ignacego Prądyńskiego Street). Their daughter was baptized on the 29th of February in 1884 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were the unmarried Auguste Selinger, the Schlosserfrau Anonie Karich and the Schneidermeister Wilhelm Landmann.

Birth of daughter Ida Martha Starniske, 1886

Ida Martha Starniske was born at Breslau on the 10th of July in 1886. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Starniske and his wife Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske were both Protestants. The birth registry for the 1874 to 1887 Breslau Standesamt II shows her birth was recorded as number 3173 in 1886. They lived at Löschstraße 39. Their daughter was baptized on the 23rd of August in 1886 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Marie Kutzner and the Schneiderin (seamstress) Antonie Klarich.

Godmother (widow) Bertha Starniske/Starnitzke, 1889

The widow Bertha Starniske was the godmother at the baptism of Wilhelm Pietsch, the son of Pauline Pietsch (the unmarried daughter of the Arbeiter Carl Pietsch). Wilhelm Pietsch and his twin brother Paul Pietsch were born at Breslau on the 8th of December in 1888. The baptisms for the twins were held on the 28th of January in 1889 at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau.

The widow Bertha Starnitzke was the godmother at the baptism of Louise Else Emilie Mittmann, the daughter of Carl Mittmann and his wife Ernestine (née Scheuer) Mittmann. The baby was born at Breslau on the 2nd of July in 1889, and baptized on the 17th of July in 1889 at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church.

The 1891 Breslau address book listed a widow Bertha Sternitzke who lived at Vorwerksstraße 83 V (about 5 blocks east of the main train station, now Komuny Paryskiej Street). The sort by addresses listed her as the widow Starniske. The 1897 Breslau address book listed the widow Bertha Stanitzke as living at Königgrätzerstraße 21 V (fifth floor, east of the Main Train Station, now Stanisława Więckowskiego Street). She was listed as Bertha Starniske in 1914, 1915, 1916 and 1923. She was listed as Bertha Sterniske in 1918.

Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke 1875 to 1941 City of Breslau

Birth of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1849 Domnowitz

Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was born at Domnowitz on the 11th of March in 1849. He was the son of the Domnowitz Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Johann Sternitzke. See Book I, Chapter 9, Germanengrund (Domnowitz): the Birth, Marriage and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1849 Domnowitz, 1875 to 1876 Schmiedefeld, 1877 to 1883 Pomerania, 1904 to 1941 Breslau.

Marriage of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1875 Breslau

In 1875, Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was employed as a Weichensteller (railroad switchman) at Schmiedefeld in Breslau County. At that time, his father Johann Sternitzke was a former Freistellenbesitzer and an Auszügler (retired farmer). On the 30th of August in 1875, Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke married Anna Rosina Pantke at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau. Anna Rosina Pantke was living at Schmiedefeld at the time of her wedding in 1875. She had previously lived at Breslau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants.

Anna Rosina Pantke was born on the 26th of July in 1849 at the village Fürsten Ellguth in Oels County (about 23 miles east of Breslau, now named Ligota Książęca). She was the daughter of the Postillon (coachman) Friedrich Wilhelm Pantke and Johanna (née Pirnke) Pantke from Fürsten Ellguth. The marriage record for Anna Rosina shows her father and mother had died at the village Fürsten Ellguth before the 1875 marriage of their daughter. The death record for Anna Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke shows her parents both died 8 miles further north at the town Bernstadt in Oels County. Bernstadt is now Bierutów, Poland. The occupation named in German as Postillon (postilion or postillion in English) is typically translated as a coachman, but is actually mean the rider who steered the carriage (cannon or caisson) by riding one of the horses pulling the carriage.

The marriage record at the St. Barbara Church shows the marriage of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Anna Rosina Pantke was also recorded at the Breslau civil registry office (Standesamt I) on record number 932 in 1875.

Birth and Death of son Gustav Albert Waldemar Sternitzke,
1876 Schmiedefeld & Breslau

Gustav Albert Waldemar Sternitzke was born at Schmiedefeld (now a western suburb of Wrocław) on the 3rd of March in 1876. He was the son of the Bahnwärter (railroad signalman) Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke.

Gustav Albert Waldemar Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 26th of March in 1876. His parents were both Protestants. The baptismal sponsors were the Bahnwärter (railroad signalman) Friedrich Deichsel and the Weichenstellerfrau (wife of a railroad switchman) Bertha Kapst.

Gustav Albert Waldemar Sternitzke died on the 4th of April in 1876 from Krämpfen (infantile convulsions). He was buried at Schmiedefeld on the 7th of April in 1876. The burial book for the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau listed his father as the Hilfswärter (assistant railroad signalman) Friedrich Sternitzke.

Births of daughters in Greifenhagen County, Pomerania 1877 & 1883

Friedrich and Rosina Sternitzke moved to Pomerania after the birth of their son. Their daughter Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke was born on the 30th of July in 1877 at Kronheide, in Greifenhagen County, Pomerania. Another daughter, Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke was born on the 20th of July in 1883 at Greifenhagen in Greifenhagen County, in Pomerania. Their daughters were married at Breslau.

Birth of granddaughter Elisabeth Ida Ilse Sternitzke, 1904 Breslau

Elisabeth Ida Ilse Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 4th of June in 1904. She was the daughter of the unmarried Bertha Auguste Elizabeth Sternitzke. Bertha was a Protestant. She lived in Breslau at Luisenstraße 12 (now Jęczmienna Street, 11 blocks west of the main trainstation). A note (dated 9 September 1909) on the birth record shows that the Zimmermann Johann Paul Kische, a resident of Breslau at Goethestraße 85 (6 blocks southwest from the main trainstation, now Wielka Street), adopted Elisabeth Ida Ilse and changed her last name to Kische.

Marriage of Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke, 1904 Breslau

Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke was born on the 20th of July in 1883 at Greifenhagen, Pomerania. She was the daughter of Friedrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke. In 1904, Friedrich was a pensionierten Weichensteller (retired railroad switchman) and he lived with his wife in Breslau.

In 1904, Martha was unemployed and lived in Breslau at Luisenstraße 12 (now Jęczmienna Street, 11 blocks west of the main trainstation). This was the same address where Bertha Auguste Elizabeth Sternitzke lived when her daughter (Elisabeth Ida Ilse Sternitzke) was born on the 4th of June in 1904. Martha and Berta were sisters. See the below transcription of the marriage of Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke on the 17th of June in 1907.

On the 16th of July in 1904, Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke married the Lokomotivheizer (locomotive stoker) Paul Julius Hahn. Paul was a resident of Dittersbach in Waldenburg County. The bride and groom were both Protestants.

Paul Julius Hahn was born on the 18th of October in 1878 at Breslau. He was the son of Johann Julius Hahn and Christiane Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Hahn. Christiane Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Hahn was born in Domnowitz, the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer Auszugler Johann Sternitzke. In 1904, Julius Hahn was a Zugführer ausßer Dienst (railroad conductor, retired from service) and lived with his wife in Breslau. See the Marriage and Family of Christiane Ernestine Sternitzke, 1873 to 1930 City of Breslau.

Witnesses at the 1904 wedding were the 57 years old Zugführer ausßer Dienst (railroad conductor, retired from service) Julius Hahn (who was probably the father of the groom), and the 43 years old Zugführer (railroad conductor) Paul Koletschke. Julius Hahn lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 51. Paul Koletschke lived at Kattowitz. He married Johanna Christiane Sternitzke (from Domnowitz) in Breslau on the 4th of November in 1886. See the Marriage and Family of Johanna Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke, 1886 to 1904 City of Breslau.

There are two notes on the 1904 marriage record. Martha Auguste Luise (née Sternitzke) Hahn died on the 1st of January in 1941. Her death record was number 9 in 1941 at the Breslau Standes-Amt I. Paul Julius Hahn married a second time on the 28th of August in 1942. His second marriage record was number 4 in the 1942 marriage record book at the Wildschütz Standes-Amt (in Görlitz County).

Death of wife Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke (1849-1906)

Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 10th of November in 1906. She was a Protestant. Her death was reported by her husband, the pensionierte Weichensteller (retired railroad switchman) Friedrich Sternitzke. In 1906, they lived in Breslau at Gräbschener Straße 88 (about 8 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Grabiszyńska Street). Friedrich's signature from his wife's death record is shown below. Rosina died at home at the age of 57 years and 3 months. Her death record shows she was born at Fürsten-Ellguth in Oels County, the daughter of the Postillon (coachman) Friedrich Pantke and Johanna (née Pirnke) Pantke. The death record shows her parents both died at Bernstadt in Oels County. Bernstadt is now Bierutów, Poland.

Friedrich Sternitzke

Marriage of Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1907

Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke was born on the 30th of July in 1877 at Kronheide, in Greifenhagen County, Pomerania. She was the daughter of Friedrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke.

In 1907, Bertha was employed as a Stubenmädchen (chambermaid) in Breslau and lived at Gräbschener Straße 88 (about 8 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Grabiszyńska Street). Her mother had died at Breslau in 1906, before Bertha's wedding in 1907. Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 10th of November in 1906. Friedrich Sternitzke was living in Breslau as a pensionierten Weichensteller (retired railroad switchman). His address was listed on the 1906 death record for Rosina as Gräbschener Straße 88. That was the same address listed for Bertha on her 1907 marriage record.

On the 17th of June in 1907, Bertha Auguste Elisabeth Sternitzke married the Zimmermann (carpenter) Johann Paul Kische. The Breslau marriage record shows that Bertha was a Protestant, and the groom was a Catholic.

Johann Paul Kische was born on the 8th of February in 1883 at Kertschütz in Neumarkt County (now Karczyce, Poland). In 1907, he lived in Breslau at Lehmdamm 39 (1 block north of the Botanical Gardens, now Prusa Street). He was the son of the Maurer (mason) Joseph Kische and his wife Johanna (née Wiesner) Kische, who in 1907 were residents of Blankenau in Breslau County (now Cesarzowice, Poland).

Witnesses at the wedding included the 31 years old Berghauer (miner) Paul Riesner (who was a resident of Altwasser in Waldenburg County) and the 28 years old Lokomotivheizer (locomotive stoker) Paul Hahn (who was a resident of Dittersbach in Waldenburg County). Paul Hahn was married to the bride's sister Martha Auguste Luise (née Sternitzke) Hahn (see above).

Children of Bertha Auguste Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Kische:

- Elisabeth Ida Ilse Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 4th of June in 1904. A note (dated 9 September 1909) on the birth record shows that the Zimmermann Johann Paul Kische, a resident of Breslau at Goethestraße 85 (6 blocks southwest from the main trainstation, now Wielka Street), adopted Elisabeth Ida Ilse and changed her last name to Kische.
- Erich Georg Paul Kische was born at Breslau on 6th of December in 1907. Erich was married in 1934, as was recorded on marriage record number 10 of that year.
- Twin girls were born on the 31st of July in 1909, Ursula Magdalena Martha Kische and Irmgard Herta Gisela Kische.

Schneidersfrau Bertha (née Sternitzk) Kutzner
March 1876 City of Breslau

The Schneidersfrau (wife of a tailor) Bertha (née Sternitzk) Kutzner and the Schneider (tailor) Karl Kutzner were two of the baptism sponsors for Bertha Emilie Langner, the daughter of the Zimmergeselle (journeyman carpenter) Gottlieb Langner and Christiane (née Kalt) Langner. The child was born on 5th of March in 1876, and baptized on the 19th of March in 1876 (record number 162 in 1876). The other baptism sponsor was the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Auguste Dreilich.

There may have been a family relationship between Bertha (née Sternitzk) Kutzner and the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Starniske (c. 1852-before 1889). There was probably a sister-brother relationship between Herrmann's wife, Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske and Karl Kutzner. The 21 years old Schneider (tailor) Karl Kutzner was one of the witnesses at the 1875 wedding of Herrmann Starniske and Bertha Kutzner.

There was another connection between the two families: Christiane (née Kalt) Langner (the mother mentioned above). The Zimmermanns Frau (wife of a carpenter) Christiane Langner was one of the baptism sponsors for Wilhelm Karl Herrmann Starniske who was baptized on the 12th of October in 1879 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Starniske and his wife Bertha (née Kurtzner) Starniske. See the Marriage and Family of Herrmann Starniske and Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske, 1875 to 1903 City of Breslau.

Death of Reinhold Starnitzky 10 July 1876 City of Breslau

The Schlossergeselle (journeyman mechanic) Reinhold Starnitzky lived in Breslau at Brüderstraße 46 (now Kazimierza Pułaskiego, southeast of the old city walls). He died at a Breslau hospital on the 10th of July in 1876 at the age of 21 years (so he was born around 1855). Reinhold was buried at Gräbschen on the 13th of July in 1876.

Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Hannert-Kleisch 1876 to 1943 City of Breslau

The 1876 baptism record for her daughter (see below) identified Anna Sternitzke as the daughter of Stellenbesitzer (property owner) David Sternitzke in Wüstendorf (Kreis Breslau). See the Village of Wüstendorf in Breslau County: the Family of David Sternitzke and Johanna Dorothea (née Dresdner) Sternitzke, 1858 to 1889 Wüstendorf. The 1888 baptism record for her son Max Franz Walter Sternitzke listed Anna as the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer Karl Sternitzke from Wüstendorf.

Auguste Minna Otilie Sternitzke, 1876 & 1897

A database of Germany Birth and Baptisms (<https://www.familysearch.org/>) listed the birth of Auguste Minna Otilie Sternitzke (on the 26th of July in 1876) and listed her mother as Anna Sternitzke. Auguste Minna Otilie was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalene Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of August in 1876 (baptism record 458). The baptism sponsors were: the Kärnners Frau (wife of a cart driver) Louise Hannert, the Kärnners Frau Rachner and her daughter Susanna Rachner.

Two attachments were added to the baptism record for Auguste Minna Otilie Sternitzke. The attachments were added to the church record on the 20th of March in 1883. The first attachment was a copy of the civil birth record for Auguste Minna Otilie. The original birth record was number 3264, and it was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt II on the 3rd of August in 1876. It listed her mother as the unmarried Nätherin (seamstress) Anna Sternitzke, a Protestant, who lived at Werderstraße 14 in Breslau. The child: Auguste Minna Otilie Sternitzke was born on the 26th of July in 1876. Werderstraße 14 was on the island north of St. Elisabeth Church. That street is now named Księża Witolda Street.

The second attachment to the baptism record was a record of legitimacy for Auguste Minna Otilie Sternitzke. On the 7th of August in 1882, the Schuhmacher August Hannert made legitimate the child of Anna Sternitzke. The child was Auguste Minna Otilie Sternitzke, who was born on the 26th of July in 1876. August was a Protestant who lived in Breslau at Grosse Groschenstraße 1. August and Anna were married on the 14th of June in 1880, as was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I in the civil marriage record number 558. The 1884 Breslau address book listed the Schumacher Hannert as a resident at Große Groschengasse 1 (not Grosse Groschenstraße). He was not listed in later Breslau address books.

The marriage record for Auguste Minna Otilie Hannert shows she was born at Breslau on the 26th of July in 1876. Her 1897 marriage record identified her as the daughter of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) August Hannert and Anna (née Sternitzke) Hannert. The marriage record shows that Auguste's father (the shoemaker August Hannert) was missing and had been legally declared dead. Her mother had divorced August Hannert and was married to a Mr. Kleisch. Her mother, Anna (née Sternitzke) Kleisch was living at Breslau at the time of the wedding. Anna (née Sternitzke) Hannert divorced Mr. Hannert before the baptism of Anna's son Max Franz Walter Sternitzke on the 4th of March in 1888.

Her birth and baptism records listed her as Auguste Minna Otilie Sternitzke show that August Hannert was Auguste's father, but he married Anna Sternitzke after Auguste's birth. He legally adopted her in 1882, which explains why she was listed as Auguste Minna Otilie Hannert on her marriage record, and signed her name as shown below.

Auguste Minna Ottilie Hannert married the Tapezierer (wallpaper hanger) Paul Walter Vincenz Karsch at Breslau on the 6th of October in 1897. Auguste was employed as a Köcherin (cook) and lived in Breslau at Brunnenstrasse 24 (4 blocks southwest from the main trainstation, now Studzienna Street). The groom was a Catholic and the bride was a Protestant. The groom was the son of the deceased Breslau Arbeiter (laborer) Franz Karsch and his wife Theresia (née Kirschner) Karsch, who was still a resident of Breslau in 1897.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 22 years old Vergolder (gilder) Rudolf Zarte and the 46 years old Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Carl Jerschke. Rudolf Zarte lived in Breslau at Nachodstrasse 19 (2 blocks southwest from the main trainstation, now Skwerowa Street). Carl Jerschke lived in Breslau at Neudorfstrasse 78 (about one mile southwest from the main trainstation, now Aleja Wiśniowa Street).

Notes on the marriage record show that Paul and Auguste Karsch had a daughter named Erna Hedwig Auguste Karsch, who was born on the 12th of March in 1899 (record number 561/1899 at Breslau Standesamt IV), and that she was married on the 28th of August in 1943 (record 631/1943 at Breslau Standesamt III). Another note shows that Paul Walter Vincenz Karsch died in 1936 (record number 1083 in 1936 at Breslau Standesamt I).

Birth of son Gustav Adolph Ernst Hannert, 1880

August Hannert and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Hannert had a son. Gustav Adolph Ernst Hannert was born at Breslau on the 24th of September in 1880. He was baptized on the 27th of September in 1880 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism record listed the family name as Hammert. The baptism record shows that the child's birth was recorded at the Breslau registry office Standesamt I on the 27th of September in 1880. The baptism sponsors were: Georg Kurt Steinmetz, the Nätherin (seamstress) Bertha Krause, the Tapezierers Frau (wife of a wallpaper hanger) Theresia Schramm.

Birth of son Max Franz Walter Sternitzke, 1888

Max Franz Walter Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 26th of January in 1888. His birth was registered at Breslau Standesamt I. His baptism record listed his mother as the Anna Sternitzke the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer Karl Sternitzke in Wüstendorf (Breslau County). Anna was listed as divorced from a Mr. Hannat.

The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 4th of March in 1888 (record number 100). The baptism sponsor was the Schneiderin (tailor) Ida Gnerlich.

Family of Veronika Sternitzke and Hermann Böhm 1876 to 1943 City of Breslau

Note: The generation numbers (shown as roman numerals in the tree below) were estimated from the known chronology shown in a table in Book I, Chapter 14: Friedrichskirch (Kainowe), End of Chapter Notes and Additional Information by JWS: Ancestor Table for Gotthold Sternitzke from Friedrichskirch. If Veronika Sternitzke was born in 1847, she was probably in the same generation as Gottlieb Sternitzke (1845-1913), who was in the tenth generation of the known Sternitzke family tree. Gottlieb's brother, Ernst Sternitzke was born in 1847 and died in 1916.

- Circa Gen.X. Veronika Sternitzke (1847-1926). Married Hermann Böhm, in 1876.
- Circa Gen.XIa. Martha Anna Agnes Sternitzke (1869-1929). First marriage to Richard Gustav Oscar Blümel in 1897. Second marriage to Karl Julius Müller.
- Circa Gen.XIIa. Elfriede Gertrud Alma Sternitzke (1896-1896).
- Circa Gen.XIb. Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke (1876-after 1910). Married August Hermann Thiel in 1903. Divorced in 1910.
- Circa Gen.XIIb. Hildegard Katharina Sternitzke (1903-unknown).
- Circa Gen.XIIc. Hermann Walter Thiel (1904-unknown).
- Circa Gen.XIc. Johann Karl Hermann Böhm (1877-1943). Married Agnes Klara Hedwig Guschall in 1907.
- Circa Gen.XId. Klara Anne Böhm (1878-unknown). Married Johann Theodor Kollei in 1904.
- Circa Gen.XIe. Anna Maria Auguste Böhm (1883-unknown). Married Wilhelm Oskar Arthur Marx in 1906.

Birth of Veronika Starnitzke/Sternitzke/Sternitzky, 1847

The death record of Veronika Sternitzke (1847-1926) shows she was born at the village

Leipe in Breslau County, on the 11th of October in 1847. Veronika's death record was completed by her daughter Klara (née Böhm) Kolle. There are conflicting versions of information regarding Veronika Sternitzke's year of birth, place of birth and the spelling of her names. The most common spelling of her name was Veronika Sternitzke. Two records for her children listed her as Veronica. The 1906 marriage record of her daughter Anna Maria Auguste Böhm identified Anna's mother as Veronika Sternitzk̈y.

Manfred Böhm's website shows that Hermann Böhm's second marriage was to Veronika Starnitzke in 1876 at Breslau. His website shows Veronika Starnitzke was born in Breslau in 1854 (instead of Leipe in 1847). The 1847 year is probably correct, because Veronika would have been around 22 years old (not 15) when her first daughter was born in 1869.

Birth, Marriage and Family and Death of daughter
Martha Anna Agnes Sternitzke,
1869 Leipe, 1876 to 1929 Breslau

Martha Anna Agnes Sternitzke (1869-1929) was born at Leipe in Breslau County on the 4th of August in 1869. Veronika Sternitzke and her daughter Martha moved to the City of Breslau sometime between Martha's birth and the birth of Veronika's second daughter Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke at Breslau in 1876.

The ledigen Maschinenstrickerin (unmarried knitting machine operator) Martha Sternitzke gave birth to a daughter Elfriede Gertrud Alma Sternitzke in Breslau, on the 11th of June in 1896. The mother was a Catholic. The civil birth record listed Martha's residence in 1896 as Gabitzstraße 94 (about 10 blocks west of the main train station, now Gajowicka Street), which was about 5 blocks south from her address in 1897.

Elfriede Sternitzke died in her mother's home on the 3rd of August in 1896 at the age of 7 weeks old. The civil death record listed her as a Protestant. At that time the ledigen Maschinenstrickerin (unmarried knitting machine operator) Martha Sternitzke resided in Breslau at Ziethenstraße 18 (shown as Zietenstraße on earlier maps, 6 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Żytnia Street). Martha Sternitzke signed the civil death record.

In 1897, Martha Anna Agnes Sternitzke was employed in Breslau as a Maschinenstrickerin (knitting machine operator) and lived at Ziethenstraße 18. Martha married the Holzbildhauer (wood sculptor) Richard Gustav Oscar Blümel on the 22nd of February in 1897. According to Martha's 1897 marriage record, she was the daughter of Veronica Sternitzke who married Mr. Böhm prior to Martha's wedding date. Her mother, Veronica (née Sternitzke) Böhm resided at Kattern in Breslau County in 1897. Martha was identified as a Catholic. Richard was a Protestant and was born at Breslau on the 15th of September in 1869.

He was the son of the deceased Breslau Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Josef Blümel and his wife Louise née Lindner who was living in Breslau at the time of the wedding.

Witnesses at the 1897 wedding included the 27 years old Holzbildhauer (wood sculptor) Paul Rother and the 26 years old Holzbildhauer (wood sculptor) Berthold Rosner. Paul Rother lived at Scheitnigerstraße 2 (one block east of the Breslau Catholic St. John the Baptist's Cathedral, now Szczytnicka Street). Berthold Rosner lived at Lewaldstraße 23 (6 blocks southwest from the old Breslau city walls, now Zdrowa Street).

Richard Gustav Oscar Blümel died and Martha Anna Agnes (née Sternitzke) Blümel married the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Julius Müller. They lived at Gräbschener Straße 106 (now Grabiszyńska Street) prior to Martha's death in 1929.

Martha Anna Agnes (née Sternitzke) Müller died at the Krankenhaus zu Allerheiligen (hospital) in Breslau on the 17th of July in 1929. She was 59 years old.

Birth Marriage and Family of daughter
Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke,
1876 to 1910 Breslau

Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 18th of January in 1876. Her mother was the unmarried Wirtsschafterin (housekeeper) Veronica Sternitzke, who lived at Dreilindenstraße 19 with a member of the Sonneck family. The 1884 Breslau address book listed a Haushälterin (house keeper) Marie Sonneck who lived at that address. The birth was reported by the midwife Pauline Liebtanz, who may have meant Große Dreilindengasse 19 (about 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Ptasia Street). Marie (née Krause) Sonneck and Veronica Sternitzke were probably stepsisters. See the Birth and Death of Marie (Krause) Sonneck, 1839 Leipe, 1887 Breslau.

In 1903, Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke was employed as a Köchin (cook) and lived in Breslau at Nikolaistadtgraben 22 (one block east from the Breslau West trainstation). Nikolaistadtgraben was the street that ran along the west side of the city moat. That street is now the western section of Podwale Street, which runs along the outer edge of the moat.

Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke had a daughter out of wedlock: Hildegard Katharina Sternitzke was born on the 11th of January in 1903. Hildegard's birth record identified her mother as the ledigen Köchin (unmarried cook) Agnes Sternitzke, who was a Catholic and who lived in Breslau at Thiergartenstraße 42 (about 2 miles east of the old city walls, now Curie-Skłodowskiej Street). Thiergartenstraße is the same street shown as Tiergartenstraße on maps. Agnes lived one block west of the Royal University Clinic where Hildegard was born. Hildegard Katharina Sternitzke was baptized at Breslau on the 15th of January in 1903. A handwritten note on the birth record shows that Agnes Sternitzke married the Arbeiter August Hermann Thiel on the 17th of November in 1903.

The marriage record for Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke shows she married the Gasanstaltsarbeiter (a worker at the Breslau gasworks) August Hermann Thiel on the 17th of November in 1903. Agnes was listed as a Catholic and August was listed as a Protestant on their marriage record. August Thiel was living at that time at in Breslau at Paulstraße 19 (4 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now named Michała Wrocławczyka Street). August was born on 25th of August in 1879 at Rogau in Schweidnitz County. He was the son of the Maschinenheizer (boiler stoker) August Thiel and his wife Augusta (née Rose) Thiel, who were both residents of Breslau.

A witness at the 1903 marriage was the 61 years old Bäcker (baker) August Thiel who lived at the same address as the groom. He may have been an uncle to August Hermann Thiel, because the marriage record listed the occupation of the groom's father as a Maschinenheizer (boiler stoker). The other witness listed was the 28 years old Barbier und Friseur (barber and hairdresser) Fridolin Kunisch. He lived in Breslau at Gertrudenstraße 8 (5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now named Benedykta Polaka Street).

A handwritten note on the marriage record shows that Ida Martha Agnes (née Sternitzke) Thiel and August Hermann Thiel were geschieden (divorced) on the 10th of June in 1910. This was after the birth of their son: Herman Walter Thiel on the 12th of September in 1904. The birth record of Herman Walter Thiel showed that his parents were living at Gellhornstraße 14 (3 blocks southwest of the Botanical Gardens, now Macieja Strubicza Street).

First Marriage of Hermann Böhm, 1874 Breslau

Manfred Böhm's website for the Böhm family genealogy shows that Hermann Böhm was born at Breslau in 1851. Hermann's first marriage was to Bianka Pelikan in 1874. She was born in Breslau in 1853. Hermann and Bianka (née Pelikan) Böhm had two daughters:

- Clara Agnes Helena Elisabeth Böhm was born in Breslau on the 17th of February in 1875, and
- Auguste Bianka Emma Böhm was born in Breslau on the 4th of July in 1876.

Manfred Böhm's website shows that Hermann Böhm's second marriage was to Veronika Starnitzke in 1876 at Breslau. Veronika Starnitzke was born in Breslau in 1854. They were identified as Catholics. The website identified the source of this information as church records. The death record of Veronika Sternitzke was completed by her daughter Klara (née Böhm) Kolle. It listed a different spelling of Veronika's last name (Sternitzke instead of Starnitzke), a different birth location (Leipe in Breslau County instead of Breslau) and a different year of birth (11 October 1847 instead of 1854).

Marriage of Veronika Sternitzke to Hermann Böhm, 1876 Kattern

After Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke's birth in 1876, Veronika Sternitzke married the Windmüller (windmill owner) at Kattern in Breslau County named Hermann Böhm. Kattern was a town about 6 miles southeast of Breslau. The population of Kattern was 1546 in 1939. Kattern was sometimes written as Cattern, but it appeared as Kattern on the Breslau marriage records and was also shown on pre-1945 maps as Kattern. It is now named Święta Katarzyna, Poland.

Children of Veronika (née Sternitzke) Böhm,
1887 to 1883 Kattern:

After her marriage to Hermann Böhm, Veronika (née Sternitzke) Böhm gave birth to three more children.

Johann Karl Hermann Böhm (1877-1943) was born in Kattern on the 9th of August in 1877. Manfred Böhm's website listed the birth of Carl Hermann Böhm as the 12th of August in 1877. See the discussion below regarding Johann's marriage at Breslau in 1907.

Klara Anne Böhm was born at Kattern on the 19th of December in 1878. See the discussion below regarding her marriage at Breslau in 1904.

Anna Maria Auguste Böhm was born at Kattern on the 31st of March in 1883. See the discussion below regarding her marriage at Breslau in 1906.

Death of Hermann Böhm

Hermann Böhm died between 1882 and 1897. He was not mentioned in the 1897 marriage record of Martha Anna Agnes Sternitzke. Veronika (née Sternitzke) Böhm was listed as a widow at the time of the marriage of her daughter Ida Martha Agnes Sternitzke in 1903. He probably died at Kattern.

Veronika was still living at Kattern in 1903 and 1904, but she was living in Breslau in 1906 and 1907 according to her childrens' marriage records.

Birth and Marriage of Klara Anne Böhm, 1904

Klara Anne Böhm was born at Kattern in Breslau County on the 19th of December in 1878. She was the daughter of the Mühlenbesitzer (mill proprietor) Hermann Böhm and his wife Veronika (née Sternitzke) Böhm who lived in Kattern in Breslau County.

Klara Anne Böhm married the Schmied (smith) Johann Theodor Kolle at Breslau on the 22nd of November in 1904. The bride and the groom were both identified as Catholics on their marriage record. Klara was employed as a Plätterin (ironer) and was living at Enderstraße 24 (3 blocks north of the Oder River, one block from the main road to Trebnitz, now Henryka Pobożnego Street). Her father died before the 1878 wedding, but her mother was still living at Kattern.

Johann Theodor Kolle was born on the 8th of February in 1880, at Dürrgoy in Breslau County. He was the son the Arbeiter (laborer) Johann Kolle in Breslau and his wife Rosine (née Nittke) Kolle, who was deceased and who last lived at the village Dürrgoy (known as Tarnogaj in Polish, now a southeastern suburb of Wrocław). Johann (the son) was employed as a Schmied (smith) and lived in Breslau at Gabitzstraße 40 (now Stysia Street, 7 blocks west of the main Breslau trainstation).

The witnesses to Klara Böhm's 1904 wedding included the 35 years old Marstallkärner Josef Sander and the 27 years old Geschäftsdiener (business assistant) Hermann Böhm. A Marstallkärner was a 19th century German occupational word which may mean "a person who pushes a cart from the horse stables". Josef Sander lived with the groom at Gabitzstraße 40 prior to the wedding. Hermann Böhm lived in Breslau at Reuschestraße 24 (about 4 blocks west from the southwest corner of the Ring, now Ruska Street). Hermann Böhm was Klara's older brother Johann Karl Hermann Böhm who was born in Breslau in August of 1877 (and would have been 27 years old at the time of Klara's marriage).

Klara's mother, the widow Veronika (née Sternitzke) Böhm died in 1926 at the home of her daughter the Aufwärterin Klara (née Böhm) Kolle, at Neue Matthiasstraße 7 (across the Oder River from the University of Breslau and Sand Island, about one block north of the river). The 1934 address book shows that Neue Matthiasstraße was renamed as Peuckerstraße. It is now Henryka Probusa Street. An Aufwärterin in the modern sense of the word is a waitress. The word used to mean a woman who looked after the tenants and the building as an intermediary between the tenants and the owner of the building, in exchange for reduced rent.

Marriage of Anna Maria Auguste Böhm, 1906

Anna Maria Auguste Böhm was born on the 31st of March in 1883 at Kattern in Breslau County. Her 1906 marriage record shows she was the daughter of the Müllermeister (master miller) Hermann Böhm and his wife Veronika née Sternitzkÿ. Anna's father had died before her wedding, but her mother was living in Breslau at the time.

In 1906, Anna Maria Auguste Böhm was employed as a Plätterin (ironer) and living in Breslau at Enderstraße 24 (now Henryka Pobożnego Street, 3 blocks north of the Oder River, near the main road to Trebnitz). On the 13th of October in 1906, she married the Eisenbahnschlosser (railroad mechanic) Wilhelm Oskar Arthur Marx. They were both identified as Protestants on their marriage record. Wilhelm lived in Breslau at Königgrätzerstraße 34 (8 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Stanisława Wieckowskiego Street).

Wilhelm Oskar Arthur Marx was born on the 5th of July in 1882 at Briesen in Brieg County. He was the son of the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Wilhelm Marx and his wife Emilie (née Jenna) Marx. Both of Wilhelm's parents had died at Breslau before his wedding in 1906.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 24 years old Briefträger (letter carrier) Hermann Marx and the 29 years old Hermann Böhm. Hermann Marx lived in Breslau at Sternstraße 89 (4 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Henryka Sienkiewicza Street). Hermann Böhm was the bride's brother Johann Karl Hermann Böhm. In 1906, he was living at Reuschestraße 24 which was the same address listed for him (as a witness) on the 1904 marriage record for his other sister Klara Anne Böhm, and on his own marriage record in 1907. His signatures on both marriage records match.

Marriage of Johann Karl Hermann Böhm, 1907

Johann Karl Hermann Böhm was born at Kattern in Breslau County on the 9th of August in 1877. He was the son of the Müllermeister (master miller) Hermann Böhm and his wife Veronika née Sternitzke who lived in Kattern in Breslau County.

In 1907, Johann Karl Hermann Böhm was employed as a Kontordienner (worker at a foreign trading office) in Breslau and lived at Reuschestraße 24 (4 blocks west from the southwest corner of the Ring, now Ruska Street). He married Agnes Klara Hedwig Guschall on the 4th of October in 1907 at Breslau. They were both identified as Protestants on their marriage record. Agnes was a Kinderfräulein (governess, nanny) and lived in Breslau at Enderstraße 24. This was the same address as was listed on the marriage record for Anna Maria Auguste Böhm in 1906 (see below). The groom's father had died at Kattern before the wedding, but the groom's mother was alive and living in Breslau.

Agnes Klara Hedwig Guschall was born on the 29th of October in 1884 at Stadt-Schlawa in Freistadt County. She was the daughter of the Brennereiverwalter (distillery manager) Karl Guschall and his wife Anna Ida Mathilda (née Beling) Guschall, who in 1907 were both residents of Losswitz in Wohlau County.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 25 years old Schlosser (mechanic) Arthur Marx and the 49 years old Verwaltungs Inspektor (administrative inspector) Gustav Guschall. Arthur Marx was the Wilhelm Oskar Arthur Marx who married Anna Maria Auguste Böhm in 1906. Arthur Marx lived in Breslau at Neue Tauentzienstraße 49 (about 5 blocks east of the main train station, now Kościuszki Street). Gustav Guschall lived in Breslau at Auenstraße 44 (7 blocks east from the Botanical Gardens, now Bujwida Street).

Handwritten notes on the marriage record indicate the groom Johann Karl Hermann Böhm died on the 4th of August in 1943, as recorded on the 9th of August 1943 death record number 1683 at the Breslau Standes-Amt III.

Death of Veronika (née Sternitzke) Böhm (1847-1926)

The widow Veronika (née Sternitzke) Böhm died at Breslau on the 20th of December in 1926, at the age of 79 years old. Veronika died at the home of her daughter Klara (née Böhm)

Kollei, at Neue Matthiasstraße 7 (across the Oder River from the University of Breslau and Sand Island, about one block north of the river). The 1934 address book showed that Neue Matthiasstraße was renamed as Peuckerstraße. It is now Henryka Probusa Street.

Family of Anna (née Sternitzke/Sterniske) Kegel 1876 to 1912 City of Breslau

The history of Anna (née Sternitzke/Sterniske) Kegel is known through the records of her children and husband. Anna was identified as Anna Sterniske on the death record of her son Robert, and on the marriage record of her son Richard. Robert's surname was identified as Sternitzke on his birth record, but was listed as Sterniske on his death record.

Birth and Death of son Robert Sternitzke/Sterniske, 1876 – 1900

The birth record for Robert Sternitzke was not available online in 2014 & 2015 for verification of the transcription of Robert's last name. The source of his birth information was only a list of children's names and their birthdates from the referenced birth record book at the National Archives at Wrocław. That partial transcription listed the birthdate of Robert Sternitzke as the 28th of July in 1876. The names of his parents were not included in the transcription. The death record of Robert Sterniske identified his mother as Anna Sterniske. She was apparently unmarried when Robert was born.

The death record of the Klempner (plumber) Robert Sterniske shows he died at the Breslau hospital Krankenhaus zu Allerheiligen, on the 24th of July in 1900.

Robert Sterniske/Sternitzke died at the age of 23 years and 11 months (4 days before his 24th birthday). Robert was unmarried and a Catholic. Prior to his death he lived in Breslau at Friedrich-Wilhelm-Straße 4 (1 block west of the old city walls, now Legnicka Street). The location of his mother Anna Sterniske at the time of Robert's death, was unknown, but she was known to be at that time the widow of a Mister Kegel, whose occupation was listed on Robert's death record as a Schosser (probably meant to be written as Schlosser – mechanic).

Birth of son Alwin Richard Kegel, 1883

The Schlosser (mechanic) Berthold Kegel and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Kegel were residents of Breslau. Berthold was a Protestant and his wife was a Catholic. Their son was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 31st of June in 1883. The baptism record references a birth record for the baby, at Breslau Standesamt II, dated 28th of April in 1883. That civil birth record shows the child was born on the 25th of April in 1883. The family lived at Posenerstraße 39 (now Poznańska Street, about 1 mile northwest of the old walls of Breslau). The mother's name was written as Anna (née Sterniske) Kegel on the civil birth record. The father, Berthold Kegel signed the birth record.

The baptismal sponsors were the Breslau Schlosser Paul Hanke, the Breslau Schlosser Rudolf Sternitzke and the Breslau Schlosser Richard Seliger. The baptismal sponsor listed as the Schlosser Rudolf Sternitzke may have been the Schlosser Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske. He was listed as the Schlosser Rudolf Sternitzke in the 1891 and 1897 Breslau address books. He was also a Catholic, like Anna (née Sternitzke) Kegel. See the Marriage of Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske, 21 March 1889 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Albert Oswald Kegel, 1885

The Schlosser (mechanic) Berthold Kegel and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Kegel were residents of Breslau. Berthold was a Protestant and his wife was a Catholic. Their son was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 6th of April in 1885. The baptism record references a birth record for the baby: Breslau Standesamt II, dated 13 February 1885. The baptismal sponsors were the Breslau Schlosser Julius Frenk, the Breslau Schlosser Anton Zisocke and Fräuline Elisabeth Müller.

Birth and Marriage of son Richard Reinhold Rudolf Kegel, 1887 & 1912

The marriage record of Richard Reinhold Rudolf Kegel provided his birth information. He was born at Breslau on the 29th of November in 1887. He was the son of the Schlosser (mechanic) Bertold Kegel and Anna (née Sterniske) Kegel who died at Breslau before Richard's wedding in 1912.

The Sattler (saddle maker) Richard Reinhold Kegel married the Putzmacherin (milliner) Anna Agnes Helene Michalowski at Breslau on the 26th of October in 1912. The groom and the bride were both Protestant. They lived in Breslau at Friedrich-Wilhelm-Straße 94 (now Legnicka Street, west of the old city). Anna Agnes Helene Michalowski was born at Breslau on the 28th of April in 1891. She was the daughter of the Schlosser Wladislaus Michalowski and his wife Martha (née Kassner) Michalowski who both died at Breslau before the wedding in 1912.

The wedding witnesses were the 42 years old Heizer (stoker) Franz Jaraus and the 34 years old Maurer (mason) Joseph Jaraus. The witnesses were residents of Breslau.

Death of husband Berthold Kegel, 1895

The Schlosser (mechanic) Berthold Kegel died on the 20th of May 1895, at the age of 42 years and 6 months. He was the son of the deceased Zaborowo Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Berthold Kegel and Susanna (née Schmidt) Kegel. Berthold was born in Zaborowo in Fraustadt County of Posen (which became Zaborowo in Lissa County of Posen in 1887).

Berthold's widow was listed as Anna Sterniske. They lived in Breslau at Große Dreilindengasse 12 (near the Klein Bahnhof - small trainstation to Trebnitz, now Ptasia Street, about 7 blocks north of the University Bridge).

Gutsbesitzer Robert Sternitzki (Sternitzky)
Godfather in 1877 and 1879 City of Breslau

The Breslau Gutsbesitzer (homestead owner) Robert Sternitzki (Sternitzky) was a godfather at the baptisms of two children of Wilhelm Pittwohn and his wife Marie (née Hofrichter) Pittwohn, at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The Pittwohn family lived in Breslau at Löschstraße 16 (about 7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Ignacego Prądzyńskiego Street). Wilhelm Pittwohn was employed as a Heizer (boiler stoker) in 1877, and employed as a Locomotivführer (locomotive driver) in 1879.

Paul Pittwohn was born on the 15th of March in 1877, and he was baptized on the 16th of April in 1877. The baptismal sponsors were the Locomotivführer Ferdinand Bartel, the Locomotivführer Johann Meinka, the Handelsmann (merchant) Carl Hoferichter and the Gutsbesitzer Robert Sternitzki.

Meta Klara Marie Pittwohn was born on the 19th of March in 1879. She was baptized on the 17th of April in 1879. The baptismal sponsors were the Gutsbesitzer (in Breslau) Robert Sternitzky, the Locomotivführer (in Breslau) Reinhold Leuscher and the Locomotivführer (in Breslau) Johannes Mainka.

Birth and Death of Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke
1877 to 1943 City of Breslau

Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke (1877-1946) was born at Breslau on the 22nd of November in 1877. He was the son of Carl Sternitzke and Elisabet Gelfert. He was baptized at St. Elisabeth Church on the 26th of December in 1877. The baptismal sponsors were the Schuhmachermeister Florian Hanke, the Arbeiter August Kuhnt and the Mauer Franz Ache. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau.

The 1919 Breslau address book listed the Bodenmeister (master flooring installer) Alfred Sternitzke. He lived at Belltafelstraße 9 I (first floor). Belltafelstraße was shown on an 1850 map. It was about 9 blocks north of the University Bridge. On a 1905 map it was shown as Roßgasse and it is now known as Biskupa Tomasza Pierwszego Street.

The 1923 Breslau address book listed the Hausdiener (male servant) Alfred Sternitzke as a resident at Mehlgasse 59. The 1926 and 1927 address books listed Alfred as a Haushälter (janitor) at the same address. Mehlgasse 59 was near the train station to Trebnitz. It is now Ludwika Rydygiera Street 5 blocks north of the University Bridge.

The 1931 Breslau address book listed Alfred Sternitzke as a Rentner (retired person) who lived at Mehlgasse 59. Later address books (1934 to 1943) continued to show him as a Rentner at that location, after the street Mehlgasse was named to Gustav-Müller-Straße

Alfred Sternitzke was living at Gustav-Müller-Straße 59 in 1941 when the death of his brother, Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke, was reported by Emma (née Korsetzke) Sternitzke who lived at Gustav-Müller Straße 59. The common address and surname are the only known connection between Alfred and Emma, but Alfred was the only Sternitzke who was listed as living at that address in 1937, 1941 and 1943. Emma (née Korsetzke) Sternitzke was probably the wife of Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke.

Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke survived the Second World War. He died on the 1st of August in 1946. He was buried at the St. Stephani Evangelical Lutheran Cemetery at Helmstedt, Germany (Block 7, Row F, Grave 55). Helmstedt is between Brunswick and Magdeburg, in the German State of Niedersachsen.

Family of Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale 1877 to 1904 City of Breslau

Susanne Helene Sternitzke was probably born around 1855. She married Julius Pipiale (1850-1904) at Breslau around 1875 (based on the birth of her first known child and data from the death record of Julius). She was probably the sister of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Karl Sternitzke who lived at Gürkwitz (near Prausnitz in Militsch County). Karl was a baptismal sponsor for two of Helene's children.

Karl Sternitzke and Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale were probably the children of Carl Sternitzke and Elisabet (née Scheuner) Sternitzke. Elisabeth (née Scheiner) Sternitzke was listed as the baptismal sponsor for one of Helene's children in 1880. Elisabeth was listed as the widow of the Häusler Sternitzke. Julius Pipiale and Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale lived in Breslau at Seitengasse 5 at that time.

Two years later, Frau Elisabet (née Scheuner) Sternitzke, the surviving wife of the Häusler Carl Sternitzke, was living at Seitengasse 5. She died at Breslau on the 25th of September in 1882, at the age of 69 years and 7 months (so she was born around February of 1813). She was buried on the 28th of September in 1882. She was a Protestant. The death record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau reported that her civil death record was number 3778, dated 26 September 1882, at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Birth and Death of daughter Martha Helene Gertrud Pipiale (1877-1893)

Martha Helene Gertrud Pipiale was born on the 17th of November in 1877. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of December in 1877. She was the daughter of the Eisenbahnschaffer (railroad conductor) Julius Pipiale and Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale, who lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 41 (about 3 blocks northwest from Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street). Julius Pipiale was a Catholic. His wife was a Protestant.

The baptismal sponsors were: Karl Sternitzke a Stellenbesitzer from Gürkwitz, Luise Scheuer the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer Scheuer from Herrnkaschütz, and Christiane (née Fleischer) Majunke the wife of the Breslau Haushälter Majunke.

Birth of daughter Ida Emma Olga Pipiale, 1880

Ida Emma Olga Pipiale was born on the 24th of January in 1880. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of February in 1880. She was the daughter of the Schaffner (conductor) Julius Pipiale and Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale. The baptism record listed Julius as a Catholic and Helene as a Protestant. They lived at Seitengasse 5 at that time. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław).

The baptismal sponsor was Elisabeth (née Scheiner) Sternitzke, the widow of the Häusler Sternitzke. This sponsor was probably the mother of Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale.

Martha Helene Gertrud Pipiale died at the family home at Löschstraße 5 (about 7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Ignacego Prądzyńskiego Street). She died on the 19th of May in 1893 at the age of 15 and ½ years old. She was Protestant, unmarried and unoccupied. Her parents were listed on the civil death record as the Eisenbahn Packmeister (railroad master luggage handler) Julius Pipiale and Helena (née Sternitzke) Pipiale. Her father signed the death record as Julius Pipiale.

Birth of daughter Bertha Hulda Margarethe Pipiale, 1888

Bertha Hulda Margarethe Pipiale was born on the 30th of August in 1888. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 4th of September in 1888. Her parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Eisenbahn Schaffner (railroad conductor) Julius Pipiale and Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale. Julius was listed as a Catholic. Helene was listed as a Protestant. They lived at Seitengasse Nr. 5. The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiter (laborer) Heinrich Schwebsch, and Carl Sternitzke a Freistellenbesitzer in Gürkwitz (near Prausnitz) in Militsch County.

Baptismal Sponsor Selma Pipiale, 1888

The Schaffner's wife Selma Pipiale was one of the baptismal sponsors for Anna Rosina Mauer at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of February in 1888. The baby was the daughter of August Mauer and Rosina Sternitzke. See the Marriage and Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Mauer, 1887 to 1930 City of Breslau.

Baptismal Sponsor Helene Pipiale, 1894

The Packmeister's wife Helene Pipiale was one of the baptismal sponsors for Paul Mauer at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of April in 1894. He was the son of August Mauer and Anna (née Sternitzke) Mauer. See the Marriage and Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Mauer, 1887 to 1930 City of Breslau.

Death of Julius Pipiale (1850-1904)

The Packmeister (master luggage handler) Julius Pipiale died at the Klosters der Barmherzigen Brüder (hospital) on the 8th of October in 1904, at the age of 54 years and 9 months old. His calculated birthdate was around the 8th of January in 1850. He was a Catholic. He had lived at Neue Tauentzienstraße 26 in Breslau.

He was born at Janischgut in Trebnitz County and married Helene Sternitzke at Breslau. He was the son of the Auszügler (pensioner) Karl Pipiale and Hedwig (née Trippke) Pipiale. Karl Pipiale died at Tarnowitz in Upper Silesia. Hedwig Pipiale died at Groß Zöllnig in Oels County. The death of Julius Pipiale was reported by Father Bartholomaeus Kühnel at the Barmherzigen Brüder Klosters (hospital) in Breslau.

Brothers Wilhelm Starnitzki and Johann Hermann Georg Starnitzki and Johanna Karoline Augusta (née Weber) Starnitzki 1878 to 1939 City of Breslau

Wilhelm Starnitzki (1852-1894) and Johann Hermann Georg Starnitzki (1857- 1903) were the sons of the Domnowitz *Stellenbesitzer*s (property owners) Georg Starnitzki and Susanna (née Heller) Starnitzki. Both brothers were born at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County and died at Breslau.

Godfather Wilhelm Starnitzky, 1878

The Müller (miller) Wilhelm Starnitzky was the godfather at the baptism of Fritz Oskar Paul Fietzek at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 16th of June in 1878. The baby was the son of the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Franz Fietzek and his wife Christiane (née Wippich) Fietzek. The other sponsors were Frau Anna Bredale (the wife of the Stellenbesitzer Georg Bredale), and the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Frau Hedwig Lindner.

Godfather Wilhelm Sternitzky, 1879

The Breslau Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Anna Helene Christiane Hartmann on the 9th of December in 1879. The baptism was at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was born on the 26th of September in 1879, the daughter of the Arbeiter August Hartmann and his wife Anna (née Bunk) Hartmann. See the December 1881 baptism below. The Hartmann family lived at Jägerstraße 8 in Breslau. The other baptismal sponsor was the Dienstmädchen Helene Hartmann.

Godfather Georg Sternitzki, May 1881

The Müller (miller) Georg Sternitzki was the godfather at the baptism of Anna Martha Staske on the 1st of May in 1881, at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Friedrich Staske and his wife Anna (née Knappe) Staske. The Staske family lived at Mühlgasse 3. The other godparents were the unmarried Pauline Geier and the unmarried Anna Staske.

Godfather Georg Starnitzke, December 1881

The Breslau Müllergeselle (journeyman miller) Georg Starnitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Elisabeth Hartmann on the 25th of December in 1881. She was born on the 19th of November in 1881, the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) August Hartmann and his wife Anna (née Bunk) Hartmann. The baptism was at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The other sponsor was Louise Kunze, the daughter of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Kunze. The Hartmann family lived at Ottostraße 46 at that time.

Baptismal Sponsor Georg Sternitzki (senior), 1882

The Stellenbesitzer Georg Sternitzki from Domnowitz was one of the baptismal sponsors for Johann Eduard Reinhold Horn. The baby was born on the 26th of February in 1882, the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Johann Horn and his wife Anna (née Fröhlich) Horn who lived in the village of Rosenthal. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of March in 1882. The other baptismal sponsors were: Bertha Kurtz the daughter of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Julius Kurtz in Festenberg, and Susanna Bährholt the widow of the Gasamstaltsarbeiter (gas station laborer) Ernst Bährholt. This Georg Sternitzki could have been one of three men with that name who lived at Domnowitz around that time. See Book I, Chapter 9 Germanengrund (Domnowitz): Georg Sternitzki/Sternitzke I, II and III, 19th Century Domnowitz.

Marriage of Georg Sternitzki, 1886

The Breslau Müller (miller) Georg Sternitzki married the Jungfrau Caroline Weber at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 16th of January in 1886. They were both Protestants and this was the first marriage for both of them. According to the church record, their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I (record number 43 dated 16 January 1886). That record book is located at the Polish National Archives in Wrocław, but a scanned copy was not available for viewing online in 2019.

Georg Sternitzki was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Georg Sternitzki. According to the church marriage record, the groom was 28 years old at the time, so he was probably born in 1857.

Caroline Weber was 26 years old at the time of her wedding so she was probably born in 1860. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Carl Weber. The record for her second marriage (in 1908) shows her full name was Johanna Karoline Augusta Weber, and listed her date of birth as the 10th of January in 1859 at Eichgrund in Öls County.

Godmother Caroline (née Weber) Sternitzkÿ, March 1886

Caroline (née Weber) Sternitzkÿ, the wife of the Arbeiter (laborer) Georg Sternitzkÿ was one of the baptismal sponsors for Paul Max Arthur Kandura. He was baptized on the 16th of March in 1886 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. He was the son of the Arbeiter Paul Kandura and Christiane (née Vietze) Kandura, who lived at Vincenzstraße 57 in Breslau. Paul Kandura was a Catholic, but his wife was a Protestant. The other godmother was Ernestine Koch, the wife of the Fleischer (butcher) Carl Koch. The Kandura family lived in the same apartment building as the Sternitzki family (see May 1886 below).

Birth of daughter Emma Caroline Johanna Sternitzki, May 1886

Emma Caroline Johanna Sternitzki was born on the 10th of May in 1886. She was the daughter of the Müller (miller) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Caroline (née Weber) Sternitzki. At that time, the family lived at Vincenzstraße 57 in Breslau (6 blocks north of Sand Island, one block east of the main road to Trebnitz, now Świętego Wincentego Street).

The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 14th of June in 1886. The baptismal record listed Georg Sternitzki as Alt Lutherisch (Old Lutheran). His wife was listed as Evangelisch (Protestant). The baptismal sponsors were: the Köchin (cook) Ernestine Weber from Breslau, the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Johanna Weber from Breslau, and the Strohhattpresser (straw hat presser) Heinrich Weber from Breslau.

See the Marriage and Family of Emma Sternitzke, January 1927 to 1932, City of Breslau.

Breslau Address Book, 1887

The Arbeiter (laborer) Georg Sternitzki lived at Vincenzstraße 57 IV (4th floor apartment) in 1887. That address was six blocks north of Sand Island and one block east of the main road to Trebnitz. Vincenzstraße is now Świętego Wincentego Street.

Birth and Death of daughter Anna Ida Ernestine Sternitzki (1888-1894)

Anna Ida Ernestine Sternitzki was born at Breslau on the 20th of January in 1888. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 19th of February in 1888. The baptism record listed her parents as the Alt Lutherisch Müller (old Lutheran miller) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Caroline (née Weber) Sternitzki. Caroline's religion was listed as Evangelisch (Protestant). The family lived at Vincenzstraße 57 at the time of the baptism. The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Kandura, the Dienstmädchen (maid servant) Anna Stürzner and the Dienstmädchen Louise Weber.

Ida Sternitzki died at home in Breslau on the 24th of May in 1894, at the age of 6 years and 4 months. Her civil death record listed her religion as Protestant. Her parents, the Müller (miller) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Karoline (née Weber) Sternitzki lived in Breslau at Bartschstraße 7 (now Barycka Street, one block north of the Botanical Gardens). The civil death record was signed by her mother, Karoline Sternitzki geb. [geboren] Weber. Karoline's husband, the Müller Georg Sternitzki was identified on Ida's civil death record.

The 1891-1894 burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed Ida Sternitzki with the almost the same information as the civil death record, except for the name of the father. It shows Ida died on the 24th of May in 1894 at the age of 6 years and 3 months. It listed the family's address as Bartschstraße 7. It referenced the civil death record as number 1283 dated the 25th of May in 1894 at the Breslau Standesamt III. But, is listed Ida's father as the Arbeiter Emanuel Sternitzki.

Godmother Caroline Sternitzke, 1888

The Müllersfrau (wife of a miller) Caroline Sternitzke was the baptismal sponsor for Friedrich George Wilhelm Kandura. The baby was born on the 17th of March in 1888 and baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of May in 1888. The baby was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Kandura and Christiane (née Vietze) Kandura. The father was a Catholic. The mother was a Protestant. They lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 57. This was the same address listed for the Sternitzki family in the baptism record for their daughter in 1888.

Birth and Death of son Georg Erdmann Wilhelm Sternitzki (1889-1889)

Georg Erdmann Wilhelm Sternitzki was born on the 6th of April in 1889. He was the son of the Altlutheran Müller (Old Lutheran miller) Georg Sternitzki and the Protestant Caroline (née Weber) Sternitzki. The family lived at Weinstraße 12 (about 4 blocks north of Sand Island, now Stefana Żeromskiego Street). The baby was baptized on the 7th of May in 1889 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were Auguste Ballarin the wife of the Wächter Julius Ballarin, and the Breslau Köchin (cook) Anna Weber.

Georg Sternitzki, the son of the Müller Georg Sternitzki, died at Breslau on the 14th of June in 1889 at the age of 2 months and 8 days. He was buried on the 17th of June in 1889. The church record listed his father's address as Weinstraße 12. The church record listed the civil death record as number 2401 dated the 15th of June in 1889 at the Breslau Standesamt I. The child was a Protestant.

Death of Wilhelm Sternitzki (1852-1894)

The Müllergeselle (journeyman miller) Wilhelm Sternitzki died at the Breslau Allerheiligen Hospital on the 3rd of June in 1894 at the age of 41 years and 10 months (according to the civil record). The St. Elisabeth death record book listed him as Müller and shows that he died at the age of 41 years and 11 months old. That would place his estimated birth date at around July or August in 1852. He was buried on the 6th of June in 1894 at the cemetery in the village Gräbschen. His parents preceded him in death. They were identified on his civil death record as the deceased Stellenbesitzers (property owners) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Susanna (née Heller) Sternitzki from Domnowitz. Wilhelm's death record shows that he was unmarried and lived in Breslau at Ottostraße 5 (about 5 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street). His religion was listed at evangelisch (Protestant).

Wedding witness Georg Sternitzki, 1896

Georg Sternitzki was a witness at the wedding of August Hermann Sternitzki to Anna Rosina Weber (Karoline Weber's sister) on the 24th of January in 1896. At that time Georg Sternitzki was a 39 year old Arbeiter (laborer) still living at Bartschstraße 7 (the same address identified on his daughter's death record in 1894). See the transcription of the 1896 August Sternitzki wedding. August Hermann Sternitzki was an Old Lutheran who was born at Domnowitz. His parents were identified on his marriage record as the Domnowitz Landwirth (farmer) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Rosina (née Reinsch) Sternitzki who were both living at Domnowitz in 1896 (and therefore could not have been the parents of Wilhelm Sternitzki and Johann Hermann Georg Sternitzki, who died before Wilhelm Sternitzki's death in 1894. See Book III, Chapter 1: the Marriage, Family and Death of August Hermann Sternitzki, 1896 to 1939 City of Breslau.

Death of Johann Hermann Georg Sternitzki (1857-1903)

The Müller (miller) Johann Hermann Georg Sternitzki died at his home in Breslau at Gneisenaustraße 17 (two blocks north of Sand Island, now gen. Józefa Bema Street) on the 2nd of June 1903. He was 46 years and 10 months old when he died, which would place his birthdate around the 2nd of August in 1856. His civil death record listed his religion as alt-lutherischer (Old Lutheran). His death was reported by his wife Johanna Karoline Augusta (née Weber) Sternitzki, who signed the death record as Karoline Sternitzki geboren Weber. The Müller Georg Sternitzki was buried on the 5th of June in 1903 at the cemetery for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The burial record listed him as the Müller Georg Sternitzki, but the index at the end of the record book listed him as the Müller Sternitzke.

Second Marriage and Death of Karoline (née Weber) Sternitzki, 1908 & 1939

Johanna Karoline Augusta (née Weber) Sternitzki, the widow of the Müller (miller) Johann Hermann Georg Sternitzki, married the Breslau Maschinist Johann Karl August Vogel on the 13th of November in 1908 in a civil ceremony. They were married in a church ceremony at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 6th of August in 1910. The bride was listed as the widow Caroline (née Weber) Sternitzke. The civil and church records show that they both lived at Gneisenaustraße 17 in 1908 and 1910. The civil record for that marriage shows that Karoline was born on the 10th of January in 1859 at Eichgrund in Öls County. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Weber, deceased in Breslau and his wife Elisabeth née Strekker, who in 1908 was already deceased and last resided at Kreuzburg. An attachment to the marriage record (dated 16 February 1939) shows that Johanna Karoline Augusta (née Weber) Vogel died on the 30th of January in 1939, as recorded in Sterbebuch Nr. 155 of 1939 at the Standesamts Breslau III. The names of Karoline's parents is significant because it shows that Karoline was a sister to Anna Rosina Weber (who married August Hermann Sternitzki in 1896).

Family of Carl Geisler and Pauline (née Sternitzke) Geisler
1879 to 1882 City of Breslau

The following children of Carl Geisler and his wife Pauline (née Sternitzke) Geisler were born at Breslau. Only the birth record for the first child was available for downloading and review. It showed the Schlosser (mechanic) Carl Geisler was a Catholic. His wife, Pauline (née Sternitzke) Geisler was a Protestant. In 1879, they lived at Grünstraße 5.

- Karl Paul Geisler was born at Breslau on the 23rd of April in 1879.
- Anna Clara Gertrud Geisler was born at Breslau on the 17th of May in 1880.
- Curt Franz Geisler was born at Breslau on the 5th of March in 1882.

The 1884 Breslau address book listed many members of the Geisler family, including:

- Carl Geisler, Droschkenbesitzer, Bismarckstraße 6 S.
- Carl Geisler, Gärtner, Adalbertstraße 30 pt.
- Carl Geisler, Schlösser, Brandeburgerstraße 4 II.
- Carl Geisler, Schlösser, Vorwerkstraße 8 IV.
- Carl Geisler, Zimmermann, Trebnitzerstraße 3 IV.

Conditor Rudolf Czernicki (Schernitzke/Sternitzkÿ) 1879 to 1897 City of Breslau

The Conditor (confectioner) Rudolf Czernicki was listed in the 1891 and 1897 Breslau address books as living at Catharinenstraße 3, near the southeast corner of the Neumarkt in Breslau. In 1894, Rudolf Czernicki was a 47-years-old witness at the wedding of Josef Nestler and Johanna Müller. The marriage record listed Rudolf as a Conditor (confectioner) living at Catharinenstraße 3.

He was probably the same man listed as a baptismal sponsor in the baptism books of the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. In 1879, the Conditor Rudolf Schernitzke, was the sponsor for Friedrich Wilhelm Werner, the son of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Werner and his wife Elisabet (née Schniske) Werner. In 1892, the Conditor Rudolf Sternitzkÿ was the sponsor for Martha Louise Pohl, the daughter of the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Hermann Pohl and his wife Ida (née Eckert) Pohl.

Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke
1880 to 1926 City of Breslau

Karl Sternitzke (1853-1894) was a Protestant, born at Brietzen in Trebnitz County around the 17th of November in 1853 (based on his age on his death and burial records – see below). Karl was the son of Gottlieb Sternitzke (1816-1896) and his wife Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke. See Book III: Chapter 2, the Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County, Family of Gottlieb and Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke, 1851 to 1876 Brietzen, 1884 to 1896 City of Breslau.

Baptismal Sponsor Karl Sternitzke,
Baptism of Emma Auguste Sternitzke, 1880

Emma Auguste Sternitzke was born on the 6th of January in 1880. Her parents were the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kern) Sternitzke. Her parents were both Protestants. They lived at Bismarckstraße 17 (now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, one block from the main road to Trebnitz on Breslau's north side). The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of April 1880. See the Marriages, Family and Death of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1870 to 1938 City of Breslau.

The baptismal sponsors were: the unmarried Jungfrau Luise Sternitzke, the unmarried Jungfrau Auguste Gerber and the Brauer (brewer) Karl Sternitzke. Pauline Louise Sternitzke was the sister of Heinrich Sternitzke (see below). Their brother, Karl Sternitzke (1853-1894) was a Brauer (brewer). See the Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau.

Chronology of the Breslau Addresses for the Karl Sternitzke Family

The Brauer (brewer) Carl (Karl) Sternitzke married Johanna Bertha Bohn and they were living in Breslau at the time of their son's birth in 1881. At that time, they lived at Blücherstraße 15 (three blocks north of Sand Island, now Księża Józefa Poniatowskiego Street). They were still living at Blücherstraße 15 when their son died in April of 1882.

The Brauer (brewer) Carl (Karl) Sternitzke family lived at Ottostraße 27 II (second floor) about 7 blocks northeast from the University Bridge in 1883, 1884 and 1886. Ottostraße is now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street. They lived at Matthiasstraße 26b IV (fourth floor) in 1887. Matthiasstraße 29c is now on Jedności Narodowej Street, about three blocks northeast of the University Bridge.

In 1888 and 1889, the family lived at Kleine Groschengasse 29 (now Mennicza Street, 4 blocks east of St. Dorothea Church). The 1891 Breslau address book listed his address as Kleine Groschengasse 23 Hinterhaus I (first floor at the rear of the building). It listed his occupation as a Brauer (brewer) in the sort by surnames, and listed his occupation as a Mälzer (malter) in the sort by addresses. In 1893, the family lived at Kleine Groschengasse 17/18.

Children of Karl Sternitzke and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke:

- Arthur Carl Hermann Sternitzke (1881-1882) was born at Breslau on the 23rd of June in 1881. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of December in 1881. The baptism record for Carl Herrmann Arthur Sternitzke (note the difference order of the names of the child) listed his parents as the Brauer (brewer) Carl Sternitzke and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke. They were both Protestants. The baptismal sponsors were: the Nätherin (seamstress) Ida Bohn the daughter of the deceased Breslau Postbeamten (post office clerk) Robert Bohn and the Brauer (brewer) Heinrich Baumgart from Breslau.

Arthur Sternitzke, the son of the Brauer Carl Sternitzke died on the 3rd of April in 1882, at the age of 9 months and 11 days. He was buried on the 7th of April in 1882. The Carl Sternitzke family lived at Blücherstraße 15 at the time. The burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church referenced the civil death record as number 1292, dated 5 April 1882 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

- Richard Carl Hermann Sternitzke (1883-unknown) was born at Breslau on the 5th of November in 1883. The Brauer (brewer) Carl Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke lived at Ottostraße 27 (about 7 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street). Richard Carl Hermann Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 2nd of December in 1883. The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Hulda Fuchs, the Breslau Wirtschafterin Josephine Gurtmann, and the Fleischer (butcher) Joseph Zeiner from Breslau.

Richard Carl Hermann Sternitzke was probably the Richard Sternitzke who lived at Leipzig in Saxony from 1910 to 1949. See the Marriage and Family of Martha Berta Klara (née Sternitzke) Sobeck, 1912 to 1935 City of Breslau: birth and baptism of Klara Berta Getrud Sobek, 1912.

- Martha Berta Ida Sternitzke (1885-1926) was born in Breslau on the 3rd of August in 1885. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 4th of October in 1885. Her parents were listed as the Brauer Carl Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke who lived at Ottostraße 27. They were both Protestants. The baptismal sponsor was the Arbeiter Hugo Statsche. See the below transcription of her 23 October 1905 marriage.
- Arthur Carl Richard Sternitzke (1887-1887) was born at Breslau on the 8th of May in 1887. The Brauer (brewer) Carl Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke lived at Mathiasstraße 26 (3 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Jedności Narodowej Street). The birth record was signed by the midwife Auguste Krause. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of June in 1887. The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Dienstmädchen Pauline Kuzner, the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and the Breslau Haushälter Andreas

Bohla. Heinrich Sternitzke was the baby's uncle. See the Marriages, Family and Death of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1870 to 1938 City of Breslau.

Arthur Sternitzkÿ, the son of the Brauer Carl Sternitzkÿ died on the 25th of August in 1887, at the age of 3 months old. He was buried on the 28th of August in 1887. The burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed his father as the Brauer Carl Sternitzkÿ who lived at Matthiasstraße 26. The church record listed the civil death record as number 3644 dated the 25th of August in 1887 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

- Carl Hermann Alfred Sternitzke (1888-?) was born at Breslau on the 2nd of June in 1888. The Brauer (brewer) Carl Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke lived at Kleine Groschengasse 29 (4 blocks east of the St. Dorothea Church, now Mennicza Street).

Karl Hermann Alfred Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of August in 1888 record number 390). The baptism record listed his parents as the Brauer (brewer) Karl Sternitzke and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke. The baptism sponsor was Fraulein Anna Korb, who was employed as a Damenschneiderin (tailor of women's clothing).

- Martha Bertha Clara Sternitzke (1889-1962) was born on the 9th of October of 1889, when the family lived at Kleine Groschengasse 29. Karl's occupation was listed as a Brauer (brewer). Karl signed his daughter's birth record (shown below). Martha Berta Klara (née Sternitzke) Sobeck died in 1962. She was the daughter of Karl Sternitzke and Berta (née Bohn) Sternitzke.

The baptism record for this child listed her as Klara Berta Ida Sternitzke. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 17th of November in 1889 (record number 493). The baptism sponsor was the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Louise Hartwich. See the Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau.

See the Marriage and Family of Martha Berta Klara (née Sternitzke) Sobeck 1912 to 1935 City of Breslau.

- Clara Martha Gertrud Sternitzke (1890-1891) was born on the 17th of November in 1890. She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the on the 30th of August in 1891 (record number 351). The baptism sponsors were: the Arbeiter Witwe (widow of a laborer) Auguste (née Knobloch) Stasche, and the Schneidermeisterfrau

(wife of a tailor) Louise (née Sternitzke) Hertwig. See the Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau. The baptism record shows the birth of Clara Martha Gertrud Sternitzke was recorded on the 22nd of November in 1890 at Breslau Standesamt I (record number 5047).

Gertrud Sternitzke (1890-1891) died nine months later on the 4th of September in 1891. The civil death record showed the family lived at Kleine Groschengasse 23 (now Mennicza Street, 2 blocks east of St. Dorothea Church) and that they were Protestants. Karl's occupation was listed as a Brauer (brewer). The 1891 to 1895 death record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church included the death/burial record for Gertrude Sternitzke, a daughter of a Brauer (brewer). She died on the 4th of September in 1891 and was buried on the 8th of September. The church record listed the civil death record as number 2351 dated the 5th of September in 1891 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

- Martha Clara Gertrud Sternitzke (1892-1893) was born on the 3rd of August in 1892, when the family still lived at Kleine Groschengasse 23 in 1892. Karl Sternitzke signed his daughter's birth record.

The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of September in 1892 (record number 401). The baptism record listed the child's name as Gertrud Klara Martha Sternitzke. The baptism sponsors were: the Dienstmädchen Auguste Köhler, and the Schneidermeisterfrau Louise Hartwig.

A note on the birth record indicated Martha Clara Gertrud Sternitzke died on the 16th of May in 1893. At that time the family lived at Kleine Groschengasse 17/18. The 1891 to 1895 death record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church included the death/burial record for Gertrude Sternitzke, a daughter of a Brauer (brewer). She died on the 16th of May in 1893 at the age of 9 months old. She was buried on the 20th of May. The church^h record listed the civil death record as number 1252 dated the 18th of May in 1893 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Gustav Fabian Brewery

The Karl Sternitzke family lived at addresses on both sides of Kleine Groschengasse in the second block east of St. Dorothea Church. Karl Sternitzke probably worked at the Gustav Fabian Brewery located at Kleine Groschengasse 4 (in the first block east from St. Dorothea Church). A photograph of the Gustav Fabian Brewery is shown below.

The Gustav Fabian Brewery circa 1900 at Groschengasse 4 (looking south).

Death of Karl Sternitzke (1853-1894)

The Brauer (brewer) Karl Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 17th of January in 1894 at the age of 40 years and 2 months according to his civil and church death records. Based on his age when he died, Karl Sternitzke was born around the 17th of November in 1853. His wife signed the civil death record. Their address at that time was Kleine Groschengasse 17/18. Karl's father Gottlieb Sternitzke (1816-1896) was still living in Breslau at that time, but his mother Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke had died at Breslau previously.

The 1891 to 1895 death record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church included the death/burial record for the Brauer Carl Sternitzke. He was buried on the 21st of January in 1894. The church burial record listed his civil death record as number 147 dated the 17th of January in 1894 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Breslau Address Book, 1897

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Wäscherin (laundrywoman) Bertha Sternitzke as living at Kleine Groschengasse 17/18, Seitenhaus III (side building, third floor).

Second marriage of Johanna Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1899

Johanna Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke was the widow of the Brauer Sternitzke when she married the Schneider (tailor) Paul Heinrich Wilhelm Matzke on the 9th of October in 1899. They were both Protestants and lived at Kleine Groschengasse 17/18. According to her 1899 marriage record, Bertha was born on the 31st of January in 1858, at Wirschowitz in Militsch County. She was the daughter of the Postunterbeamter (post office official) Robert Bohn and Bertha (née Wiegelt) Bohn, who both died at Breslau prior to Bertha's 1899 wedding.

Paul Heinrich Wilhelm Matzke was a Protestant. He was born at Trebnitz on the 1st of May in 1872, the son of the Elisabeth Matzke. Elisabeth Matzke died at Trebnitz before her son's wedding. Witnesses at the wedding were the 27 years old Haushälter (janitor) Hermann Nutsch and the 32 years old Schneider (tailor) Franz Weiss. Hermann Nutsch lived at Mariannenstraße 5. Franz Weiss lived at Antonienstraße 17. Franz was the second husband of Pauline Louise (née Sternitzke) Hertwig. Louise was the sister of Bertha's deceased husband Karl Sternitzke.

Notes on the bottom of the second page of their 1899 marriage record show Paul Heinrich Wilhelm Matzke died at Breslau in 1928 (death record number 436 in 1928 at Standesamt I). Johanna Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke-Matzke died at Breslau in 1937 (death record number 1384 in 1937 at Standesamt I).

Birth of daughter Frieda Martha Clara Matzke, 1900

Frieda Martha Clara Matzke was born on the 9th of January in 1900 in Breslau (and recorded at the Standesamt on the 15th of January in 1900). She was the daughter of the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Paul Matzke and Bertha (née Bohn, the widow Sternitzke) Matzke. The child was baptized on the 25th of March in 1900 (baptism number 141) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. Both parents were Protestant and lived in Breslau at Kleine Groschengasse Nr. 17/18.

The baptism sponsors were: the Catholic Schneider (tailor) Johann Koschary who lived at Kleine Groschengasse Nr. 17/18, the Protestant Schneidermeisterfrau (wife of a master tailor) Louise (née Sternitzke) Weiß who lived at Antonienstraße Nr. 17, and the Köchin (cook) Pauline Krätzig who lived at Gabitzstraße Nr. 91. Louise was the sister of Bertha's deceased husband Karl Sternitzke. See the Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Martha Bertha Ida Sternitzke, 1905

Martha Bertha Ida Sternitzke (1885-1926) married the Fleischer (butcher) Karl Hermann Kühnel on the 23rd of October in 1905 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau (record number 199 in 1905). The church marriage record shows both the bride and the groom were Protestant and residents of Breslau. The newlyweds resided at Bismarckstraße 37. The marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I, record number 934 dated the 23rd of October in 1905. Martha's parents were listed on her civil marriage record as the deceased Brauer (brewer) Karl Sternitzke who died at Breslau and his wife Berta (née Bohn) who was married to the Schneider (tailor) Matzke and lived in Breslau at the time of the wedding. The bride was a Protestant, employed as a Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived at Kleine Groschengasse 17/18 (now Mennicza Street, 2 blocks east of St. Dorothea Church). The groom was a Protestant and a Fleischer (butcher) who lived at Tauentzienstraße 54 (one block north of the main train station, now Kościuszki Street). A note on her civil marriage record shows that Martha Bertha Ida (née Sternitzke) Kühnel died in 1926, as recorded on death record number 338 of 1926 at Breslau Standesamt I (see below).

Karl Hermann Kühnel was born on the 4th of April in 1881 at Breslau. He was the son of the Vorkosthändler Karl Kühnel and his wife Ernestine (née Thiel) Kühnel, who were residents of Breslau. A Vorkosthändler ran a small retail Vorkosthandlung (grocery store). These stores usually sold peas, beans, lentils, vegetables, flour and semolina. They also sometimes sold fruit, meat, coffee and tea.

Witnesses at the 1905 Kühnel-Sternitzke wedding were the 54 years old Vorkosthändler Karl Kühnel and the 38 years old Schneider (tailor) Franz Weiss. Karl Kühnel lived at the same address as the groom (Tauentzienstraße 54) and he was certainly the groom's father. Franz Weiss lived at Antonienstraße 17. Franz was the second husband of Pauline Louise (née Sternitzke) Hertwig. Louise was the sister of Karl Sternitzke, so she was the bride's aunt. Franz Weiss and Louise Sternitzke were married in 1897. See the Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau.

Children of Martha Bertha Ida (née Sternitzke) Kühnel:

Frieda Gertrud Kühnel was born in Breslau on the 17th of April in 1906. Karl Hermann Kühnel was employed as a Fleischer (butcher) and the family lived at Bismarckstraße 37. Frieda Gertrud Kühnel died on the 11th of July in 1906, at the age of 2 months old. The death record, signed by Martha Kühnel geboren Sternitzke, listed Martha's residence as the village Protsch (about 5 miles north of the old city walls of Breslau, now known as Prace Widawskie) but Frieda Gertrud Kühnel died at Breitestraße 49/50 (the southeast corner of the Neumarkt, now Jana Purkyniego Ewangelisty Street). The death record listed Karl Kühnel's occupation as an Arbeiter (laborer).

Erich Karl Kühnel was born in Breslau on the 1st of December in 1908. The birth record shows the father was employed as a Fleischer (butcher) and the family was then living in Breslau at Berliner-Chaussee 109 (Berlin Highway, about 2 miles northwest of the old city walls).

Klara Erna Frida Kühnel was born on the 28th of August in 1912. She was the daughter of the Fleischer Karl Hermann Kühnel and his wife Martha Berta Ida (née Sternitzke) Kühnel. They were both Protestant and lived at Bärenstraße 12 (now Niedźwiedzia Street, about 1.5 miles northwest of the old city walls in the Pöpelwitz suburb). The birth was reported by the mother and she signed the birth record. A note on the baby's birth record shows Klara Erna Frida Kühnel was married at Breslau in 1933. Her marriage record was number 1056 in 1933 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

Death of Martha Bertha Ida (née Sternitzke) Kühnel (1885-1926)

Martha Bertha Ida (née Sternitzke) Kühnel died at the Allerheiligen Hospital in Breslau, on the 14th of March in 1926 at the age of 40 years and 7 months. The burial record book from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the cause of her death as Brustwaßersucht mit Herzschwäche (a collection of serous fluid within the pleural cavity, with heart weakness). Her husband Karl Kühnel paid for her funeral and signed the burial record. They were residents of the Carlowitz suburb of Breslau. Their address was Schulstraße 66. She was buried at the Maria Magdalena cemetery on the 18th of March in 1926. The church record referenced her civil death record: number 330 dated the 15th of March in 1926 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Marriage and Family of the Fleischermeister Carl Sternitzky
1880 to 1939 City of Breslau

The Breslau Fleischermeister (master butcher) Carl Sternitzky married the Jungfrau Johanna Eisler at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of January in 1880. Carl was 24 years old and the son of the deceased Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner) Sternitzky. Johanna Eisler was 22 years old and the daughter of the deceased Restaurateurs (restaurant owners) Eisler. Both were Protestant. This was the first marriage for both of them.

The church record referenced the civil record at Breslau Standesamt II (record number 64 dated 22 January 1880).

The 1884 to 1887 City of Breslau Residents Books (page 486) listed a Fleischermeister Carl Sternitzke who lived three blocks northwest from the main trainstation, at Neue Taschenstraße 29 Parterre (ground floor) in 1884. In 1886 and 1887 he lived about nine blocks west of the main trainstation, at Gabitzstraße 69 Laden Parterre wohnung I (his shop was on the ground floor and he lived on the first floor). Neue Taschenstraße is now Kościuszki Street. Gabitzstraße is now Gajowicka Street.

The 1891 Breslau address book listed a Fleischermeister Carl Sternitzke who lived at Friedrichstraße 62 Parterre (ground floor, 4 blocks southwest from the old city walls, now Koiejowa Street). The building was named the Elisenhof.

Birth, Marriage and Divorce of their son Erich Bertold Sternitzke

According to his marriage record, Erich Bertold Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 5th of April in 1896. He was 23 years old when he was married at Breslau on the 13th of November in 1919, to Johanna Heinrich. Erich was a Protestant, employed as a Kaufmann (merchant) and lived in Breslau at Sonnenstraße 7 (2 blocks southwest of the city moat, now Pawłowa Iwana Street). Erich was not listed at Sonnenstraße 7 in the 1918 Breslau address book. At the time of the wedding in 1919, Erich's parents, the Fleischer (butcher) Karl Sternitzke and Johanna (née Eisler) Sternitzke were both deceased.

Johanna Heinrich was born on the 9th of November in 1902 at Friedland in Falkenberg County. She was 17 years old when she married Erich Sternitzke in 1919. She was the daughter of the Handelsmann (merchant) Ismar Heinrich and his wife Paula (née Mendel) Heinrich. The 1918 Breslau address book listed the Handelsmann Ismar Heinrich as living at Sonnenstraße 7 II (second floor). According to her marriage record, Johanna Heinrich was Jewish, employed as a Verkäuferin (sales clerk) and lived at the same address as the groom in 1919, which was also her parents' address.

The wedding witnesses were the Kaufmann (merchant) Hugo Heinrich and the 38 years old Druckereibesitzer (printing press owner) Maximilian Fordan. Hugo Heinrich lived at Schulbrücke 14. Maximilian Fordan lived at Gottschallstraße 15 (he was also listed at that address in the 1918 address book).

Birth of daughter Ruth Luise Rosalie Sternitzke, 1921

Ruth Luise Rosalie Sternitzke was born on 9th of March in 1921. She was baptised at the home of her parents on the 24th of August in 1921, and the baptism was recorded at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. A note in the margin of the baptism record listed her baptism as a Nottaufe - an emergency baptism for individuals near death. Her parents were the Kaufmann (merchant) Erich Sternitzke and Johanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke. They lived at Weinstraße 42 (about 4 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens, now Stanisława Żeromskiego Street). The father was a Protestant. The mother, Johanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke was listed as Jewish on the baptismal record. The baptismal sponsors were Fräulein Gertrud Gnerich and Fräulein Emma Gnerich. Both sponsors were Protestant and were from the village Carlowitz.

Other Records 1926 to 1934

The 1926, 1927, 1928, 1931 and 1934 Breslau address books listed a Kaufmann Erich Sternitzke who lived at the village Carlowitz. Carlowitz became a northeastern suburb of the city of Breslau in 1939. Erich Sternitzke lived at Konstantine-Schnier-Straße 4 II (second floor) in 1926, 1927 and 1928. He lived at Konstantin-Schnier-Straße 112 II in 1931 and 1934.

The 1930 Breslau Synagogue membership address list included Hanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke, the wife of Mr. Sternitzke. They lived at Carlowitz. The membership list shows Hanna was born on the 9th of November in 1902. She was a member of the Breslau Synagogue community.

Attachments to the 1919 Wedding Record in 1935 & 1939

Two important documents were attached to the wedding record of Erich Bertold Sternitzke and Johanna Heinrich. The first document shows that they were divorced on the 31st of July in 1935 at Breslau.

The second document (shown below) dated the 18th of January in 1939 shows that the first name Sara was being added to the name of Johanna (née Heinrich) Sternitzke. That addition was required under by the Namensänderungsverordnung (Regulation of Name Changes) of 17 August 1938. All Jews with first names of non-Jewish origin had to add the middle names Sara for women and Israel for men. Violation of the regulation resulted in imprisonment.

Emigration of the Josef Sternitzke Family 1880 City of Breslau

Josef Sternitzke was a 51-year-old Arbeiter (laborer) from Breslau who traveled from Hamburg to New York on the ship named Silesia. The ship departed Hamburg on the 18th of February in 1880 and arrived at New York on the 8th of March in 1880. The arrival record listed the occupation of Josef as farmer. It is not specified on the passenger lists (departure or arrival) whether this was an emigration, but his wife and son (Pauline Sternitzke and Paul Sternitzke) followed him from Breslau to New York two months later.

Pauline Sternitzke and her son Paul Sternitzke left Hamburg on the 9th of May in 1880. Pauline was listed on the Hamburg departure records as a 52-year-old Frau, and Paul was listed as her 9-year-old son. The ship they traveled on; the Silesia arrived at New York on the 22nd of May in 1880.

Based on their ages on the passenger lists, Josef was born around 1829, Pauline was born around 1828 and Paul was born around 1871.

Family of Robert Sternitzke and Lucie (née Bergmann) Sternitzke 1881 to 1943 City of Breslau

Robert Sternitzke was born around 1861 and died in 1915. He was a Lehrer (teacher) at the evangelischen Schule (Protestant school) in the City of Breslau from 1881 to 1883 (Schubert, Heinrich. Page 205). The 1884 Breslau address book listed Robert Sternitzke as a teacher at the Protestant Elementary School Nr. 5, and his home address as Große Feldstraße 10d III (third floor, one block east of the old city moat, now Zygmunt Krasińskiego Street). The 1886 and 1887 Breslau address books show that he was a teacher at the Breslau Elementary School Nr. 25, and he lived at Gartenstraße 11 S. I (side house, first floor). The 1888 baptism record for their son Erich listed Robert as a teacher at the Protestant Elementary School No. 2 in Breslau. He was listed as a städtliche Lehrer (municipal teacher) in 1893 and a Volksschullehrer (elementary school teacher) in 1899. Robert and his wife Lucie (née Bergmann) Sternitzke were Protestants.

Birth of son Erich Georg August Robert Sternitzke, 1888

Their son Erich Georg August Robert Sternitzke was born on the 11th March 1888. At that time the family lived at Gräbschener Straße 45 (about 3 blocks from the southwest corner of the old city moat, now Grabiszyńska Street). The 1888 to 1900 birth registry book for the Breslau Standesamt II shows the birth record for Erich August Georg Sternitzke was number 1228 in 1888.

Birth of son Walter Sternitzke, 1890

Their son Walter Sternitzke was born on the 7th of December in 1890. At that time the Lehrer (municipal teacher) Robert Sternitzke and his wife Lucie (née Bergmann) Sternitzke lived at Ziethenstraße 1 (shown as Zietenstraße on earlier maps, 6 blocks west of the Main Train Station, now Żytnia Street). Below is Robert Sternitzke's signature from Walter's birth record. Walter Sternitzke died at his parents' home on the 8th of December in 1890, at the age of 6 hours old.

The 1891 Breslau address book listed R. Sternitzke as a teacher at the evangelische Volksschule Nr. 58 (Protestant elementary school number 58). His address was listed as Gräbschnerstraße 58a III (third floor). Gräbschnerstraße 58a (now on Grabiszyńska Street) is just across the street (to the north) from Ziethenstraße 1.

1850 map of Breslau showing Gräbschener Straße 58 and Zietenstraße 1.

Birth of daughter Elise Charlotte Lucie Sternitzke, 1893

Their daughter, Elise Charlotte Lucie Sternitzke was born on the 1st of August in 1893. They were again living at Zietenstraße 1 at that time. Robert's signature from the birth record is copied below.

Vorgelesen, genehmigt und unterschrieben.

Robert Sternitzke placed the following notice in an 1893 Silesian school magazine:

Heut schenkte mir meine Frau Lucie, geb. Bergmann, ein kräftiges Töchterchen.
 Breslau, den 1. August 1893.
Robert Sternitzke, städt. Lehrer.

Translation: Today, my wife Lucie, maiden name Bergmann, presented me with a strong baby daughter. Breslau, the 1st of August, 1893.

Robert Sternitzke, Municipal Teacher.*

The 1897 Breslau address book listed R. Sternitzke as a Lehrer an der evangelische Volksschule Nr. 42 (teacher at the Protestant elementary school number 42). He lived at Kronprinzenstraße 14 I (first floor). Kronprinzenstraße is now Gwiazdźista Street. Kronprinzenstraße 14 was 4 blocks southeast from his addresses from 1890 to 1893.

The Volksschullehrer (elementary school teacher) Robert Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of the Buchhalter (accountant) Oskar Alexander Alfred Konrad Bergmann and Maria Sophia Franke on the 22nd of August in 1899. At that time Robert was living at Friedrichstraße 19 (4 blocks southwest from the old city walls, 5 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Koiejowa Street). Robert was 38 years old at that time, making his year of birth around 1861.

Death of Robert Sternitzke, circa 1915
Data from Breslau Address Books

The 1914 and 1915 Breslau address books listed the Lehrer Robert Sternitzke as living on the second floor at Lohestraße 65, now Ślężna Street, 4 blocks south-southwest from the Main Train Station. He must have died around 1915, because the widow Lucie/Luzie (née Bergmann) Sternitzke was listed in the Breslau address books from 1916, 1918, 1923, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1931, 1934, 1935, 1937, 1941 and 1943. She lived at Lohestraße 14 during those years. She was listed as the widow Luzie Sternitzke in 1941 and 1943.

The Kaufmann (merchant) Erich Sternitzke was listed as a resident at Lohestraße 14 in 1926. This was two blocks southwest from the Main Train Station. Erich was probably Luzie's son Erich Georg August Robert Sternitzke.

Family of the Schieferdecker Franz Stanitzke/Sternitzke 1881 to 1943 City of Breslau

Baptismal Sponsor Christiane Stanitzke, 1881

On the 14th of August in 1881, Christiane Stanitzke, the wife of the Breslau Schieferdecker (roof slater) Franz Stanitzke, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Richard Johann Ostinda. The baptism was at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The child was the son the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Ostinda and his wife Caroline (née Kruppe) Ostinda. The Ostinda family lived in Breslau at Seitengasse 7.

The other baptismal sponsors were Anna Glimpel, the wife of the Gleser (glazier) Carl Glimpel and Anna Glimpel the daughter of the Gleser Carl Glimpel. The addresses of the baptismal sponsors were not listed in the church record.

Baptismal Sponsor Ernestine Sternitzke, 1885

On the 14th of December in 1885, Ernestine Sternitzke, the wife of the Breslau Schieferdecker (roof slater), was one of the baptismal sponsors for Emil Fritz Albert Kruppe. The child's mother was Auguste Kruppe, the unmarried daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer Wilhelm Kruppe from Koschalle, near Krotoschin in Posen.

The history of Franz Stanitzke (also known as Sternitzke) and his wife can be traced through the listings for them in the Breslau address books. His wife's name was either Ernestine Christiane Sternitzke or Christiane Ernestine Sternitzke. Josef Sternitzke was living next door at Gräbschener Straße 70 in 1941 and 1943.

Marriage of Anna Kopetzky 1883 City of Breslau

Anna Kopetzky was the daughter of the Gastwirthin (female innkeeper) Barbara (née Kopetzka) Stenitzka from Cellna. Anna married the Bäckermeister Reinhold Galisch (from Carbitz) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 11th of April in 1883

(church record number 45, civil record number 348 at the Breslau Standesamt II dated the 10th of April). The groom was 30 years old. The bride was 34 years old and a Catholic. She was born around 1849.

The village named Cellna may have been Celline (also known as Czelline and Zelline) in Ohlau County. It was 20 miles east-southeast from Breslau. The village is now known as Cielina, Poland. Celline was near the town of Bischwitz über der Oder (now known as Biskupice Oławskie, Poland). The village Carbitz (also known as Karbitz) was $\frac{3}{4}$ mile north of the city of Trachenberg in Militsch County. Carbitz is now known as Garbce, Poland.

Marriage of Carl Friedrich Gustav Sternitzke 1884 City of Breslau

Carl Friedrich Gustav Sternitzke was born at Hünern in Trebnitz County on the 24th of October in 1854. In 1884, he was employed as a Schuhmacher (shoemaker) in Breslau. He lived at Neue Tauenzienstraße Nr. 18. That street address is now Kościuszki Street, about 5 blocks east of the main train station. It was the same address where the Rouleauxmaler Reinhold Sternitzke lived in 1870.

On the 3rd of January in 1884, Carl Friedrich Gustav Sternitzke married Johanna Christiane Pauline Simon at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. Johanna Christiane Pauline Simon was born on the 16th of February in 1855 at Wangern in Strehlen County. In 1884, she lived at Kleine Dreilindengasse Nr. 6 in Breslau.

Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Leschner) Sternitzke
1884 to 1943 City of Breslau

The generation numbers (shown as roman numerals in the below tree) were estimated from the known chronology shown in a table in Book I, Chapter 6: The Ancestors and Descendants of Wilhelm Starnitzki. Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke in the tree below was born in 1867, which was very close to the birth of Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki in 1864. This places Gottfried Sternitzke in the tenth generation in the family tree of our ancestor George Tschirnitzke (Gen.I. c.1510-c.1574).

Circa Gen.X. Gottfried Sternitzke, born around 1836, died on 28 September 1920. Married Elisabeth Leschner.

Circa Gen.XIa. Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke, born 30 June 1867 at Hünern. Married Martha Anna Rosalie Heinke on 31 January 1890 at Breslau.

Circa Gen.XIIa. Otilie Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke, born 31 August 1890 at Breslau. Married Paul Hermann Deumert on 10 November 1911.

Circa Gen.XIIb. Wilhelm Sternitzke, born 26 November 1891, died 19 February 1892.

Circa Gen.XIIc. Helene Grete Sternitzke, born 10 April 1897. Married Alfred Ernst on 24 September 1921 at Breslau.

Circa Gen.XIIId. Herbert Friedrich Adolf Sternitzke, born 23 November 1902. Married Erna Emma Renschin on 24 April 1926 at Breslau.

Birth of son Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke, 1867

Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke was born at Hünern on the 30th of June in 1867. He was the son of Gottfried Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Leschner) Sternitzke. The Gottfried Sternitzke family moved to Breslau between 1867 and 1884.

City of Breslau, 1884 & 1890

In 1884, the Kutscher (coachman) Gottlieb Sternitzki lived at Langegasse 15 (ground floor, about ½ mile northwest of the old city walls). Langegasse was also shown as Lange Gasse on some Breslau maps. It is now named Długa Street. The address books from 1886 and 1887 listed his address as Lange Gasse 19 (first floor), about ½ mile northwest from the old city walls.

In 1890, the Kutscher (coachman) Gottfried Sternitzke and his wife lived in Breslau at Vorwerksstraße 30 (5 blocks northeast from the main trainstation, now Komuny Paryskiej Street). His son, the Schlosser (mechanic) Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Lange Gasse 18.

Marriage of son Wilhelm Sternitzke and Martha Heinke, 1890

on the 31st of January in 1890. The groom was a Schlosser (mechanic), a Protestant, and he lived at Lange Gasse 18 in Breslau. The bride was a Catholic who was born on the 26th of September in 1867 at Pöpelwitz. She was the daughter of Hermann Heinke and his wife Caroline (née Dreyer) Heinke who lived at Pöpelwitz (a village and later a western suburb of Breslau).

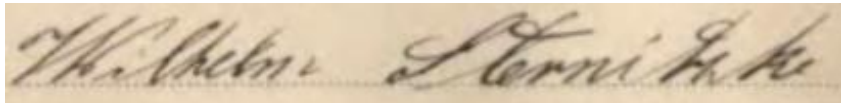

The witnesses at the wedding were the 38 years old Carl Meisner from Pöpelwitz, and the 23 years old Musiker (musician) Carl Sternitzke. Carl Sternitzke lived at Wassergasse 24 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. Carl was the son of the Produktenhändler (produce dealer) Karl Sternitzke and Elisabet (née Gelfert) Sternitzke. See the Marriage and Death of Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke, 10 May 1892 and 1941 City of Breslau.

Birth of granddaughter Otilie Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1890

On the 3rd of September in 1890, the Kutscher (coachman) Gottfried Sternitzke reported the birth of his granddaughter Otilie Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke. She was born on the 31st of August in 1890. Her parents were the Schlosser (mechanic) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke, who lived in Poepelwitz (Pöpelwitz). The entire family was Protestant. The available birth record was a Neben (duplicate) copy, so the original signature of Gottfried Sternitzke was not available. See the Marriage and Family of Otilie Martha Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Deumert 1909 to 1939 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of grandson Wilhelm Sternitzke (junior, 1891-1892)

In 1892, the Schlosser (mechanic) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Martha (nee Heinke) Sternitzke were Protestants and lived in Breslau at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 46 (7 blocks northwest from the old city walls, now Inowrocławska Street). A burial record book for the St. Barbara Protestant church in Breslau shows the Schlossersohn Wilhelm Sternitzke (junior) died on the 19th of February in 1892, at the age of 2 months and 25 days. The baby was buried at the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb (southwest of the old city walls) on the 21st of February in 1892. The baby was listed as a Protestant on the civil death record, and Breslau was listed as the baby's place of birth (which would have been on the 26th of November in 1891. The father signed the civil death record.

Birth and Marriage of granddaughter Helene Grete Sternitzke, 1897 & 1921

Helene Grete Sternitzke was born on the 10th of April in 1897. At that time, the family lived at Lange Gasse 17 (now Długa Street, about ½ mile northwest of the old city walls). Her father, Wilhelm Sternitzke was listed as a Protestant Maschinist (machinist) on the birth and baptism records. Her mother Martha Anna Rosalie (née Heinke) Sternitzke was listed as a Catholic. A midwife signed the birth record. The baptism record listed the baby's name as Helene Grethe Sternitzke. She was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of April in 1897. The baptismal sponsors were the Arbeiter Herrmann Heinke, the Arbeiter Fritz Meissner and the Kutscherfrau Elisabeth Sternitzke (possibly the child's grandmother). All of the sponsors were Protestant residents of Breslau.

The Frisöse (hairdresser) Helene Sternitzke married the Kaufmann Alfred Ernst at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 24th of September in 1921. They were both Protestant. The church record shows that the marriage was recorded at the Breslau registry office Standesamt I, as record number 1117 in 1921.

Prior to the wedding, Alfred Ernst lived at Posenerstraße 37. Helene Sternitzke lived at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49, which was the same address listed for her father, the Machinist Wilhelm Sternitzke in the 1918 and 1926 Breslau address books. Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 was 7 blocks northwest from the old city walls. It is now Inowrocławska Street. The St. Barbara marriage record shows the married couple lived at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 after the wedding. The 1923 Breslau address book listed the Kaufmann Alfred Ernst as still living at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 in 1923.

Wedding Witness Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1897

The Schlosser (mechanic) Wilhelm Sternitzke was a 30 years old witness at the wedding of Paul Wilhelm Hermann Pierzshalski and Paulina Marie Anna Gimmler, who were both Protestants. Wilhelm's address was listed as Langegasse 17 on the marriage record dated the 24th of July in 1897. His signature is shown from the wedding record.

1897

Birth of grandson Herbert Friedrich Adolf Sternitzke, 1902

Herbert Friedrich Adolf Sternitzke was born on the 23rd of November in 1902. The Maschinist Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 (7 blocks northwest from the old city walls, now Inowrocławska Street). They were both identified as Protestants on the birth record. The baptism record listed the baby's name as Herbert Friedrich Alfred Sternitzke. All other details match the birth record. The baby was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 7th of December in 1902. The baptism sponsors were: Ernestine Sternitzke from Breslau, Bertha Waschta from Breslau and the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Heinke from Breslau. Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke married Johann Waschta in Breslau on the 30th of December in 1890. See the Marriage and Family of Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke, 30 December 1890 to 1943 City of Breslau.

A note on Herbert's birth record indicates Herbert Friedrich Adolf Sternitzke was married in Breslau in 1926, as recorded on marriage record 172 at Breslau Standesamt III. The Schlosser (mechanic) Herbert Sternitzke married the Nätherin (seamstress) Erna Renschin on the 24th of April in 1926. They were married at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Marriage of Herbert Friedrich Adolf Sternitzke, April 1926 City of Breslau.

Death of Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke (1867-1940)

Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 6th of September in 1940, at the age of 72 years and 11 months. Her husband, the retired Werkmeister (foreman) Wilhelm Sternitzke arranged the funeral and signed the St. Barbara funeral record. Martha was buried on the 9th of September at the cemetery in the Cosel suburb. Their address was Friedrich Karl Straße 50 at that time. The burial record listed her religion as Protestant, and it listed her birthdate as the 26th of September in 1867. The cause of her death was listed as Kreislaufschwäche (circulatory disease). The church record referenced her civil death record as Breslau Standesamt I, record number 1745 dated the 6th of September in 1940.

The 1934-1941 alphabetical register for the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen listed the burial of Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke on the 9th of September in 1940. She was the 72 years old wife of the retired Werkmeister (foreman) Wilhelm Sternitzke. Perhaps the original funeral and burial arrangements were made with the intent that the burial would be at the Cosel municipal cemetery, but the burial was at Gräbschen.

Breslau Address Books 1897 to 1943

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Kutscher Gottfried Sternitzke at Bahnhofstraße 2 Seitenhaus I (side building, first floor, now Dworcowa Street, north of the main train station and just south of the moat outside the old city walls). He was still living at that address, but was listed as a früher (former) Kutscher in the 1914, 1915 and 1916 address books. The 1918 Breslau address book listed Gottfried Sternitzke as a Partikulier (owner and operator of a business).

The Breslau address books from 1897 to 1943 show the locations of the Wilhelm Sternitzke family and the progression in Wilhelm's occupation:

- 1897: Wilhelm Sternitzke, Maschinist, Lange Gasse 17 III (third floor, now Długa Street, about ½ mile northwest of the old city walls).
- 1914, 1915, 1916, 1918, and 1923: Wilhelm Sternitzke, Maschinist (machinist), VI Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 III, now Inowroctawska Street northwest and outside the old city walls.
- 1926: Wilhelm Sternitzke, Werkmeister (factory foreman), VI Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 III.
- 1927: Wilhelm Sternitzke, Werkmeister (factory foreman), VI Friedrich-Karl-Straße 50,
- 1928, 1931, 1934, 1941 and 1943: Wilhelm Sternitzke, Werkmeister a.D. (ausser Dienst, foreman retired from service), VI Friedrich-Karl-Straße 50.

1884 to 1887 City of Breslau Residents: Sternitzka, Sternitzke, Sternitzki, Sternitzky

The 1884, 1886 and 1887 editions of the Breslau residents and business address book were downloaded from the Silesian Digital Library in 2015. The 1885 edition was also listed on that website, but it was a copy of the 1886 edition. Each book has several sections where personal information could be found: a sorting of residents by last name, a sorting of residents by street and house number, a business directory, a military service directory and a civil service directory. In some cases, the family name was spelled differently for an individual in some sections of the book. Those discrepancies are noted below.

Ad. Sternitzke, Vergolder und Staffirer (gilder and decorator), had a Werkstatt (workshop) at Engelsburg 1 - Seitenhaus II (side building, second floor) in 1884, 1886, 1887 and 1891. He lived at Kohlenstraße 8 III (third floor). His name was listed in the street address sort (in 1884 and 1886) as Sternitzky, but he listed in a business directory section of the 1884 and 1886 books as Sternitzke. The 1887 Breslau address book listed him as Ad. Sternitzky in the sort by family names, but listed his name as Sternitzke in the sorts by street addresses and businesses. Engelsburg is now Łazienna Street. It is one block north of the St. Elisabeth Church. Kohlenstraße was one block north of the University Bridge. It is now Stanisława Dubois Street. See the Family of Johann Gottlieb Starnitzke and Louise (née Matzke) Starnitzke, 1832 to 1905 City of Breslau.

Carl Sternitzke, Brauer (brewer), lived at Ottostraße 27 II (second floor) about 7 blocks northeast from the University Bridge in 1884 and 1886. Ottostraße is now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street. He lived at Matthiasstraße 26b IV (fourth floor) in 1887. Matthiasstraße 29c is now on Jedności Narodowej Street, about three blocks northeast of the University Bridge. This Carl Sternitzke may have been the Karl Sternitzke who was born at Brietzen around the 17th of November in 1853. Karl Sternitzke married Johanna Bertha Bohn and he was employed as a Brauer (brewer) in Breslau at the time of their son's birth - Arthur Carl Hermann Sternitzke in 1881. See the above discussion titled The Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.

Carl Sternitzke, Fleischermeister (master butcher), lived three blocks northwest from the main trainstation, at Neue Taschenstraße 29 Parterre (ground floor) in 1884. In 1886 and 1887 he lived about nine blocks west of the main trainstation, at Gabitzstraße 69 Laden Parterre wohnung I (shop on the ground floor, lived on the first floor). Neue Taschenstraße is now Kościuszki Street. Gabitzstraße is now Gajowicka Street. See the Marriage and Family of the Fleischermeister Carl Sternitzky, 1880 to 1939 City of Breslau.

Carl Sternitzki, Arbeiter (laborer), lived at Kletschkaustraße 9d Seitenhaus I (side house, first floor) in 1884, 1886, 1887 and 1891. Kletschkaustraße was one block north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 3rd block west of the main road to Trebnitz. It is now Kleczkowska Street. See Carl Stanitzke (Sternitzke, Sternitzki) and Johanna (née Borsitzke, Borsitzki) Stanitzke, 1833 Rosenthal, 1891 and 1896 City of Breslau.

Carl Sternitzki, Productenhändler (produce merchant), Wassergasse 6 ground floor (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau) in 1884, 1886 and 1887. His surname was spelled Sternitzky in the sort by address sections of those address books. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau.

Carl Sternitzky, Kaufmann und Bez.-Vorst., Specereiwaaren (Bezirksvorsteher; merchant and district director, grocery store owner), Kletschkaustraße 21, Laden Parterre Werkstatt I (shop on the ground floor, lived on the first floor) in 1884; Hermannstraße 2, Laden Parterre Werkstatt I (shop on the ground floor, lived on the first floor) in 1886 and 1887. Both addresses were for a building on the corner of Kletschkaustraße and Hermannstraße, two blocks north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 3rd block west of the main road to Trebnitz. Kletschkaustraße is now Kleczkowska Street. Hermannstraße is now Emila Zegadłowicza Street. See the Kaufmann C.(F). Sternitzke who was still living at Hermannstraße 2 in 1897.

Ernst Sternitzke, Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner), lived at Roßgasse 5 I (first floor) in 1884. Roßgasse was shown on a 1905 map, about 9 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Biskupa Tomasza Pierwszego Street. A map from 1850 showed Roßgasse as Belltafelstraße. The 1884 address book also listed his last name as Sternitzky in the later sort by street addresses. Ernst Sternitzke, the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner), lived at Große Dreilindengasse 12b II (second floor) in 1886 and 1887. Große Dreilindengasse was about 7 blocks north of the University Bridge, and is now Ptasia Street. See the listing for the Droschkenbesitzer Ernst Sternitzke in the 1868 list of Breslau residents. See the Family of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke, 1865 to 1912 City of Breslau.

F. Sternitzke, Schieferdecker (slater), Matthiasstraße 44 IV in 1884, 1886 and 1887. See the Family of the Schieferdecker Franz Stanitzke/Sternitzke, 1881 to 1943 City of Breslau.

G. Sternitzke was listed as a Hausverwalter (caretaker) in the sort by last names in the 1884 address book. He lived at Dominicanerplatz 1 IV (fourth floor), about one block south of the Neumarkt. The 1884 sort by streets and house numbers listed a Postbeamter (post office clerk) Sternitzki who lived at that address. Dominicanerplatz 1 is now the location of the Galeria Dominikańska shopping mall.

- Georg Sternitzki, Arbeiter (laborer), Vincenzstraße 57 IV (6 blocks north of Sand Island, one block east of the main road to Trebnitz, now Świętego Wincentego Street) in 1887. See the Book III, Chapter 1: the Brothers Wilhelm Sternitzki and Johann Hermann Georg Sternitzki and Johanna Karoline Augusta (née Weber) Sternitzki, 1878 to 1939 City of Breslau.
- Gottfried Sternitzki, Kutscher (coachman), Langedasse 15 (ground floor, now Długa Street, about ½ mile northwest of the old city walls) in 1886 and 1887. See the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Leschner) Sternitzke, 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau.
- Gottlieb Sternitzke, Kohlenhandler (coal merchant), Kronprinzenstraße 41 I (lived on the first floor, 6 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Gwiazdźista Street) in 1886 and 1887. Gottlieb was still listed at this address in 1891. See the Marriage and Family of Gottlieb Wilhelm Sternitzky, 1854 to 1921 City of Breslau.
- Gustav Sternitzke, Schuhmacher (shoemaker), Adolfstraße 5 II (second floor, 4 blocks northwest from the University Bridge, now Otwarta Street) in 1886. See the Second Marriage of Johanna Christiane Pauline (née Simon) Sternitzke, 19 December 1898 City of Breslau.
- Heinrich Sternitzke, Bäcker (baker), lived at Matthiasstraße 29c III (third floor) in 1884. The 1886 address book listed only one Heinrich Sternitzke (and no Heinrich was listed with other variations of Sternitzke). His address in 1886 was Matthiasstraße 29c IV (fourth floor). The 1887 also listed only one Heinrich Sternitzke. The Bäcker Heinrich Sternitzke lived at Hirschstraße 69 IV fourth floor) in 1887. Matthiasstraße 29c is now on Jedności Narodowej Street, about three blocks northeast of the University Bridge. Hirschstraße is now Mikołaja Sępa-Szarzyńskiego Street, about two blocks northeast from the Botanical Gardens. See the discussion regarding the Sternitzke Family of Bakers in Breslau at the beginning of this chapter.
- Heinrich Sternitzke, also a Bäcker (baker), lived at Mehlgasse 39 Seitenhaus I (side house, first floor) in 1884. He was not listed in the 1886 or 1887 books. Mehlgasse was later known as Gustav-Müller-Straße, now Ludwika Rydygiera Street north of the University, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge. Anna (née Herrmann) Sternitzke was a Bäcker Wittwe (baker's widow) who lived at Mehlgasse 35 in 1915. See the discussion regarding the 1915 Breslau address book. See the discussion regarding the Sternitzke Family of Bakers in Breslau at the beginning of this chapter.
- Ida Sternitzka, Witwe (widow), lived at Taschenstraße 16 II (second floor) in 1884 and 1886. Taschenstraße is now Piotra Skargi Street, inside the old city walls near the southeast corner of the moat. See Ida (née Meidel or Meindel) Sternitzka, 1873 to 1887 City of Breslau.
- Paul Sternitzky, Bäcker (baker), Bischofstraße 6 Hinterhaus Parterre (rear of the building, ground floor) in 1886 (one block east from the St. Maria Magdalena Church, now Biskupa Street).
- Reinhold Sternitzki, Maler (painter), Fürstenstraße 50 I (5 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Benedyktyńska Street, northeast of the old city walls) in 1884. In 1886, he lived at Auenstraße, Hypth. Nr. 189 I (Onkel Tom's Hütte, 7 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Bujwida Street). In 1887, he lived at Seitengasse 8 I. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic St. John the Baptist's Cathedral in Wrocław). See the Marriages, Family and Death of Wilhelm Ernst Reinhold Sternitzke,

1861 to 1901 City of Breslau.

Robert Sternitzke, Lehrer an der evang. Elementar-Schule Nr. 5. Lived one block east of the old city moat at Große Feldstraße 10d III (third floor) in 1884. Große Feldstraße is now Zygmunt Krasińskiego). Lehrer an der evang. Element-Schule Nr. 25, and lived at Gartenstraße 11 S. I (side building, first floor) in 1886 and 1887. See the Family of Robert Sternitzke and Lucie (née Bergmann) Sternitzke, 1881 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Sophie Sternitzke, Witwe (widow), Friedrich-Wilhelmstraße 30b Hinterhaus III (rear of the building, third floor) in 1884, 1886 and 1887. Friedrich Wilhelmstraße 30 was about three blocks west of the old city walls, and it is now Legnicka Street. See the Family of Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Soweija) Sterniske, 1862 to 1930 City of Breslau.

W. Sternitzke, Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner), lived at Vincenzstraße 13 III (third floor) in 1884. Vincenzstraße (now Świętego Wincentego) was very near the station for the small train to Trebnitz, and the Oderthor Bahnhof (train station).

In 1886, the Droschkenbesitzer W. Sternitzke lived at Oswitzerstraße Augusthöhe I (first floor), but was listed as Sternitzky in the 1886 sort by addresses. Oswitzerstraße is now Władysława Reymonta Street. It was the street that ran along the train tracks north from the small train station to Trebnitz. The Augusthöhe seems to have been a large building at the corner of Oswitzerstraße and Kletschkastraße with apartments above Wagner's Restaurant.

The 1887 Breslau address book listed a W. Sternitzke and a Wilh. Sternitzke at two addresses: Heinrichstraße 10 and Neue Tauentzienstraße 71.

The Droschkenbesitzer W. Sternitzke who lived at Heinrichstraße 10 IV (fourth floor) in 1887 was Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke. Heinrichstraße is now Henryka Brodatego Street, 2 blocks north of the University Bridge. This was the address where the Droschkenbesitzer Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke lived until his death in 1898. The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Droschkenbesitzer Wilhelm Sternitzke as a resident at Heinrichstraße 10. This was the address where the Droschkenbesitzer Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke lived until his death in 1898. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

In 1887, the Droschkenbesitzer Wilh. Sternitzke who lived at Neue Tauentzienstraße 71 parterre (ground floor) in 1887. Neue Tauentzienstraße is now Kościuszki Street. It is about 5 blocks east of the main trainstation. This Wilhelm Sternitzke was probably the same person who lived at Neue Tauentzienstraße 70 in 1891, and at Löschstraße 28 in 1897 (7 blocks east of the main train station, now Ignacego Prądzyńskiego Street). This was Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke who was born in 1850 at Klein Schwundnig (in Trebnitz County) and died at Breslau in 1909. See the Death of Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 26 October 1909 City of Breslau.

Wilhelm Sternitzky, Schneidermeister (master tailor), Weinstraße 14 II (1 block north of the Botanical Gardens, now Stanisława Żeromskiego Street) in 1884; in 1886, 1887 and 1891 he was living at Neue Junkernstraße 6 II. Neue Junkernstraße was shown as Herzogstraße on an 1850 map, 4 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Jana Kilińskiego Street). See the Marriage and Family of the Schneidermeister Wilhelm Starnitzky, 1867 to 1909 City of Breslau.

Ledigen Köchin* Anna Sternitzke 1884 to 1913 City of Breslau

A Protestant, ledigen Köchin (unmarried cook) named Anna Sternitzke (or Sternitzkÿ) appeared in several records at Breslau. Those records may have referenced the same person.

Birth and Death of son Arthur Emil Curt Sternitzkÿ, 1884

Anna Sternitzkÿ was the daughter of the deceased Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Friedrich Sternitzkÿ in the village Otto-Langendorf (in Groß Wartenberg County). In 1884, Anna Sternitzkÿ was unmarried and lived in Breslau at Uferstraße 3, now Fryderyka Joliot-Curie Street along the north bank of the Oder River, near the Peace Bridge (Polish: most Pokoju, formerly the German: Lessing Brücke).

On the 2nd of April of 1884, Anna Sternitzkÿ gave birth to Arthur Emil Curt Sternitzkÿ. The baby was baptized on the 8th of April in 1884 at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were the Frau Hutmacher (wife of a milliner) Bertha Podt and the Kutscher (coachman) Friedrich Sternitzkÿ.

Arthur Sternitzkÿ, the son of the unmarried Köchin (cook) Anna Sternitzkÿ died at Breslau on the 22nd of April in 1884, and was buried on the 25th of April in 1884, at the age of 20 days old. His mother was a Protestant and she lived at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 45. The church burial record referenced his civil death record as number 1698 dated the 22nd of April in 1884 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Birth and Death of daughter Else Sternitzke, 1913

The Protestant, unmarried Köchin (cook) Anna Sternitzke reported the birth of her daughter Else Sternitzke. The baby was born on the 10th of May in 1913 at Breslau. Anna Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Freiburgerstraße 23 (1 block southwest from the old city walls, now Świebodzka Street). Anna Sternitzke signed the birth record.

1913

A note on the birth record indicates Else Sternitzke died on the 10th of May in 1913, and that her death was recorded at Breslau Standesamt I: death record 1094. The death record may have been completed by the midwife Klara Schädlich, who was referenced on the birth record for Else Sternitzke.

Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzky
1884 to 1926 City of Breslau

Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzky (1859-1926) was born on the 2nd of December in 1859 at Kreuzburg, in Kreuzburg County. According to Eduard's 1925 Prussian teaching record, he was the son of the deceased Gerbermeister (master tanner) Reinhold Sternitzky. The available information suggests Eduard's father was his uncle. A 61-year-old tanner named Reinhold Sternitzky emigrated to the United States in 1886 on the ship Polynesia. Reinhold was born in 1825, making him the right age to have been the father of Eduard. Reinhold Sternitzky died in 1917 (which is consistent with the 1925 record listing him as deceased).

The 1911 Breslau marriage record of Eduard Sternitzki (discussed further below) listed his mother as Berta Sternitzki, an unemployed and unmarried woman who died at Kreuzburg prior to the wedding in 1911. There was no mention of Eduard's father on Eduard's marriage record. Adding to the mystery is the information from the death record of Eduard's mother. Bertha Sternitzky was born around 1833 at Kreuzburg. She died at Kreuzburg on the 2nd of May in 1904. Her death record was signed by her son, the Lehrer (teacher) Eduard Sternitzky who lived in Breslau at Gustav-Freitagstraße 29 in 1904. The parents of Bertha Sternitzky were the Gerbermeister (master tanner) David Sternitzky and Marie (née Hinke) Sternitzky. See Chapter 14, The Oppeln District, Kreuzburg County, City of Kreuzburg: the Family of the Gerbermeister David Sternitzky and Marie (née Hinke) Sternitzky, 1824 to 1904 Kreuzburg.

Eduard completed secondary school on the 20th of October in 1880 at Kreuzburg. He volunteered for one year of military service from the 1st of October in 1884 to the 1st of October of 1885, in the 51st Infantry Regiment at Breslau.

Eduard Sternitzky from Kreuzburg was listed as a philosophy student at the University of Breslau in 1885 and 1886. The university directory listed him as living at Number 10 Heinrichstraße. On the 29th of June in 1887, he was promoted to Feldwebel (infantry senior sergeant) in the 2nd Silesian Grenadier Regiment Number 11. See the history of the Reinhold Sternitzky family in the chapter regarding Kreuzburg, and the photographs (probably of Eduard) in the chapter titled Military Men.

Wedding Witness Eduard Sternitzkÿ, 1897

Eduard Sternitzky was a witness at the wedding of the Lehrer (teacher) Arthur Gotham and Martha Albertine Emilie Müller on the 25th of April in 1897. The groom was born at Montreal, Canada, with family in England. The bride was born at Schlochow, Lauenburg County in Pomerania, with family in Appleton, Wisconsin. Eduard Sternitzky was described as a Kandidat des höheren Lehramts (a candidate for a higher teaching office at a Gymnasium or University). His address was listed on the marriage record as Kohlenstraße 2 (now Stanisława Dubois Street, about one block north of the University Bridge). This was the same address listed for Eduard in 1904 and 1906 (see below). His age on the marriage record was listed as 35, which seems to be an error because the Personalbögen der Lehrer höherer Schulen Preußens (personnel records of teachers of higher schools of Prussia) listed his date of birth as the 2nd of December in 1859. That would have made Eduard 37 years old in April of 1897. Eduard's signature from the marriage record is shown as:

Baptism Sponsor Eduard Sternitzkÿ, 1899

The candidate for a Schulamts (school office) Eduard Sternitzkÿ was one of the sponsors for the baptism of Karl Ernst Schneider, the son of the Kaufmann (merchant) Paul Schneider and Elise (née Tchauner) Schneider. The child was born on the 22nd of February in 1899, baptized on the 26th of March in 1899 (record number 162) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau.

Teaching Career of Eduard Sternitzky, 1900 to 1906

The Statistisches Jahrbuch der höheren Schulen und heilpädagogischen Anstalten Deutschland, Luxemburgs Und der Schweiz (statistical yearbook of higher education and special education) printed in 1900 listed the Sternitzky name as a candidate at two different schools in Breslau. These items probably referred to Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzky.

- Page 32, Item 133. Breslau, Magdalenenplatz. Städt. Evangelische Gymnasium zu St. Maria Magdalena: Candidate Sternitzky.
- Page 95, Item 465. Breslau, Lehmdamm 3. Städt. Oberrealschule: Aspirant (candidate) Sternitzky.

Eduard passed teaching exams on the 15th of February in 1900 at the St. Maria Magdalena Gymnasium in Breslau. Eduard was an Oberlehrer (senior teacher) at the St. Elizabeth Gymnasium in Breslau from the 1st of April in 1905 to the 31st of March in 1925. In 1904 and 1906, he lived at Kohlenstrasse Nr. 2 (now Stanistawa Dubois Street) across the river from the University of Breslau. He was living near the St. Elizabeth Gymnasium, at Gustav-Freitag-Straße 29 (third floor) in 1911 according to the wedding documents discussed below. He continued to live there until his death, according to Breslau address books from 1914, 1915, 1918, 1923 and 1926. That street, Gustav-Freitag-Straße (also written in some address books as Gustav-Freytag-Straße) is now Dyrekcyjna Street, two blocks south of the main trainstation in Wrocław. He was listed as a Professor and Oberlehrer in 1914, 1915, 1916 and 1918. In 1923 and 1926, he was listed as a Professor and Studienrat (teacher at a secondary school).

The chronicles of the Friedrich-Wilhelm University in Breslau included a special thank you note for the professional services of the Herrn Oberlehrer Sternitzki during the 1 April 1905 to 31 March 1906 academic year.

Death of mother Bertha Sternitzky, 1904

The Lehrer (teacher) Eduard Sternitzky reported the death of his mother - the unmarried Bertha Sternitzky, at the Kreuzburg Standesamt (registry office) on the 3rd of May in 1904. Eduard was a resident of Breslau who lived at Gustav Freitag Straße 29. The death record reviewed was a Neben (duplicate) copy, so signature comparison is not possible.

Bertha Sternitzky was 71 years old when she died, who lived at in her home in Kreuzburg at Stoberstraße 8 on the 2nd of May in 1904. Bertha was a Protestant. Bertha Sternitzky was born around 1833 (based on her age of 71 years old when she died). The civil death record shows the parents of Bertha Sternitzky were the Gerbermeister (master tanner) David Sternitzky and Marie (née Hinke) Sternitzky. They died at Kreuzburg before Bertha's death.

Wedding Witness Eduard Sternitzky, 17 June 1911

On the 17th of June in 1911, the 51 years old Gymnasialoberlehrer (high school senior teacher) Eduard Sternitzky was a witness at the wedding of Ernst Karl Otto Hoffichter and Pauline Ida Hahn. Eduard lived in Breslau at Gustav-Freytag-Straße 29. Below is his signature from that 17 June 1911 record. Pauline Ida Hahn was born on the 6th of October in 1889 at Cawallen in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of August Hahn and Anna (née Pelz) Hahn.

Marriage of Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzki, 21 June 1911

On the 21st of June in 1911, the Gymnasialoberlehrer (high school senior teacher) Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzki married Margarete Marie Wilhelmine Adeline Scholtz at Breslau (their signatures are copied below). Eduard was identified as a Protestant who was born on the 2nd of December in 1859 at Kreuzburg in Oberschlesien (Upper Silesia). He was the 51 years old son of the deceased, unmarried and unemployed Berta Sternitzki, who had died at Kreuzburg. There was no mention of Eduard's father on Eduard's marriage record. Eduard lived at Gustav Freytag Straße 29 in Breslau.

Margarete Marie Wilhelmine Adeline Scholtz was a Protestant who was born on the 26th of May in 1855 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the retired member of the Silesian Provinzial Steuer-Direktionssekretärs (Provincial Tax Directorate Secretary) Adalbert Hermann Heinrich Scholtz and his wife Auguste Charlotte Amalie (née Kroschel) Scholtz. Both of Margarete's parents had died at Breslau prior to the wedding in 1911.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 63 years old Mittelschülrektor (middle school director) Otto Müller and the 36 years old Frauenarzt (gynecologist) Doktor Hans Siewczynski. Otto Müller lived in Breslau at Tauentzienstraße 86 (3 blocks northeast from the main trainstation). Doctor Siewczynski lived in Breslau at Augustastraße 33 (12 blocks west of the main trainstation).

Retirement of Eduard Sternitzky, 1925

Eduard's 1925 Prussian teaching record has a handwritten note at the top of the first page that reads "31.1.25 Ruhestand". That note indicates Eduard retired from teaching on the 31st of March in 1925, at the age of 65 years old.

The 1926 Breslau address book listed the Professor und Studienrat Eduard Sternitzky as a resident at Gustav-Freytag-Straße 29. A Studienrat (secondary school teacher) was an honorary title that replaced the Oberlehrer (senior teacher) title in 1918. The data for the 1926 address book was probably collected in 1925.

Death of Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzky (1859-1926)

A hand written note on his 1911 marriage record shows that Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzky died in 1926 as was recorded on death record number 1149 at Breslau Standesamt II. A second note on the marriage record shows his wife Margarete died in 1937, as was recorded on death record 600 at the Breslau Standesamt II (see below for information from Margarete's death record).

The 1926 to 1928 burial record book from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church included death and burial information regarding the retired Studienrat Professor Eduard Sternitzki. He died from Herzschlag (heart failure) on the 11th of July in 1926 at the age of 66 years old. He was buried on the 15th of July. The death information was originally recorded at the St. Salvator Protestant Church and copied to the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. He was a Protestant. He had resided at Gustav-Freitag-Straße 29III (third floor). His civil death record was number 1149, dated the 12th of July in 1926 at Breslau Standesamt II.

The widow of a professor, Margarete (née Scholtz) Sternitzke continued to live at Gustav-Freytag-Straße 29, according to the Breslau address books from 1927, 1928, 1931, 1934, 1935 and 1937.

Death of wife Margarete Maria Wilhelmine Adeline Sternitzki (1855-1937)

The civil death record for Margarete Marie Wilhelmine Adeline (née Scholtz) Sternitzki listed Margarete as an unemployed widow who was 81 years old, and who lived at Gustav-Freytag-Straße 29 until her death on the 12th of March in 1937. The civil death record shows Margarete was born at Breslau. The 1936 to 1937 burial record book from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church shows the widow of a professor, named (née Scholz) Sternitzki lived at Gustav Freitag Straße Nr. 29. She died at the age of 81 years old. She was buried on the 18th of March in 1937. The cause of her death was not identified.

The civil death record of Margarete Marie Wilhelmine Adeline (née Scholtz) Sternitzki was signed by the Verwaltungsbeamte der Deutsche Arbeitsfront (high administrative official of the German Labor Front) Paul Sternitzki. Paul lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 1 (one block southeast from the main trainstation, now Hubska Street). The German Labor Front was a National Socialist trade union organization. Her death record listed Margarete was an unemployed widow who was 81 years old, and who lived at Gustav-Freytag-Straße until her death on the 12th of March in 1937.

Paul Sternitzki and Margarete (née Scholtz) Sternitzki, 1935 to 1943

The description of Paul Sternitzki on the 1937 civil death record for Margarete Marie Wilhelmine Adeline (née Scholtz) Sternitzki indicated Paul was an adopted son of Eduard Robert Alwin Sternitzki. Paul may have been an illegitimate son of Margarete.

The 1935 Breslau address book listed Paul Sternitzky as a Verwittet Beamter (widowed public official) who lived at Wildenbruchstraße 21 I (now Sanocka Street, a few blocks southwest of the main train station). The 1937 Breslau address book listed the Gaufachberater (district agricultural consultant) Paul Sternitzky as a resident at Hubenstraße 1. In 1941 and 1943, the Abteilungsleiter (department head) Paul Sternitzky lived at Tiergartenstraße 7 (about 5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now Curie-Skłodowskiej Street). The 1943 address book listed his telephone number as 44038, and the sort by addresses listed his occupation as Gauhauptstelle Leiter (district head department leader).

Apparently, Paul Sternitzky (Sternitzki) married Margarete Scholtz between 1935 and 1943. The 1935 Breslau address book listed Paul as a widower in 1935. The 1937 Breslau address book listed Paul Sternitzky and the Privatier (retired) Marie Scholz as both living on the fourth floor at Hubenstraße 1.

Margarete Sternitzki (who resided with Paul at Tiergartenstraße 1) reported the death of her mother Marie Scholtz in 1943. Marie Scholtz was born on the 5th of June in 1858 at Breslau. She may have been a younger sister of Paul's mother Margarete Marie Wilhelmine Adeline (née Scholtz) Sternitzki. Marie Scholtz died on the 14th of April in 1943 at the age of 84 years old. She died from Altersschwäche (old age) at Breslau. She was buried on the 29th of April in 1943 at Friedhof I. Margarete Sternitzki signed the burial record as M. Sternitzky.

Marriage and Family of Johanna Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke 1886 to 1904 City of Breslau

Johanna Christiane Sternitzke was born at Domnowitz, in Trebnitz County, on the 16th of July in 1866. She was probably a sister of Luise Emilie Sternitzke, who was born at Domnowitz on the 27th of November in 1864. The parents of Luise Emilie Sternitzke were Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina née (Rudnik) Sternitzke. The widow Rosina Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for Christiane's son Max Adolf Ferdinand Koletschke in 1889. See Book I, Chapter 9, Germanengrund (Domnowitz): the Family of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Rudnik) Sternitzke, 1864 Domnowitz to 1889 Breslau.

There were many links between Christiane and Luise in records from Breslau. Luise Emilie Sternitzke may have been the Dienstmädchen Louise Sternitzke who was a baptismal sponsor for Christiane's son Paul Bruno Ferdinand Koletschke in 1887. Christiane's husband, Paul Koletschke was one of the wedding witnesses at the 1887 wedding of Luise and Ferdinand Schubert. Luise and Christiane shared the same address prior to that wedding. Louise (née Sternitzke) Schubert was a baptismal sponsor for Christiane's son Max Adolf Ferdinand Koletschke in 1889.

Marriage of Johanna Christiane Sternitzke, 1886

Johanna Christiane Sternitzke married Paul August Theodor Koletschke on the 4th of November in 1886 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The bride was 20 years old and a Protestant. The groom was 26 years old and he was a Catholic.

They lived at Seitengasse Nr. 8 in Breslau. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław). That was the same address where the Kattundrucker (cotton fabric printer) Heinrich Ernst Sternitzke (c.1807-1886) and his son the Maler (painter) Reinhold Sternitzke lived in 1886.

Paul August Theodor Koletschke was born at Breslau on the 14th of October in 1860. In 1866 he was employed as a Rangierer (railroad switchman) for the ROUE (Rachsen-Oder-Ufer-Eisenbahn).

Birth of son Paul Bruno Ferdinand Koletschke, 1887

Paul Bruno Ferdinand Koletschke was born on the 25th of January in 1887. He was baptized at the Eintausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 6th of February in 1887. His parents, the Rangierer (railroad switchman) Paul Koletschke and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke lived in Breslau at Seitengasse 7. Seitengasse is now Ustronie Street (about one mile north of the Catholic Cathedral in Wrocław).

The baptismal sponsors were: the Dienstmädchen Louise Sternitzke, the Häusler David Rudnik from Domnowitz, and Helene Scholz the wife of the deceased Häusler August Scholz from Domnowitz.

Wedding Witness Paul Koletschke, 1887

Luise Emilie Sternitzke married the Rangierer (railroad switchman) Ferdinand Schubert in Breslau on the 8th of December in 1887. Luise Emilie Sternitzke was born on the 27th of November in 1864 at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County. Her parents were Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Rudnik) Sternitzke. Luise lived at Lehmdamm 15 (one block north of the Botanical Gardens) before the wedding. The couple lived at Lehmdamm 15 in Breslau after the wedding. Lehmdamm is now Bolesława Prusa Street.

The 1887 wedding was witnessed by Paul Koletschke (a 27 years old Rangierer who also lived at Lehmdamm 15), and Karl Hübner (a 35 years old Wagenputzer living at Seitengasse 8 in Breslau). Paul Koletschke was a Rangierer (railroad switchman) in 1887. See Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert and Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert, 1887 to 1893 City of Breslau.

Birth, Baptism and Marriage of son Max Adolf Ferdinand Koleteschke,

Max Adolf Ferdinand Koletschke was born in Breslau on the 19th of January in 1889. Paul Koletschke was a Catholic and a Hilfsbremser (railroad assistant break man). Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke was a Protestant. They lived at Steinstraße 10 (now Kamienna Street, south of the main train station). The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 28th of January in 1889. The baptism record listed Paul Koletschke as a Bremser. The baptismal sponsors were: the Bremserfrau Louise Schubert and the widow Rosina Sternitzke.

Max Adolf Ferdinand Koletschke married Else Neugebauer at Kattowitz on the 1st of September in 1915. The Geneteka genealogical database shows that the groom was the son of Paul Koletschke and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke. The bride was the daughter of Oswald Neugebauer and Valesca (née Hautzinger) Neugebauer from Hohenlohehütte in Kattowitz County.

Baptismal Sponsor Christiane Koletschke, 1889

On the 4th of August in 1889 Helene Louise Schubert, the daughter of Ferdinand Schubert and Louise (née Sternitzke) Schubert, was born at Breslau. The baby was baptized on the 8th of August in 1889 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn the wife of the Packmeister (master luggage handler) Julius Hahn, and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke the wife of the Hilfsbremser Paul Koletschke.

Birth of son Fritz Adolf Koletschke, 1890

Fritz Adolf Koletschke was born on the 3rd of December in 1890. Paul Koletschke was a Catholic of Hilfsbremser (assistant brakeman). Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke was a Protestant. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 7th of January in 1891. The baptism record listed the parents as the Bremser (brakeman) Paul Koletschke and his wife Christiane (née Sternitzkÿ) Koletschke. At that time, the family lived at Bartschstraße 12 (now Barycka Street, one block north of the Botanical Gardens). The baptismal sponsors were the Breslau residents: Fräulein Ernestine Wiedermann, the Wittfrau (widow) Pauline Neumann and the Bremser Ferdinand Schubert.

Birth of daughter Martha Selma Ernestine Kolletschke, 1892

Martha Selma Ernestine Kolletschke was born on the 29th of December in 1892. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 2nd of February in 1893. Her parents were listed as the Bremser (brakeman) Paul Kolletschke and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Kolletschke. At that time the family lived at Roßplatz 19. Roßplatz (near the Odertor trainstation) was renamed as Benderplatz in 1926. It is now known as plac Stanisława Staszica.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Schaffner (conductor) Rob. Megelin, the Bremserfrau (wife of a brakeman) Anna Schmidt from Breslau, and Fräulein Pauline Scholz from Dobrtowitz in Trebnitz County.

Wedding Witness Paul Koletschke, 1904

On the 16th of July in 1904, Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke married the Lokomotivheizer (locomotive stoker) Paul Julius Hahn. This marriage included several people with links to the Sternitzke family groups from Domnowitz in Trebnitz County.

Martha Auguste Luise Sternitzke was the daughter of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Anna Rosina née Pantke. Friedrich was the son of the Domnowitz Freistellenbesitzer (free property owner and retired farmer) Johann Sternitzke.

Paul Julius Hahn was the son of Johann Julius Hahn and Christiane Ernestine née Sternitzke who were married at Kainowe in 1849. Christiane was the daughter of the Freistellenauszügler (free property owner and retired farmer) Johann Sternitzke in Domnowitz.

Witnesses at the 1904 wedding were the 57 years old Zugführer außer Dienst (railroad conductor, retired from service) Julius Hahn (who was probably Johann Julius Hahn the father of the groom), and the 43 years old Zugführer (railroad conductor) Paul Koletschke. Julius Hahn lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 51. Paul Koletschke lived at Kattowitz at that time. See the Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and Rosina (née Pantke) Sternitzke, 1875 to 1941 City of Breslau.

Marriage and Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Mauer 1887 to 1930 City of Breslau

On the 2nd of May in 1887, the Jungfrau Anna Rosina Sternitzke married the Haushälter (janitor) August Mauer (junior) at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestants. This was the first marriage for both the bride and the groom. They were both 29 years old at the time, so they were born around 1858. The calculated birth date of Anna Rosina, based on her age when she died in 1913, places her birthdate around the 10th of October in 1858. Anna Rosina was born at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Georg Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke who both died at Domnowitz.

August Mauer (junior) was the son of the Gärtner (house and garden owner) August Mauer (senior). The St. Bernhardin Church record shows that their marriage was recorded in the civil records at Breslau Standesamt II (record number 430 dated 6 May 1887).

Birth of daughter Anna Rosina Mauer, 1888

Anna Rosina Mauer was born on the 17th of January in 1888. She was the daughter of the Haushälter (janitor) August Mauer and his wife Rosine (née Sternitzke) Mauer. They were both Protestants. They lived at Garvestraße 2 (3 blocks east of the old city moat, now Kujawska Street). The baby was baptized at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 5th of February in 1888. The baptismal sponsors were the Nätherin (seamstress) Anna Opitz, the Haushälter (janitor) Adolf Melzer and the Schaffner's wife Selma Pipiale. See the Family of Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale, 1877 to 1904 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Fritz August Mauer, 1891

Fritz August Mauer was born on the 22nd of November of 1891. He was the son of the Haushälter (janitor) August Mauer and his wife Rosine (née Sternitzke) Mauer. They were both Protestants. They lived at Karlstraße 48/49 (one block north of St. Dorothea Church, now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street). The baptismal sponsors were the Haushälter Friedrich Mauer, the Haushälter Oskar Hildebrandt and the Haushälter Ernst Koschorre.

Birth and Death of son Paul Mauer (1894-1930)

Paul Mauer was born on the 2nd of April in 1894. He was the son of the Haushälter (janitor) August Mauer and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Mauer. They were Protestants who lived at Karlstraße 48/49 (now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street, one block north of the St. Dorothea Church). The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of April in 1894. The baptismal sponsors were the Gastwirth Johann Patloch, the Packmeister's wife Helene Pipiale, the Komptoirdiener Pauline Mauer and the Handschuhmacher August Opitz. See the Family of Susanne Helene (née Sternitzke) Pipiale, 1877 to 1904 City of Breslau. A note on the birth record indicates Paul Mauer died in 1930 (death record 738 in 1930 at Breslau).

Death of Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Mauer (1858-1913)

Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Mauer died at home at Fürstenstraße 102a in Breslau, on the 9th of January in 1913. She died at the age of 54 years and 3 months old on the 9th of January in 1913, which places her birthdate around the 10th of October in 1858. Anna Rosina was born at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Georg Sternitzke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke who had both died at Domnowitz. The death of Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Mauer was reported her husband the Haushälter (janitor) August Mauer.

Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert and Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert
1887 to 1893 City of Breslau

Marriage of Luise Emilie Sternitzke, 1887 Breslau

Luise Emilie Sternitzke was a Protestant and was employed as a Dienstmädchen (maid servant) in Breslau. She was born on the 27th of November in 1864 at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County. Her parents were Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Rudnik) Sternitzke. Her mother's maiden name was spelled Rudnik on the death record for Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert. Ernst Sternitzke had been an Arbeiter (laborer) at Domnowitz, but had died before his daughter's wedding in Breslau. His wife, Rosina was living at the time of her daughter's wedding.

Luise Emilie Sternitzke married Rangierer (railroad switchman) Ferdinand Schubert in Breslau on the 8th of December in 1887 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Ferdinand Schubert lived at VincensträÙe 17 before the wedding. Luise lived at Lehmdamm 15 (one block north of the Botanical Gardens) before the wedding. The couple lived at Lehmdamm 15 in Breslau after the wedding. Lehmdamm is now Bolesława Prusa Street. The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Schneidermeister Wilhelm Sternitzky at Lehmdamm 15 I (house number 15, first floor).

Ferdinand Schubert was a Catholic and was employed as a Eisenbahn-Rangierer (railroad switchman) in Breslau. He was born on the 25th of December in 1862, at Karlsberg in Neurode County (now the village named Karłów, south of Breslau, on the border with Bohemia). His parents were Franz Schubert and Marianna (née Tautz) Schubert. Franz had been a Stellenbesitzer (property owner) at Karlsberg, but had died before the wedding. His wife, Marianna was alive at the time of the wedding.

Their wedding was witnessed by Paul Koletschke (a 27-years-old Rangierer also living at Lehmdamm 15), and Karl Hübner (a 35-years-old Wagenputzer living at Seitengasse 8 in Breslau). Paul Koletschke was a Rangierer (railroad switchman) in 1887. Paul's occupation was listed as a Hilfsbremser (assistant brakeman) on the birth records for his sons Max (in 1889) and Fritz (in 1890) shown below, and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke was listed as his wife. See the Marriage and Family of Johanna Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke, 1886 to 1904 City of Breslau.

A Wagenputzer was a cleaner of railroad cars. A 1939 map of Breslau shows there were three train stations just few blocks west of Karl Hübner's residence at Seitengasse: the large Odertor trainstation, the station for the small train to Trebnitz, and the station for the city streetcars.

Birth and death of daughter Helene Louise Schubert (1889-1889)

On the 4th of August in 1889 Helene Louise Schubert, the daughter of Ferdinand Schubert and Louise (née Sternitzke) Schubert, was born at Breslau. Their address in that record was Vincenzstraße 47, very near the station for the small train to Trebnitz, and one block south of the Oderthor Bahnhof (train station). The baby was baptized on the 8th of August in 1889 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Her father was listed as a Catholic and employed as a Hilfsbremser (assistant brakeman). The baptismal sponsors were: Christiane (née Sternitzke) Hahn the wife of the Packmeister (master luggage handler) Julius Hahn, and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Koletschke the wife of the Hilfsbremser Paul Koletschke.

Helene Schubert died at the age of 5 days old, on the 9th of August in 1889. Her death record listed Helene as a Protestant. Helene's death record was signed by her father, the Bremser (brakeman) Ferdinand Schubert.

Death of Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert (1864-1889)

Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert died at home in Breslau on the 14th of November in 1889. Luise and her husband lived at Vincenzstraße 47. Luise was 24 years and 11 months old at the time of her death. Ferdinand's occupation was listed as an Eisenbahn-Rangierer (railroad switchman) in Breslau. Ferdinand signed the civil death record. Note that he spelled her first name Louise instead of Luise. Louise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert was buried at Breslau on the 17th of November in 1889.

November 1889

Second marriage of Ferdinand Schubert, circa 1890

Another Ferdinand Schubert (or more likely the same Ferdinand Schubert discussed above) was married to Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert after the death of Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert.

Death of aunt Rosina (née Messner) Weidner, 1891

Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert signed the death record for her aunt, the widow Rosina (née Messner) Weidner who died at the age of 70 and ¼ years. Rosina was probably the sister of Pauline's mother Bertha (née Messner) Sternitzke. Pauline's aunt was a resident of Sibyllenort in Oels County, but died at Pauline's home at Breslau on the 18th of October in 1891. Rosina Messner was born at Neuwalde in Trebnitz County. Her parents died at Pachkerwitz in Trebnitz County. Rosina (née Messner) Weidner was the widow of the late Sibyllenort Schloß Wächter (castle security guard) Karl Weidner.

Baptismal sponsor Ferdinand Schubert, 1892

Erich Carl Julius Sternitzke was baptized in Breslau at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 11th of September in 1892. He was the son of the Portier (doorman or porter) Carl August Julius Sternitzke and his wife Anna Theresia (née Kolbe) Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsors were the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Christiane Schadly and the Bremser (railroad brakeman) Ferdinand Schubert. See the Marriage and Children of Carl August Julius Sternitzke, 24 April 1889 to 1893 City of Breslau.

Death of Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert (1860-1893)

Pauline Sternitzke (1860-1893) was born around the 22nd of August in 1860 at Mirkau in Öls County. Her birthdate was based on her age (33 years old) at the time of her death on the 22nd of August in 1893. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Messner) Sternitzke who were Stellenbesitzers (property owners) who died at Bruschwitz in Trebnitz County prior to Pauline's death in 1893. Pauline's civil death record was signed by her husband, the Bremser (railroad brakeman) Ferdinand Schubert who lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 31. His signature below is from a Neben (duplicate record) so a comparison of the 1893 and the earlier signatures is not significant. Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert was buried at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church cemetery on the 25th of August in 1893.

Marriages of Gottlieb Langner 1887 and 1909 City of Breslau

Maria (née Sterniske) Langner was the wife of Johann Langner, a Freigärtner in Brietzen. Their son Gottlieb Langner was born at Brietzen on the 3rd of July in 1827. Maria and Johann both died before the 1887 marriage of their son Gottlieb Langner to Auguste Pauline Rind. His parents were listed as Johann Langner and Maria (née Sternicke) Langner on Gottlieb's 1909 marriage to Helene Luise Gertrud Kubiziel. Maria Sternitzke, the daughter of Johann Sternitzke, married Johann Langner, the son of Johann Langner, at the Protestant Church at Trebnitz on the 9th of July in 1810. See Book III, Chapter 2: Protestant Church Marriages, 1796 to 1827 City of Trebnitz, Marriage record 13 in 1810.

Maria (née Sterniske) Langner may have been a daughter of Johann Sterniske and Elisabeth Bartsch (who had 4 children: Christian, Gottlieb and two others not identified by Wilhelm Starnitzki). Johann Sterniske was born at Briesche, and bought Freigärtnerstelle 18 in Polnisch Hammer from Hans Bartsch on 24 October 1799. He married Elisabeth Bartsch on the 12th of November in 1799. Their children (including Maria) were born at Polnisch Hammer. See Book I: Chapter 13, Groß Hammer (Polnisch Hammer) for their history.

Gottlieb Langner's first wedding took place in Breslau on the 28th of December of 1887. The groom and the bride were both Protestants. After the marriage, Gottlieb and Auguste (née Rind) Langner lived at Schießwerderstraße 34 in Breslau. Gottlieb was employed as a Stadtpostbote (city postman). Witnesses to the wedding included the Fleischbeschauer und geprüfter Heildiener (meat inspector) Gustav Seidelmann (age 46, who was living at Gräbschener Straße 16 in Breslau) and the Schlossergeselle (journeyman mechanic) Constantin Klencz (age 33, who was living at Gräbschener Straße 69 in Breslau).

Auguste Pauline Rind was born on the 14th of November in 1850 at Neumittelwande in Wartenberg County. She was the daughter of Karl Rind and Johanna Melde, who had both died before this wedding.

Gottlieb Langner's second wedding took place at Breslau on the 29th of March in 1909. Gottlieb was a Protestant. His bride was a Catholic. Helene Luise Gertrud Kubiziel was born on the 24th of May in 1882 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Eisendreher (iron lathe operator) Friedrich Kubiziel and his wife Anna (née Scharf) Kubiziel. Gottlieb was employed as a Postschaffner (postal worker) and lived at Schulzenwiese 8 (about 9 blocks west of the old city walls, now Sołtysia Street). Gertrud was employed as a Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived at Siebenhufenerstraße 50 (4 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Tęczowa Street).

Witnesses at the 1909 wedding included the 41 years old Schutzmann (policeman) Oskar Lange and the 46 years old Oberpostassistent (senior postal assistant) Gustav Hanisch. Oskar Lange lived at Breslau at Siebenhufenerstraße 10 (2 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Tęczowa Street). Gustav Hanisch lived at Fichtestraße 19 (6 blocks south of the main trainstation, now Tomaszowska Street).

Marriage of August Starnitzke
27 June 1888 City of Breslau

August Starnitzke was born at Klein Wilkawe on the 12th of January in 1822. He was the son of the Gärtner (owner of a house and small garden) Franz Starnitzke and his wife Rosina (née Nessner) Starnitzke.

In 1888, the Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) August Starnitzke lived at Hünern in Trebnitz County. His father Franz Starnitzke had died previously at Klein Wilkawe. His mother Rosina (née Nessner) Starnitzke had died previously at Trachenberg.

On the 27th of June in 1888, the Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) August Starnitzke married the Nätherin (seamstress) Anna Alter at Breslau. She lived at Tauentzienstraße 50 (now named Tadeusza Kościuszki Street). They were both Protestants.

Anna Alter was born on the 16th of May in 1850 at Gunschwitz bei Ohlau. She was the daughter of the Schäfer (shepherd) Daniel Alter and his wife Marie (née Metze) Alter. Both of Anna's parents died at Gunschwitz prior to the 1888 wedding. The village Gunschwitz in Ohlau County is now named Gesice, Poland.

The wedding witnesses were the 40 years old Nachtwachtmann (night watchman) Johann Melzig and the 35 years old Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) Ernst Alter. Johann Melzig lived in Breslau at Berliner Platz 6. Ernst Alter lived in Breslau at Neue Taschenstraße 24.

Marriage of Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner 10 December 1888 City of Breslau

Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner was born at Groß Leipe on the 30th of October in 1849. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Hübner and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner. They were Protestants. Gottlieb was a Drechsler (lathe operator for making wooden furniture) in Groß Leipe and Jäkel. He died at Jäkel before his daughter's wedding in 1888. Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner was still living at the time of Karoline's wedding, but had died at Breslau prior to her other daughter's wedding in 1896 (see the transcription of the 1896 marriage of Anna Luise Hübner below). See the Book III, Chapter 2, Villages of Groß Leipe in Trebnitz County and Jäkel in Wohlau County: the Marriage and Children of Johann Gottlieb Hübner and Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Hübner, 1849 to 1906.

Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner married Johann Karl Josef Anders in Breslau on the 10th of December in 1888. Johann Karl Josef Anders was born on the 12th of September in 1849 at Sachwitz in Neumarkt County. He was the son of Gottlieb Anders and Hedwig (née Rabon) Anders (according to a transcription available at the Schlesien Datenbank). The death record of Josef Anders listed his mother as Hedwig (née Kabon) Anders. Johann was Catholic and a Maurer (bricklayer or stonemason) at Breslau in 1888.

At the time of her marriage, Johanna Louise Karoline Hübner was the widow of Mr. Jung who died before 10 December 1888. After their marriage, Josef and Karoline Anders lived at the Mittelfeld-Schreiber-Haus in Breslau. Witnesses to the marriage included the Stroh. [Strohmenger, straw merchant] August Hübner who was 35 years old and lived at Gräuznergasse 4a in Breslau, and the Zimmermeister (master carpenter) Moritz Butter who was 62 years old and lived at the Mittelfeld-Schreiber-Haus in Breslau.

The Mittelfeld-Schreiber-Haus was apparently an apartment building. A Breslau 1935 address book listed the Schreiber'sches Haus near the intersection of Mittelfeldweg (now Stefana Jaracza Street) and Michaelisstrasse (now Nowowiejska Street). This intersection is less than one mile northeast of the Catholic St. John the Baptist's Cathedral in Wrocław.

Marriage of Anna Starnitzke 27 February 1889 City of Breslau

Anna Starnitzke was born at Carlsburg on the 29th of July in 1865. She was the daughter of the Landwirth (farmer) Ernst Starnitzke and his wife Elisa (née Langner) Starnitzke. See Chapter 9 Öls County in the Breslau District, the Village of Carlsburg in Öls County: the Family of Ernst Starnitzke, c.1854 to 1860 Carlsburg, 1878 to 1889 Breslau.

In 1889, Anna Starnitzke was employed in Breslau as a Verkäuferin (sales clerk). She lived in Breslau at Paradiesstrasse 17 (one block east from the old city walls, now Stanisława Worcela Street). Anna married the Kaufmann (merchant) Carl Friedrich Werner at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 27th of February 1889. The church record listed Anna as Anna Starnitzka. Their civil and church marriage records show that Anna and Carl were both Protestants. They also show that Carl Friedrich Werner lived at Trachenberg in Militsch County. Anna's father Ernst Starnitzke had died prior to the 1889 wedding, but her mother Elisa (née Langner) Starnitzke was still living at Carlsburg at the time of Anna's wedding.

Carl Friedrich Werner was born on the 9th of April in 1865 at Körnitz near Trachenberg. He was the son of the Landwirth (farmer) Friedrich Werner and Elisabeth (née Klose) Werner. At the time of Carl's wedding to Anna Starnitzke, Carl's father was still a farmer, living at Körnitz (3 miles northwest of Trachenberg, now Karnitz, Poland), but Carl's mother was deceased.

Witnesses at the 1889 wedding were the 30 years old Haushälter (janitor) Robert Feder and the 52 years old Kaufmann (merchant) Mr. Lindner. Robert Feder lived in Breslau at Paradiesstrasse 17 (the same address listed for the bride, Anna Starnitzke). Mr. Lindner lived in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 30 (one block northwest from the Botanical Gardens, now Świetokrzyska Street).

The 16 July 1889 birth record of Willi Georg Alfred Feder shows that Robert Feder was married to Bertha Starnitzke. Bertha was probably the sister of Anna Starnitzke. Frau Anna Werner was one of the baptismal sponsors for the baby. See Chapter 9, Öls County in the Breslau District, Village of Carlsburg: the Birth, Marriage and Family of Johanna Louise Bertha Starnitzke, 1860 Carlsburg, 1887 to 1892 City of Breslau.

Handwritten notes on the marriage record show that Carl Friedrich Werner died at Trachenberg in 1932 (Trachenberg death record number 109 in 1932), and Anna (née Starnitzke) Werner died at Trachenberg on the 21st of July in 1944 (Trachenberg death record number 125 in 1944).

Marriage of Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske 21 March 1889 City of Breslau

Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske was born on the 21st of February 1865 at Breslau. He was the son of the Breslau Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and his wife Sophie née Sowieja. Marriage records were found for the siblings of Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske. See the Family of Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Sowieja) Sterniske, 1862 to 1930 City of Breslau.

In 1889, Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske was a Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) and lived at Friedrich Wilhelmstraße 30 (about 3 blocks west of the old city walls, now Legnicka Street) in Breslau. He married Emma Marie Elise Tschapke on the 21st of March in 1889. The marriage record shows that Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske was a Catholic and his bride was a Protestant. Below are the signatures of the bride and groom from their marriage record, where they signed their names as Rudolf and Elise.

Emma Marie Elise Tschapke was born on the 28th October 1863 at Breslau, daughter of the deceased Pedell (university administrative official) Carl Tschapke and his wife Auguste (née Knothe) Tschapke, who had lived in Breslau. Prior to her 1889 wedding, Emma Marie Elise Tschapke was employed as an Arbeiterin (laborer) and lived in Breslau at Schweizerstraße 16 (about 10 blocks west of the old city walls, now Lubinska Street).

Witnesses at the wedding included the 26 years old Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) August Knappe and the 24 years old Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker) Paul Carl Nuss.

The marriage record shows that Franz Sterniske (the father of the groom) was deceased at the time of the wedding. Breslau address books show that the groom's mother, the widow Sophie Sternitzke lived at Friedrich-Wilhelmstraße 30b Hinterhaus III (rear of the building, third floor) in 1884, 1886, 1887 and 1891. That was the same address listed for her son, Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske in 1889.

The 1891 Breslau address book listed the Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Rudolf Sternitzke as living at Kurzegasse 60 IV (4th floor, 7 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). Kurzegasse was shown as Kurze Gasse on Breslau map from 1896. It was shown as Westend Straße on a 1941 map.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Schlosser Rudolf Sternitzke as living at Fischergasse 3, Hinterhaus II (rear of the building, second floor, now Rybacka Street, 2 blocks west of the old city walls). Fischergasse 3 was the address of Martha Susanna Maria Emilie Sterniske in 1896. Martha was the sister of Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske.

Baptismal Sponsor Rudolf Sterniske, 1901

The Schlosser Rudolf Sterniske was listed as one of the baptismal sponsors for Liesbeth Klara Martha Sterniske on the 30th of June in 1901, at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the daughter of Paul Sterniske (the brother of Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske) and Paul's second wife Anna (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske. See the Marriages and Children of Paul Karl Franz Sterniske: 17 February 1890 City of Breslau, 31 December 1892 City of Breslau and 6 July 1903 City of Breslau.

The baptismal record listed Rudolf Sterniske as a Catholic, and it listed him as a resident of Königshütte (in Beuthen County, now Chorzów, Poland). Members of the Sowieja family were found in Silesian address books for Königshütte (1893) in Beuthen County. Sowieja was the maiden name of Rudolf's mother.

Marriage and Children of Carl August Julius Sternitzke
24 April 1889 to 1893 City of Breslau, 1894 Wüstendorf

Carl August Julius Sternitzke was born at Wüstendorf (6 miles east of Breslau) on the 18th of September in 1858. He was baptized at Groß Nädnitz on the 27th of September in 1858. According to his baptism record he was the son of David Sternitzke and Johanna (née Dräsner) Sternitzke. According to the 1889 marriage record, Julius was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) David Sternitzke and Johanna (née Dräsner) Sternitzke. Wüstendorf in Breslau County is now known as Dobrzykowice, Poland. See the Village of Wüstendorf in Breslau County: the Family of David Sternitzke and Johanna Dorothea (née Dresdner) Sternitzke, 1858 to 1889 Wüstendorf.

In 1889, Carl August Julius Sternitzke was employed as a Hausdiener (man servant) in Breslau, and lived at Ohlau Ufer 15 (2 blocks east of the old city moat, 10 blocks east of the Ring, now Juliusza Słowackiego Street). On the 24th of April in 1889, Carl (who signed the civil marriage record as Julius Sternitzke) married the Köchin (cook) Anna Theresia Kolbe. He was listed as Carl Sternitzke in the marriage book of the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The civil record and the church book both show that the groom was a Protestant and that the bride was a Catholic. Anna lived in Breslau at Ohlauer Stadtgraben 29 (a street along the east side of the city moat, now the corner of Podwale Street and Juliusza Stowackiego Alley).

Anna Theresia Kolbe was born on the 24th of July in 1859 at Mogwitz near the city Grottkau (in Grottkau County). She was the daughter of the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) George Benedict Kolbe and his wife Theresia (née Mader) Kolbe. Mogwitz was renamed as Brietenfeld Oberschlesien in 1936, and is now known as Makowice, Poland.

At the time of the 1889 wedding, the groom's father David Sternitzke was still living at Wüstendorf but the groom's mother Johanna (née Dräsner) Sternitzke had died at Breslau before the wedding. The bride's parents were still living at Mogwitz.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 27 years old Wachtmann (watchman) Ferdinand Riedel and the 32 years old Landwirth (farmer) Julius Sternitzke. Ferdinand Riedel was living in Breslau. Julius Sternitzke was a resident of Bischwitz in Trebnitz County, and may have been the groom's brother. Julius Sternitzke (the witness) also signed the marriage record as:

Birth of daughter Elfriede Emma Sternitzke, 1890

Elfriede Emma Sternitzke was born on the 6th of February in 1890. The Portier (doorman or porter) Julius Sternitzke and his wife Theresia (née Kolbe) Sternitzke were both Protestants. They lived at Ohlau Ufer 6 (1 block east of the old city moat, 9 blocks east of the Ring, now aleja Juliusza Słowackiego Street). Their daughter was baptized at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 16th of February in 1890. Carl August Julius Sternitzke signed the birth record document as Julius Sternitzke.

The 1891 Breslau address book listed the Portier (doorman or porter) Julius Sternitzke as living at Am Ohlau-Ufer 6 Keller (cellar, 1 block east of the old city moat, 9 blocks east of the Ring, now aleja Juliusza Słowackiego Street).

Birth and Death of son Erich Carl Julius Sternitzke (1892–1893)

Erich Carl Julius Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 22nd of August in 1892. The Portier (doorman or porter) Carl August Julius Sternitzke and his wife Anna Theresia (née Kolbe) Sternitzke were Protestants. They lived in Breslau at Ohlau Ufer 6.

Erich Carl Julius Sternitzke was baptized in Breslau at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 11th of September in 1892. The baptismal sponsors were the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Christiane Schadly and the Bremser (railroad brakeman) Ferdinand Schubert. Ferdinand Schubert was the husband of Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert. See Book III, Chapter 1: Luise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Schubert and Pauline (née Sternitzke) Schubert, 1887 to 1893 City of Breslau.

1892 birth record.

A note on the birth record indicates the baby Erich Carl Julius Sternitzke died in 1893 (Breslau death record number 395 in 1893). That death record was downloaded and reviewed. It showed that the family lived at Gawestraße 7 at that time. The baby died at the family home on the 15th of February in 1893. The death record was signed by the father, the Portier Julius Sternitzke.

1893 death record.

Birth of daughter Martha Auguste Sternitzke, 1894 Würstendorf

Martha Auguste Sternitzke was born in the family home at Würstendorf on the 15th of February in 1894. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Julius Sternitzke and Theresia (née Kolbe) Sternitzke. The father and the mother were Protestants. The birth record was signed by the father Julius Sternitzke.

Marriages and Death of Pauline Louise Sternitzke 1889, 1897 and 1939 City of Breslau

Pauline Louise Sternitzke (1858-1939) was a Protestant, born on the 27th of May in 1858 at Brietzen in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Sternitzke, an Arbeiter (laborer) who was living in Kommerowe (in Trebnitz County) at the time of Pauline's marriage. Pauline's mother Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke died at Breslau in 1884, before the date of Pauline's 1889 marriage. Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 25th of February in 1896. See Chapter 2: Village of Brietzen in Trebnitz County, Family of Gottlieb and Johanna (née Fischer) Sternitzke, 1851 to 1876 Brietzen, 1884 to 1896 City of Breslau.

First Marriage of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1889

Alois Hertwig was a Schneidermeister (master tailor) living in Breslau. He married the Schneiderin (seamstress) Pauline Louise Sternitzke in Breslau on the 20th of May in 1889. The couple lived two blocks north of St. Elizabeth Church at Oderstraße 17 after the marriage. Oderstraße is now Odrzańska Street.

Note that Ida Sterniska, a Schneidermeister (master tailor), was identified in the 1868 Breslau address book as living at Oderstraße 40 III (third floor) near the St. Elizabeth Church. Ida Sternitzka (the female version of Sternitzke) was listed as the Damenschneiderin (women's clothing tailor) in the 1870 Breslau address book. Ida and Pauline Louise were probably related, but Ida was not Martha Berta Ida Sternitzke (1885-1926), the daughter of Karl Sternitzke and Johanna Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke (discussed below).

Alois Hertwig was a Catholic, born on the 30th of March in 1866 at Grunau in Frankenstein County. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzers (property owners) Anton Hertwig and Anna (née Klenke) Hertwig, who were also from Grunau and had died before their son's wedding.

Witnesses to the wedding included Gustav Nitschke, a 39-years-old Handelsmann (merchant) from Klein Kommerowe in Trebnitz County, and Heinrich Sternitzke, a 38-years-old Bäckermeister (master baker) living at Rosenthal in Breslau County. Gustav Nitschke was the same man who was married to the bride's sister Caroline (née Sternitzke) Nitschke. Heinrich was born on the 20th of September in 1851 and was Pauline's older brother. His signature from the 1889 marriage record is copied below. See the Marriage and Family of Caroline Johanne Emilie (née Sternitzke) Nitschke, 1879 Brietzen, 1880 to 1884 Kanitz, 1888 Breslau, 1896 to 1941 Pawellau. See the Marriages, Family and Death of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1870 to 1938 City of Breslau.

In January of 1893, the Schneidermeister Alois Hertwig and his wife Louise (née Sternitzke) Hertwig were living at Kleine Groschengasse 9 (now Mennicza Street, 1 block east of St. Dorothea Church). Alois reported that their unnamed daughter died during birth at home on the 8th of January in 1893. Alois identified himself as a Catholic on the death record and listed his wife as a Protestant.

Second Marriage of Pauline Louise Sternitzke, 1897

On the 17th of February in 1897, Frau Louise Hertwig geboren Sternitzke married the Schneider (tailor) Franz Weiss at the St. Elisabeth Church in Breslau. Louise was a Protestant. Franz was a Catholic. The both lived at Antonienstraße 17 (about 3 blocks west of the southwest corner of the Blücher Platz (the Salt Market). Antonienstraße is now św. Antoniego Street.

In 1899, the 32 years old Schneider (tailor) Franz Weiss who lived at Antonienstraße 17, was a witness at the wedding of the widow Johanna Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke and the Schneider (tailor) Paul Heinrich Wilhelm Matzke. Johanna Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke was the widow of the Brauer Karl Sternitzke. Karl Sternitzke was the deceased brother of Pauline Louise (née Sternitzke) Hertwig. See the Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.

Franz Weiss was one of the witnesses at the marriage of his wife's niece, Martha Berta Ida Sternitzke when she married Karl Hermann Kühnel on the 23rd of October in 1905 at Breslau. Martha Berta Ida Sternitzke was the daughter of Karl Sternitzke and Johanna Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke.

Baptism Sponsor Louise (née Sternitzke) Weiss, 1900

The Protestant Schneidermeisterfrau (master tailor's wife) Louise (née Sternitzke) Weiss lived at Antonienstraße Nr. 17 in 1900. She was one of the sponsors for the baptism of Frieda Martha Clara Matzke, the daughter of the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Paul Matzke and Bertha (née Bohn, the widow Sternitzke) Matzke.

The child was born on the 9th of January in 1900 in Breslau (and recorded at the Standesamt on the 15th of January in 1900). The child was baptized on the 25th of March in 1900 (baptism number 141) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. Both parents were Protestant and lived in Breslau at Kleine Groschengasse Nr. 17/18. See the Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.

Death of Luise (née Sternitzke) Weiss (1858-1939)

Pauline Louise (née Sternitzke) Weiss died at the age of 81 years old, at Breslau on the 27th of November in 1939 from Herzschlag (heart failure). Prior to her death, she lived with her husband at Karuth Straße 18 (2 blocks west of the old city walls, now Ziemowita Street). Her husband arranged the funeral and burial at the St. Barbara Protestant Church. She was buried at the Cosel cemetery on the 30th of November in 1939. The church record listed her as Luise (née Sternitzke) Weiss, the Protestant wife of a früher Schneider, Zwischenmeister, Sozialrentner (former tailor, fashion designer tailor, pensioner). The church record references the civil death record of Luise (née Sternitzke) Weiss as Breslau Standesamt (registry office) I, record number 1780, dated 27 November 1939.

Family of Johann Karl August Sternitzke and Hedwig Mathilda (née Böhm) Sternitzke 20 June 1889 to 1935 City of Breslau

Johann Carl August Sternitzke was baptized on the 30th of March in 1860. He was the son of Johann Ernst Sternitzke, a Knecht (servant, farmhand, apprentice or laborer) at the Oberhof at Obernigk and his wife Elisabeth (née Hänsch) Sternitzke. See Chapter 2: City of Obernigk in Trebnitz County, the Family of Johann Ernst Sternitzke, 1860 to 1885 Obernigk, 1912 Breslau.

Johann Carl August Sternitzke signed legal records as Karl Sternitzke. The maiden name of his wife was listed as Böhm in most of the records regarding their children. She was listed as Hedwig (née Jüttner) Sternitzke on 1891 baptism record for their son Max Carl Fritz Sternitzke and on the 1897 baptism record for their son Ernst Paul Sternitzke. She was listed as Hedwig (née Jeittner) Sternitzke on 1892 baptism record for their son Ernst Georg Karl Sternitzke. Fräulein Anna Jüttner was the godmother of Hedwig's son Fritz Karl Sternitzke in 1897. Anna Jüttner was probably Hedwig's younger sister. Karl Sternitzke was a wedding witness in 1911 for Martha Jüttner. Martha was probably another sister of Hedwig. The marriage record for Martha Jüttner listed Martha's parents as Hieronimus Jüttner and Mathilda (née Böhm) Jüttner. Hedwig was probably born before her mother married Hieronimus Jüttner.

Wedding Witness Carl/Karl Sternitzke, June & July 1889

The 28 years old Haushälter (janitor) Carl Sternitzke was listed as a witness at the 20 June 1889 marriage of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Josef Aloys Weigmann and the Köchin (cook) Marie Gottert. At that time Carl (or Karl) was living at Katharinenstraße 12 (1/2 block south from the Neumarkt, now św. Katarzyny Street). The record of that marriage was found in a Neben (duplicate) record book, so Carl's original signature is not available for comparison.

The 1 July 1889 marriage record of Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke and Hedwig Agnes Schubert listed his brother Karl Sternitzke as a 29-years-old Haushälter (janitor) who lived at Graben 14 in Breslau (one block south of his address in June). The groom Ernst Sternitzke lived at Graben 13. See the Marriage of Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke, City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of son Johann Karl Fritz Sternitzke (October-December 1889)

The 16 October 1889 birth record for Johann Karl Fritz Sternitzke listed his parents as the Haushälter Karl Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke, who lived at Graben 14. Karl was a Protestant. Hedwig was a Catholic. Graben is now the major street named Olawska, two blocks east of the Mary Magdalena Church and near the Galeria Dominikańska shopping mall. A note on the birth record indicates the baby Johann Karl Fritz Sternitzke died in 1889, and was recorded on death record number 4908 of 1889. The baby was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 27th of October in 1889 (baptism 452). The mother was a Catholic. Baptism sponsors: the Stellmacher (wheelwright) Ernst Sternitzke, the Brenner (distiller) Karl Maischner and the Dienstmädchen Anna Kober. The Schänker (barkeeper) Karl Maischner was one of the baptism sponsors for Ernst Georg Karl Sternitzke in 1892 (see below).

October 1889

The 1878 to 1890 death record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church included the burial record for Fritz Sternitzke, the son of a Haushälter. The child died on the 10th of December in 1889 at the age of 1 month and 24 days old. That corresponds with the birthdate of Johann Karl Fritz Sternitzke. The child was buried on the 13th of December in 1889. The church record listed the civil death record as number 4908 dated the 10th of December in 1889 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke, December 1889 and January 1890

Karl Sternitzke was also a witness at the wedding of Karl Friedrich August Meischner and Anna Maria Agnes Rober, at Breslau on the 28th of December in 1889. Karl Sternitzke was still a 29 years old Haushälter in the December record, but his address had changed to Feldstraße 18 in Breslau. The 1896 map of Breslau (below) shows both Graben and Feldstraße. Feldstraße 18 (one block east from the moat around the old city, now a vacant lot at Zygmunta Krasinskiego Street).

December 1889

Karl Sternitzke was also a witness at the 28 January 1890 wedding of the Breslau Portier (porter or doorman) Carl Gottlob Hermann Schulz and Agnes Rohl. At the time of that wedding Karl Sternitzke was listed as a 29 years old Haushälter who lived at Feldstraße 18.

Breslau Address Book 1891

The 1891 Breslau address book listed the Haushälter Carl Sternitzke as living at Große Feldstraße 18 Hinterhaus III (at the rear of the house on the third floor). This Carl Sternitzke was Johann Karl August Sternitzke. A 1915 map of Breslau shows that Große Feldstraße is the same street labeled Feldstraße on earlier maps. The 1891 address book also listed a Tischler Carl Sternitzke who lived at Graben 14 Hinterhaus I. This was Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke. He lived at Graben 13 in 1889. His brother (see above) the Haushälter Carl Sternitzke lived at Graben 14 in October of 1889. Carl the Tischler moved from Graben 13 to Graben 14 when his brother, Carl the Haushälter moved to Große Feldstraße 18.

Max Karl Fritz Sternitzke was born on the 15th of March in 1891. His birth record listed his parents as the Haushälter Karl Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. They were still living at Feldstraße 18 in 1891. Karl was a Protestant. Hedwig was a Catholic. The record of that birth was found in a Breslau Standesamt II Neben (duplicate) record book, so Karl's original signature is not available for comparison.

Max Karl Fritz Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 12th of April in 1891. The baptismal record listed the mother as Hedwig (née Jüttner) Sternitzke, a Catholic. The baptismal record shows the birth was recorded at Breslau Standesamt II as record number 1120 (which listed the mother's name as Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke). The baptismal sponsors were listed as the Breslau residents: the Stellmachersfrau (wheelwright's wife) Hedwig Sternitzke, the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Rudolf Ermrich and the Ausschänker (barkeeper) Karl Marschner. The Stellmachersfrau Hedwig Sternitzke was probably the wife of Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke who was probably Karl Sternitzke's brother. See the Marriage of Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke, 1 July 1889 City of Breslau.

The 29 years old Eisenbahnengineer (railway engineer) Max Karl Fritz Sternitzke married Gertrud Lina Kuhnert at Breslau on the 2nd of March in 1921. Max was living in Breslau at Gneisenauplatz 5 (now Generała Józefa Bema Street, 2 blocks north of Sand Island). That address was where his parents were living in 1900 to 1935. Gertrud Lina Kuhnert was born on the 23rd of January in 1898 at Breslau. In 1921, she was employed as a Verkäuferin (sales clerk) and lived in Breslau at Brüderstraße 73. The Breslau address books from 1923 to 1943 listed a Max Sternitzke as living at Brüderstraße 73.

The wedding witnesses were the 38 years old Tischler (carpenter) Richard Hönatsch and the 25 years old Electromonteur (electrician) Georg Sternitzke. The marriage record states his identity was verified “Durch seinen Militärpass” (by his military papers). Georg was 25 years old, so he was born around 1896. That would make him the correct age at the time of the wedding in 1921 to have been a brother to the groom. Georg Max Sternitzke was born on the 4th of November in 1895 and would have been 25 years old at the time of the wedding. The marriage record shows that Georg Sternitzke was a resident of Hennersdorf (now Osiek, Poland), 4 miles south of the city of Ohlau in Ohlau County. Perhaps that was where he was performing his military service.

Birth and Death of son Karl Ernst Georg Sternitzke (1892-1895)

Karl Ernst Georg Sternitzke was born on the 3rd of April in 1892. His birth record listed his parents as the Haushälter Karl Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. They were still living at Feldstraße 18 in 1892. Karl was a Protestant. Hedwig was a Catholic. The father’s name was written on the record first as Carl Sternitzke (by the registrar), but Karl signed his name as Karl Sternitzke. The baby’s name was also written as Carl, but it was probably also Karl.

The St. Bernhardin Protestant Church baptism record (dated the 1st of June in 1892) for Karl Ernst Georg Sternitzke is confusing. It listed the baby’s name as Ernst Georg Karl Sternitzke (with Karl underlined). The family’s address was listed as Große Feldstraße 18. Große Feldstraße on a map from 1896 was the same street shown as Feldstraße on earlier maps, and the intersecting Kleine Feldstraße in 1896 was Clausewitzstraße on earlier maps. The most remarkable difference between the birth and baptism records was the maiden name of the mother. She was identified on the baptism record as Hedwig (née Jeittner) Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsors for Ernst Georg Karl Sternitzke were the Schänker (barkeeper) Karl Maischner and the Köchin (cook) Anna Krautwald.

Carl Sternitzke died in the family home on the 23rd of October in 1895, at the age of 3 and ½ years old. At that time the family lived at Ziethenstraße 26 (about 6 blocks west of the main train station), now Żytnia Street. The civil death record listed the child as a Protestant. His parents were listed by the civil registrar as the Kellner (waiter) Carl Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. The registrar wrote the first names of the child and the father as Carl, but the father signed the civil death record as Karl.

Birth of daughter Hedwig Sternitzke, 1893

Hedwig Sternitzke was born on the 30th of August in 1893. Her birth record listed her parents as the Protestant Kellner (waiter) Karl Sternitzke and the Catholic Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. At that time, they were living in Breslau at Alexanderstraße 10 (one block east of the old city moat and 5 blocks southeast of the Neumarkt). Alexanderstraße is no longer a street. It is a grassy area next to the intersection of major roads about two blocks east the Galeria Dominikańska shopping mall.

Birth of son Georg Max Sternitzke, 1895

The 4th of November in 1895 birth record of Georg Max Sternitzke listed his parents as the Protestant Kellner (waiter) Karl Sternitzke and the Catholic Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. Karl and Hedwig were living at Ziethenstraße 26 (about 6 blocks west of the main train station), now Żytnia Street.

Georg Max Sternitzke was probably the witness identified on the 1921 marriage record of his older brother Max Karl Fritz Sternitzke (see above).

Birth and Death of son Fritz Karl Sternitzke (1896-1897)

Fritz Karl Sternitzke was born on the 10th of December in 1896. His birth record showed that his parents, the Kellner Karl Sternitzke and his wife Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke were still living at Ziethenstraße 26 in 1896. Karl was listed as a Protestant and Hedwig was a Catholic. The record book was a Neben (duplicate copy) so an original signature was not available.

The St. Elisabeth Protestant Church baptism record for Fritz Karl Sternitzke, dated the 13th of January in 1897 shows they were then living at Gräbschnerstraße 26 (about 3 blocks north of Ziethenstraße 26. The baptism record is probably in error because the family lived at Ziethenstraße 26 in 1897 and 1899. Fräulein Anna Jüttner was the godmother of Fritz Karl Sternitzke.

Fritz Sternitzke died on the 15th of January in 1897 at the age of 25 days. His civil death record listed him as a Protestant. He was the son of the Kellner Carl Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. The child died in the family home at Ziethenstraße 26. Karl Sternitzke signed his son's civil death record.

Birth and Death of son Ernst Paul Sternitzke (1897-1897)

The baptism record for this Ernst Paul Sternitzke shows the Kellner (waiter) Karl Sternitzke and his wife Hedwig (née Jüttner) Sternitzke lived at Gräbschener Straße 113 (about 8 blocks from the southwest corner of the old city moat, now Grabiszyńska Street). Karl was a Protestant and Hedwig was a Catholic. The Steinsetzerfrau (wife of a cobblestone street paver) Anna Adolf was the godmother for the baby. The 1888 to birth register for Standesamt II shows the child's birth was recorded on birth record 4925 in 1897.

The civil death record of Ernst Sternitzke shows he was the son of the Kellner Carl Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. Ernst died on the 12th of December in 1897 at the age of 6 weeks old. He was born around the 31st of October in 1897. He was a Protestant. The child died in the family home at Ziethenstraße 26. Karl Sternitzke signed his son's civil death record.

Breslau Address Book 1897

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Kellner Carl Sternitzke as living at Zietenstraße 26 IV (fourth floor).

Birth of daughter Erna Hedwig Anna Sternitzke, 1899

Erna Hedwig Anna Sternitzke was born on the 27th of February in 1899. Her birth record listed her parents as the Kellner Karl Sternitzke and his wife Hedwig (née Böhm) Sternitzke. They were still living at Ziethenstraße 26 in 1899. Karl was listed as a Protestant and Hedwig was a Catholic. Karl signed the birth record.

Birth and Death of daughter Elizabeth Anna Sternitzke (1900-1902)

The 19 June 1900 birth record of Elizabeth Anna Sternitzke identified the full names of her parents as the Protestant Kellner (waiter) Johann Karl August Sternitzke and the Catholic Hedwig Mathilda (née Böhm) Sternitzke. At that time, they lived at Gneisenauplatz 5 (now Generała Józefa Bema Street, 2 blocks north of Sand Island). Karl signed his first name on the 1900 record like he did prior to 1893. A handwritten note on Elizabeth's birth record indicates she died in 1902.

The 1889 and 1900 signatures for Karl Sternitzke match and show that even though his occupation changed from Haushälter (janitor) to Kellner (waiter), and their addresses changed during that period, these records were for the same husband and wife.

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke, 1911

On the 30th of September in 1911, the 51 years old Kellner (waiter) Karl Sternitzke was a witness at the Breslau wedding of the Fischhändler (fish trader) Reinhold Joseph Kuhnert and Martha Jüttner. Martha was the daughter of the Häusler Hieronimus Jüttner and Mathilda (née Böhm) Jüttner. Martha was born on the 20th of February in 1883 at Woisselsdorf (now named Wojślaw, Poland) in Grottkau County about 30 miles southeast from Breslau. Martha was a Catholic. Martha' father died before the 1911 wedding. Martha's mother was still living at Woisselsdorf at the time of wedding. Karl Sternitzke provided the personal data regarding Martha for the marriage record. The address listed for Karl Sternitzke was the same address as in 1900: Gneisenauplatz 5. Karl's 1911 signature is copied here, and matches his 1893 and 1895 signatures.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1935

The 1914, 1915, 1916 and 1918 Breslau address books listed the Kellner Karl Sternitzke as a resident of Gneisenauplatz 5. Later Breslau address books listed Hedwig Sternitzke as an Ausbesserin (mender, or patching woman), who lived at Gneisenauplatz 5 in 1923 and 1927. The 1928 Breslau address book listed her as a Witwe (widow). She was listed as the Näherin (seamstress) Hedwig Sternitzke at Gneisenauplatz 5 in 1931, 1934 and 1935.

Death of Karl Sternitzke (1860-1919)

The Kellner Karl Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 14th of November in 1919. The burial record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed his age at 59 years old when he died. His last residence was listed as Gneisenauplatz 5. He died from Magenkrebs (stomach cancer). He was buried at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church cemetery in the village Rosenthal on the 17th of November in 1919. His wife Hedwig Sternitzke paid for the funeral and signed the church record. The church burial record referenced his civil death record: number 3259 at Breslau Standesamt III.

Marriage and Family of Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke 1889 City of Breslau

Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke was a 26-years-old Stellmacher (wheelwright) living in Breslau at Graben 13 (two blocks east of the St. Mary Magdalene Church). He was born on the 4th of December in 1862 at Obernigk in Trebnitz County, the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Johann Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Elizabeth (née Hänsch) Sternitzke. See Chapter 2: City of Obernigk in Trebnitz County, the Family of Johann Ernst Sternitzke, 1860 to 1885 Obernigk, 1912 Breslau.

On the 1st of July in 1889, Carl Ernst Hermann Sternitzke married Hedwig Agnes Schubert at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. Carl Ernst was a Protestant. Hedwig was a Catholic. Carl Ernst signed the marriage document as Ernst Sternitzke. His father, Johann Ernst Sternitzke was listed as deceased on the document, but his mother Elizabeth (née Hänsch) Sternitzke was still alive and living in Breslau at that time. She died at Breslau in 1919. See the Death of Elisabeth (née Heinsch) Sternitzke, 19 September 1912 City of Breslau.

Hedwig Agnes Schubert was born on the 29th of September in 1866 at Oppeln, the daughter of the Zigarrenmacher (cigar-maker) Carl Schubert and his wife Johanna (née Ochmann) Schubert. Hedwig was a Catholic, and a Köchin (cook) who lived at Graben 13 in Breslau prior to the wedding. The church marriage record shows that Hedwig's father, the Zigarrenmacher Karl Schubert died at Oppeln before Hedwig's marriage in 1889.

Witnesses to the July 1889 wedding were the 30 years old Goldarbeiter (goldsmith) Paul Neumann and the 29 years old Haushälter (janitor) Karl Sternitzke. Karl Sternitzke was living at Graben 14 in Breslau. Karl's full name was Johann Karl August Sternitzke. He was the groom's brother. See the Family of Johann Karl August Sternitzke and Hedwig Mathilda (née Böhm) Sternitzke, 20 June 1889 to 1935 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Martha Elisabet Hedwig Sternitzke, 1889

Martha Elisabet Hedwig Sternitzke, the daughter of the Stellmacher (wheelwright) Ernst Sternitzke and Hedwig (née Schubert) Sternitzke was born on the 7th of November in 1889 (recorded on the 12th of November). She was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 4th of January in 1890 (record number 4). The mother was a Catholic. The baptism sponsors were: the Haushälter (janitor) Karl Sternitzke, the Hotelbesitzerin (hotel owner) Karoline Neumann, and the Verkäuferin (sales clerk) Fräulein Gertrud Biewald.

Family of Karl May and Emilie Minna Valeska née Sternitzke 1889 to 1913 City of Breslau

Emilie Minna Valeska née Sternitzke was the daughter of the Droschkenkutscher (carriage cab driver) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Johanna née Spiller. She was born at Breslau on the 11th of August in 1863. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

At the time of her baptism (23 August 1863) the Sternitzke family lived at Oder Straße 8 (2 blocks northeast of the St. Elisabeth Church, now Odrzańska Street). The St. Elisabeth Church registry of baptisms listed Wilhelm Sternitzke as Stärnitzke. The baptism record has the name Stärnitzke lined out and replaced with Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsors were Susanna David (the daughter of a Schäfer), Henriette Frisch (the daughter of a Kutscher) and the Dienstknecht (farm servant) Gottlieb David.

Marriage of Emilie Minna Valeska Sternitzke, 1889

Emilie Minna Valeska Sternitzke married the Droschkenführer (coach driver) Johann Karl Josef Maÿ at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of September in 1889. They were Protestants. Prior to the wedding, Minna lived at Wäldchen 23 and Karl lived at Schrotgasse 5 in Breslau. Karl was 30 years old, born on the 1st of March in 1859 at Breslau. Minna was 26 years old, born on the 11th of August in 1863 at Breslau.

I have found several records related to their children, and both Minna and her husband Karl May were identified in records related to Minna's parents and siblings.

- The 31 years old Droschkenführer (coach driver) Karl May was a witness at the 1890 wedding of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke (one of Minna's brothers). In 1890, Karl May lived at Vinsenzstraße 17 (now Świętego Wincentego Street, 5 blocks north of the University Bridge across the Oder River).
- Karl May was also a witness at the 1894 wedding of the Fleischer (butcher) Karl Richard Oscar Sternitzke (also Minna's brother). The 1894 marriage record identified Karl May as a 35 years old Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) who lived at Matthiasstraße 50b (now Jedności Narodowej Street, about 3 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). Based on his ages at the two weddings, Karl May was born in 1859, so he was 4 years older than his wife Minna née Sternitzke.
- The Droschkenbesitzer Wilhelm Sternitzke died at home at Heinrichstraße 10 on the 16th of May in 1898. He was 66 years and 2 months old when he died, so he was born around the 16th of March in 1832. His death was reported by the Droschkenbesitzersfrau (carriage owner's wife) Minna May, a resident at Matthiasstraße 106, and Wilhelm's wife Johanna (née Holewa) Sternitzke.
- The Droschkenbesitzer Frau (wife of a carriage owner) Minna Mai was the godmother at the 1899 baptism of her niece Frieda Emma Minna Sternitzke (daughter of Oskar Sternitzke).

Children of Karl May and Emilie Minna Valeska (née Sternitzke) May

Below is a list of the known children and the addresses of Karl and Minna May as found on Breslau birth records. Karl May was listed as a Droschkenführer (a coach driver) on the 1891 birth record. He was listed as a Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) on the 1893, 1894 and 1896 birth records.

- Gertrud Else Caroline Maÿ was born on the 16th of July in 1891. She died after living only two hours. The family lived in Breslau at Vincenz Straße 17 (now Świętego Wincentego Street, 5 blocks north of the University Bridge across the Oder River).
- Minna Klara Wally May was born on the 26th of August in 1893. The duplicate birth record listed her date of birth as the 26th of August in 1893. The baptism record listed her name as Minna Clara Wally Maÿ and it listed her date of birth as the 20th of August in 1893. The death record for Wally May shows that she died at home at the age of 6 days old, on the 1st of September 1893. Karl May signed the death record. The family lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 50 (now Jedności Narodowej Street, about 3 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). The baptismal sponsors were: the Breslau Droschkenbesitzersfrau (carriage owner's wife) Johanna Sternitzke and the Breslau Kutscher (coachman) Paul Sternitzke.

- Oskar Karl Conrad May was born on the 27th of September in 1894. He died at home after living only one hour. The family still lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 50
- Minna Johanna Elsbeth May was born on the 20th of February in 1896. In 1896, the family lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 106 (now Jedności Narodowej Street, about 7 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). She was baptized as Johanna Elsbet Minna Maÿ at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 8th of March in 1896. Her baptismal sponsors were the Breslau Droschkenkutscherfrau Bertha Sternitzke, Fräulein Josephine Maÿ from Breslau and the Breslau Lackierer (varnisher) Max Maÿ. Bertha Sternitzke was probably Bertha Agnes Auguste (née Schäl) Sternitzke, the wife of Minna's brother Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 18 October 1894 to 1937 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Minna Johanna Elsbeth Maÿ, 1913

In 1913, the Friseurin (hair stylist) Minna Johanna Elsbeth Maÿ lived at Waterloostraße 18. Her father died at Breslau before Elsbeth's wedding. Her mother was still living at Breslau in 1913. Elsbeth was a Protestant. Elsbeth married the Kaufmann Georg Hasler at Breslau on the 3rd of December in 1913. He was a Catholic and a resident of Gleiwitz.

Georg Hasler was born on the 30th of August in 1891 at Rengersdorf (now named Krosnowice, Poland) in Glatz County. He was the son the Bergmann (miner) Theodor Hasler and Wilhelmine (née Schedwig) Hasler. His father died at Fellhammer in Waldenburg County before the 1913 wedding. His mother was living at Fellhammer at the time of the wedding. Fellhammer is now named Kuźnice Świdnickie, Poland.

The wedding witnesses were: the 22 years old Kaufmann (merchant) Bruno Schedwig who lived at Friedrichstraße 25 in Breslau, and the 24 years old Kaufmann Wilhelm Flöter who lived at Vinzenzstraße 2 in Breslau.

Family of Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke 1886 to 1894 City of Breslau

Johanna Maria Theresia Starnitzke was born at Pleischwitz on the 4th of July in 1861 at Pleischwitz in Breslau County. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner)

Karl Gottlieb Starnitzke and Anna Maria (née Hähnel) Starnitzke, who had both died at Breslau. The family later moved to Breslau, where Theresia's parents died.

Johanna Maria Theresia Starnitzke married Eduard Spottke at Breslau on the 4th of November in 1886. Theresia's death record shows that her marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt II, record number 1072 in 1886.

In 1889, 1893 and 1894, the Tischler (carpenter) Eduard Spottke and his wife Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 17 (one block southeast from the main trainstation, now Hubska Street). Eduard and Theresia were both Catholics. According to the marriage record of their son Paul Adolf Otto Spottke, Eduard Spottke and Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke were living in the city of Oppeln in 1919. Theresia's death record shows that Eduard Spottke died at Oppeln.

Children of Eduard Spottke and Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke:

- Reinhold Josef Paul Spottke was born at Breslau on the 27th of October in 1889. The 30 years old Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Reinhold Spottke was a witness at his brothers wedding in 1919. Reinhold lived in Breslau at Fürstenstraß 15 at that time.
- Paul Adolf Otto Spottke was born at Breslau on the 26th of January in 1893. The Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Paul Adolf Otto Spottke was living at Zimmerstraße 101 in Oppeln in 1919. He married Martha Kassner at Oppeln on the 11th of November in 1919. The bride and the groom were both Catholics. Martha was born on the 17th of December in 1894 at Bielau in Neisse County. She was the daughter of the Maschinist Albert Kassner and Maria (née Wolf) Kassner who were residents of Oppeln. Martha was living at Krakauer Straße 10 in Oppeln. The wedding witnesses were: the 47 years old Arbeiter August Kassner who lived at Neisse, and the groom's brother Reinhold who lived in Breslau. See the Marriage of Paul Adolf Otto Spottke, City of Oppeln.
- Georg Alfred Arthur Spottke was born at Breslau on the 5th of September in 1894. He died at the family home on the 9th of December in 1894, at the age of ¼ year old.

Johanna Maria Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke died at Hindenburgstraße 203 in Waldenburg on the 29th of April in 1945. She died at the age of 83 years old. The cause of her death was listed as Altersschwäche (decrepitude due to old age). See the Death of Johanna Maria Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke, 1945 Waldenburg.

Marriages and Children of Paul Karl Franz Sterniske:
17 February 1890 City of Breslau,
31 December 1892 City of Breslau and
6 July 1903 City of Breslau

Paul Karl Franz Sterniske was born at Breslau on the 26th of January in 1862. He was the son of the Breslau Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Sowia, Sowieja) Sterniske. See the Family of Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Sowieja) Sterniske, 1862 to 1930 City of Breslau.

First Marriage of Paul Sterniske, 1890 Breslau

Paul Karl Franz Sterniske married Martha Selma Agnes Sust on the 17th of February in 1890 at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. Paul was a Catholic and a Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) and lived at Friedrich Wilhelm Straße 30b (now Legnicka Street, about 3 blocks west of the old city walls). Martha (who signed the marriage record as Marta, see below) was born in Breslau on the 22nd of July in 1863. She was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Carl Sust and his wife Caroline (née Bauer) Sust, who were residents of Breslau. Martha was a Protestant. Prior to the wedding, she was employed as a Stepperin (quilt seamstress) and she lived in Breslau at Friedrich Wilhelm Straße 39 (according to the marriage record from the registry office). The marriage record from the St. Elisabeth Church listed the bride as Martha Sust and listed her address as Graupenstraße 13 (four blocks southwest from the Blücherplatz, now Krupnicza Street).

Witnesses at their wedding included the 35 years old Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Carl Haberland and the 30 years old Barbier (barber) Carl Wicherkiewicz.

Birth of son Arthur Paul Sterniske, 1890 Breslau

Paul and Martha Sterniske had a son Arthur Paul Sterniske, who was born on the 5th of October in 1890. At that time, the Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Paul Sterniske and his wife Martha Sterniske were living at Schweitzerstraße 13 (8 blocks west of old city walls, now Lubińska Street).

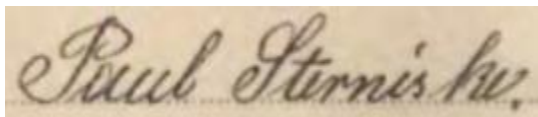

The 1891 Breslau address book listed the Schlosser Paul Sterniske as living at Schweitzerstraße 13 on the second floor.

Birth and Death of daughter Gertrud Sterniske (1891–1893)

In October of 1891 Paul and Martha Sterniske had a daughter, Gertrud Sterniske. Gertrud died on the 14th of January in 1893 at the age of 1 year and 3 months. Martha died when her daughter was three months old (see below). Paul was a Catholic and a Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) living in 1893 at Friedrich Wilhelm Straße 30b (now Legnicka Street, about 3 blocks west of the old city walls). Gertrud's death record was completed by the Städtische Oberwachtmann a.D. (retired city senior policeman) Alexander Waldmannshausen, who was the father of Paul's second wife Emma Clara Anna Vally Waldmannshausen (see below).

Death of Martha (née Sust) Sterniske, 1892 Breslau

Martha (née Sust) Sterniske died at home on the 23rd of January in 1892. At that time, the Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Paul Sterniske was living at Schweitzerstraße 13. The death record (signed by Paul Sterniske, see below) listed Martha's age as 28 years and 7 months. It also shows that Martha's mother Caroline (née Bauer) Sust was living at Nipperrn at that time. Nipperrn is now the village Mrozów, about twelve miles west of Breslau. It is the location of the palace known as Schloss Nipperrn. Martha's father was listed the verschollenen (missing, declared dead) herrschaftlichen Kutscher (noble manor coachman) Carl Sust. The burial book for the St. Barbara Protestant Church (in Breslau) shows the Schlosserfrau Martha (née Sust) Sterniske was buried on the 26th of January in 1892, at the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb (southwest from the old city walls).

See below for the transcription of the second marriage of Paul Carl (Karl) Franz Sterniske on the 31st of December in 1892, and his third marriage on the 6th of July in 1903.

Second Marriage of Paul Sterniske, 1892 Breslau

Paul Karl Franz Sterniske married Emma Clara Anna Vally Waldmannshausen on the 31st of December in 1892 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. This was Paul's second marriage following the death of his first wife. Paul was 30 years old, a Catholic and a Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) living at Friedrich Wilhelm Straße 30 (now Legnicka Street, about 3 blocks west of the old city walls). Emma was a Protestant Weißnäherin (seamstress for white linen) living at Matthiasstraße 19 (now Bolesława Drobnera Street, about two blocks northeast of the University Bridge).

Emma Clara Anna Vally Waldmannshausen was born on the 11th of February in 1864 in Breslau. Anna was a Protestant. She was the 28 years old daughter of the pensionirten Oberwachtmanns (retired city senior policeman) Alexander Waldmannshausen and Auguste (née Wagner) Waldmannshausen from Breslau.

Witnesses at the 1892 Sterniske-Waldmannshausen marriage included the 35 years old Hausbesitzer (homeowner) Paul Jacob and the bride's father, the 57 years old Oberwachtsmann (senior policeman) Alexander Waldmannshausen.

The retired Oberwachtsmann (senior policeman) Alexander Waldtmannshausen died at his home at Gartenstraße 24 on the 19th of April in 1893. He died at the age of 57 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old. His death record shows he was born at Breslau, the son of the deceased Steueraufseher (control supervisor) Friedrich Waldtmannshausen and Johanna (née Walter) Waldtmannshausen. His widow, Auguste (née Wagner) Waldtmannshausen signed the civil death record. The 1891 to 1895 death record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church shows that Alexander Waldmannshausen was buried on the 23rd of April in 1893.

Auguste (née Wagner) Waldmannshausen died at the home of Franz and Anna Sterniske (at Kurzegasse 53/55) on the 23rd of June in 1899. Anna Sterniske signed her mother's civil death record as Anna Sterniske geboren Waldmannshausen (the line above the n indicates a double letter. Her parents' last name was spelled Waldmannshausen on the civil death record, but spelled it as Waldmannshausen on her mother's burial record. Anna's mother died at the age of 71 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old. Anna identified her father as the previously deceased. She listed his occupation as a Nachwachtmeister (a senior policeman working at night). The St. Barbara Protestant Church burial book for 1897 to 1901 listed the death and burial of the Nachwachtmeisterwittwe Auguste Waldmannshausen. She was buried on the 27th of June in 1899, at the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb (southwest from the old city walls).

Birth and Death of son Georg Alexander Paul Sterniske (1894-1894)

Georg Alexander Paul Sterniske was born on the 28th of January in 1894. The Werkführer (foreman) Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and his wife Emma Clara Anna Vally (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske were living at Posenerstraße 23a (now Poznańska Street, about 1 mile northwest of the old walls of Breslau). A note on the birth record indicates the baby Georg Alexander Paul Sterniske died in 1894 (death record 418 of 1894). The burial record book for the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau shows the Werkführersohn Georg Sterniski died on the 19th of February in 1894 at the age of 22 days. He was buried on the 22nd of February in 1894 at the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb (southwest from the old city walls). The burial record listed the family's residence as Posenerstraße 23.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Elsbet Auguste Olga Sterniske, 1895 Breslau and 1943 Liegnitz

Elsbet Auguste Olga Sterniske was born on the 15th of February in 1895. The Hilfsmeister (assistant foreman) Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and his wife Emma Clara Anna Vally (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske were living at Berlinerstraße 60 (now Braniborska Street, about $\frac{1}{2}$ mile west of the old city walls). Reinhold Sterniske was Elsbet's godfather.

1895

A handwritten note on the birth record may indicate Elsbet Sterniske was married on the 9th of October in 1943, as was recorded on record number 538 of the 1943 marriage register at Liegnitz.

The baptismal record for the baby listed her name as Elsbeth Auguste Olga Sterniske. Her father was listed as the Werkmeister Paul Sterniske. The baptismal sponsors were the Maurerpolier (team leader of masons) Christiane Babuke, the Klemptner (tin smith) Reinhold Sterniske, and the Friseurfrau Auguste Mischekewicz. Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske was one of Paul Sterniske's brothers.

Birth of daughter Margarete Anna Sterniske, 1896 Breslau

Margarete Anna Sterniske was born on the 8th of March in 1896. The Werkführer (foreman) Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and his wife Emma Clara Anna Vally (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske were living at Berlinerstraße 60 (now Braniborska Street, about ½ mile west of the old city walls). Paul was listed as a Catholic and his wife was listed as a Protestant.

The baptismal sponsors were Barbierfrau Auguste Wichakiwietz and the Wittwe (widow) Auguste Waldmannshausen (probably Anna's mother).

Birth and Death of son Alexander Alfons Sterniske (1897-1897)

Alexander Alfons Sterniske was born on the 21st of August in 1897. The baby was listed as Alfons Alexander Sterniske in the church baptism record. The baptismal sponsors were the Friseur Karl Micherkiwotz and the Friseur Frau Martha Jarasch. The Werkführer (foreman) Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and his wife Emma Clara Anna Vally (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske lived at Berlinerstraße 60 (now Braniborska Street, about ½ mile west of the old city walls). Paul was listed as a Catholic and his wife was listed as a Protestant.

A handwritten note on the birth record indicates the baby Alexander Sterniske died in 1897, as recorded on the civil death record number 2354 of 1897. The death record from the St. Elisabeth Church listed Alfons Sterniske as the son of a Werkmeister who lived at Berlinerstraße

60. He was 2 months old when he died on 23rd of October in 1897. He was buried at the cemetery at Gräbschen on the 26th of October.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Werkführer (foreman) Paul Sterniske as a resident at Berlinerstraße 60 Hinterhaus I (at the rear of the building on the first floor, about ½ mile west of the old city walls). Berlinerstraße is now Braniborska Street.

Births and Deaths of the twins

Herbert Sterniske (1898-1898) and Erna Sterniske (1898-1899)

The twins Herbert Sterniske and Erna Sterniske were born on the 12th of September in 1898. Herbert Sterniske was 5 hours old when he died around 11:00am on the 12th of September in 1898. He died at the family home in Breslau at Kurzegasse 53/55 (7 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). Herbert was a Protestant like his mother. His father, the Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) Paul Sterniske signed the death record. A burial book from the St. Barbara Protestant Church at Breslau shows the Werkmeistersohn Herbert Sterniske was buried on the 15th of September in 1898 in the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb (southwest from the old city walls).

Erna Sterniske died 11 months later on the 29th of August in 1899. She died at the family home in Breslau at Alsenstraße 31 (now Stefana Czarnieckiego Street, about 1 mile northwest of the old walls of Breslau). Her father signed the death record. Paul Sterniske was still employed as a Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) at that time. Erna Sterniske was buried at the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb on the 1st of September in 1899.

Birth of daughter Wally Auguste Sterniske, 1900 Breslau

Wally Auguste Sterniske was born on the 4th of March in 1900. Paul Karl Franz Sterniske was a Catholic and a Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator). His wife was a Protestant. Paul and his wife lived at Alsenstraße 31 (now Stefana Czarnieckiego Street, about 1 mile northwest of the old city walls of Breslau). Paul probably signed the birth record for his daughter as Paul Karl Franz Sterniske. The record was damaged, with the left side of the page missing.

Birth of daughter Lisbet Klara Martha Sterniske, 1901 Breslau

Lisbet Klara Martha Sterniske was born on the 25th of May in 1901. The Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and his wife Emma Clara Anna Vally (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske were living at Anderssenstrasse 48, now Młodych Techników Street (about 0.5 miles west of the old city walls). Paul was a Catholic. Anna was a Protestant.

Paul Sterniske. 1901

The St. Barbara Protestant Church baptism record listed their daughter's name as Liesbeth Klara Martha Sterniske and the mother's maiden name as Anna Waldmannshausen. The baptismal sponsors were: the Heizer (stoker) Franz Jaraus and his wife Martha Jaraus from Breslau, and the Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Rudolf Sterniske. Martha Jaraus was the sister of Paul Sterniske. Rudolf was Paul and Martha's brother.

Death of Anna (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske, 1903 Breslau

Paul Sterniske's second wife, Anna (née Waldmannshausen) Sterniske died on the 4th of February in 1903. She died at the St. Elisabeth Hospital at Gräbschener Straße in Breslau. Her death record was completed by the hospital staff. It listed her age as 38 years and 11 months old, which corresponds with her birthdate listed on her marriage record. The other biographical data on the death record also matches her marriage record. The death record listed her as a Protestant, the wife of the Werkmeister Paul Sterniske. It also listed her parents as the retired (and deceased) Oberwachtmeister Alexander and Auguste (née Wagner) Waldmannshausen. The death record listed Anna's address as Leuthenstraße 27 (now Litomska Street, about 7 blocks northwest of the old city walls). That was the same address listed on Paul Sterniske's third marriage record (see below).

Third marriage of Paul Sterniske, 1903 Breslau

Paul Karl Franz Sterniske was married a third time. On the 6th of July in 1903, he married the Breslau Köchin (cook) Anna Maria Bertha Schneider. Paul was a Catholic and a Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) who lived at Leuthenstraße 27 (now Litomska Street, about 7 blocks northwest of the old city walls). Their marriage record listed his birth date as the 26th of January in 1862, the son of the deceased Breslau Schmied (blacksmith) Franz Sterniske and his wife Sophia née Sowia (who was living in Breslau). Paul's signature from the marriage record was:

Paul Sterniske. 1903

Anna Maria Bertha Schneider was a Catholic and lived in Breslau at Sonnenstraße 27 (2 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Iwana Pawłowa Street). She was born on the 2nd of May in 1874 at Wegnersau in Glogau County. Wegnersau is now Turów (Powiat głogowski, Poland). She was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Josef Schneider and his wife Veronika (née Scholz) Schneider, who were both deceased at the time of the wedding and last resided at Raudten in Lüben County (now Rudna Miasto, Poland).

Witnesses at Paul and Maria's 1903 wedding were the 43 years old Barbier (barber) Carl Wicherkiewicz and the 33 years old Heizer (stoker) Franz Jarausch. The barber Carl Wicherkiewicz had also been a witness at Paul's first marriage in 1890. Johann Josef Franz Jarausch was married to Paul's sister Martha Susanna Maria Emile (née Sterniske) Jarausch. Franz Jarausch who lived at Albrechtstraße 33/34 (about 3 blocks east from the northeast corner of the Ring, now Wita Stwosza Street). See the Marriage of Martha Susanna Maria Emilie Sterniske, 3 February 1896 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Hildegard Sophie Veronika Sterniske, 1904 Breslau

On the 6th of May in 1904 Hildegard Sophie Veronika Sterniske was born in Breslau. Her parents were the Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and his wife Anna Maria Berta (née Schneider) Sterniske who lived in Breslau at Posenerstraße 8 (now Poznańska Street, about 1 mile northwest of the old walls of Breslau). They were both Catholics.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1918

The Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) Paul Sterniske lived at Seidelstraße 2 in the Village Neukirch. Neukirch was five miles west of Breslau. See the Village of Neukirch in Breslau County: Werkmeister Paul Sterniske, 1914 to 1918 Neukirch.

Deaths of Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and Anna Maria Bertha (née Schneider) Sterniske

There are three later notes on the 1903 marriage record for Paul Karl Franz Sterniske and Anna Maria Bertha Schneider. The first and second notes (shown below) seem to indicate two events related to the marriage record:

- on 24 April 1936, and
- record 364 dated 10 February 1941.

One of those events may have been the death of Paul Karl Franz Sterniske. A third note (added to the marriage record on the 6th of December in 1943) indicates that the bride (Anna Maria Bertha Sterniske) died on the 9th of February in 1941 at Leubusch, in Brieg County. Her death record was number 4 in the 1941 Sterbebuch (death record book) at the Leubusch registry office. Leubusch is now Lubsza, Poland. Perhaps her death was recorded at a Breslau registry office on record number 364 on the 10th of February in 1941.

Family and Death of Adolf Sternitzke and the Marriages of Martha (née Abitz) Sternitzke
1890 to 1913 City of Breslau

Marriage of Adolf Sternitzke, 1890

The Breslau Kaufmann (merchant) Adolf Sternitzke (1865-1910) married Ida Martha Emma Abitz at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 10th of August in 1890 (church record number 136). Their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I (civil record number 937) on the 9th of August in 1890.

According to her second marriage record in 1913 (see below) Ida Martha Emma Abitz was born on the 12th of November in 1863 at Krotoschin (in Krotoschin County, Posen). She was the daughter of the Bäckermeister (master baker) Robert Abitz and his wife Auguste (née Richter) Abitz.

The Kaufmann (merchant) Adolf Sternitzke (1865-1910) and his wife Martha (née Abitz) Sternitzke were both Protestants. In 1891, they lived in Breslau at Neumarkt 13 (now named the Nowy Targ Plaza). The 1891 Breslau address book shows they lived on the east side of the new market square on the third floor above the ground floor at Neumarkt 13. Based on the birth record of their son, and Adolf's ages in the marriage records listed below, Adolf Sternitzke was born around 1865. Adolf Sternitzke died on the 15th of September in 1910 at the age of 45 years and 7 months (see below), so his calculated birth date was around February in 1865.

Birth and Death of son Walter Adolf Richard Sternitzke (1891-1894)

Their son Walter Adolf Richard Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 10th of May in 1891. The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 7th of June in 1891 (baptism number 229). The baptism sponsors were: the Stockfabrikant (stockings manufacturer) Adolf Agroskÿ, the Tischlermeister (master cabinet maker) Selma Lüder, and Vergolder (gilder) Gertrud Sternitzke.

The civil death record for Walter Sternitzke shows that he was 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ years old when he died on the 18th of February in 1894. Adolf Sternitzke was again identified as a Kaufmann and the family lived at Oelsnerstraße 5 (4 blocks north of Sand Island, now Oleśnicka Street).

The 1891-1894 death/burial record for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau included the record for Walter Sternitzke. He died on the 18th of February in 1894 at the age of 2 years and 9 months. He was buried on the 21st of February in 1894. His father was listed as the Kaufmann Adolf Sternitzke who lived at Oelsnerstraße 5.

Wedding Witness Adolf Sternitzke, 1894
Baptismal Sponsor, 1895

On the 10th of November in 1894, a Kaufmann named Adolf Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of Reinhard Prietzsch and Anna Hedwig Ida Kaiser. Adolf was 29 years old and living at Sternstraße 26 (now Henryka Sienkiewiczza Street, across the street from the north side of the Botanical Garden). This residence was only seven blocks northeast of their Neumarkt 13 residence and five blocks southeast from their Oelsnerstraße 5 address. Here is Adolf's signature as it was written on the 1894 wedding document.

1894

On the 27th of October in 1895, the Kaufmann Adolf Sternitzke was the godfather at the baptism of Walter Hans Hermann Prietzsch at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. Adolf was still living at Sternstraße 26. The baby was the son of Reinhard Prietzsch and Anna (née Kaiser) Prietzsch.

Breslau Address Book, 1897

The Breslau address book from 1897 listed the Kaufmann Adolf Sternitzke as living at Sternstraße 26 III (third floor).

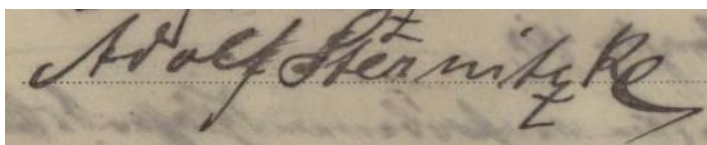

Baptismal Sponsors, 1889

On the 28th of May in 1899, the Kaufmann Adolf Sternitzke was the godfather at the baptism of Ernst Paul Fritz Wiesner at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. Adolf was still living at Sternstraße 26. The baby was the son of the Kaufmann Paul Wiesner and his wife Olga (née Dehm) Wiesner.

On the 25th of June in 1899, the Kaufmannsfrau Martha (née Abitz) Sternitzke was the godmother at the baptism of Walter Franz Karl Max Pech at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The Sternitzke family was still living at Sternstraße 26. The baby was the son of the Kaufmann Max Pech and his wife Hedwig (née Rehser) Pech.

Wedding Witness, 1904 & 1906

Adolf Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of Karl Schütz and Anna Pauline Susanna Fiebig on the 23rd of November in 1904. At that time Adolf Sternitzke was 39 years old and he was still living at Sternstraße 26. Here is his signature from the 1904 wedding record.

1904

The Kaufmann Adolf Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of Eugen Gotthard Walter and Marie Berta Helene Hering on the 25th of September in 1906. At that time Adolf Sternitzke was 41 years old and still lived at Sternstraße 26. Here is his signature from 1906.

Death of Adolf Sternitzke (1865-1910)

The Kaufman Adolf Sternitzke died on the 15th of September in 1910 at the age of 45 years and 7 months, so his calculated birth date was around February in 1865. He was buried in Breslau on the 18th of September in 1910. The 1904 to 1912 death and burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau referenced his civil death record: number 2004 in 1910 at Breslau Standesamt II.

Second Marriage of Martha (née Abitz) Sternitzke, 1913

Ida Martha Emma (née Abitz) Sternitzke married the pensionierte Rangiermeister (retired master railroad switchman) Karl Otto Otto on the 24th of October in 1913 at Breslau. They were both Protestant and residents of Breslau. Prior to the wedding, Martha lived at Gellhornstraße 2. Karl lived at Michaelisstraße 86.

The civil marriage record shows that Ida Martha Emma (née Abitz) Sternitzke was born on the 12th of November in 1863 at Krotoschin (in Krotoschin County, Posen). She was the daughter of the Bäckermeister (master baker) Robert Abitz and his wife Auguste (née Richter) Abitz. Robert Abitz died at Krotoschin before his daughter's 1913 wedding. Auguste Abitz died at Breslau before the 1913 wedding.

Karl Otto Otto was born on the 2nd of September in 1839 at Tschotschwitz in Militsch County. He was the son of the Auszüglers Karl Otto and his wife Susanna (née Franzke) Otto, who had both died at Krumpach in Trebnitz County.

The wedding witnesses were: the 50 years old Kaufmann (merchant) Hermann Otto who lived in Breslau at Fürstenstraße 92, and the 49 years old Brauereibesitzer (brewery owner) Paul Quabius who lived in Breslau at Reuschestraße 64.

Marriage and Family of Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke
 29 December 1890 to 1908 City of Breslau

Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke and the widow Anna Klara Maria (née Krause) Lellau were married at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 29th of December of 1890. The church marriage record (number 210 dated the 29th of December in 1890) shows their marriage was recorded that same day at the Breslau Standesamt I (civil record number 1525). Heinrich signed the civil marriage document as Robert Sternitzke. His 1890 signature is shown below. Compare that signature to his 1891 signature (farther below) from the birth record for his son Fritz Robert Oskar Sternitzke.

Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke was a Protestant Droschkenbesitzer (carriage cab owner), who was born in Breslau on the 5th of July in 1858. He was the son of the Breslau resident and Droschkenbesitzer (carriage cab owner) Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Johanne (née Spiller) Sternitzke.

Robert's mother, Johanne (née Spiller) Sternitzke (1830-1867) died before the 1890 wedding. Robert's father, Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke was the Droschkenkutscher (cab driver) listed in the 1868, 1884, 1886, and 1887 Breslau address books. At the time of his wedding, Heinrich Robert was living at Heinrichstraße 10 (now Henryka Brodatogo Street, 2 blocks north of the University Bridge). This was the same address where Robert's parents lived until the death his father in 1890. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

Anna Klara Maria (née Krause) was the widow of a Haushälter (janitor) named Mr. Lellau. She was a Protestant, born in Breslau on the 26th of August in 1859, the daughter of the deceased Breslau Schneidermeister (master tailor) Robert Krause and his wife Pauline née Frenzel. Anna was living at Altbüßerstraße 52 (one block north of St. Maria Magdalena Church, now named Łaciarska Street) prior to the wedding.

Witnesses to the wedding were the 31 year old Droschkenführer (coach driver) Karl May who lived at Vinsenzstraße 17 (now Świętego Wincentego Street, 5 blocks north of the University Bridge across the Oder River), and Oskar Sternitzke (who signed his name as Oscar Sternitzke).

Karl May was the husband of Minna Sternitzke (Oscar's sister). See the Family of Karl May and Emilie Minna Valeska née Sternitzke, 1889 to 1913 City of Breslau.

Oscar Sternitzke was a 24 year old Droschkenführer (coach driver) who lived with the groom Heinrich Sternitzke at Heinrichstraße 10. Oscar and Heinrich Sternitzke were brothers and Minna Sternitzke was their sister. Oscar Sternitzke was still living at Heinrichstraße 10 (three years later), when he was identified as a 27 year old Droschkenkutscher and a witness at the wedding of the Kutscher (coachman) Johann Karl Franz Pankalla and Anna Franzisca Melzer. Oscar's full name and birth date was identified in the record of his marriage in 1894 as Carl Richard Oscar Sternitzke, born on the 31st of December in 1865. Karl May was also a witness at Oscar's wedding. See the discussion regarding the Marriage and Family of Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 18 October 1894 to 1937 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of son Fritz Robert Oskar Sternitzke (1891–1892)

On the 22nd of August in 1891, Robert and Anna (née Krause) Sternitzke became the parents of Fritz Robert Oskar Sternitzke (1891-1892). Robert and Anna were living at Altbüßerstraße 52 (now named Łaciarska Street) which was Anna's address on their marriage record. Robert and Anna were identified as Protestants on the birth record. Robert's occupation was listed as Kutscher (coachman) on the birth record.

Fritz Oskar Robert Sternitzke, the son of the Droschkenbesitzer Robert Sternitzke and Anna (née Krause) Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 29th of September in 1891 (record number 412). The baptism sponsors were: the Schneiderin (tailor) Ida Schilling, the Droschkenbesitzer Oskar Sternitzke, and the Fuhrwerkbesitzer Karl Basar.

A note on the birth record indicates that the baby Fritz Robert Oskar Sternitzke died in 1892 (as recorded on death record 418 of 1892). Below is a copy of Robert's signature on the birth record.

The civil death record for Fritz Sternitzke shows that the baby was 5 months old at the time of his death on the 16th of February in 1892. The death record was signed by Anna (née Krause) Sternitzke. At that time the family was still living at Altbüßerstraße 52 (one block south of St. Maria Magdalena Church, now Łaciarska Street). Robert Sternitzke was identified as a Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner).

The 1891 to 1895 burial record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church includes the burial record for the Droschkenbesitzer Sohn Fritz Sternitzke. He was buried on the 19th of February in 1892.

Breslau Address Book, 1897

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Kutscher (coach driver) Robert Sternitzke as living at Altbüßerstraße 49 (second floor, one block north of St. Maria Magdalena Church, now named Łaciarska Street). This was in the same block where the family lived in 1892.

Marriage of stepson Karl Max Guido Lellau, 1908 Breslau

On the 21st of October in 1908, the Automobil-Monteur (automotive mechanic) Karl Max Guido Lellau married Maria Josefa Florentine Schumann. Karl was born at Breslau on the 15th of January in 1887. He was the son of the Breslau Kaufmann (merchant) Arthur Lellau and Anna (née Krause) Lellau. After Arthur Lellau's death, Anna married the Kutscher (coachman) Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke. Karl Lellau's 1908 marriage record listed his mother and step-father as living in Breslau at that time.

Marriage and Family of Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke 30 December 1890 to 1943 City of Breslau

Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke (1868-1934) was born on the 27th of June in 1868 in Breslau. She was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Karl Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Gelfert) Sternitzke. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau.

Marriage and Death of Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke

In 1890, her father Karl Sternitzke was a Breslau Produktenhändler (produce merchant) and his wife was still alive. Bertha was a Protestant Schneiderin (seamstress) who lived at Wassergasse 24 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke (1868-1934) married Johann Waschta in Breslau on the 30th of December in 1890. A note on the 1890 marriage record shows that the bride Bertha Klara Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Waschta died in 1934 (death record number 306 in 1934 at Breslau Standesamt III).

Johann Waschta was a Catholic Schneider (tailor) living at Ring 32 in Breslau (east side of the Ring). He was born on the 21st of August in 1858 at Ditschkop, in Kamnitz County, Bohemia. He was not listed in the 1887 Breslau address book, so he may have moved to Breslau between 1887 and 1890.

The wedding was witnessed by Bertha's brother, the 24-years-old Musiker (musician) Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke, and the 58-years-old pensionierte Polizeibeamte (retired police officer) Wilhelm Hapke. Karl Sternitzke lived at Wassergasse 24. Wilhelm Hapke lived at Werderstraße 6.

Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke signed the 1890 wedding record as Carl Sternitzke. That signature matches his signature on his marriage record in May of 1892 (see below). Karl listed Wassergasse 24 (the same address Bertha listed in 1890) on his 1892 wedding record. That was the same address listed for C. Stanitzky the Kutscher (coachman) in 1868.

Elsbeth Waschta was the daughter of Johann Waschta and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Waschta. Elsbeth Waschta died on the 17th of September in 1891, at the age of 1 year old. That age places her birth around the 17th of September in 1890, before the marriage of her parents. Their address on the 1891 death record matches the address listed for Bertha on her 1890 marriage record: Wassergasse 24. Also see the 2nd of May 1892 birth record for their son Alfred Johann Bernard Waschta in the table of 19th century births at Breslau. Their address in 1892 was Schießwerderstraße 12 (now Kurkowa Street, about 6 blocks north of the University Bridge).

Birth and Death of daughter Elsbeth Waschta (1890-1891)

The death record for Elsbeth Waschta shows that she was 1 year old at the time of her death on the 17th of September in 1891. She was the daughter of the Schneider (tailor) Johann Waschta and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Waschta. They were Protestants and lived in Breslau at Wassergasse 24 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau.

Birth and Death of son Alfred Johann Conrad Waschta (1892-1937)

Alfred Johann Conrad Waschta was born at Breslau on the 2nd of May in 1892. His civil birth record included a note stating his death was recorded at Breslau Standesamt I, record number 1039 in 1937. His birth record was completed by the midwife Ida Rothmann who lived at Kohlenstraße 10a in Breslau. Ida listed the baby's parents as Bertha (née Sternitzke) Waschta and the Schneider (tailor) Johann Waschta. Bertha was a Protestant. Johann was a Catholic. The civil birth record listed their address as Schießwerderstraße 12 (now Kurkowa Street, two blocks northwest of the University Bridge, one block east of the Wilhelmsbrück).

Alfred Johann Conrad Waschta was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of May in 1892. The baptismal record listed his parents as the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Johann Waschta and his wife Bertha (née Sternitzke) Waschta. Their address was listed on the church baptismal record as Schießwerderstraße 11 (across the street from the address listed on the child's civil birth record). The father was listed as a Catholic. The mother was listed as a Protestant. The baptismal sponsors were Fräulein Victoria Hepke from Breslau, the Musikerfrau (wife of a musician) Clara Sternitzke from Breslau, and the Breslau Musiker (musician) Carl Sternitzke. Bertha's brother, the Musiker (musician) Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke, was a witness at Bertha's wedding. Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke married Klara Anna Maria Janus on the 10th of May in 1892.

Other Sources

The widow of a Zuschneider (fabric cutter for a tailor) Berta (née Sternitzke) Waschta reported the death of her father the frühere Produktenhändler (former produce merchant) Karl Sternitzke. He was a resident of Breslau at Werderstraße 43 (on the island north of St. Elisabeth Church, now Księżcia Witolda Street). He died at home on the 10th of November in 1910, at the age of 76 years and 7 months old, so the calculated date of his birth was around the 10th of April in 1834. The civil death record showed he was born at Striese in Trebnitz County, and he was the widower of Elisabeth (née Gelfert) Sternitzke. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Sternitzke who last lived at Striese. His daughter did not know the first name of the Karl's parents, and she did not know the maiden name of Karl's mother. Berta (née Sternitzke) Waschta was a resident of Breslau at An Den Kasernen 3 (now Władysława Jagiełły Street on the island northwest from the University).

The 1915, 1918 and 1927 Breslau address books listed the widow Berta (or Bertha) Waschta geboren Sternitzke as living at An den Kasernen 3 I (now Władysława Jagiełły Street on the island northwest from the University). She was listed as a Zuschneiderwittwe (widow of a fabric cutter for a tailor). Her son, the Arbeiter (laborer) Alfred Waschta lived at that address according to the 1935 address book. Alfred's widow, Helene Waschta was listed for that address in 1943.

The Schneiderin (tailor) Berta (née Sternitzke) Waschta reported the death of her sister, Johanne Ernestine Louise Sternitzke on the 12th of November in 1917. Berta and Ernestine lived at An den Kasernen 3. See above the Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau.

Family of Ernst Sternitzke (1859-1930) 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau

Birth of Ernst Sternitzke, 1859 Groß-Lahse

Ernst Sternitzke (1859-1930) was born at Groß-Lahse (in Militsch County) on the 21st of January in 1859, the son of Karl Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Staar) Sternitzke. Karl and Susanna Sternitzke were identified on Ernst's second marriage record (in 1900 at Breslau, see below) as Auszüglers (retired farmers) still living at Groß-Lahse.

First marriage of Ernst Sternitzke, 1884 Bralin

Ernst Sternitzke (Sternitzki) married Caroline Wisgalle at Bralin in Gross Wartenburg County on the 1st of November in 1884. Their marriage was recorded as record number 19 in the 1884 Bralin civil registry. The database at Meine-ahnen.eu notes that the groom signed the original marriage record as Sternitzke, but the bride signed the record as Sternitzki. The civil record shows Ernst Sternitzke was born on the 21st of January in 1859, the son of Carl Sternitzke and Susanne (née Staar) Sternitzke. Caroline Wisgalle was born on the 5th of December in 1867 at Schwirz in Namslau County. She was the daughter of Michael Wisgalle and Susanne (née Bürger) Wisgalle. The bride and the groom were Protestants. The marriage witnesses were: the 39 years old Landbriefträger (rural mailman) Gottfried Pollutzek from Bralin, and the 28 years old Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Franz Sroka from Bralin.

Birth and Death of daughter Emma Martha Sternitzke,
1886 Bralin, 1914 Zabrze

Emma Martha Sternitzke was born at Bralin in Gross-Wartenberg County on the 10th of August in 1886. She was the daughter of Ernst Sternitzke and Karoline (née Wisgalle) Sternitzke. Emma Martha (née Sternitzke) Schmolke died at Zabrze (in Beuthen County) on the 2nd of January in 1914. She was 27 years, 4 months and 21 days old when she died. She was buried on the 4th of January in 1914. Her death was reported by her husband, the Königliche Schützmänn (Royal Policeman) Otto Richard Schmolke. Their address at Zabrze was Kronprinzenstraße 55. The death record showed Emma's mother had died at Breslau prior to 1914, but Emma's father Ernst Sternitzke was an Oberpostschaffner (senior post office worker) who still lived at Breslau.

1891 and 1897 Breslau Address Books

The 1891 Breslau address book listed the Postschaffner (post office worker) Ernst Sternitzke as living at Paulinenstraße 5a III (third floor, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Paulińska Street). The 1897 address book listed the Briefträger (mail carrier) Ernst Sternitzke as living at Bismarckstraße 8 III (third floor, now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks south of the train station to Trebnitz and one block west of the main road to Trebnitz).

Birth of son Maximilian Walter Sternitzke, 1892

Maximilian Walter Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 7th of January in 1892. His parents, the Stadt Briefträger (city letter carrier) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Caroline née Wisgalle, were both Protestants and lived at Bismarckstraße 30 in Breslau.

Max Walter Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 11th of January in 1892. The baptismal sponsors were the Breslau residents: the Auszüglerfrau (retired farmer's wife) Susanna Sternitzke and the Briefträger (letter carrier) Wilhelm Sternitzke. The Auszüglerfrau Susanna Sternitzke may have been the baby's grandmother. Wilhelm Sternitzke was the baby's uncle. See the Birth, Marriage and Death of Wilhelm Sternitzke, 1868 Groß Lahse, 1894 Suschen, 1910 Festenberg, 1915 to 1943 Breslau.

Maximilian Walter Sternitzki became a well-known choir master, music director and teacher. He taught violin, chamber music and conducting. From 1913 to 1941, Maximilian Sternitzki (also listed as Sternitzky) was listed on the faculty of the Stern'sches Konservatorium (Stern Conseratory) a private music school in Berlin founded by Julius Stern (1820-1883). It was named the Konservatorium der Reichshauptstadt from 1936 to 1946. It is now named the Universität der Künste Berlin (Berlin University of the Arts).

Maximillian Sternitzki was a music conductor at the Berliner Theater. He conducted the operetta named "Die tolle Komtess" (The Crazy Countess) in August of 1917.

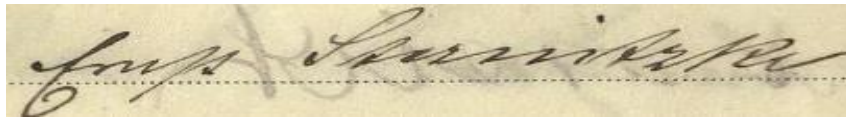

He was listed as the conductor of the Folks Choir from Frankfurt an der Oder at a special festival of German singing clubs (the Deutsches Sängerbundesfest) held at Breslau from the 28th of July to the 1st of August in 1937. The event was hosted by Adolf Hitler and Joseph Goebbels.

After the Second World War, Maximilian Sternitzky was included on a British 'blacklist' of musicians who were not allowed to work because of their activities during the war. He was included on that list because he had been the head of the Hitler Youth Musical College at Krakau (now Kraków, Poland).

Birth of daughter Elsa Frieda Sternitzke, 1899 Breslau

Elsa Frieda Sternitzke was born on the 30th of May in 1899 at Breslau. She was the daughter of Ernst Sternitzke and Karoline Wisgalle. The Postbriefträger (postal carrier) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Wisgalle) Sternitzke lived at Bismarkstraße 8 (now Bolestawa Chrobrego Street), 4 blocks north of the University Bridge and one block west of the main road to Trebnitz. Ernst Sternitzke signed his daughter's birth record (shown below).

May 1899

Elsa Frieda Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 7th of June in 1899. The baptismal sponsor was listed as the Breslau Briefträgerfrau Caroline Sternitzke, who was probably the baby's mother.

Death of first wife Karoline Sternitzke, 1899 Breslau

Karoline (née Wisgalle) Sternitzke died at home (at Bismarkstraße 8) on the 11th of June in 1899. Her civil death record shows that she was 31 ½ years old at the time of her death, placing her birth date around December of 1867. She was a Protestant. She was born at Schwirz (now Świerczów, Poland) in Namslau County, the daughter of the deceased (at Schwirz) Auszügler (retired farmer) Michael Wisgalle and his wife Susanne (née Bürger) Wisgalle. Ernst Sternitzke signed his wife's death record. The 1899 to 1904 burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the burial of the Briefträgerfrau (wife of a postal carrier) Caroline Sternitzke as the on the 14th of June in 1899.

Second marriage of Ernst Sternitzke, 1900 Breslau

Ernst Sternitzke married Anna Christiane Feige at Breslau on the 22nd of February in 1900. The marriage record shows Ernst Sternitzke was born at Groß-Lahse on the 21st of January in 1859, the son of Karl Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Staar) Sternitzke. Karl and Susanna Sternitzke were identified as Auszüglers (retired farmers) who were still living at Groß-Lahse in 1900. Ernst was employed as a Postbriefträger (mail carrier) and lived at Bismarckstraße 4 (now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, one block from the main road to Trebnitz on Breslau's north side). He was listed as a Protestant on the marriage record. Ernst's signature from the marriage record is copied below. A handwritten note on the marriage record shows that Ernst Sternitzke died in 1930, as was recorded on death record number 1198 in the 1930 death registry for the Breslau Standesamt III. See the transcription of his death record below.

Anna Christiane Feige was employed as a Köchin (cook) and was also a Protestant. Anna was born on the 16th of February in 1869, at Klein Ulbersdorf (now Hałdrychowice, Poland) in Gross Wartenberg County northeast of Öls County. She was living in Breslau at Weisenburgerstraße 34 (north of the old city walls, now Stowiańska Street). Anna was the daughter of the Schühmachermeister (master shoemaker) Johann Fiege at Bischdorf in Wartenberg County (now Biskupice, Poland) and his wife Susanna (née Lock) Fiege, who died at Klein Ulbersdorf. A handwritten note on the marriage record indicated that the bride Anna (née Feige) Sternitzke died on the 21st of October in 1943. The note referenced death record number 542 dated 8 November 1943 at Standesamt VII in Breslau.

Witnesses at the 1900 wedding were the *Postbriefträger*s (mail carriers) Gustav Otto and Josef Glatzel. Gustav Otto was 34 years old and lived at Weisenburgerstraße 34. Josef Glatzel was 35 years old and lived at Fährstraße 6 (now Żiżki Jana Street on the island northwest of the University).

Godmother Anna Sternitzke, 1901 Breslau

On the 7th of April in 1901, the Postschaffnerfrau (wife of a postal worker) Anna Sternitzke, was one of the baptismal sponsors for Gertrud Else Otto. The child was the daughter of the Briefträger (letter carrier) Gustav Otto and his wife Anna (née Stanelle) Otto. The other sponsor was Hermann Otto who was a Grenadier in the 11th Regiment.

Godmother Anna Sternitzke, 1904 Breslau

On the 25th of December in 1904, the Postschaffnersfrau (wife of a postal worker) Anna Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Bismarckstraße 4, was one of the godmothers at the baptism of Helene Emilie Sternitzke. The baptism was at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was the daughter of the Postschaffner (postal worker) Paul Gustav Sternitzke and his wife Agnes Berta (née Faulde) Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Vorwerksstraße 16 (1 block from the southeast corner of the old city moat, now Komuny Paryskiej Street). See the Family of Paul Gustav Sternitzke, December 1904 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Birth of granddaughter Margot Sternitzke, 1906 Breslau

In 1906, the unmarried Stubenmädchen (chambermaid) Emma Sternitzke was lived at Bismarckstraße 4 (now Bolesława Chrobrego Street). Her daughter, Margot Sternitzke was born at the Provinzial-Hebammen-Lehranstalt (Provincial School for Midwives) in Breslau on the 8th of October in 1906. Notes in the margin of the birth record show that Margot Sternitzke was adopted when Emma Sternitzke married the Polizeisergeant (police sergeant) Otto Richard Schmolke (in 1909, see below). A note on Margot's birth record indicates Margot Sternitzke was married on the 23rd of September in 1944 at Ustron (now Ustroń, Poland) in Upper Silesia, as was recorded on marriage record number 25 at the Ustron Standesamt.

Marriage of daughter Emma Martha Sternitzke, 1909 Breslau

In 1909, Emma Martha Sternitzke was employed as a Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived in Breslau at Vinzenzstraße 33 (6 blocks north of the University Bridge, near the main road to Trebnitz, now Świętego Wincentego Street). Her father was living in Breslau and was employed as a Oberpostschaffner (senior postman). Her mother had died at Breslau before Emma's wedding. On the 13th of November in 1909, Emma Martha Sternitzke married the Polizeisergeant (police sergeant) Otto Richard Schmolke. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. Otto Richard Schmolke lived at the city Brieg in Brieg County (about 25 miles southeast of Breslau). The Geneteka genealogical database shows the Emma Sternitzke and Richard Schmolke were married at the Erlöserkirche (Protestant Church of the Redeemer) in Breslau on the 13th of November in 1909.

Otto Richard Schmolke was born on the 23rd of January in 1886 at Giesenbrügge in Soldin County, in Brandenburg. Giesenbrügge is now Giżyn, in Myślibórz County, Poland. He was the son of the Brennereiverwalter (distillery manager) Gustav Wolf Schmolke and his wife Marie Therese (née Zehrend) Schmolke, who were both residents of Warnitz, in Königsberg County in the Neumark of Brandenburg.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 28 years old Postbote (mailman) Johann Otto and the 50 years old Lohndiener (hired servant) Karl Heinzke. Johann Otto lived in Breslau at Kletschkastraße 23 (one block north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 3rd block west of the main road to Trebnitz, now Kleczkowska Street). Karl Heinzke lived in Breslau at Bismarckstraße 8 (now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, one block from the main road to Trebnitz on Breslau's north side).

Death of Ernst Sternitzke, 1930

The Postassistent im Ruhestande (retired postal assistant) Ernst Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 22nd of October in 1930, at the age of 71 years old. His death was reported by his wife Anna Christiane (née Feige) Sternitzke. They lived at Neue Matthiasstraße 4 in Breslau. The death record listed his place of birth as Groß Lahse (in Militsch County).

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1943

In 1914, 1915, 1916 and 1918, an Oberpostschaffner (senior postman) named Ernst Sternitzke was living at Vinzenzstraße 33 (the same address listed above for Emma Martha Sternitzke in 1909). The 1923 address book shows the Post-Assistent (postal assistant) Ernst Sternitzke lived at Neue Matthiasstraße 4 on the third floor. Neue Matthiasstraße is now Henryka Probusa Street, across the Oder River from the University of Breslau and Sand Island, about one block north of the river). In 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1931, Ernst was listed as a Post-Assistent a.D. (postal assistant, ausser Dienst means retired from service) retired and still living at Neue Matthiasstraße 4. He was still listed at Neue Matthiasstraße 4 (third floor) in 1931, even though he had died in 1930.

The 1934 address book shows that Neue Matthiasstraße was renamed as Peuckerstraße, and the widow A. Sternitzke was living at Peuckerstraße 4 (on the third floor). The widow Anna Sternitzke was listed at that address in 1935 and 1937. The widow Anna Sternitzke was listed as living at Salzstraße 35 (now Wojciecha Cybulskiego Street, north of the old city) in 1941 and 1943.

Marriage, Family and Death of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke 1891 to 1943 City of Breslau

Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941) was born at Briesche (in Trebnitz County) on the 6th of February in 1862. Hermann's 1941 death record shows he married Auguste Rosina Deutschmann on the 10th of January in 1891 at Breslau (recorded at Breslau Standesamt I, record number 9 in 1891). Hermann's parents were the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke and Anna Christiane (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, who last lived at Breslau. See the Birth and Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1832 to 1877 Briesche.

Stillborn son Sternitzke, 1891

On the 11th of November in 1891 the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Sternitzke reported that his unnamed son died during child birth on that date. Herrmann and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke were living at Klein Tschansch at that time. He listed his religion as Protestant and his wife's religion as Catholic. Klein Tschansch was a village (now named Książę Mały) 3 miles southeast of Breslau, in Breslau County.

The burial book for the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau listed the burial of a stillborn son of an Arbeiter Sternitzke and his wife. The baby was buried on the 14th of November in 1841. According to the burial book the death of the baby was recorded at the local Standesamt on record number 1057 (which matches the number of the death record reported by Herrmann Sternitzke). The burial book listed the Sternitzke family as residents of the village Althof-Nass (see the 1900 map below). They may have been residents of Klein Tschansch and reported the death at the Standesamt at Althof-Nass.

Birth and Death of daughter Frieda Auguste Bertha Sternitzke (1893-1894)

Frieda Auguste Bertha Sternitzke was born at Klein Tschansch on the 14th of March in 1893. She was baptized on the 26th of March in 1893 at the St. Christophori Protestant Church at Breslau. The baptism record identified the parents as the Hilfsweichensteller (assistant railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke (a Catholic). The baptismal sponsors were: the Arbeiter Tochter (daughter of a laborer) Otilie Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Mehlgasse 57 in Breslau, the baby's uncle the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Breslau and the baby's uncle the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura (a Catholic) from Breslau.

Otilie Sternitzke was listed on the baptismal record as the daughter of a laborer and lived at Mehlgasse 57 in Breslau in 1893. Otilie was probably the daughter of Gottlieb Sternitzke (1832-1911) and she would have been the baby's aunt. Gottlieb Sternitzke (1832-1911) was the father of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke, Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke, Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke and Reinhold Fritz Adolf Sternitzke. The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke as a resident at Mehlgasse 57 Parterre (ground floor, 5 blocks north of the University Bridge). Mehlgasse was later named Gustav-Müller-Strasse, and is now named Ludwika Rydygiera Street. See the Birth and Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1832 to 1877 Briesche.

Simon Sura was the husband of Luise Juliane Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura (the sister of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke). See Book III, Chapter 1: City of Breslau, Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau

Frieda Auguste Bertha Sternitzke died at her parents' home at Klein Tschansch, on the 9th of January in 1894. Frieda was identified as a Protestant on her death record. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Herrmann Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke.

The burial record book of the St. Christophori Protestant Church listed the burial of Frieda Sternitzke on the 12th of January in 1894. It listed her parents as the Arbeiter Sternitzke'schen Eheleute zu Klein-Tschansch. The cause of death was listed as Keuchhusten (whooping cough). Frieda was 9 months and 25 days old when she died. The burial record references the Breslau Standesamt death record number 26.

Birth and Death of son Heinrich Hermann Reinhold Sternitzke (1894-1918)

Heinrich Hermann Reinhold Sternitzke was born on the 12th December in 1894. He was baptized at the St. Christophori Protestant Church at Breslau on the 26th December in 1894. The baptism record identified the parents as the Hilfsweichensteller (assistant railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke (a Catholic). The baptismal sponsors were: the baby's aunt the Arbeiterfrau (wife of a laborer) Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura (a Protestant) from Breslau, the Köchin (cook) Emilie Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Berlin, the baby's uncle the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura (a Catholic) from Breslau and the baby's uncle the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Löwen (in Brieg County).

The Köchin Emilie Sternitzke from Berlin may have been a sister of Hermann Sternitzke. Hermann's brother Reinhold Fritz Adolf Sternitzke was born at Briesche in 1877 and married Katharina Müller at Berlin in 1906. Reinhold could have followed with his sister Emilie to Berlin.

Heinrich Sternitzke served in the German military during the First World War. Military casualty reports listed him as killed in action on the 25th of May in 1918.

Birth and Death of son Fritz Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzke (1896-1918)

Fritz Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzke was born in the family home at Klein Tschansch in Breslau County, on the 22nd of December in 1896. His parents, the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Sternitzke and Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke were both Protestants and lived at Klein Tschansch. The baby was baptized at the St. Christophori Protestant Church at Breslau on the 1st of January in 1897. The baptism record identified the parents as the Lohnarbeiter Hermann Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke (a Protestant).

The baptismal sponsors were: the Weichenstellerfrau (railroad switchman's wife) Bertha (née Quarder) Deutschmann (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch, the baby's uncle the Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Reuschestraße 3 in Breslau and the baby's uncle the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura (a Catholic) from Marienstraße 7 in Breslau. See the section below titled: Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Fritz Sternitzke served in the German military during the First World War. Military casualty reports listed him as lightly wounded on the 25th of September in 1917. A report from the 25th of October in 1918 shows Fritz Sternitzke died from illness.

Twin Sternitzke Children Born at Breslau, 1902

The twins Alfred Franz Hermann Sternitzke (1902-1918) and Elfriede Martha Auguste Sternitzke (1902-after 1926) were born at Breslau on the 16th of May in 1902. The Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke were Protestants who lived at Bärenstraße 11 (now Niedźwiedzia Street, about 1.5 miles northwest of the old city walls in the Pöpelwitz suburb). Below are Hermann's signatures from the birth records of his twin children.

Record 1315

Record 1316

The twins were baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 21st of May in 1902. Their baptismal sponsors were:

- Bertha Deutschmann, a Protestant Weichenstellerfrau (wife of a railroad switchman) from Brockau,
- Dorothea Deutschmann, a Protestant Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) from Breslau,
- Heinrich Sternitzke, a Protestant Bäckermeister (master baker) from Breslau, and
- Bertha Sura, a Protestant Arbeiterin (laborer) from Breslau.

A handwritten note on Alfred Sternitzke's birth record indicates he died on the 8th of November in 1918, as recorded on death record number 1315 in 1918 at the Breslau Standesamt I. A Neben (duplicate copy) of the death record for Alfred Franz Hermann Sternitzke showed that the note was correct about the date of his death (8 November 1918) but the record number 1315 was the record of his birth in 1902. His death record was number 3324 in 1918 at Breslau Standesamt I. Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke lived at Promnitzstraße 42 at that time (which matches the information from the Breslau address books – see below). The death record listed Alfred as a 16 years and 5 months old Drogistenlehrling (apprentice druggist).

A handwritten note on Elfriede Sternitzke's birth record indicates she was married at Breslau in 1926, as recorded on marriage record number 12 in 1926 at Breslau Standesamt I.

Wedding Witness Hermann Sternitzke, 1893

On the 6th of July in 1893, Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke married the Arbeiter Simon Sura at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. She signed the civil marriage record as Bertha Sura geboren (née) Sternitzke. One of the witnesses to the 1893 wedding was the bride's brother, the 31 years old Arbeiter Hermann Sternitzke who was a resident of Klein Tschansch.

Baptismal Sponsors Hermann and Auguste Sternitzke

In 1894, the Arbeiter Hermann Sternitzke was a godfather at the baptism of his niece Martha Bertha Helene Sura, the daughter of Simon Sura and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura. The baptism was at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau.

The Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and his sister Luise Juliane Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura were two of the baptismal sponsors for Paul Willy Erich Sternitzke (the son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich and Bertha Sternitzke) on the 1st of August in 1897. See the Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The Weichenstellerfrau (railroad switchman's wife) Auguste Sternitzke and the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke were baptismal sponsors for Gertrud Emilie Luise Sura, the daughter of Simon Sura and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura. The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 10th of April in 1898. See the Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau.

The Schmied (smith) Simon Sura, the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and the widow Klara Hartmann were the baptismal sponsors for Max Heinrich Paul Sternitzke, the son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke. The baby was baptized on the 18th of September in 1898 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. See the Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Martha Hildebrandt, the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and the Schlosser (mechanic) Simon Sura were the baptismal sponsors for Heinrich Karl Julius Sternitzke, the son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke. The baby was baptized on the 22nd of October in 1899 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The Weichenstellerfrau (railroad switchman's wife) Auguste Sternitzke and the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke were baptismal sponsors for Walter Erich Richard Sura, the son of Simon Sura and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura. The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 1st of January in 1902. See the Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau.

Paul Sura and Frau Auguste Sternitzke were baptismal sponsors for Helen Martha Gertrud Sura the daughter of Simon Sura and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura. The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 21st of December in 1903. See the Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau.

The Weichenstellerfrau (railroad switchman's wife) Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke and the Weichenstellerfrau Bertha (née Quarder) Deutschmann were baptismal sponsors for Luise Anna Deutschmann. Auguste was a Protestant and lived at Bärenstraße 11 in Breslau. Bertha was a Protestant and lived at Brockau. The baby was born on the 21st of May in 1905, and baptized at the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of June in 1905. Luise Anna Deutschmann was the daughter of Maria Deutschmann, an unmarried Protestant resident of Gross Tschansch.

Frau Auguste Sternitzke was the baptismal sponsor for Klara Elfriede Berta Sura, the daughter of Simon Sura and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura. The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 26th of July in 1905. See the Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1943

The Breslau address books show some history of the profession and residences for Hermann and Auguste Sternitzke. In 1914, 1915, 1916 and 1918, Hermann Sternitzke was employed as a Weichensteller (railroad switchman) and the family was living at Promnitzstraße 42 (third floor) now Białowieska Street, in a far northwest section of Breslau near the Pöpelwitz train station.

In 1923, 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1931, they were still living at that address, but Hermann Sternitzke was listed as a Stellwerksmeister (railroad switchyard master).

The 1934, 1935, 1937, 1941 and 1943 address books listed Hermann Sternitzke as a Stellwerksmeister a.D. (ausser Dienst, retired railroad switchyard master), still living at living at Promnitzstraße 42. Auguste Sternitzke was also listed as a Witwe (widow) in the sort by names, at Promnitzstraße 42 in the 1943 address book. The section of the 1943 address book sorted by addresses listed H.A. Sternitzke (Witwe) at that address.

Death of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941)

Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke died at his home at Promnitzstraße 42 in Breslau on the 17th of May in 1941. Hermann died from Herz- und Kreislaufversagen (heart and circulatory failure). His death was reported by the wife of a Landessekretär Elfriede (née Sternitzke) Daumann, who was probably Hermann and Auguste's daughter. A note on the birth record of their daughter Elfriede reported she was married at Breslau in 1926.

The 1934-1941 alphabetical register of burials at the Gräbschen municipal cemetery listed the burial of the retired Stellwerksmeister (railroad switchyard master) Hermann Sternitzke. He was 79 years old. He was buried on the 21st of May in 1941.

Death of Johanna (née Haschke) Hollmann 10 February 1891 City of Breslau

The widow Anna (née Riedel) Hanke lived in Breslau at Michalisstraße 13b. On the 11th of February in 1891, she reported the death of the widow Johanna (née Haschke) Hollmann, who was the widow of a Mr. Sternitzke before she married the Töpfer (potter) Franz Hollmann. Anna Hanke reported that Johanna married Franz Hollmann at Rosenthal in Breslau County.

Johanna (née Haschke) Hollmann was born at Boguslawitz in Breslau County. Nothing was known about her deceased parents. She lived in Breslau at Michalisstraße 1b (about one block north from the University Bridge, now Bolesława Drobnera Street). She died on the 10th of February in 1891, at the age of 68 ½ years old (so she was born around 11 August 1822).

- Gen.XI-308. Selma Bertha Martha Starnitzkÿ (1869-1871) Breslau.

The earliest known history of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke / Starnitzkÿ / Sternitzkÿ (1834-1911) is from the birth, marriage and death records of his children that were recorded at locations near the city of Görlitz. Below is a summary of the family events during their time near Görlitz. See Chapter 13, The Liegnitz District, Görlitz County in the Liegnitz District, Village of Nieder Girbigsdorf in Görlitz County: the Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke/Starnitzkÿ/Sternitzkÿ, 1865 Nieder Girbigsdorf, 1875 Kunnersdorf auf dem Eigen, and 1880 to 1885 Rothwasser.

Hermann Starnitzke was not identified in the manuscript written by Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki (1864-1948), and edited by Karl Sille, but they provided enough clues to identify the parents of Hermann Starnitzke as the Müller Gottlieb Sternüske (1807-1848) and Johanna Elisabeth née Titze (1813-1882) from Pirschen in Trebnitz County. Hermann was baptized in 1834 at the church in Lossen (also in Trebnitz County). The Sternüske version of Gottlieb's name was used by Wilhelm Starnitzki in Chapter 12 of his manuscript (regarding Pirschen). Karl Sille's manuscript (Ahnenliste Robert Starnitzki) listed Gottlieb's surname as Starnitzke and Sterniske. Christian Heilmann's website listing millers and mill owners in Öls County listed Gottlieb Sternüske (1807-1848) as Gottlieb Sternitzke. Gottlieb Sternüske was a grandfather of Wilhelm Starnitzki. See Book I, Chapter 6, the Ancestors of Wilhelm Starnitzki. Also see the discussion below regarding the 1924 trip made by Richard Starnitzke and his cousin Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki (1864-1948) from Breslau to the villages of their ancestors.

The history of Gottlieb Sternüske shows he did not have a long or happy life. He had legal and financial problems at Lossen. Gottlieb sold his mill at Lossen in 1846, and bought a mill at Dobrischau in Öls County. Gottlieb Sternitzke, the former Müllermeister (master miller) at Neudorf died on the 29th of May in 1848 from a Geschwulst (tumor) at the age of 40 years and 10 months. His son, Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke would have been 14 years old at that time.

Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzkÿ may have been serving in the Prussian Army at Görlitz when he met Anna Bertha Bartzschke (1844-1903). They were married around 1864, based on the birth date of their first known child. They were residents of the village Nieder Girbigsdorf near Görlitz in 1865.

Bertha was listed as Auguste Bertha (née Bartzschke) Starnitzke on the marriage record of their daughter Anna Bertha Hermine Starnitzke in 1885. She was listed as Auguste Berta (née Bartzschke) Starnitzke on the death record of her son Emil Richard Hermann Starnitzke in 1945. Other records listed her as Anna Bertha (née Bartzschke) Starnitzke. According to her 1903 death record Bertha (née Bartzschke) Sternitzkÿ was born at Bernstadt in Saxony. The town of Bernstadt (also known as Bernstadt auf dem Eigen) was in Löbau County when Bertha was born. Bernstadt is now in the Görlitz district. It is about 10 miles southwest from the city of Görlitz.

Hermann Sternitzkÿ and Bertha (née Bartzschke) Sternitzkÿ had the following children:

- Anna Bertha Hermine Starnitzke /Starnitzkÿ (1865-1891) was born on the 5th of January in 1865 at Nieder Girbigsdorf in Görlitz County. She married Gustav Adolf Prenzel at Rothwasser in Görlitz County on the 17th of May in 1885. Anna Bertha Hermine (née Sternitzkÿ) Prenzel died at Lauban on the 8th of April in 1891.
- Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke (1872-1945) was born on the 26th of October in 1872 at Girbigsdorf in Görlitz County. He married Bertha Maria Ida Krautwald at Breslau on the 5th of June in 1897. See the Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau.

In 1924, Richard Starnitzke and his cousin Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Starnitzki (1864-1948) traveled from Breslau to the villages of their ancestors. They visited the church at Lossen where their grandparents Gottlieb Sternüske/Sternitzke (1807-1848) and Johanna Elisabeth née Titze were married in 1832, and where Richard's and Wilhelm's fathers were baptized. Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke (1834-1911) was baptized at Lossen in 1834. Karl Robert Starnitzki (1839-1866) was baptized in 1839. See Book I, Chapter 12, Pirschen: Wilhelm Starnitzki's Diary: a 1924 visit to Sibyllenort, Lossen, Skarsine and Pirschen.

- Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ (1875-after 1943) was born on the 17th of September in 1875, at Kunnersdorf auf dem Eigen in Saxony. Kunnersdorf auf dem Eigen is now a suburb of Bernstadt auf dem Eigen (which is 8 miles southeast of the city Löbau, and 10 miles southwest of the city Görlitz). See the Marriage and Family of Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ, 1899 to 1943 City of Breslau. Emil Starnitzke and his fiancé Marie Rathmann were baptism sponsors for Felix Max Reinhold Starnitzke in 1898. The child was the son of Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke (1872-1945). See the Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau.
- Wilhelm Max Sternitzkÿ (1880-after 1900) was born in his parent's home at Rothwasser in Görlitz County on the 23rd of December in 1880. Max Starnitzke was a baptism sponsor for Felix Max Reinhold Starnitzke in 1898. The child was the son of Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke (1872-1945). See the Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau. The Kaufmann Max Sternitzkÿ from Buchenwalde (near the city of Trebnitz) was a baptism sponsor for Walter Wilhelm Robert Sternitzkÿ in 1900. The child was the son of Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ (1875-after 1943).
- Frieda Elsbeth Sternitzkÿ (1883-1883) was born in her parents' home at Rothwasser on the 27th of March in 1883. She died at the age of 4 months and 10 days on the 6th of August in 1883. She died in the family home at Haus No. 389 in Rothwasser.

The family of the Hausbesitzer Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke and his wife were living at Breslau when their daughter Anna Bertha Hermine (née Sternitzkÿ) Prenzel died at Lauban on the 8th of April in 1891. Their son Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke was 18 years old. Their son Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ was 14 years old. Their son Wilhelm Max Sternitzkÿ was 10 years old.

Kreuzstraße 36 in Breslau

The Breslau address Kreuzstraße 36 was listed in several records associated with the family of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke / Starnitzkÿ /Sternitzkÿ (1834-1911). Kreuzstraße is now Świętokrzyska Street, one block west of the Botanical Garden.

In 1896, the unmarried Richard Starnitzke was 23 years old and he was living in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 36. He was a Kanonier (gunner) in the 1st Silesian Field Artillery Regiment. Richard Starnitzke was a witness at the marriage of Reinhold Karl August Robert Krautwald and Anna Maria Martha Neumann, at Breslau on the 18th of January in 1896. See the Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Versicherungs-Agent (insurance agent) Hermann Sternitzky as living at Kreuzstraße 36 V (fifth floor).

The Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke (c.1873-1945) married Bertha Maria Ida Krautwald at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of June in 1897. The groom was a Protestant and lived at Kreuzstraße 36. See the Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau.

In 1899, Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzky was employed as a Schneider (tailor) and lived in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 36. Emil's father, Hermann Sternitzky was still employed as a Versicherungsagenten (insurance agent) in 1899.

Death of Bertha (née Bartschke) Sternitzky (1844-1903)

Bertha (née Bartschke) Sternitzky died on the 23rd of March in 1903 at the Universitäts-Kliniken (University Clinic) at the corner of Tiergartenstraße and Maxstraße (about 7 blocks southeast from the Botanical Gardens). Her death record shows that prior to her death, she was living at Fürstenstraße 22 (in the third block east of the Botanical Gardens, now Grunwaldzka Street). Bertha's husband, Hermann Sternitzky was still employed as a Versicherungsagenten (insurance agent) in 1903. Bertha's death record listed her maiden name as Bertha Bartschke. The 1899 to 1904 death and burial book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows the Versicherungs agentenfrau (wife of an insurance underwriter) died at the age of 59 years and 7 days, so she was born around the 16th of March in 1844. Bertha was born at Bernstadt in Saxony, the daughter of August Bartschke and Charlotte (née Canis) Bartschke.

Death of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzky (1834-1911)

The früheren Versicherungs Agent (former insurance agent) Hermann Sternitzky died on the 16th of September in 1911. He died at the age of 77 years and 5 months, making his calculated date of birth around April in 1834. The 1904 to 1912 death and burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows Hermann Sternitzky, was a resident of Klein Masselwitz, but he died at the Herrnpotsch Pflegehaus (nursing home at the village of Herrnpotsch). He was buried in Breslau on the 20th of September in 1911. The church record referenced his civil death record: number 141 in 1911 at the Klein Masselwitz Standesamt.

Marriage of Johanna Christiane Bertha Klimpke 8 July 1891 City of Breslau

Johanna Christiane Bertha Klimpke was born at Peterwitz on the 8th of September in 1858, the daughter of the Peterwitz Freistellenbesitzers August Klimpke and his wife Elisabet (née Sternitzke) Klimpke. Both parents, August and Elisabet were listed as deceased in the 1891 marriage record for their daughter Johanna.

Johanna Christiane Bertha Klimpke married Hermann Robert Juhr at Breslau on the 8th of July in 1891. Both the bride and groom were Protestants. Johanna was a Verkäuferin (sales clerk) and Hermann was a Victualienhändler (trader in agricultural goods) living at Berlinerstraße 45 (now Braniborska Street, about ½ mile west of the old city walls).

Hermann Robert Juhr was born on the 7th of October in 1858 at Groß Peiskerau in Ohlau County. Groß Peiskerau is now named Piskorzow, Poland). He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzers (farmstead owners) Karl Juhr and Luise (née Hoffmann) Juhr from Groß Peiskerau.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 25 years old Breslau Ausschänker (barkeeper) Johann Janocha, and the 45 years old Freigärtner Gottlieb Rindfleisch from Kobelwitz in Trebnitz County. Kobelwitz was a village about three miles northeast of Trebnitz, with a population of 159 in 1939. Kobelwitz is now named Kobylice, Poland.

Marriage of Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann 15 July 1891 City of Breslau

Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann was born at Ohlau on the 1st of May in 1864. She was the daughter of Wilhelm Hirschmann and Auguste (née Starnitzke) Hirschmann. In 1891, the family was living in Breslau. Wilhelm Hirschmann was employed as a Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker). Ida Hirschmann was employed as Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived at Hubenstraße 14 (one block southeast from the main trainstation, now Hubska Street).

The former Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker) Wilhelm Hirschmann was 74 years old when he died on the 19th of November in 1908. He was born around 1834. Berta Auguste (née Sternitzke) Hirschmann died at Breslau on the 29th of October in 1910, at the age of 78 years old. Her calculated year of birth was around 1832. Her death record stated that she was born at Ohlau. She was the daughter of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottfried Sternitzke and Johanne Charlotte (née Polken) Sternitzke. They had died at Ohlau prior to 1910. See the Chapter 8, Ohlau County in the Breslau District, City of Ohlau: the Family of the Zimmermann Gottfried Sternitzke, 1823 to 1864 City of Ohlau.

On the 15th of July in 1891, Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann married Heinrich Wilhelm Gustav Mücke. Heinrich Mücke was the son of the deceased Arbeiterin (laborer) Florentine Mücke, who had last resided in Breslau. Heinrich was born on the 11th of April in 1864 at Breslau. In 1891, Heinrich was employed as a Tapezierer (wallpaper hanger) and lived in Breslau at Neudorfstraße 21 (two blocks west of the main trainstation, now Komandorska Street). Heinrich was identified as a Catholic on the marriage record. Ida was listed as a Protestant.

Notes on the marriage record show that the Ida Helene Bertha Mücke died in 1933 (death record 717 of 1933 at Standesamt Stadt Breslau I). Heinrich Wilhelm Gustav Mücke died in 1935 (death record 203 of 1935 at Standesamt Stadt Breslau VII).

The witnesses at the 1891 wedding may have been the bride's brothers: the 29 years old Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Otto Hirschmann and the 25 years old Tischler (carpenter) Reinhold Hirschmann. The bride was 27 years old. Otto lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 26, and Reinhold lived at the same address listed for the bride: Hubenstraße 14.

It is interesting that the Hirschmann family lived at Hubenstraße 14, near Hubenstraße 17, the address listed on the birth records for the children of Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke. See the Family of Theresia (née Starnitzke) Spottke, 1886 to 1894 City of Breslau. Eduard Spottke was also a Tischler (carpenter).

Marriage and Death of Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske 1892 to 1917 City of Breslau

Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske (1867-1917) married Anna Emma Olga Brünner on the 19th of March in 1892. That was a civil ceremony recorded at the Breslau Standesamt (registry office) Number I. The couple were married in a church ceremony on the 25th February in 1905, at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau. The civil record and the church record both listed Reinhold as a Catholic and Olga as a Protestant.

In 1892, Reinhold Sterniske was a Klemptner (Klempner, tinsmith or plumber) and a Catholic, who lived at Friedrich Wilhelm Straße 30 (west and outside the old city walls, now Legnicka Street). He was born in Breslau on the 13th of July in 1867, the son of the Schmied (smith) Franz Sterniske and Josepha (née Sowieja) Sterniske. Reinhold's father was deceased at the time of the wedding in 1892. See the Family of Franz Sterniske and Sophia (née Soweija) Sterniske, 1862 to 1930 City of Breslau.

Anna Emma Olga Brünner was a Protestant and a Handschuhnäherin (Handschuh-Näherin, glove seamstress). She was born at Breslau on the 15th of June in 1869, the daughter of the Tischler (carpenter) Ernst Brünner and Pauline (née Schindler) Brünner.

Witnesses to the 1892 wedding were Max Hallmann and Paul Thiel. Reinhold Karl Stanislaus Sterniske signed the marriage document as Reinhold Sterniske.

See the marriage records for his siblings:

- the 21st of March in 1889 marriage of Franz Josef Rudolf Sterniske and Emma Marie Elise Tschapke,
- the marriages of Paul Karl Franz Sterniske on the 17th of February in 1890, the 31st of December in 1892 and the 6th of July in 1903,
- the 3rd of February in 1896 marriage of Johann Josef Franz Jarausch and Martha Susanna Maria Emilie Sterniske.

Godfather Reinhold Sterniske, 1895

The Klempner Reinhold Sterniske was the godfather of Elsbet Auguste Olga Sterniske. She was the daughter of Reinhold's brother Paul Karl Franz Sterniske. The baptism was at St. Elisabeth's Protestant Church on the 14th of April in 1895.

On the 15th of September in 1895, the Breslau Klempner, Reinhold Sterniske (a Catholic) and the Klempnerfrau Olga Sterniske (a Protestant) were sponsors for the baptism of Georg Max Paul Brünner. The baptism was at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau. The baby was born on the 17th of June in 1895, the son of Emma Brünner, who was also a daughter of the Tischler (carpenter) Ernst Brünner.

Wedding Witness Reinhold Sterniske, 1897

In 1897, Reinhold Sterniske was a 30-years-old Klempner (tinsmith or plumber) who lived at Breslau-Poepelwitz 18a. Reinhold was listed as a witness at the wedding of the Schlossergesell (journeyman mechanic) Josef Fischer and Emma Agnes Bertha Brünner. That wedding took place on the 31st of July in 1897. The other witness identified on the marriage record was the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Beer who lived in Breslau at Laurentiusstraße 22 (5 blocks east of St. John the Baptist Cathedral, now Piwna Street).

Emma Agnes Bertha Brünner was born at Breslau on the 26th of August in 1871. She was the younger sister of Reinhold's wife Emma Olga (née Brünner) Sterniske.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Klempner (tinsmith or plumber) Reinhold Sterniske as living at Kurzegasse 73 IV (fourth floor, 7 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). Kurzegasse was shown as Kurze Gasse on an 1896 map. It was shown as Westend Straße on a 1941 map.

Church Wedding for Reinhold and Olga Sterniske, 1905

Reinhold Sterniske and Olga (née Brünner) Sterniske were married in a church ceremony on the 25th February in 1905, at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau. Reinhold's occupation was listed as a Klempner (tinsmith or plumber). The couple lived in Breslau at Alsenstraße 55 (about 7 blocks northwest from the old city walls, now Stefana Czarnieckiego Street).

The church record referenced their civil marriage which took place on the 19th of March in 1892, and was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt (registry office) Number I.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1916

The 1914 and 1915 Breslau address book show the Gastwirt (innkeeper) Reinhold Sterniske as living at Steinauer Straße 12 on the ground floor (now Ścinawska Street northwest of the old city walls). The 1916 Breslau address book listed the Klempner (plumber) Reinhold Sterniske as living at Steinauer Straße 12 on the first floor.

Death of Reinhold Sterniske (1867-1917)

The Klempner (plumber) Reinhold Sterniske died on the 8th of January in 1917 at Breslau. He was 49 years old when he died at the Menzel-Hancke Krankenhaus. His death record listed his religion as Catholic. He had resided at Steinauer Straße 12 with his wife Olga (née Brüner) Sterniske, prior to his death. The death record listed his parents as Franz Sterniske and Sophie Souver.

Second Marriage of Anna Emma Olga (née Brüner) Sterniske, 1918

The 1918 Breslau address book listed Olga Sterniske (maiden name Olga Brüner) as a Gastwirtschwitwe (innkeeper's widow) who lived at Steinauer Straße 12 Erdgeschoß (ground floor).

The widow Anna Emma Olga (née Brüner) Sterniske married the Zigarrenfabrikant (cigar maker) Reinhold Johann Pahr at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 26th of February in 1918. Her marriage record listed the bride as a Protestant Gastwirtin (innkeeper) who lived at Steinauer Straße 12. Both of the bride's parents had died before the wedding. Her father the Tischler Ernst Brüner died at the village Herrnpotsch (now named Pracze Odrzańskie) about 8 miles northwest of Breslau. Her mother Pauline (née Schindler) Brüner had died at Breslau.

Reinhold Johann Pahr was a Catholic. He lived to Steinauer Straße 11. Reinhold Pahr was born on the 6th of February in 1864 at Wansen in Ohlau County. His parents, the Tabakhändler (tobacco merchant) Johann Pahr and Dorothea née Benke, died at Wansen prior to the 1918 wedding.

The witnesses at the 1918 wedding were the Schmied (smith) Max Matzner and the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Brüner. Max Matzner was 30 years old and lived at Leuthenstraße 76 (now Litomska Street, west of the old city walls). Paul Brüner was 56 years old and lived at Alsenstraße 80 (west of the old city walls, now Stefana Czarnieckiego Street).

Marriage and Death of Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke 10 May 1892 and 1941 City of Breslau

Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke was born on the 4th of June in 1866 at Breslau. He was the son of the Produktenhändler (produce dealer) Karl Sternitzke and Elisabet (née Gelfert) Sternitzke, who were living at Breslau at the time of their son’s marriage in 1892. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Carl Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1862 to 1941 City of Breslau.

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke, 1890

Karl Sternitzke (the son) was a witness at the wedding of Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke to Martha Anna Rosalie Heinke, on the 31st of January in 1890. The 23 years old Musiker (musician) Carl Sternitzke lived at Wassergasse 24 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. See the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Leschner) Sternitzke, 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Karl Sternitzke (the son) was a witness at his sister's wedding (see the Marriage and Family of Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke, 30 December 1890 to 1943 City of Breslau). The 24-year-old Musiker (musician) signed the 1890 wedding record as Carl Sternitzke. That signature matches his signature on his marriage record in May of 1892 (see below). Karl listed Wassergasse 24 (the same address Bertha listed in 1890) on his 1892 wedding record.

Marriage of Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke, 1892

On the 10th of May in 1892, the Musiker (musician or bandleader) Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke married the Damenschneiderin (women's tailor) Klara Anna Maria Janus. She was living at Wallstraße 3 at Breslau before the wedding. Note that they signed their names as Carl and Clara (shown below). Karl/Carl was a Protestant. Klara was a Catholic. Klara/Clara was born on the 28th of June in 1868 at Breslau. She was the daughter of Hausmeister Karl Janus and his wife Karoline (née Scholz) Janus, who lived at Breslau at the time of the 1892 wedding.

Karl/Carl's 1892 signature matches his signature on the 30th of December 1890 marriage record for his sister Bertha Klara Dorothea Sternitzke. Karl's 1892 marriage record listed his address as Wassergasse 24 (now Zyndrama z Maszkowic Street) on the island northwest of the University of Breslau. This was the same address listed for his sister on her 1890 marriage record. This was also the same address for the Kutscher (coachman) C. Stanitzky in 1868 (possibly the father of Karl and Bertha Sternitzke).

The witnesses at Karl and Klara's wedding were the 27 years old Musiker (musician) Paul Giessmann and the 46 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Franz Wanzek.

Breslau Address Book, 1897

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Musiker Carl Sternitzke as living at Schießwerderstraße 12 IV (fourth floor, now Kurkowa Street, just across the river from his previous Wassergasse 24 address).

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke, 1899

The Musiker (musician) Karl Sternitzke was the 33 years old witness at the 15 June 1899 Breslau wedding of the Austrian Musiker Ludwig Hein and the Schneiderin (seamstress) Margarete Auguse Bertha Junghans. The marriage record shows that Karl Sternitzke was living at Schießwaderstraße 12 (now Kurkowa Street, just across the river from his previous Wassergasse 24 address). Below is a copy of his 1899 signature from the marriage record, with the signature of the other witness – the 34 years old Musiker Max Vertändig.

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke, 1908

The 42 years old Kapellmeister (bandleader) Karl Sternitzke (who again signed his name as Carl) was a witness at the 15 June 1908 Breslau wedding of the Musiker (musician) Reinhold Eduard Weidlich and the Putzmacherin (milliner) Berta Luise Martha Tschapke. At that time, Karl was living at Lewaldstraße 7 (6 blocks southwest from the old city walls, now Zdrowa Street). The bride's father, Joseph Tschapke was the other witness at the wedding.

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke, 1911

The Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Otilie Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke married the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Hermann Deumert in Breslau on the 10th of November in 1911. The bride's parents were the Maschinist Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke who lived in Breslau. See the Marriage and Family of Otilie Martha Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Deumert, 1909 to 1939 City of Breslau.

Breslau Address Books, 1914 to 1941

The 1914 and 1915 Breslau address books listed the Kapellmeister (bandleader) and Hausbesitzer (house owner) Karl Sternitzke who lived at Zietenstraße 21. The 1916 and 1918 Breslau address books listed Karl Sternitzke as the Hausbesitzer (house owner) and the Eigentümer (property owner) at Zietenstraße 21. He owned the building and lived on the first floor. Zietenstraße 21 is now Żytnia Street, about nine blocks west of the main train station. That house location was two blocks east from where Karl lived in 1908 (Lewaldstraße 7). He lived at Zietenstraße 21 until his death in 1941 (see below).

In 1923, Carl Sternitzke was listed as a früher Kapellmeister (former bandleader) who still lived at Zietenstraße 21. The 1926 address book shows that he sold the house to the widow B. Tränkner from Jarotschin (in Posen), but he still lived on the first floor. Karl Sternitzke was listed as the früher Hausbesitzer (former house owner) of Zietenstraße 21 in the address books in 1926, 1927, 1928, 1931, 1934, 1935 and 1937. The 1941 address book listed him as Rentner (retired) at that same address.

Deaths of Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke (1866-1941)
and Klara Anna Maria (née Janus) Sternitzke (1868-1942)

A handwritten note on the first page of their marriage record showed that the groom Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke died on the 24th of February in 1941. A death record was referenced in that note as: Breslau IV Nr. 284/ dated 7 March 1941. A note on the second page of their marriage record listed the death record for his wife Klara Anna Maria (née Janus) Sternitzke as record number 12, dated the 22nd of January in 1942.

The 1941-1944 alphabetical register of burials at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen shows the 73 years old widow Klara (née Janus) Sternitzke was buried on the 28th of January in 1942. She was buried in that cemetery at field 75, plot number 45.

The death record of the Kleinrentner (a person living on a small pension) Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke shows he died at home, at Zietenstraße 21, on the 24th of February in 1941. The causes of his death were recorded as Herzmuskelschwäche, Aderverkalkung und Herzschwäche (heart muscle weakness, venous calcification and cardiac weakness).

His death was reported by Emma (née Korsetzke) Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Gustav-Müller Straße 59 (5 blocks north of the University Bridge). Mehlgasse was later named Gustav-Müller-Strasse, and is now named Ludwika Rydygiera Street. The Rentner (retired) Alfred Sternitzke was the only Sternitzke who was listed at that address in the Breslau address books from 1923 to 1943. Emma (née Korsetzke) Sternitzke was probably the wife of Alfred Max Georg Sternitzke, the brother of Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke

Marriage and Family of Johanna Hermine Starnitzki 13 June 1892 to 1896 City of Breslau

Johanna Hermine Starnitzki was born on the 14th of June in 1869, in the city of Lauenburg in Lauenburg County of Pomerania. She was the daughter of the Maurerpolier (team leader of bricklayers or stonemasons) Wilhelm Starnitzki and his wife Emilie (née Lemke) Starnitzki. It is unknown if Wilhelm Starnitzki was related to the Starnitzki family in Posen, or directly related to the Starnitzki family from Silesia. See Chapter 18, The Prussian Province of Pomerania, Köslin District, Lauenburg County, City of Lauenburg: the Family of the Maurer Wilhelm Starnitzki, 1869 to 1898 Lauenburg, 1898 to 1928 Berlin.

In 1892, Johanna was a Schneiderin (seamstress) living in Breslau at Gabitzstraße 66 (about 8 blocks west of the main train station, now Gajowicka Street). Her parents remained at Lauenburg. Johanna married the Trompeter (trumpeter) Karl Gustav Ludwig in Breslau on the 13th of June in 1892. The bride and groom were both Protestants.

Karl Gustav Ludwig was born on the 16th of January in 1866 at Ziegelroda, a village seven miles southwest of the town Querfurt in Saxony-Anhalt. Querfurt is 30 miles west of Leipzig, Gemany. Karl Ludwig was the son of the Landwirths (farmer) Friedrich Ludwig at Ziegelroda and his wife (who died at Zigelroda before the wedding) Caroline (née Müller) Ludwig. In 1892, Karl Ludwig was a musician who lived at Kleinburg, a village at that time and now a southern suburb of Breslau named Borek.

Witnesses at the wedding included two musicians: the 28 year old Albert Ruhnau and the 26 years old Josef Haustein. Both witnesses were also living at the village Kleinburg.

Karl Ludwig and Johanna (née Starnitzki) Ludwig had four children at Breslau:

- Margarethe Marie Emilie Ludwig was born on the 13th of May in 1893.
- Charlotte Clara Elisabeth Ludwig was born on the 2nd of September in 1894.
- Wilhelm Ludwig died on the 9th of June in 1896 at the age of 5 months old. He was born around January of 1896.
- Carl Fritz Ludwig was born on the 12th of September in 1896 and died on the 17th of September of that same year.

The family's address was listed as Gabitzstraße 66 on the birth records of their daughters. That was Johanna's address on her marriage record. Their address was Gabitzstraße 59 in 1896.

Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau

Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke was born at Briesche on the 15th of July in 1870. She was the daughter of Gottlieb and Anna Christiane Sternitzke. Anna Christiane's maiden name was also Sternitzke. See Book I, Chapter 15: Briesche, End of Chapter Notes, Birth and Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1832 to 1877 Briesche.

In 1893, the Gottlieb Sternitzke family was living in Breslau. Gottlieb was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) and his daughter Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke was employed as a Köchin (cook).

On the 6th of July in 1893, Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke married the Arbeiter Simon Sura at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. She signed the civil marriage record as Bertha Sura geboren (née) Sternitzke. The civil and church marriage records show that Luise Juliane Bertha was a Protestant and lived in Breslau at Gartenstraße 9. There were twelve streets named Gartenstraße in Breslau and its suburbs. Simon was listed as a Catholic and was living in Breslau at Mariannenstraße 4 (now Trzemeska Street, 5 blocks west of the old city walls).

Simon Sura was born on the 16th of February in 1865 at Noldau (now the village named Domaszowice) in Namslau County. He was the son of the Häusler (day-laborer) Franz Sura and his wife Josefa (née Pniok) Sura, who had both died at Noldau prior to their son's wedding.

One of the witnesses to the 1893 wedding was the 31 years old Arbeiter Hermann Sternitzke who was a resident of Klein Tschansch. Klein Tschansch was a village (now named Księża Małe) in Breslau County. Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941) was born at Briesche (in Trebnitz County) on the 6th of February in 1862. He was one of the brothers of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke. The other witness at the wedding was the 39 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Johann Godek. Johann was a resident of Noldau in Namslau County.

Simon and Bertha Sura had at least six children who were born at Breslau:

- Martha Bertha Helene Sura was born on the 18th of August in 1894. Her parents, the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura and his wife Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura lived at Mariannenstraße 7 (now Trzemeska Street, 5 blocks west of the old city walls). Simon was a Catholic and Bertha was a Protestant. The baby was baptized in the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 2nd of September in 1894. The baptismal sponsors were Bertha Sternitzke (the mother of the baby) and the baby's uncle, the Arbeiter Hermann Sternitzke.
- Gertrud Emilie Luise Sura was born on the 4th of March in 1898. The baby's baptism record shows her name as Gertrud Louise Emilie Sura. She was baptized in the St.

Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 10th of April in 1898. Her baptismal sponsors were the Kernmacher (mold maker in a foundry) Paul Sura, the baby's uncle the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke, the Bahnwärterfrau (railroad switchman's wife) Auguste Sternitzke and the Köchin Pauline Guwark. The Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura and his wife Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura lived at Mariannenstraße 7. Auguste Sternitzke was the aunt of the baby, and the wife of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke.

- Walter Erich Richard Sura was born on the 16th of December in 1901 and was baptized on the 1st of January in 1902 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. His baptismal sponsors were: the baby's aunt the Weichenstellerfrau (railroad switchman's wife) Auguste Sternitzke and the baby's uncle the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke. Walter died on the 20th of April in 1902. The Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura and his wife Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura lived at Mariannenstraße 7. According to the birth record, Simon was a Catholic and Bertha was a Protestant. Both parents were identified as Protestants on the baptismal record.
- Helen Martha Gertrud Sura was born on the 12th of December in 1902 and baptized on the 21st of December in 1903 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. Her baptismal sponsors were Paul Sura and the baby's aunt Frau Auguste Sternitzke. The Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura and his wife Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura lived at Mariannenstraße 7. Simon was a Catholic. Bertha was a Protestant.
- Klara Elfriede Berta Sura was born on the 21st of July in 1905. She was baptized on the 26th of July in 1905, and died on the 4th of September in 1905. Frau Auguste Sternitzke was her godmother. The birth record shows the Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura and his wife Berta (née Sternitzke) Sura lived in Breslau at Berlinerstraße 44 (now Braniborska Street, about ½ mile west of the old city walls). Simon was a Catholic. Berta was a Protestant. The death record shows that the baby died at the age of 6 weeks old on the 4th of September in 1905. She died at home at Berlinerstraße 44a. It listed Simon Sura's occupation as a Hammerführer (steel mill hammer foreman).
- Else Elfriede Luise Sura was born on the 18th of May in 1907 and baptized on 22nd of May in 1907 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. Frau Hedwig Balzerowski was her godmother. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates she was married at Breslau in 1929, as recorded on marriage record number 9 at Breslau Standesamt III. The Arbeiter (laborer) Simon Sura and his wife Berta (née Sternitzke) Sura lived in Breslau at Berlinerstraße 44 (now Braniborska Street, about ½ mile west of the old city walls). Simon was a Catholic. Berta (Bertha) was a Protestant.

Baptismal Witnesses Simon Sura or Bertha Sura

The Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura were two of the baptismal sponsors for Paul Willy Erich Sternitzke (son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich and Bertha Sternitzke) on the 1st of August in 1897. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1891 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The Schmied (smith) Simon Sura, the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and the widow Klara Hartmann were the baptismal sponsors for Max Heinrich

Paul Sternitzke, the son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke. The baby was baptized on the 18th of September in 1898 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. See the Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Martha Hildebrandt, the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and the Schlosser (mechanic) Simon Sura were the baptismal sponsors for Heinrich Karl Julius Sternitzke, the son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke. The baby was baptized on the 22nd of October in 1899 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Family of Carl Gottfried Sternitzke and Ernestine Pauline Perschke 8 July 1893 to 1943 City of Breslau

Carl Gottfried Sternitzke (1864-1903) was born at Kloch-Ellguth on the 4th of October in 1864. He was the son of Daniel Sternitzke and Johanna (née Thiel) Sternitzke. Carl was baptized at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 16th of October in 1864. The church record shows that Carl was the fifth child of Daniel and Johanna Sternitzke. Daniel was listed as a Vogt (administrator) on the baptism record. The Daniel Sternitzke family moved to Breslau where Daniel was employed as a Vogt (administrator) and Carl was employed as a Lagerhalter (warehouseman). According to Carl's marriage record, Daniel Sternitzke died at Breslau before his son's wedding in 1893. Johanna was still living in Breslau in 1893 (she died at Breslau in 1900, see below).

On the 8th of July in 1893, Carl Gottfried Sternitzke married Ernestine Pauline Perschke. They were both Protestants. Ernestine was born on the 25th of January in 1868 at Klein Kniegnitz in Nimptsch County, Silesia. She was the daughter of Klein Kniegnitz residents: the Arbeiter (laborer) August Perschke and his deceased wife Helene née Kittlaus.

In 1893, Carl Sternitzke was living at Höfchenstraße 73 (4 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Tadeusza Zielińskiego Street). Ernestine Perschke was employed as a Köchin (cook) and lived in Breslau at Victoriastraße 4 (about 8 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Lwowska Street). Carl's signature from the marriage record is shown below.

The witnesses at the wedding included the 30 years old Diener (servant) Peter Gnatzy and the 30 years old Haushälter (janitor) Ernst Fuchs. Peter Gnatzy lived in Breslau at Kronprinzenstraße 35 (about 6 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Gwiazdźista Street). Ernst Fuchs lived in Breslau at Höfchenstrasse 73 (the same address as the groom, 4 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Tadeusza Zielińskiego Street). Ernst Fuchs was the husband of Anne (née Sternitzke) Fuchs. The Kutscher (coachman) Carl Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Martha Maria Fuchs in 1889. She was a daughter of Anne (née Sternitzke) Fuchs. This suggests a brother-sister relationship between Carl Gottfried Sternitzke and Anna Sternitzke. See the Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Fuchs, 1889 to 1912 City of Breslau.

The Lagerhalter (warehouseman) Carl Gottfried Sternitzke and Ernestine Pauline (née Perschke) Sternitzke had three sons and one daughter who were born in Breslau:

- Arthur Carl Curt Sternitzke was born on the 23rd of November in 1893. At that time, the family lived at Höfchenstraße 73 (7 blocks west of the main train station, now Tadeusza Zielińskiego Street).
- Herbert Max Richard Sternitzke (1898-1917) was born on the 30th of June in 1898. At that time, the family lived at Augustastraße 69 (about 9 blocks west of the main train station, now Szczeńliwa Street, this was only two blocks south of their Höfchenstraße 73 address in 1893). The Breslau address books show that Carl's family was living at Augustastraße 69 in 1897, but his mother (the widow Johanna Sternitzke) was still living at Höfchenstraße 73. Herbert Sternitzke served in the German Army during the First World War. He died on the 28th of November in 1917, according to a military casualty report dated the 28th of October in 1918, and his burial record. According to his burial record, Herbert served in the Signalist Nachrichten Ersatz Abteilung 6 (Signals Intelligence Reserve Section 6). He was buried at the garrison cemetery at the Oswitz suburb of Breslau on the 1st of December in 1917.

- Lisbeth Frieda Gertrude Sternitzke was born on the 1st of October in 1899. At that time, the family lived at Höfchenstraße 86 (7 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Tadeusza Zielińskiego Street).

1899

- Handwritten notes on Carl and Ernestine's marriage record indicate they had another son, Walter Karl Willi Sternitzke, who was born on the 17th of January in 1902 (birth record number 186 at Breslau Standesamt IV), and who was married on the 23rd of October in 1939 (marriage record 1457 at Breslau Standesamt II). A copy of the notes is shown below. The birth record for Walter Karl Willy Sternitzke has the same note regarding his marriage in 1939. The birth record also shows the family lived at Viktoriastraße 75 (about 9 blocks west of the main train station) at that time. Viktoriastraße is now Lwowska Street.

Death of Johanna (née Thiel) Sternitzke (1826-1900)

Carl's mother, Johanna (née Thiel) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 10th of June in 1900. At that time she lived at Höfchenstraße 73 (the same address listed for her son in 1893).. Her son signed the death record as Karl Sternitzke. He was still employed as a Lagerhalter (warehouseman), and his address was listed as Höfchenstraße 86. Johanna died at the age of 73 years and 7-month-old, so her calculated date of birth was around the 10th of November in 1826. She was born at Kunzendorf in Trebnitz County. The names of her parents were not known. Johanna was a Protestant. Karl's father was listed as the deceased Schaffer (laborer) Daniel Sternitzke.

Death of Karl Sternitzke (1864-1903)

The Lagerhalter (warehouseman) Karl Sternitzke died at the age of 39 years old on the 2nd of November in 1903 at Neudorfstraße 118/120. That was the location of the Wenzel-Hancke Krankenhaus (hospital). He was a Protestant and he had resided at Viktoriastraße 36 in Breslau. Karl's death was reported by the Polizeirat (member of the police board) Zucker from the Königlichen Polizeipräsidiums (police headquarters) at Breslau. According to his civil death record, Karl was born at Kloch-Ellguth, the son of the Vogt (administrator) Daniel Sternitzke and Johanna (née Thiel) Sternitzke, who had both previously died at Breslau. Karl was survived by his wife Ernestine (née Thiel) Sternitzke who was living in Breslau, probably at Viktoriastraße 36 about nine blocks west from the main trainstation.

Breslau Address Books, 1914 to 1943

Ernestine (née Perschke) Sternitzke was listed in the Breslau address books for 1914, 1915, 1918, 1923, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1931, 1934, 1935, 1937, 1941 and 1943 as the Lagerhalterwitwe (warehouseman's widow). She lived at Gellerstraße 16 in 1914. She lived at Alexistraße 16 in 1915, and at Schießwerderstraße 6 from 1918 to 1943. A Maurer (bricklayer) named Max Sternitzke lived at Schießwerderstraße 10 in 1941 and 1943. He could have been Gottfried and Ernestine's son Herbert Max Richard Sternitzke.

Marriage and Family of Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke 27 July 1893 to 1944 City of Breslau

Hermann August Paul Thum married Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke on the 27th of July in 1893 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Paul was a Kellner (waiter), a Protestant and he lived at Matthiasstraße 44. He was born on the 30th of January in 1860 at Peuke, in Oels County. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Heinrich Thum and Emilia (née Jachnick) Thum who lived at Hundsfeld in Oels County in 1893.

Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke was a Protestant and a Köchin (cook). In 1893, she lived at Enderstraße 7 (now Henryka Pobożnego Street, 3 blocks north of the Oder and near the main road to Trebnitz). Marie was born at Trebnitz on the 9th of February in 1871. She was the daughter of Josef Sternitzke who was an Arbeiter (laborer) who lived in Breslau, and his deceased wife Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke who last lived at Kloch-Ellguth in Trebnitz County. See Chapter 2, Village of Jeschütz in Trebnitz County: the Families of Gottfried and Johann Josef Sternitzke, 1866 Jeschütz to 1943 Breslau.

Witnesses at the wedding were the 25-year-old Drechslermeister (lathe operator for making wooden furniture) Karl Röscher and the 47-year-old Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Sternitzke. This Josef Sternitzke was Marie's father Johann Josef Sternitzke. His address was the same address as the bride's - listed as Enderstraße 7. Josef Sternitzke and Paul Thum were witnesses at the marriages of Josef's other daughters: Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke in October of 1895, and Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke in January of 1898. See the transcriptions below for those weddings.

The Drechslermeister Karl Röscher was probably the husband of the Drechslerfrau Auguste Röscher who was a baptismal sponsor for Fritz Carl Paul Sternitzke in 1888. Fritz was the son of Bertha Sternitzke (the sister of Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke). See the Birth, Family and Death of Bertha Ernestine Emilie Sternitzke, 1867 to 1881 Massel, 1888 to 1932 Breslau.

Death of Hermann August Paul Thum, 1944

A note was inserted in the 1893 civil marriage record book (dated 4 January 1944) which stated Hermann August Paul Thum died on the 2nd of January in 1944. The note referenced the Sterbebuch (death record book) record number 3 in 1944 at Standesamts II in Breslau.

Birth of daughter Martha Elfriede Thum, 1895

Martha Elfriede Thum was born on the 18th of July in 1895. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 25th of July in 1895. Her parents were the Breslau Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Thum and his wife Marie (née Sternitzke) Thum. Her parents were both Protestant and they lived at Gneisenaustraße 18 (two blocks north of Sand Island, now gen. Józefa Bema Street). The baptismal sponsors were the Breslau Restaurateur Paul Röscher and the Drechslerfrau Ida Röscher.

Birth of daughter Else Martha Thum, 1896

Else Martha Thum was born on the 6th of September in 1896, and baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 17th of September in 1896. The baby's parents were listed as the Arbeiter Paul Thum and his wife Marie (née Sternitzke) Thum. They lived at Weißenbergerstraße 2 (now Słowiańska Street) at that time. The baptismal sponsors were: Fräulein Bertha Sternitzke from Breslau and Fräulein Auguste Sternitzke from Breslau. Bertha and Auguste were sisters of Marie (née Sternitzke) Thum.

Second Marriage Ceremony, 1943

Paul Thum and his wife Marie (née Sternitzke) Thum, took part in a second marriage ceremony on their 50th wedding anniversary. The ceremony was at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 27th of July in 1943. At that time the family lived at Waterloostraße 27 (second floor). The church record referenced their original civil marriage record at Breslau Standesamt III, record number 535 in 1893.

Family of Paul Sternitzke and Christiane (née Herr) Sternitzke 1890 to 1898 City of Breslau

The life of Paul Sternitzke is known primarily through the births and death records on his sons. Paul Sternitzke was probably born around 1870. He married Christiane Herr before the stillborn death of their daughter in 1890.

Stillborn daughter Sternitzke (1890-1890)

The Drechsler (lathe operator for making wooden furniture) Paul Sternitzke reported that their unnamed daughter was stillborn. She died in their home on the 14th of May in 1890. Paul Sternitzke and his wife Christiane (née Herr) Sternitzke were both Protestants. They lived in Breslau at Trinitasstraße 6 (two blocks southwest from the old city moat). Trinitasstraße is now named Trójcy Świętej Street.

Birth of son Paul Richard Fritz Sternitzke, 1894

Paul Richard Fritz Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 30th of July in 1894. The Drechsler (lathe operator for making wooden furniture) Paul Sternitzke and his wife Christiane (née Herr) Sternitzke were both Protestants. They lived at Königgrätzerstraße 20 (7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Stanisława Wieckowskiego Street).

The baby was baptized at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 16th of August in 1894. The baptismal sponsors were the widow Pauline Leisner from Breslau and the Schneiderin (seamstress) Fräuline Louise Herr from Coburg.

Godmother Frau Sternitzke, 1896

On the 9th of February in 1896, the Schlossersfrau (wife of a mechanic) Frau Sternitzke (who lived at Königgrätzerstraße 20) was the godmother at St. Bernhardin Church for the baptism of Elfriede Martha Rosa Pusch. The baby was the daughter of the unmarried woman Rosina Pusch, the daughter of the deceased Maurer (mason) Christoph Pusch from Stabelwitz.

Breslau Address Book, 1897

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Schlosser (mechanic) Paul Sternitzke as living at Königgrätzerstraße 20 IV (fourth floor). That address was 7 blocks east of the Main Train Station. It is now Stanisława Więckowskiego Street.

Birth and Death of son Otto Wilhelm Karl Sternitzke (1898-1898)

Otto Wilhelm Karl Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 18th of November in 1898. The birth record shows that his parents, the Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Paul Sternitzke and his wife Christiane (née Herr) Sternitzke, were both Protestants who lived at Leuthenstraße 60 (now Litomska Street, about 7 blocks northwest of the old city walls). The father signed his name as Paul Sternitzke.

1898

A handwritten note on the birth record indicates the baby Otto Wilhelm Karl Sternitzke died in 1898, as recorded on death record number 2812 of 1898 at the Breslau registry office Standes-Amt I. The civil death record number 2812 was completed and signed by the baby's mother, Frau Christiane (née Herr) Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Leuthenstraße 60. The death record listed the baby's name as Karl Sternitzke who died on the 30th of December in 1898 at the age of 6 weeks old. The father's name was listed as the Schlosser Karl Sternitzke. Perhaps the father's name was Karl Paul Sternitzke. The death and burial register book for the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau listed the date of death of the Schlossersohn Karl Sternitzke as the 30th of December in 1898. The burial record listed the child's age as 1 month and 19 days. The child was buried on the 2nd of January in 1899 at the city cemetery in the Gräbschen suburb (southwest from the old city walls).

Family of Julius Sternitzke and Auguste (née Ziebe) Sternitzke 1894 to 1928 City of Breslau

Ernst Julius Sternitzke was born in 1867. He was probably born at Baschkow in Posen. He was the son of Carl Sternitzke and Johanna (née Dickert) Sternitzke. Ernst Julius Sternitzke married Pauline Auguste Ziebe at Zduny in Posen in 1893. She was born in 1863, the daughter of Ferdinand Ziebe and Pauline (née Kunze) Ziebe. See the Birth and Marriage of Carl Sternitzki, 1827 Nadstawen and 1857 Jutroschin.

In 1894, the Barbier und Frieseur (barber and hairdresser) Julius Sternitzke and Auguste (née Ziebe) Sternitzke were Protestants who lived at Scheitnigerstraße 15 (now Szczytnicka Street, two blocks east of St. John the Baptist Cathedral).

According to the birth record, their daughter, Pauline Auguste Gertrud Sternitzke was born at Breslau around 2am on the 28th of September in 1894. Her baptism record (dated the 14th of October in 1894) listed her as Gertrud Pauline Auguste Sternitzke and listed her birthdate as the 29th of September in 1894. Her parents were listed as the Barbier Julius Sternitzke and Auguste (née Ziebe) Sternitzke at Scheitnigerstraße 15. The godparents were the unmarried woman Elvira Sternitzke from Wohlau, the Kammerjungster Emilia Ziebis from Berlin and the Machinistensfrau Emilia Pfeiffer who lived in Breslau at Gräbschener Straße.

On the 20th of March in 1892, the Barbier und Frieseur (barber and hairdresser) Julius Sternitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Louise Bertha Zimpel, the daughter of the Metallschleifer (metal cutter) August Zimple and Pauline (née Trzeziok) Zimple.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Barbier Jul. Sternitzke as having his business at Scheitnigerstraße 15 on the ground floor, two blocks east of the St. John the Baptist's Cathedral, he lived at Scheitnigerstraße 29a on the fourth floor.

The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Barbier und Friseur (barber and hairdresser) Julius Sternitzke as having his business at Scheitnigerstraße 15 (ground floor). He lived at Scheitnigerstraße 16 on the third floor.

The Friseurwittwe (widow of a barber) Auguste Ziche was listed in the Breslau address books from 1916, 1918, 1923, 1926, 1927 and 1928 as living at Kopischstraße 64.

Marriage and Family of Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke 18 October 1894 to 1937 City of Breslau

Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke (1865-1936) was born at Breslau on the 31st of December in 1865. He was the son of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke from Breslau. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau. In legal documents Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke was identified as Oscar Sternitzke. See the above discussion of the December 1890 wedding of Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke.

Marriage of Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 1894

On the 18th of October in 1894, Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke married Bertha Agnes Auguste Schael (Schäl) at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. Both the bride and the groom were Protestants. Oskar was employed as a Fleischer (butcher) and lived at Heinrichstraße 10 in Breslau (now Henryka Brodatogo Street, 2 blocks north of the University Bridge across the Oder River). This was the same address Oskar lived at (with his brother Heinrich) in 1890, when Oskar was a Droschkenführer (coach driver). Oskar's parents were listed as deceased on the marriage record.

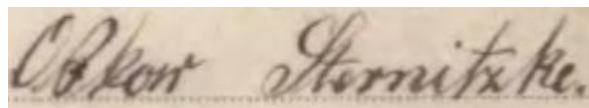

Bertha Agnes Auguste Schael was born on the 5th of June in 1866. She was the daughter of the Pfefferküchlers (gingerbread bakers) Karl Schäl and Emilia (née Langner) Schäl from Breslau. According to the civil marriage record, Bertha was living at Ursulinerstraße 9 (one block south of the University of Breslau, now Uniwersytecka Street). The marriage record from the St. Elisabeth Church listed her address as Sonnenstraße 27 (now Iwana Pawłowa Street, two blocks southwest from the old city moat). Bertha's parents were listed as deceased on the civil marriage record.

Witnesses at the 1894 wedding included a 30-year-old Droschkenkutscher (carriage driver) named August Gottwald, living in Breslau at Mehlgasse 44, and a 35 year old Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) named Karl May who was living in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 50b. Karl May was married to Minna (née Sternitzke) May who was a sister of the groom Oskar Sternitzke. Karl and Minna lived at Matthiasstraße 50 according to the 1893 and 1894 birth records of their children. Karl May was also a witness at the 1890 wedding of Oskar Sternitzke's brother Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke (who also was a son of Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna Spiller).

Birth and Death of daughter Emma Anna Clara Sternitzke (1895-1895)

Oskar Sternitzke and Bertha (née Schäl) Sternitzke were the parents of Emma Anna Clara Sternitzke, who was born at Breslau on the 4th of July in 1895. Their address was listed in 1895 as Ursulinerstraße 9 (one block south of the University of Breslau, now Uniwersytecka Street), which was Bertha's address on their 1894 marriage record. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates the baby Emma died in 1895, and her death was recorded on the civil death record number 1731. The St. Elisabeth Church death record book shows that Emma Sternitzke, the 2 days old daughter of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Sternitzke, died on the 6th of July in 1894, and was buried at the Gräbschen village cemetery on the 9th of July of 1895. The church record also shows the family lived at Ursulinerstraße 9 at that time. Below is Oskar's signature from the 1895 birth record of his daughter Emma Anna Clara Sternitzke.

Birth of son Wilhelm Oskar Paul Sternitzke, 1897

Their son Wilhelm Oskar Paul Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 19th of March in 1897. The Droschkenführer (carriage driver) Carl Richard Oskar Sternitzke and Bertha Agnes Auguste (née Schäl) Sternitzke lived at Ursulinerstraße 8 (one block south of the University of Breslau, now Uniwersytecka Street). They were both Protestants. The baptism record for Wilhelm Oskar Paul Sternitzke listed his father as a Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner). Bertha's maidenname was spelled Schael. The baptismal sponsors were the Droschkenbesitzer Frau Johanne Sternitzke, the Droschkenbesitzer August Knauer and the Köchin (cook) Bertha Brauke.

Wilhelm Sternitzke (who was born at Breslau on the same day as Wilhelm Oscar Paul Sternitzke) served in the German Army during the First World War. He was lightly wounded on the 30th of March in 1917.

Birth and Military Service of son Max Karl Ernst Sternitzke, 1898 & 1917

Their son Max Karl Ernst Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 17th of July in 1898. The Droschkenführer Oscar Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Schael) Sternitzke still lived at Ursulinerstraße 8.

Max Sternitzke served in the German Military during the First World War. A military casualty report listed him as lightly wounded on the 31st of October in 1917.

Birth and Marriage of daughter
Frieda Emma Minna Sternitzke, 1899 & 1923

Another daughter Frieda Emma Minna Sternitzke was born on the 7th of September in 1899. Oscar's occupation was listed as a Droschkenführer (coach driver) and as a Droschkenkutscher (carriage driver) on the 1899 baptism and birth records. Their address was Ursulinerstraße 8 on both the birth and baptism records.

In 1923, Frida Emma Minna Sternitzke was living in Breslau at Frankfurter Straße 127. She married the Kaufmann (merchant) Kurt Gustav Artur Hoppe at the city of Breslau on the 24th of December in 1923. He lived in Breslau at Posener Straße 23. Kurt was born at Oppeln on the 8th of July in 1900. Their marriage was originally recorded as marriage record number 1217 at the Breslau Standesamt I and it was copied as marriage record number 290 at the Oppeln Standesamt.

The wedding witnesses were the 52 years of Aufseher (supervisor) Franz Warzecha, and the 41 years old Klempner (plumber) Karl Victor. Franz Warzecha live at Königlich Neudorf in Oppeln County. Karl Victor lived at Gieselstraße 2 in the city of Oppeln.

Birth of son Paul Oskar Richard Sternitzke, 1901

Their son Paul Oskar Richard Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 24th of February in 1901. Oskar (the father) was listed as a Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) on the baptism record. Bertha Sternitzke the Droschkenbesitzerfrau was listed as the godmother. Oscar Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Schäl) Sternitzke still lived at Ursulinerstraße 8.

Birth of daughter Hedwig Klara Mina Sternitzke, 1903

Oskar and Berta had a third daughter, Hedwig Klara Mina Sternitzke, who was born on the 23rd of February in 1903. Oscar was identified as the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke on the 1903 birth record, and they lived at Schießwerderstraße 44 (about 6 blocks northwest of the University Bridge, now Kurkowa Street).

Birth of son Oskar Sternitzke, 1904

Another son, named Oskar Sternitzke was born on the 26th of July in 1904. Oskar (the father) was a Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) at that time, and the family lived at Berliner-Chaussee 109, near the Pöpelwitz suburb about two miles northwest from the old city gate, Berliner-Chaussee is now Legnicka Street.

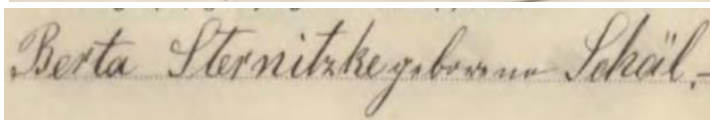

Oskar Sternitzke was baptized at St. Barbara Church on the 3rd of August in 1904. His parents were listed as the Droschkenbesitzer Oskar Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Schäl) Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsor was the Hebamme (midwife) Auguste Hudala from Breslau.

Birth and Death of daughter Klara Sternitzke, 1906

On the 12th of May in 1906, Oscar and Bertha Sternitzke had another daughter, Klara Sternitzke. Klara Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 13th of June in 1906. The Ehefrau Berta Sternitzke (probably the baby's mother) was listed as the only baptismal sponsor. Klara died at the age of ¼ year old on the 28th of August in 1906. At the time of Klara's birth and death, Oscar was still a Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner), but the family was living at Promnitzstraße 56 (about 2 miles northwest from the old city walls, now Białowieska Street). Oscar signed the birth record as Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke (shown below). The death record was signed by her mother, Berta Sternitzke geboren Schäl (shown below).

Wedding witness Oskar Sternitzke, 1903

In 1903, the 37 years old) Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Oskar Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke. At that time, Oskar lived in Breslau at Schießwerderstraße 44 (6 blocks northwest from the University Bridge, now Kurkowa Street). The signature on the 1903 record (shown below) looks very close to the 1895 signature of Carl Richard Oscar Sternitzke on the birth record of Emma Anna Clara Sternitzke. See the Marriage and Family of Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke, 13 October 1903 to 1913 City of Breslau.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1937

The Breslau city address books have some related information regarding this family. The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage cab owner) Oskar Sternitzke as a resident at Promnitzstraße 55 II (about 2 miles northwest from the old city walls, now Białowieska Street). In 1915 and 1918, a Droschkenkutscher (cab driver) named Oskar Sternitzke was living at Frankfurter Straße 127 II (now Legnicka Street), in a far northwest section of Breslau near the Pöpelwitz train station.

Oskar Sternitzke was listed as a Fleischer (a butcher, which was also listed as his occupation on his marriage record) who lived at Frankfurter Straße 127 II address in 1916, 1923, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1931 and 1934. The 1926 Breslau address book listed the Fleischer (butcher) Oskar Stanitzka, who lived in Breslau at Frankfurter Straße 127. The sort by addresses in that book listed Oskar as O. Sternitzke, Fleischer at Frankfurter Straße 127. The 1937 address book listed a retired Oskar Sternitzke at that address, and no butchers named Oskar Sternitzke were listed in that year. Karl Richard Oscar Sternitzke would have been around 70 years old in 1934, so it is very likely that these records were for the same person. His sons would have been too young to have retired in 1937. The 1937 address book was probably based on research that was performed in 1936 (which explains why he was listed after his death in 1936)

Burial of Oskar Sternitzke (1866-1936)

The alphabetical list of burials at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen from 1934 to 1941 listed the burial of the former Fleischer (butcher) Oskar Sternitzke. He was 70 years old when he died. He was buried on the 2nd of November in 1936.

and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke

Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke (1863-c.1927) was born at Briesche between the 12th of January and the 4th of May in 1863. That range was calculated from his ages (35 and 46 years old) in marriage records from 1898 and 1910 (see below). He died around 1927, based on an analysis of the Breslau address books (see below.) He was the son of Gottlieb Sternitzke (1832-1911) and Anna Christiane (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke (1833-1910). See the Birth and Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1832 to 1877 Briesche.

Bertha Luise Anna Klara Hartmann (c.1870-1943) was born around 1870. That year of birth is based on her age (73 years old) when she died in 1943. The death registry book for the St. Elisabeth Church listed the death of the Bäckermeister-Wittwe (widow of a master baker) Berta (née Hartmann) Sternitzke in 1943. She was buried at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen on the 20th of September in 1943 at field IV, plot number 351.

The history of the Bäckermeister Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and his wife Bertha Luise Anna Klara née Hartmann can be pieced together from their 1896 marriage record, the birth and baptism records of their children, the death record for his mother Anna Christiana (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, from Breslau address books and from the two marriage records that identified Heinrich Sternitzke as a witness. There is also a baptism record from 1889 that identified Heinrich as a baptismal sponsor.

The Bäcker Heinrich Sternitzke from Lissa (probably Breslau-Lissa) was a baptismal sponsor for Richard Fritz Reinhold Sternitzke who was baptized on the 4th of October in 1889 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. Richard's mother, an unmarried cook named Otilie Sternitzke lived at Mehlgasse 17a at that time. Otilie was the daughter of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzke who lived in Breslau. The baptismal other sponsor was the Dienstmädchen Bertha Sternitzke. Otilie and Bertha were sisters of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke.

Breslau Address Books 1884 to 1897

The Bäckermeister August Schierse was listed as the owner of Reuschestraße 10 in the 1884 to 1887 Breslau address books. August operated a business (probably a bakery) and he lived on the first floor. A Kaufmann (merchant) named Mr. Hartmann also had a business on the first floor, and he lived on the second floor. Mr. Hartmann may have been the father of Bertha Luise Anna Klara Hartmann.

A Bäcker named Heinrich Sternitzke lived at Matthiasstraße 29c in 1884 and 1886. This address is now on Jedności Narodowej Street, about three blocks northeast of the University Bridge. Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke would have been 21 and 23 years old during those years.

A Bäcker named Heinrich Sternitzke lived at Hirschstraße 69 in 1887. Hirschstraße is now Mikołaja Sępa-Szarzyńskiego Street, about two blocks northeast from the Botanical Gardens.

According to the 1895 Breslau address book, a Bäcker named H. Sternitzke lived at Reuschestraße 10 in 1895. Reuschestraße is now Ruska Street. Heinrich may have worked for the master baker August Schierse at that time.

In 1897, the Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke (a Protestant) lived at Reuschestraße 3 in Breslau. He was one of the baptismal sponsors for Fritz Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzke on the 1st of January in 1897. The baptism record identified the parents as the Lohnarbeiter Hermann Sternitzke from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke. Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941) was the brother of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke. Heinrich Sternitzke may have been the same Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke who was a baptismal sponsor for other children of Hermann Sternitzke. If that is true then he lived at Breslau in 1893 and at Löwen (in Brieg County) in 1894. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1891 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke as having a business on the ground floor at Reuschestraße 3. The address book shows that he lived on the first floor at the rear of the building.

Marriage of Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha Hartmann, 1896

The Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke married Bertha Hartmann (from Breslau) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of August in 1896 (church record number 150). According to the church record, their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I on the 27th of August in 1896 (civil record number 672).

Birth of son Paul Willy Erich Sternitzke, 1897

On the 9th of July in 1897, the Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke lived at Reuschestraße 3, according to the birth record of their son Paul Willy Erich Sternitzke. Heinrich and Bertha were both identified as Protestants. The child was baptized on the 1st of August in 1897 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The baptism record listed the baby's name as Willy Erich Paul Sternitzke. The baptismal sponsors were the baby's uncle the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke, the Handschulmacher Paul Köhler, the widow Klara Hartmann and the baby's aunt Bertha (née Sternitzke) Sura. Heinrich's signature from the birth record is shown as:

Wedding Witness Heinrich Sternitzke, 1898

The 35 years old Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke (who lived at Reuschestraße 3) was one of the witnesses at the 4 May 1898 wedding of the Breslau Steinsetzer (cobblestone street paver) Karl Wilhelm August Bartsch and Pauline Louise Auguste Eitner. This would place the birth of Heinrich Sternitzke at around 1863. August Bartsch was born at Lossen in Trebnitz County on the 24th of September in 1867, the son of Gottlieb Bartsch and Elisabeth (née Runge) Bartsch. Gottlieb Bartsch died at Mahlen in Trebnitz County prior to the wedding. Elisabeth Bartsch was still living at Mahlen in 1898. Below is a copy of Heinrich's signature from the marriage record:

Birth of son Max Heinrich Paul Sternitzke, 1898

Max Heinrich Paul Sternitzke was born on the 4th of September in 1898 at Breslau. His parents, the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke were still living at Reuschestraße 3 at that time. The child was baptized on the 18th of September in 1898 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were the baby's uncle the Schmied (smith) Simon Sura, the baby's uncle the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and the widow Klara Hartmann.

Birth and Death of son Heinrich Karl Julius Sternitzke (1899-1900)

On the 7th of October in 1899 Heinrich Karl Julius Sternitzke was born at Breslau, the son of the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke. The family still lived at Reuschestraße 3 at that time. The child was baptized on the 22nd of October in 1899 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were Martha Hildebrandt, the baby's uncle the Weichensteller (railroad switchman) Hermann Sternitzke and the baby's uncle the Schlosser (mechanic) Simon Sura.

A handwritten note on the birth record indicates the baby Heinrich Sternitzke died in 1900 at Breslau, as recorded on death record number 607 of 1900 at Standes-Amt I. This is confirmed by reviewing the actual civil death record, signed by the Bäckermeister (masterbaker) Heinrich Sternitzke (senior). The St. Elisabeth Church death record also confirmed the civil records. At the time of the baby's death, the family lived at Reuschestraße 10. Heinrich (junior) died at home at the age of 5 months old, on 6 March 1900. He was buried at the Gräbschen Cemetery on the 9th of March.

The dates of these two events are important because they show a major event occurred between October 1899 and March 1900 which resulted in the family to move from Reuschestraße 3 to Reuschestraße 10. Reuschestraße Nr. 10 was previously owned by the Bäckermeister Schiense (who may have died or retired in 1900).

Birth of son Walther Julius Karl Sternitzke, 1901

Walther Julius Karl Sternitzke was born on the 14th of February in 1901. His parents, the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke and Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke lived at Reuschestraße 10. The baby was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 6th of March in 1901. His baptismal sponsors were Fräulein Maria Hildebrandt and the widow Clara Hartmann.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Emma Klara Sternitzke, 1902

On the 17th of May in 1902, Gertrud Emma Klara Sternitzke was born at Breslau, the daughter of the Bäckermeister (masterbaker) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke. The parents were listed as Protestants who lived at Reuschestraße 10. The father's signature from the birth record is shown below. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Gertrud Sternitzke was married in 1927, as recorded on marriage record number 494 of 1927 at Breslau Standesamt I.

Gertrud Emma Klara Sternitzke was baptized on the 28th of May in 1902 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The baptism sponsors were: the Strickerin (knitter) Bertha Eichelmann and the Handschuhmachersfrau (wife of a glove maker) Emma Köhler.

Birth and Death of son Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke (1904-1905)

On the 7th of August in 1904, Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke was born at Breslau, the son of the Bäckermeister Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Berta Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke. He was baptized on the 17th of August in 1904 at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The widow Klara Hartmann was his godmother. The parents were Protestants and lived at Reuschestraße 10. Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke (junior) died at home at Reuschestraße 10 on the 14th of August in 1905.

Death of Rosina Hubrich, 1906

On the 19th of March in 1906, the Bäckermeister (masterbaker) Heinrich Sternitzke reported the death of Rosina Hubrich. She was an unmarried Rentenempfängerin (pensioner) who lived in his building at Reuschestraße 10. She died on the 18th of March in 1906, at the age of 75 and ½ years old. The parents of Rosina Hubrich were not known, but her birthplace was listed as Illnisch in Neumark County. A village named Illnisch-Romolkwitz in Neumark County was renamed Ramfeld (in 1939), and is now known as Ramultowice.

Wedding Witness Heinrich Sternitzke, January 1910

On the 12th of January in 1910, the 46 years old Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke, who was a Breslau resident living at Reuschestraße 10, was a witness at the wedding of Georg Ernst Joseph Hildebrant and Martha Pauline Pietsch. Heinrich's signature from that marriage record is copied here.

1910

Death of mother Anna Christiana (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, March 1910

Anna Christiana (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, the wife of the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke died at their home at Bismarkstraße 31 on the 21st of March in 1910. She died at the age of 76 years and 11 months old. She was a Protestant. Bismarkstraße 31 is now Bolestawa Chrobrego Street, one block south from the Odertor train station and one block east of the train station to Trebnitz.

She was born at Peterwitz in Trebnitz County around the 21st of April in 1833. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Christian Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Fabische) Sternitzke, who both died at Peterwitz. See the Family of Johann Christian Sternitzke, 1816 Trebnitz, 1821 & 1833 Peterwitz.

Her death was reported by her son the Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Rauschestraße 10.

Birth of daughter Hildegard Bertha Klara Sternitzke, July 1910

Hildegard Bertha Klara Sternitzke (1910- after 1943) was born on the 25th of July in 1910. Her parents, the Bäckermeister Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and his wife Berta Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke were still living at Reuschestraße 10. Heinrich Sternitzke signed the birth record.

1910

A note on the civil birth record for Hildegard Sternitzke shows her daughter Gertrud Berta Klara Sternitzke was born on the 9th of February in 1943 (see below). The birth of Gertrud Berta Klara Sternitzke was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt IV, record number 493 in 1943.

Hildegard was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 3rd of August in 1910. Her father Heinrich Sternitzke was listed as the godfather.

Birth of granddaughter Gertrud Berta Klara Sternitzke, 1943

On the 9th of February in 1943, Hildegard Bertha Klara Sternitzke (1910- after 1943) gave birth to Gertrud Berta Klara Sternitzke. The baby was baptized on the 7th March in 1943 at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church. The baptismal sponsors were Frau Gertrud Trautmann (a Protestant), the widow Bertha Sternitzke (a Protestant) and Frau Gertrud Geschwinde (a Catholic). Hildegard was employed as a kaufmännische Angestellte (commercial clerk) and lived at Reuschestraße 10 with her mother the widow Bertha Sternitzke.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1943 and the Death of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke c.1927

The Breslau address books from 1914 and 1915 listed the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke as the owner of Reuschestraße 10, with the bakery on the ground floor and living on the third floor of that building. The bakery at Reuschestraße 10 was previously owned by the Bäckermeister August Schierse according to the 1884 and the 1887 address books. The Kaufmann (merchant) Hartmann also had a business on the ground floor, and lived on the second floor. The 1914 and 1915 address books also listed the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke as the owner of the building at Höfchenstraße 45. That address is now Zielińskiego 45, and it is about one mile southwest from the Sternitzke bakery at Reuschestraße 10 (now Ruska 10).

The Breslau address book from 1918 listed the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke as the owner of Reuschestraße 10, with the bakery on the ground floor and living on the third floor of that building. The 1918 address book sorted by address listed his residence on the first floor. He was still listed as the owner of the building at Höfchenstraße 45 in 1918.

The Breslau address book from 1923 listed the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke as the owner of Reuschestraße 10, with the bakery on the ground floor and the family lived on the first floor of that building. The 1923 address book listed the Bäckermeister Ewald Kulms as the owner of the building at Höfchenstraße 45.

The 1926 Breslau address book listed the Bäckermeister Heinrich Sternitzke as the owner of Reuschestraße 10, with the bakery on the ground floor and the family lived one floor up on the first floor of that building.

The 1927 Breslau address book shows some interesting changes occurred at the time the data for that book was collected (probably in 1926). Perhaps different sections of the book were completed at different times in that year, or were completed by different people. The sort by last names did not list Heinrich Sternitzke, but it listed Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke as the proprietor of the Bäckerei (bakery) at Reuschestraße 10. The sortings by address and by business type listed the Bäckermeister H. Sternitzke at that address. The sort by address listed him as the Eigenthümer (proprietor) of the business and occupying the ground floor and the first floor. Bertha was not listed as a widow, but perhaps a health problem prevented Heinrich from running the bakery.

The Bäckermeister Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke died between the data collections for the 1927 and 1928 Breslau address books. The data for the 1928 book was probably collected in 1927. The 1928 Breslau address book listed the Bäckermeister witwe (master baker's widow) Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke as the owner of the building at Reuschestraße 10. The sorts by addresses and by businesses listed her as the widow B. Sternitzke. The Bäckermeister A. Geschwinde lived on the rear of the building (Hinterhaus) on the first floor.

The 1931 and 1934 Breslau address books listed the Bäckermeister witwe (master baker's widow) Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke as living at the Reuschestraße 10. The sort by address listed the widow B. Sternitzke as living at that address, but the Eigenthümer (proprietors and owner) of the bakery were listed as the Sternitzke'sche Erben (Sternitzke heirs). The Bäckermeister Alois Geschwinde lived on the rear of the building (Hinterhaus) on the first floor. The 1934 address book also stated that while the Sternitzke heirs owned the business, the widow Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke was the Verwalter (administrator).

The 1935 Breslau address book is confusing because it listed Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke as the widow of a master baker living at Reuschestraße 10, but it also listed a Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke who was living and the proprietor at Reuschestraße 10. This must have been an error in the sort by names. The sort by addresses matched the 1934 address book, with the Sternitzke'sche Erben (Sternitzke heirs) listed as the proprietors and Bertha as the administrator.

The 1937 Breslau address book was correct in the sort by names – it only listed the Bäckermeister witwe Bertha (née Hartmann) Sternitzke as living at Reuschestraße 10. The sort by addresses correctly listed the Sternitzke'sche Erben (Sternitzke heirs) as the proprietors, and listed the widow B. Sternitzke as living at that address, but incorrectly listed the administrator as the widow B. Glanitzke. No members of the Glanitzke family were found in the sort by names, but the Glanitzky family name was found in unrelated records from Posen.

The 1941 Breslau address book could not be downloaded for a detailed review. A transcription available on an Internet web page listed the widow Bertha Sternitzke as living at Reuschestraße 10.

The 1943 Breslau address book listed the widow Bertha Sternitzke as living at Reuschestraße 10. The Eigenthümer (proprietor) was listed as the Sternitzke'sche Erben (Sternitzke heirs). The Bäckermeister Alois Geschwinde still lived on the rear of the building (Hinterhaus) on the first floor.

Death of Berta (née Hartmann) Sternitzke (c.1870-1943)

The death registry book for the St. Elisabeth Church listed the death of the Bäckermeister-Wittwe (widow of a master baker) Berta (née Hartmann) Sternitzke in 1943. She died at the age of 73 years old, so she was born around 1870.

The 1941-1944 alphabetical register for burials at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen shows Berta (née Hartmann) Sternitzke was the 73 years old widow of a Bäckermeister. She was buried on the 20th of September in 1943 at field IV, plot number 351.

Marriage of Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke October 1895 City of Breslau

Karl Friedrich August Paul was born on the 11th of December in 1858 at Groß Weigelsdorf in Oels County. He was the son of the Tagearbeiter Karl Paul and Dorothea (née Bautz) Paul from Groß Weigelsdorf. Groß Weigelsdorf is about six miles east of Breslau. It is now known as Kielczów (Poland). In 1895, the Fabrikarbeiter (factory laborer) Karl Friedrich August Paul was a Protestant who still lived at Groß Weigelsdorf.

Karl Friedrich August Paul married Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke on the 17th of October in 1895 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke was born at Trebnitz on the 18th of December in 1872, the daughter of Josef Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. Anna was a Protestant, employed as a Dienstmädchen (maid servant) and according to the civil marriage record she lived at Schweidnitzer Strasse 8 in Breslau (now Świdnicka Street, 1.5 blocks from the southeast corner of the Ring and two blocks north of St. Dorothea Church). The church marriage record listed the bride's address as Bismarckstraße 2 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Bolesława Chrobrego Street). See Chapter 2, Village of Jeschütz in Trebnitz County: the Families of Gottfried and Johann Josef Sternitzke, 1866 Jeschütz to 1943 Breslau.

The civil marriage record shows the bride's mother had died at Kloch-Ellguth (three miles northeast of Trebnitz) before the 1895 wedding. The confirmation record of Anna Auguste Pauline Sternitzke showed that Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke died before the 26th of September in 1886. Her father was an Arbeiter (laborer) who lived in Breslau at the time of her wedding. Her father Josef Sternitzke was one of the witnesses listed on the marriage record. He was listed as a 49 years old Arbeiter who lived at Bismarckstraße 2. The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Joseph Sternitzke as a resident who lived at Bismarckstraße 2 Keller (cellar, now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks north of the University Bridge, one block from the main road to Trebnitz on Breslau's north side). That was the same address listed for the bride on the church marriage record. It was also the same address listed for the Joseph's son in 1903. See the Marriage and Family of Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke, 1903 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The other witness to the wedding was Paul Thum, a 35 years old Arbeiter who lived in Breslau at Weißenburger Straße 2 (now Słowiańska Street, 5 blocks north of Sand Island and one block east of main road to Trebnitz). Paul Thum married Martha Maria Wilhelmine Sternitzke in 1893, the sister of Auguste Pauline Anna Sternitzke. Paul Thum and Josef Sternitzke were also witnesses at a third sister's wedding, Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke in 1898 (see below).

Death of Klara (née Hartmann) Kage 2 December 1895 City of Breslau

The widow Klara (née Hartmann) Kage died on the 2nd of December in 1895, at the age of 79 years and 2 months old. She was born around the 2nd of October in 1816. She was a Protestant and a resident of Breslau at Münzstrasse 11 (one block east of the Neumarkt, now Wincentego Kraińskiego Street one block east of plac Nowy Targ).

Klara was born at Görsdorf bei Jena. She married the Kaufmann (merchant) Karl Kage who died at Breslau before Klara's death. She was the daughter of the Görsdorf Pastor Gottlob Hartmann and Caroline (née Sternitzky) Hartmann, who had died at Görsdorf before Klara's death. Gottlob and Caroline (née Sternitzky) Hartmann were probably married before 1816, so they were born around 1786.

There are several villages named Görsdorf in Germany. The Görsdorf closest to Jena (in Thuringia) is about 50 miles southwest of Jena. The Görsdorf in Saxony is about 60 miles southeast of Jena. It is possible that the hospital clerk who completed Klara's death record made a mistake, and Klara was born at the Görsdorf in Brandenburg where Friedrich Ferdinand Franz Sternitzky (1758-1820) owned a Rittergut (knightly estate). Caroline Sternitzky may have been one of his daughters. See Chapter 16, Brandenburg, Prussia: the Family of Friedrich Ferdinand Franz Sternitzky, 1797 to 1901 Brandenburg, Germany.

Family of Ida (née Stanitzke/Sternitzke) Menzel 1895 to 1897 City of Breslau

The Diener (servant) Julius Menzel and his wife Ida (née Stanitzke) Menzel were both Protestants. Ida's maiden name was listed as Sternitzke on the death record for her son in 1896, and on the baptism record of her daughter in 1897. In 1895, they lived at Tauentzienstraße 50a (one block north of the main train station, now Tadeusza Kościuszki Street).

Birth and Death of son Karl Berthold Oswald Menzel (1895-1896)

Karl Berthold Oswald Menzel was born on the 9th of December in 1895. He was baptized at St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 12th of January in 1896. The baptism record listed his parents as Julius Menzel and Ida (née Stanitzke) Menzel. They were both Protestant.

The baptismal sponsors were Frau Louise Alexander, Sergeant Oswald Glied and the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Marie Werner. Sergeant Glied was a member of the Grenadier Regiment No. 11 at Breslau. The baptism record listed the civil birth record for Karl Menzel as number 5102 in 1895 as the Breslau Standesamt II.

The Hausdiener (house servant) Julius Menzel reported the death of his son Carl Menzel. The child died in the family home at Tauentzienplatz 11 on the 21st of March in 1896. He was 3 months old. The child's mother was identified on the civil death record as Ida (née Sternitzke) Menzel. Tauentzienplatz is now named plac Tadeusza Kościuszki. It is one block south from the old city moat.

Birth of daughter Frieda Emilie Louise Menzel, 1896

Frieda Emilie Louise Menzel was born at Breslau on the 26th of December in 1896. The Hausdiener (house servant) Julius Menzel and his wife Ida (née Sternitzke) Menzel were both Protestants and residents of Breslau. Their daughter was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 3rd of January in 1897. The baptismal sponsors were the Schiffer (shipper) Gustav Heintke from Auras and the Plätterin (ironer) Maria Werner from Breslau. Both sponsors were Catholic. The baptism record listed the civil birth record for Frieda as number 2780 dated the 31st of December in 1896 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

Family of the Kaufmann Karl Sternitzke and Amalie (née Blasek) Sternitzke 1895 to 1926 City of Breslau

Karl Sternitzke married Amalie Blasek on the 21st of August in 1895 at Breslau. Karl Sternitzke was 46 years old, so he was born around 1849. His mother was listed on the marriage record as Rosina Gailich. The bride was 35 years old, so she was born around 1860. Her father was listed as Gottlieb Blasek.

The Kaufmann (merchant) Karl Sternitzke and his wife Amalie (née Blasek) Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Sonnenstraße 2 in 1895. They lived two blocks southwest of the old city moat. Sonnenstraße is now Pawłowa Iwana Street.

Stillborn Sternitzke child, 1895

On the 24th of December in 1895, a midwife named Theresia Wiese reported the stillborn child of the Kaufmann (merchant) Karl Sternitzke (a Catholic) and his wife Amalie (née Blasek) Sternitzke (a Protestant). Theresia Wiese lived at Matthiasstraße 106 (now Jedności Narodowej Street, about 7 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). That was the same address as Karl May and Minna (née Sternitzke) May in 1896.

Breslau Address Books 1914, 1915, 1916 & 1926

The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Kaufmann (merchant) Karl Sternitzke and the Posamentierwarenhandlung (braided decorations merchant) Amalie Sternitzke, as both having living at on the ground floor of Bergmannstraße 14. That building was north of the University and outside the old city walls. Bergmannstraße is now Zdzisława Dębickiego Street. They were both listed in the alphabetical sort of last names and the sort by street addresses. Amalie Sternitzke was also listed in the business directory under Posamentierwaren Handlungen.

The 1915 and 1916 Breslau address books only listed the Kaufmann Karl Sternitzke as still living at Bergmannstraße 14. He was not listed in the 1918 Breslau address book. The 1926 listed the Kaufmann Karl Sternitzke as still living at Bergmannstraße 14. He was not listed in the 1927 Amalie Sternitzke was not listed in these other books.

August Hermann Sternitzki married Anna Rosina Weber at Breslau on the 24st of January in 1896. He was an Arbeiter (laborer) and she was a Köchin (cook). August signed his name as Hermann Sternitzki (shown below). August Hermann's religion was listed on the marriage record as Altlutherische (Old Lutheran). Anna was a Evangelisch (Protestant). They lived in Breslau at Försterstraße 5 (now kardynała Mieczysława Ledóchowskiego, one block north of the Botanical Garden).

August Hermann Sternitzki was born at Domnowitz in Trebnitz County on the 2nd of June in 1870. He was the son of the Landwirth (farmer) Georg Sternitzki and his wife Rosina (née Reinsch) Sternitzki. The Domnowitz property transfer table in Book I, Chapter 9 shows a George Sternitzke purchased Häuslerstelle Nr. 63 (homestead) for 320 Reischsthalers in 1842.

That property was transferred to Anna Rosina (née Reinsch) Sternitzke in 1870, and in 1892 to Karl Meßner and his wife Pauline (née Sternitzke) Meßner.

Anna Rosina Weber was born on the 15th of October in 1866 at Eichgrund in Oels County. She was the daughter of the deceased Breslau Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Weber and Elsisabeth (née Strecker) Weber from Kreuzburg. Anna's older sister, Johanna Karoline Auguste Weber was born on the 10th of January in 1859 at Eichgrund. Karoline Weber was married to the Müller (miller) Johann Hermann Georg Sternitzki (1856-1939) who was a witness at this 1896 wedding. The Breslau Köchin (cook) Anna Weber was a baptismal sponsor for Georg Erdmann Wilhelm Sternitzki was born on the 6th of April in 1889. He was the son of the Altlutheran Müller (miller) Georg Sternitzki and the Protestant Caroline (née Weber) Sternitzki.

The witnesses at the 1896 wedding were: the 23 years old Buchbinder (book binder) Robert Jankowski (who lived in Breslau at Brigitten Strasse 14a), and the 39 years old Arbeiter Georg Sternitzki who lived at Bartschstraße 7 (now Barycka Street, one block north of the Botanical Gardens). Georg's signature from the marriage record is shown below. Georg Sternitzki was married to Karoline Weber, the bride's sister. The Müller Georg Sternitzki was also an Old Lutheran. His parents were the Stellenbesitzer Georg Sternitzki and Susanna (née Heller) Sternitzki from Domnowitz.

See the discussion in Book III, Chapter 1: the Brothers Wilhelm Sternitzki and Johann Hermann Georg Sternitzki and Johanna Karoline Augusta (née Weber) Sternitzki, 1878 to 1939 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Wallÿ Emma Anna Sternitzki, 1896

Wallÿ Emma Anna Sternitzki was born at Breslau on the 8th of December in 1896. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of January in 1897. Her father, the Arbeiter Hermann Sternitzki was listed as an Old Lutheran on the baptism record. Her mother, Anna (née Weber) Sternitzki, was listed as a Protestant. They lived at Waterloostraße 7. Waterloostraße 7 was about 4 blocks north of Sand Island, now Franklina Delano Rooseveltta Street. The baptismal sponsors were the Köchin (cook) Anna Roslin from Breslau and Fräulein Ernstine Weber from Breslau.

Deaths of August Hermann Sternitzki (1939) and Anna Rosina (née Weber) Sternitzki (1934)

A hand written note on their 1870 marriage record shows that the groom August Hermann Sternitzki died on the 10th of November in 1939. The note referenced the Sterbebuch (Death Record Book) record number 1676, dated the 14th of November in 1939, at Standes-Amt Breslau I. It also shows that the death of the bride Anna Rosina (née Weber) Sternitzki was recorded in record number 579 in 1934.

The Sozialrentner (pensioner) August Hermann Sternitzke died on the 10th of November in 1939, at the Krankenhospitals zu Allerheiligen in Breslau. He was a resident of Burgweide and lived at the address Hirtenweg 20. The director of the hospital reported his death. August Sternitzke was a widower when he died. The causes of death were listed on the death record as Arteriosklerose, Brand beider Füße und Intoxikation (arteriosclerosis, burns on both feet and intoxication).

Marriage of Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke and the Remarriage of his widow
Bertha (née Wolf) Sternitzke
12 February 1896 and 31 October 1904 City of Breslau

Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke (1868-1899) was born at Breslau on the 12th of February in 1868. He was the son of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna (née Cholewa) Sternitzke, who were both living at Breslau when Paul married in 1896. Johanna Cholewa was the second wife of Wilhelm Sternitzke. Wilhelm was a widower when he married Johanna Cholewa on the 1st of July in 1867 at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Marriages and Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Sternitzke, 25 January 1858 and 1 July 1867 City of Breslau.

The 1891 Breslau address book listed the Dreher (lathe worker) Paul Sternitzke who lived at Klosterstraße 44e I (first floor, 2 blocks east from the old city moat. Now Romualda Traugutta Street). This may have been Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke.

Marriage of Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke, February 1896

Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke married the widow Bertha (née Wolf) Giese at Breslau on the 12th of February in 1896. Their marriage record at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed the groom's names in a different order - as the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Gustav Karl Sternitzke. They were both Protestants. The groom signed the civil marriage record as Paul Sternitzke (shown below). In 1868, Paul was an Arbeiter (laborer) and lived at Heinrichstraße 10 now Henryka Brodatego Street, 3 blocks north of the University Bridge. This was the same address as his brothers Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke and Carl Richard Oscar Sternitzke in 1890, and where their father lived from 1897 until his death 1898. Bertha was the widow of a Mr. Giese who had also been employed as an Arbeiter (laborer). Bertha lived at Schrotgaße 13 (now Śrutowa Street, also about two blocks north of the University Bridge).

Bertha Wolf was born on the 23rd of June 1858, the daughter of the deceased Breslau residents Christian Wolf and Elisabeth (née Patzke) Wolf. Christian Wolf had been employed as a Maschinenheizer (boiler stoker) in Breslau. Bertha was born at Festenberg in Groß Wartenberg County (now Twardagora, Poland).

Witnesses at the 1896 wedding included the 32 years old Schühmacher (shoe maker) Carl Schinke who lived in Breslau at Am Wäldchen 13 (now Pomorska Street, about 3 blocks northwest of the University Bridge). The other witness was the groom's brother Carl Richard Oscar Sternitzke, who was listed as a 30 years old Droschkenführer (coach driver) named Oscar Sternitzke (see his signature on the 1896 marriage record). In 1896, Oscar was living at Ursulinerstraße 9 (one block south of the University of Breslau, now Uniwersytecka Street). This was the same address listed for Oscar's bride on their October 1894 marriage record. Oscar Sternitzke was also a witness at the wedding of his other brother Heinrich Robert Wilhelm Sternitzke, in December of 1890. Below are copies of Oscar's signature from the 1890 and 1896 weddings.

Baptismal Sponsor Paul Sternitzke, November 1896

Charlotte Martha Postleb was born at Breslau on the 28th of October in 1896. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 29th of November in 1896. Her parents, the Arbeiter Friedrich Postleb and his wife Ida (née Sternitzke) Postleb lived at Grosse Dreilindengasse 13. The baptismal sponsors were three residents of Breslau: Fräulein Anne Kaufmann, the Monteur Paul Postleb, and the Kutscher Paul Sternitzke. Paul Sternitzke and Ida (née Sternitzke) Postleb were probably cousins. She was the daughter of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Sternitzke as a resident at Schrotgasse 13 Parterre (ground floor, now Śrutowa Street, 2 blocks north of the University Bridge). Schrotgasse 13 was about ½ of a block south from his previous address at Heinrichstraße 10.

Death of Paul Sternitzke (1868-1899)

The Kutscher (coachman) Paul Sternitzke died on the 13th of February in 1899 at the age of 31 years old. The burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed his last residence was Schrotgasse 13. He was buried on the 15th of February in 1899. The burial record referenced his civil death record as number 472 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

Remarriage of Bertha (née Wolf) Sternitzke, 1904

Bertha (née Wolf) Sternitzke, the widow of the Arbeiter (laborer) Sternitzke remarried on the 31st of October in 1904. Her birth date, birth location and the names of Bertha's parents listed on the 1904 civil marriage record match the information listed on the record of her 1896 marriage to Gustav Carl Paul Sternitzke (shown above). In 1904, Bertha married the Schiffer (shipper) Heinrich Johann Gottfried Wunderlich. Bertha was identified as a Protestant on the civil marriage record, and Heinrich was identified as a Catholic. The address for both the bride and the groom was listed as Schießwerderstraße 53 (5 blocks northwest of the University Bridge, now Kurdowa Street). Heinrich was the son of the Arbeiter Franz Wunderlich and his wife Luise (née Berger) Wunderlich, who were both deceased and had lived at Breslau. The Geneteka genealogical database shows that they were married at the Erlöserkirche (Protestant Church of the Redeemer) in Breslau.

Witnesses at Bertha's 1904 wedding were the 59 years old Maler (painter) Ewald Schur and the 37 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Adolf Niebel. Ewald Schur lived in Breslau at Salzstraße 29 (on the north bank of the Oder, one block west from the University Bridge, now Wojciecha Cybulskiego Street). Alfred Niebel lived in Breslau at Schießwerderstraße 54, near the address of the bride and groom.

Marriage and Family of Selma Klara Emilie Constanze Sternitzke
29 February 1896 to 1901 City of Breslau

Selma Klara Emilie Constanze Sternitzke was born at Gross Ujeschütz on the 12th of August in 1874. She was the daughter of Ferdinand Sternitzke and his wife Emilie (née Labitzky) Sternitzke. They were Protestants. A miller named Ferdinand Sternitzke purchased Angerhaus (meadow house) Nr. 45 in Klein Ujeschütz in 1868.

Ferdinand Sternitzke was born at Gross Kainowe in 1839 and died in Breslau (at the age of 60 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old) on the 7th of February in 1900. He was the son of the Gross Kainowe farmer Friedrich Sternitzke and Christine (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke. A miller named Ferdinand Sternitzke purchased Angerhaus (meadow house) Nr. 45 in Klein Ujeschütz in 1868. At the time of Ferdinand's death in 1900, Ferdinand Sternitzke and Emilie (née Labitzke) Sternitzke lived at Hermannstraße 61 (2 blocks north of the Odertor Trainstation, now Emila Zegadłowicza Street). The widow Emilie (née Labitzke) Sternitzke died at Beuthen (in Beuthen County) on the 14th of February in 1905. Her death record shows her last residence was at Bahnhof Straße 4 in the city of Beuthen. She died at the Fürstbischöflichen Siechenhauses Robertusstift (hospital) at Beuthen.

In 1896, Selma Sternitzke and her parents were living in Breslau. Selma was a Nätherin (seamstress) and lived at Roßstraße 3 (now Juliana Ursyna Niemcewicza Street, 4 blocks northeast of the University Bridge). Her father, Ferdinand Sternitzke was employed as an Eisenbahn Arbeiter (railroad laborer). The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Ferd. Stanitzky as a resident of the Lischke-Haus at Oderthor (the location of the Oderthor train station). He lived on the Parterre (ground floor). This was near his address in 1900 (see below)

Selma Klara Emilie Konstanze Sternitzke married Karl Friedrich Paul Jaeckel (Jäckel) on the 29th of February in 1896 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestant, and according to the church record they both lived at Wilhelmsufur 2 (a side street off the Wilhelms Bridge (2 blocks northwest of the University Bridge, now a parking lot along the Oder River next to the Mieszcańska Street bridge). Karl Jäckel was employed as a Feuerwehrmann (firefighter). He was born on the 7th of July in 1866 at Breslau, the son of the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Karl Jäckel and his wife Louise (née Loer) Jäckel, who were deceased prior to the 1896 wedding and who had previously lived at Breslau.

Witnesses at the 1896 wedding included the 34 years old Mauer (bricklayer) Ferdinand Förster and the 35 years old Locomotivheizer (railroad boiler stoker) Oscar Klose.

Birth of son Herbert Paul Oskar Jäckel, 1901

Herbert Paul Oskar Jäckel was born on the 27th of January in 1901 at Breslau. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 17th of February in 1901. He was the son of the Feuerwehrmann (firefighter) Paul Jäckel and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) Jäckel. The baptismal sponsors were: the Dragoner (Dragon) Adolf Sternitzke (stationed in Namslau), the Maurer (mason) Ferdinand Förster from Breslau, and Minna Klose the wife of a Lokomotiv Führer (train engineer) from Brockau.

A Dragoner (Dragoon) was a mounted infantry unit. The Dragoner Adolf Sternitzke was probably a member of the Dragoner-Regiment König Friedrich III (2nd Silesian) Nr.8 at Namslau.

Marriages and Family of Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke 1896 to 1937 City of Breslau

Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke was born at Burgwitz (in Trebnitz County) on the 4th of October in 1874. Her birth was recorded at Maltschawe for the Kawallen Standesamt (registry office). She was the daughter of the Lohngärtner Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Klemm) Sternitzke who were Protestants and resided at Burgwitz. A Lohngärtner was an agricultural day laborer with a house and small garden. Ernst Sternitzke signed the birth record.

First Marriage of Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke, 1896

Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke married the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl August Paul Pascheke on the 5th of July in 1896 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. They were both Protestant. The groom lived at Ottostraße 46 before the wedding. The bride was employed as a Köchin (cook) and she lived at Junkernstraße 2.

Birth of son Max Karl Robert Pascheke, 1897

Max Karl Robert Pascheke was born at Breslau on the 9th of June in 1897. The Brennerei Arbeiter (distillery laborer) Karl Pascheke and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Pascheke were Protestants. They lived at Ottostraße 27 (now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street, five blocks north of the University Bridge). Their son was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 27th of June in 1897. The baptismal sponsors were: Fräulein Pauline Starupke from Breslau, the Tischler Robert Pascheke, and the Stellmacher (wheelwright) Karl Sternitzke. This Karl Sternitzke was probably Karl Robert David Sternitzke, the brother of Anna Rosina Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Pascheke. See the discussion below titled Wedding Witness Karl Pascheke, 1902.

Birth of son Fritz Karl Pascheke, 1898

Fritz Karl Pascheke was born at Breslau on the 12th of December in 1898. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 26th of December in 1898. His parents, the Arbeiter Karl Pascheke and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Pascheke were Protestants. They lived at Ottostraße 27. The baptismal sponsors were: the Schuhmacher Paul Schröter from Breslau and Fräuline Pauline Hoffmann from Breslau.

Wedding Witness Karl Pascheke, 1902

The 34 years old Brenner Karl Pascheke was one of the wedding witnesses at the 1902 marriage of Karl Robert David Sternitzke and Anna Agnes Martha Sander. Karl Pascheke lived in Breslau at Trebnitzerstraße 7 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Trzebnicka Street). Karl Sternitzke was the brother of Karl Pascheke's wife. See the Three Marriages of Karl Robert David Sternitzke, 21 July 1902 and 26 September 1910 City of Breslau, 28 September 1944 Berlin-Köpenick.

Second Marriage of Anna Rosina Sternitzke, 1912

The second marriage of Anna was to the Stellmacher (wheelwright) Paul Hugo Karl Joppich. That marriage took place at Breslau on the 24th of August in 1912. The Näherin (seamstress) Anna Rosina Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Pascheke lived in Breslau at Güntherstraße 15 (probably the Güntherstraße now known as Saperów Street, southwest from the main trainstation). That was the same address listed for the groom, and was the same address listed for the bride's brother Karl Robert David Sternitzke. The bride's family were Protestants. The groom's family were Catholics.

The Stellmacher (wheelwright) Paul Hugo Karl Joppich was born on the 30th of August in 1877 at Jauer. He was the son of Militärinvaliden (disabled veteran) Anton Joppich (who died at Jauer before Paul's wedding) and Johanne Karoline (née Zobel) Joppich (who resided at Jauer at the time of the wedding).

Witnesses at the wedding included the 33 years old Lackierer (varnisher) Joseph Kaupert (who was a resident of Jauer) and the 46 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Heinrich Sternitzke. Heinrich Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 166/68 (8 blocks north of Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street). Based on his age in 1912, he would have been born around 1866. His signature from the marriage record is shown below. His signature is similar to the signatures of the Breslau Bäckermeister Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke whose calculated birth date was 1863.

A note on the birth record for Anna Rosina Ernestine Sternitzke shows she died at Breslau in 1937. The death record was number 161 in 1937 at Standesamt Breslau IV.

Marriage and Family of Bertha Louise Johanna (née Sternitzke) Koschel
1896 to 1933 City of Breslau

Godparents Bertha Sternitzke and Gustav Koschel, October 1896

The Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Bertha Sternitzke from Obernigk was one of the three baptismal sponsors for Martha Emilie Koschel, at the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau. Bertha Sternitzke was a Protestant. The baby was born on the 29th of September and baptized on the 11th of October in 1896. A note on the baptism record shows the child died on the 21st of November. Martha was the daughter of the Pferdeknecht (horse groom) Ernst Koschel and his wife Anna (née Hellmann) Koschel from Neuhaus. Ernst was a Protestant. His wife was a Catholic.

The other baptismal sponsors were: the Heizer (stoker) Gustav Koschel (a Protestant) from Bischofswalde near Breslau, and the Arbeiter (laborer) Anton Schimke (a Catholic) from Bischofswalde near Breslau.

Marriage of Bertha Sternitzke and Gustav Koschel, December 1896

The Köchin Jungfrau (cook and single woman) Bertha Sternitzke from Obernigk married the Kesselheizer (boiler stoker) Gustav Koschel from Neuhaus on the 16th of December in 1896. They were both Protestants. Bertha was 23 years and 5 months old, so she was born around July in 1873. Gustav was 20 years and 4 months old, so he was born around August in 1876. They were married at the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau. The table of baptism records at Obernigk shows the baptism of Johanna Louise Bertha Sternitzke on the 12th of July in 1873. She was the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Paschuntke) Sternitzke from Nieder-Obernigk. See Chapter 2: City of Obernigk in Trebnitz County, the Baptism Records at the Protestant Church in Obernigk.

Birth of daughter Emma Lisbeth Luise Koschel, 1899

Emma Lisbeth Luise Koschel was born at Breslau on the 29th of January in 1899. Her parents, the Kesselheizer (boilerstoker) Gustav Koschel and his wife Bertha (née Sternitzke) Koschel were Protestants who lived in Breslau at Marianenstraße 5 (now Trzemeska Street, 5 blocks west of the old city walls). The baptism record listed the baby's name as Emma Liesbeth Luise Koschel. The baptismal sponsors were the Kutscher Wilhelm Heinrich, the Köchin (cook) Anna Sternitzke and Frau Luise Richter.

The Köchin Anna Sternitzke was also a baptismal sponsor for two other children of Bertha (née Sternitzke) Koschel in 1900 and 1902. Anna and Bertha may have been sisters. See the Ledigen Köchin Anna Sternitzke, 1884 to 1913 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Meta Anna Gertrud Koschel, 1900

Meta Anna Gertrud Koschel was born at Breslau on the 15th of November in 1900. Her

Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau

According to his death record Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke (1872-1945) was born on the 26th of October in 1872 at Girbigsdorf in Görlitz County. He was the son of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke and Auguste Berta (née Bartzschke) Starnitzke. See Chapter 13, The Liegnitz District, Görlitz County in the Liegnitz District, Village of Nieder Girbigsdorf in Görlitz County: the Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke / Starnitzkÿ/ Sternitzkÿ, 1865 Nieder Girbigsdorf, 1875 Kunnersdorf auf dem Eigen, and 1880 to 1885 Rothwasser.

Wedding Witness Richard Starnitzke, 1896

Richard Starnitzke (1872-1945) was a witness at the marriage of Reinhold Karl August Robert Krautwald and Anna Maria Martha Neumann, at Breslau on the 18th of January in 1896. His signature on the marriage record is shown below.

The 1896 marriage record shows that Richard Starnitzke was 23 years old (born circa 1873) and he had a residence in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 36 (now Świętokrzyska Street, one block west of the Botanical Garden near the St. John the Baptist's Cathedral). Richard was a Kanonier (gunner) in the 1st Silesian Field Artillery Regiment von Peucker. Richard was assigned to the garrison at Schweidnitz. Schweidnitz is a city about 28 miles southwest of Breslau, and is now known as Świdnica.

The 1st Silesian Field Artillery Regiment von Peucker was the 6th Field Artillery Regiment of the German Imperial Army (Deutsches Heer). The regiment was named for the retired German Infantry General Eduard von Peucker in 1872.

Marriage of Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1897

The Pfefferküchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke married Bertha Maria Ida Krautwald at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 5th of June in 1897. The groom was a Protestant and lived at Kreuzstraße 36 (now Świętokrzyska Street, one block west of the Botanical Garden). The bride was a Catholic and lived at Lehmdamm 40 in Breslau. The church record referenced the civil marriage record as Breslau Standesamt III, number 485 dated the 5th of June in 1897. That civil marriage record is also listed on the 1945 death record for Emil Richard Hermann Starnitzke.

The Bäcker Richard Starnitzke and Berta (née Krautwald) reaffirmed their marriage on the 25th anniversary on the 5th of June in 1922. The 1916 to 1926 marriage record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows that the Bäcker Richard Starnitzke and his wife lived at Weinstraße 34 in 1922. They were both listed as Protestant. The 1922 church marriage record referenced the original civil marriage record at Breslau Standesamt III in 1897.

Birth and Death of son Felix Max Reinhold Starnitzke (1898-1918)

Felix Max Reinhold Starnitzke was born at Breslau on the 14th of March in 1898. He was baptized on the 27th of March in 1898 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism record listed his parents as the Pfefferküchler Richard Starnitzke and his wife Bertha (née Krautwald) Starnitzke. Richard was a Protestant. Bertha was a Catholic. They lived at Kreuzstraße 44e. The baptismal sponsors were: Max Starnitzke from Breslau, Fräulein Marie Rathmann from Breslau, and Emil Starnitzke from Breslau. Max Starnitzke was probably the child's uncle Wilhelm Max Sternitzkÿ (1880-after 1900). Emil Starnitzke was probably the child's uncle Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ (1875-after 1943). On the 10th of June in 1899, Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ (who signed legal records as Emil Sternitzkÿ) married Maria Mathilde Henriette Rathmann. See the Marriage and Family of Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ, 1899 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The 1912 to 1916 death and burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church includes a list of church members who died during the First World War. Felix Starnitzke died on the 22nd of June in 1918 at Amiens, France. He was 20 years old and served as an Unteroffizier (lance sergeant) in the Landwehr (3rd Artillery Battalion 37, 1st Batterie). His death was reported in a military casualty report on the 22nd of July in 1918. He was buried at Vermandovillers, France (Block 3, Grave 265).

The church death and burial record listed the family's address as Weinstraße 34. It listed Felix Starnitzke as a Seminarist (seminary student).

Richard Starnitzke in Other Sources

The Conditor (confectioner) Richard Sternitzke was listed as a resident of Breslau in 1898. His address was Kreuzstraße 44e in the address book, which matches the address listed for Richard Starnitzke on the 1898 baptism record for his son Felix Max Reinhold Starnitzke.

This Richard Starnitzke was listed as a Konsumbäcker who lived at Weinstraße 34 in the 1914 and 1915 Breslau address books. He was listed as a Bäcker at that address in 1916, and as a PfefferkÜchler und Bäcker in address books from 1918, 1923, 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1931. Weinstraße 34 was less than three blocks north of Richard's address in 1896 (Kreuzstraße 36).

He was listed as a PfefferkÜchler (gingerbread baker) at that address in 1934, 1935 and 1937. He was listed as retired PfefferkÜchler who lived at Weinstraße 34 in 1941 and 1943.

This Richard Starnitzke was probably the Richard who was Wilhelm Starnitzki's first cousin, who traveled with him from Breslau to Sibyllenort, Lossen, Skarsine and Pirschen in 1924. Wilhelm's diary of that trip mentioned Richard's wife Berta. See Book I: Chapter 12, Pirschen: Wilhelm Starnitzki's Diary: a 1924 visit to Sibyllenort, Lossen, Skarsine and Pirschen.

Baptismal Sponsor Berta Starnitzke, 1928

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Berta Starnitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Bettÿ Helene Pauline Keller at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 8th of March in 1928. Berta was listed as a Protestant who lived at Weinstraße 34 at that time.

Bettÿ Helene Pauline Keller was the daughter of the Schneider (tailor) Paul Keller and his wife Helene (née Hübner) Keller. The Keller family lived in Breslau at Elbingstraße 6. The other baptismal sponsors were: the Reichspräsident Paul von Beneckendorff und von Hindenburg from Berlin, and the widow Ida Ludwig who lived at Kranzburgerstrße 14. The Prussian and German governments traditionally rewarded mothers who had many children by documenting an honorary godparent (Ehrenpatenschaften) and presented the mother with a cash gift. The custom continues today.

Death of Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke (1872-1945)

Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke died on the 7th of November in 1945 at the age of 73 years old. His date of birth was listed as the 26th of October in 1872. His death record listed his names in a different order: Emil Richard Hermann Starnitzke. He died at an Altersheim (retirement home) in Rinchnach, Bavaria. The death record includes information about the marriage of Emil Richard Hermann Starnitzke. He married Berta Krautwald at Breslau on the 5th of June in 1897 (Standesamt Breslau record number 485 in 1897). That information matches the civil marriage record identified on their church marriage record.

His wife Berta (née Krautwald) Starnitzke was still living at the retirement home at Rinchnach in 1945. She provided the information and signed the death record. The cause of death was listed as Alterschwäche (decreptitude, weakness of old age). She listed the place of his birth as Girbigsdorf in Görlitz County. His parents were listed as the Girbigsdorf Müllermeister (master miller) Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Starnitzke and Auguste Berta (née Bartzschke) Starnitzke. Perhaps Hermann Starnitzke was a Müllermeister at Klein Masselwitz before he entered the nursing home at Herrnpotsch, where he died on the 16th of September in 1911.

Gustav Adolf Paul Starnitzke and Johanne Ernestine (née Seidel) Starnitzke 1897 to 1934 City of Breslau

Gustav Adolf Paul Starnitzke was born at Ober-Glauche on the 29th of April in 1866. He was the son of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Wilhelm Starnitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Viertel) Starnitzke.

Marriage of Gustav Adolf Paul Starnitzke, 1897

Gustav Adolf Paul Starnitzke married Johanne Ernestine Seidel in Breslau on the 7th of October in 1897 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The groom signed his name on the civil marriage record as Paul Starnitzke.

Both of the groom's parents were identified as having died at Ober-Glauche before the wedding. The civil record shows the groom was employed as a Hotel-Portier (hotel doorman or porter) in Breslau and lived at Messergasse 25 (2 blocks south of the University, now Nożownicza Street). The church record listed the groom as the Portier Paul Starnitzke who lived at Kohlenstraße 2 (now Stanisława Dubois Street, about one block north of the University Bridge). The groom and the bride were both Protestants.

Johanne Ernestine Seidel was born on the 14th of March in 1866 at Hönigern in Oels County. She was the daughter of the deceased Freistellenbesitzer Karl Seidel and his deceased wife Auguste (née Bürger) Seidel, who both last resided at Hönigern. Johanne was employed as a Köchin (cook) and lived in Breslau at Sadowastraße 27 (2 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Swobodna Street).

Witnesses at the wedding included the 36 years old Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Robert Spenner and the 34 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) August Spittler. Robert Spenner lived in Breslau at Paradiesstrasse 24 (one block east of the old city moat, now Stanisława Worcela Street). August Spittler lived in Breslau at Enderstrasse 6 (4 blocks north of Sand Island, now Henryka Pobożnego Street).

The Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Gustav Adolf Paul Sternitzke was a witness at the weddings for two of his wife's sisters in 1898 and 1901. His wife Johanne Ernestine (née Seidel) Sternitzke was a sister of Johanne Pauline (née Seidel) Büntig and Auguste Ernestine (née Seidel) Wolff.

Birth and Death of Martha Hulda Ernestine Sternitzke (1898-1904)

On the 20th of October in 1904, Martha Hulda Ernestine Sternitzke died at the age of 6 ½ years old. She was the daughter of the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Sternitzke and his wife Ernestine (née Seidel) Sternitzke who lived at Große Dreilindengasse 1 (near the Klein Bahnhof to Trebnitz, now Ptasia Street, about 6 blocks north of the University Bridge).

Based on her age at the time of her death, Martha was born around the 20th of April in 1898. The 1898 baptism record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau includes a record of the baptism of Martha Frieda Ernstine Sternitzke. She was the daughter of the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Sternitzke and his wife Ernstine (née Seidel) Sternitzke. They were both Protestant and lived at Große Dreilindengasse 1. The baptism record shows the baby was born on the 2nd of April in 1898 and was baptized on the 11th of April in 1898. The baptism referenced the child's civil birth record as Breslau Standesamt III, record number 1249 in 1898. The baptism sponsors were: the Schneider (tailor) Robert Seidel from Breslau, the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Robert Spenner from Breslau, and the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Anna Seidel from Breslau.

Wedding Witness Gustav Adolf Paul Sternitzke, 1898

On the 5th of May in 1898, the 32 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Sternitzke was a witness at the Protestant wedding of the Eisenbahnarbeiter (railroad worker) Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Büntig and the Köchin (cook) Johanne Pauline Seidel.

In 1898, Paul Sternitzke was living in Breslau at Große Dreilindengasse 1 (near the Klein Bahnhof (small trainstation) to Trebnitz, now Ptasia Street, about 6 blocks north of the University Bridge). His signature from the 1898 marriage record is shown below:

Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Büntig was born on the 28th December 1866 at Skarsine in Trebnitz County (now Skarszyn, Poland), the son of the Freistellenbesitzers Gottfried Büntig and his wife Johanne (née Pollesche) Büntig. At the time of Karl's wedding, his parents were still living at Skarsine. Paul lived in Breslau at Nikolaistraße 60 (now św. Mikotaja Street, inside the old city, about four blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church).

Johanne Pauline Seidel was born on the 21st of June in 1864 at Hönigern, Öls County, the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzers Karl Seidel and his wife Auguste (née Bürger) Seidel, who were both deceased at the time of wedding. Johanne lived in Breslau at Gartenstraße 20.

The other witness to the wedding was the Gärtner Karl Wahler. He was 28 years old and lived at Michelwitz (now Michałowice) in Trebnitz County.

Godfather Paul Stanitzki, 1899

On the 25th of June in 1899, the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Stanitzki was one of the godparents at the baptism of Walter Wilhelm Hermann Bintig, at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. Paul's address was listed as Große Dreilindengasse 3. The baby's parents were listed on the church record as the Bahnarbeiter Wilhelm Bintig and Pauline née Seidel. They were certainly the Eisenbahnarbeiter (railroad worker) Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Büntig and his wife Johanne Pauline née Seidel discussed above. The other godparents were the Köchin Auguste Seidel (see below), Frau Pauline Famulla and Hermann Bintig.

Godmother Ernestine Sternitzke, 1900

On the 23rd of December in 1900, the Gastwirthsfrau (innkeepers wife) Ernestine Sternitzke was a godmother at the baptism of Martha Augusta Pauline Büntig at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. Ernestine's address was listed as Rosenthalerstraße 12 (one block north of the University Bridge, now the eastern block of Stansława Dubois Street). The baby was the daughter of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Büntig and Pauline née Seidel. The other godparents were Pauline Büntig (a Wirtschafterstochter from Scarsine in Trebnitz County), Ernst Seidel (a Müller who lived at Klosterstraße 126 in Breslau) and the Arbeiter Hermann Büntig who lived at Elbingstraße 20 in Breslau.

Wedding Witness Paul Sternitzke, 1901

On the 16th of April in 1901, the 34 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Sternitzke was a witness at the marriage of the Konditor (confectioner) Paul Friedrich Wilhelm Wolff and the Köchin (cook) Auguste Ernestine Seidel. Paul's address in 1901 was listed as Große Dreilindengasse 1 on the 1901 marriage record. His signature is copied below.

1901

The other witness to the wedding was the Schneider (tailor) Robert Seidel. Robert may have been a younger brother of the bride. He was 30 years old and lived in Breslau at 28 years old and lived at Paradiesstrasse 24 (one block east of the old city moat, now Stanisława Worcela Street).

Paul Friedrich Wilhelm Wolff was a Protestant. He was born on the 28th of March in 1876 at Gußwitz in Rawitsch County. He lived in Breslau at Scheitnigerstraße 22. His father, the Förster (forester) Hermann Wolff had died at Gußwitz. His mother, Luise née Löchel, had remarried to a Landwirt (farmer) named Skeide. She lived at Heidchen in Militsch County.

Auguste Ernestine Seidel also was a Protestant. She was born on the 10th of December in 1862 at Hönigern in Oels County. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Karl Seidel and his wife Auguste Karoline née Bürger, who had both died at Hönigern prior to the wedding.

Godfather Paul Sternitzke, 1904

On the 21st of February in 1904, the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Sternitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Gertrud Luise Auguste Seidel at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. Paul's address was recorded as Große Dreilindengasse 1. The baby was the daughter of the Schneidermeister Robert Seidel and his wife Luise (née Drechsler) Seidel. The other godparents were Julius Drechsler and Elfriede Drechsler.

Godmother Ernestine Sternitzke, 1905

On the 29th of January in 1905, the Restaurateursfrau (wife of a restaurant owner) Ernestine Sternitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Klara Elisabeth Büntig at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. Ernestine's address was listed as Rosenthalerstraße 12. The baby was the daughter of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Büntig and Pauline (née Seidel) Büntig. The other godparents were the Sattler (saddle maker) Karl Büntig, the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Robert Seidel, and the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Anna Seidel.

Wedding Witness Paul Sternitzke, 1905

On the 23rd of July in 1905, the 39 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Sternitzke was one of the witnesses at the marriage of Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke and the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Hermann Gustav Oskar Schattmann. Paul's address was recorded as Rosenthalerstraße 12. Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke was born at Ober-Glauche on the 22nd of November of 1881. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Dorothea (née Hippe) Sternitzke, who both died at Ober-Glauche prior to Martha's wedding in 1905. Martha may have been Paul's stepsister. See the Marriage and Family of Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke, July 1905 to 1931 City of Breslau.

Godfather Paul Sternitzke, 1905

Rudolf Paul Schattmann was born at Breslau on the 8th of November in 1907. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 15th of December in 1907. He was the son of the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Hermann Gustav Oskar Schattmann and his wife Emma Martha Hulda (née Sternitzke) Schattmann. The baptismal sponsors were: Frau Fleischmeister Agnes Bartsch from Breslau, the Restaurateur Paul Sternitzke from Breslau, and the Mühlenbesitzer (mill owner) Hermann Bindig from Klein

Totschen in Trebnitz County. See the *Marriage and Family of Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke, July 1905 to 1931 City of Breslau.

Godmother Ernestine Sternitzke, 1905

On the 12th of November in 1905, the Restaurateurin (restaurant owner) Ernestine Sternitzke was one of the godparents at the baptism of Frieda Luise Wolf, the daughter of the Conditor (confectioner) Paul Wolf and his wife Auguste née Seidel. Ernestine's address was listed as Rosenthalerstraße 1. The baby's mother was Ernestine's sister.

Breslau Address Books, 1923 to 1934

The 1923 Breslau address book listed the widow Ernestine (née Seidel) Sternitzke as living at Lewaldstraße 19 (now Zdrowa Street, southwest of the old city walls). She was listed as the Milchhänder (milk dealer) Ernstine (née Seidel) Sternitzke still living at that address in 1927. She was listed as the widow Ernstine (née Seidel) Sternitzke at that address in 1926, 1928 and 1934.

Marriage and Death of Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke 1898 and 1931 City of Breslau

Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke was born on the 14th of December in 1874 at Kobelwitz, in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of Johann Josef Sternitzke and his wife Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. Ernestine (the mother) died at Kloch-Ellguth (in Trebnitz County) in 1886. Auguste was confirmed at the Protestant Church in Massel on the 23rd of September in 1888. Her father was a Gastwirth (innkeeper) at Kloch-Ellguth in 1888. Josef and his children moved to Breslau, where he found work as an Arbeiter (laborer). See the summary of their history in Chapter 2, the Village of Jeschütz in Trebnitz County: the Families of Gottfried and Johann Josef Sternitzke, 1866 Jeschütz to 1943 Breslau.

Marriage of Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke, 1898

On the 13th of January in 1898, Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke married Paul August Neumann at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. According to the civil marriage record, Auguste was employed as a Dienstmädchen (servant girl) and living in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 104 (now Jedności Narodowej Street, about 7 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). Paul lived in Sackrau (about five miles northeast of Breslau) in Öls County. According to the civil marriage record, Paul was employed as a Brauerei Arbeiter (brewery laborer). Their church marriage record listed Paul's occupation as a Brennereiarbeiter (distillery laborer). The bride and groom were both Protestants.

Paul August Neumann was born on the 6th of May in 1870 at Bernstadt in Öls County. Bernstadt is now Bierutów, Poland. He was the son of Karl Neumann and his wife Karoline (née Schoch) Neumann, who were listed as deceased on Paul's marriage record. Paul's parents were originally from Klein Ellguth in Öls County, but they had last lived at Kritschen in Öls County.

The wedding was witnessed by Paul Thum and Josef Sternitzke. Paul Thum was a 38-years-old Arbeiter (laborer) who lived about two blocks south of Ernestine Sternitzke at Michalisstraße 4 (now Nowowiejska Street, about 5 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). This Paul Thum was the correct age to have been the Hermann August Paul Thum who married Ernestine's younger sister Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke in 1893 (see above).

The witness Josef Sternitzke was listed as a 52 years old Arbeiter living in Breslau a Bismarckstraße 2 (now Bolesława Chrobrego Street, 4 blocks south of the train station to Trebnitz and one block west of the main road to Trebnitz). He was the correct age to have been the Josef Sternitzke identified as the bride's father. Bismarckstraße 2 was also the address of Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke (the brother of the bride and son of Josef). See the transcription (below) of the 1903 wedding of Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke.

Death of Auguste (née Starnitzke) Neumann (1874-1931)

The widow Auguste (née Starnitzke) Neumann died at the University Clinic in Breslau on the 25th of December in 1931, at the age of 57 years old. That would make 1874 as her calculated year of birth, which matches the year of birth of Ernestine Pauline Auguste (née Starnitzke) Neumann. The death record listed Sacrau in Öls County as the place of residence.

The death record for Auguste (née Starnitzke) Neumann listed Kobelwitz in Trebnitz County as her place of birth, matching the record for Ernestine Pauline Auguste (née Starnitzke) Neumann.

Marriage of Hermann Friedrich Robert Starnitzke 28 May 1898 City of Breslau

Hermann Friedrich Robert Starnitzke was born on the 10th of March 1869 at Pawellau, the son of Friedrich Starnitzke (c. 1824-after 1870) and Otilie (née Hager) Starnitzke. See Book II: Friedrich Starnitzke Family from Pawellau, Trebnitz County, 1854 to 1945 Pawellau.

Robert Starnitzke was a witness at the 21 September 1897 marriage of Paul Gustav Adolf Rosner and Anna Pauline Walke at Breslau. Robert was listed on the marriage record as a Stellmacher (wheelwright) who lived in Breslau at Löschstrasse 18 (about 7 blocks east of the main train station, now Generała Ignacego Prądzyńskiego Street). The groom, Paul Rosner was also a Stellmacher (wheelwright) and lived in Breslau at Vorwerkstrasse 63 (2 blocks southeast from the old city moat, now Komuny Paryskiej Street). The other witness at the wedding was the 23 years old Stellmacher (wheelwright) Josef Frackowiak, who lived in Breslau at Friedrich-

Wilhelmstrasse 40c (about one mile west from the old city walls, not Legnicka Street). Robert Sternitzke signed the 1897 marriage record.

Hermann Friedrich Robert Sternitzke married Ida Bertha Anna (née Frühauf) Zwick, on the 28th of May in 1898 at Breslau. The groom signed the marriage record as Robert Sternitzke. See the below photograph of the couple.

1898

In 1898, Robert was employed as a Stellmacher (wheelwright) and lived in Breslau at Löschstrasse 18 (about 7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Generała Ignacego Prądzyńskiego Street). The bride was the widow of the Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) named Mr. Zwick. She was born on the 15th of June in 1859 at Breslau. She lived in Breslau at Löschstrasse 18 (same address at the groom). Anna was the daughter of the Breslau resident and Stuckateur (plasterer) Gottfried Frühauf and his deceased wife Christiane née Huhn, who died at Breslau. The bride signed the marriage record as Anna Sternitzke née Frühauf.

1898

Witnesses at the wedding included the 37 years old Stuckateur (plasterer) Hermann Frühauf and the 26 years old Rangierer (railroad car shunter) Otto Frühauf. Herman Frühauf lived in Breslau at Hubenstrasse 70. Otto Frühauf lived in Brockau in Breslau County.

Robert and Anna Sternitzke were still living in Breslau in 1930, according to a letter to Reinhold Sternitzke dated the 9th of November in 1930.

Hermann Sternitzke wrote in a letter to Reinhold Sternitzke (in a letter dated the 26th of December of 1938) that Robert's wife, Anna had died, but Robert was still okay. There were no further references to Robert in the later Sternitzke family letters. A note on his 1898 marriage record shows that Robert married a second time at Breslau on the 18th of September 1939.

Death of Anna Sternitzke (1859-1938)

The Schrankenwärter außer Dienst (railroad signalman retired from service) Robert Sternitzke, a resident of Brockau, Heydebrandstraße 1, reported the death of his wife Anna (née Frühauf) Sternitzke. She was 78 years old when she died at the same residence in Brockau. Anna was born at Breslau on the 11th of June in 1859.

Deaths of the Brothers Friedrich and Ferdinand Sternitzke
Born 1839 and 1858 Gross Kainowe, Died 1898 and 1900 Breslau

Ferdinand Sternitzke was born at Gross Kainowe in 1839. His brother, Friedrich Sternitzke was born at Gross Kainowe in 1858. Both brothers died at Breslau: Ferdinand in 1900, Friedrich in 1898. Their Breslau death records provided most of the information in this section.

Ferdinand Sternitzke and Friedrich Sternitzke were the sons of Friedrich and Christine (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke. Christine's maiden name was also Sternitzke. Friedrich (the father) was a Stellmanszügler (wagon driver) living at Gross Kainowe in 1898 and an Auszügler (retired farmer) living at Kainowe in 1900. His wife Christine was listed as deceased (at Gross Kainowe) on the 1898 and 1900 death records of her sons.

Marriage and Family of Ferdinand Sternitzke

Ferdinand Sternitzke married Emilie Labitzke and became a Bahnarbeiter (railroad worker) in Breslau. They were Protestants. Prior to moving to Breslau, they lived at Gross Ujeschütz where their children were born. Their daughter Selma Klara Emilie Constanze Sternitzke was born on the 12th of August in 1874. Their son Gustav Adolf Sternitzke was born on the 1st of September in 1878 at Groß Ujeschütz. Ferdinand and Emilie Sternitzke were living in Breslau when their daughter was married to Karl Friedrich Paul Jaeckel on the 29th of February in 1896. See the discussion regarding the Eisenbahn Arbeiter Ferdinand Sternitzke in the Marriage of Selma Klara Emilie Constanze Sternitzke, 29 February 1896 City of Breslau. See the Death of Gustav Adolf Sternitzke, 29 April 1943 Brockau.

Death of Friedrich Sternitzke (1858-1898)

Ferdinand's brother, Friedrich Sternitzke, died on the 10th of October in 1898 at the age of 40 years and 5 months, so he was born around the 10th of May in 1858. Ferdinand's occupation and address was listed on his brother's death record as an Eisenbahn Streckenarbeiter (railroad track worker) who lived at Vincenzstraße 43 (6 blocks north of Sand Island, one block east of the main road to Trebnitz, now Świętego Wincentego Street). Friedrich's occupation was also listed as an Eisenbahn Streckenarbeiter. Friedrich Sternitzke lived at Matthiasstraße 63 (about 3 blocks northwest from Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street). The death record shows that Friedrich was gerichtlich gescheiden von (legally divorced from) Marie née Schmidt at the time of his death. They had a daughter, Emma Martha Sternitzke who was born at Cainowe (Gross Kainowe) on the 8th of December in 1886. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Emma Martha Sternitzke, 1908 to 1917 City of Breslau. Friedrich Sternitzke was buried at the cemetery for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 13th of October in 1898. Ferdinand Sternitzke signed his brother's death record.

Deaths of Ferdinand Sternitzke (1839-1900) and Emilie (née Labitzke) Sternitzke (1846-1905)

In 1900, Ferdinand and Emilie Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Hermannstraße 61 (2 blocks north of the Odertor Trainstation, now Emila Zegadłowicza Street). Ferdinand died at the Breslau Krankenhospital zu Allerheiligen on the 7th of February in 1900, at the age of 60 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old so he was born around the 7th of May in 1839.

Emilie Labitzke was born at Gross Ujeschütz around 1846. That year was calculated from her age (59 years old) when she died at Beuthen on the 14th of February in 1905. Emilie was the daughter of the Gross Ujeschütz Bauergutbesitzer (farmstead owner) David Labitzke and his wife Susanna (née Ruschik) Labitzke. She married Ferdinand Sternitzke around 1873, probably at Gross Kainowe in Trebnitz County. Her husband the Eisenbahn Streckenarbeiter (railroad track worker) Ferdinand Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 7th of February in 1900, at the age of 60 and $\frac{3}{4}$ years old.

The widow Emilie (née Labitzke) Sternitzke died at Beuthen (in Beuthen County) on the 14th of February in 1905. She was the widow of Ferdinand Sternitzke, who was born at Gross Kainowe in 1839 and died at Breslau. Her death record shows her last residence was at Bahnhof Straße 4 in the city of Beuthen. She died at the Fürstbischöflichen Siechenhauses Robertusstift at Beuthen.

Second Marriage of Johanna Christiane Pauline (née Simon) Sternitzke
19 December 1898 City of Breslau

Johanna Christiane Pauline (née Simon) Sternitzke was the widow of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Sternitzke. She was a Protestant and lived in Breslau at Am Wäldchen 9 (about 5 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Kaszubska Street). Johanna was born on the 16th of February in 1855 at Wangern (now named Wegry) in Breslau County. She was the daughter of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Karl Simon and his deceased wife Christiane née Wolf, who were both deceased and last living in Breslau.

The 1886 Breslau address book listed the Schuhmacher Gustav Sternitzke, who lived at Adolfstraße 5 (4 blocks northwest from the University Bridge, now Otwartta Street). Johanna Christiane Pauline (née Simon) Sternitzke was probably Gustav's wife in 1886.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the widow Pauline Sternitzke as a resident at Am Wäldchen 9 III (third floor, about 5 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Kaszubska Street). This was Pauline's address in 1898, according to her marriage record.

Johanna Christiane Pauline (née Simon) Sternitzke married the Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Johann Wilhelm Ernst Hoffmann on the 19th of December in 1898 at Breslau. He was a Protestant, born on the 9th February 1852 at Duckwitz in Breslau County. He was the son of the deceased Häusler Gottlieb Hoffmann and his deceased wife Rosine Häder (later the widowed Maly) from Peterwitz in Breslau County, but last lived in Breslau. At the time of the wedding, Johann lived in Breslau at Gräbschener Straße 40 (4 blocks from the southwest corner of the old city moat).

The witnesses to the wedding were the 25 years old Schneider (tailor) Karl Maly and the 36 years old Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Ernst Zapke.

Marriage and Family of Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ 1899 to 1943 City of Breslau

The 1899 Breslau marriage record of Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ shows he was born on the 17th of September in 1875, at Kunnersdorf auf dem Eigen in Saxony. He was the son of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzkÿ and Anna Bertha (née Bartzschke) Sternitzkÿ. Kunnersdorf auf dem Eigen is now a suburb of Bernstadt auf dem Eigen (which is 8 miles southeast of the city Löbau, and 10 miles southwest of the city Görlitz. The Eigen (Egensche Kreis) was the name of a county in southern Oberlausitz. See the Family of Friedrich Wilhelm Hermann Sternitzke, April 1891 to 1911 City of Breslau.

In 1899, Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ was employed as a Schneider (tailor) and lived in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 36 (now Świętokrzyska Street, one block west of the Botanical Garden).

Emil's father, Hermann Sternitzkÿ was still employed as a Versicherungsagenten (insurance agent) in 1899.

Baptismal Sponsors Marie Rathmann and Emil Starnitzke, 1898

Felix Max Reinhold Starnitzke was born at Breslau on the 14th of March in 1898. He was baptized on the 27th of March in 1898 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism record listed his parents as the Pfefferkÿchler Richard Starnitzke and his wife Bertha (née Krautwald) Starnitzke. They lived at KreuzstraÙe 44e. The baptismal sponsors were: Max Starnitzke from Breslau, Fräulein Marie Rathmann from Breslau, and Emil Starnitzke from Breslau. Max Starnitzke and Emil Starnitzke were Richard's brothers. Fräulein Marie Rathmann was the fiancé of Emil Starnitzke. See the Pfefferkÿchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ, 1899

On the 10th of June in 1899, Hugo Otto Emil Sternitzkÿ (who signed legal records as Emil Sternitzkÿ) married Maria Mathilde Henriette Rathmann. Emil was a Protestant and Maria was a Catholic. Maria was born on the 16th of December in 1875 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Maurer (bricklayer) Josef Rathmann and his wife Henriette (née Mond) Rathmann, who were both residents of Breslau. Maria was employed as a Damenschneiderin (dressmaker) and lived in Breslau at LöschstraÙe 17a (about 7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Ignacego Prądzyńskiego Street). The groom signed the marriage record as copied below:

1899

Witnesses at the wedding included the 31 years old Schumacher (shoemaker) Paul Rathmann and the 25 years old Schlosser (locksmith or mechanic) Richard Sachs. Paul Rathmann lived in Breslau at LöschstraÙe 6 (near the bride's residence). Richard Sachs lived nearby at KöniggrätzerstraÙe 9 (also about 7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Stanisława Wieckowskiego Street).

Emil and Maria Sternitzkÿ had at least five children who were born at Breslau:

- Walter Wilhelm Robert Sternitzkÿ was born at Breslau on the 17th of March in 1900. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of April in 1900. His parents were the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Emil Sternitzkÿ and his wife Marie (née Rathmann) Sternitzkÿ. They lived at Lehmdamm 15. Emil was a Protestant. Marie was a Catholic. The baptismal sponsors were: Robert Jettke from Stroppen, the Locomotivheizer (railroad stoker) Josef Rathmann, from Breslau, and the Kaufmann Max Sternitzkÿ from Buchenwalde (near the city of Trebnitz). Max Sternitzkÿ was probably the child's uncle Wilhelm Max Sternitzkÿ (1880-after 1900).

The Schneider's son Walter Sternitzkÿ died on the 9th of May in 1900, at the age of 1 month and 21 days. He was buried on the 12th of May in 1900. His parents lived at Lehmdamm 15 at that time. The burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau referenced his civil death record as number 1370 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

- Erich Emil Max Sternitzkÿ was born at Breslau on the 30th of November in 1901. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 25th of December in 1901. His parents were the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Emil Sternitzkÿ and his wife Marie (née Rathmann) Sternitzkÿ. They lived at Lehmdamm 15. The baptismal sponsors were: the Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) Paul Rathmann, from Breslau, Frau Bertha Sternitzkÿ from Breslau, and the Geschäftsmädchen (business woman) Bertha Mond from Brieg. Frau Bertha Sternitzkÿ may have been the child's aunt Bertha Maria Ida (née Krautwald) Starnitzke, the wife of the PfefferkÜchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke. See the PfefferkÜchler Richard Hermann Emil Starnitzke, 1896 to 1943 City of Breslau.
- Willi Emil Max Richard Sternitzkÿ was born on the 8th of May in 1904. The Schneidermeister (master tailor) Emil Sternitzkÿ and his wife Marie (née Rathmann) Sternitzkÿ lived at Sternstraße 75 (3 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Henryka Sienkiewiczza Street). Emil was a Protestant. Marie was a Catholic. The Haupt (original) birth record was signed by Emil:

Willi Emil Max Richard Sternitzkÿ died at his parents' home at the age of 12 weeks old, on the 3rd of August in 1904. He was buried at the cemetery for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 6th of August in 1904. The burial record book listed him as the daughter Wallÿ Sternitzkÿ. The index at the end of book correctly listed him as the Schneidermeister's son Sternitzkÿ. The address of his parents was correctly listed as Sternstraße 75 in the church record. The civil death record (number 2195 at Breslau Standesamt III) referenced in the church record matches the civil death record number for Willi Sternitzkÿ.

- Erwin Werner Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ was born on the 18th of April in 1905. The Schneidermeister (master tailor) Emil Sternitzkÿ and his wife Marie (née Rathmann) Sternitzkÿ still lived at Sternstraße 75. Emil was again listed as a Protestant, and Marie was still listed as a Catholic on the Neben (duplicate) birth record.

- Berta Ruth Edith Sternitzkÿ was born on the 29th of May in 1909. The Schneidermeister (master tailor) Emil Sternitzkÿ and his wife Marie (née Rathmann) Sternitzkÿ still lived at Sternstraße 75. Emil was again listed as a Protestant, and Marie was still listed as a Catholic on the Haupt (original) birth record. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Berta was married in Breslau in 1931 (record number 92 in 1931 at Breslau Standesamt V). The birth record was signed by Emil.

Breslau Address Books

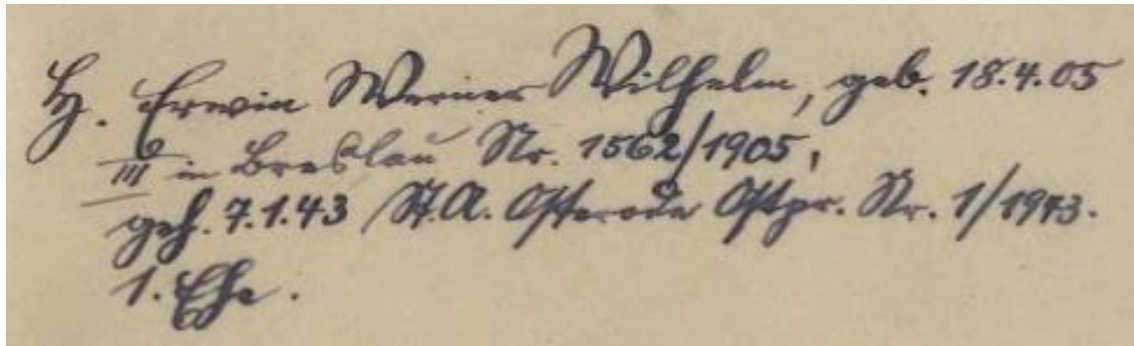

The birth records of their known children show that the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Emil Sternitzkÿ and his family lived at Lehmdamm 15 in 1900, at Sternstraße 75 (3 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Henryka Sienkiewicza Street) in 1904, 1905 and 1906. The 1914 Breslau City directory listed the Schneidermeister Emil Sternitzky as a resident at Sternstraße 75 (third floor). The Breslau City directories for 1915, 1918, 1923, 1926, 1927, 1931, 1934, 1935, 1937, 1941 and 1943 show that the Schneidermeister Emil Sternitzkÿ was living at Brigittental Nr. 15 (now Łukasza Górnickiego Street) in those years. The Sternstrasse and Brigittental addresses are very close to each other (see the map below). The 1928 Breslau address book listed the Schneidermeister Emil Sternitzke as a resident at Brigittental Nr. 15.

The Schneider Erich Sternitzkÿ lived at Neue Adalbertstraße 114, now kardynala Stefana Wyszyńskiego Street, north of the old city walls, near the Botanical Gardens, in 1934. In 1937, Erich lived at Sternstraße 73. See the listings for the Schneider Erich Sternitzky in the 1934 and 1937 Breslau address books.

Portion of an 1850 Beslau map showing Sternstrasse 75 and Brigittental 11.

Emil and Maria Sternitzkÿ's marriage record included two handwritten notes (shown below). The first note listed their son Erwin's birth and marriage. Erwin Werner Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ was born on the 18th of April in 1905 (as recorded on record number 1562 in 1905 at Breslau Standesamt III). He was geheiraten (married) on the 7th of January in 1943 (as recorded on record number 1 in 1943 at the Standesamt in Osterode, Ostpreussen (East Prussia)). He was probably the soldier listed on the Volksbund Deutsche Kriegsgräber website as Erwin Sternitzke (born on the 1st of April in 1905) who died on the 15th of May in 1945 and was buried at Bad Kreuznach (grave 424).

The second note on the marriage record (shown below) identified the death date of Emil's bride (Maria Sternitzkÿ) as the 31st of December in 1939 (as recorded on record number 2 in 1940 at Standesamt Breslau V). This information was confirmed by the Neben (duplicate) copy of her death record, though her name was written as Marie Sternitzky. Marie was identified as a Catholic on her death record. Her husband, the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Emil Sternitzky signed Marie's death record. The causes of Marie's death were listed as: Herzmuskelentartung, Lungenasthma und Gehirnerweichung (cardiac muscle degeneration, pulmonary asthma and brain damage).

Family of Erich Sternitzkÿ, 1932

Horst Günter Rudolf Sternitzkÿ was born at Breslau on the 19th of February in 1932. He was the son of the Maßschneider (custom tailor) Erich Sternitzkÿ and Viktoria (née Bereska) Sternitzkÿ. Erich was a Protestant. Viktoria was a Catholic. The family lived at Neu Adalbertstraße 114 at that time. The baby was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 28th of February in 1932. The baptismal sponsors were: the Schneidermeister Emil Sternitzkÿ who lived at Brigittental 15, and the Ehefrau Gerta Rösnel who lived at Berlin-Wilmersdorf. Brigittental is now Łukasza Górnickiego Street, northeast of the old city. Emil was still living at this address in 1943.

Marriage of Anna Emilie Karoline Hiller 8 February 1900 City of Breslau

Anna Emilie Karoline Hiller was born at Kranz (in Wohlau County) on the 17th of September of 1875. She was the daughter of Eduard Hiller and his wife Karoline (née Sternitzky) Hiller. The Hiller family was living in Breslau in 1900, when Anna Hiller was married on the 8th of February. Eduard Hiller was employed as a Zimmermann (carpenter). They were Protestants. Anna's marriage record shows her address was Lehmdamm 74, which is now Bolesława Prusa Street (about 6 blocks northeast of the Botanical Gardens in Breslau).

See the Chapter 12: Village of Thiergarten in Wohlau County, Birth and Death of Karoline (née Sternitzke) Hiller, Circa 1840 Thiergarten, 1929 Glatz.

Anna Hiller married the Schneider (tailor) Karl Wolff, who was a Catholic and lived at Friedrich Wilhelmstraße 58b in Breslau. Karl was born on the 14th of July in 1874, at Schmograu in Namslau County (now Smogorzów, population 678 in 1939). He was the son of the Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) Karl Wolff and his wife Maria (née Dziekan) Wolff who were residents of Schmograu. His parents were both deceased at the time of the wedding. Witnesses at the wedding included the 26 years old Schneider Karl Jähnel and the 39 years old Schneidermeister (master tailor) Johann Grucza.

Marriage of Auguste Martha Gretschel 20 February 1900 City of Breslau

Auguste Martha Gretschel was born on the 3rd of August in 1880 at Rawitsch in Posen. Her 20 February 1900 marriage record in Breslau shows that she was the daughter of the Maurer (bricklayer or stonemason) Johann Gretschel and Anna (née Sternitzke) Gretschel. Both of Auguste's parents were still alive at the time of Auguste's wedding, and her father was recorded as a witness on the marriage record. The Maurer (mason) Johann Gretschel was 46 years old at the date of Auguste's wedding (so he was born between 20 February 1853 and 20 February 1854) which is in agreement with the age of Joannes Gretschel in the year of his wedding to Anna Marianna Sternitzke at Rawitsch in 1883. Auguste was apparently the adopted daughter of Johann Gretschel, because she was born three years before Johann/Joannes married Anna Marianna Sternitzke. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Marie (née Sternitzke) Gretschel, 1880 to 1891 City of Rawitsch, 1897 to 1911 City of Breslau.

The address for Johann Gretschel was listed (on the 1900 marriage record) as Marienstraße 5 (now Władysława Nehringa Street, about 5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens in Breslau). Auguste was employed as a Näherin (seamstress). The Gretschel family were Catholics.

Augusta Martha Gretschel married the Maschinenmodeleur (machine designer) Paul Alfred Schnieber. Paul was also a Catholic. He was born on the 28th of November in 1876 at Breslau. In 1900, Paul lived in Breslau at Posenerstraße 31 (now Poznańska Street, about one mile northwest of the old city walls). The other witness at the wedding was the 42 years old Tapezierer (wallpaper hanger) Karl Schnieber (probably the groom's father) who lived at . Brandenburgerstraße 60 (now Lubuska Street, about ½ mile southwest of the old city walls).

See the Marriage of Hedwig Marie Anna Gretschel, 28 September 1911 City of Breslau.

Marriage and Family of Eduard Hermann Sternitzke and Auguste Karoline Gawlitta
1900 to 1943 City of Breslau

Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke (1872-1926) was born at Thiergarten in Wohlau County on the 14th of June in 1872. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Eduard Sternitzke and his wife Juliana (née Stober) Sternitzke, who were residents of Thiergarten.

Marriage of Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke, 1900

In 1900, Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke was employed as a Fleischer und Wurstmacher (butcher and sausage maker) at Thiergarten. On the 17th of May in 1900, he married Auguste Karoline Gawlitta at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. His parents were still living at Thiergarten at that time. The groom and the bride were both Protestants. The groom signed the civil marriage record as Eduard Sternitzke. The church record for the marriage shows Eduard was living at Paradiesstraße 14a (one block east from the old city walls, now Stanisława Worcela Street).

Auguste Karoline Gawlitta was born on the 26th of September in 1874 at Wendrin in Rosenberg County. Wendrin is now Wędrynia, Poland. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Johann Gawlitta and his wife Rosalie (née Menzel) Gawlitta. Auguste's parents both died at Wendrin prior to Auguste's wedding. Prior to the wedding, Auguste was employed as a Verkaufarin (saleswoman) and lived in Breslau at Gräbschener Straße 21 (two blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Grabiszyńska Street).

Witnesses at the 1900 wedding included the 26 years old Schneider (tailor) Karl Wolff, who lived in Breslau at Michaelisstraße 4, and the 29 years old Wurstfabrikant (sausage manufacturer) Fritz Tatschke, who lived in Breslau at Grunstraße 9.

Birth and Marriages of son Eduard Georg Sternitzke, 1901

Their first son, Eduard Georg Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 28th of September in 1901. According to the civil birth record, Eduard (the father) was employed as a Wurstfabrikant (sausage manufacturer). The family lived at Enderstraße 20 (now Henryka Pobożnego Street, 3 blocks north of the Oder, near the main road to Trebnitz). The father signed the 1901 birth record as:

Eduard Georg Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 27th of October in 1901. His parents were listed as the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Eduard Sternitzke and Auguste (née Gawlitta) Sternitzke. They were both Protestant and they lived at Enderstraße 20. The baptismal sponsors were: the Köchin (cook) Louise Sternitzke from Breslau, the Putzmacherin (milliner) Bertha Meister from Breslau, and the Postschaffner Johann Neumann from Breslau.

Handwritten notes at the bottom of the parents' marriage record and on their son's birth record indicate their son Eduard Georg Sternitzke married on the 4th of May in 1925 (record 233) and married a second time on the 31st of March in 1941 (Breslau Standesamt I, record 341). The first wife of Eduard Georg Sternitzke was probably the Ehefrau Helene Sternitzke who lived at Lewaldstraße 8 in 1932. A Fleischermeister (master butcher) named Eduard Sternitzke lived at Lewaldstraße 8 in 1931, 1934 and 1935. She was a baptismal sponsor for Horst Reinhold August Hennig, the son of the Schlosser Hermann Hennig and Luzia (née Schorsch) Henning.

Birth and Death of son Georg Richard Sternitzke (1903-1925)

Eduard and Auguste's second son, Georg Richard Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 14th of February in 1903. The birth record for George Richard Sternitzke listed his father's name as Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke. Eduard was employed as a Fleischer (butcher) and the family still lived at Enderstraße 20.

Georg Richard Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of March in 1903. His parents were listed as the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Eduard Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Gawlitta) Sternitzke. They were both Protestants. The baptismal sponsor was the Fleischermeister Franz Marx.

The unmarried Fleischer (butcher) Georg Richard Sternitzke lived at Kospothstraße 11 until his death in 1925. That was the same address listed for his parents in Breslau address books from 1915 to 1927. Georg Richard Sternitzke died on the 28th of January in 1925, at the Konvent Barmherzige Bűder Hospital in Breslau (now the Brothers Hospitallers Monastery and Hospital in Wrocław). He was 21 years and 11 months old when he died. The burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church shows Georg Sternitzke died from Lungentuberkulose (pulmonary tuberculosis). He was buried on the 2nd of February in 1925. His funeral expenses were paid by, and his burial record was signed by his friend the Schlosser (mechanic) Hermann Hennig, who also lived at Kospothstraße 11 (on floor I).

Birth and Death of daughter
Helene Margarete Auguste Sternitzke (1905-1906)

Eduard and Auguste's daughter, Helene Margarete Auguste Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 6th of October in 1905. She was baptized at St. Barbara Church on the 26th of November in 1905. The baptismal sponsors were the Hausbesitzer Frau Ander from Breslau and the Frieseurin Frau Führt from Breslau. The baby's parents were listed as the Fleischer und Wurstmacher (butcher and sausage maker) Edward Sternitzke and his wife Auguste (née Gawlitta) Sternitzke. At that time, the family lived at Tschepinerstraße 6 (a portion of Steinauer Strasse near the Tscheminer Platz, about 6 blocks northwest from the old city walls, now Ścinawska Street). The birth record was completed by a midwife named Johanna Tilgner, so the father's signature is not available. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Helene Margarete Auguste Sternitzke died in 1906, as recorded on death record number 1721 of 1906 at Breslau Standesamt I.

Wedding Witness Eduard Sternitzke, 1905

On the 13th of November in 1905, the 33 years old Fleischermeister (master butcher) Eduard Sternitzke was a witness at his sister's wedding in Breslau. His address was still Tschepinerstraße 6 at that time. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Ernestine Juliane Martha Sternitzke, 13 November 1905 to 1936 City of Breslau. The available record for that wedding was a Neben (duplicate) record, so the original signatures were not available for comparison.

Birth of son Gerhard Richard Sternitzke, 1908

Eduard and Auguste's third son, Gerhard Richard Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 10th of February in 1908. Eduard was listed as the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke and the family was still living at Tschepinerstraße 6. That birth record was also completed by the midwife Johanna Tilgner.

Death of Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke (1872-1926)

Handwritten notes on his 1900 marriage record indicate Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke died in 1926, and his death was recorded on death record number 880 in 1926 at Breslau Standesamt III. Another note may indicate his wife Auguste Sternitzke died in 1938, and her death was recorded on record 302. These notes are consistent with the information from the Breslau address books.

The 1926 burial record book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau included the burial record for the Fleischermeister Eduard Sternitzke. It listed his wife Auguste (née Gawlitta) Sternitzke, and their residence at Kospothstraße 11. Eduard died on the 10th of August in 1926, at the age 54 years and 2 months. The causes of his death were listed on the church record as Rippenfellentzündung mit Herzschwäche (pleurisy and weak heart). He was buried on the 13th of August in 1926. Their friend and neighbor Hermann Hennig signed the church record. The church record referenced the civil death record: number 880, dated the 11th of August in 1826 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1943

The 1914, 1915, 1916, 1918, 1923 and 1926 address books for Breslau listed the Fleischermeister (master butcher) Eduard Sternitzke as living at Kospothstraße 11 (now Ignacego Daszyńskiego Street, far north of the old city walls). His wife Auguste Sternitzke was listed as the Fleischermeisterin (female master butcher) at Kospothstraße 11 in the 1927 Breslau address book. She was listed as the Fleischermeister Wittwe (master butcher's widow) Auguste Sternitzke, the property owner and lived at Kospothstraße 45 in 1934, 1935 and 1937. Her name was spelled Stanitzke in the 1934 address book. She was listed as Auguste Stanitzke, Auguste Sternitzke and A. Sternitzki in the 1935 Breslau address book.

A Fleischermeister (master butcher) named Eduard Sternitzke lived at Gabitzstraße 105 in 1928, and at Lewaldstraße 8 in 1931, 1934 and 1935. He was probably Eduard Georg Sternitzke, the son of Eduard and Auguste Sternitzke, because Eduard (senior) died in 1926.

A former Fleischermeister Eduard Stanitzke was listed in the 1941 and 1943 address books as living at Kospothstraße 45 (the same address previously associated with his mother Auguste Sternitzke who was also listed as Stanitzke and Sternitzki).

Marriage, Family and Death of Johanne Christiane Sternitzke 1901 to 1943 City of Breslau

Johanne Christiane Sternitzke was born at Sorgau in Wohlau County on the 9th of May in 1875. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Härtel) Sternitzke. The source of this information was the 1943 death record for Johanne Christiane (née Sternitzke) Girwirt. See Chapter 12: Sorgau in Wohlau County, the Family of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Härtel) Sternitzke, 1875 Sorgau, 1882 to 1889 Auras-Burglehn, 1895 Klein Masselwitz, 1901 to 1913 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Catharina Johanna Anna Sternitzke, 1896

Catharina Johanna Anna Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 26th of October in 1896. She was the daughter of the ledigen Dienstmädchen (unmarried maid servant) Christiane Sternitzke who was a Protestant. Christiane lived at Neue Graupenstraße 13 (about 4 blocks southwest from the Ring, now Krupnicza Street). The 1888 to 1900 Standesamt II birth register shows that the birth of Catarina Johanna Sternitzke was recorded in record number 4786 on 1896.

Marriage of Johanne Christiane Sternitzke, 1901

Johanne Christiane Sternitzke married the Tischlermeister (master carpenter) Karl Hermann Girwert at Breslau on the 6th of July in 1901. Information on her death record shows that their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I Landbezirk (registry office for the rural district), record number 151 in 1901. The rural district records were separate from the Breslau city records. The record of Christiane's marriage has not been found. The location of Christiane's parents at the time of her marriage cannot be determined. The 1915 Breslau address book listed the Tischlermeister Karl Gilwert as a resident of Pilsnitz, at Haus Nr. 7. The Protestants of the Pilsnitz village were members of the parish of the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau.

Birth of daughter Elisabet Christiane Anna Girwert, 1902

Elisabet Christiane Anna Girwert was born on the 21st of July in 1902. She was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 3rd of August in 1902. She was the daughter of the Tischler (carpenter) Karl Girwert and his wife Christiane (née Sternitzke) Girwert. The parents were both Protestant and lived at Pilsnitz. The baptismal sponsors were: the Köchin (cook) Anna Hänel from Breslau, the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Anna Sternitzke from Breslau and the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Großer from Cosel. The baptism record references a birth record for the baby: record number 112 in 1902 at the Breslau Land Standesamt.

The Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Anna Sternitzke was probably Anna Pauline Sternitzke, who was a sister of Johanne Christiane (née Sternitzke) Girwert. The Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Anna Pauline Sternitzke married the Fabrikarbeiter (factory laborer) Karl Gustav Menzel on the 12th of August in 1906 at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Pauline Sternitzke, 1906 Cosel to 1939 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Herbert Karl Girwert, 1905

Herbert Karl Girwert was born on the 29th of January in 1905. He was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 1st of March in 1905. The baptism record shows that the baby's birth was recorded at Stabelwitz (Breslau Standesamt I, record number 13 in 1905). The baby's parents were listed as the Tischler (carpenter) Karl Girwert from Pilsnitz, and his wife Christiane (née Sternitzke) Girwert. They were both Protestants. The baptismal sponsor was the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Anna Girwert from Breslau.

Death of Johanne Christiane (née Sternitzke) Girwert, 1943

Johanne Christiane (née Sternitzke) Girwert died at Breslau on the 26th of August in 1943. Christiane was a Protestant. Her address was Pilsnitzer Straße 163 in Breslau (now Pilczycka Street, four miles northwest from the old city walls). That was the location of the village Pilsnitz which became a suburb of Breslau. Her death record was signed by her son Kurt Girwert, Doktor der Medizin, who lived in Breslau at Kantstraße 30 (six blocks south of the main train station, now Łódzka Street). The death record listed the causes of her death as: Magen-Carcinom, Lebermetastasen und Herzinsuffizier (gastric carcinoma, liver metastases and heart failure).

The 1943 Breslau address book listed the Doctor of Medicine Kurt Girwert at Kantstraße 30, and it listed the Tischlermeister Karl Giewert at Pilsnitzer Straße 163. A Tischlermeister named Herbert Girwert also lived at Pilsnitzer Straße 163 in 1943. He was probably another son of Karl and Christiane Girwert.

See the information regarding the brother and sisters of Johanne Christiane (née Sternitzke) Girwert:

Marriage, Family and Death of Olga Emma Starnitzki 5 September 1901 City of Breslau, 1938 Glatz

Olga Emma Starnitzki was born at Bischwitz (in Ohlau County) on the 17th of June in 1876. She was the daughter of the ledigen Köcherin (unmarried cook) Anna Starnitzki, who died at Bischwitz before her daughter's wedding in 1901.

Marriage of Olga Emma Starnitzki, 1901

In 1901, Olga Emma Starnitzki was a Protestant and a Köchin (cook) who lived in the Kleinburg suburb of Breslau at Linden Allee 7 (now Aleja Lipowa Street, about 12 blocks southwest from Breslau's main train station). Olga married the Postunterbeamte (postal official) David Hohaus on the 5th of September in 1901. David was a Catholic, born the 26th of September in 1876 at Ebersdorf (now Domaszków) in Habelschwerdt County. He was the son of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Josef Hohaus and his wife Maria (née Kliegel) Hohaus who were both living at Ebersdorf. David lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 6 (5 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Świętego Wincentego Street).

Ebersdorf is now named Domaszkow. Habelschwerdt (now named Bystrzyca Klodzka), the county seat of Habelschwerdt County is located 60 miles south of Breslau.

The witnesses at the 1901 wedding included the 58 years old Schriftsetzer (typesetter) Bruno Friedrich and the 38 years old Postschaffner (postal worker) Karl Bratke. Bruno Friedrich lived at the same address as the groom: Vincenzstraße 6. Karl Bratke lived at Humboldtstraße 7 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Józefa Rostafińskiego Street).

Children of David Hohaus and Olga Emma (née Starnitzki) Hohaus

David and Olga had three children:

- Georg David Josef Hohaus was born on the 3rd of January in 1902.
- Margarete Anna Maria Hohaus was born on the 3rd of April in 1905.
- Elisabeth Emilie Olga Hohaus was born on the 29th of January in 1908. She died at the age of 11 months old, on the 20th of January in 1909. She died at the family home at Tauentzienstraße 55 in Breslau. She was listed as a Catholic on her civil death record. Her father was employed as a Stellenvermitteler (job placement agent).

Death of David Hohaus (1876-1937)

A handwritten note on the marriage record states that David Hohaus died in 1937 at Glatz, Glatz County in Upper Silesia. Glatz is now known as Kłodzko, Poland.

Death of Olga Emma (née Starnitzki) Hohaus (1876-1938)

Olga's death record listed her maiden name as Sternitzke. The widowed Rentenempfängerin (pensioner) Olga (née Sternitzke) Hohaus was 62 years old when she died at a city hospital at Glatz (in Glatz County) on the 23rd of January in 1938. Her last residence was at auf der Höhe 6 at Glatz. Olga's birth place was listed on her death record as Bischwitz bei Wansen (in Ohlau County), which matches her birthplace as was identified on her marriage record.

Family of Anna Rosina (née Stanetzki) Majunke 1901 to 1927 City of Breslau

The history of Paul Hermann Majunke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Stanetzki) Majunke is known mostly from the records of their children. But, Paul Hermann Majunke was a 27-years-old witness at the wedding of Maria Stanetzky in 1904, so he was born around 1877. Maria was living at the same address as the Majunke family, so it is very likely Anna Rosina and Maria were sisters. Anna's maiden name was listed as Sternitzke on the baptism record of her daughter in 1901, and Marie Sternitzke was listed as a sponsor.

The Majunke and Sternitzke families were also joined at Cainowe (also known as Kainowe and Friedrichskirch) in Trebnitz County. Emma Ida Majunke was born at Cainowe (Kainowe) on the 21st of December in 1880, the daughter of the Gasthausbesitzer (innkeeper) Adolf Majunke and his wife Luise (née Sternitzke) Majunke. Adolf, Luise and Emma were still living at Cainowe in 1904 when Emma Ida Majunke married Emil Friedrich Wrobel at Breslau. See the Marriage of Emma Ida Majunke, 6 September 1904 City of Breslau. Also see Book I, Chapter 14 Friedrichskirch (Kainowe), End of Chapter Notes: the Family of Adolf Majunke and Louise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Majunke, 1877 Cainowe to 1932 Trebnitz.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Gertrud Marie Majunke, 1901 & 1927

In 1901, the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Hermann Majunke and his wife Anna (née Stanetzki) Majunke lived at Kurzegasse 49 (shown as Kurze Gasse on an 1896 map, shown as Westend Straße on a 1941 map, 6 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). Hermann was a Protestant; Anna was a Catholic.

Their daughter Gertrud Marie Majunke was born at Breslau on the 2nd of December in 1901. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Gertrud Marie Majunke married in 1927, as recorded on marriage record number 183 in 1927 at Breslau Standesamt 1. Gertrud Marie Majunke was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau on the 22nd of December in 1901. The baptism record listed her father as the Breslau Schuhmacher Hermann Majunke (a Protestant) and her mother as Anna (née Sternitzke) Majunke (a Catholic). The baptismal sponsors were the Breslau Schneiderin (seamstress) Auguste Grunert (a Protestant) and the Köchin (cook) Marie Sternitzke (a Catholic).

Birth of son Walter Fritz Majunke, 1906

Walter Fritz Majunke was born at Breslau on the 10th of April in 1906. He was baptized at the St. Barbara Protestant Church on the 29th of April in 1906. The baptism record listed Hermann Majunke as a Protestant. His wife Anna (née Stanetzki) Majunke was listed as a Catholic. The baptism record referenced the birth record as number 972 in 1906 at Breslau Standesamt I.

Birth and Death of daughter Frida Anna Majunke, 1908-1908

Frida Anna Majunke was born at Breslau on the 1st of January in 1908. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates the baby Frida Majunke died in 1908, as recorded on death record 2422 at Breslau Standesamt I. The death record shows that she died at home on the 1st of October in 1908 at the age of ¾ year old. Frida was a Protestant.

In 1908, the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Paul Hermann Majunke and his wife Anna Rosina (née Stanetzki) Majunke lived at Kurzegasse 58 (Kurze Gasse on 1896 map, shown as Westend Straße on 1941 map, 7 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). Paul Hermann Majunke was a Protestant and his wife was a Catholic.

Wedding Witness Hermann Majunke, 1904

The 27 years old Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Hermann Majunke was a witness at the 1904 wedding of Maria Stanetzky and the Telegraphen Arbeiter (telegraph worker) Ernst Paul Karsubke. The address of the bride and the witness Hermann Majunke were the same: Kurzegasse 49. Anna (née Stanetzki) Majunke was probably a sister of Maria Stanetzky. See the Marriage and Family of Maria Stanetzky, 5 March 1904 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Family of Gustav Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke 1902 to 1946 City of Breslau

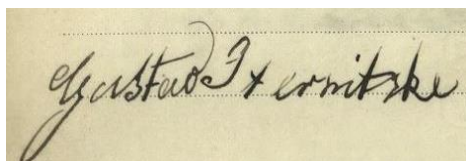

Gustav Heinrich Herrmann Sternitzke was born on the 19th of December in 1875. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 9th of January in 1876. The baptismal record listed his parents as the Zimmermann (carpenter) Joseph Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke who lived at Pohlanowitz. See the Family of Joseph Sternitzke and Rosina (née Hippe) Sternitzke, 1875 Pohlanowitz. See the Marriages and Family of Johann Joseph Sternitzke (junior), 1872 to 1918 Rosenthal.

In 1902, the Arbeiter (laborer) Gustav Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke (1875-1946) and his wife Anna Auguste (née Grutz) Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Kreuzstraße 44 (now Świątokrzyska Street, one block northwest of the Botanical Gardens). They were both Protestants.

Birth of son Heinrich Hermann Willi Sternitzke, 1902

Their son Heinrich Hermann Willi Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 30th of April in 1902. Below is a copy of Gustav's signature on his son's birth record. The child was baptized as Willj Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke at the Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of September in 1902. The baptism record listed the father as the Schieferdecker (roof slater) Gustav Sternitzke. Both parents were Protestant. The baptism sponsors were: the mother of the child, the Zimmermann (carpenter) Robert Kaschig from Bernstadt and the Zimmermann (carpenter) Wilhelm Kaschig from Votsdorf near Bernstadt.

Bernstadt was a city in Öls County. It is now named Bierutów, Poland. The village Votsdorf probably referred to the village shown on a 1903 map of Oels County as Woitsdorf. It was located 3 miles east of Bernstadt. A webpage regarding Woitsdorf listed Wilhelm Kaschig as a resident of Woitsdorf in 1921. Woitsdorf is now named Wojciechów, Poland.

Birth and Death of son Willi Oskar Gustav Sternitzke (1908-1909)

In February of 1908, Gustav Sternitzke was employed as a Dachdecker (roofer) and the family lived at Weißenburgerstraße 17 (now Słowiańska Street, 5 blocks north of Sand Island, in the third block east of the main road to Trebnitz). Willi Oskar Gustav Sternitzke, the son of Gustav Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Anna Auguste (née Grutz) Sternitzke, was born in Breslau on the 6th of February in 1908.

Willi Oskar Gustav Sternitzke was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of August in 1908. The baptismal sponsors were: the mother of the child, and the Arbeiterin (laborer) Johanna Heinisch from Breslau. The father, Gustav Sternitzke was still employed as a Dachdecker. The Sternitzke family lived at Michaelisstraße 14 at the time of the baptism (about 4 blocks north of the Oder River from Sand Island). Michaelisstraße is now Nowowiejska Street.

The Arbeiter's son Gustav Sternitzke died on the 15th of October in 1909, at the age 1 year and 8 months. He was buried on the 19th of October in 1909. His parents lived at Weißenburger 5, according to death and burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. The church record referenced his civil death record: number 2792 in 1909 at Breslau Standesamt III.

Birth and Marriage of son Oskar Sternitzke, circa 1908 and 1932 Birth of grandson Manfred Heinz Sternitzke, 1933

I have not found a birth or baptism record for Oskar Sternitzke. He was probably born around 1908, possibly before the birth of Willi Oskar Gustav Sternitzke. Only common addresses indicate Oskar Sternitzke was the son of Gustav Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Anna Auguste (née Grutz) Sternitzke.

In 1932, Oskar Sternitzke was working as a Zimmermann (carpenter) and lived at Schleiermacherstraße 4 IV (house number 4, 4th floor). This was the residence of his father from 1923 to 1935 (see below). On the 28th of May in 1932, Oskar Sternitzke married the Arbeiterin Elfriede Schweder at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The church record shows their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt III, record number 431 dated the 28th of May in 1932.

In 1933, the Zimmermann Oskar Sternitzke and his wife Elfriede (née Schweder) Sternitzke still lived Schleiermacherstraße 4. Their son, Manfred Heinz Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 3rd of June in 1933. His birth was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt III (record number 621 in 1933). He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 9th of July in 1933. The baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Arbeiterin Margarete Schweder who lived at Kreuzburgerstraße 17, and the Protestant Maurer Richard Bautz who lived at Emil Neukirchstrasse 2 (later renamed as Reichthaler Strasse and is now named Rychtalska Street).

The 1937 Breslau address book listed the Zimmermann Oskar Sternitzke as a resident at Gustav-Müller-Straße 44. Gustav-Müller-Straße was previously known as Mehlgasse. It is now Ludwika Rydygiera Street north of the University. In 1941 and 1943 he lived 4 blocks farther east at Elbingstraße 5. Elbingstraße 5 was about 5 blocks north of Sand Island. It is now named Ołbińska Street.

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Elfriede Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor in 1939. Her address was listed on the baptismal record as Elbingstraße 5. Ingrid Mera Sobek was born on the 9th of July in 1939. She was the daughter of the Maurer (mason) Nikolaus Sobek and his wife Klara (née Schweder) Sobek. The Sobek family lived in Breslau at Kreuzburgerstraße 17 IV. Ingrid Sobek was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of August in 1939. The other baptismal sponsor was the widow Ernstine Schweder who lived at Kreuzburgerstraße 15.

Birth and Death of son Paul Robert Fritz Sternitzke (1912-1944)

Paul Robert Fritz Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 15th of December in 1912. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 6th of March in 1919. His parents were the Arbeiter Gustav Sternitzke and his wife Anna (née Grutz) Sternitzke. They were both Protestant and they lived at Schleiermacherstraße 4 (2 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens, now named Norberta Barlickiego Street) in 1919. The baptismal sponsors were: Frau Helene Giese from Frankfurt am Main, and the Arbeiter Gustav Sternitzke from Schleiermacherstraße 4 in Breslau (probably the father of the child).

Fritz Sternitzke served as an Oberpionier (senior private, engineer) during the Second World War. He died 1 kilometer south of Poplawy, Russia, on the 2nd of March in 1944. He was buried at Upruschkowo, Russia.

Birth of daughter Margarete Anna Margot Sternitzke, 1919

Margarete Anna Margot Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 17th of September in 1919. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 9th of November in 1919. Her parents, the Arbeiter Gustav Sternitzke and his wife Anna (née Grutz) Sternitzke still lived at Schleiermacherstraße 4.

One of the baptismal sponsors was Frau Pauline Leuchtenberger, who lived at Wörtherstraße 14 (now named Kręta Street). See the Family of Anna Pauline Rosina (née Sternitzke) Leuchtenberger, September 1902 to 1937 City of Breslau. The other baptismal sponsor was the Zimmermann Johann Reimann. He was a Protestant, and lived in Breslau at Kirchalle (Cherry Alley, now named Wiśniowa Avenue).

Death of wife Anna (née Grutz) Sternitzke, 1943

The 1912 to 1847 burial registry book for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau listed the name and burial years for burials during those years. It was intended as an index for the separate burial record books from those years.

Anna (née Grutz) Sternitzke was buried in 1943. The record number for her burial was number 15 in 1943. Unfortunately, the record book for that year was not available for download and review from the website for the National Archive in Wrocław (Archiwum Państwowe we Wrocławiu). Perhaps it was lost or damaged.

Death of Gustav Sternitzke, 1946

The death and burial record of the Dachdecker (roofer) Gustav Sternitzke, from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau, shows that he was born on the 19th of December in 1875 at Pohlanowitz in Breslau County. He died on the 27th of April in 1946 in Breslau. The cause of his death was listed at Altersschwäche (old age). He was buried on the 7th of May in 1946 at Friedhof (cemetery) in Pohlanowitz. His daughter Margarete Sternitzke reported his death, paid for his funeral and signed the church record. Prior to his death, Gustav was living with his daughter at Elbingstraße 7.

Breslau Address Books and Other Sources

The 1916 Breslau address book listed an Arbeiter (laborer) named Gustav Sternitzke. He lived at Kreuzburgerstraße 13 Hinterhaus, Erdgeschoß (rear of the building on the ground floor). Kreuzburgerstraße was 3 blocks north from the Botanical Gardens. It is now Kluczborska Street.

The 1923 Breslau address book listed a Dachdecker (roofer) named Gustav Sternitzke who lived at Schleiermacherstraße 4 IV (house number 4, 4th floor). Schleiermacherstraße is now Norberta Barlickiego Street, about ½ mile northeast of Sand Island. The 1926 Breslau address book listed Gustav Sternitzke as an Invalide (disabled person) who lived at that address. The 1927, 1928, 1931, 1934, 1935 Breslau address books listed a Rentner (retired) Gustav Sternitzke at that same address. The 1941 and 1943 Breslau address books listed the Rentner (retired) Gustav Sternitzke at Vinzenstraße 57.

Astrid Hamann reported (in the Breslauer Familienforschung: Sternitzke) that the Dachdecker (roofer) Gustav Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Anna Auguste (née Grutz) Sternitzke lived at Vinzenzstrasse 57. Gustav was a Dachdecker (roofer). Anna was a Hausfrau (housewife). They had five children. Anna died in January of 1943 at Breslau. Gustav died in June of 1946 at Breslau.

The Three Marriages of Karl Robert David Sternitzke
21 July 1902 and 26 September 1910 City of Breslau
28 September 1944 Berlin-Köpenick

Karl Robert David Sternitzke was born at Raschen (in Trebnitz County) on the 24th of August in 1877. He was the son of Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Klem) Sternitzke.

First Marriage of Karl Robert David Sternitzke, 1902

Karl Sternitzke was married in Breslau on the 21st of July in 1902. His parents were living at Wildschütz in Öls County (5 miles northeast of Breslau) where Ernst Sternitzke was employed as a Aufseher (supervisor), probably at the brewery. Karl was employed as a Stellmacher (wheelwright) and lived in Breslau at Alsenstraße 6 (about 0.5 mile west of the old city walls, now Stefana Czarnieckiego Street). His signature from the 1902 marriage record is shown below.

Karl Sternitzke married Anna Agnes Martha Sander, a Dienstmädchen (servant girl) and a Protestant. She was born on the 11th of November in 1878 at Striegau (now Strzegom) in Schweidnitz County. Anna lived in Breslau at Alsenstraße 6 with the groom. She was the daughter of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Wilhelm Ernst Sander and his wife Emilia née Trappe, who were both deceased at the time of Martha's marriage. Anna's parents were originally from Jauer, but they died as residents of Striegau.

Witnesses to the marriage included the 25 years old Schuhmacher Paul Schröter, and the 34 years old Brenner (smith or distiller) Karl Pascheke. Paul Schröter lived in Breslau at Paulstraße 29 (4 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now Michała Wrocławczyka Street). Karl Pascheke lived in Breslau at Trebnitzerstraße 7 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Trzebnicka Street). Karl Pascheke was married to Karl Sternitzke's sister Anna Rosina Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Pascheke. See the Marriages and Family of Anna Rosine Ernestine Sternitzke, 1896 to 1937 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Fritz Walter Karl Sternitzke, 1903

Karl Sternitzke and Martha (née Sander) Sternitzke had a son, Fritz Walter Karl Sternitzke, who was born in Breslau on the 24th of March in 1903. The family was living at in Breslau at Berlinerstraße 32 (now Braniborska Street, about ½ mile west of the old city walls). Notes at the bottom of the birth record show that Fritz Walter Karl Sternitzke was married in Berlin in 1929 (record number 1206 in 1929 at Berlin Standes-Amt 10a), and died in 1933 at Neukölln, a southeastern suburb of Berlin (record number 475 in 1933 at Berlin-Neu Kölln Standes-Amt II). Below is a copy of Karl's signature from his son's birth record.

The baby Fritz Walter Karl Sternitzke was baptized at St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 12th of April in 1903. The baptismal sponsors were the Stellenbesitzertochter (daughter of a property owner) Christiane Hiller and the Köchin (cook) Pauline Mittman.

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke, 1903

On the 15th of April in 1903, the Stellmacher (wheelwright) Karl Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of the Arbeiter (laborer) Johann Karl Fritz Folgner and the Dienstmädschen (servant girl) Anna Bertha Minna Büttner. The marriage record shows that Karl Sternitzke was at that time 25 years old, and he lived in Breslau at Berlinerstraße 32. Below is a copy of Karl's signature from the marriage record.

1903

Birth and Death of son Walter Max Ernst Sternitzke, 1904 and 1926

Karl Robert David Sternitzke and his wife Anna Agnes Martha (née Sander) Sternitzke had a second son in 1904. Walter Max Ernst Sternitzke was born on the 9th of August in 1904 in Breslau. Karl Sternitzke was still employed as a Stellmacher (wheelwright) at that time, and they lived at Rehdigerstraße 2 (about 10 blocks west of the main train station, now Pereca Street). A note on Walter's birth record indicates Walter died in 1926 at Frankfurt an der Oder (death record number 772 in 1926). Karl Sternitzke signed his son's birth record.

Birth of son Willi Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke, 1906

The Stellmacher (wheelwright) Karl Robert David Sternitzke and his wife Anna Agnes Martha (née Sander) Sternitzke had a third son in 1906. Willi Heinrich Hermann Sternitzke was born on the 29th of March in 1906. He was born at the family's home at Seydlitzstraße 7 (8 blocks west of the main train station, now Żytunia Street). That address was two blocks east from their Rehdigerstraße 2 address in 1904. A note on Willi's birth record indicates he was married in 1937 at Lichtenberg (an eastern suburb of Berlin), as was recorded on marriage record number 60 in 1937 as the Breslau-Lichtenberg Standes-Amt I. Karl Sternitzke signed Willi's birth record. An earlier note on Willi's birth record reads "18/12.36 – 253 –" which means the date 18 December 1936 and record number 253. There is no indication of what event was recorded on that date.

Godmother Martha Sternitzke, 1906

On the 9th of December in 1906, the Stellmachersfrau (wife of a wheelwright) Martha Sternitzke was the godmother at the baptism of Herbert Karl Folgner, at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church. The address listed for Martha was Seidlitzstraße 7. The baby was the son of Karl Folgner and Minna (née Büttner) Folgner. Martha's husband Karl Sternitzke was one of the witnesses at their wedding in 1904. The other godmother was the Stellmachersfrau Bertha Folgner.

Birth and Death of daughter Walli Anna Martha Sternitzke (1909-1909)

Death of Anna Agnes Martha (née Sander) Sternitzke (1878-1909)

The Stellmacher (wheelwright) Karl Robert David Sternitzke and his first wife Anna Agnes Martha (née Sander) Sternitzke had a daughter in 1909. Walli Anna Martha Sternitzke was born on the 29th of May in 1909. She was born at the family's home in Breslau at Zietenstraße 13 (also shown at Ziethenstraße on later maps, about 6 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Żytia Street). The 1909 birth record was signed by Karl Sternitzke. A note on the birth record shows that the baby Walli Anna Martha Sternitzke died in 1909, as recorded on death record 1069 at Breslau Standes-Amt IV. The death records for Walli and her mother show that Anna Agnes Martha (née Sander) Sternitzke died at home (at Zietenstraße 13) on the 9th of July in 1909, at the age of 30 years and 7 months. Walli Anna Martha Sternitzke died at the age of three months old on the 9th of September in 1909. Karl Sternitzke signed both death records.

Second and Third Marriages of Karl Robert David Sternitzke, 1910 and 1944

In 1910, Karl Robert David Sternitzke was employed as a Stellmacher (wheelwright) and lived in Breslau at Rehdigerstraße 15 (about 12 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Pereca Street). His parents still lived at Wildschütz in Oels County, where his father was employed as a Leute Aufseher (personnel supervisor).

On the 26th of September 1910, Karl Robert David Sternitzke married the Plätterin (ironer) Otilie Johanna Selzer. The marriage record listed Karl as a Protestant and Otilie was listed as a Catholic. Below is his signature from the marriage record.

Otilie Johanna Selzer was born on the 21st of April in 1877 at Tempelfeld in Ohlau County (now Owczary, Poland). Prior to the marriage, she lived in Breslau at Elbingstraße 7 (about 5 blocks north of Sand Island, now Ołbińska Street). She was the daughter of Arbeiterin (laborer) Theresia Selzer, who was a resident of Breslau.

Witnesses at the 1910 wedding included the 61 years old Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Franz Selzer and the 33 years old Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Paul Schröter. Franz Selzer lived in Breslau at Lehmdamm 42 (one block north of the Botanical Gardens, now Prusa Street). Paul Schröter lived in Breslau at Kurfürstenstraße 27 (about 2 miles southeast from the city center of Breslau, now Raławicka Street). Paul had also been a witness eight years earlier at the first marriage of Karl Robert David Sternitzke.

On the 7th of October in 1912, the Stellmacher Karl Sternitzke was a witness at the Breslau wedding of the Arbeiter (laborer) Karl Paul Schneider and the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Maria Beier. The bride and the groom lived at Theresenstraße 13 (southwest from the old city moat, now Pochyła Street). The 34 years old Konditor (confectioner) Paul Beier was the other witness at the wedding. Paul lived at Reuschestraße 5 (near the southwest corner of the Ring, now Ruska Street).

On the 1912 marriage record, the witness Karl Sternitzke was listed as 35 years old and lived at Güntherstraße 15 (probably the Güntherstraße now known as Saperów Street, southwest from the main trainstation). Karl's signature as a witness is copied here.

Karl's address, Güntherstraße 15, was the same address listed for his sister Anna Rosina Ernestine (née Sternitzke) Pascheke on her marriage record dated the 24th of August in 1912.

Karl and Otilie's 1910 marriage record included some interesting notes, showing the family moved to Köpenick between 1912 and 1918. Köpenick is about eleven miles southeast of Berlin. It also listed Karl's third marriage in 1944.

- Karl Sternitzky had a son who was born in 1918. His birth was recorded in Birth Record Number 107 dated 8 May 1918 at the Berlin-Köpenick Standesamt. That son married in 1942, as recorded on Marriage Record Number 589 dated 19 December 1942 at the Berlin-Köpenick Standesamt.
- Otilie Johanna (née Selzer) Sternitzke died on the 4th of May in 1943. Her death was recorded in Death Record Number 689 in 1943 at the Berlin-Köpenick Standesamt.

- Karl Robert David Sternitzke married a third time. That marriage was recorded on Marriage Record Number 587, dated the 28th of September in 1944 at the Berlin- Köpenick Standesamt.

Marriage and Family of Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke 1903 to 1943 City of Breslau

Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke was born on the 5th of April in 1877 at Kloch-Ellguth in Trebnitz County. He was the son of Josef Sternitzke and Ernestine (née Gnerlich) Sternitzke. See the Village of Jeschütz in Trebnitz County: Families of Gottfried and Johann Josef Sternitzke, 1866 Jeschütz to 1943 Breslau.

In 1903, Paul was employed as a Haushälter (janitor) and lived at Bismarkstraße 2. Both of his parents died before Paul's wedding in 1903. His mother Ernestine died before the family moved from Kloch-Ellguth to Breslau. His father Josef (written as Joseph on Paul's marriage record) was an Arbeiter in Breslau who was living at the time of his daughter's (Ernestine) wedding in 1898 but died before Paul's wedding in 1903. Paul's signature from his marriage record is copied below.

Paul's address in 1903 (Bismarkstraße 2) was the same address listed for his father Josef Sternitzke on the 1898 marriage record for Paul's sister: Ernestine Pauline Auguste Sternitzke. Bismarkstraße 2 was four blocks south of the train station to Trebnitz and one block west of the main road to Trebnitz. Bismarkstraße is now named Bolesława Chrobrego Street.

On the 24th of April in 1903, Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke married the Köchin (cook) Meta Hedwig Bulitz. They were both listed as Catholics on their marriage record. Meta Hedwig Bulitz lived in Breslau at Bahnhofstrasse 4 (in the second block north of the main train station, now Dworcowa Street). She was born on the 28th of September in 1876 at Klein Tschansch (now Księżę Małe) in Breslau County, the daughter of the Maurer (bricklayer or stonemason) Anton Bulitz and his wife Marie (née Fimchen) Bulitz. Her parents died before the 1903 wedding and last resided at Koppitz in Grottkau County (southeast of Breslau).

Witnesses to the wedding included the 43 years old Kellner (waiter) Paul Thum and the 41 years old Schuhmachmeister (master shoemaker) Johann Neugebauer. Paul Thum married Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke (the sister of Paul Sternitzke) in 1893. Paul Thum was living in Breslau at Waterloostraße 11 (about 4 blocks north of Sand Island, now Franklina Delano Roosevelta Street). Johann Neugebauer lived at Ottostraße 37 (about 6 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street). Ottostraße 37 was three blocks northeast of Paul's address in 1903 (Bismarkstraße 2).

Paul Gustav Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Meta Hedwig (née Bulitz) Sternitzke had four sons:

- Hermann Paul Joseph Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 18th of June in 1904. The family lived in Breslau at Weinstraße 4 (about 4 blocks north of Sand Island, one block east of Waterloostraße 6, now Stefana Żeromskiego Street).
- Arthur Joseph Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 31st of December in 1906. The family lived at Ottostraße 35 (7 blocks northeast from the University Bridge, now Kazimierza Jagiellończyka Street).

- Paul Johann Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 24th of June in 1908. He died at the family home on the 18th of July in 1908 at the age of 3 weeks old. The family still lived in Breslau at Ottostraße 35 in 1908.
- Paul Richard Sternitzke was born in Breslau on the 10th of January in 1911. He was baptized at Breslau on the 5th of February in 1911.

Paul Gustav Herrmann Sternitzke was employed as a Kutscher (coachman) in 1904. He was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) in 1906 and 1908.

Handwritten notes on his 1903 marriage record show that Paul Gustav Herrmann Sternitzke married a second time on 16 January 1943 (marriage record number 19 of 1943 at Breslau Standesamt V).

A second group of notes on the marriage record recorded the birth of Hermann Paul Joseph Sternitzke and his two marriages. He was born on the 18th of June in 1904, as recorded on record 2358 of 1904 at Breslau Standesamt III (see the table of births at Breslau). His first marriage was recorded in record number 330 of 1926, dated the 8th of May in 1926 at Breslau Standesamt I. His second marriage was recorded on record 705 of 1939 hier (at Breslau Standesamt III) and dated the 21st of August in 1939.

Family of Martha Louise Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel
Family of Selma (née Sternitzke) Franke
1903 to 1943 City of Breslau

Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel and Selma (née Sternitzke) Franke

It is very likely that Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel and Selma (née Sternitzke) Franke were the same woman. It is possible that Selma and Paul Prüfel were divorced in 1917, or perhaps Paul Prüfel died around that year. He may have been a casualty of the First World War. There were connections between the two families that support that theory.

- Paul Prüfel was listed in the 1915 Breslau address book as a resident who lived at Nikolaistraße 28/29.
- The baptism record of Käthe Hildegard Prüfel shows Paul Prüfel and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel lived at Nikolaistraße 28/29 on the 11th of February in 1917.
- The 1918 Breslau address book listed the Schneiderin (tailor) Selma Prüfel as a resident at Nikolaistraße 28/29.
- Selma Franke and her husband the Schneider August Franke lived at Nikolaistraße 28/29 from 1920 to at least 1926. Her husband was listed in Breslau address books as living at that address from 1927 to 1943.
- Gertrud Prüfel and Margarethe Prüfel were baptismal sponsors for children of Selma and August Franke. Gertrud and Margarethe were probably Selma's daughters from her first marriage.

Birth and Death of son Paul Fritz Alfred Prüfel (1903-1904)

The Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Hermann Prüfel and his wife Martha Louise Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel were Protestants. In 1903, they lived in Breslau at Gellhornstraße 45 (5 blocks southeast from the Botanical Gardens, now a parking lot near Benedykta Plaka Street). Their son, Paul Fritz Alfred Prüfel was born at Breslau on the 15th of May in 1903. He died in the family home on the 2nd of April in 1904, at the age of 10 months old.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Margarete Prüfel, 1904

Gertrud Margarete Prüfel was born on the 8th of June in 1904. The Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Hermann Prüfel and his wife Martha Louise Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel were Protestants. The family still lived at Gellhornstraße 45.

Birth and Death of son Gustav Prüfel (1907-1907)

Gustav Prüfel was born at Breslau on the 16th of June in 1907. He died at home on the 19th of June in 1907, at the age of 3 days old. The Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Hermann Prüfel and his wife Martha Luise Selma née Sternitzke were Protestants. The family still lived at Gellhornstraße 45.

Birth of son Alfred Paul Prüfel, 1908

Alfred Paul Prüfel was born at Breslau on the 28th of April in 1908. His parents, the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Hermann Prüfel and his wife Martha Louise Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel were Protestants. They lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 171 (8 blocks north of Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street).

Alfred Paul Prüfel was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of August in 1908. His parents were listed as the Restaurateur Paul Prüfel and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel. At that time the family lived at Kreuzbergerstraße 25. The baptismal sponsors were: the Kassierin (cashier) Marta Sternitzke from Breslau, the Kaufmann Alfred Sternitzke from Militsch, and the Kaufmann Willi Raske from Breslau.

Birth of son Paul Alfred Prüfel, 1910

Paul Alfred Prüfel was born at Breslau on the 28th of April in 1910. He was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 3rd of December in 1911. His parents, the Gastwirt (innkeeper) Paul Prüfel and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel were both Protestants. They lived at Goldene Radegasse 8 (inside the old city walls, now Kazimierza Wielkiego Street). The baptismal sponsors were the Näherin (seamstress) Else Skoruppa (a Catholic) and the Hausdiener (house servant) Hermann Prüfel (a Protestant).

Birth of daughter Charlotte Else Prüfel, 1911

Charlotte Else Prüfel was born at Breslau on the 24th of October in 1911. She was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 3rd of December in 1911 (on the same day as her older brother Paul Alfred Prüfel). Her baptismal sponsors were the Verkäuferin (sales clerk) Meta Sternitzke (a Protestant) and the Bäckermeister Robert Prüfel (a Protestant).

Birth of daughter Käthe Hildegard Prüfel, 1917

Käthe Hildegard Prüfel was born at Breslau on the 7th of February in 1917. She was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 11th of February in 1917. Her parents, the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Prüfel and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel were both Protestants. They lived at Nikolaistraße 28/29 (inside the old city, about four blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now św. Mikotaja Street). The Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Margarethe Sternitzke was the godmother for Käthe Hildegard Prüfel.

Breslau Address Books, 1915 to 1943

The 1915 Breslau address book listed the Schneider (tailor) Paul Prüfel as a resident at Nikolaistraße 28/29. He was listed as the Schneidermeister (master tailor) Paul Prüfel at that address in 1916. No members of the Franke family were listed at that address in 1915 and 1916.

The 1918 Breslau address book listed the Schneiderin (tailor) Selma Prüfel as a resident at Nikolaistraße 28/29. No members of the Franke family were listed at that address in 1918.

The Breslau address books in 1927, 1931, 1923 and 1935 listed the Schneider August Franke as a resident at Nikolaistraße 28/29. He was listed at that address as the Schneidermeister August Franke in 1943.

Birth of son Heinz Franke, 1920

The Schneider (tailor) August Franke and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) lived at Nikolaistraße 28/29 (inside the old city, about four blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now św. Mikotaja Street). August was a Catholic. Selma was a Protestant.

Their son Heinz Franke was born on the 25th of March in 1920. He was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 27th of June in 1920. The baptismal sponsors were the Schneidermeister Franz Güntzel and the Haustochter (young female domestic servant) Emma Sternitzke.

Birth of son Günther Heinz Franke, 1922

The Schneider (tailor) August Franke and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) lived at Nikolaistraße 28/29 (inside the old city, about four blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now św. Mikotaja Street). August was a Catholic. Selma was a Protestant.

Their son Günther Heinz Franke was born on the 28th of May in 1922. He was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on 2nd of July in 1922. The baptismal sponsors were the widow Emma Sternitzke and Fräuline Gertrud Prüfel. See the 8 June 1904 birth record for Gertrude Margerete Prüfel, the daughter of Martha Luise Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel.

Birth of son Ernst Walter Franke, 1924

The Schneider (tailor) August Franke and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) lived at Nikolaistraße 29 (inside the old city, about four blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now św. Mikotaja Street). August was a Catholic. Selma was a Protestant.

Their son Ernst Walter Franke was born on the 20th of January in 1924. He was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 23rd of March in 1924. The baptismal sponsors were the Näherin (seamstress) Gertrud Prüfel and the Näherin Margarethe Prüfel. See the 8 June 1904 birth record for Gertrude Margerete Prüfel, the daughter of Martha Luise Selma (née Sternitzke) Prüfel.

Birth of son Harry Klaus Franke, 1926

The Schneider (tailor) August Franke and his wife Selma (née Sternitzke) lived at Nikolaistraße 28/29 (inside the old city, about four blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now św. Mikotaja Street). August was a Catholic. Selma was a Protestant.

Their son Harry Klaus Franke was born at Breslau on the 25th of May in 1926. He was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church on the 10th of October in 1926. The baptismal sponsors were: Margarethe Prüfel, Gertrud Prüfel and the honorary godfather the Reichspräsident von Hindenburg. The Prussian and German governments traditionally rewarded mothers who had many children by documenting an honorary godparent (Ehrenpatenschaften), and presented the mother with a cash gift. The custom continues today in Germany.

Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke 20 May 1903 City of Breslau

Karl Sternitzke was a witness at the marriage of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Martin Kirmihs and the Weißnäherin (seamstress for white linen) Berta Anna Ida Stanke. The religion of the bride was listed as Catholic. The groom's religions was listed as Freireligiös (Humanist).

The marriage record shows that Karl Sternitzke was 38 years old (born circa 1865) and he was a Restaurateur (restaurant owner). He lived in Breslau at Burgfeld No. 2 (3 blocks west of St. Elisabeth Church, now Antoniego Cieszyńskiego Street).

Wilhelm Martin Kirmihs was born on the 20th of April in 1855 at Muschlitz in Groß Wartenberg County. He lived in Breslau a Weißgerbergasse 38. Wilhelm was the son of Martin Kirmihs and his wife Helene (née Schmiedek) Kirmihs, who were both deceased by 1903 and they had last resided at the village Peuke in Öls County. Peuke is now now named Byków. It is ten miles northeast of Breslau and four miles west of the city of Öls. Peuke was the birthplace of Hermann August Paul Thum (the husband of Martha Marie Wilhelmine Sternitzke) and the location of Gustav Sternitzke in 1921 and Bertha Sternitzke in 1933.

The bride, Berta Anna Ida Stanke was born on the 19th of June in 1858 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Eduard Stanke and his wife Auguste (née Gudo) Stanke, who were both deceased and last resided in Breslau. Berta was employed as a Weißnäherin (seamstress for white linen) in Breslau and lived with the groom.

The second witness to the marriage was the 32 years old Vorkosthändler Hermann Räuschel, who lived in Breslau at Weißenburgerstraße 5 (now Słowiańska Street, 5 blocks north of Sand Island, in the second block east of the main road to Trebnitz). A Vorkosthändler was a retail store owner who sold peas, beans and lentils, vegetables, flour, semolina, and similar foods.

Marriage and Family of Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke 13 October 1903 to 1913 City of Breslau

Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 19th of May in 1869, the son of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke. Paul's parents died before his wedding in 1903. They were also listed as deceased on the 1900 death record of Paul's brother Max Sternitzke. See the Family of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Kroll) Sternitzke, 1865 to 1912 City of Breslau.

In 1903, Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) and lived in Breslau at Weißgerbergasse 10 (3 blocks from the northwest corner of the Ring, now Biatoskórnicza Street). On the 13th of October in 1903, Paul married Anna Dorothea Hedwig née Franz, the widow of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Mix, at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. The civil marriage record listed Paul as a Protestant and the bride as a Catholic. The church marriage record listed the bride as a Protestant. Both the civil and the church records listed the groom and bride with the same address Weißgerbergasse 10. Paul's signature from the civil marriage record is shown below.

Anna Dorothea Hedwig Franz was born on the 27th of December in 1863 at Ottwitz in Breslau County. She was the daughter of Rosina Franz who died at Breslau before Anna's wedding in 1903. Before Rosina's death (and probably after the birth of Anna), Rosina Franz had been married to the Arbeiter (laborer) Mr. Gebhard who last resided in Breslau.

Anna Dorothea Hedwig Franz was previously married to the Arbeiter Wilhelm Mix, and became his widow before marrying Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke. Wilhelm Mix and Anna (née Franz) Mix had at least two children: a son named Richard Karl Wilhelm Mix and a daughter named Wallj Mix. See the discussions below regarding those step children.

Witnesses to the wedding included the 37 years old Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Oskar Sternitzke, and the 48 years old Haushälter (janitor) Theodor Kurzbuch. Theodor Kurzbuch lived at Moritzstrasse 34 (7 blocks west of the main train station, now Lubuska Street).

By comparing his signatures and ages on the 1903 marriage record and the 1895 birth record of Emma Anna Clara Sternitzke, the witness Oskar Sternitzke was identified as Carl Richard Oscar Sternitzke. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Richard Oscar Sternitzke, 18 October 1894 to 1937 City of Breslau for a comparison of Oscar's signatures.

Wedding Witness Paul Sternitzke, 1908

On the 19th of September in 1908, a 39-years-old Arbeiter (laborer) named Paul Sternitzke was a witness at the Breslau wedding of the Arbeiter Emil Eugen Plewa and Johanna Christiane (née Schieweck) Gederle. The witness, Paul Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Vincenzstraße 3 (5 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Świętego Wincentego Street). He would have been the correct age to have been the Paul Gustav Robert Sternitzke who was born on the 19th of May in 1869.

Death of step-daughter Wallj Mix, 1909

Wallj Mix was born at Breslau around the 26th of January in 1898. She died at the Allerheiligen Hospital in Breslau on the 26th of November in 1909, at the age of 11 years and 10 months old. At that time the Sternitzke family (Paul Gustav Robert and his wife Anna Dorothea Hedwig Sternitzke) lived at Weißgerbergasse 35 (3 blocks west from the Ring, now Biatoskórnicza Street). The death record for Wallj Mix shows that her step-father, Paul Sternitzke was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) at that time.

Marriage of step-son Richard Karl Wilhelm Mix, 1913

Richard Karl Wilhelm Mix was born at Breslau on the 8th of January in 1888. He was the son of the Haushälter (butler) Wilhelm Mix and Anna (née Franz) Mix. Wilhelm Mix died at Altona (a borough of Hamburg). His widow, Anna (née Franz) was married to the Arbeiter Sternitzke and they lived at Breslau in 1913.

The Haushälter (butler) Richard Karl Wilhelm Mix was living at Messergasse 28 (now Nożownicza Street) in 1913. He married the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Magdalena Franke at Breslau on the 4th of January in 1913. The groom was a Protestant. The bride was a Catholic. She was born on the 12th of May in 1886 at Ritterwalde in Neisse County. She was the daughter of Katharina Franke who later married the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Klinge. Her mother and step-father died at Kaundorf (in Neisse County) before Magdalena's wedding.

The wedding witnesses were: the 21 years old Kutscher (coachman) Richard Baudjys from Breslau, and the 45 years old Kutscher Joseph Wagner from Breslau.

Marriage and Family of Maria Stanetzky 5 March 1904 to 1943 City of Breslau

Maria Stanetzky was born on the 10th of October in 1879, at Lossen in Brieg County. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Stanetzky and his wife Pauline (née Müller) Stanetzky. Lossen (now known as Łosiów) is 30 miles southeast of Breslau. In 1904, Maria was employed in Breslau as a Dienstmädchen (servant girl) and lived in Breslau at Kurzegasse 49 (Kurze Gasse on 1896 map, shown as Westend Straße on 1941 map, 6 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). Her father was still living at Lossen, but her mother died before Maria's wedding on the 5th of March in 1904. Maria's address in 1904, Kurzegasse 49, was the same address listed for the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Hermann Majunke and his wife Anna (née Stanetzki) Majunke in 1901 and 1904. Anna (née Stanetzki) Majunke was probably a sister of Maria Stanetzky.

Marriage of Maria Stanetzkÿ, 1904

Maria Stanetzkÿ married the Telegraphen Arbeiter (telegraph worker) Ernst Paul Karsubke who lived at Leuthenstraße 12/14 (now Litomska Street, ½ mile west of the old city walls). Their marriage record identified both the groom and the bride as Catholics. Ernst was born on the 31st of March in 1878 at Groß Jenkwitz (now Jankowice Wielkie) in Brieg County. He was the son of Arbeiter (laborer) Franz Karsubke and his wife Johanna (née Pannek) Karsubke, who both died in Brieg County before the wedding of their son. Franz died at Schurgast and his wife died at Lossen in Brieg County.

Witnesses at the 1904 wedding included the 27 years old Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Hermann Majunke and the 36 years old Arbeiter (laborer) August Majunke. The address listed for both witnesses was the same address as the bride: Kurzegasse 49.

Paul Hermann Majunke was married to Anna Rosina (née Stanetzki) Majunke. Their address in 1901 was Kurzegasse 49. Anna Rosina (née Stanetzki) Majunke may have been a sister of Maria Stanetzkÿ. See the Family of Anna Rosina (née Stanetzki) Majunke, 1901 to 1927 City of Breslau.

Birth and Death of son Max Karl Karsubke (1904-1906)

One month after her wedding, Maria (née Stanetzkÿ) Karsubke gave birth to a son, Max Karl Karsubke who was born on the 13th of April in 1904. The birth record listed Ernst Karsubke's occupation as a Telegraphenarbeiter (telegraph laborer) and listed their address as Hildebrandtstraße 7 (6 blocks west from the old city walls, now Kruszwicka Street). Max Karl Karsubke died on the 7th of April in 1906 at the age of 1 year and 11 months. At that time the Arbeiter (laborer) Ernst Paul Karsubke and his wife Maria (née Stanetzkÿ) Karsubke lived in Breslau at Kurzegasse 49 (shown as Kurze Gasse on an 1896 map, shown as Westend Straße on a 1941 map, 6 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street).

Birth of son Paul Ernst Karsubke, 1905

Paul Ernst Karsubke was born at Breslau on the 13th of November in 1905. His parents, the Arbeiter (laborer) Ernst Paul Karsubke and his wife Maria (née Stanetzkÿ) Karsubke lived at Kurzegasse 49 (shown as Kurze Gasse on an 1896 map, shown as Westend Straße on a 1941 map, 6 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). This was the same address as the Schuhmacher Hermann Majunke and his wife Anna (née Stanetzki) Majunke (see the 2 December 1901 birth record of Gertrud Marie Majunke). Hermann Majunke was a witness at the marriage of Maria Stanetzkÿ and Ernst Paul Karsubke. A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Paul Ernst Karsubke was married in 1930 at Glatz (a city in Glatz County in southern Upper Silesia, now known as Kłodzko).

Birth of son Karl Franz Karsubke, 1908

Karl Franz Karsubke was born at Breslau on the 2nd of June in 1908. His father's occupation on those birth records was listed as Arbeiter (laborer) and the family lived at Kurzegasse 49.

Birth of daughter Frida Maria Karsubke, 1909

Frida Maria Karsubke was born at Breslau on the 29th of August in 1909. The Arbeiter (laborer) Ernst Paul Karsubke and his wife Maria (née Stanetzky) Karsubke lived at Westendstraße 49. That address was listed as Kurzegasse 49 in the 13 November 1905 birth record of Paul Ernst Karsubke. It was shown as Kurze Gasse on an 1896 map, and shown as Westend Straße on a 1941 map. It was 6 blocks northwest of old city walls. That street is now named Zachodnia Street. Ernst and Maria were identified as Catholics on Frida's birth record.

Birth and Death of son Willi Max Karsubke (1910-1911)

Willi Max Karsubke was born on the 6th of December of 1910, and died at the age of 6 months old on the 16th of June in 1911. He was a Catholic, the son of the Arbeiter Ernst Paul Karsubke and Maria (née Stanetzky) Karsubke. The family's address was listed as Westendstraße 49 (the same location as Kurzegasse 49) on the birth and death records.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Gertrud Anna Karsubke, 1913 & 1943

Handwritten notes on Ernst and Maria's marriage record shows that they had another daughter, Gertrud Anna Karsubke who was born on the 18th of April in 1913, as recorded at Breslau-Neukirch Standesamt VIII on record number 17 of 1913. Gertrud's marriage was recorded on the 6th of February in 1943 at Breslau Standesamt I (record number 92 of 1943).

Handwritten notes in German, likely from a marriage record, mentioning dates and locations: "18. April 1913", "Standesamt VIII", "12/1913", "6. II. 1943", "Standesamt I Nr. 92/1943".

Family of Anna Stenitschka/ Stinnitzka/ Sternitzky 1904 to 1919 City of Breslau

The history of Anna Stenitschka/ Stinnitzka/ Sternitzky and her family can be partially documented from her death record and from the marriage records of her children. The correct surname for this family group cannot be determined because the family members signed Haupt (original) documents with the Stenitschka and Stinnitzka variations (even on the same marriage record in 1904), showing that those variations were not typographical errors by a civil or church official. The Sternitzky version recorded in 1909 may have been a variation that was familiar to the groom - Karl Otto Langner from the City of Öls, or it may have been a variation familiar to the civil clerk who copied the marriage record into a Neben (duplicate) record book. An outline of the family's events and locations makes it easier to understand their history.

- c.1851. According to her civil death record, Anna Stenitschka was born at Linsdorf near Grulich in Austrian Silesia. She was the daughter of the unmarried Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Anna Stenitschka, who later died at Strehlen in Strehlen County. The map at the Meyers Gazette website shows a village named Lensdorf about 4.5 miles south of the town named Grulich. Grulich was 3 miles from the town named Bobischau, in Habelschwerdt County of Lower Silesia.

Lensdorf is now named Mlýnice. Grulich is now named Králíky. They were in Austrian Silesia until 1918. They are now in the Czech Republic.

1875. Anna Stinnitzka was unmarried and lived at Gottesberg in Waldenburg County. Her daughter Magdalene Stinnitzka was born on the 8th of December at Gottesberg. The Stinnitzka variation was used by Magdalene on her marriage record in 1904 and on the birth record of her daughter (Martha Gertrud Gusche) in 1904.

1877. Anna Stenitschka was unmarried and lived at Steingrund in Waldenburg County. Her son Josef Richard Stenitschka was born on the 16th of August at Steingrund. The Stenitschka variation was used by Josef on his marriage record.

Between 1877 and 1881. Anna Stinnitzka (Stenitschka) married Jakob (Giacomo) David.

1881. Maria David was born on the 25th of December at Strehlen in Strehlen County. She was the daughter of Jakob (Giacomo) David and Anna (née Sternitzky) David. The Sternitzky variation was also used on Maria's marriage record in 1909.

1887. Amalia Lucia David was born at Strehlen in Strehlen County. She was the daughter of the Strehlen Arbeiter Jakob (Giakomo) David and his wife Anna (née Stenitschka) David. This information was from the Amalia's marriage record at Breslau in 1909.

Between 1887 and 1904. Jakob (Giacomo) David died at Strehlen. The widow Anna (née Stenitschka, Stinnitzka, Sternitzky) David and her children moved to Breslau.

1898. Oskar Stinnitska was born on the 7th of March in 1898 at Breslau. He was the son of the unmarried Magdalena Stinnitska.

1904. Josef Richard Stenitschka married Paulina Augusta Heide at Breslau on the 14st of March. The widow Anna (nee Stenitschka) David was a resident of Breslau at that time of her son's wedding.

1904. Magdalene Stinnitzka married Heinrich Gusche at Breslau on the 21st of October. Her mother was identified as the ledigen Arbeiterin (unmarried laborer) Anna Stinnitzka, widow of the Arbeiter David. Anna was living in Breslau. Magdalene's brother Josef Stenitschka was a witness at the wedding.

1909. Maria David married Karl Otto Langner at Breslau on the 20th of November. Her parents were listed (on the duplicate marriage record) as Jakob (Giacomo) David and his wife Anna (née Sternitzky) David. Anna was living in Breslau.

1909. Amalia Lucia David married Wilhelm Nessig at Breslau on the 20th of December in 1909. Amalia was listed on her marriage record as the daughter of the deceased Strehlen Arbeiter Jakob (Giakomo) David and his wife Anna née Stenitschka David, who was a resident of Breslau at that time.

1913. Death of the widow Anna (née Stenitschka) David at Breslau.

1919. Oskar Stinnitska married Martha Cziasnocha at Kandrzin (in Cosel County) on the 9th of December in 1919. Oskar was listed on his marriage record as the son of Magdalena Stinnitska, who later married the Heizer Gusche.

Marriage of Josef (Joseph) Richard Stenitschka
(son of Anna Stenitschka), 1904 Breslau

On the 14th of March in 1904, the Maschinenarbeiter (machine worker) Josef Richard Stenitschka married the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Paulina Augusta Heide. Josef was born on the 16th of August in 1877 at Steingrund in Waldenburg County. He was the son of the unmarried woman Anna Stenitschka, who in 1904 was the widow of the deceased Steinmetz (stonemason) Mr. David. The widow Anna (nee Stenitschka) David was a resident of Breslau at that time of her son's wedding in 1904. The groom and the bride were both Catholics. The marriage record listed the groom's name as Josef Richard Stenitschka, but he signed his name as Joseph Stenitschka on his marriage record and on his sister's marriage record (see below).

Paulina Augusta Heide was born on the 24th of October in 1870 at Stephanshain in Schweidnitz County. She lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 47 (the same address as the groom). Paulina was the daughter of the deceased Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) August Heide and his deceased wife Luise née Langer, who last resided at Stephanshain.

Witnesses to the marriage were the 39 years old pensionirte Eisenbahn-Sattler (retired train seat maker) Thomas Hilla and the 24 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Josef Gottschlich. Thomas lived in Breslau at Margaretenstraße 6 (4 blocks east of the old city moat, now Mazowiecka Street). Josef lived in Breslau at Margaretenstraße 6.

Marriage of Magdalene Stinnitzka
(daughter of Anna Stinnitzka, 1904 Breslau)

On the 21st of October in 1904, the Arbeiterin (laborer) Magdalene Stinnitzka married the Brauereiarbeiter (brewery worker) Heinrich Nicolaus Gusche. Magdalene was born on the 8th of December in 1875 at Gottesberg in Waldenburg County. She was the daughter of the ledigen Arbeiterin (unmarried laborer) Anna Stinnitzka, who was the widow of the Arbeiter Mr. David. The widow Anna (née Stinnitzka) David was living in Breslau at the time of her daughter's wedding in 1904. The bride was Catholic and lived in Breslau at Lehmgrubenstraße 54 (4 blocks southeast from the main trainstation, now Gliniana Street).

Heinrich Nicolaus Gusche was also a Catholic. He was born on the 6th of December in 1879 at Königshütte in Beuthen County (Oberschlesien). He lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 19 (3 blocks southeast of the main trainstation, now Hubska Street). Heinrich was the son of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Josef Gusche and his divorced wife Luise (née Heerde) Gusche, who were residents of Breslau.

Witnesses to the marriage were the 27 years old Maschinenarbeiter (machine worker) Joseph Stenitschka (the bride's brother) and the 23 years old Maurer Karl Malinka. Josef lived in Breslau at Victoriastraße 28 (11 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Lwowska Street). Karl lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 19 (3 blocks southeast of the main trainstation, now Hubska Street).

Signatures from the original marriage record of Magdalena Stinnitzka (21st of October in 1904).

Heinrich and Magdalene (née Stinnitzka) Gusche had two children: Martha Gerdrud and Heinrich Alfred. Martha Gertrud Gusche was born at Breslau on the 6th of December in 1904. Gertrud Gusche died at Breslau on the 27th of August in 1905. The father was listed as the Kesselheizer (boiler stoker) Heinrich Gusche. The mother was identified as Magdalena (née Stinnitzka) Gusche. They lived at Hubenstraße 100a.

Heinrich Alfred Gusche was born in the family home at Breslau on the 20th of January in 1908. The birth record identified the father as the Brauereiarbeiter (brewery worker) Heinrich Nicolaus Gusche. The mother was listed as Magdalene (née Stinnitzka) Gusche. They lived at Hubenstraße 100a. They were Catholics. A note on the birth record indicated the marriage of Heinrich Alfred Gusche was record number 351 in 1931 at the Breslau Standesamt II.

Marriage of Maria David
(daughter of Anna née Sternitzky), 1909 Breslau

On the 20th of November in 1909, the Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Maria David married the Dachdecker (roofer of thatched roofs) Karl Otto Langner. Maria was born at Strehlen in Strehlen County on the 25th of December in 1881. She was the daughter of the Steinarbeiter (stoneworker) Jakob (Giacomo) David and Anna (née Sternitzky) David. Jakob David died at Strehlen prior to the Maria's wedding, but the widow Anna (née Sternitzky) David was still living at Breslau in 1909. Maria David was a Catholic and lived at Hubenstraße 46 (5 blocks southeast from the main trainstation, now Hubska Street).

Karl Otto Langner was a Protestant and lived at the same address listed for the bride: Hubenstraße 46. Karl was born on the 13th of January in 1884 at the City of Öls in Öls County. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) Friedrich Langner and his deceased wife Anna (née Puetsch) Langner who both died at Oels prior to the 1909 wedding.

Marriage of Amalia Lucia David
(daughter of Anna née Stenitschka), 1909 Breslau

On the 20th of December in 1909, the Näherin (seamstress) Amalia Lucia David married the Brauereiarbeiter (brewery laborer) Karl Wilhelm Nessig. The bride was born at Strehlen in Strehlen County on the 4th of October in 1887. She was the daughter of the deceased Strehlen Arbeiter Jakob (Giacomo) David and his wife Anna née Stenitschka, who was a resident of Breslau at the time of her daughter's wedding in 1909.

Karl Wilhelm Nessig was born on the 8th of December in 1884 at Woiselwitz in Strehlen County. He was the son of the deceased Breslau Arbeiter Friedrich Nessig and his wife Pauline Anna (née Thiem) Nessig. The groom and the bride lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 82 (7 blocks southeast of the main trainstation, now Hubska Street).

The witnesses to the wedding were the 29 years old Brauereiarbeiter (brewery worker) Heinrich Gusche and the 34 years old Bäcker (baker) August Kazzer. Heinrich Gusche married to Magdalene Stinnitzka in 1904. They lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 100a (7 blocks southeast of the main trainstation, now Hubska Street).

Death of Anna (née Stenitschka) David, 1913 Breslau

The Steinmetz (stonemason) widow Anna (née Stenitschka) David. She died on the 5th of December in 1913. She was 62 years old and a Catholic. Based on her age when she died, her calculated year of birth was about 1851. She was born at Linsdorf near Gruhlich in Österreich (Austria). She was the daughter of the unmarried Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Anna Stenitschka, who had died at Strehlen. Prior to her death, Anna (the daughter) lived in Breslau at Hubenstraße 110. Her death was reported by the married Dachdecker (roofer) Maria (née David) Langner.

Marriage of Oskar Stinnitska
(son of Magdalene Stinnitska), 1919 Kandrzin in Cosel County

Oskar Stinnitska was born at Breslau on the 7th of March in 1898 at Breslau. He was the son of the unmarried Magdalene Stinnitska. In 1919, the Tischler (carpenter) Oskar Stinnitska lived in Breslau at Rothürbenstraße 6 (6 blocks south of the main train station; became Kärntner Straße in 1937, then Kościana Street in 1945, now an unnamed road through the park near the intersection of Kamienna and Borowska Streets).

On the 9th of December in 1919, Oskar Stinnitska married Martha Cziasnocha at Kandrzin (in Cosel County; now named Kędzierzyn-Koźle). They were both Catholics. Oskar was listed on his marriage record as the son of Magdalene Stinnitska, who married the Heizer Gusche after Oskar was born (see above, 1904 Breslau).

Martha Cziasnocha was born on the 16th of July in 1894 at Pogorzelletz. She was the daughter of the Maurer (mason) Robert Cziasnocha and his wife Marie (née Heda) Cziasnocha. Martha's father was still living at Pogorzelletz, but her mother had died there before the wedding. Kandrzin and Pogorzelletz were combined into one community in 1929. They were called Heydebreck from 1934 to 1945 and are now called Kędzierzyn-Koźle.

The wedding witnesses were the 68 years old Maurer (mason) Robert Cziasnocha and the 33 years old Schneidermeister (master tailor) Heinrich Dziuba. Robert was the bride's father. Heinrich lived in Breslau at Herzogstraße 13.

Breslau Address Books

Anna Stinnitzka's first known child (Magdalene) was born on the 8th of December in 1875. Anna was probably around 20 years old at the time, so she was probably born around 1855. Anna was known to have been living at Breslau in 1904, and may have moved there soon after her husband died (which may have been as early as 1887). The widow Anna (née Stinnitzka) David was still living at Breslau on the 20th of December in 1909.

A search of the available Breslau address books did not result in identifying members of the Stenitschka or Stinnitzka family. There were many members of the David family who lived in Breslau from 1870 to 1943. The most interesting were:

- 1870 David, Carl. Schuhmachermeister, Wallstraße 9 H III.
- 1891 David, Anna. Witwe. Schillerstraße 6, IV.
- 1897 David, Anna. Witwe. Schuhmachermeister, Friedrichstraße 102 III.
- 1915 David, Anna. Witwe. VIII Tauentzienstraße 157 IV.
- 1916 David, Anna. Witwe. VIII Tauentzienstraße 157 IV.

The widow Anna David listed in 1897 was probably the widow of the Schuhmachermeister Carl David listed in 1870. It is possible that the 1891, 1915 and 1916 listings for the widow

Anna David also referred to the widow of Carl David, not the widow Anna (née Stinnitzka) David the widow of Jakob David.

A search of the historical German address books database for the Stenitschka and Stinnitzka surnames resulted in some interesting results.

- 1904 Stenitschka, Joh. Fabrikstraße 26 at Bremen, Germany.
- 1929 Stenitschka, Josef. Bäckermeister at Klein Bielau.
- 1942 Stenitschka, Josef. Bäckermeister at Klein Bielau.
- 1956 Stinnitzka, Franz. Fernsprechverm. (telephone switchboard operator?), Am Hövel 14 at Rheydt (near Düsseldorf), Germany.

Klein Bielau (in Schweidnitz County, Silesia) is now named Biala, Poland. It is about 23 miles southwest of Breslau. Josef Richard Stenitschka, the son of Anna Stenitschka was born on the 16th of August in 1877. He would have been 52 years old in 1929 and 65 in 1942. So he could have been the Bäckermeister at Klein Bielau. That would explain the lack of entries for his name in the Breslau address books.

Marriage of Emma Ida Majunke 6 September 1904 City of Breslau

Emma Ida Majunke was born at Cainowe (Kainowe, in Trebnitz County) on the 21st of December in 1880, the daughter of the Gasthausbesitzer (innkeeper) Adolf Majunke and his wife Luise née Sternitzke. Adolf, Luise and Emma were still living at Cainowe in 1904. See Book I, Chapter 14 Friedrichskirch (Kainowe), End of Chapter Notes: the Family of Adolf Majunke and Louise Emilie (née Sternitzke) Majunke, 1877 Cainowe to 1932 Trebnitz.

On the 6th of September in 1904, Emma Ida Majunke was married in Breslau to Emil Friedrich Wrobel. Emil Friedrich Wrobel was a Hilfsförster (assistant forester) at Grüneiche in Militsch County (about two miles west of Cainowe). Modern satellite maps show only trees where Grüneiche once stood. The marriage record identified the groom and the bride as both Protestants.

Emil Friedrich Wrobel was born on the 3rd of July in 1877 at Glatz (in Glatz County, south of Breslau). He was the son of the Vereinshaus Inspektor (assembly hall inspector) Karl Wrobel and his wife Pauline (née Hoffmann) Wrobel who lived in Breslau.

Witnesses at the wedding were the 41 years old Gasthausbesitzer (innkeeper) Richard Weiss who lived in Breslau at Landegasse 62), and the 25 years old Volkschullehrer (elementary school teacher) Alfred Wrobel who lived at Friedrichshain in Reichenbach County.

December 1904 to 1943 City of Breslau

In 1904, the Postschaffner (postal worker) Paul Gustav Sternitzke and his wife Agnes Berta (née Faulde) Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Vorwerksstraße 16 (5 blocks northeast from the Main Trainstation, now Komuny Paryskiej Street). They were both Protestants. Their daughter Helene Emilie Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 19th of December in 1904.

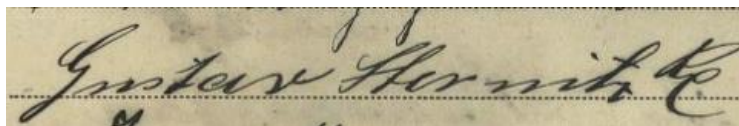

1904

Helene Emilie Sternitzke was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church in Breslau on the 25th of December in 1904. The baptismal sponsors were the Müllbesitzerstochter (daughter of a mill owner) Emilie Faude who lived at Olbersdorf, and the Postschaffnersfrau (wife of a postal worker) Anna Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Bismarckstraße 4. See the Family of Ernst Sternitzke (1859-1930), 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Wedding Witness Gustav Sternitzke, 1911

On the 9th of November in 1911, the 40 years old Postschaffner (postal worker) Gustav Sternitzke was a witness at the wedding of the Postschaffner (postal worker) Karl August Heinrich Lustig and the Köchin (cook) Emma Berta Faulde. In 1911, Gustav Sternitzke lived at Zietenstraße 13 (also shown at Ziethenstraße on later maps, about 6 blocks west of the main trainstation, now Żytnia Street).

1911

Breslau Address Books

The Ober Postschaffner (senior postman), Gustav Sternitzke lived at Zietenstraße 13 in 1914 and 1915. The Postschaffner Gustav Sternitzke was living at that same address in 1918. The Postassistent (postal assistant) named Gustav Sternitzke lived at this address in 1923, 1926, 1927, 1928 and 1931. His widow Agnes Sternitzke was listed as a resident at Zietenstraße 13 in the Breslau address books in 1934, 1935, 1937, 1941 and 1943.

Family of Samuel Hermann Richard Stanitzke 1905 to 1915 City of Breslau

Samuel Herman Richard Stanitzke was born around 1870. That year was calculated from his age (42 years old) when he signed the marriage record of Artur Paul Max Trautmann on the 5th of December in 1912 (see below).

Samuel Herman Richard Stanitzke married Klara Selma Friedrich sometime before the birth of their daughter Helene Erna Berta Stanitzke around October of 1896. Their daughter was born at Reichenbach and died at Breslau in 1909.

Birth and Death of daughter Helene Erna Berta Stanitzke (1902-1909)

Helene Erna Berta Stanitzke, a daughter of the Eisenbahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Richard Stanitzke and his wife Selma (née Friedrich) Stanitzke, died at home on the 31st of January in 1909, at the age of 6 years and 7 months. She was born around July of 1902 at Reichenbach. The county was now specified on her death record, or on other records (in that book) where the place of birth was also listed as Reichenbach. Of the five locations named Reichenbach in that region, the closest to Breslau was Reichenbach im Eulengebirge (in the Owl Mountains) in Reichenbach County. That city is only 25 miles southwest of Breslau, and is now known as Dzierżoniów, Poland. At the time of their daughter's death, the Richard Stanitzke family lived at Gräbschener Straße 8 (the same address listed on the 19th of April in 1907, see below). Richard Stanitzke signed the death record of his daughter.

Birth of daughter Erna Elsa Stanitzke, 1905

Their daughter Erna Elsa Stanitzke was born at Breslau on the 18th of March in 1905. She was the daughter of the Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Samuel Hermann Richard Stanitzke and his wife Klara Selma (née Friedrich) Stanitzke. They were Protestants, and lived in Breslau at Augustastraße 138 (about 7 blocks southwest of the main trainstation, now Szczęśliwa Street). The father signed the birth record as Richard Stanitzke.

1905

A handwritten note on the birth record indicates Erna Elsa Stanitzke was married in 1928 at Öls, as was recorded on marriage record number 54 in 1928.

Birth of daughter Frieda Emma Stanitzke, 1907

Frieda Emma Stanitzke was born at Breslau on the 19th of April in 1907. The Fleischer (butcher) Samuel Hermann Richard Stanitzke and his wife Klara Selma (née Friedrich) Stanitzke lived at Gräbschener Straße 8 (7 blocks west of the main train station, now Grabiszyńska Street). The father signed the birth record as Richard Stanitzke.

1907

Frieda was baptized on the 12th of May in 1907. Her baptismal sponsors were the Buchhalterfrau (wife of a book keeper) Anna Vogtmann, the Gastwirth (innkeeper) Hermann Atze and the Gastwirth Adolf Stanitzke.

A note on her birth record indicates Frieda Emma Stanitzke was married on the 26th of April in 1940, as was recorded on record number 1377 in 1940 at the Standes-Amt in Bremen.

Birth of son Kurt Richard Stanitzke, 1910

Kurt Richard Stanitzke was born at Breslau on the 18th of February in 1910. The Eisenbahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Samuel Hermann Richard Stanitzke and his wife Klara Selma (née Friedrich) Stanitzke still lived at Gräbschener Straße 8 (7 blocks west of the main train station, now Grabiszyńska Street). The father signed the birth record as Richard Stanitzke.

1910

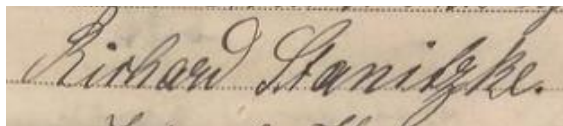

Kurt Richard Stanitzke was baptized on the 20th of March in 1910. His baptismal sponsors were the Lehrer (teacher) Max Stanitzke, the Bäckermeisterfrau Pauline Friedrich and Fräuline Selma Atze.

Wedding Witness Richard Stanitzke, 1912

The Konditor (confectioner) Artur Paul Max Trautmann married Anna Elisabeth Mitschke at Breslau on the 5th of December in 1912. Artur Paul Max Trautmann was a Catholic and was born on the 17th of July in 1883 at Wilxen in Neumark County. In 1912, he lived in Breslau at Hochstraße 2 (7 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Wysoka Street). He was the son of the Volksschullehrer Paul Trautmann and his wife Anna (née Schmidt) Trautmann, who were residents of Wilxen.

Anna Elisabeth Mitschke was unemployed and a Catholic. She was born on the 24th of December in 1881 at Beilan in Neumark County. She was the daughter of the Gutsbesitzer Ernst Mitschke (who was still living at Beilan) and his wife Elisabeth (nee Janke) Mitschke (who died at Beilan prior to the 1912 wedding).

Witnesses at the wedding included the 49 years old Rentier (pensioner) Joseph Kliner (who lived at Kapsdorf in Schweidnitz County) and the 42 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Richard Stanitzke. Richard Stanitzke lived in Breslau at Gräbschener Straße 6 (about two blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Grabiszyńska Street).

Birth of son Richard Wolf Max Stanitzke, 1914

Richard Wolf Max Stanitzke was born on the 20th of May in 1914. He was the son of the Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Richard Stanitzke and Selma née Friedrich. The family lived at Gräbschener Straße 6.

Breslau Address Books 1914 & 1915

The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Richard Stanitzke. He lived at Gräbschener Straße 6.

The 1915 Breslau address book listed a Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) named Richard Stanitzke who lived at Gräbschener Straße 6.

Marriage of Minna Erna (née Czarnitzki) Bock 28 February 1905 City of Breslau

Minna Erna Czarnitzki was born on the 14th of January in 1876 at Danzig in West Prussia. She was the daughter of the Goldarbeiter (goldsmith) Rudolf Czarnitzki and his wife Marie (née Butschkuhn) Czarnitzki. Rudolf died at Danzig and Marie remarried to a Baumeister (building contractor) named Mr. Bleich, and moved to Marianwerder in West Prussia.

Minna Erna Czarnitzki married a Mr. Bock, and they divorced prior to 1905. In 1905, she was unemployed and lived in Breslau at Gräbschener Straße 134 (now Grabiszyńska Street). On the 28th of February in 1905, she married the Hotelbesitzer (hotel owner) Wilhelm Hermann Gustav Sperling. The bride and the groom were both Protestants. Wilhelm Hermann Gustav Sperling was born on the 18th of January in 1872 at Zieserwitz in Neumarkt County (now Cesarzowice, Poland). He was a resident of Schmiedeburg in Hirschberg County (now Kowary, Poland). He was the son of the Freistellenbesitzers (free property owners) Hermann Sperling and his wife Luise Pauline (née Tschentscher) Sperling, who were residents of Zieserwitz.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 30 years old Korrespondent (correspondent) Ernst Adler (who lived in Breslau at Gräbschener Straße 134) and the 82 years old Landwirt (farmer) Hermann Sperling, who lived at of Zieserwitz.

Marriage of Anna Otilie Nitschke 22 June 1905 City of Breslau

Anna Otilie Nitschke was born at Zirkwitz in Trebnitz County, on the 10th of August in 1883. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Nitschke and Emilie (née Sternitzke) Nitschke. In 1905, Gottlieb, Emilie and Anna Nitschke were living at Striese in Trebnitz County. Anna married Ernst Emil Dittmann in Breslau on the 21st of June in 1905. The 52 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Nitschke was a witness who signed his daughter's marriage record. Anna's occupation was listed as a Dienstmädchen (maid servant) at Striese. The Nitschke family was Protestant.

Ernst Emil Dittmann was born on the 29th of December in 1876 at Pohlsdorf in Neumarkt County. In 1905, Ernst was employed as a Stellmacher (wheelwright), and he lived in Breslau at Schießwerderstraße 17 (two blocks northwest of the University Bridge, now Plac Maksa Borna Street). Ernst was the son of the Pohlsdorf Stellmacher (wheelwright) Johannes Ernst Dittmann and his wife Ernstine (née Scholz) Dittmann, who were both deceased at the time of the wedding. The Dittmann family was Protestant.

The witnesses to the wedding were the 52 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Nitschke from Striese, and the 30 years old Hausdiener (domestic servant) Paul Dittmann. Paul lived in Breslau with the groom at Schießwerderstraße 17. Paul was probably the groom's older brother.

There are cryptic notes (shown below) on the marriage record which may mean a daughter named Ilsa Nitschke was born in 1920 (as recorded on birth record number 3082 in 1920, dated the 27th of October in 1920 at Breslau Standesamt IV). Ilsa was married in 1941 (as recorded on marriage record number 196 of 1941, dated the 6th of March in 1941 at Breslau Standesamt IV).

Handwritten notes on a document, likely a marriage record, mentioning birth and marriage records:

Marriage and Family of Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke
July 1905 to 1931 City of Breslau

Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke (1881-1931) was born at Ober-Glauchke on the 22nd of November of 1881. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Dorothea (née Hippe) Sternitzke, who both died at Ober-Glauchke prior to Martha's wedding in 1905.

Emma Martha Hulda Sternitzke married Hermann Gustav Oskar Schattmann at Breslau on the 23rd of July in 1905, according to the civil marriage record. At the time of her marriage, Martha was unemployed and lived at Klein Totschen (one mile west of Ober-Glauche, now Taczów Mały) in Trebnitz County. The Geneteka genealogical database shows that they were married at the Erlöserkirche (Protestant Church of the Redeemer) in Breslau on the 25th of July in 1905.

Hermann Gustav Oskar Schattmann was a Protestant. He was born on the 13th of September in 1872 at Kottwitz (now Kotowice) in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the Privatier (retired in 1905) Julius Schattmann in Breslau and his wife Anna (née Sommer) Schattmann, who was deceased and last resided at Gross-Tschansch in Breslau County. In 1905, Hermann Schattmann was a Fleischermeister (master butcher) and lived at Blücherstraße 19 (three blocks north of Sand Island, now Księża Józefa Poniatowskiego Street). Witnesses to the wedding were the 30 years old Bäckermeister (master baker) Paul Feldt and the 39 years old Restaurateur (restaurant owner) Paul Sternitzke. Paul Feldt lived in Breslau at Fürstenstraße 10 (in the third block east of the Botanical Gardens, now Grunwaldzka Street). Paul Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Rosenthalerstraße 12 (one block north of the University Bridge, now the eastern block of Stansława Dubois Street).

Paul Sternitzke (the witness at this wedding) was born around 1866, so he was about the same age as the Restaurateur Paul Sternitzke who was listed as a witness at the Karl Friedrich Wilhelm Büntig wedding on the 5th of May in 1898. See Gustav Adolf Paul Sternitzke and Johanne Ernestine (née Seidel) Sternitzke, 1897 to 1934 City of Breslau.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Müllermeisterfrau (wife of a master miller) Luise Bündig from Klein Totschen, and the Kaufmanns Frau (wife of a merchant) Ernstine Sternitzke from Breslau.

Birth of son Georg Paul Ewald Schattman, 1912

Georg Ewald Paul Schattmann was born at Breslau on the 26th of September in 1912. His civil birth record was signed by the Hebamme (midwife) Franziska Jackisch who lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 140. He was baptized as Georg Paul Ewald Schattmann at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 13th of October in 1912. The Fleischermeister (master butcher) Hermann Gustav Oskar Schattmann and his wife Emma Martha Hulda (née Sternitzke) Schattmann lived in Breslau at Michaelisstraße 4 according to the civil birth record. They lived at Schleiermacher 30 according to the church baptism record (3 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens, now Noberta Barlickiego Street). They were both Protestants. The baptismal sponsors were: Frau Mühlenbesitzer (wife of a mill owner) Luise Bündig from Klein Totschen, and the Kaufmann Ida Feld from Breslau.

Birth of daughter Hildegard Schattmann, 1913

Hildegard Schattmann was born at Breslau on the 8th of November in 1913. Her civil birth record was signed by the Hebamme (midwife) Franziska Jackisch who lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 136. The midwife listed Michaelisstraße 40 as the address of the parents, the Fleischermeister Hermann Gustav Oskar Schattmann and Emma Martha Hulda (née Sternitzke) Schattmann.

Hildegard Schattmann was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 30th of November in 1913. The Fleischermeister (master butcher) Oskar Schattmann and his wife Martha (née Sternitzke) Schattmann still lived in Breslau at Schleiermacherstraße 30 according to the church baptism record. Wedding Witness Karl Sternitzke 13 October 1905 Breslau and Klein Weigelsdorf

Karl Sternitzke was a 38 years old Stellenbesitzer (property owner) in Klein Weigelsdorf in Öls County. Klein Weigelsdorf was a village about six miles east of Breslau. It was about one mile south of Groß Weigelsdorf. The village is now known as Kielczówek. Based on his age in 1905, Karl Sternitzke was born around 1867.

Karl was one of the witnesses at the wedding of Reinhold Ernst Eduard Wiehl and Martha Helene Hedwig Rosner in Breslau, on the 13th of October in 1905. Karl's signature from the marriage record is copied here:

Reinhold Ernst Eduard Wiehl was a Protestant Maurer (bricklayer) who lived at Bartschstraße 12. He was born on the 4th of August in 1880 at Klein Weigelsdorf, the son of the Auszüger (pensioner) Ernst Wiehl who lived in Klein Weigelsdorf and Karoline (née Reimann) Wiehl, who died at Klein Weigelsdorf prior to their son's wedding.

Martha Helene Hedwig Rosner was a Protestant Arbeiterin (laborer) who also lived at Bartschstraße 12. Martha was born the 5th of August in 1877 at Breslau, the daughter of the Maler (painter) Robert Rosner and his wife Henriette (née Reimelt) Rosner, who were both deceased prior to the wedding and last resided in Breslau.

Witnesses to the wedding included Karl Sternitzke and the 29 years old Schlosser (locksmith) Paul Kanter. Paul lived in Breslau at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 29.

Marriage, Family and Death of Ernestine Juliane Martha Sternitzke 13 November 1905 to 1936 City of Breslau

Ernestine Juliane Martha Sternitzke (1879-1936) was born on the 30th of March in 1879 at Thiergarten in Wohlau County. She was the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Eduard Sternitzke and his wife Juliana (née Stober) Sternitzke, who were residents of Thiergarten. Thiergarten is now known as Godzięcín (about 19 miles northwest of Breslau). See the Family of Eduard Sternitzke and Juliana (née Stober) Sternitzke, 1872 to 1905 Thiergarten. Also see the Birth and Marriage of Ernestine Juliane Martha Sternitzke, 1879 to 1905 Thiergarten.

Marriage of Ernestine Juliane Martha Sternitzke, 1905

In 1905, Martha was unemployed and living at Thiergarten. Her parents were still living there, so she probably lived with them. Martha married the Fleischer (butcher) Karl Hermann Paul Bauer in Breslau on the 13th of November of 1905. Paul Bauer was living at that time in Breslau at Friedrich Wilhelmstraße 98. Martha and Paul were identified as Protestants on their marriage record.

Karl Hermann Paul Bauer was born on the 10th of September in 1897. He was the son of the Sattlermeister (master saddle maker) Hermann Bauer of Breslau and his wife Fanny (née Vogel) Bauer. Paul's father died before Paul's wedding in 1905, but Paul's mother was still living at Breslau. Note that the Sattlerwitwe (widow of a saddlemaker) Fanni Bauer was the sponsor for her grandson Waldemar Bauer in 1907.

Witnesses at the 1905 wedding included the 38 years old Fleischermeister (master butcher) Arthur Pohl and the 33 years old Fleischermeister (master butcher) Eduard Sternitzke. Arthur Pohl lived in Breslau at Gellhornstraße 39 (5 blocks southeast from the Botanical Gardens, now a parking lot neat Benedykta Plaka Street). Eduard Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Tschepinerstraße 6 (about ½ mile northwest of the old city walls, now Ścinawska Street). Eduard Hermann Adolf Sternitzke (1872-1926) was the brother of the bride. See the Marriage and Family of Eduard Hermann Sternitzke and Auguste Karoline Gawlitta, 1900 to 1943 City of Breslau.

An attachment to the 1905 marriage records shows that the Fleischer Karl Heinrich Paul Bauer and Ernestine Juliane Martha Sternitzke divorced on the 5th of November in 1918 at Breslau. Note the middle name was listed as Heinrich in the attachment while the marriage record listed his middle name as Hermann. I have double checked the marriage record and the attachment. The marriage record shows his middle name as Hermann twice. His name was also identified as Karl Hermann Paul Bauer on the birth record of his children:

- Their daughter Elfrieda Martha Fanny Bauer was born on the 10th of January in 1906. They lived at Gellhornstraße 39 (5 blocks southeast from the Botanical Gardens, now a parking lot near Benedykta Plaka Street).
- Their son, Waldemar Paul Max Bauer was born on the 29th of April in 1907. The Fleischer (butcher) Karl Hermann Paul Bauer and his wife were Protestants. They lived in Breslau at Bohrauerstraße 80 (8 blocks south of the main trainstation, now Borowska Street).
Waldemar Paul Max Bauer was baptized on the 12th of August in 1907 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism sponsor was the Sattlerwitwe (widow of a saddlemaker) Fanni Bauer. She was a resident of Breslau. The Fleischermeister (master butcher) Waldemar Bauer committed suicide (by shooting) on the 14th of February in 1928, at the age of 20 years and 10 months. He had been living with his mother Frau Martha (née Sternitzke) Bauer at Rebenstraße 12 (now Wygodna Street). Waldemar Bauer was buried on the 17th of February in 1928. His mother paid for the funeral and signed the church record. The church burial record referenced his civil death record: number 221, dated the 15th of February in 1928 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

- Their second son, Paul Bauer was born at Breslau on the 23rd of May in 1911, and died on the 25th of December in 1911. The Fleischer (butcher) Karl Hermann Paul Bauer and his wife Ernestine Juliane Martha (née Sternitzke) Bauer were both Protestants. They lived at Heinrichstraße 6. Heinrichstraße is now Henryka Brodatego Street, 2 blocks north of the University Bridge. A note on the birth record shows that the baby died on the 25th of December in 1911, as was recorded on death record 3370 in 1911 at Breslau Standesamt III.

Death of Martha (née Sternitzke) Bauer (1879-1936)

Martha (née Sternitzke) Bauer (1879-1936) died at Breslau on the 15th of November in 1936, at the age of 57 years and 8 months. Her burial record from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church listed the causes of her death as Unterleibskrebs Herzs Schlag (abdominal cancer and heart failure). She was listed as the divorced wife of the deceased Fleischermeister Paul Bauer. Her last residence was listed as Rebenstraße 12 (now named Wygodna Street, about 4 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens). The church record referenced her civil death record: number 1366 dated the 16th of November in 1936, at Breslau Standesamt III. Her funeral was on the 20th of November in 1936. Her body was cremated. The information for the church record was reported by the Schneider Rudolf Müller, who lived at Bohrauerstraße 19. The funeral was paid by Emil Müller.

 Circa Gen.XIIc. Gertrud Hildegard Stanetzki (1908-unknown) Breslau.
 Circa Gen.XIId. Elfrieda Hildegard Stanetzki (1909-1945) Breslau, married Max Reisner.
 Circa Gen.XIIIa. Probable daughter Erna Stanetzki.
 Circa Gen.XIIe. Max Erwin Stanetzke (1910-unknown) Breslau, married Meta Frieda Kunert.
 Circa Gen.XIIIb. Rudolf Paul Gottfried Stanetzki (1940-1941) Breslau.
 Circa Gen.XIIIf. Erich Stanetzki married Margarete (Grete) Linke, Breslau.
 Circa Gen.XIIIc. Klaus Peter Stanetzki (1937-unknown) Breslau.
 Circa Gen.XIIId. Horst Erich Stanetzki (1944-unknown) Breslau.

Paul Franz Stanetzki may have been a son of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky and Auguste née Goubillon who lived in Rosenthal. Other variations of that family group surname included: Stanetzki, Stanetzky, Starnitzki, Starnitzky, Sternitzke, Sternitzki and Sternitzky. See the Marriage and Family of Johann Friedrich Wilhelm Stanetzky/Starnitzky (1835-1902) and his wife Auguste née Goubillon/Goubillon, 1860 to 1943 Rosenthal.

Birth and Death of daughter Elfriede Emma Stanetzki (1906-1906)

The earliest record found (so far) of the Franz Paul Stanetzki family was the birth record for Elfriede Emma Stanetzki. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Franz Paul Stanetzki and Pauline Luise (née Kiontke) Stanetzki. Elfriede was born at Breslau on the 21st of January in 1906. At that time, the family lived at Löschstraße 31 (5 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Ignacego Prądyńskiego Street). Both parents were Protestant. The birth record was signed by the midwife Emilie Neumann, so there is no signature of the father for comparison.

Elfriede was baptized at the St. Bernhardin Protestant Church on the 4th of February in 1906. The baptism record shows both of her parents were Protestant. The baptismal sponsors were the Geschäftsfräulein (business woman) Emma Dziallas from Brieg, and the Kutschersfrau (wife of a coachman) Martha Klingberg from Breslau.

A handwritten note on her birth record indicates Elfriede Emma Stanetzki died on the 23rd of July in 1906, as recorded on death record number 1500 of 1906 at Breslau Standes-Amt II. The original death record is available from the National Archive in Wrocław. A copy of that death record is located at the Landesarchive in Berlin. Both records were downloaded and reviewed. The death record listed the parents of Elfriede Stanetzki as the Kutscher (coachman) Paul Stanetzki and his wife Pauline (née Kiontke) Stanetzki, who lived at Löschstraße 31 in Breslau. Elfriede was 6 months old when she died at her parents home.

Birth and Death of son Walter Herbert Stanetzki (1907-1932)

Walter Herbert Stanetzki was born at Breslau on the 8th of August in 1907. He was the son of Franz Paul Stanetzki and Pauline Luise (née Kiontke) Stanetzki. The Arbeiter (laborer) Franz Paul Stanetzki and his wife Pauline Luise (née Kiontke) Stanetzki were Protestants. In 1907, they lived in Breslau at Löschstraße 31 (5 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Ignacego Prądzyńskiego Street). The birth record was signed by the midwife Marie Schütz, and only a Neben (duplicate) copy was available for review, so there is no signature of the father for comparison.

In 1932, Walter Herbert Stanetzki was a 22 years old Breslau Ackerkutscher (agricultural wagon driver) and a member of the Sturmabteilung (SA, storm battalion), the paramilitary wing of the Nazi Party. He died from a gunshot to the head, in the city of Ohlau on the 10th of July in 1932. The Sturmabteilung held several political marches in Silesia on that day, including a march at the city Brieg. A group of about forty members of the Breslau SA were returning to Breslau from Brieg when they were attacked at Ohlau by several hundred members of a rival paramilitary group called the Reichsbanner (members of the Bund deutscher Kriegsteilnehmer und Republikaner: the Association of German War Veterans and Republicans).

The initial attack started at 7 pm. About three hundred additional members of the Breslau SA went to Ohlau to rescue their friends and arrived around 9 pm. Walter Herbert Stanetzki was one of the people killed in the conflict later called the Ohlauer Blutsonntag (the Ohlauer Bloody Sunday).

Grünstraße near the Breslau main trainstation was renamed the Herbert-Stanetzki-Straße to honor Walter Herbert Stanetzki on the 8th of August in 1933. Breslau maps from 1939 and 1941 showed it as Herbert Stanetzky Straße. Records from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church list other spelling variations of that street, including: Herbert Sternitzke Straße (in 1933), Herbert Stanitzki Straße (in 1934), Herbert Sternitzki Straße (in 1934) and Herbert Stanetzky Straße (in 1937). It is now named Dabrowskiego Street.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Hildegard Stanetzki, 1908

Gertrud Hildegard Stanetzki was born at Breslau on the 12th of October in 1908. She was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Franz Paul Stanetzki and his wife Pauline Luise (née Kiontke) Stanetzki, who were both Protestants. At that time, they lived at Königgrätzerstraße 20 (7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Stanisława Wieckowskiego Street). The father signed the original birth record as Paul Stanetzki. His signature is shown below.

A note on the birth record indicates Gertrud Hildegard Stanetzki married in 1933, as was recorded on marriage record number 784 in 1933 at Breslau Standes-Amt II.

Birth and Death of daughter Elfrieda Hildegard Stanetzki (1909-1945)

Elfrieda Hildegard Stanetzki was born at Breslau on the 12th of September in 1909. She was the daughter of the Kutscher (coachman) Franz Paul Stanetzki and his wife Pauline Luise (née Kiontke) Stanetzki, who were Protestants. At that time, they lived in Breslau at Königgrätzerstraße 20 (7 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Stanisława Wieckowskiego Street). The father signed the original birth record as Paul Stanitzki, but only a Neben (duplicate) copy of the birth record was available, so a signature comparison is not possible.

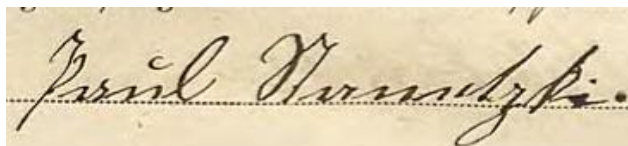

The 1944 to 1945 burial record book for the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church included the burial record for Elfriede (née Stanetzki) Reisner, the wife of the Soldat (soldier) Max Reisner. The 1943 Breslau address book listed the Pfleger (administrator) Max Reisner as a resident at Ofenerstraße 28. Elfriede (née Stanetzki) Reisner died at Ofenerstraße 28 on the 27th of June in 1945 at the age of 36 years old. She died from Bauchfellentzündung mit Herzschwäche (peritonitis and weak heart). She was buried on the 30th of June in 1945 at Friedhof II. Her death and burial were reported and signed by Fräuline Erna Stanetzki who also lived at Ofenerstraße 28. Erna was probably the daughter of Elfriede (née Stanetzki) Reisner. See the 1944 baptism of her cousin Horst Erich Stanetzki below.

Birth, Marriage and Family of son Max Erwin Stanetzki, 1910 to 1941

Max Erwin Stanetzke was born in his parents' home on the 22nd of November 1910. His parents were the Arbeiter Franz Paul Stanetzki and his wife Pauline Luise (née Kiontke) Stanetzki. They were both Protestant. They lived at Neue Tauentzienstraße 51 (about 7 blocks east from the main train station, now General Kościuszki Tadeusza Street) in Breslau. The civil birth record was signed by the father Paul Stanetzki.

The 1941 death record of Rudolf Paul Gottfried Stanetzki provided information about his parents Max Erwin Stanetzki and Meta Frieda (née Kunert) Stanetzki.

Rudolf Paul Gottfried Stanetzki (1940-1941) died on the 11th of March in 1941 at the Kinderkrankenhause (children's hospital) at Schulgasse 13c in Breslau. His death record shows he was born at Breslau on the 2nd of July in 1940, as recorded on birth record number 1304 in 1940 at Breslau Standesamt V. He was a Protestant. The cause of death was listed as Toxische Grippe, Herzschwäche (toxic flu, heart disease).

His parents were identified on the 1941 death record as the Kraftwagenführer (chauffeur) Max Erwin Stanetzki and Meta Frieda (née Kunert) Stanetzki, who lived in Breslau at Tauentzienstraße 103 (now named Tadeusza Kościuszki Street). They were married at Lauenbrunn in Frankenstein County on the 22nd of December in 1931, as recorded on marriage record 16 in 1931 at the Lauenbrunn Standesamt.

Family of Erich Stanetzki, 1937 to 1944

In 1937, the Hilfs-Monteur (assistant mechanic) Erich Stanetzki and his wife Margarete (née Linke) Stanetzki lived at Werderstraße 17 & 19 (on the island north of St. Elisabeth Church, now Księcia Witolda Street). They were both Protestants. Their son Klaus Peter Stanetzki was born at Breslau on the 2nd of June in 1937. He was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of June in 1937. The baptismal sponsors were Gertrud Schneider and Jenny Linke.

In 1944, the Arbeiter (laborer) Erich Stanetzki and his wife Grete (née Linke) Stanetzki were both Protestants. They lived at Werderstraße 17 & 19. Their son, Horst Erich Stanetzki was born at Breslau on the 16th of February in 1944. He was baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau on the 9th of April in 1944. The baptismal sponsors were all Protestants: the Arbeiter Erwin Linke, the Postangestellte (postal worker) Erna Stanetzki and Frau Gertrud Schneider.

Breslau Address Books

Franz Paul Stanetzki signed his name as Paul Stanetzki on birth records of his children, so he was probably the Paul Stanitzki/Stanetzki who was listed in the Breslau address books. Below are Paul's occupations and addresses listed by year, with other members of the Stanetzki family found in Breslau address books.

- 1915: the Schaffer (laborer) Paul Stanitzki lived at Klosterstraße 129 (his name was spelled Stanetzki in the section sorted by streets and house numbers).
- 1918: the Schaffer (laborer) Paul Stanetzki lived at Tauentzienstraße 175.

Marriage, Family and Death of Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke 1906 to 1944 City of Breslau

Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke (1882-1941) was born on the 23rd of January in 1882 at Rosenthal in Breslau County. He was the son of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Sternitzke (c.1859-after 1906) and his wife Karoline (née Skibe) Sternitzke who were living in Rosenthal in 1906. See the Marriages and Family of the Schuhmacher Johann Wilhelm Ferdinand Sternitzke, 1861 Rosenthal to 1944 City of Breslau.

Marriage of Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke, 1906

In 1906, Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke was an Arbeiter (laborer) living in Breslau at Kletschkaustraße 36 (one block north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 4th block west of the main road to Trebnitz, now Kleczkowska Street). Johann married the Arbeiterin (laborer) Christiane Pauline Scholz in Breslau on the 20th of February in 1906. Their marriage record shows that Johann was a Catholic and Christiane was a Protestant. The marriage record listed Christiane's address as the same as the address where Johann lived. Johann's signature from the marriage record is shown as:

Christiane Pauline Scholz was born on the 30th of October in 1881 at Schön-Ellguth in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Ernst Scholz (who lived in Breslau at the time of the wedding) and his wife Elisabeth (née Hurtig) Scholz (who was deceased and last resided at Rosenthal).

Witnesses at the wedding included the 30 years old Arbeiter (laborer) August Zilonka and the 23 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Hurtig. August Zilonka lived in Breslau at Linnéstraße 15 (north of the Odertor train station, now Andrzejka Struga Street). Paul Hurtig lived in Breslau at Paulinenstraße 5a (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Paulińska Street).

Birth of son Karl Johann Scholz-Sternitzke, 1903

Karl Johann Scholz was born at Rosenthal on the 12th of November in 1903. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 6th of December in 1903. The baptism record shows he was the son of Pauline Scholz, the daughter of Ernst Scholz who lived at Mehlgasse 44 in Breslau (in 1903). The Arbeiterin Pauline Scholz from Rosenthal (probably the child's mother) was listed as the baptismal sponsor. A note on the baptism record states that the child was made legitimate by the Arbeiter Johann Sternitzke on the 16th of March in 1910. See the Family of Karl Sternitzke and Frieda (née Funke) Sternitzke, 1931 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Birth of son Paul Franz Sternitzke, 1906

Johann Sternitzke and Christiane (née Scholz) Sternitzke had a son, Paul Franz Sternitzke (1906-?) who was born in Breslau on the 26th of February in 1906. The birth record listed the father as a Catholic and the mother as a Protestant. They still lived in Breslau at Kletschkaustraße 36.

Birth of son Richard Wilhelm Alfred Sternitzke, 1907

Another son, Richard Wilhelm Alfred Sternitzke (1907-?) was born on the 5th of November in 1907. The birth record listed the father as a Catholic and the mother as a Protestant. They still lived in Breslau at Kletschkaustraße 36.

Birth of son Artur Sternitzke, 1917

A handwritten note on their 20th of February 1906 marriage record (shown below) indicates Johann and Christiane Sternitzke had another son, Artur Sternitzke (1917-?) who was born on the 9th of July in 1917 (record number 1329 in 1917).

Godparents Johann and Pauline Sternitzke, 1931

Ingrid Gisela Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 2nd of January in 1931. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 18th of January in 1931. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter Karl Sternitzke and his wife Frieda (née Funke) Sternitzke, who lived at Matthiasstraße 144 II (second floor). Karl and Frieda were listed as Protestants on the baptismal record. This Karl Sternitzke (the husband of Frieda (née Funke) Sternitzke) may have been Karl Johann Scholz-Sternitzke. See the Family of Karl Sternitzke and Frieda (née Funke) Sternitzke, 1931 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The baptismal sponsors were: the Catholic Arbeiter Max Sternitzke who lived at Kletschkaustraße 21, the Protestant Stütze (domestic help) Hildegard Pohl from Trebnitz, the Protestant Ehefrau Pauline Sternitzke who lived at Kletschkaustraße 21, the Catholic Werkhelfer Johann Sternitzke who lived at Kletschkaustraße 21, and the Protestant widow Martha Biste who lived at Ottostraße 48. The sponsors Johann and Pauline Sternitzke may have been the grandparents of the child: Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke (a Catholic) and his wife Christiane Pauline (née Scholz) Sternitzke (a Protestant).

Deaths of Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke (1882-1941 Lengefeld) and Christiane Pauline (née Scholz) Sternitzke (1881-1944 City of Breslau)

A second note on his marriage record shows that Johann Karl Franz Sternitzke died at Lengefeld on the 24th of January in 1941 (record number 4 in 1941). Lengefeld (about ten miles southeast of Breslau) was the name of a village from 1937 to 1945. It was known as Jäschkowitz prior to 1937 and as Jeszkowice after 1945. A third note shows that Christiane Pauline (née Scholz) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 3rd of January in 1944 (record number 1 in 1944, Breslau Standesamt VIII).

Handwritten notes on a piece of paper, likely a marriage record, mentioning dates and locations: "Geburtsort Breslau Nr. 1329/1917", "Lengefeld 24.1.41", and "Breslau VIII 3.1.44".

1906 notes

Breslau Address Books

The Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Johann Sternitzke lived at Mollwitzer Straße 12 I in 1923 (about 8 blocks east of the main trainstation, now Stanisława Chudoby Street). The Werkhelfer (factory helper) Johann Sternitzke lived at Mollwitzer Straße 12 I in 1926 and 1927.

The Werkhelfer (factory helper) Johann Sternitzke lived at Kletschkaustraße 21 according to the Breslau address books from 1928, 1931 and 1934. There were no related entries in later address books, which would be consistent with a move by the family to Lengefeld after 1934.

Marriage of Johanna Pauline Kanter 19 April 1906 City of Breslau

Johanna Pauline Kanter was born on the 23rd of October in 1881 at Pawellau in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of Gottlieb Kanter and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Kanter. Pauline was born one month before her parents' wedding. The birth record was signed by her grandfather Gottfried Sternitzke. A note was added to Pauline's birth record on the day her parents were married. The Tagearbeiter Johann Gottlieb Kanter acknowledged Johanna Pauline Sternitzke as his daughter. See Book II: the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Paulus) Sternitzke, 1815 to 1882 Pawellau, 1937 Trebnitz.

In 1906, Pauline was employed as a Dienstmädchen (maid servant) and she lived in Breslau at Freiburgerstraße 5 (one block east of the Freiburger trainstation, near the southwest corner of the old city moat, now near Świebodzka Street). Her parents, the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottlieb Kanter und Christiane (née Sternitzke) Kanter lived in the city of Trebnitz.

On the 19th of April in 1906, Johanna Pauline Kanter married the Karl Robert Ilchmann who was employed in Breslau as an Eisenbahnwerkstättenarbeiter (railroad repair shop laborer). The Eisenbahn Werkstätten was two blocks southeast from the main trainstation. The bride and the groom were both Protestants.

Karl Robert Ilchmann was born on the 8th of September in 1881 at Schickwitz in Trebnitz County. He lived in Breslau at Gartenstraße 83 (one block west of the main trainstation, now Piłsudskiego Street). His parents died before their son's 1906 wedding: the Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Ilchmann died at Trebnitz and his wife Johanna (née Titze) Ilchmann last resided at Maluschütz in Trebnitz County.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 23 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Ilsmann (a resident of Breslau at Am Wäldchen 3 and probably the groom's brother) and the 48 years old Maschinist Gottlieb Kanter (a resident of Trebnitz).

See the Marriage of Anna Christiane Pauline Kanter, 23 March 1907 City of Breslau.

He was born on the 30th of August in 1906 (recorded at Breslau Standesamt III, record number 3322 in 1906). The baby was the son of Obstpächter (fruit farmer) Heinrich Knoblich and Marie (née Samietz) Knoblich who lived in Breslau at Neue Sandstraße 13.

The other godparents were the Breslau residents: the Obstpächter (fruit farmer) Wilhelm Knoblich, the Kutscher (coachman) Karl Serff and the Maler (painter) Valentin Mender.

Baptism of Hedwig Anna Emma Knoblich, 1914

Hedwig Anna Emma Knoblich was born on the 19th of January in 1914 (recorded at the Breslau Standesamt III, record number 256 in 1914). She was the daughter of the Obsthändler (fruit dealer) Heinrich Knoblich and Marie (née Samitz) Knoblich. The child was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church on the 15th of February in 1914 (baptism number 29 in 1914).

The baptism sponsors were: the Ehefrau (wedded wife) Emma Sternitzke who was a Protestant from Breslau, the Obsthändler (fruit dealer) Wilhelm Knoblich from Breslau and the Kutscher (coachman) Karl Sess from Breslau.

Baptism of Wenzel Gottskin, January 1920

Alfred Gottskin was born on the 23rd of December in 1919 (recorded at the Breslau Standesamt III, record number 346). He was the son of the Klempner (plumber) Wenzel Gottskin and Helene (née Knoblich) Gottskin. The father was a Catholic. The mother was a Protestant. The baby was baptized at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 24th of January in 1920 (baptism number 24 in 1920).

The baptism sponsors were: Emma Sternitzke, Ehefrau from Eichgrund in Öls County, the Witfrau (widow) Marie Knoblich from Breslau, the Handelsmann (merchant) Wilhelm Knoblich from Breslau, the Schuhmachermeister (master shoemaker) Gottlieb Becke from Breslau, and the Witfrau (widow) Emma Nonda from Breslau.

Baptism of Herbert Willÿ Günther Knoblich, September 1920

Herbert Willÿ Günther Knoblich was born on the 20th of July in 1920 (recorded at Breslau Standesamt III, record number 2444 in 1920). He was the son of the Obsthändler (fruit dealer) Wilhelm Knoblich and Marta (née Klose) Knoblich. The child was baptized on the 12th of September in 1920 (baptism record number 276) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism sponsors were: the Obsthändlerin (fruit dealer) Marie Knoblich from Breslau, and the Witwe (widow) Emma Sternitzke from Breslau.

Marriage of Anna Christiane Pauline Kanter
23 March 1907 City of Breslau

Anna Christiane Pauline Kanter was born on the 1st of September in 1883 at Bentkau in Trebnitz County. Bentkau is about ¼ mile south of Trebnitz on the main road to Breslau. It is now known as Będkowo, Poland. Anna was the daughter of Gottlieb Kanter and Christiane (née Sternitzke) Kanter. See the above transcription of the 18 April 1906 marriage record for Anna's sister Johanna Pauline Kanter. See Book II: the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Anna Rosina (née Paulus) Sternitzke, 1815 to 1882 Pawellau, 1937 Trebnitz.

In 1907, Anna was employed as a Näherin (seamstress) and she lived in Breslau at Telegraphenstraße 3 (2 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Legionów Street). Her father and mother lived in the city of Trebnitz, where her father was occupied as an Arbeiter (laborer).

On the 23rd of March in 1907, Anna Christiane Pauline Kanter married Wilhelm Paul Bartsch. The bride was a Protestant. The groom was a Catholic. Wilhelm Paul Bartsch was born on the 14th of June in 1884 at Queitsch in Schweidnitz County. He was the son of August Stephan Bartsch and his wife Anna Berta (née Kappe) Bartsch.

In 1907, Wilhelm Paul Bartsch was employed as an Arbeiter (laborer) and lived in Breslau at Schweidnitzer-Stadtgraben 10 (across the street from the old city moat, south side of the old city, now Podwale Street). His parents also lived in Breslau, and his father was employed as a Hausdiener (male servant).

Witnesses at the wedding included the 44 years old Hausdiener August Bartsch, (probably the groom's father, a resident of Breslau at Schwiednitzer-Stadtgraben 10) and the 49 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Kanter (probably the bride's father) who was a resident of Trebnitz.

Notes on the marriage record show that Wilhelm Paul Bartsch and his wife Anna Christiane Pauline (née Kanter) Bartsch had a son who was born at Breslau on the 1st of October in 1917. That son was married at Breslau on the 9th of November in 1940.

Marriage, Family and Death of Emma Martha Sternitzke
1908 to 1917 City of Breslau

Emma Martha Sternitzke was born at Gross Cainowe in Trebnitz County on the 8th of December in 1886. She was the daughter of Friedrich Sternitzke (1858-1898) and Johanna (née Schmidt) Sternitzke. The family moved to Breslau between 1886 and 1898, where Friedrich found employment as a Bahnarbeiter (railroad worker). Friedrich and Johanna Sternitzke were gerichtlich gescheiden (legally divorced) before Friedrich died at Breslau on the 10th of October in 1898. See the Deaths of the Brothers Friedrich and Ferdinand Sternitzke, Born 1839 and 1858 Gross Kainowe, Died 1898 and 1900 Breslau.

Marriage of Emma Martha Sternitzke, 1908 Breslau

In 1908, Emma Martha Sternitzke was employed as a Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived in Breslau at Leuthenstraße 49 (about 9 blocks northwest from the old city walls, now Litomska Street). On the 25th of April in 1908, she married the Schmied (smith) August Friedrich Wilhelm Ritter who lived in Breslau at Kurzegasse 27 (shown as Kurze Gasse on an 1896 map, shown as Westend Straße on 1941 map, 5 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street). They were married at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau. The bride and the groom were both identified as Protestants on the civil and church marriage records.

August Friedrich Wilhelm Ritter was born on the 18th of June in 1883 at Goidenow (now named Godnowa) in Militsch County. He was the son of the Maurer (bricklayer) Friedrich Ritter and his wife Johanna (née Geil) Ritter, who had both died at Goidenowe prior to their son's wedding.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 41 years old Kellermeister (keeper of the winecellar) Gustav Ludwig and the 45 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Ritter. Gustav Ludwig lived at Willmannstraße 14 (5 blocks west from the old city walls, now Szczepińska Street). Hermann Ritter lived in Breslau at the same address listed for the groom: Kurzegasse 27.

Birth of daughter Hanna Gertrud Ritter, 1909 Breslau

Hanna Gertrud Ritter was born at Breslau on the 6th of October in 1909. Her parents, the Schmied (smith) August Friedrich Wilhelm Ritter and his wife Emma Martha (née Sternitzke) Ritter were both Protestants. They lived in Breslau at Westendstraße 29 (Kurze Gasse on 1896 map, 8 blocks northwest of old city walls, now Zachodnia Street).

Birth and Marriage of son Artur Hermann Ritter, 1913 & 1938

Artur Hermann Ritter was born at Breslau in the family home on the 12th of August in 1913. He was the son of the Schmied (smith) August Friedrich Wilhelm Ritter and his wife Emma Martha (née Sternitzke) Ritter. They were both Protestant. They lived at Mariannenstraße 1 (now Trzemeska Street, 5 blocks west of the old city walls). A note on the birth record shows Artur Hermann Ritter was married at Hennigsdorf in Trebnitz County (marriage record number 6 in 1938).

Birth of daughter Gerda Martha Ritter, 1915 Breslau

Gerda Martha Ritter was born at Breslau on the 30th of April in 1915. She was the daughter of the Schmied (smith) August Ritter and his wife Martha (née Sternitzke) Ritter. They were both Protestants. They lived at Mariannenstraße 3 (now Trzemeska Street, 5 blocks west of the old city walls). The baptismal sponsors were Emma Löchel and Anna née Sternitzke. The record did not include the married name for Anna née Sternitzke.

Death of Emma Martha (née Sternitzke) Ritter, 1917 Breslau

Emma Martha (née Sternitzke) Ritter died at the Hospitals zu Allerheiligen in Breslau on the 24th of August in 1917. She was 30 years and 8 months old. She was identified as a Protestant on her death record. Her husband, the Schmied (smith) August Ritter was listed as a resident of Breslau. Her parents were identified as the Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Friedrich Sternitzke and his wife Johanna (née Schmidt) Sternitzke, who were both deceased.

Marriage of Emma Pauline Schipke 29 April 1908 City of Breslau

Emma Pauline Schipke was born at Groß Peterwitz in Trebnitz County on the 22nd of July in 1880. She was the daughter of the Freigutsbesitzer (free owner of a homestead) August Schipke and his wife Ernstine (née Sternitzke) Schipke. See the Marriage and Family of Ernestine Johanne Louise (née Sternitzke) Schipke, 1875 to 1880 Groß Peterwitz, 1888 Rawitsch (Posen), 1908 Breslau.

In 1908, Emma Pauline Schipke was living in Breslau at Lützowstraße 15 (7 blocks northeast from the main trainstation, now Miernicza Street). Her father had died at Groß Peterwitz before that year, and her mother had remarried to a Müllermeister (master miller) named Mr. Mitzon. Mr. Mitzon had also died prior 29 April 1908 and Ernstine née Sternitzke was living in Breslau (probably with her daughter Emma).

On the 29th of April in 1908, Emma Pauline Schipke married the Kaufmann (merchant) Karl Bartold Adolf Hendrich at Breslau. Both the bride and the groom were identified as Protestants on the marriage record. Karl lived in Breslau at Friedrichstraße 78 (4 blocks southwest from the old city walls, now Koiejowa Street). He was the son of the deceased Breslau Fleischermeister (master butcher) Karl Hendrich and his wife Maria née Tesch, who was still a resident of Breslau at the time of her son's wedding.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 59 years old Bauergutsbesitzer und Amtsvorsteher-Stellvertreter (farmstead owner and Deputy Chief Administrator) Eduard Nitschke and the 42 years old Kaufmann (merchant) Max Hendrich. Eduard Nitschke lived at Gross-Peterwitz in Trebnitz County. Max Hendrich lived in Breslau at Rosenthalerstraße 45 (4 blocks north of the University Bridge, now Pomorska Street).

A handwritten note on the marriage record indicated the couple were divorced on the 14th of December in 1911.

Family of Anna (née Sternitzke) Hindemith 1908 to 1919 City of Breslau

There is evidence that Anna (née Sternitzke) Hindemith was related to Bertha (née Sternitzke) Koschel. They were probably cousins. The Köchin Jungfrau (cook and single woman) Bertha Sternitzke from Obernigk married the Kesselheizer (boiler stoker) Gustav Koschel on the 16th of December in 1896. The Köchin Anna Sternitzke was a baptismal sponsor for three children of Bertha (née Sternitzke) Koschel, in 1899, 1900 and 1902. The Arbeiterfrau Anna Hindemith was a baptismal sponsor for Fritz Max Richard Koschel, a son of Bertha (née Sternitzke) Koschel in 1908.

Bertha (née Sternitzke) Koschel was probably Johanna Louise Bertha Sternitzke who was baptized at Obernigk on the 12th of July in 1873. She was the daughter of the Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Hermann Sternitzke and his wife Elisabeth (née Paschuntke) Sternitzke from Nieder-Obernigk. See Chapter 2: City of Obernigk in Trebnitz County, the Baptism Records at the Protestant Church in Obernigk.

Anna (née Sternitzke) Hindemith may have been Anna Louise Auguste Sternitzke who was baptized at Obernigk on the 3rd of March in 1879. She was the daughter of Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Anna (née Pachuntke) Sternitzke from Obernigk.

Anna Sternitzke married the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Hindemith before 1914.

Birth of daughter Metha Gertrud Else Hindemith, 1914

Metha Gertrud Else Hindemith was born on the 3rd of February in 1914. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Hindemith and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Hindemith were both Protestant. Metha Gertrud Else Hindemith was baptized on the 1st of March in 1914 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. The Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Hindemith and his wife Anna (née Sternitzke) Hindemith were both Protestant. The baptism sponsors were: the Werkmeister (factory foreman or administrator) Gustav Richter from Obernigk, the Lehrfräuline (apprentice) Marta Koschel from Breslau, and the Witfrau (widow) Elisabet Sternitzke from Breslau.

Martha Koschel was probably Martha Emilie Koschel. Martha was the daughter of the Pferdeknecht (horse groom) Ernst Koschel and his wife Anna (née Hellmann) Koschel from Neuhaus. The Dienstmädchen (servant girl) Bertha Sternitzke from Obernigk and the Heizer (stoker) Gustav Koschel were baptismal sponsors for Martha Emilie Koschel, at the St. Christophori Protestant Church in Breslau on the 11th of October in 1896. Bertha Sternitzke and Gustav Koschel were married on the 16th of December in 1896.

The widow Elisabet Sternitzke may have been Elisabeth (née Paschuntke) Sternitzke who was the mother of Johanna Louise Bertha Sternitzke.

Birth of son Walter Georg Heinrich Hindemith, 1919

Walter Georg Heinrich Hindemith was born on the 12th of July in 1919. His birth was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I. He was baptised on the 20th of August in 1919 (baptism number 124) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. Marriage and Family of Otilie Martha Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Deumert 1909 to 1939 City of Breslau

On the 3rd of September in 1890, the Kutscher (coachman) Gottfried Sternitzke reported the birth of his granddaughter Otilie Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke. She was born on the 31st of August in 1890. Her parents were the Schlosser (mechanic) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke, who lived in Poepelwitz (Pöpelwitz). See the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Leschner) Sternitzke, 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Magdalene Sternitzke, 1909

The ledigen Schneiderin (unmarried seamstress) Otilie Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 (½ mile northwest of the old city walls, now Inowrocławska Street). Otilie was a Protestant. Her daughter was born at the Royal University Clinic at Maxstraße 3

(now Tytusa Chałubińskiego Street east of the Botanical Gardens, the Royal University Clinic is now the Samodzielny Publiczny Szpital Kliniczny Nr 1 we Wrocławiu).

A handwritten note on the birth record indicated Magdalene Sternitzke was adopted on the 8th of February in 1923 and given the surname Deumert, by the husband of Magdalene's mother: the Heilgehilfe (medical assistant) Paul Hermann Deumert who lived at Leuthenstraße 3 in Breslau.

Marriage of Otilie Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke, 1911

The Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Otilie Martha Elisabeth Sternitzke married the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Hermann Deumert at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 10th of November in 1911. The church marriage record (number 147 in 1911) listed the residence of the newlyweds as Westendstraße 60. That was their address listed on the 1912 birth record of their daughter Gertrud Martha Deumert. The church record shows their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I (record number 1075 in 1911). The civil marriage record shows that they were both Protestant and they both lived at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49. That was the same address listed for Otilie in 1909.

The bride's parents, the Maschinist Wilhelm Sternitzke and his wife Martha (née Heinke) Sternitzke were living at Breslau at the time of the wedding.

Paul Hermann Deumert was born on the 6th of September in 1887 at Dittersbach in Lüben County. He was the son of the Auszügler (retired farmer) Wilhelm Deumert (who still lived at Dittersbach in 1911) and Christiane (née Schmidt) Deumert (who died at Dittersbach before the wedding).

The wedding witnesses were the 40 years old Maschinenarbeiter Hermann Heinke and the 45 years old Kapelleister Karl Sternitzke. Hermann Heinke was a resident of Breslau and he was serving in the military at the time. The Kapellmeister (bandleader) Karl Sternitzke, lived at Zietenstraße 21. He was the Musiker (musician) Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke who was a witness at the 1890 wedding of Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke and Martha Anna Rosalie Heinke. See the Marriage and Death of Karl Friedrich August Sternitzke, 10 May 1892 and 1941 City of Breslau.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Martha Deumert, 1912

The Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Hermann Deumert and his wife Otilie Martha Elisabeth (née Sternitzke) Deumert lived at Westendstraße 60. They were both Protestant. Their daughter was born in their home on the 31st of December in 1912. A note on her birth record shows that Gertrud Martha Deumert was married on the 10th of February in 1939, as was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt I on marriage record number 95 in 1939. The same note was written on the 1911 marriage record of her parents.

Marriage and Family of Johanna Auguste Dorothea Sternitzke 19 August 1909 to 1920 City of Breslau

Johanna Auguste Dorothea Sternitzke was born on the 21st of September in 1889 at Auras-Burglehn in Wohlau County. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter (laborer) Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Rosina (née Härtel) Sternitzke. See Chapter 12: Sorgau in Wohlau County, the Family of Ernst Sternitzke and Rosina (née Härtel) Sternitzke, 1875 Sorgau, 1882 to 1889 Auras-Burglehn, 1895 Klein Masselwitz, 1901 to 1913 City of Breslau.

In 1909, Johanna was employed as a Dienstmädchen (servant girl) in Breslau and living at Berliner-Chaussee 161 (the highway from Breslau to Berlin, about 2 miles northwest from the old city walls, now Legnicka Street). Her father had died at Breslau after the wedding of Ernst Hermann Sternitzke in November of 1908 (see above) and before Johanna's wedding in August of 1909. Johanna's mother was still alive and living in Breslau.

On the 19th of August in 1909, Johanna Auguste Dorothea Sternitzke married the Zuschläger (smith hammerer) Paul August Rudnig who lived in Breslau at Berliner-Chaussee 161. Both the bride and the groom were Protestants. Paul August Rudnig was born on the 24th of April in 1885 at Paschkerwitz in Trebnitz County. He was the son of the Arbeiter (laborer) August Rudnig and his wife Johanna Karoline (née Mücke) Rudnig, who were residents of Breslau in 1909.

Witnesses at the wedding included the 25 years old Arbeiter (laborer) Julius Sternitzke and the 38 years old Milchhändler (milk dealer) Johann Bönsch. Julius Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Berliner-Chaussee 169. He was the bride's brother. Johann Bönsch lived in Breslau at Berliner-Chaussee 148. Below is the signature of Julius Sternitzke from the original marriage record.

Handwritten notes on the marriage record provide additional information. Paul August Rudnig and Johanna Auguste Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Rudnig had a daughter, Charlotte Rudnig, who was born on the 21st of March in 1910, as recorded on birth record number 737 at Breslau Standesamt I. Charlotte Rudnig was married in Breslau on the 22nd of December in 1941, as recorded on marriage record 1027 at Breslau Standesamt IV. The Schlosser (mechanic) Paul August Rudnig and Johanna Auguste Dorothea (née Sternitzke) Rudnig were divorced on the 20th of May in 1920 as recorded in Breslau on the 4th of June in 1920.

Death of Marie (née Kroke) Sternitzke
9 December 1909 City of Breslau

Hermann Karl Sternitzke married Anna Marie Kroke at Sulau on the 30th of January in 1883. Carl Hermann Sternitzke was born in 1855. He was the son of Karl Friedrich Sternitzke (Karl Friedrich Sterniski, Gen.X-266, 1832-1876) and Johanna Karoline Sille. Karl Friedrich Sterniski was the Erb-Kretschambesitzer (hereditary inn owner) at Domnowitz. See the Chapter 6, Militsch County in the Breslau District, Town of Sulau in Militsch County: the Marriage and Family of Carl Hermann Sternitzke, 1882 & 1883 Sulau.

Anna Marie Kroke was born in 1861. She was the daughter of Mattaues (Matthias) Kroke and Beate (née Lachmann) Kroke.

Death of wife Marie (née Kroke) Sternitzke (1861-1909)

Marie (née Kroke) Sternitzke was 48 years and 10 months old when she died at the Breslau Allerheiligen Hospital on the 9th of December in 1909. Based on her age, she was born around the 9th of February in 1861. She was born at Peterkaschütz in Militsch County, the daughter of the Stellenbesitzer (property owner) Matthias Kroke and his wife Berte (née Lachmann) Kroke, who both died at Peterkaschütz prior to the death of their daughter. Peterkaschütz was renamed as Lachmannshofen in 1937 and is now named Piotrkosice, Poland.

Marie (née Kroke) Sternitzke was the wife of the Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Sternitzke, who was still living in Breslau when his wife died. They lived at Kletschkaustraße 27 (one block north of the Odertor Trainstation on the north side of the city, in the 4th block west of the main road to Trebnitz, now Kleczkowska Street).

Breslau Address Book 1914 to 1916

The Arbeiter (laborer) Hermann Sternitzke was listed in Breslau address books as still living at Kletschkaustraße 27 IV (fourth floor) in 1914 and 1916.

Deaths of Gottlieb and Anna Christiane Sternitzke 1910 & 1911 City of Breslau

Gottlieb Sternitzke (1832-1911) was born at Briesche on the 26th of January in 1832, the son of Johann Sternitzke (SN321) and Susanna (née Knur) Sternitzke. Johann Gottlieb Sternitzke and Anna Christiane (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke (1833-1910) were married at Peterwitz on the 2nd of November of 1858. Her maiden name was also Sternitzke. Anna Christiane was born at Peterwitz on the 17th of April of 1833. See the Family of Johann Christian Sternitzke, 1816 Trebnitz, 1821 & 1833 Peterwitz. Anna Christiane preceded her husband in death, dying at Breslau on the 21st of March in 1910. Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Breslau in April of 1911. See the Birth and Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke 1832 to 1877 Briesche.

Prior to their move from Briesche to Breslau, Gottlieb and Anna Christiane Sternitzke had at least four children who were born at Briesche: Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke in 1862, Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke in 1863, Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke in 1870 and Reinhold Fritz Adolf Sternitzke in 1877. There is evidence that shows they had a fifth child who was born at Briesche: Otilie Sternitzke was born in 1859.

Reinhold Fritz Richard Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 2nd of October in 1889. He was the son of the a Ledigen (an unmarried woman) Otilie Sternitzke. She was a Protestant and she was employed as a Köchin (cook). She lived at Mehlgasse 17 (now Ludwika Rydygiera Street, about 3 blocks north of the University Bridge). A Hebamme (midwife) named Ernestine Gregor signed this birth record on 5 October 1889. Ernestine Gregor lived at Mehlgasse 5. A handwritten note at the bottom of his birth record identified the second marriage of Reinhold Fritz Richard Sternitzke on the 13th of August in 1938 at Potsdam.

Richard Fritz Reinhold Sternitzke was baptized on the 4th of October in 1889 at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church. His mother, Otilie Sternitzke lived at Mehlgasse 17a at that time. Otilie was the daughter of the Arbeiter Gottlieb Sternitzke who lived in Breslau. The baptismal sponsors were: the Dienstmädchen Bertha Sternitzke and the Bäcker Heinrich Sternitzke from Lissa.

The baptismal sponsor Bertha Sternitzke was Otilie's sister Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke who was born at Briesche in 1870 and married Simon Sura in Breslau on the 6th of July in 1893. See the Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau. The baptismal sponsor Heinrich Sternitzke was Otilie's brother Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke who was born at Briesche between the 12th of January and the 4th of May in 1863. See the Family of Karl Heinrich Julius Sternitzke and Bertha Luise Anna Klara (née Hartmann) Sternitzke, 1895 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The Arbeiter Tochter (daughter of a laborer) Otilie Sternitzke who lived at Mehlgass 57 was one of the baptismal sponsors for Frieda Auguste Bertha Sternitzke on the 14th of March in 1893. The baby was the daughter of the Hilfsweichensteller (assistant railroad switchman) Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (a Protestant) from Klein Tschansch and his wife Auguste (née Deutschmann) Sternitzke (a Catholic). Hermann Sternitzke was a son of Gottlieb Sternitzke and Anna Christiane Sternitzke.

The ledige Strickerin (unmarried knitting machine operator) Otilie Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 29th of November in 1894, at the age of 35 years and 1 month. That would make her calculated birth date as the 29th of October in 1859. She was buried at the cemetery for the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 2nd of December in 1894. Prior to her death she lived in Breslau at Mehlgasse 57. That was the same address listed in the 1897 Breslau address book for the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke.

Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke (1862-1941) was born at Briesche on the 6th of February in 1862. Hermann's death record shows he married Auguste Rosina Deutschmann on the 10th of January in 1891 at Breslau (recorded at Breslau Standesamt I, record number 9 in 1891). Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 17th of May in 1941. See the Marriage, Family and Death of Hermann Friedrich Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1891 to 1943 City of Breslau.

Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke (who was identified as Bertha Sura on the Breslau records for her births of their children) was born at Briesche on the 15th of July in 1870. She married Simon Sura in Breslau on the 6th of July in 1893. See Book III, Chapter 1: City of Breslau, Marriage and Family of Luise Juliane Bertha Sternitzke, 6 July 1893 to 1929 City of Breslau for the transcriptions of the records of their marriage and the births of their children.

Reinhold Fritz Adolf Sternitzke was born at Briesche on the 21st of January in 1877. Reinhold married Katharina Müller at Berlin on the 13th of October of 1906. Katharina was born on the 27th of October of 1879 at Lyck, Braunsberg in East Prussia. She was the daughter of Thaddäis Müller and Dorothea Fischer.

Reinhold and Katharina (née Müller) Sternitzke had a son, Fritz Adolf Sternitzke, who was born in Berlin on the 27th of June in 1907. Fritz married Anna Ilse Dora Feinbube, the daughter of Wilhelm Feinbube and Anna (née Muth) Feinbube. Fritz and Anna Sternitzke had one daughter: Helga Anna Ilse Sternitzke.

The 1897 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke as a resident at Mehlgasse 57 Parterre (ground floor, 5 blocks north of the University Bridge). Mehlgasse was later named Gustav-Müller-Strasse, and is now named Ludwika Rydygiera Street.

Marriage Vow Renewal, 1908 Breslau

The Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Christiane (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, renewed the marriage vows on the 2nd of November in 1908 at the Erlöserkirche (Protestant Church of the Redeemer) in Breslau. It was their golden wedding anniversary. Their address was listed in the marriage record book as Bismarkstraße 31 in Breslau. The marriage record listed their ages as 76 for Gottlieb and 75 for Christiane. It shows they were married on the 2nd of November in 1858 at Peterwitz in Trebnitz County.

Death of Anna Christiana (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke (1833-1910)

Anna Christiana (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke, the wife of the Arbeiter (laborer) Gottlieb Sternitzke died at their home at Bismarkstraße 31 on the 21st of March in 1910. She died at the age of 76 years and 11 months old. She was a Protestant. Bismarkstraße 31 is now Bolestawa Chrobrego Street, one block south from the Odertor train station and one block east of the train station to Trebnitz.

Anna Christiana (née Sternitzke) Sternitzke was born at Peterwitz in Trebnitz County on the 17th of April in 1833. She was the daughter of the Bauergutsbesitzer (farmstead owner) Johann Christian Sternitzke and his wife Susanna (née Fabische) Sternitzke, who both died at Peterwitz.

Her death was reported by her son the Bäckermeister (master baker) Heinrich Sternitzke who lived in Breslau at Rauschestraße 10.

Death of Gottlieb Sternitzke (1832-1911)

Gottlieb Sternitzke died at Breslau in April of 1911, at the age of 79 years old. The cause of his death was Altersschwäche (old age).

Marriage and Death of Anna Rosina Sternitzke 1910 & 1937 City of Breslau

Anna Rosina Sternitzke was born at Briesche in Trebnitz County on the 10th of March in 1859. She was the daughter of the unmarried Johanna Sternitzke, who married the Arbeiter (laborer) Mr. Nowack after Rosina's birth. Johanna (née Sternitzke) Nowack died at Gräbschen in Breslau County before her daughter's wedding in 1910. A note on her marriage record shows that Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Freitag died at Breslau in 1937. Her death was recorded on number 104 in the 1937 death record book at Breslau Standesamt I.

Anna Rosina Sternitzke married the Brunnenbauer (well digger) Hermann Julius Freitag on the 8th of February in 1910 at Breslau. The groom and the bride were both Protestants. They lived in Breslau at Siebenhufenerstraße 68 (6 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Tęczowa Street).

Hermann Julius Freitag was born on the 8th of July in 1856 at Mittel-Olbendorf in Strehlen County. He was the son of the Steinsetzer (paver of cobblestone streets) Karl Freitag and his wife Christiane (née Böhnisch) Freitag, who in 1910 were identified as both deceased and last living at Brieg.

Witnesses at the 1910 wedding included the 43 years old Zuschneider (fabric cutter for a tailor) Wilhelm Löbner and the 45 years old Arbeiter (laborer) August Pechmann. Wilhelm Löbner lived in Breslau at Forckenbeckstraße 8. August Pechmann lived in Breslau at Bergstraße 1 (about 1 mile west of the old city walls, now Góralska Street).

A note on her marriage record shows that Anna Rosina (née Sternitzke) Freitag died at Breslau in 1937. Her death was recorded on number 104 in the 1937 death record book at Breslau Standesamt I. The death record was signed by the Revieroberwachtmeister der Schutzpolizei (precinct senior watch master of the protection police) Kurt Freitag. Kurt was probably Anna Rosina's son. It shows that Anna Rosina was a widow before she died, and that she had died at home on the 15th of January in 1937. Kurt lived at Weistrizstraße 27 (now Bystrzycka Street, about 2 miles west of the old city walls, in the Pöppelwitz suburb). A separate address was not listed for Anna Rosina, so she probably lived with Kurt Freitag.

Death of Berta Auguste (née Sternitzke) Hirschmann 29 October 1910 City of Breslau

Berta Auguste (née Sternitzke) Hirschmann died at Breslau on the 29th of October in 1910, at the age of 78 years old. Her calculated date of birth was around the 29th of October in 1832. Her death record stated that she was born at Ohlau. She was the daughter of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottfried Sternitzke and Johanne Charlotte (née Polken) Sternitzke. They had died at Ohlau prior to 1910. See Chapter 8, Ohlau County in the Breslau District, City of Ohlau: the Family of the Zimmermann Gottfried Sternitzke, 1823 to 1864 City of Ohlau.

Berta Auguste was a Protestant. The death record was signed by her daughter Ida (née Hirschmann) Mücke, the wife of the Tapeziermeister (master wallpaper hanger) Heinrich Wilhelm Gustav Mücke. See the Marriage of Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann, 15 July 1891 City of Breslau.

Berta Auguste Sternitzke married Wilhelm Hirschmann around 1860. They probably were married at Ohlau. Their daughter Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann was born at Ohlau on the 1st of May in 1864. The marriage record for Ida Helene Bertha Hirschmann listed her parents as Wilhelm Hirschmann and Auguste (née Starnitzke) Hirschmann. In 1891, the family was living in Breslau. Wilhelm Hirschmann was employed as a Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker). Ida Hirschmann was employed as Schneiderin (seamstress) and lived at Hubenstraße 14 (one block southeast from the main trainstation, now Hubska Street).

The 1884 Breslau address book listed a Zigarrenmacher Wilhelm Hirschmann as a resident at Hubenstraße 8 II. The 1897 Breslau address book listed him at Hubenstraße 14 IV, 500 meters east from Kantstraße 4.

At the time of her death Berta Auguste was the widow of the Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker) Wilhelm Hirschmann. The former Zigarrenmacher (cigar maker) Wilhelm Hirschmann was 74 years old when he died on the 19th of November in 1908. He was born around 1834. The civil death record for Wilhelm listed his widow as Auguste Starnitzk. Berta Auguste died at home in Breslau at Kantstraße 4 (now Łódzka Street, about 5 blocks south from the main train station).

The 1884 Breslau address book listed a Zigarrenmacher Wilhelm Hirschmann as a resident at Hubenstraße 8 II. The 1897 Breslau address book listed him at Hubenstraße 14 IV, 500 meters east from Kantstraße 4.

Marriage and Family of Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke 1911 to 1943 City of Breslau

Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 13th of September in 1885. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 4th of October in 1885. His parents were the Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke. See the Marriages, Family and Death of Heinrich Sternitzke, 1870 to 1938 City of Breslau.

Fritz Paul Heinrich Sternitzke was listed as Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke on marriage and birth records in 1911.

Birth of son Walter Fritz Hain-Sternitzke, May 1911

Walter Fritz Hain-Sternitzke was born on the 27th of May in 1911 at the University Clinic at Maxstraße 3 in Breslau. The birth record of Walter Fritz Hain listed his parents as the Güterbodenarbeiter (warehouseman) Fritz Sternitzke and Agnes (née König) Sternitzke. Fritz was a Protestant. Agnes was a Catholic. They lived at Rittersplatz 14 (at the southern bridge to Sand Island, now Plac Biskupa Nankiera). Ritterplatz 14 was one block north from the Neumarkt. Ritterplatz is now named plac biskupa Nankiera.

That record had a couple legal discrepancies. Handwritten notes on that birth record document the results of a court order dated 8 July 1911: Fritz and Agnes were not married at the time of Walter's birth, and the legal name of the mother was Agnes Hain. The legal name of the baby was Walter Fritz Hain. Agnes was apparently also born out of wedlock. Her mother was the widow Johanna (née Hain) König.

A typewritten legal document dated the 9th of July in 1936 followed the birth record in the record book. It was a statement by Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke stating he married Agnes Hain on 20th of June in 1911 and he was the father of Walter Fritz Hain. The legal document shows that in 1936, the Arbeiter (laborer) Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke was living at Matthiasstraße 58 (about 3 blocks northwest from Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street). The legal statement referenced the marriage record for Fritz Sternitzke and Agnes Hain: record number 547 in 1911 at Breslau Standesamt I.

Marriage of Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke, June 1911

The Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) Fritz Heinrich Paul Sternitzke married the Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Agnes Hain at Breslau on the 20th of June in 1911. The bride and groom lived at Ritterplatz 14 in Breslau. The groom was a Protestant. The bride was a Catholic. Their signatures from the wedding record are shown below. Ritterplatz 14 was one block north from the Neumarkt. Ritterplatz is now named plac biskupa Nankiera.

The civil marriage record listed the parents of the groom as the deceased Bäcker (baker) Heinrich Sternitzke and his wife Ernestine (née Kutzner) Sternitzke. Heinrich died at Breslau. Ernestine was still living in Breslau at the time of the wedding.

Agnes Hain was born at Gleinau in Wohlau County on the 10th of February in 1887. She was the daughter of the widowed Tagearbeiter (day laborer) Johanna (née Hain) König., who was still living at Gleinau at the time of the wedding.

The wedding witnesses were: the 34 years old Barbier (barber) Fritz Kluge and the 30 years old Bahnarbeiter Franz Bittner. Fritz Kluge lived in Breslau at Kupferschmiedestraße 26. Franz Bittner lived in Breslau at Hirschstraße 84.

Birth of daughter Frieda Agnes Sternitzke, 1912

Frieda Agnes Sternitzke was born on the 13th of November in 1912. She was baptized at Breslau in 1912. She was the daughter of Fritz Sternitzke and Agnes (née Hain) Sternitzke.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1943

The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Güterbodenarbeiter (warehouseman) Fritz Sternitzke as a resident at Seminargasse 14 I (side house, ground floor). Seminargasse is now named Andrzej Modrzewskiego-Frycza Street. It is on the southern bank of the Oder River, southeast from Sand Island.

The 1915 Breslau address book listed the Giüterbodenarbeiter (warehouseman) Fritz Sternitzke as a resident at Schuhbrücke Nr. 28 & 29 I, now Szewska Street, inside the city walls between the University and St. Mary Magdalene Church. He was listed as a Bahnarbeiter (railroad laborer) at that same address in the 1916 address book.

Fritz Sternitzke was listed as living at Matthiasstraße 58 in the Breslau address books from 1923 to 1943. Fritz Sternitzke was listed as a Tischler (carpenter or tablemaker) in 1926 and 1927. He was listed as an Arbeiter (laborer) in the other years. He was listed as Fritz Stanitzke in 1937.

Marriage of Hedwig Marie Anna Gretschel 28 September 1911 City of Breslau

Hedwig Marie Anna Gretschel was born at Rawitsch on the 30th of October in 1891. She was the daughter of the Maurer (bricklayer) Johann Gretschel and his wife Marie (née Sternitzke) Gretschel, who were both residents of Breslau in 1911. See the Marriage and Family of Anna Marie (née Sternitzke) Gretschel, 1880 to 1891 City of Rawitsch, 1897 to 1911 City of Breslau.

On the 28th of September in 1911, Hedwig Marie Anna Gretschel married the Buchhalter (bookkeeper) Karl Friedrich Paul Branser. They were both Catholics. Hedwig was employed as a Verkäuferin (sales clerk) and lived at Paulstraße 21a (4 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now Michała Wrocławczyka Street). Karl Branser lived in Breslau at Fürstenstraße 12 (third block east of the Botanical Gardens, now Benedyktyńska Street).

Karl Friedrich Paul Branser was born on the 9th of April in 1889 at Breslau. He was the son of the Schuhmacher (shoemaker) Paul Branser, who was deceased and last resided at Breslau, and his wife Florentine (née Hoinko) Branser, a resident of Breslau in 1911.

Witnesses at the wedding were the 29 years old Buchhalter (bookkeeper) Paul Sandeck. And the 42 years old Installateur (installer) Paul Lamla. Paul Sandeck lived in Breslau at Hedwigstrasse 41 (about 2.5 miles north of the old city walls, now Sportowa Street). Paul Lamla lived in Breslau at Kleine Scheitnigerstraße 35 (in the second block east of the Botanical Gardens, now Benedyktyńska Street).

Marriage and Family of Klara Berta Gertrud (née Sternitzke) Sobeck 1912 to 1935 City of Breslau

Martha Berta Klara (née Sternitzke) Sobeck (1889-1962) was born on the 9th of October of 1889. She was the daughter of Karl Sternitzke and Berta (née Bohn) Sternitzke. See the Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.

The MyHeritage.com website shows Martha Berta Klara (née Sternitzke) Sobeck was 22 years old when she married August Johannes Alexander Sobeck in 1912. She was 72 years old when she died in 1962. The website shows they had 3 children: Rudolf Sobeck and two other children.

Birth of daughter Klara Berta Gertrud Sobek, 1912

Klara Berta Gertrud Sobek was born on the 10th of December in 1912 in the family home at Breitestraße 49/50 in Breslau. Breitestraße 49/50 was at the southeast corner of the Neumarkt. That street is now named Jana Purkyniego Ewangelisty Street. She was the daughter of the Schmied August Johannes Alexander Sobek (a Catholic) and Martha Berta Klara (née Sternitzke) Sobek (a Protestant). A note on the birth record shows Klara Berta Gertrud Sobek was married in 1935 (record number 689 in 1935 at Breslau Standesamt V).

Klara Berta Gertrud Sobek was baptized on the 29th of December in 1912 at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau. The baptism sponsors were: the Fleischer (butcher) Karl Kühnel from Breslau, and the Ehefrau Elise (née Kloos) Sternitzke from Leipzig in Saxony. A review of the Leipzig address books showed several members of the Kloos family lived at Leipzig in 1912. The Schlosser (mechanic) Richard Sternitzke lived at Leipzig from 1910 to 1943. He was listed as a Rentner (retired) in the 1947 and 1949 Leipzig address books. That Richard Sternitzke was probably Richard Carl Hermann Sternitzke who was born at Breslau on the 5th of November in 1883. He was the brother of Martha Berta Klara (née Sternitzke) Sobek (1889-1962). See the Family of Karl and Bertha (née Bohn) Sternitzke, 1880 to 1926 City of Breslau.

Kulturingenieur* Friedrich Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke (c.1887-1943)
1912 to 1943 City of Breslau

The Kulturingenieur (civil engineer) Friedrich Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke (c.1887-1943), died in 1943 and the age of 56 years, so he was born around 1887. His death was recorded in the death registry of the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau. The civil records of his birth, marriage and death have not been found, so the names of his parents or his place of birth have not been identified. The 1941-1944 alphabetical register for burials at the municipal cemetery at Gräbschen shows the Kulturingenieur Friedrich Sternitzke was buried on the 9th of December in 1943. His age was listed as 56 years and 11 months old. He was buried one month before his 57th birthday, so he was born around January of 1887.

Birth and Marriage of daughter Ursula Dora Berta Sternitzke, 1912 & 1937

The first record found for Friedrich Sternitzke was the civil birth record of his daughter

Ursula Dora Berta Sternitzke. She was born at Breslau on the 9th of March in 1912. At that time, the Bautechniker (construction engineer) Friedrich Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke and his wife Anna Martha (née Jesse) Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Alexisstraße 5 (about 8 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Spizowa Street). They were both Protestant. The birth record was signed by the midwife Hedwig Thomanek. A note on the birth record shows that Ursula Dora Berta Sternitzke was married in 1937, as was recorded on the civil marriage record number 5 in 1937 at the Gross Mochbern Standesamt. Gross Mochbern in Breslau County was renamed Lohbrück in 1937 and is now named Muchobór Wielki, Poland. It is about four miles west of the city center of Breslau.

The marriage records from the St. Elisabeth Church in Breslau show Ursula Sternitzke married the Kaufmann Martin Konrad Vogel on the 13th of March in 1937. Ursula Sternitzke and Martin Konrad Vogel were residents of Opperau at that time. Karl Vogel and his wife Gerda (née Sternitzke) Vogel were also residents of Opperau at that time. Ursula and Gerda Sternitzke were sisters. Ursula's and Gerda's children were baptized at the St. Elisabeth Church in Breslau. See the table regarding the Sternitzke Family Births at Opperau in the Town of Opperau in Breslau County.

Birth of daughter Gerda Margarete Anna Sternitzke, 1913 & 1935

Gerda Margarete Anna Sternitzke, was born in Breslau on the 2nd of November in 1913. She was the daughter of the Kulturtechniker Friedrich Wilhelm Ernst Sternitzke and Anna Martha (née Jesse) Sternitzke. They were Protestants and lived in Breslau at Alexisstraße 5. The child was born in their home. Friedrich Sternitzke signed the civil birth record.

1913

A note on the birth record shows that Gerda Margarete Anna Sternitzke was married in 1935. Her civil marriage record was number 27 in 1935 at the Gross Mochbern Standesamt in Breslau County. See the children of Karl Wilhelm Vogel and Gerda Sternitzke the table regarding the Sternitzke Family Births at Opperau in the Town of Opperau in Breslau County. The children were baptized at the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church in Breslau.

Address Books and Business Directories

The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Kulturtechniker (civil engineer) Fritz Sternitzke as a resident at Alexisstraße 5 III (about 8 blocks southwest from the old city moat, now Spizowa Street). That was the same address they lived at when their daughter was born in 1912.

The 1915 and 1916 Breslau address books listed the Kulturingenieur (civil engineer) Friedrich Sternitzke as living at VII Sauerbrunn 3 I (first floor, now Kwasna Street). This address was about 4 blocks south from their address in 1912, and about 12 blocks west of the main train station. The 1916 address book listed his telephone number as 11330.

The 1921 Schlesisches Güter-Adreßbuch included an advertisement for the Sternitzke & Radloff Kulturtechnisches und Vermessungs Büro (civil engineering and surveying office). It had offices in Breslau and Frankenstein in Silesia. Their office in Breslau was at Scharnhorststraße 25 (about 6 blocks south from Friedrich's address at Sauerbrunn 3). Scharnhorststraße is now Osiedlowa Street.

Sternitzke & Radloff in the 1921 Schlesisches Güter-Adreßbuch.

The 1923 Breslau address book shows the Kulturingenieur (civil engineer) Friedrich Sternitzke was living at XVIII Scharnhorststraße 25 (outside and southwest of the old city walls, now Osiedlowa Street), with the telephone number 835. Friedrich Sternitzke also appeared in the business section (Handels-Register) of the 1923 address book. His business partner, Bruno Radloff lived at their branch office in Frankenstein.

Sternitzke & Radloff in the 1923 Breslau Address Book (Business Section).

The 1926 Breslau address book listed the Kulturingenieur (civil engineer) Friedrich Sternitzke as living at Fürstenstraße 97. It also listed his business at that address. His business was listed as the Sternitzke & Radloff Vermessungs und Kulturtechnisches Büro (surveying and civil engineering office). Fürstenstraße 97 was 8 blocks east of the Botanical Gardens, now Grunwaldzka Street.

The 1927 Lower Silesia Business Directory, and the 1927 and 1928 Breslau residents address books listed the Kulturingenieur Friedrich Sternitzke as living at XVI Tiergartenstraße 15/17 (now Curie-Skłodowskiej Street, 5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens). His telephone number was still 835. The Sternitzke & Radloff Kulturtechnisches Büro was listed with the address Ring 19 in Frankenstein, on page 219 of the business directory. The business of Friedrich Sternitzke was also listed under Kulturtechnische Büros (civil engineering companies) on page 353 in the 1927 Lower Silesia business directory. The address for the Friedrich's business was listed as Tiergartenstrasse 15 & 17 in Breslau.

The 1931 Breslau address book listed the Kulturingenieur Friedrich Sternitzke as living at XVI Tiergartenstraße 15/17 (now Curie-Skłodowskiej Street, 5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens). His telephone number was listed as 40435 in that year. The business section of the address book listed his business at Tiergartenstraße 15 with the telephone number 11183.

The Kulturingenieur Friedrich Sternitzke was not listed in the 1934, 1935 or 1937 address books for Breslau. The civil engineering company Sternitzke und Hammerling was listed with an office at Breslauer Strasse 20 in the city of Gleiwitz in the 1936 and 1937 telephone directory for Upper Silesia. The Sternitzke und Hammerling company was listed as specializing in Landeskultur (land management), Tief- und Betonbau (civil engineering and concrete construction).

In 1938, the F. Sternitzke Tief- u. Betonbau (civil engineering and concrete construction) Company operated at Opperau bei Breslau (see the business stamp below). See F. Sternitzke Civil engineering and Concrete Construction, 1938 Opperau.

Marriage and Family of Auguste (née Starnitzkÿ) Seidel 1912 City of Breslau

Auguste Anna Selma Starnitzkÿ (also known as Stanetzkÿ) was born at Rosenthal on the 4th of May in 1889. Her birth was recorded at the Breslau Land Standesamt on the 9th of May in 1889 (record number 554). She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 19th of May in 1889. Her parents were listed on the baptismal record as the Rosenthal Arbeiter (laborer) Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ (also known as Stanetzky) and Selma (née Lachmann) Starnitzkÿ. The baptismal sponsors were: Johanna Vogt the Arbeiterfrau from Rosenthal, Pauline Müller the Arbeiterfrau from Rosenthal and Albert Lachmann the Arbeiter from Rosenthal. See the Birth, Marriage, Family and Death of Karl Wilhelm August Starnitzkÿ/Stanetzki/Stanetzky/Stanetzky/Starnitzki/Starnitzky/Sternitzky, 1861 to 1945 Rosenthal.

Auguste Starnitzkÿ married the Breslau Arbeiter (laborer) Richard Seidel on the 22nd of September in 1912. They were married at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The bride and the groom were both Protestant. They lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 153 (8 blocks north of Sand Island, now Jedności Narodowej Street).

The church marriage record referenced a civil marriage record: Breslau Standesamt III, 20 September 1912, record number 778.

Birth of daughter Gertrud Selma Auguste Seidel, 1912

Gertrud Selma Auguste Seidel was born at Breslau on the 20th of November in 1912. She was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 12th of December in 1912. Her parents, the Arbeiter Richard Seidel and his wife Auguste (née Starnitzkÿ) Seidel lived at Matthiasstraße 153. The baptismal sponsor was the widow Selma Starnitzkÿ from Rosenthal. The baptismal record listed the ladies' names as Starnitzkÿ and Sternitzkÿ.

The widow Selma Sternitzkÿ from Rosenthal was the child's grandmother, Selma (née Lachmann) Starnitzkÿ (the widow of the Arbeiter Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ). The child's grandfather Wilhelm Starnitzkÿ died on the 25th of October in 1911. Selma (née Lachmann) Starnitzkÿ died at Rosenthal on the 10th of October in 1945. Her death was reported by her daughter Auguste (née Starnitzkÿ) Seidel.

Marriage of Johanna Ernestine (née Micknass) Sternitzke 19 May 1913 City of Breslau

The Wirtschafterin (housekeeper) Johanna Ernestine (née Micknass) Sternitzke married the Möbelpolierer (furniture polisher) August Czÿbulinski at Breslau on the 19th of May in 1913. They were both Protestant. Johanna and August lived in Breslau at Lehmgrubenstraße 85 (5 blocks southeast from the main trainstation, now Gliniana Street).

Their 1913 marriage record does not give any information regarding Johanna's previous marriage to a Mr. Sternitzke. He was probably Robert Theodor Sternitzke who was born on the 6th of September in 1861 at Trebnitz. There are three discussions related to the life of Robert Theodor Sternitzke:

- for information regarding his parents, see Book III: Chapter 2, the Family of David Sternitzke and Julia (née Tauchmann) Sternitzke, 1861 to 1899 Trebnitz;
- for information regarding his life at Pawellau, see Book II, Records of Sternitzke Family Events at Pawellau/Paulskirch: the Family of Robert Theodor Sternitzke, 1889 to 1892 Pawellau; and
- for information regarding his later life, see Book III, Chapter 6 Militsch County in the Breslau District, Village of Heidchen in Militsch County: the Family of Robert Theodor Sternitzke, 1893 Heidchen to 1945 Bautzen.

Johanna Ernestine Micknass was born on the 15th of December in 1870 at Tschelentnig in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Freistellenbesitzer (free property owners) Wilhelm Micknass and his wife Johanna (née Kluge) Micknass. Both of Johanna's parents died at Tschelentnig before her 1913 marriage.

August Czýbulinski was born on the 26th of August in 1867 at Kleszewen in Lötzen County of East Prussia. He was the son of the Kütner (cutter) Samuel Czýbulinski and his wife Jaorb (née Czerwonka) Czýbulinski. Both of August's parents died at Kleszewen before his 1870 marriage. Other spellings of Kleszewen include: Kleszczewo (Polish), Kleszewen (1928), Kleszowen (1928), Kleszczöwen (1785), Klöszewen (1818) and Brassendorf (1928-1945).

The wedding witnesses were the 52 years old Messerschmiedmeister (master knife maker) Julius Richter and 51 years old Oberbahnassistent (senior railroad assistant) Fritz Stober. Julius Richter lived in Breslau at Hummerei Straße 43 (now Słodowa Street). Fritz Stober lived at Kreuzburg in Upper Silesia and was serving in the military.

Notes on the original marriage record identified the death records of the bride and groom. The civil death record for Johanna Ernestine (née Micknass) Czýbulinski was number 655 in 1930 at Breslau Standesamt II. The civil death record for August Czýbulinski was number 240 (or 2140) in 1936 at Breslau Standesamt II.

Handwritten civil death records from Breslau II. The top line reads "H. Joh. Czýbulinski Nr. 240/1936. Breslau II." and the bottom line reads "H. Joh. Czýbulinski Nr. 655/1930. Breslau II."

Death of Parania Stanitzka September 1913 City of Breslau

The Arbeiterin (laborer) Parania Stanitzka died on the 7th of September in 1913 at the Krankenhaus der Elisabethinerinnen, a hospital operated in Breslau by the Order of Saint Elisabeth. Parania Stanitzka died at the age of 18 years old, so she was born around 1895. The civil death record was completed with information from the hospital.

Parania Stanitzka was born at Birkoninzki in Galizien (Galicia). She was not married. Her religion was listed as griechisch-katholischer (Greek Catholic). She was the daughter of the Arbeiter Johann Stanitzka and his wife Xania Stanitzka (whose maiden name was not known). Parania's parents were residents of Birkoninzki at the time of their daughter's death.

The information from the hospital may have been inaccurate. I have not located a village or town named Birkoninzki. Stanitzka was the female version of the family name Stanitzke. The hospital staff may have assumed Parania's father was named Stanitzka because that was the variation used by their patient. Stanitzke was a variation that was often confused with other variations:

- See the Family of Herrmann Starniske and Bertha (née Kutzner) Starniske, 1875 to 1903 City of Breslau.
- See the Family of the Schieferdecker Franz Stanitzke/Sternitzke, 1881 to 1943 City of Breslau.
- See the Marriage and Family of Eduard Hermann Sternitzke and Auguste Karoline Gawlitta, 1900 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The 1926 Breslau address book listed the Fleischer (butcher) Oskar Stanitzka, who lived in Breslau at Frankfurter Straße 127. The sort by addresses in that book listed Oskar as O. Sternitzke, Fleischer at Frankfurter Straße 127. He was the son of the Droschkenbesitzer (carriage owner) Wilhelm Sternitzke and Johanna (née Spiller) Sternitzke from Breslau. See the Marriage and Family of Karl Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 18 October 1894 to 1937 City of Breslau.

Family of Maria (née Sternitzky) Angel November 1913 to 1931 City of Breslau

The Zollsekretär (customs secretary) Wilhelm Angel, and his wife Maria (née Sternitzky) Angel lived in Breslau at Hansastraße 13 in 1913. Hansastraße 13 was about one mile east of the old Breslau city moat. It is now named Franciszka Stefczyka Street.

Wilhelm Angel was born at Lublinitz, the son of the Ackerbürger Rochus Angel and his wife Josefine (née Bienek) Angel. His parents died at Lublinitz before their son's death in 1913. Lublinitz was the county seat of Lublinitz County in Upper Silesia. Lublinitz is now named Lubliniec, Poland. An Ackerbürger was a city resident who derived his income from agriculture (an urban farmer).

Death of the Zollsekretär Wilhelm Angel (1863-1913)

Wilhelm Angel died at the age of 50 years and 10 months in his home at Hansastraße 13, on the 23rd of November in 1913. His calculated birth date was the 23rd of January in 1863. He was a Catholic. His death was reported by the Rechtskandidat (law student) Linus Angel, who also lived in Breslau at Hansastraße 13. Linus Angel was probably the son of Wilhelm Angel and Maria (née Sternitzky) Angel.

Breslau Address Books

The 1914 Breslau address book listed the Zollsekretär (customs secretary) Wilhelm Angel as living at Hansastraße 13. The data for the 1914 book was collected before his death in 1913. The 1915 address book listed the Zollsekretär widow Maria Angel as a resident at Auenstraße 23 (now Jana Mikuliczka-Radeckiego Street), about half way between her previous address and the Breslau Botanical Gardens.

The 1918 Breslau address book listed Maria (née Sternitzky) Angel as the widow of a Zollsekretär. She was still living at Auenstraße 23.

The 1923 and 1927 Breslau address books listed Maria (née Sternitzky) Angel as the widow of a Zollsekretär. She was still living at Auenstraße 23. She was listed at Maria Angel the widow of a Zollsekretär in 1931. She was still living at Auenstraße 23 in 1931. She was not listed in the Breslau address books from 1934 and 1935.

There was no mention of a Linus Angel in the Breslau address books from 1914 to 1935. He may have emigrated to the United States or was killed in the First World War.

Marriage and Family of Max Gustav Adolf Sternitzke November 1913 City of Brieg, 1913 to 1943 City of Breslau

Marriage of Max Sternitzke, 1913 Breslau

The Machinist Max Sternitzke (1883-1935) married Elfriede Matzke at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 27th of November in 1913. The groom and the bride were both Protestant. Max Sternitzke was a resident of the city of Brieg at the time. The bride lived in Breslau at Weinstraße 79 prior to the marriage. Weinstraße 79 was about 6 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens. Weinstraße is now known as Stefana Żeromskiego Street.

The church marriage record referenced a civil marriage record: Breslau Standesamt III, 27 November 1913, record number 1118. That record was downloaded and reviewed. It shows that Max Gustav Adolf Sternitzke was born on the 8th of December in 1883 at Schweidnitz. He was the son of the Zimmermann (carpenter) Gottlieb Sternitzke and Pauline (née Rieger) Sternitzke. See Chapter 10, Schweidnitz County in the Breslau District, the Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1882 Schweidnitz to 1913 Breslau.

In 1913, the Maschinist Max Gustav Adolf Sternitzke was living at Brieg. His parents had died at Schweidnitz before the wedding of their son.

Elfriede Mathilda Matzke was not occupied in 1913. She lived with her mother and step-father at Weinstraße 79 in Breslau. Elfriede was born on the 1st of June in 1891 at Breslau. She was the daughter of the Fuhrwerksbesitzer (freight hauler owner) August Matzke and his wife Mathilda (née Foerster) Matzke. At the time of her wedding, Elfriede's father had died at Breslau before Elfriede's wedding. Her mother had remarried, to Mr. Müller who also was a Fuhrwerksbesitzer.

The wedding witnesses were: the 46 years old Fuhrwerksbesitzer August Müller who lived at Weinstraße 79, and the 36 years old Bierfahrer (beer delivery man) Paul Heinze who was a resident at Schweidnitz. August Müller was probably the bride's step-father. Paul Heinze was the husband of the groom's sister Martha Auguste Pauline (née Sternitzke) Heinze. See Chapter 10, Schweidnitz County in the Breslau District, the Family of Gottlieb Sternitzke, 1882 Schweidnitz to 1913 Breslau.

The signatures of the groom, the bride and the witnesses are copied here.

My. Sternitzke
Elfriede Sternitzke geborne Matzke
August Müller.
Paul Heinze.

Birth of son Erwin Adolf August Sternitzke, 1916

Erwin Adolf August Sternitzke was born at Breslau on the 6th of August in 1916. He was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 20th of August in 1916. His parents, the Maschinist Max Sternitzke and his wife Elfriede (née Matzke) Sternitzke lived at Reuterstraße 40 (about 3 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens, now Elizy Orzeszkowej Street). The baptismal sponsor was Frau Martha Heinze from Breslau.

There were two notes on the marriage record of the 1913 civil marriage record of the parents of Erwin Adolf August Sternitzke. The first note indicates the civil birth record of Erwin Adolf August Sternitzke was record number 1748 in 1916 at Breslau Standesamt III, dated 6th of August in 1916. The second note indicates the civil marriage record for Erwin Adolf August Sternitzke was record number 949 in 1942 at Breslau, dated the 30th of November in 1942.

Death of Max Sternitzke (1883-1935)

The Maschinenmeister (master machinist) Max Sternitzke died on the 17th of June in 1935, at the age of 51 years and 6 months. His death was reported by his wife Elfriede (née Matzke) Sternitzke, who also signed his burial record (see below). They were both Protestants and lived at Reuterstraße 31 at the time of his death. The cause of his death was listed as Blutsturz und Herzlähmung (coughing up blood and cardiac paralysis). He was buried on the 21st of June in 1935.

Breslau Address Books 1915 to 1943

The Maschinist Max Sternitzke lived at Uferstraße 9 IV (fourth floor) in 1915 and 1916. Uferstraße is now Fryderyka Joliot-Curie Street on the north bank of the Oder River, near the Peace Bridge (in Polish: most Pokoju, formerly the Lessing Brücke).

The Maschinenmeister (master machinist) Max Sternitzke lived at Reuterstraße 31 (first floor) in 1918, 1923, 1926, 1927, 1928, 1931, 1934 and 1935. He was listed as a staatliche Maschinenmeister (state master machinist) in the 1928 and 1931 address books. He may have worked for the state-owned railroad. The widow Elfriede Sternitzke was listed as the resident at this address in 1941 and 1943. Reuterstraße 31 was 5 blocks north of the Botanical Gardens. It is now Eliza Orzeszkowej Street.

Baptismal Sponsor Elfriede Sternitzke, 1943

The widow Elfriede Sternitzke (who lived in Breslau at Reuterstraße 31) was one of the baptismal sponsors for Dieter Ernst Richard Ruppelt.

Dieter Ernst Richard Ruppelt was born on the 10th of December in 1943 at Breslau. His church baptism record referenced his civil birth record as number 2030 in 1943 at the Breslau Standesamt III. He was the son of the Kaufmann Angestellte (merchant's employee) Johanna Ruppelt who lived at Schloßplatz 2. She was a Protestant and the daughter of the Justizobersekretär (senior justice secretary) Richard Ruppelt, a Protestant who lived at Rybnik in Upper Silesia.

Dieter Ernst Richard Ruppelt was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 19th of December in 1943. The other baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant Behördenangestellte (public employee) Elli Ruppelt from Rybnik, the Protestant Bürolehrling (office apprentice) Irene Leipner who lived in Breslau at Posenerstraße 35/37, and the Catholic Ehefrau Stanislawa Jurczyk from Rybnik.

Death of Anton Heinrich Sternitzkÿ December 1913 City of Breslau

Anton Heinrich Sternitzkÿ was born at Hartau around 1832 (based on his age of 81 years old when he died in 1913). He was a Protestant. He was the son of the Kutscher (coachman) Johann Sternitzkÿ and his wife Johanna Eleonore (née Brückner) Sternitzkÿ. His parents died at Hartau before 1899. See Chapter 13, The Liegnitz District, Hirschberg County, Hartau in Hirschberg County: the Family of Johann Sternitzkÿ, 1827 to 1832 Hartau.

Anton Heinrich Sternitzkÿ (1832-1913) and his wife Susanna (née Binder) Sternitzkÿ (1826-1886) were living at the city of Posen in 1858. Their son, Bruno Heinrich Paul Sternitzkÿ was born at Posen on the 27th of November in 1858. See the Family of Anton Heinrich Sternitzkÿ, 1858 City of Posen. The family later moved to the cities of Glogau and Hamburg. See Chapter 13, The Liegnitz District, Glogau County, City of Glogau: the Family of Anton Heinrich Sternitzkÿ, 1891 to 1924 Cities of Glogau and Hamburg.

The Privatier (retired) Heinrich Sternitzkÿ was living at Hansestraße 13 in 1913. Hansestraße 13 (now named Franciszka Stefczyka Street) is about three miles east of the old city walls in Breslau. He died on the 15th of December 1913, at the Kloster der Barmherzigen Brüder in Breslau at Klosterstrasse 57/59. That was a hospital operated by the Catholic order officially named the Hospitaller Order of the Brothers of Saint John of God.

Emma (née Bernhardi) Sternitzke And Fräulein Emma Sternitzke 1914 to 1943 City of Breslau

Emma Bernhardi was born around 1855 at Zucklau in Oels County. That year of birth was calculated from her age (75 years old) when she died in 1930. Zucklau is now Sokolowice, Poland. The Rentenempfängerin (pensioner) Emma (née Bernhardi) Sternitzke died at Breslau on the 20th of October in 1930. Her death record listed her last address as Tiergartenstraße 9 (now Curie-Skłodowskiej Street, 5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens). The death record was signed by the Konfektionär Ernst Wolf who lived at Kürassierstraße 59. He lived about three miles southwest from Emma Sternitzke, so he was probably her relative and not a neighbor.

Breslau Address Books 1914 to 1943

The Breslau address books from 1914 to 1931 listed Emma (née Bernhardt) Sternitzke as a Maschinenführerwitwe (the widow of a machine operator). In 1914, 1915 and 1916, she was listed at the address Uferstraße 26 II, now Fryderyka Joliot-Curie Street along the north bank of the Oder River, near the bridge named the Lessing Brücke (now named the Peace Bridge, in Polish: most Pokoju). From 1918 to 1931, the Maschinenführerwitwe Emma (née Bernhardt) Sternitzke lived at Tiergartenstraße 9 IV (now Curie-Skłodowskiej Street, 5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens). Her second address was four blocks east of her first address.

The 1931 listing for the widow Emma Sternitzke (who died in October of 1930) may have been due to confusion, or because the data for the 1931 book was collected in 1930 before the death of the widow Emma Sternitzke. An unmarried woman named Emma Sternitzke (probably a daughter) continued to live at that address. The 1935 to 1943 Breslau address books listed a Fräulein Emma Sternitzke who lived at Tiergartenstraße 9.

Birth and Family of Martha Sternitzke September 1914 to 1945 City of Breslau

The baptism record Dietwart Karl Heinz Sternitzke was the source for this discussion regarding the history of his mother Martha Sternitzke.

Martha Sternitzke was born on the 13th of September in 1914 at Breslau. She was a daughter of Martha Sternitzke. In 1945, Martha (the mother) was a widow. Martha (the daughter) was employed as a Putzmächerin (cleaning lady). The mother and the daughter were both Protestant and (in 1945) they both lived in Breslau at Lützowstraße 8 (now Miernicza Street, about ¼ mile from the southeast corner of the old moat).

Birth and Baptism of Dietwart Karl Heinz Sternitzke, 1945

Dietwart Karl Heinz Sternitzke was born on the 15th of August in 1945 at Breslau. He was baptized on the 16th of September in 1945 (record number 23) at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. One of the baptism sponsors was the Ehefrau (wedded wife) Lieselotte (née Sternitzke) Ende, a Protestant who lived at Lützowstraße 8. The Taufberichte was signed by Martha Sternitzke.

Death of Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ (1841-1915) 7 April 1915 City of Breslau

The Rentier (pensioner) Wilhelm Sternitzkÿ died at Breslau on the 7th of April in 1915. He died at the age of 73 years and 11 months, so his calculated birthdate is around May in 1841. He was buried on the 12th of April in 1915. His last residence was listed as Rosenstraße 9 on his church burial record. Große Rosengasse was renamed Rosenstraße in 1873. It is now Juliana Ursyna Niemcewiczka Street, three blocks north of Sand Island.

Kurt Sternitzke

Kurt Sternitzke was born at Brietzen around 1894 (based on his age when he died). He was the son of the Gutsbesitzer (homestead owner) August Sternitzke and his wife Emile (née Gollisch) Sternitzke.

The Breslau 1915 death record of Kurt Sternitzke shows he was an unmarried Kaufmann (merchant) who lived at Viktoriastraße 107 in Breslau before he was called into military service (about 7 blocks southwest of the main train station). Viktoriastraße is now Lwowska Street.

Kurt Sternitzke was a Gefreiter (Lance Corporal) in the 3rd Company of the Reserve-Jäger-Bataillon Nr. 22. Military reports dated the 17th of May and the 5th of June in 1915 listed Kurt Sternitzke (who was born at Brietzen) as severely wounded. His death record shows that he died at the age of 21 years old, on the 14th of May in 1915, at the Reserve Field Hospital number 83 at Skierniewice, Poland. The city of Skierniewice (near the center of modern-day Poland) was in the front line of battles between the German and Russian soldiers during the First World War.

Richard Arthur Emil Sternitzke

Gen.XI-301. Richard Arthur Emil Sternitzke (1880-after 1941) was born at Gross Ujeschütz on the 2nd of March in 1880, the son of Gen.X-271. Ernst Gottlieb Sternitzke (1839-1897, SN87) and Anna Susanna (Tilgner) Sternitzke (1841-1912).

Richard was a teacher. He passed his first teaching examination at Öls on the 30th of June in 1900, and his second teaching examination also at Öls on the 28th of November of 1902. Richard passed the middle school teaching examination at Breslau in 1906, and the Rektor (headmaster) teaching examination at Breslau in 1908. On the 30th of September in 1908, a 28 years old Lehrer (teacher) Richard Sternitzke was a witness at the Breslau wedding of the Volksschullehrer (elementary school teacher) Karl Reinhold Traugott Artur Hoffmann and Amalie Rosalie Maria Biernacki. Richard was living at Gottschallstraße 18 (4 blocks south of the main train station, now Ciepla Street). He was still living at that address in 1943 according to the Breslau address books.

Richard Sternitzke was living in Breslau with his wife Maria (née Christalle) Sternitzke when he was called to military service. Richard served in the Bavarian Artillerie Flak-Zug 174 (Flugabwehrkanonen (Flak) u. Scheinwerfer = antiaircraft and searchlight platoon). He may have been the same Richard Sternitzke (who was born in Gross Ujeschütz and was reported as the lightly wounded Gefreiter (Lance Corporal) in the 10th company, as reported in the casualty report of 28 April 1916.

Richard Sternitzke was listed in the Breslau address books from 1914 to 1943 as residing at Gottschallstraße 18 (now Ciepla Street, 4 blocks south of the main train station). He was listed in the address books as a Lehrer (teacher) from 1915 to 1923, and as a Rektor (school headmaster) from 1926 to 1943. The 1919 Breslau address book listed the Stadt Lehrer und Leutnant in the Landwehr (city teacher and army lieutenant) Richard Sternitzke who lived at Gottschallstraße 18.

Richard was teaching in Breslau at the Evangelische Volksschule (Protestant Grade School) Number 6 in 1929. He was the Rektor (school headmaster) at the Breslau Volksschule #67 (an elementary school for boys) in 1941. The school was located at Steinstrasse 84-88, in the same neighborhood where Richard lived (see the map below).

Marriage and History of the Sattler Karl Sternitzke 1916 to 1937 City of Breslau

The Sattler im Felde (saddle maker in the field) Karl Sternitzke married Martha Schubert at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau on the 10th of April in 1916. The word “im Felde” suggest he was serving in the Army at the time of the wedding. The bride was a resident of Breslau. The bride and the groom were both Protestants.

The residence of the newlyweds was listed on the church marriage record as Ketzerberg. The street named Ketzerberg was 6 blocks east of the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church. The streets in that area are now the location of the Dominikański shopping mall. The church record listed the civil marriage record as record number 224 in 1916 at the Breslau Standesamt I.

1918 to 1937 Breslau Address Books

The 1918 Breslau address book listed the Sattler (saddle maker) Karl Sternitzke as a resident at Götzenstraße 8 Erdgeschoß (ground floor). Götzenstraße is now Owsiana Street, southwest of the old city. The 1923 to 1937 address books listed him at Götzenstraße 2. He was listed as a Sattler und Hausmeister (saddle maker and building superintendent) in 1926. He was listed as a Kriegsinvalide (disabled veteran) from 1831 to 1937.

Marriage of Martha Berta Sternitzke 1917 City of Breslau

The following information is from the 1917 civil marriage record of Martha Berta Sternitzke. See the discussion below regarding data from the 1917 church record of that marriage.

Martha Berta Sternitzke was born on the 7th of July in 1895 at Deutsch Hammer in Trebnitz County. She was the daughter of the Landwirt (farmer) Gottlieb Sternitzke and his wife Karoline (née Hubrig) Sternitzke.

In 1917, Martha Berta Sternitzke was employed as a Stepperin (quilt seamstress) and lived in Breslau at Ohlauer Straße 64 (5 blocks east of the Ring, now Oławska Street). She was a Protestant. Her father had died at Deutsch Hammer before Martha's wedding in 1917, but her mother was still living at Deutsch Hammer at that time.

Martha Berta Sternitzke married the Friseur (barber) Karl Julius Heinrich Riedel at Breslau on the 12th of November in 1917. Heinrich Riedel lived at Schillerstraße 17 in Breslau (about 3 blocks west of the main train station). He was also a Protestant.

Karl Julius Heinrich Riedel was born at Nimpsch in Reichenbach County on the 11th of May in 1883. He was the son of the Kutscher (carriage driver) Julius Riedel and his wife Pauline (née Sauer) Riedel. Both of Heinrich's parents died at Breslau before Heinrich's 1917 marriage.

One of the witnesses at the wedding was the 27 years old Mauer (mason) Karl Sternitzke from Deutsch Hammer. The identity of Karl Sternitzke was verified by the registrar, from Karl's military papers. Based on his age in 1917, Karl Sternitzke born around 1890. He was probably Martha's older brother.

The other witness at the wedding was the 55 years old Friseur (barber) Gustav Hartmann who lived at Hüschenstraße 24 in Breslau. His identity was verified from his Trauschein (his marriage certificate).

According to the marriage record from the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church in Breslau, the Jungfrau (single woman) Marta Sternitzke from Breslau married the Frisör (barber) Heinrich Riedel on the 12th of November in 1917 (church record number 95). The bride and the groom were Protestants. They lived at Schillerstraße 17. Their marriage was recorded at the Breslau Standesamt IV (civil record number 512) on the 12th of November in 1917.

The other baptism sponsors were: the Ehefrau (wedded wife) Klara Sobek from Breslau and Marta Kühnel from Benkwitz (a village southeast from Breslau).

Four members of the Sternitzke family lived at Adalbertstraße 105: Artur Sternitzke, Alfred Sternitzke, Fritz Sternitzke and Elsa (née Baumann) Sternitzke. The relationships between these people are not known, but I suspect Fritz Sternitzke was the husband of Elsa (née Baumann) Sternitzke.

Breslau Address Books 1923 to 1943

The 1923 Breslau address book listed the Artist Alfred Sternitzke as a resident at Katharinenstraße 7 Erdgeschoß (ground floor). Katharinenstraße was inside the old city walls, southeast of the Neumarkt. It is now św. Katarzyny Street.

The 1931 Breslau address book shows that Adalbertstraße ran north from Uferstraße on the north bank of the Oder River, along the east side of the botanical gardens and ended at Michaelisstraße. Neue Adalbertstraße continued north from Michaelisstraße to Matthiasstraße. The house numbers continued in sequence from house number 1 at Uferstraße to Matthiasstraße. House number 105 was in the block north of Michaelisstraße, so it was listed as Neue Adalbertstraße 105.

The 1943 Breslau address book shows the entire street from Uferstraße to Matthiasstraße was known as Adalbertstraße. Adalbertstraße 105 in 1943 was the same building previously listed as Neue Adalbertstraße 105. Adalbertstraße is now Kardynała Stefana Wyszyńskiego Street.

In 1931 and 1934 Breslau address books show the artist Artur Sternitzke lived at Neue Adalbertstraße 105 on the fourth floor.

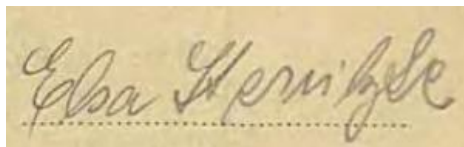

The 1935 Breslau address book listed the artist Alfred Sternitzke as living at Neue Adalbertstraße 105 on the fourth floor. The 1937 book listed the artist Alfred Sternitzke as living at Adalbertstraße 105 on the fourth floor.

The 1943 Breslau address book listed the artist Fritz Sternitzke as living at Adalbertstraße 105.

Death of Ida (née Kindermann) Baumann (1873-1945)

The widow Ida (née Kindermann) Baumann was born on the 13th of May in 1873 at Köthen Anhalt, in Saxony-Anhalt. The 1931, 1935, 1937 and 1943 Breslau address books listed the Musikerwitwe (widow of a musician) Ida Baumann as a resident at Friedrichstraße 54 (fourth floor).

Ida Baumann died at the age of 72 years old on the 27th of October in 1945 from Herzschlag (heart failure). She was buried on the 30th of October in 1945 at Friedhof I. She was a Protestant. Her last place of residence was Adalbertstraße 105 in Breslau. Her death was reported by her daughter Elsa (née Baumann) Sternitzke, who signed the record.

Marriage of Marie Sternitzke
21 May 1921, City of Breslau
and Gebirgsbauden in Hirschberg County

Marie Sternitzke married Alfred Teichmann at Gebirgsbauden in Hirschberg County on the 21st of May in 1921. Their marriage record provided the following information. Marie Sternitzke was born at Groß Neudorf in Brieg County on the 10th of November in 1901. Her parents were not identified on her marriage record, but it referenced her birth record as number 85 in 1901 at the Groß Neudorf Standesamt (registry office).

In 1921, Marie was unemployed and lived in Breslau at Gertrudenstraße 1 (5 blocks southeast of the Botanical Gardens, now named Benedykta Polaka Street). This was the same address where the Briefträger Wittwe (letter carrier's widow) Susanna (née Kulose or Kulosa) Sternitzke lived from 1914 to 1937. Susanna Sternitzke may have been Marie's mother. Susanna was referred to as a Briefträger Wittwe (letter carrier's widow) from 1914 to 1923, and as a Postschaffnerwitwe (widow of a letter carrier) in the address books from 1926 to 1937.

Alfred Teichmann was born at Mittel Zillertal in Hirschberg County on the 3rd of March in 1875. His parents were not identified on his marriage record but his birth record was referenced as number 11 at the Erdmannsdorf Standesamt. Zillertal-Erdmannsdorf was a community in Hirschberg County. In 1921, the Hotelbesitzer (hotel owner) Alfred Teichmann was a resident of Brückenberg in Hirschberg County.

Marriage of Helene Sternitzke
24 September 1921, City of Breslau

The Frisöse (hairdresser) Helene Sternitzke married the Kaufmann Alfred Ernst at the St. Barbara Protestant Church in Breslau, on the 24th of September in 1921. They were both Protestant. The church record shows that the marriage was recorded at the Breslau registry office Standesamt I, as record number 1117 in 1921.

Prior to the wedding, Alfred Ernst lived at Posenerstraße 37 (now Poznańska Street, about 1 mile northwest of the old walls of Breslau). Helene Sternitzke lived at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49, which was the same address listed for her father, the Machinist Wilhelm Sternitzke in the 1918 Breslau Addressbook. Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 was 7 blocks northwest from the old city walls. It is now Inowrocławska Street. Helene Grete Sternitzke was born on the 10th of April in 1897. She was the daughter of Wilhelm Carl Friedrich Sternitzke and Martha Anna Rosalie (née Heinke) Sternitzke.

The St. Barbara marriage record shows the married couple lived at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 after the wedding. The 1923 Breslau address book listed the Kaufmann Alfred Ernst as still living at Friedrich-Karl-Straße 49 in 1923.

Paul Sternitzke and Klara (née Heinze) Sternitzke 1923 to 1934 City of Breslau

The Breslau address books from 1923 to 1934 provide the information regarding Paul Sternitzke and his wife Klara (née Heinze) Sternitzke. Their residence on the fourth floor at Matthiasstraße 18 links them. Matthiasstraße 18 was between the University Bridge and the Hinterbleiche Bridge. That building is now the location of the Hotel HP Park Plaza at numbers 11/13 Bolesława Drobniera Street.

In 1923, the Arbeiter (laborer) Paul Sternitzke lived at Matthiasstraße 18 IV (fourth floor apartment).

In 1926, the Hallenwärter (hall janitor) Paul Sternitzke lived Matthiasstraße 18 IV. A Hallenwärter was janitor (or caretaker) at an indoor dance, sports or banquet hall. Since the data collection was performed in the year before the address book was printed, Paul was still living in 1925. He may have died in 1926, because the 1927 address book listed the Hausmeisterin (janitor) Klara (née Heinze) Sternitzke as the resident at Matthiasstraße 18 IV. A Hausmeisterin can also be translated as a caretaker or building superintendent.

The Breslau address books from 1928 and 1934 listed the Hallenwärtwitwe (widow of a hall janitor) Klara (née Heinze) Sternitzke who lived Matthiasstraße 18 IV.

Marriage and Family of Willi Sternitzke March 1925 to 1943 City of Breslau

The Arbeiter Willi Sternitzke married the Arbeiterin Martha Wittig at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 14th of March in 1925. They lived at Tannengasse 8 II (second floor). Tannengasse (now named Jodłwa Street) is an alley near the northwest corner of the Neumark square.

The church marriage record referenced the civil marriage record number 160 at Breslau Standesamt I, dated the 14th of March in 1925. The marriage was also recorded at the St. Maria Magdalena Protestant Church with a note that the ceremony was held at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau.

Baptismal Sponsor Martha Sternitzke, 1933

The Ehefrau (wedded wife) Martha Sternitzke was one of the baptismal sponsors for Lisbeth Ruth Hildegard Schön on the 22nd of October in 1933, at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. Martha Sternitzke was a Protestant and lived at Waterloostraße 4.

Lisbeth Ruth Hildegard Schön was born in Breslau on the 3rd of October in 1933. She was the daughter of the Arbeiter Josef Schön and his wife Lotte (née Morawietz) Schön who lived at Enderstraße 4a III (third floor). The other baptismal sponsors were: the Protestant widow Anna Jänsch who also lived at Enderstraße 4a, and the Protestant Ehefrau Ida Milde who lived at Bartschstraße 10.

Baptismal Sponsor Martha Sternitzke, January 1939

Erhard Matysiak was born on the 29th of November in 1938. His birth was recorded at Breslau Standesamt III (record number 1956 in 1938). He was the son of the Arbeiter Erich Matysiak and his wife Martha (née Weiss) Matysiak. They lived in Breslau at Matthiasstraße 100. They were both Protestant. Erhard Matysiak was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 15th of January in 1939. The baptismal sponsors were the Protestant Ehefrau (wedded wife) Martha Sternitzke who lived at Elbingstraße 7, and the Protestant Arbeiterin, (laborer) Martha Weiss who lived at Matthiasstraße 62.

Baptismal Sponsor Martha Stanetzki, February 1939

Heinz Lothar Reim was born at Breslau on the 15th of February in 1939. His birth was recorded at Breslau Standesamt V (record number 282 in 1939). He was the son of the Schlosser (mechanic) Hermann Reim and his wife Margarete (née Altmann) Reim. They lived in Breslau at Rebenstraße 12a. They were both Protestant. Heinz Lothar Reim was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church on the 24th of February in 1939. The baptismal sponsors were the Protestant Ehefrau (wedded wife) Martha Stanetzki who lived at Elbingstraße 7, and the Catholic Ledige (unmarried) Elsbeth Bund who lived at Kletschkastraße 11.

Death of Martha (née Wittig) Sternitzke (1898-1941)

Martha (née Wittig) Sternitzke died on the 30th of May in 1941 at the age of 42 years and 6 months. According to the burial record book from the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church, she was born at Breslau on the 8th of November in 1898. Her husband Willi Sternitzke was employed as a Postfacharbeiter (post office box worker) and their address was Elbingstraße 7 III (third floor). She died from Hertzmuskalschwäche (heart failure). She was buried on the 3rd of June in 1941. The burial record referenced her civil death record: number 827, dated the 3rd of June in 1941 at the Breslau Standesamt III.

Breslau Address Books, 1926 to 1943

The 1926 Breslau address book listed the Arbeiter Willi Sternitzke at Tannengasse 8 II (second floor). Tannengasse (now named Jodłwa Street) is an alley near the northwest corner of the Neumark square.

The 1928, 1931 and 1935 Breslau address books listed the Arbeiter Willi Sternitzke at Waterloostraße 4 Erdgeschoß (ground floor, about 4 blocks north of Sand Island, now Franklina Delano Roosevelta Street).

The 1937 to 1943 Breslau address books show that the Arbeiter (laborer) Willi Sternitzke lived in Breslau at Elbingstraße 7 (now Olbińska Street, north of the old city). Willi was still living at this address in 1941 and 1943.

See the Family of Gottfried Sternitzke and Elisabeth (née Leschner) Sternitzke, 1884 to 1943 City of Breslau.

The Schlosser (mechanic) Herbert Sternitzke married the Nätherin (seamstress) Erna Renschin on the 24th of April in 1926. They were married at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau. The marriage record listed the residence of the groom as Friedrich-Karl-Straße 50 I (first floor) prior to the marriage. Friedrich-Karl-Straße is now Inowrocławska Street (northwest of the old city walls). The bride lived at Weißenburgerplatz 8 IV, which was where the couple lived after their marriage. Weißenburger Platz is now plac Słowiański (about five blocks north of the Botanical Gardens). The groom and the bride were both Protestant.

The church marriage record referenced the couple's civil marriage record as record number 172 at Breslau Standesamt III, dated the 24th of April in 1926. The next record on the page of the church marriage record book listed the church wedding of Gustav Renschin and Emma (née Barth) Renschin. The church wedding was 25 years after their civil wedding, which was on the 24th of April in 1901 (as was recorded at Breslau Standesamt II, record number 254). They also lived at Weißenburgerplatz 8 IV, and were probably the parents of Erna (née Sternitzke) Renschin.

Before she married Herbert Sternitzke, Erna Emma Renschin had a daughter who was born out of wedlock. Erika Renschin was born at Breslau on the 10th of November in 1922. Erika was baptized at the Elftausend Jungfrauen Protestant Church in Breslau on the 3rd of December in 1922. Her mother Erna was employed as a Kontoristin (office clerk) and lived at Weißenburger Platz 8. The baptismal sponsors were all Protestant and they all lived at Weißenburger Platz 8. They were: the Kaufmann (merchant) Arthur Renschin, Frau Emma Riedel and Frau Emma Renschin.

Birth and Death of Erika Sternitzke
October 1926 to 1945 City of Breslau

The unmarried woman Erika Sternitzke died at the age of 19 years old on the 23rd of October in 1945 from typhus. Her last place of residence was Burgfeld 12/13. Her burial record listed her birth date as the 6th of October in 1926. She was born at Breslau. She was buried on the 5th of November in 1945. Her death was reported by her grandmother Martha Schweitzer who lived at Burgfeld 9. Burgfeld 12/13 and 9 were near the Allerheiligen Hospital, about 4 blocks west from the St. Elisabeth Protestant Church.

Martha Schweitzer may have been the mother of Hedwig (née Schweitzer) Sternitzke, the wife of Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke. If that is true, then Erika would have been a daughter of Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke. See the Village of Pilsnitz in Breslau County: the Family of Paul Richard Oskar Sternitzke, 1923 to 1945 Pilsnitz.
